The higher level and seasonal variation in the Class II prices provided herein are designed to achieve substantially the same result as the proposed separate classification of milk used for cottage cheese and ice cream. May through August are the months of highest production in relation to sales as evidenced by the quantities of butterfat classified as surplus by the Colorado Springs Milk Producers Association during the years 1954 through 1957. These were also the months of peak production per farm during the same period. The 20-cent discount provided during these months recognizes the fact that considerable quantities of milk would have to be shipped to nonpool plants for manufacture into such comparatively low valued products as evaporated milk, butterpowder, and cheese. Transportation costs on such milk can be minimized by diverting some of this milk directly from the farm to the manufacturing plant but even this process may involve some additional charges. During the other 8 months of the year most of the reserve milk not needed for bottling has commonly been utilized in the handlers' plants for the manufacture of cottage cheese, ice cream and similar products. These constitute comparatively high valued manufactured products, and little or no additional transportation costs would be involved. The higher prices provided during these months will apply to all handlers of Class II milk regardless of the type of products in which they use the milk. It will, therefore, minimize the shifting of operations and the uneven effects which would have been invited by the proposed premium on cottage cheese, and ice cream. At the same time, the higher prices will encourage handlers to add to their operations only such supplies of milk as are required as an operating reserve for their fluid needs rather than adding quantities for purely manufacturing purposes.

Location differentials. Location differentials should be applied to Class I milk received from supply plants or distributing plants located more than 50 miles from the nearest of the City Halls in Colorado Springs, Pueblo or Walsenburg at the rate of 9 cents per hundredweight in the 50–60 mile zone plus 1.5 cents per 10 miles or fraction thereof for distances in excess of 60 miles.

Fluid milk products incur relatively high transportation costs because of their bulk and perishability. Milk delivered directly by farmers to plants in or near urban centers of the defined marketing area is, therefore, worth more to a handler than milk which is received from farmers at the plant located many miles from the market.

Allowances should be made for the cost of moving Class I milk from distant plants that are or might become regular sources of supply. Similarly, the distribution of packaged milk on routes from distant plants involves additional transportation costs as compared with the distribution from plants located in the urban centers and an allowance should be made so that all handlers would be on a competitive basis on their sales in the defined market. The additional transportation cost can be allowed for by establishing a Class I price for milk delivered to plants in or near the marketing area and providing a schedule of deductions from the Class I price as location differentials.

The 50-mile zone, within which the announced Class I prices will apply, will include all plants now serving the market except the three Denver handlers. Denver is approximately 70 miles from Colorado Springs and plants located 70 miles or less from the City Hall in Colorado Springs would have a location adjustment of 10.5 cents, while those just over 70 miles would have a differential of 12 cents per hundredweight. The differential of 9 cents in the 50–60 mile zone and 1.5 cents for each 10 miles additional are based on the experience of handlers in transporting milk in bulk tank. These rates compare with location differentials in nearby order areas, as follows:

1. The Texas Panhandle rates are 35 cents in 100–110 mile zone plus 1.6 cents for each additional 10-mile zone.

2. The Greater Kansas City rates are 16 cents in the 50–70 mile zone plus one-half cent for each additional 10 miles thereafter.

3. The Oklahoma Metropolitan rates are 10 cents in the 50–150 mile zone, 2 cents per each 15 miles in the 150–240 mile zone and plus one cent for each additional 15 miles in excess of 240 miles.

4. The Neosho Valley rates are 10 cents in the 50–60 mile zone plus 2 cents for each additional 15 miles.

5. The Ozarks rate is 1.5 cents per 10 miles distance from the nearest point in the marketing area.

A method is provided for determining the priority on milk received from supply plants in allocating such receipts to Class I for purposes of computing the location adjustments. Class I priority is given to milk received directly from farmers and then in the order of the supply plant's nearness to the market, in order to minimize transportation charges borne by the plant.

The manufactured dairy products are much more storable and concentrated than fluid milk and transportation costs are much smaller in relation to value. Accordingly, no adjustment should be made in the Class II price for distance from the market centers.

In line with the economic considerations which affect the value of milk for fluid market uses when it is delivered by farmers to plants located some distance from the consuming market, it is necessary and appropriate that the prices paid producers delivering milk to plants to which location differentials apply also should be reduced to reflect the lower value (in contrast to its value when delivered to plants in the marketing area) of such milk f. o. b. the point of actual delivery. The producer location adjustments should be at the same rates as on Class I milk, but should apply to all the milk delivered by producers.

Butterfat differentials. The attached order provides that butterfat and skim milk be accounted for separately for classification purposes. It also provides that class and blend prices should be established for milk containing 3.5 percent butterfat. It will, therefore, be necessary to adjust the Class I and Class II and the blend prices in accordance with the average test of the milk in each class or delivered by each producer by butterfat differentials which will reflect differences in the value of the milk due to variations in butterfat content.

The Class I butterfat differential for each one-tenth of one percent that the average test of Class I use varies from the basic test should be determined by multiplying by 0.140 the price of 92-score butter at Chicago. In the absence of an order, milk in the Colorado Springs-Pueblo market has been priced exclusively on the basis of its butterfat content. A butterfat differential equal to 40 percent over the Chicago butter price will continue to allocate a substantial proportion of the value of Class I milk to the butterfat component but will give a specific value to the skim milk component as well. If the data on skim milk and butterfat used in Class I which would become available through the operation of an order demonstrate that readjustment of skim milk and butterfat values is advisable, this could be done by way of amendment.

The Class II butterfat differential should be 0.120 times the price of 92-score butter at Chicago. This will appropriately reflect the values of the butterfat and skim milk components in milk used in manufacturing operations.

The butterfat differential to producers for milk containing more or less than 3.5 percent butterfat should correspond to the weighted average values of the butterfat and skim milk in producer milk utilized by handlers in Class I and Class II. This follows the same principle as the payment of a uniform price to all producers. Each producer shares equally in the total value of the handlers' Class I and Class II utilization, at the basic test of 3.5 percent butterfat. It is equally appropriate that each should receive the average utilization value of the butterfat and skim milk components for milk testing above or below 3.5 percent.

Equivalent price. If for any reason a price quotation required by this order for computing class prices or for any other purpose is not available in the manner described, the market administrator should use a price determined by the Secretary of Agriculture to be equivalent to the price which is required. Experience has shown that market quotations provided in the order may not be available or may be discontinued. It is concluded that provision for such contingencies should be made by providing for a determination by the Secretary of Agriculture of a price(s) equivalent to such quotations or prices.

Payments on unpriced milk. The order should provide compensatory payments with respect to unpriced milk which is allocated to Class I in a pool plant when receipts from producers exceed 110 percent of Class I utilization at all pool plants in the market.

Plant operators must have available a larger supply of milk than is necessary to fill their Class I requirements on any given day. Reserves are needed because production fluctuates seasonally without corresponding changes in the demand for Class I milk. Reserves are also needed to cover short-time fluctuations in receipts and for variations in Class I requirements resulting from 5- or 6-day bottling, the heavy weekend demand at grocery stores, holidays, and similar factors. The reserve milk is commonly manufactured into the more storable and transportable dairy products which are sold in competition with products made from manufacturing grade milk. The existence of this reserve Grade A milk, which must be marketed at a lower price, is a primary element of instability affecting fluid milk markets.

Considerable volumes of Grade A milk are carried as reserve milk and must be disposed of for manufacture by various unregulated plants in the territory adjacent to the Colorado Springs-Pueblo market. The Denver market is, of course, the closest source of substantial volumes of such milk. The large volumes of reserve milk normally available in that market have already been described. This market is not under Federal order regulation and moreover, some of the handlers who would be subject to the Colorado Springs-Pueblo order operate plants in the Denver market from which such supplies would be readily available. Other Colorado Springs-Pueblo handlers could probably obtain Denver reserve milk from independent sources. Similarly situated supplies of reserve milk, although on a smaller scale, are available from plants in Kansas and other parts of Colorado. Since this reserve milk in other markets is ordinarily converted to manufactured dairy products, the seller would ordinarily be willing to market it at any price which would net him more than the manufacturing value. Consequently, handlers under the Colorado Springs-Pueblo order could expect to obtain such reserve milk at approximately manufacturing values as reflected in the Class II price under the order. It is, therefore, appropriate that the compensatory payment on other source milk allocated to Class I should be the difference between the Class II price and the Class I price, adjusted to the location of the plant from which such other source milk was received from farmers. This rate will reflect generally the difference in value between unregulated and regulated milk for Class I use. The payment will, therefore, remove, any competitive sales advantage which the regulated handler might otherwise obtain by substituting other source milk for available producer milk.

The compensatory payment should apply in all months except those in which the market supply of producer milk is inadequate to fill Class I requirements, including an operating reserve of 10 percent. On the basis of past experience, it appears that during those when producer supplies in the Colorado Springs-Pueblo market have not been adequate, the Denver market and other nearby sources have also been in short supply. At such times milk must be obtained from Wisconsin or other distant sources and has commonly cost more delivered to Colorado points than the Class I prices paid to local producers. Under these circumstances, there is no competitive advantage to be gained by the use of other source milk, and compensatory payments would be inappropriate.

It is administratively necessary to use the stated rate of compensatory payment instead of attempting to determine a particular rate in each given case. Pool plant operators may obtain other source milk with little or no advance notice from a wide variety of sources. Any attempt to determine the actual cost of such milk to the regulated handler would be complicated by the number of plants involved, the fact that some of the plants supplying the other source milk might be operated by the same handler in which case the interplant billing would be purely arbitrary, the possibility of arbitrary billing even where the plants were not under common ownership, and the fact that the originating plant would not be subject to the audit and payment provisions of the order. It is, therefore, necessary to have definite and specified rates applicable to all handlers similarly situated. The rates herein provided are those which will best effectuate the intent of the Act under current marketing conditions in the area.

Other source milk used in the form of nonfat dry milk should be considered to be from a source at the location of the pool plant where it is used. In some instances there will be no and in all cases insignificant transportation charges per hundredweight experienced by handlers on such other source milk under the skim milk equivalent basis of accounting provided in the order. By following this procedure, the compensatory payment on other source milk derived from nonfat dry milk will be comparable to that on any other source milk which is allocated to Class I milk.

No compensatory payments are required on milk classified and priced under any other Federal order. The alignment of Class I prices for the Colorado Springs-Pueblo market with those provided under the Southwest Kansas and other adjacent Federal order markets has already been described. It follows that there is little chance that handlers in any one of the markets can achieve any appreciable competitive advantage over handlers regulated by any of the other Federal orders.

Another category of unpriced milk is that sold on routes in the marketing area by handlers operating nonpool plants. These are the plants which are primarily associated with some other market but from which more than 1,000 pounds per day and less than 20 percent of the total Class I sales are within the marketing area.

On the basis of conditions described in the record, three of the Denver handlers would be in this category. Other handlers may, of course, be similarly involved, either now or in the future. With respect to the Denver handlers, there was no proposal for extending regulation to the Denver market as a whole. Producers in that market appeared to be satisfied with their milk marketing arrangements and did not desire a Federal order at this time. On the other hand, neither the producers supplying the Colorado Springs-Pueblo market nor the local handlers had any desire to draw Denver handlers into the Colorado Springs-Pueblo pool. They were concerned only that such handlers not have any competitive advantage based on minimum class prices paid to producers and were not concerned about the possibility that the Denver handlers or any others similarly situated would have any competitive advantage in the procurement of milk through lack of pooling.

The operations of nonpool distributors differ in important respects from the purchase of other source milk by the operators of pool plants. There are only a few nonpool distributors and their sales in the market are on a regular basis, whereas the purchase of supplemental milk for the regulated pool plants would be from many sources and on a sporadic basis. Unlike the operators of plants furnishing supplemental milk, the nonpool distributors would be reporting regularly to the market administrator and would be aware of the terms of the order. Furthermore, at least those nonpool distributors associated with the Denver market have been purchasing their milk under a classified price plan from the Denver Milk Producers, Inc., a cooperative association of producers. The Class I prices charged in the Denver market are substantially higher than those provided herein, although the classification and allocation procedures are substantially different.

It is appropriate that the nonpool distributors have the choice of paying either the difference between the Class I and Class II prices on their sales within the area or any amount by which such operator has failed to pay his Grade A dairy farmers the use value of milk at order prices.

Handlers operating nonpool distributing plants are required to file such reports as will enable the market administrator to verify their nonpool status. Under the second option described in the preceding paragraph (that of making minimum payments to dairy farmers) the nonpool distributor would file a complete report of receipts and utilization. From such reports, subject to audit, the value of his disposition of milk would be computed at the class prices adjusted for location and butterfat content in the same manner as for a pool plant. From this utilization value, the market administrator would subtract cash payments to the Grade A dairy farmers who constitute the regular supply of milk at the nonpool plant. Only such payments would be recognized as had been made to dairy farmers by the 23d day following the end of the delivery month. The payments would be the gross amount paid for milk delivered by farmers to the nonpool plant; the only deductions allowed would be those authorized in writing by the dairy farmers for supplies or services, including hauling. Any amount by which such payments fail to equal the utilization value of the milk would be payable to the equalization fund. In this way, the nonpool plant operator would be fully equated, so far as the utilization cost of his milk is concerned, with the pool plant operators.

The nonpool plant may receive milk from other plants, rather than directly from dairy farmers. If the other plant serves primarily as a receiving station for the nonpool distributing plant, all of the receipts and utilization of milk at both plants can be reported to determine whether the dairy farmers have been paid the equivalent of order prices at other nonpool plants. Milk may be received both from dairy farmers and from other plants. In such instances, the dairy farmer and other source milk will be allocated in the same fashion as if the plant were a pool plant and compensatory payments computed if the other source milk did not come from a plant subject to a Federal order.

The option of paying the difference between the Class I and Class II prices on the quantities sold as Class I in the marketing area should also be available to any handler operating a nonpool plant. Such payment will remove any competitive sales advantage as compared with fully regulated handlers.

The assessment of administrative expense should depend upon which option is chosen by the nonpool distributor. If he elects to pay the difference between Class I and Class II prices on his in-area sales, he should pay administrative expense only on such quantities. However, if he elects the payment-to-dairy-farmers option, he should pay administrative expense on his entire receipts from the Grade A dairy farmers. Obviously, the second option involves fully as much verification of receipts and utilization by the market administrator as at a pool plant. Such verification might well include the checking of weights and butterfat tests of receipts from dairy farmers and of the product sold as well as an audit of the books and records. Also, some of the fully regulated plants could have nearly as large a proportion of out-of-area sales as a nonpool distributor yet be assessed administrative expense on their entire receipts.

(d) Distribution of proceeds to producers—Marketwide pool. Returns from the sale of milk should be distributed to producers through a marketwide pool rather than through individual-handler pools. Under the marketwide pool, all producers regularly supplying the market would receive the same uniform price for their milk regardless of its utilization by the particular handler who received it. This type of pool provides for the uniform distribution among all producers in the market of the sales proceeds from the Class I and reserve supplies of milk.

The Colorado Springs Milk Producers Association, representing the majority of producers supplying milk to handlers located in Colorado Springs, operates a marketwide pool for its members. Also, the Pueblo market has operated a marketwide pooling arrangement through an accounting firm.

A marketwide pool will also accommodate the previously described distribution of milk by Denver handlers without either directly involving the Denver market through complete regulation of these handlers or leaving this Denver milk totally unpriced. It will be recalled that these handlers probably will be operators of nonpool plants under this order and will be subject only to the compensatory payment provisions applicable to such handlers.

The marketwide pool will also contribute to the flexibility of milk marketing in the Colorado Springs-Pueblo area in two important respects. One is that supplemental supplies can be freely distributed among handlers without affecting the prices paid to producers at each plant. The second is that temporary or seasonal reserves can be moved between plants either by transfer of the milk or of the shippers without affecting the prices paid to producers at the individual plants.

Base and excess plan. A base and excess plan should not be used in the Colorado Springs-Pueblo market as a method of distributing returns among producers in such manner as to encourage level production.

For a number of years the majority of producers supplying the Colorado Springs-Pueblo market have been operating under a "closed" base or quota plan. Under this plan total bases were held to approximately each handler's level of Class I sales and new or established producers were allowed to make new base only to the extent a handler might need additional milk to satisfy his requirements. The producers did not know in advance which months would be the base-forming months for use in determining their bases in the following year if the handler allowed the producers to set new bases. In some instances producers were able to obtain or increase their bases by purchasing dairy cows with earned bases and by just buying the base itself.

At the hearing both the handlers and producers favored a base-rating plan under which new bases would be established by each producer each year but with the base-forming months not known in advance. The base-forming months would be the four months of lowest production in relation to Class I sales, as ascertained after the end of the year.

This contrasts with the practice of establishing the base-forming months in advance as is done in all the Federal orders which utilize base-rating plans only to encourage level production. It was contended that with advance notice and an opportunity to set new bases each year, producers would over-respond to a base plan. Clearly, the unknown base-forming period was desired for its effect on total production rather than as a means of leveling the seasonality of production.

The base plan endorsed by producers and handlers would supplant the function which is intended under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act to be performed by the class prices established at the level required by the Act. The Act requires that prices established for milk be such as to assure an adequate supply for the market, reflect supply and demand conditions, and be in the public interest. Consequently, it would be contrary to the purpose of the Act, if order provisions hinder the free action of forces of supply and demand so as to prevent attainment of an adequate supply of milk for the market at price levels which are in line with supply and demand conditions and in the public interest. In view of these considerations as to the purposes of the law under which Federal orders are issued, it would not be proper to establish a base plan which would tend to restrict the volume of milk produced for the market.

It is difficult to predict what responses producers would make to an open base plan after having been under closed bases. It seems likely that they would attribute part of the value of closed bases to the open bases and would, therefore, over-respond to the opportunity to establish bases under the Federal order. In the circumstances, it would not be appropriate to provide a base-rating plan of the open base type. If marketing conditions under an order demonstrate the need for a seasonal incentive plan, appropriate provisions for one could be considered by amendment action.

Payments to individual producers and to members of cooperative associations. Each handler should make final payment to each producer for milk delivered by such producer at the appropriate uniform price on or before the 16th day of the month following receipt of the milk. Provision is made for partial payments on milk received during the first 15 days of the month, such payment to be made on or before the last day of the month.

Payments due any producer for milk should be paid by the handler to a cooperative association if the cooperative association makes a written request for such payment and if the producer has given the cooperative association written authorization, in the form of a contract or in any other form, to collect such payments. The association's request should also provide for indemnifying the handler for any loss incurred because of any improper claim.

Provision is made for handlers to make payments to a cooperative association two days in advance of the time the handler is required to make payments to individual producers in order that all producers will receive payment on approximately the same date.

In making such payments for producer milk to a cooperative association, the handler should at the same time furnish the cooperative association with a statement showing the name of each producer for whom payment is being made, the volume and average butterfat content of milk delivered by each such producer, and the amount of and reasons for any deductions which the handler withheld from the amount payable to each producer. This statement is necessary so the cooperative association can make proper distribution of the money to producers for whom it collects payment.

Unless a cooperative association can receive payment for the milk marketed on behalf of its producer-members, it cannot reblend the sales proceeds from milk sold in various outlets. This important function is specifically provided for in the Act.

Producer-settlement fund. Since the amount which the order requires a particular handler to pay for his milk may be more or less than the amount he is required to pay to producers or cooperative associations, some method of balancing these amounts is necessary. A producer-settlement fund should be established for this purpose. All handlers who are required to pay more for their milk on the basis of their utilization than they are required to pay to producers or cooperative associations should pay the difference into the producer-settlement fund; and all handlers who are required to pay more to producers or cooperative associations than they are required to pay for their milk on the basis of utilization should receive the difference from the producer-settlement fund. Amounts paid into and out of the producer-settlement fund for this purpose will be equal except for minor differences that may result from rounding of uniform prices. In order to permit this rounding of prices, to allow for unavoidable delays in receiving payments from handlers, and to permit payments to be made to any handler which audit by the market administrator reveals is due such handler from the producer-settlement fund, a reserve should be held in the producer-settlement fund at all times. The amount of the reserve contemplated in the proposed order should be sufficient for these purposes. This reserve would be adjusted each month.

If at any time the balance in the producer-settlement fund is insufficient to cover payments due to all handlers from the producer-settlement fund, payments to such handlers should be reduced uniformly per hundredweight of milk. The handlers may then reduce payments to producers by an equivalent amount per hundredweight. Amounts remaining due such handlers from the producer-settlement should be paid as soon as the balance in the fund is sufficient, and handlers should then complete payments to producers.

(e) Other administrative provisions. The remaining provisions are of a general administrative nature, are incidental to the other provisions of the proposed order, and are necessary for proper and efficient administration. They provide for the selection of a market administrator, define his powers and duties, provide for an administrative assessment, prescribe the information to be reported by handlers and set forth the rules to be followed in making the computations required. They also prescribe the length of time that records must be retained and provide a plan for the liquidation of the order in the event of suspension or termination. They are similar to like provisions of other milk orders, and except as set forth below require no comment.

As his share of the expenses of administering this proposed order each handler should pay not in excess of 5 cents per hundredweight with respect to all producer milk received, all other source milk received at a pool plant which was classified as Class I milk, and as discussed elsewhere with respect to a nonpool plant. The market administrator must verify receipts and utilization of all such milk; therefore all such milk should be subject to the expenses of administration. Experience in other markets indicates that 5 cents per hundredweight with respect to all such milk should yield sufficient money to cover expenses of administration. If payment of expenses of administration at the rate of 5 cents per hundredweight yields more money than is needed, provision is made for the Secretary to prescribe a lesser rate of payment from time to time.

Provision should be made for the dissemination of market information to producers, for the verification of weights and for the sampling and testing of milk received from producers for whom such services are not being rendered by a qualified cooperative association. The order should provide that 6 cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as the Secretary may determine, be deducted from payments to such producers for use of the market administrator in financing such services. For producers for whom a cooperative association is rendering such services, the handler should pay to the cooperative association such deductions as the producer has authorized the cooperative to collect. Such payments to be in lieu of those to the market administrator.

Reports are required from handlers on receipts and utilization so that the market administrator may make the computations necessary to the market-wide pooling operation and the uniform price to producers. Handlers are also required to submit payroll reports which would show the details of milk receipts from each producer, the value of the milk received from the producer, deductions therefrom, and net amount paid to the producer.

There are limitations on the period of time handlers shall retain books and records which are required to be made available to the market administrator, and on the period of time in which obligations under the order shall terminate. The provision made in this regard is identical in principle with the general amendment made to all orders in operation on July 30, 1947, effective

February 22, 1949, and the Secretary's decision of January 26, 1949 (14 F. R. 444), covering the retention of records and limitation of claims is equally applicable in this situation and is adopted as part of the decision.

Dates must be prescribed for announcing prices, filing reports and making payments. The following time schedule should allow all interested persons adequate time to perform each function. (These time limits apply to the indicated day of the month following the month for which computations are being made.)

DAY OF THE MONTH AND FUNCTION

6th—Announcement by the market administrator of the Class I price for the current month and of the Class II price for the preceding month.

7th—Submission of monthly report of receipts and utilization by handlers.

12th—Announcement of uniform prices by market administrator.

12th—Notification by market administrator to handlers to the value of their producer milk and amounts due to or payable from producer-settlement fund.

14th—Payment by handlers of amounts due to producer-settlement fund.

14th—Payments by market administrator out of producer-settlement fund.

14th—Payments by handlers to cooperative associations.

16th—Payments by handlers to producers and to market administrator for expenses of administration and marketing services.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs and proposed findings and conclusions were filed on behalf of certain interested parties in the market. These briefs, proposed findings and conclusions, and the evidence in the record were considered in making the findings and conclusions set forth above. To the extent that the suggested findings and conclusions filed by interested parties are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions set forth herein, the requests to make such findings or to reach such conclusions are denied for the reasons previously stated in this decision.

General findings. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and order and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in public interest; and

(c) The proposed marketing agreement and order will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Recommended marketing agreement and order. The following order regulating the handling of milk in the Colorado Springs-Pueblo marketing area is recommended as the detailed and appropriate means by which the foregoing conclusions may be carried out. The recommended marketing agreement is not included in this decision because the regulatory provisions thereof would be the same as those contained in the proposed order.

DEFINITIONS

§ 994.1 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, and as re-enacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

§ 994.2 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture or any officer or employee of the United States authorized to exercise the powers or to perform the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 994.3 Department. "Department" means the United States Department of Agriculture or such other Federal agency authorized to perform the price reporting functions specified in this part.

§ 994.4 Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

§ 994.5 Cooperative Association. "Cooperative Association" means any cooperative association of producers which the Secretary determines, after application by the association to be qualified under the provisions of the Act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act".

§ 994.6 Colorado Springs-Pueblo, Colorado, marketing area. "Colorado Springs-Pueblo, Colorado, marketing area" hereinafter called the "marketing area" means all territory within the boundaries of the counties of El Paso, Pueblo, Huerfano, and Teller, all in the State of Colorado.

§ 994.7 Pool plant. A "pool plant" shall be any plant meeting the conditions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section except the plant of a handler exempted in §§ 994.60 and 994.61:

(a) Any plant hereinafter referred to as a "distributing pool plant", in which fluid milk products are pasteurized or packaged and from which 20 percent or more of the total Class I sales are made on routes in the marketing area;

(b) Any plant, hereinafter referred to as a "supply pool plant" from which during the month not less than 50 percent of its dairy farm supply of milk is moved to a distributing pool plant(s): Provided, That any supply plant which has qualified as a pool plant in each of the months of September through February shall be a pool plant for each of the following months of March through August unless written request for nonpool status is furnished in advance to the market administrator.

§ 994.8 Nonpool plant. "Nonpool plant" means any milk receiving, manufacturing, or processing plant other than a pool plant.

§ 994.9 Handler. "Handler" means:

(a) Any person in his capacity as the operator of a pool plant, or

(b) Any person who operates a nonpool plant from which fluid milk products are disposed of on routes in the marketing area; or

(c) A cooperative association with respect to the milk of its member producers which is diverted from a pool plant to a nonpool plant for the account of such cooperative association. Such milk shall be considered as having been received by such cooperative association at the plant from which it was diverted.

§ 994.10 Producer. "Producer" means any person, other than a producer-handler, who produces milk in compliance with fluid milk product requirements of a duly constituted health authority having jurisdiction within the marketing area, and whose milk is (a) received at a pool plant or (b) diverted to a nonpool plant for the account of a handler. Milk so diverted shall be deemed to have been received by the diverting handler at the plant from which it was diverted.

§ 994.11 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any person who operates a dairy farm and a distributing plant at which, during the month, there is received no other source milk or milk from other producers.

§ 994.12 Producer milk. "Producer milk" means all skim milk and butterfat in milk produced by a producer and received at a pool plant directly from producers or diverted pursuant to § 994.10.

§ 994.13 Other source milk. "Other source milk" means all skim milk and butterfat contained in:

(a) Receipts during the month of fluid milk products except producer milk; and

(b) Products, other than fluid milk products, from any source (including those produced at the plant) which are reprocessed or converted to another product in the plant during the month.

§ 994.14 Fluid milk product. "Fluid milk product" means milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, flavored milk drinks, cream (sweet or sour, including any mixture of cream and milk or skim milk) and concentrated (fresh or frozen) milk, flavored milk or flavored milk drinks which are neither sterilized nor in hermetically sealed cans.

§ 994.15 Route. "Route" means any delivery to retail or wholesale outlets (including delivery by a vendor or a sale from a plant or plant store) of any fluid milk product, other than a delivery to a pool plant or nonpool plant.

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

§ 994.20 Designation. The agency for the administration of this order shall be a market administrator, selected by the Secretary, who shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at, the discretion of the Secretary.

§ 994.21 Powers. The market administrator shall have the following powers with respect to this part:

(a) To administer its terms and provisions;

(b) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations;

(c) To make rules and regulations to effectuate its terms and provisions; and

(d) To recommend amendments to the Secretary.

§ 994.22 Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this part, including but not limited to the following:

(a) Within 45 days following the date on which he enters upon his duties, or such lesser period as may be prescribed by the Secretary, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond, effective as of the date on which he enters upon his duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary to enable him to administer the terms and provisions of the part;

(c) Obtain a bond in a reasonable amount and with reasonable surety thereon covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(d) Pay out of the funds received by §.994.88 the cost of his bond and those of his employees his own compensation, and all other expenses (except those incurred under § 994.87) necessarily incurred by him in the maintenance and functioning of his office and in the performance of his duties;

(e) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for in this part, and, upon request by the Secretary, surrender the same to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(f) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary and furnish such information and reports as may be requested by the Secretary;

(g) Verify all reports and payments of each handler, by audit of such handler's records and the records of any other handler or person upon whose utilization the classification of skim milk and butterfat for such handler depends; and by such other means as are necessary;

(h) Publicly announce, at his discretion, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the name of any person who, within 10 days after the date upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not made (1) reports pursuant to § 994.30 to § 994.32, or (2) payments pursuant to § 994.80 to § 994.88;

(i) Publicly announce by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, and mail to each handler at his last known address, the prices determined for each month as follows:

(1) On or before the 6th day of each month, the Class I price and butterfat differential for the month; computed pursuant to §§ 994.51 (a) and 994.53 (a) respectively;

(2) On or before the 6th day of each month, the Class II price and butterfat differential for the preceding month, computed pursuant to §§ 994.51 (b) and 994.53 (b), respectively;

(3) On or before the 11th day of each month, the uniform price for producer milk computed pursuant to § 994.71, the location differential computed pursuant to § 994.81, and the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 994.82, all for the preceding month;

(j) On or before the 11th day after the end of each month, report to each cooperative association which so requests the amount and class utilization of producer milk delivered by members of such association to each handler receiving such milk. For the purpose of this report, the milk so received shall be prorated to each class in accordance with the total utilization of producer milk by such handler; and

(k) Prepare and make available for the benefit of producers, consumers, and handlers, such general statistics and such information concerning the operations hereof as are appropriate to the purpose and functioning of this part and which do not reveal confidential information.

REPORTS, RECORDS, AND FACILITIES

§ 994.30 Reports of receipts and utilization. On or before the 7th day after the end of each delivery period each handler, except a producer-handler or a handler making payments pursuant to § 994.62 (a), shall report to the market administrator in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator as follows:

(a) The receipts at each plant of milk from each producer, the average butterfat test, and the pounds of butterfat contained therein;

(b) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in (or used in the production of) fluid milk products received from other handlers;

(c) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in receipts of other source milk;

(d) The pounds of skim milk and butterfat contained in all fluid milk products on hand at the beginning and at the end of the delivery period;

(e) The utilization of all skim milk and butterfat required to be reported pursuant to this section;

(f) Such other information with respect to receipts and utilization as the market administrator may prescribe; and

§ 994.31 Payroll reports. On or before the 23d day of each delivery period, each handler except a producer-handler or a handler making payments pursuant to § 994.62 (a) shall submit to the market administrator his producer payroll for receipts during the preceding delivery period which shall show:

(a) The total pounds of milk, the average butterfat test thereof, and the pounds of butterfat received from each producer and cooperative association;

(b) The amount of payment to each producer and cooperative association, and

(c) The nature and amount of any deductions or charges involved in such payments.

§ 994.32 Other reports. Each producer-handler and each handler making payments pursuant to § 994.61 or § 994.62 (a) shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may prescribe.

§ 994.33 Records and facilities. Each handler shall maintain and make available to the market administrator during the usual hours of business such accounts and records of his operations and such facilities as are necessary for the market administrator to verify or establish the correct data with respect to:

(a) The receipt and utilization of all skim milk and butterfat handled in any form;

(b) The weights and tests for butterfat and other content of all products handled;

(c) The pounds of skim milk and butterfat contained in or represented by all items of products on hand at the beginning and end of each month; and

(d) Payments to producers, including any deductions, and the disbursement of money so deducted.

§ 994.34 Retention of records. All books and records required under this order to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of three years to begin at the end of the month to which such books and records pertain: Provided, That if, within such three-year period, the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that the retention of such books and records, or of specified books and records, is necessary in connection with a proceeding under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records, or specified books and records, until further written notification from the market administrator. In either case, the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION

§ 994.40 Skim milk and butterfat to be classified. All skim milk and butterfat at pool plants which is required to be reported pursuant to § 994.30 shall be classified by the market administrator, pursuant to the provisions of §§ 994.41 to 994.46.

§ 994.41 Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in § 994.42 to § 994.46, the classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk. Class I milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat (1) disposed of in the form of fluid milk products except those classified pursuant to paragraph (b) (2) and (3) of this section, or (2) not specifically accounted for as Class II utilization;

(b) Class II milk. Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat: (1) Used to produce any product other than a fluid milk product; (2) accounted for as livestock feed; (3) in skim milk dumped after prior notification to and opportunity for verification by the market administrator; (4) in inventory of fluid milk products on hand at the end of the month; (5) in shrinkage allocated to receipts of producer milk but not in excess of 2 percent of receipts of skim milk and butterfat directly from producers, plus 1.5 percent of receipts of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, transferred in bulk from pool plants of other handlers, less 1.5 percent of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, disposed of in bulk lots to the pool plants of other handlers; and (6) in shrinkage allocated to receipts of other source milk.

(a) Compute the total shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, for each handler; and

(b) Prorate the resulting amounts between the receipts of skim milk and butterfat (1) in the quantity of milk from producers and in bulk tanks from pool plants of other handlers, and (2) in other source milk.

§ 994.43 Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk. (a) All skim milk and butterfat shall be Class I milk unless the handler who first receives such skim milk or butterfat can prove to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should be classified otherwise.

(b) Any skim milk or butterfat shall be reclassified if verification by the market administrator discloses that the original classification was incorrect.

§ 994.44 Transfers. Skim milk or butterfat disposed of from a pool plant shall be classified:

(a) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted in the form of a fluid milk product to the pool plant of another handler unless utilization in Class II is mutually indicated in writing to the market administrator by the operators of both plants on or before the 7th day after the end of the delivery period within which such transfer occurred: Provided, That the skim milk or butterfat so assigned to Class II shall be limited to the amount thereof remaining in Class II in the plant of the transferee-handler after the subtraction of other source milk pursuant to § 994.46, and any additional amount of such skim milk or butterfat shall be assigned to Class I: And provided further, That if either or both plants have received other source milk, the skim milk or butterfat so transferred shall be classified at both plants so as to allocate the greatest possible Class I utilization to producer milk;

(b) As Class I milk if transferred in the form of a fluid milk product to a producer-handler;

(c) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted in the form of a fluid milk product to a nonpool plant located more than 200 miles from the El Paso County Courthouse by the shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator;

(d) As Class I milk if transferred to a nonpool plant in the form of a fluid milk product in consumer packages;

(e) (1) As Class I milk, if transferred or diverted in the form of a fluid milk product, in bulk, to a nonpool plant located not more than 200 miles from the El Paso County Courthouse by shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator, unless the following conditions are met:

(i) The transferring handler claims Class II utilization in his report submitted pursuant to § 994.30;

(ii) The operator of the nonpool plant keeps adequate books and records showing the utilization of all skim milk and butterfat received at such plant and the market administrator is permitted to examine such books and records for the purpose of verification; and

(iii) Not less than an equivalent quantity of skim milk and butterfat was actually used as Class II in the nonpool plant.

(2) If any skim milk or butterfat is transferred to a second nonpool plant under this paragraph, the same conditions of audit, classification, and allocation shall apply.

§ 994.45 Computation of skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each month, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and other obvious errors, the report submitted by each handler pursuant to § 994.30 and compute the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat respectively, in Class I milk and Class II milk at all of the pool plants of such handler: Provided, That if any of the water contained in the milk from which a product is made is removed before the product is utilized or disposed of by a handler, the pounds of skim milk disposed of in such product shall be considered to be a quantity equivalent to the nonfat milk solids contained in such product, plus all of the water originally associated with such solids.

§ 994.46 Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified. After making the computations pursuant to § 994.45 the market administrator shall determine the classification of milk received from producers at the pool plant(s) of each handler as follows:

(a) Skim milk shall be allocated in the following manner:

(1) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class II the pounds of skim milk allocated to shrinkage in skim milk received from producers pursuant to § 994.41 (b) (5);

(2) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class, in series beginning with Class II, the pounds of skim milk in other source milk other than that to be subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (3) of this paragraph;

(3) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class, in series beginning with Class II, the pounds of skim milk in other source milk received from a plant at which the handling of milk is fully subject to the pricing and payment provisions of another marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act;

(4) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class the skim milk received from other pool plants according to its classification as determined pursuant to § 994.44 (a).

(5) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class, in series beginning with Class II, the pounds of skim milk contained in inventory of fluid milk products on hand at the beginning of the month;

(6) Add to the pounds of skim milk remaining in Class II the pounds of skim milk subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; and

(7) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class any amount by which the pounds of skim milk remaining in both classes exceed the pounds of skim milk in milk received from producers in series beginning with Class II. Such excess shall be called "overage".

(b) Butterfat shall be allocated in accordance with the same procedure outlined for skim milk in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Determine the weighted average butterfat content of the Class I milk and of the Class II milk computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 994.50 Basic formula price. The basic formula price for each month to be used in determining the class prices set forth in § 994.51, shall be the higher of the prices computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, rounded to the nearest one-tenth cent:

(a) Determine the average of the basic, or field prices paid or to be paid per hundredweight for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the Department:

Present Operator and Location

Borden Company, Mount Pleasant, Mich.
Carnation Company, Sparta, Mich.
Pet Milk Company, Wayland, Mich.
Pet Milk Company, Coopersville, Mich.
Borden Company, Orfordville, Wis.
Borden Company, New London, Wis.
Carnation Company, Richland Center, Wis.
Carnation Company, Oconomowoc, Wis.
Pet Milk Company, New Glarus, Wis.
Pet Milk Company, Belleville, Wis.
White House Milk Company, Manitowoc, Wis.
White House Milk Company, West Bend, Wis.

(b) The price per hundredweight computed by adding together the plus values pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph:

(1) From the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) per pound of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago, as reported by the Department during the month, subtract 3 cents, add 20 percent thereof, and multiply by 3.5.

(2) From the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the weighted averages of carlot prices per pound of nonfat dry milk, spray and roller process, respectively, for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published for the period from the 26th day of the immediately preceding month through the 25th day of the current month by the Department, deduct 5.5 cents, multiply by 8.5, and then multiply by 0.965.

§ 994.51 Class prices. Subject to the provisions of §§ 994.52 and 994.53, the class prices per hundredweight for the month shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk. The basic formula price for the preceding month plus $2.20.

(b) Class II milk. During the months of September through April the basic formula price for the month, and during the months of May through August the basic formula price for the month less 20 cents.

§ 994.52 Location differentials to handlers. For milk which is received from producers at a pool plant located more than 50 miles by the shortest highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, from the Courthouse in Colorado Springs, Pueblo, or Walsenburg, whichever is closest, and which is classified as Class I milk the prices computed pursuant to § 994.51 (a) shall be reduced by 9.0 cents if such plant is located more than 50 miles but not more than 60 miles from such Courthouse and by an additional 1.5 cents for each 10 miles or fraction thereof that such distance exceeds 60 miles: Provided, That for the purposes of calculating such differential transfers between pool plants shall be assigned to Class I milk in a volume not in excess of that by which Class I disposition at the transferee plant exceeds the receipts from producers at such plant, such assignment to transferor plants to be made first to plants at which no differential credit is applicable and then in the sequence beginning with the plant at which the lowest location differential credit would apply.

§ 994.53 Butterfat differentials to handlers. For milk containing more or less than 3.5 percent butterfat, the class prices pursuant to § 994.51 shall be increased or decreased, respectively, for each one-tenth of one percent of butterfat by the appropriate rate, rounded in each case to the nearest one-tenth cent, determined as follows:

(a) Class I milk. Multiply the butter price specified in § 994.50 (b) (1) for the preceding month by 1.40 and divide the result by 10.

(b) Class II milk. Multiply the butter price specified in § 994.50 (b) (1) by 1.20 and divide the result by 10.

§ 994.54 Use of equivalent prices. If for any reason a price quotation required by this order for computing class prices or for other purposes is not available in the manner described, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to the price which is required.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

§ 994.60 Producer-handler. Sections 994.40 to 994.46, 994.50 to 994.54, 994.70 to 994.72, and 994.80 to 994.88 shall not apply to a producer-handler.

§ 994.61 Exempt plants. The provisions of this part shall not apply to a plant specified in paragraph (a) or (b) of this section except that the operator of such plant shall make such reports of receipts and utilization of milk as the market administrator may require and allow verification of such reports by the market administrator.

(a) Any plant from which less than an average of 1,000 pounds of Class I milk per day is disposed of on routes in the marketing area during the month.

(b) Any distributing pool plant which would be subject to the classification and pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the Act unless (1) more Class I milk is disposed of from such plant on routes in the Colorado Springs-Pueblo marketing area than in the marketing area regulated pursuant to such other order, or (2) such plant was qualified as a supply plant under the other order.

§ 994.62 Handler operating a nonpool plant. In lieu of the payments required pursuant to §§ 994.80 to 994.88, each handler, other than a producer-handler or one exempt pursuant to § 994.61, who operates during the month a nonpool plant, shall pay to the market administrator on or before the 25th day after the end of the month the amounts calculated pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section unless the handler elects, at the time of reporting pursuant to § 994.30, to pay the amounts computed pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section;

(a) The following amounts:

(1) To the producer-settlement fund, an amount equal to the value of all skim milk and butterfat disposed of as Class I milk on routes in the marketing area at the Class I price applicable at the location of such handler's plant, less the value of such skim milk and butterfat at the Class II price; and

(2) As his share of the expense of administration, the rate specified in § 994.85 with respect to Class I milk so disposed of in the marketing area.

(b) The following amounts:

(2) As his share of the expense of administration, an amount equal to that which would have been computed pursuant to § 994.88 had such plant been a pool plant, except that if such plant is also a nonpool plant under another order issued pursuant to the Act, and his Class II sales in such other marketing area exceed those made in the Colorado Springs-Pueblo marketing area, the payments due under this subparagraph shall be reduced by the amount of any administrative expense payments under the other order.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICE

§ 994.70 Computation of the value of producer milk for each handler. For each month, the market administrator shall compute the value of producer milk for each handler as follows:

(a) Multiply the quantity of producer milk in each class computed pursuant to § 994.46 by the applicable class price and total the resulting amounts;

(b) Add an amount computed by multiplying the pounds of any overage deducted from any class pursuant to § 994.46 (a) (7) and, the corresponding step of § 994.46 (b) by the applicable class price;

(c) Add an amount computed by multiplying the difference between the Class II price for the preceding month and the Class I price for the current month by the hundredweight of skim milk and butterfat remaining in Class II milk after the calculations pursuant to § 994.46 (a) (6) and (b) for the preceding month or the hundredweight of skim milk and butterfat subtracted from Class I milk pursuant to § 994.46 (a) (5) and the corresponding step of § 994.46 (b) for the current month, whichever is less;

(d) For any skim milk or butterfat subtracted from Class I milk pursuant to § 994.46 (a) (2) and the corresponding step of § 994.46 (b), and pursuant to § 994.46 (a) (5) and the corresponding step of § 994.46 (b) which is in excess of the skim milk and butterfat applied pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section, add an amount equal to the differences between the values of such skim milk and butterfat at the Class I price and at the Class II price: Provided, That such calculations shall not apply if the total receipts of producer milk at pool plants during the month are less than 110 percent of the total Class I utilization of such plants for the month.

§ 994.71 Computation of the uniform price. The market administrator shall compute the uniform price per hundredweight of producer milk as follows:

(a) Combine into one total the values computed pursuant to § 994.70 for the producer milk of all handlers who submitted reports prescribed in § 994.30, and who are not in default of payments pursuant to § 994.80 for the preceding month;

(b) Subtract, if the average butterfat content of the producer milk included under paragraph (a) of this section is greater than 3.5 percent, or add, if such average butterfat content is less than 3.5 percent, an amount computed by multiplying the amount by which the average butterfat content of such milk varies from 3.5 percent by the butterfat differential pursuant to § 994.82 and multiply the result by the total hundredweight of such milk;

(c) Add an amount equal to the sum of the deduction to be made from producer payments for location differentials pursuant to § 994.81;

(d) Add an amount equal to one-half of the unobligated balance on hand in the producer-settlement fund;

(e) Divide the resulting amount by the total hundredweight of producer milk included under paragraph (a) of this section; and

(f) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents.

The resulting figure shall be the uniform price per hundredweight of producer milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content delivered to plants within the 50-mile zone.

§ 994.72 Notification of handlers. On or before the 12th day after the end of each month, the market administrator shall mail to each handler, at his last known address, a statement showing:

(a) The amount and value of his producer milk in each class and the total thereof;

(b) The uniform price computed pursuant to § 994.71 and the producer location and butterfat differentials computed pursuant to §§ 994.81 and 994.82; and

(c) The amounts to be paid by such handler pursuant to §§ 994.84, 994.86, 994.87, and 994.88 and the amount due such handler pursuant to § 994.85.

PAYMENTS

§ 994.80 Payment to producers. Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, each handler shall make payment to each producer from whom milk is received as specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section:

(a) On or before the last day of the month, to each producer who had not discontinued shipping milk to such handler before the 18th day of the month, an advance payment with respect to milk received during the first 15 days of the month at the Class II price for the preceding month;

(b) On or before the 16th day after the end of each month, for milk received during such month, an amount computed at not less than the uniform price per hundredweight pursuant to § 994.71, subject to the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 994.82 and location adjustment computed pursuant to § 994.81, plus or minus adjustments for errors made in previous payments to such producers and less (1) payments made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, (2) marketing service deductions pursuant to § 994.87, and (3) proper deductions authorized in writing by such producer;

(c) (1) Upon receipt of a written request from a cooperative association which the market administrator determines is authorized by its members to collect payment for their milk and receipt of a written promise to reimburse the handler the amount of any actual loss incurred by him because of any improper claim on the part of the cooperative association each handler shall pay to the cooperative association on or before the second day prior to the date of payment to producers in lieu of payments pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) respectively, of this section an amount equal to the sum of the individual payments otherwise payable to such producers. The foregoing payment shall be made with respect to milk of each producer whom the cooperative association certifies is a member effective on and after the first day of the calendar month next following receipt of such certification through the last day of the month next preceding receipt of notice from the cooperative association of a termination of membership or until the original request is rescinded in writing by the cooperative association.

(2) A copy of each such request, promise to reimburse and certified list of members shall be filed simultaneously with the market administrator by the cooperative association and shall be subject to verification at his discretion, through audit of the records of the cooperative association pertaining thereto. Exceptions, if any, to the accuracy of such certification by a producer claimed to be a member, or by a handler, shall be made by written notice to the market administrator and shall be subject to his determination.

(d) In making the payments to producers pursuant to paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, each handler shall furnish each producer or cooperative association from whom he has received milk with a supporting statement which shall show for each month:

(1) The month and the identity of the handler and of the producer;

(2) The total pounds and the average butterfat content of milk received from such producer;

(3) The minimum rate or rates at which payment to such producer is required pursuant to this part;

(4) The rate which is used in making the payment if such rate is other than the applicable minimum rate;

(5) The amount or the rate per hundredweight and nature of of each deduction claimed by the handler; and

(6) The net amount of payment to such producer.

§ 994.81 Location differential to producers. For milk which is received at a pool plant located more than 50 but not more than 60 miles by shortest highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, from the Courthouse in Colorado Springs, Pueblo, or Walsenberg, whichever is closest, there shall be deducted 9.0 cents per hundredweight and an additional 1.5 cents shall be deducted for each 10 miles or fraction thereof that such distance exceeds 60 miles.

§ 994.83 Producer-settlement fund. The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund known as the "producer-settlement fund" into which he shall deposit all payments made by handlers pursuant to §§ 994.62 and 994.84 and out of which he shall make all payments pursuant to § 994.85: Provided, That any payments due to any handler shall be offset by any payments due from such handler.

§ 994.84 Payments to the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 14th day after the end of each month, each handler who operates a pool plant shall pay to the market administrator any amount by which the value of his producer milk as computed pursuant to § 994.70, is greater than the amount owed by him for such milk at the appropriate uniform prices determined pursuant to § 994.80.

14th day after the end of each month, the market administrator shall pay to each handler any amount by which the total value of his producer milk, computed pursuant to § 994.70 is less than the amount owed by him for such milk at the appropriate uniform price determined pursuant to § 994.80. If at such time the balance in the producer-settlement fund is insufficient to make all payments pursuant to this section, the market administrator shall reduce uniformly such payments and shall complete such payments as soon as the funds are available.

§ 994.86 Adjustment of accounts. Whenever audit by the market administrator of any handler's reports, books, records, or accounts or other verification discloses errors resulting in moneys due a producer or the market administrator from such handler or due such handler from the market administrator; the market administrator shall promptly notify such handler of any amount so due and payment thereof shall be made on or before the next date for making payments as set forth in the provisions under which such error occurred.

§ 994.87 Marketing services. (a) Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler in making payments to producers for milk (other than milk of his own production) pursuant to § 994.80, shall deduct 6 cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as may be prescribed by the Secretary, and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 16th day after the end of the month. Such money shall be used by the market administrator to provide market information and to check the accuracy of the testing and weighing of their milk for producers who are not receiving such services from a cooperative association;

(b) In the case of producers who are members of a cooperative association which the Secretary has determined is actually performing the services set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall make, in lieu of the deduction specified in paragraph (a) of this section, such deductions from the payments to be made to producers as may be authorized by the membership agreement or marketing contract between the cooperative association and its members, and on or before the 16th day after the end of each month, the handler shall pay the aggregate amount of such deductions to the cooperative association, furnishing a statement showing the amount of the deductions and the quantity of milk on which the deduction was computed from each producer.

§ 994.88 Expense of administration. As his pro rata share of the expense of the administration hereof, each handler shall pay the market administrator, on or before the 16th day after the end of each month, 5 cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to (a) all milk received from producers during such month, (b) other source milk received at a pool plant and classified as Class I and (c) the quantities of milk at the plants of handlers operating nonpool plants as specified in § 994.62 (a) (2) or (b) (2).

§ 994.89 Termination of obligations. The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this part for the payment of money:

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this part shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate 2 years after the last day of the month during which the market administrator received the handler's utilization report on the milk involved in such obligation, unless within such 2-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain, but need not be limited to, the following information.

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The months during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to a cooperative association, the names of such producer or cooperative associations, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid;

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this part, to make available to the market administrator or his representatives all books and records required by this part to be made available, the market administrator may, within the 2-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said 2-year period, with respect to such obligation, shall not begin to run until the first day of the month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligations are made available to the market administrator or his representative;

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section a handler's obligation under this part to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed; and

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this part shall terminate 2 years after the end of the month during which the payment (including deduction or offset by the market administrator) was made by the handler, if a refund on such payment is claimed unless such handler, within the applicable period of time, files, pursuant to section 8c (15) (A) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION, OR TERMINATION

§ 994.90 Effective time. The provisions of this part or any amendment thereto, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated.

§ 994.91 Suspension or termination. The Secretary shall, whenever he finds that any or all provisions of this part, or any amendment thereto, obstruct or do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, terminate or suspend the operation of any or all provisions of this part or any amendment thereto. This part shall terminate in any event whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

§ 994.92 Continuing obligations. If upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part, or any amendment thereto, there are any obligations thereunder, the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any person (including the market administrator), such further acts shall be performed notwithstanding such suspension or termination.

§ 994.93 Liquidation. Upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part, the market administrator, or such other liquidating agent as the Secretary may designate, shall, if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, dispose of all property in his possession or control, including accounts receivable, and execute and deliver all assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate any such disposition. If a liquidating agent is so designated, all assets, books and records of the market administrator shall be transferred promptly to such liquidating agent. If upon such liquidation, the funds on hand exceed the amounts required to pay outstanding obligations of the office of the market administrator and to pay necessary expenses of liquidating and distribution, such excess shall be distributed to contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 994.100 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his agent and representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

§ 994.101 Separability of provisions. If any provisions of this part, or its application to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the application of such provision, and of the remaining provisions of this part, to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 4th day of September 1958.

[SEAL] ROY W. LENNARTSON, Deputy Administrator.

FILBERTS GROWN IN OREGON AND WASHINGTON

PROPOSED RULE RELATING TO SALABLE, SURPLUS, AND WITHHOLDING PERCENTAGES FOR 1958–59 FISCAL YEAR

Notice is hereby given that the Secretary is considering establishment of the proposed rule hereinafter set forth pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 115, as amended, and Order No. 97, as amended, regulating the handling of filberts grown in Oregon and Washington (7 CFR Part 997), effective under the provisions of Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

Consideration will be given to data, views, or arguments relating to the proposal that are filed with the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division not later than 10 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposal is that salable, surplus, and withholding percentages of 73 percent, 27 percent, and 37 percent, respectively, be fixed for merchantable filberts handled during the fiscal year which began August 1, 1958.

The proposed percentages are based on the recommendation of the Filbert Control Board and the following estimates, inshell weight basis, for the 1958–59 fiscal year:

(1) Merchantable production of 10,061,000 pounds; (2) uncertified handler carryover on August 1, 1958, of 3,563,800 pounds; (3) total merchantable filberts subject to regulation of 13,624,800 pounds; (4) trade demand of 9,500,000 pounds; and (5) total trade demand and carryover requirements for 1958 crop inshell filberts of approximately 10 million pounds.

The proposed rule is as follows:

§ 997.208 Salable, surplus, and withholding percentages for merchantable filberts handled during the 1958–59 fiscal year. The salable percentage shall be 73 percent, the surplus percentage shall be 27 percent, and the withholding percentage shall be 37 percent for merchantable filberts handled during the fiscal year beginning August 1, 1958.

Dated: September 3, 1958.

[7 CFR Part 722]

1959 CROP OF UPLAND COTTON

NATIONAL MARKETING QUOTA

Pursuant to the authority contained in the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act") (52 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1281 et seq.), including amendments of the act and of the Agricultural Act of 1949 contained in the Agricultural Act of 1958 (P. L. 85-835, approved August 28, 1958), the Secretary of Agriculture is preparing to determine as soon as practicable whether a national marketing quota is required to be proclaimed for the 1959 crop of upland cotton (hereinafter referred to as "cotton"). If such quota is required, the Secretary will also determine and proclaim the amount of the quota and the amount of the national allotment for the 1959 crop of cotton and will issue regulations pertaining to acreage allotments for cotton.

Section 342 of the act provides that whenever during any calendar year the Secretary determines that the total supply of cotton for the marketing year beginning in such calendar year will exceed the normal supply for such marketing year, the Secretary shall proclaim such fact and a national marketing quota shall be in effect for the crop of cotton produced in the next calendar year. It further provides that the Secretary shall determine and specify in such proclamation the amount of the national marketing quota in terms of the number of bales adequate, together with (1) the estimated carry-over at the beginning of the marketing year which begins in the next calendar year and (2) the estimated imports during such marketing year, to make available a normal supply of cotton. Under the provisions of section 342 as amended by section 103 (2) of the Agricultural Act of 1958, the national marketing quota for the 1959 crop shall be not less than the number of bales required to provide a national acreage allotment of sixteen million acres.

Section 342 requires the proclamation of the national marketing quota to be made not later than October 15 of the calendar year in which the determination is made that the total supply of cotton exceeds the normal supply. In order that the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation State and county committees may properly and timely perform their functions in connection with establishing farm allotments for the 1959 crop of cotton, it will be necessary to issue any such proclamation and to determine the national, State and county allotments as soon as practicable.

As defined in section 301 of the act for purposes of the determinations provided for in section 342 of the act, "total supply" of cotton for any marketing year is the carry-over at the beginning of such marketing year, plus the estimated production of cotton in the United States during the calendar year in which such marketing year begins, and the estimated imports of cotton into the United States during such marketing year; "carry-over" of cotton for any marketing year is the quantity of cotton on hand in the United States at the beginning of such marketing year, not including any part of the crop which was produced in the United States during the calendar year then current; "normal supply" of cotton for any marketing year is the estimated domestic consumption of cotton for the marketing year for which such normal supply is being determined, plus the estimated exports of cotton for such marketing year, plus 30 per centum of such consumption and exports as an allowance for carry-over; and "marketing year" for cotton is the period August 1–July 31.

Section 344 (a) of the act, as amended by section 103 (4) of the Agricultural Act of 1958, provides that whenever a national marketing quota is proclaimed under section 342, the Secretary shall determine and proclaim a national allotment for the crop of cotton to be produced in the next calendar year. The national allotment for cotton for 1959 is that acreage, based upon the national average yield per acre of cotton for the 4 calendar years 1954, 1955, 1956, and 1957, which is required to make available from the 1959 crop an amount of cotton equal to the national marketing quota.

If a national allotment is proclaimed for the 1959 crop of cotton, such allotment will be apportioned among the States, as provided by section 344 (b) of the act, on the basis of the acreage planted to cotton during the 5 calendar years 1953, 1954, 1955, 1956, and 1957, with adjustments during such period as provided under the act and the Soil Bank provisions of the Agricultural Act of 1956 (70 Stat. 188; 7 U. S. C. 1801 et seq.).

The regulations which the Secretary will issue pertaining to acreage allotments for the 1959 crop of cotton will differ from those issued for the 1958 crop to the extent necessary to implement the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Act of 1958. The regulations will provide for approval by the Secretary and publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER of State and county allotments, and State and county reserves.

Section 101 of the Agricultural Act of 1958 provides that the farm allotment established pursuant to section 344 of the act shall be the choice (A) allotment, and provides for establishing a choice (B) allotment which shall not exceed the choice (A) allotment by more than 40 per centum. Notices of farm allotment for both choice (A) and choice (B) allotments will, insofar as practicable, be mailed to farm operators prior to the cotton referendum. Application for review of the farm allotment must be made within fifteen days after the mailing of such notice of farm allotment and marketing quota. Not later than January 31, 1959, the Secretary will determine and announce the price support levels applicable to producers who elect choice (A) and choice (B) allotments, respectively. Thereafter, farm operators will receive notice of such price support levels and be given opportunity to elect the choice (A) or choice (B) allotment for the farm.

The regulations will implement the following provisions of the Agricultural Act of 1958:

1. Section 104 (a) amends section 344 (b) of the act and provides a national reserve of 310,000 acres in addition to the national allotment for apportionment to the States on the basis of their needs for additional acreage for establishing minimum farm allotments under section 344 (f) (1) of the act, except that the amount apportioned to Nevada shall be 1,000 acres. Acreage apportioned to a State for any year from the national reserve will not be taken into account in establishing future State acreage allotments. Each State's share of the national reserve, except in the case of Nevada, is apportioned among counties in the same manner that the national reserve is apportioned among States. Nevada's share of the national reserve is apportioned among counties in the same manner that the State allotment, less the State reserve, is apportioned.

2. Section 104 (b) amends section 344 (e) of the act and provides for use from the State reserve of up to 3 per centum of the State allotment if the allocation from the national reserve is less than the requirements determined by the Secretary for establishing minimum farm allotments for the State.

3. Section 104 (c) amends section 344 (f) (1) of the act and provides that, insofar as such acreage is available, minimum farm allotments shall be the smaller of ten acres, or the 1958 farm allotment.

4. Section 105 amends section 344 (f) of the act by providing in a new paragraph (7) (A) that in the event any farm allotment is less than the minimum farm allotment prescribed in section 344 (f) (1) of the act, such allotment shall be increased to such minimum farm allotment. Any acreage required for such increase shall be in addition to the county, State, and national allotment and shall not be taken into account in establishing future State, county, or farm allotments. Acreage apportioned to a county for any year from the national or State reserve on the basis of its needs for additional acreage for establishing minimum farm allotments will not be taken into account in establishing future county allotments.

5. Section 106 amends section 344 (f) of the act by providing in a new paragraph (8) that notwithstanding the provision of section 344 (f) (2) of the act (cropland method of establishing farm allotments) and section 344 (f) (6) of the act (historical method of establishing farm allotments), the Secretary may provide for establishing farm allotments on the basis of the 1958 farm allotments, adjusted as may be necessary for any change in the acreage of cropland available for the production of cotton or to meet the requirements of any provision of the act (other than section 344 (f) (2) and (6)) with respect to the counting of acreage for history purposes. It is expected that the Secretary will determine that establishment of farm allotments pursuant to the method in section 344 (f) (8) of the act will facilitate effective administration of the act and that such method will be used in determining 1959 farm allotments in all counties.

Section 343 of the act provides that not later than December 15 following the issuance of the proclamation of the national marketing quota provided for in section 342 of the act, the Secretary shall conduct a referendum by secret ballot, of farmers engaged in the production of cotton in the calendar year in which the referendum is held, to determine whether such farmers are in favor of or opposed to the quota so proclaimed. If a quota is proclaimed for the 1959 crop of cotton, it is expected that the Secretary will set December 15, 1958, as the date of the referendum. Section 362 of the act provides that notice of the farm allotment established for each farm shown by the records of the county committee to be entitled to such allotment, shall, insofar as practicable, be mailed to the farm operator in sufficient time to be received prior to the date of the referendum.

Prior to making any of the foregoing determinations with respect to the national marketing quota, the national allotment, the apportionment of the national allotment to States and the State allotments to counties, fixing a date for holding a referendum, and the formulation of regulations pertaining to acreage allotments for the 1959 crop of cotton, consideration will be given to any data, views, and recommendations pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing to the Director, Cotton Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., within 15 days following the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The date of the postmark will be considered as the date of any submission.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 3d day of September 1958. Witness my hand and the Seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] WALTER C. BERGER,
Administrator.

Bureau of Land Management

ALASKA

NOTICE OF PROPOSED WITHDRAWAL AND RESERVATION OF LANDS

The Civil Aeronautics Administration has filed an application, Serial Number 019618, for the withdrawal of the lands described below, from all forms of appropriation under the public land laws, including the mining law, but excepting provisions of the mineral leasing laws and the Materials Act. The applicant desires the land for a radio facility site.

For a period of thirty days from the date of publication of this notice, all persons who wish to submit comments, suggestions, or objections in connection with the proposed withdrawal may present their views in writing to the undersigned officer of the Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior, P. O. Box 1050, Fairbanks, Alaska.

If circumstances warrant it, a public hearing will be held at a convenient time and place, which will be announced.

The determination of the Secretary on the application will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. A separate notice will be sent to each interested party of record.

The lands involved in the application are:

FAIRBANKS AREA

T. 1 S., R. 3 W., F. M. (unsurveyed),
Sec. 16: S½SW¼NW¼, N½NW¼SW¼, S½SE¼NW¼ (those portions lying north and west of the Fairbanks-Nenana Road).

Containing approximately 17 acres.

ORDER OF REVOCATION

AUGUST 18, 1958.

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior by section 3 of the Act of June 17, 1902 (32 Stat. 388; 43 U. S. C. 416), and pursuant to Departmental Order No. 2765 of July 30, 1954, I hereby revoke the departmental order of August 16, 1905, in so far as said order affects the following-described land: Provided, however, That such revocation shall not affect the withdrawal of any other lands by said order or affect any other orders withdrawing or reserving the land hereinafter described:

WILLAMETTE MERIDIAN

T. 5 N., R. 29 E.,
Sec. 30, NW¼NE¼.

The area described contains 40 acres.

FLOYD E. DOMINY,
Acting Commissioner.

[Oregon 06261]

AUGUST 29, 1958.

I concur.

The lands are in an allowed desert land entry (Oregon 0752), which antedates the withdrawal.

ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

[Docket No. 27-10]

NUCLEAR ENGINEERING CO., INC.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED ISSUANCE OF BYPRODUCT, SOURCE, AND SPECIAL NUCLEAR MATERIAL LICENSE TO PROVIDE RADIOACTIVE WASTE DISPOSAL SERVICE

Please take notice that the Atomic Energy Commission proposes to issue a Byproduct, Source, and Special Nuclear Material License to Nuclear Engineering Company, Inc., 2600 North Main Street, Walnut Creek, California, substantially in the following form, authorizing the disposal of waste byproduct, source, and special nuclear material in the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans at a minimum depth of 1,000 fathoms unless within fifteen (15) days after filing of this notice with the Federal Register Division a request for a formal hearing is filed with the Commission in the manner prescribed by Title 10, Code of Federal Regulations, Chapter 1, Part 2, "Rules of Practice".

The Atomic Energy Commission has found that:

(a) The applicant's proposed equipment, facilities, and procedures are adequate to protect health and minimize danger to life or property;

(b) The applicant is qualified by training and experience to perform the proposed sea disposal service for packaged byproduct, source, and special nuclear material in such a manner as to protect health and minimize danger to life or property; and

(c) The issuance of a Byproduct, Source, and Special Nuclear Material License to Nuclear Engineering Company, Inc., will not be inimical to the health and safety of the public.

For further details see (1) the application submitted by Nuclear Engineering Company, Inc., and amendments thereto; (2) a memorandum prepared by the Division of Licensing and Regulation which summarizes the principal factors considered in reviewing the application for license; and (3) a copy of Appendix A to the license containing a description of container specifications substantially similar to those contained in Title 49, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 78, referred to in Condition 7 of the license; all on file at the Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street NW., Washington, D. C. Copies of (2) and (3) above may be obtained at the Commission's Public Document Room or upon request addressed to the Atomic Energy Commission, Washington 25, D. C., Attention: Director, Division of Licensing and Regulation.

Dated at Germantown, Md., this 29th day of August 1958.

For the Atomic Energy Commission.

EBER R. PRICE,
Acting Director, Division of Licensing and Regulation.

ANNEX A—BYPRODUCT, SOURCE, AND SPECIAL NUCLEAR MATERIAL LICENSE

[License No. 4-3766-1(H60)]

Pursuant to the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, and Title 10, Code of Federal Regulations, Chapter I, Part 30, "Licensing of Byproduct Material", Title 10, Code of Federal Regulations, Chapter I, Part 40, "Control of Source Material", and Title 10, Code of Federal Regulations, Chapter I, Part 70, "Special Nuclear Material", and in reliance upon statements and representations heretofore made by the applicant, a license is hereby issued to Nuclear Engineering Company, Inc., 2600 North Main Street, Walnut Creek, California, to receive, possess, package, and dispose of byproduct, source, and special nuclear material.

This license shall be deemed to contain the conditions specified in Section 183 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, and is subject to the provisions of Title 10, Code of Federal Regulations, Chapter I, Part 20, "Standards for Protection Against Radiation", and all other applicable rules, regulations, and orders of the Atomic Energy Commission now or hereafter in effect and to the following conditions:

1. The licensee shall not possess more than 800 curies of byproduct material at any one time.

2. The licensee shall not receive possession of more than 2000 pounds of source material and 4 grams of special nuclear material during the term of this license.

3. Byproduct, source, and special nuclear material shall be received, packaged, and disposed of by or under the direct supervision of J. E. Law, Jr. or A. L. Smith.

4. The licensee shall receive, package, possess, and dispose of the byproduct, source, and special nuclear material in accordance with the procedures described in the licensee's application dated July 3, 1958, and attachments thereto; and letters dated July 7, 1958 and July 8, 1958; except as provided otherwise in this license.

5. A copy of "Radiological Safety Training Operating Procedures", as described in the licensee's application dated July 3, 1958, shall be supplied to each employee of the licensee involved in the receipt, packaging, and disposal of byproduct, source, and special nuclear material.

6. Byproduct, source, and special nuclear material received from customers shall be prepackaged in containers meeting the requirements of Condition 7 of this license.

7. Intrastate transportation of AEC-licensed material to the location designated in Condition 8 shall be in accordance with the following requirements except as specifically approved by the Atomic Energy Commission:

A. Outside shipping containers. (1) The containers shall meet any one of the following specifications described in Appendix A attached hereto:

a. 15A, 15B, 6A, 6B, 6C, 17C, 17H, 19A, or 19B for the containment of radioactivity in amounts not in excess of 2.0 curies; or

b. Specification 55 for containment of solid cobalt 60, cesium 137, iridium 192, or gold 198 in amounts not in excess of 300 curies.

(2) There shall be no radioactive contamination on any exterior surface of the container in excess of 500 d/m/100 sq. cm. alpha and 0.1 mrep/hr beta-gamma radiation.

(3) The smallest dimension of the container shall not be less than 4 inches.

(4) The radiation level at any accessible surface of the container shall not exceed 200 mrem/hr.

(5) At one meter from any point on the radioactive source the radiation level shall not exceed 10 mrem/hr.

(6) Containers which contain radioactive material emitting only alpha and/or beta radiation shall contain sufficient shielding to prevent the escape of primary corpuscular radiation to the exterior surface and to reduce the secondary radiation at the surface of the container to at least 10 mrem/24 hours at any time during transportation.

B. Inside containers. (1) Solid and gaseous radioactive materials shall be packed in suitable inside containers designed to prevent rupture and leakage under conditions incident to transportation.

(2) Liquid radioactive materials must be packed in sealed glass, earthenware, or other suitable containers. The container must be surrounded on all sides by an absorbent material sufficient to absorb the entire liquid contents and be of such nature that its efficiency will not be impaired by chemical reactions with the contents. Where shielding is required the absorbent material must be placed within the shield. If the inside container meets the Specification 2R in Appendix A the absorbent material is not required.

(3) Materials containing radioisotopes of plutonium, americium, polonium, or curium, or the isotope strontium 90, in quantities in excess of 100 microcuries, must be packed in containers which meet Specification 2R in Appendix A.

C. Shielding. Inside containers must be completely surrounded with sufficient shielding to meet the requirements of subparagraphs A (4), A (5), and A (6) of this condition. The shield must be so designed that it will not open or break under normal conditions incident to transportation.

D. Labeling. Each outside container label required under § 20.203 (f) of 10 CFR Part 20 shall bear the following information:

(1) Total activity in millicuries, or in the case of source and special nuclear material, the total weight;

(2) principal radioisotope;

(3) radiation level at the surface of the container and at one meter from the source; and

(4) the name and address of the licensee.

E. Each vehicle in which licensed material is transported shall be marked or placarded on each side and the rear with lettering at least 3 inches high as follows: CAUTION—RADIOACTIVE MATERIAL.

F. Accidents. In the event of an accident involving any vehicle transporting licensed material, immediate steps shall be taken to prevent radiation exposure of persons and to control contamination.

G. Exemptions. Specific approval must be obtained from the Atomic Energy Commission for modification of, or exemption from, the requirements of this license condition. Requests for such approval should be directed to the Chief, Isotopes Branch, Division of Licensing and Regulation, Atomic Energy Commission, and should contain sufficient information to support such a request.

8. The licensee shall store and package byproduct, source, and special nuclear material for sea disposal at Cowell Cement Plant, Aggregate Bin, Cowell, California, or at Naval Industrial Reserve Shipyard, Kearny, New Jersey. Byproduct, source, and special nuclear material may also be stored at McKees Rock Industries, Inc., McKees Rock, Pennsylvania.

9. The licensee shall dispose of byproduct, source, and special nuclear material:

A. In the Atlantic Ocean in an area bounded by the parallels of Latitude 38°50' N. and 39°00' N. and by the meridians of Longitude 72°00' W. and 72°16' W. at a minimum depth of 1000 fathoms; or

B. In the Pacific Ocean in an area bounded by the parallels of Latitude 37°43' N. and 37°38' N. and by the meridians of Longitude 123°18' W. and 123°30' W. at a minimum depth of 1000 fathoms.

10. Packaged radioactive waste containing special nuclear material shall be transported aboard vessels of American registry.

11. The licensee shall notify the Chief, Isotopes Branch, Division of Licensing and Regulation, Atomic Energy Commission, at least 20 days prior to each disposal, by letter deposited in the United States mail properly stamped and addressed. This notification shall contain the following information: the proposed date for disposal, the total number of containers, the total activity of byproduct material in millicuries, the amount of source material in pounds, the amount of special nuclear material in grams, and the most hazardous radioisotope contained in each container.

12. Byproduct Material License No. 4–2314–1 issued on March 29, 1957, is hereby terminated.

13. A curie of Iridium 192 is defined as that quantity of activity which presents a radiation intensity of 0.55 roentgen per hour at a distance of one meter.

This license shall be effective on the date issued and shall expire on August 31, 1960.

For the Atomic Energy Commission.

J. R. MASON,
Chief, Isotopes Branch,
Division of Licensing and Regulation.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Docket No. 1705 etc.; Order No. E–12936]

INVESTIGATION OF ACCUMULATION, ASSEMBLY AND DISTRIBUTION RULES

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

SEPTEMBER 4, 1958.

Investigation of accumulation, assembly and distribution rules; Docket Nos. 1705 et al., consolidated, 3978 and 4259.

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C. on the 3d day of September 1958.

In the original proceeding herein, Investigation, Assembly and Distribution Rules, 12 CAB 337 (1950), the Board prescribed lawful assembly and distribution rules and minimum accessorial charges.[1] While the Board's decision affected certificated direct air carriers principally, seven air freight forwarders who were parties in that case, are also bound thereby.[2] Since then other air freight forwarders have established and maintained assembly and distribution rules and charges substantially consistent with those prescribed by the Board in that decision.[3]

Recently the Board in the Air Freight Rate Case—Minimum Rates for Air Freight Forwarders[4] (hereinafter Minimum Rate Case), refused to subject air freight forwarders to minimum rate regulation for line haul, although direct air carriers are regulated as to minimum rates. It appears to the Board that regulation of the minimum accessorial charges of air freight forwarders does not pose substantially different questions from the regulation of minimum line haul rates of forwarders, and that the Board's regulation in both areas should be consistent with each other. It further appears to the Board that the reasons which justified the Board's decision in the Minimum Rate Case not to regulate the minimum line haul rates of forwarders are equally persuasive of the tentative conclusion herein to relieve air freight forwarders from minimum rate regulation as to their assembly and distribution charges.

In the Minimum Rate Case the Board concluded that forwarders should be permitted to price their services without regard to the minimum rates which had been specified for the direct air carriers. The Board reasoned that it would be unsound to impose on the forwarders a system of minimum rate regulation which would prevent them from taking full advantage of their specialized methods of operation and would deprive the public of the lowest possible freight rates. The Board also noted particularly that forwarders specialize in various ground operations. Assembly and distribution services are typical of the ground functions in which forwarders specialize and which forwarders are peculiarly equipped to perform. The considerations which impelled the Board in the Minimum Rate Case to conclude that the public interest would best be served by relieving forwarders of minimum rate regulation applicable to direct air carriers is a fortiori applicable to accessorial charges. There is little logic in applying minimum charges to the assembly and distribution services of air freight forwarders when their charges for the more competitively significant airline hauls are not subject to minimum rate control.

Accordingly, the Board finds that it is in the public interest to relieve air freight forwarders from the minimum accessorial charges prescribed in the original proceeding.

Therefore, it is ordered:

1. That the air freight forwarders and direct air carriers parties to the original proceeding herein, be and they hereby are directed to show cause why the Board should not issue an order making final the tentative findings stated herein, and why the Board should not order that the minimum accessorial charges prescribed by the Board in Orders Nos. E–4606 and E–4954 be rescinded insofar as such minimum accessorial charges apply to air freight forwarders;

2. That any interested person having objection to the issuance of an order making final the tentative findings stated herein, or to the issuance of the aforesaid proposed order rescinding minimum accessorial charge requirements of air freight forwarders, shall, within ten days from the date hereof, file written notice of objection with the Board, and if notice is filed, written answer and supporting documents must be filed within twenty days after the date of service of this order;

3. That if notice of objection is not filed within ten days, or if notice is filed and answer is not filed within twenty days, after service of this order, all parties shall be deemed to have waived all further procedural steps before final decision, and the Board may enter a final order relieving air freight forwarders from minimum accessorial charge provisions;

4. That if notice of objection and answer are timely filed, this proceeding shall be set for immediate hearing before an examiner of the Board. The hearing shall be limited to consideration of issues raised by the answers filed, except that at the prehearing conference the examiner may permit parties to raise such additional issues as he deems necessary to a full and fair determination of this proceeding;

5. That copies of this order shall be served on all parties in the original proceeding herein and on all other air freight forwarders;

6. That this order shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Acting Secretary.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. E–6785]

GULF STATES UTILITIES CO.

NOTICE OF SUPPLEMENTAL APPLICATION

SEPTEMBER 3, 1958.

Take notice that on August 21, 1958, an amendment to its application in the above-entitled matter was filed with the Federal Power Commission pursuant to section 204 of the Federal Power Act by Gulf States Utilities Company ("Applicant"), seeking a supplemental order authorizing the issuance by Applicant of up to $26,000,000, principal amount of unsecured promissory notes, before December 1, 1958. The Commission's order issued November 27, 1957 authorized Applicant to issue unsecured notes aggregating $18,000,000 to banks from December 1, 1957, to and including November 30, 1958. Notice of Applicant's original application in Docket No. E–6785 for authority to issue the aforesaid $18,000,000 of notes was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on November 16, 1957 (22 F. R. 9201). Applicant states that the total amount of the revolving credit of $26,000,000, would be used for general corporate purposes. Applicant states that the aggregate principal amount of notes outstanding at any one time will not exceed $26,000,000.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said amendment to the application should on or before the 15th day of September, 1958, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., petitions or protests in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). The application is on file and available for public inspection.

[Docket No. G–16117]

AMERADA PETROLEUM CORP.

ORDER FOR HEARING AND SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGES IN RATES

SEPTEMBER 3, 1958.

Amerada Petroleum Corporation (Amerada) on August 4, 1958, tendered for filing proposed changes in its presently effective rate schedules[1] for sales of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed changes, which constitute increased rates and charges, are contained in the following designated filings:

Description: (1) Notice of Change, dated July 30, 1958. (2) Notice of Change, dated July 29, 1958. (3) Notice of Change, dated July 31, 1958.

Purchaser: El Paso Natural Gas Company.

Rate schedule designation: (1) Supplement No. 20 to Amerada's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1. (2) Supplement No. 5 to Amerada's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 31. (3) Supplement No. 3 to Amerada's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 62.

Effective date: September 4, 1958 (effective date is the first day after expiration of the required thirty days' notice).

In support of the proposed favored-nation rate increases, Amerada submits copies of letters from El Paso Natural Gas Company (El Paso) stating that 15.05 percent rate increases for gas sales by Sun Oil Company to El Paso within the described "favored-nation area" are in effect subject to refund in Docket No. G–12880 and providing for rates of 10.41582 cents and 10.92975 cents per Mcf. Amerada states, in effect, that its subject gas is sold within the "favored-nation area" and Amerada is thereby contractually entitled to the same prices.

El Paso has filed a formal protest to Amerada's proposed favored-nation increases. El Paso's protest is mainly premised upon the contention that no agreement has been reached between El Paso and Amerada which firmly evidences an obligation at this time to reimburse Amerada for the protested increases. Thus, El Paso states, the increases are proscribed by the Mobile decision. El Paso makes this protest despite its own notification letter to Amerada. However, El Paso states in such letter it is contesting "triggering" increases.

The increased rates and charges so proposed have not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed changes, and that Supplement No. 20 to Amerada's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1, Supplement No. 5 to Amerada's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 31, and Supplement No. 3 to Amerada's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 62, be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from [1] Orders Nos E–4606, September 14, 1950, and E–4954, December 20, 1950.

[2] The assembly and distribution rules of the following then authorized air freight forwarders were consolidated for hearing herein: Emery Air Freight Corp., Peter A. Bernacki, Inc., Domestic Air Express, Flying Cargo, Inc., Twin Cities Air Service Company, ABC Air Freight Company, Inc., and Allied Air Freight, Inc.

[3] Recently, however, several air freight forwarders have filed tariffs containing accessorial charges below those specified by the Board. Bor-Air Freight Co., Inc. filed a tariff which lowered the charge for distribution service from 25 cents per part of a shipment to 18 cents per package and canceled the minimum charge of $1.00 for distribution of the entire shipment. Shulman, Inc. proposed to charge 18 cents per package subject to a maximum charge of 50 cents. These tariffs have been suspended by the Board pending an investigation into the reasonableness thereof. Bor-Air Freight Co., Inc., Docket No. 9398, Order No. E–12300, March 28, 1958. Shulman, Inc., Docket No. 9678, Order No. E–12665, June 18, 1958. The Bor-Air Freight proceeding was dismissed by Order No. E–12538, May 21, 1958.

the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rates and charges contained in Supplement No. 20 to Amerada's FPC Gas rate Schedule No. 1, Supplement No. 5 to Amerada's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 31, and Supplement No. 3 to Amerada's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 62.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplements be and they are each hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until February 4, 1959, and until such further time as they are made effective in the manner described by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplements hereby suspended, nor the rate schedules sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until this proceding has been disposed of or until the periods of suspension have expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

AMERADA PETROLEUM CORP. ET AL.

ORDER FOR HEARING AND SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

SEPTEMBER 3, 1958.

Amerada Petroleum Corporation, et al. (Amerada), on August 4, 1958, tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule [1] for the sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate and charge, is contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notice of Change, dated July 27, 1958.
Purchaser: El Paso Natural Gas Company.
Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 2 to Amerada's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 27.
Effective date: September 4, 1958 (effective date is the first day after expiration of the required thirty days' notice).

In support of the proposed favored-nation rate increase, Amerada submits a copy of a letter from El Paso Natural Gas Company (El Paso) stating that 15.05 percent rate increases for gas sales by Sun Oil Company to El Paso within the described "favored-nation area" are in effect subject to refund in Docket No. G-12880 and providing for rates of 10.41582 cents and 10.92975 cents per Mcf. [Docket No. G-14857]

ILLINOIS POWER CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

SEPTEMBER 3, 1958.

Take notice that Illinois Power Company (Applicant), an Illinois corporation having its principal place of business in Decatur, Illinois, filed on April 11, 1958 an application and on May 22, 1958 a supplement thereto, pursuant to section 7 (a) of the Natural Gas Act, for an order directing Mississippi River Fuel Corporation (Mississippi) to sell and deliver to Applicant the natural gas requirements for the City of O'Fallon and the Village of Millstadt and their respective environs, St. Clair County, Illinois, and for the Village of Hamel and its environs, Madison County, Illinois, all as more fully represented in the application.

Mississippi supplies gas to Applicant for sale by Applicant in Applicant's Supply Area C surrounding said communities. Applicant proposes to take additional gas through two existing connections in the area. Applicant proposes to construct three taps on its existing high pressure lines in order to supply gas to said three communities.

In order to serve Hamel Applicant proposes to construct and operate a local distribution system which will be interconnected with Applicant's existing 8-inch feeder main at a point midway between Second Street and First Street in the Village of Hamel.

The residential and commercial requirements for Hamel are estimated as follows:

Year of service	1	2	3
Annual (Mcf)	6,100	12,420	12,780
Peak Day (Mcf)	148	150	152

In order to serve Millstadt Applicant proposes to construct and operate a local distribution system and a 4-inch feeder main, which it proposes to interconnect with its existing facilities at a point six miles north of Millstadt near the existing delivery facilities on Mississippi's pipe line.

The residential and commercial requirements for Millstadt are estimated as follows:

Year of service	1	2	3
Annual (Mcf)	19,000	45,500	52,400
Peak Day (Mcf)	450	550	680

In order to serve O'Fallon Applicant proposes to construct and operate a local distribution system and a 4-inch feeder main to be interconnected with Applicant's Scott Field Line at a point approximately 4 miles east of Swansea, Illinois, and to extend due north for approximately 2½ miles to the City of O'Fallon.

The residential and commercial requirements for O'Fallon are estimated as follows:

Year of service	1	2	3
Annual (Mcf)	30,500	73,900	100,900
Peak Day (Mcf)	725	1,040	1,370

The estimated costs of the proposed construction after three years of service are:

Hamel	$62,190
Millstadt	258,050
O'Fallon	362,300
Total	683,440

Applicant proposes to finance all of the proposed construction from funds on hand.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on October 7, 1958, at 10:00 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before September 26, 1958.

MILLS BENNETT ESTATE

ORDER FOR HEARING AND SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

SEPTEMBER 3, 1958.

Mills Bennett Estate (Bennett) on August 4, 1958, tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule [1] for the sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate and charge, is contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notice of Change, dated August 1, 1958.

Purchaser: Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation.

Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 3 to Bennett's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 5.

Effective date: November 1, 1958 (effective date is the effective date proposed by Bennett).

In support of the proposed two-step periodic rate increase, Bennett states that the contract was made in good faith at arm's length and provides for a periodic rate increase each year, that without such a provision Bennett would not have entered into the contract and agreed to the initial price, that the contract terms as written should be approved or else Bennett should receive an increase for the entire contract term to the average of all of the contract prices. In addition, Bennett states it has lost six per cent interest on the deferred income, that its income has decreased over the 20-year term because of the increased costs applicable to the long term and that offers of 17 cents per Mcf are being made for similar supplies of new gas in the area.

The increased rate and charge so proposed has not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that Supplement No. 3 to Bennett's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 5 be suspended and the use thereof defered as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4

[1] A previous increase was suspended in Docket No. G-13193 until April 1, 1958, but motion to place the suspended rate into effect subject to refund was never filed by Bennett.

and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge contained in Supplement No. 3 to Bennett's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 5.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplement be and it is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until April 1, 1959, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplement hereby suspended nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

By the Commission (Commissioner Hussey dissenting).

[Docket No. G-16127]

ATLANTIC REFINING CO.

ORDER FOR HEARING AND SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGES IN RATE

SEPTEMBER 3, 1958.

The Atlantic Refining Company (Atlantic) on August 4, 1958, tendered for filing proposed changes in its presently effective rate schedule for the sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed changes, which constitute increased rates and charges, are contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notices of Change, dated August 4, 1958.

Purchaser: Texas Gas Transmission Corporation.

Rate schedule designation: Supplement Nos. 6 and 7 to Atlantic's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 55.

Effective date: September 4, 1958 (effective date is the first day after expiration of the required 30-day's notice).

In support of the redetermined rate increase which is set out in Supplement No. 6, Atlantic submitted copies of the letter setting out the new rate and charge and states that the gas sales contract resulted from arm's-length bargaining between it and Texas Gas Transmission Corporation (Texas Gas) and that no affiliation exists between it, as seller, and Texas Gas, as buyer. Supplement No. 7 reflects 100 percent of the 1 cent per Mcf Louisiana tax [1] increase in addition to the level of rate proposed in Supplement No. 6.

[1] Act No. 8 of 1958 (House Bill No. 303) as approved on June 16, 1958, amending title 47 of the Louisiana State Statutes of 1950.

The increased rates and charges proposed have not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that Supplement Nos. 6 and 7 to Atlantic's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 55 be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge contained in Supplement Nos. 6 and 7 to Atlantic's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 55.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplements be and they are each hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until February 4, 1959, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplements hereby suspended nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

By the Commission.

NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD

GENERAL COUNSEL

AMENDMENT TO BOARD MEMORANDUM DESCRIBING AUTHORITY AND ASSIGNED RESPONSIBILITIES

Pursuant to the provisions of section 3 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act (Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong., 2d Sess.), the National Labor Relations Board hereby separately states and currently publishes in the FEDERAL REGISTER the following amendment to board memorandum describing the authority and assigned responsibilities of the General Counsel of the National Labor Relations Board (effective August 25, 1958). This amends memorandum which appeared at 20 F. R. 2175.

Dated, Washington, D. C., September 3, 1958.

By direction of the Board.

[SEAL] FRANK M. KLEILER, Executive Secretary.

The Board Memorandum Describing the Authority and Assigned Responsibilities of the General Counsel of the National Labor Relations Board effective April 1, 1955, is hereby amended by striking the text of Section VII and substituting the following:

In order better to ensure the effective exercise of the duties and responsibilities described above, the General Counsel of the Board, subject to applicable laws and the Rules and Regulations of Civil Service Commission, is delegated full and final authority in behalf of the Board over the selection, retention, transfer, promotion, demotion, discipline, discharge and in all other respects, of all personnel engaged in the field and in the Washington Office (other than personnel in the Board Members' offices, the Division of Trial Examiners, the Division of Information, the Security Office, the Office of the Solicitor, and the Office of the Executive Secretary); provided, however, that no appointment, transfer, demotion or discharge of any Regional Director, or of any Officer in Charge of a Sub-Regional Office, shall become effective except upon approval of the Board.

The General Counsel will provide such administrative services and housekeeping services as may be requested by the Board in connection with the conduct of its necessary business, and will submit to the Board a quarterly report on the performance of these administrative functions.

In connection with and in order to effectuate the foregoing, the General Counsel is authorized to execute such necessary requests, certifications, and other related documents on behalf of the Board, as may be needed from time to time to meet the requirements of Civil Service Commission, the Bureau of the Budget, or any other Governmental Agency; provided, however, that the total amount of any annual budget requests submitted by the agency, the apportionment and allocation of funds and/or the establishment of personnel ceilings within the agency shall be determined jointly by the Board and the General Counsel.

The establishment, transfer or elimination of any Regional or Sub-Regional Office shall require the approval of the Board.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 24SF-2286]

HELICOPTER TRANSPORTS, INC.

ORDER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDING EXEMPTION, STATEMENT OF REASONS THEREFOR, AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

SEPTEMBER 2, 1958.

I. Helicopter Transports, Inc., Box 953, Reno, Nevada, filed with the Commission on May 9, 1956, a notification and offering circular relative to a proposed offering of 30,000 shares of its $10.00 par value common stock at $10.00 per share for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to section 3 (b) thereof and Regulation A promulgated thereunder.

II. The Commission has reasonable grounds to believe that:

A. The terms and conditions of Regulation A have not been complied with by the issuer, particularly in that:

1. The issuer has filed a false and misleading Form 2-A report of sales.

2. The issuer has offered and sold its securities in a jurisdiction not set forth in Item 1 of its notification under Regulation A.

B. The offering circular contains untrue statements of material facts, fails to reflect material changes in the affairs of the issuer, and omits to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made in the light of the circumstances under which they were made not misleading, concerning:

1. The representation that all proceeds from the sales of stock, less commissions, would be placed in an escrow account and that refund would be made to purchasers of the issuer's securities in the event that a minimum of $110,000 in securities were not sold.

2. The transfer of monies from the issuer's bank account to the personal bank account of its president.

3. The use of proceeds from the sale of the issuer's securities.

C. That the offering is being and would be made in such a manner as to operate as a fraud or deceit upon purchasers.

III. It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 223 (a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under Regulation A be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given that Helicopter Transports, Inc. and any person having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for a hearing; that, within twenty days after receipt of such request, the Commission will, or at any time upon its own motion may, set the matter down for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension should be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; and the notice of the time and place of said hearing will be promptly given the Commission.

By the Commission.

TARIFF COMMISSION

[Investigations 69, 70]

TARTARIC ACID AND CREAM OF TARTAR

INVESTIGATIONS INSTITUTED AND HEARINGS SET

Investigations instituted: Upon application of the Stauffer Chemical Company, New York, N. Y., received April 25, 1958, the United States Tariff Commission, on the 3d day of September 1958, under the authority of section 7 of the Trade Agreements Extension Act of 1951, as amended, instituted investigations to determine, with respect to each of the products tartaric acid classifiable under paragraph 1 of the Tariff Act of 1930, and cream of tartar classifiable under paragraph 9 of the Tariff Act of 1930, whether such product is, as a result in whole or in part of the duty or other customs treatment reflecting concessions granted thereon under the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, being imported into the United States in such increased quantities, either actual or relative, as to cause or threaten serious injury to the domestic industry producing like or directly competitive products.

Public hearings order: A public hearing in connection with the investigation concerning tartaric acid will begin at 10 a. m., e. d. s. t., on October 14, 1958, in the Hearing Room, Tariff Commission Building, 8th and E Streets NW., Washington, D. C. A hearing in connection with the investigation concerning cream of tartar will follow immediately upon the conclusion of the hearing concerning tartaric acid. Interested parties desiring to appear and to be heard at either or both of the hearings should notify the Secretary of the Commission, in writing, at least three days in advance of October 14, 1958.

Inspection of application: The application for the foregoing investigations (except for data submitted and accepted in confidence) is available for public inspection at the office of the Secretary, United States Tariff Commission, 8th and E Streets NW., Washington, D. C., and at the New York office of the Tariff Commission located in Room 437 of the Custom House, where it may be read and copied by persons interested.

Issued: September 4, 1958.

[Investigation 71]

SCISSORS AND SHEARS

INVESTIGATION INSTITUTED AND HEARING SET

Investigation instituted: Upon application of the Shears, Scissors and Manicure Implement Association, New York, N. Y., received August 29, 1958, the United States Tariff Commission, on the 3d day of September 1958, under the authority of section 7 of the Trade Agreements Extension Act of 1951, as amended, instituted an investigation to determine whether scissors and shears (except pruning, sheep, grass, and hedge shears and except tinners' snips) and blades for the same, valued at more than $1.75 per dozen, and classifiable under paragraph 357 of the Tariff Act of 1930, are, as a result in whole or in part of the duty or other customs treatment reflecting concessions granted thereon under the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, being imported into the United States in such increased quantities, either actual or relative, as to cause or threaten serious injury to the domestic industry producing like or directly competitive products.

Public hearing ordered: A public hearing in this investigation will be held beginning at 10 a. m., e. s. t., on November 18, 1958, in the Hearing Room, Tariff Commission Building, 8th and E Streets NW., Washington, D. C. Interested parties desiring to appear and to be heard at the hearing should notify the Secretary of the Commission, in writing, at least three days in advance of the date set for the hearing.

Inspection of application: The application filed in this case is available for public inspection at the office of the Secretary, United States Tariff Commission, 8th and E Streets NW., Washington, D. C., and at the New York office of the Tariff Commission, located in Room 437 of the Custom House, where it may be read and copied by persons interested.

Issued: September 4, 1958.

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10782

AMENDING EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 10773 [1] OF JULY 1, 1958, RELATING TO CIVIL AND DEFENSE MOBILIZATION

By virtue of the authority vested in me as President of the United States, and consonant with the provisions of the act of August 26, 1958 (72 Stat. 861), it is ordered, effective as of August 26, 1958, that Executive Order No. 10773 of July 1, 1958, be, and it is hereby, amended (1) by deleting the words "Defense and Civilian Mobilization", whenever used as part of the title of any officer or the name of any agency or body, and by inserting in lieu thereof, the words "Civil and Defense Mobilization", and (2) by inserting in section 1 thereof, as hereinabove amended, after "1958" a comma and the words "as amended".

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

PART 989—RAISINS PRODUCED FROM RAISIN VARIETY GRAPES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

SUBPART—ADMINISTRATIVE RULES AND REGULATIONS

REPORTS

Pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 109, as amended, and Order No. 89, as amended (7 CFR Part 989), regulating the handling of raisins produced from raisin variety grapes grown in California, effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), the Raisin Administrative Committee unanimously recommended an amendment of the handler reporting provisions of § 989.173 (b) (1) (ii) of the Administrative Rules and Regulations (23 F. R. 2444, 2568) to relax a time filing requirement on handlers with respect to two off-grade raisin reports.

Section 989.173 (b) (1) (ii) provides, in part, that whenever it is found that the season average price to producers for raisins will be in excess of the season average parity price, each handler shall, during the pertinent crop year or any remaining portion thereof, file with the committee for each month, and not later than the fifth business day of the succeeding month, the reports specified in § 989.173 (b) (4) and (6) which relate respectively to off-grade raisins returned to tenderers (producers or dehydrators) and to off-grade raisins received and retained without reconditioning for disposition in prescribed outlets.

Section 989.173 (c) (3) of the aforesaid administrative rules and regulations requires that each handler shall file with the committee on or before the fifteenth day of each month a special raisin report covering off-grade raisins received under agreements with tenderers (producers or dehydrators) for reconditioning which were reconditioned by him during the previous month.

In order to simplify and alleviate handlers' reporting requirements with respect to off-grade raisins during above-parity periods, the committee has proposed that the three off-grade raisin reports called for by the said provisions of § 989.173 (b) (4) and (6) and § 989.173 (c) (3) may be filed with the committee not later than the fifteenth day of each month on one consolidated reporting form. Thus, instead of being required to file with the committee two off-grade raisin reports by the fifth day, and one off-grade special raisin report by the fifteenth day, of each month, handlers would be permitted to file with the committee the specified information on one form at one time by the fifteenth day of the month. In order to effectuate this desirable change, the provisions of § 989.173 (b) (1) (ii) should be amended to provide that handlers file with the committee the off-grade raisin reports prescribed in § 989.173 (b) (4) and (6) on or before the fifteenth day of each month instead of on or before the fifth business day of each month.

After consideration of all relevant information, including the committee's recommendation, it is concluded that the aforesaid amendment should be approved and, for the reasons hereinafter set forth, should become effective at the time hereinafter provided.

Therefore, it is hereby ordered, That § 989.173 (b) (1) (ii) of the Administrative Rules and Regulations (23 F. R. 2444, 2568) be amended by deleting therefrom the words "the fifth business day" and substituting therefor the words "the fifteenth day."

It is hereby found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice and engage in public rule-making procedure, and that good cause exists for not postponing the effective date hereof until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.), and for making this amendment effective upon execution hereof in that: (1) The provisions of § 989.173 (b) (1) (ii) are currently in effect on the basis of the finding (23 F. R. 6591) that the estimated season average price to producers for raisins for the crop year which began September 1, 1958, will be in excess of the parity level specified in section 2 (1) of the said act; (2) in the absence of this amendatory action handlers will have to file with the committee not later than the fifth business day of this month certain off-grade raisin reports; (3) this amendatory action will relieve restrictions on the time of filing of such reports by providing additional time for such filing; (4) this amendment will reduce handlers' costs of complying with these reporting requirements as to off-grade raisins during above-parity periods through the simplification of handlers' record-keeping and reporting requirements by permitting the filing of a single consolidated report and by providing additional time for filing reports; and (5) handlers are aware that this amendment was recommended by the committee and require no additional advance notice to comply therewith. In those circumstances, this amendment should become effective upon execution.

SUNWAY VITAMIN CO. ET AL.

Subpart—Advertising falsely or misleadingly: § 13.170 Qualities or properties of product or service.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interprets or applies sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 45) [Cease and desist order, Sunway Vitamin Company et al., Chicago, Ill., Docket 6872, August 14, 1958]

In the Matter of Sunway Vitamin Company, a Corporation, and Ethel P. Heyman and Daniel J. Haskell, Individually and as Officers of Said Corporation

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission charging sellers in Chicago, Ill., with representing falsely in pamphlets, circulars, and other advertising matter that use of their "Sunway Super Vitamin Tablets With Iron" would be effective in providing pep, zip, vitality, and more red blood, and in relieving nervousness and restlessness.

Following acceptance of an agreement for a consent order, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist which became on August 14 the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondents Sunway Vitamin Company, a corporation, and its officers, and Ethel P. Heyman and Daniel J. Haskell, individually and as officers of said corporation, their representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of Sunway Super Vitamin Tablets With Iron, or any other preparation of substantially similar composition or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same name or under any other name, do forthwith cease and desist from directly or indirectly:

1. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, any advertisement by means of the United States mails, or by any means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, which advertisement represents, directly or by implication:

(a) That the use of said product is of value in providing pep, zip or vitality or in relieving nervousness or restlessness, unless expressly limited, in a clear and conspicuous manner, to those cases where the lack of pep, zip or vitality or nervousness or restlessness are due solely to a deficiency of vitamins;

(b) That the use of said product will be of value in providing benefits for or relief from any condition or disorder, unless expressly limited in a clear and conspicuous manner, to those cases where such conditions or disorders are due solely to a deficiency of vitamins;

(c) That the use of said product will provide red blood, or that it will have any significant beneficial effect on the blood.

2. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated any advertisement by any means for the purpose of inducing or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase of said preparation in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, which advertisement contains any of the representations prohibited in paragraph one hereof.

By "Decision of the Commission", etc., report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondents herein shall within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: August 14, 1958.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

TITLE 10—ATOMIC ENERGY

Chapter I—Atomic Energy Commission

PART 112—HARDTACK NUCLEAR TEST SERIES, 1958

REVOCATION

On September 8, 1958, the Atomic Energy Commission issued public notice of the completion of the HARDTACK nuclear test series and the disestablishment of the danger area surrounding the Eniwetok and Bikini Atolls, Marshall Islands. The prohibitions contained in Part 112 against entry into the HARDTACK test series danger area, as defined therein, are no longer necessary, and Part 112 is hereby revoked.

Inasmuch as this action is intended to relieve from, rather than to impose, restrictions under regulations currently in effect, the Atomic Energy Commission has found that general notice of proposed rule making and public procedures thereon are unnecessary and that good cause exists why this amendment should be made effective without the customary period of notice and upon filing with the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 161, 68 Stat. 948, as amended; 42 U. S. C. 2201)

Dated at Germantown, Maryland, this 8th day of September 1958.

204.132d	Calibration of each additional X-ray instrument, of the same dose or dose-rate range, for heavily filtered X-rays of one effective energy as selected under 204.132c, not requiring a change in setup and when the instruments are submitted at the same time.	18
204.132e	Calibration of one instrument in international roentgens for cobalt 60 gamma rays. (a) Dose-rate-indicating instrument for dose rates ranging from 0.01 to 15 r/mm; or (b) Dose-indicating-instruments or ranges 0-0.1 r to 0-25 r. Calibration accuracy within ±3 percent.	30
204.132f	Calibration of each additional instrument having the same dose or dose-rate range for cobalt 60 gamma rays, as under 204.132e, when the instruments are submitted at the same time.	13
204.132z	Calibration of one X-ray or gamma-ray instrument, dose or dose-rate-indicating, in international roentgens: (a) calibrations of higher accuracy than 3 percent routinely furnished; or (2) calibrations on X-rays of energies other than those listed under 204.132 a, c or e; or (3) calibrations requiring a special setup or special procedures. Fees will be charged dependent upon the nature of the test. NOTE: Only a limited number of special calibrations can be undertaken and requests for such should be submitted with full details for consideration.	[illegible]

Item	Description	Fee
204.201a	Eye protective glasses—Test for compliance with safety code, covering transmission of ultraviolet, visible and total radiation.	$20
204.201b	Eye protective glasses—Test for luminous transmittance by comparison with standard filters.	20
204.201c	Eye protective glasses—Measurement of percent ultraviolet spectral transmittance at regular intervals or selected points in the spectrum.	20
204.201d	Standards of radiation—Lamps seasoned and calibrated for intensity of radiant energy, per lamp.	40
204.201e	Calibration of radiant energy meter for energy of 2537A.	[illegible]
204.201f	Measurement of radiant flux of 2537A, from germicidal or sterlamp.	[illegible]
204.201g	Laminated safety glass—Determination of effect on exposure to ultraviolet radiant energy.	[illegible]
204.201z	For special tests not covered by the above schedule, fees will be charged dependent upon the nature of the test.	[illegible]

NEUTRON PHYSICS

§ 204.701 Neutron physics.

Item	Description	Fee
204.701a	Determination of rate of neutron emission rate of unknown source to primary standard neutron source in graphite column.	$15
204.701z	For special tests not covered by the above schedule, fees will be charged dependent upon the nature of the test.	[illegible]

§ 204.702 Neutron instruments.

204.702a	Calibration of a set (one to three) of thermal neutron dosimeters.	$64
204.702z	For special tests not covered by the above schedule, fees will be charged dependent upon the nature of the test.	[illegible]

§ 204.703 Neutron irradiation of foils.

Item	Description	Fee
204.703a	Activation of a set (one to four) of foils in the NBS standard thermal neutron flux geometry. Cadmium difference irradiations (one set bare, one set in cadmium covers) double fee.	$40

RADIOACTIVITY

§ 204.901 Calibration of gamma-emitting samples.

Item	Description	Fee
204.901a	Calibration of gamma-emitting radioactive samples that conform to the physical, chemical and activity-level specifications for measurement in the National Bureau of Standards gamma ionization chamber: (1) 100-800 micrograms radium, calibration in terms of micrograms of radium content measured relative to the National Radium Standard. See Sec. 204.134-1, 2, 3, 4, 5a for particulars concerning preparation. (2) Chemically stable solid, point or line sources of which can be measured: 0.5-10 mc for radium or encapsulated cobalt 60; zinc 65, iodine 131, cesium 137, barium 137, tantalum 182, gold 198. Solution should be 1 ml in volume and flame-sealed in a glass vial or ampoule of O. D. 6.5±0.5 mm, wall thickness approximately 0.5 mm. Activities of liquid samples should be 25-100 microcuries, total. New postal regulations, effective May 20, 1958 (see 23 F. R. 2221, April 4, 1958), limit the mailing of unsealed liquid sources to 0.1 microcurie. Requests for these tests should be submitted, with full details for consideration. (3) Requests for tests not covered by the above schedule, fees will be charged dependent upon the nature of the test.	$14 21 30 43

Item	Description	Fee
204.133z	X-ray inspections—For special tests including the radiographic inspection of metal objects; measurement of X-ray fluorescence; calibration of fluorescent screens; inspection and testing of X-ray equipments; and other special tests not covered by the above schedule, fees will be charged dependent upon the nature of the test.	[illegible]

§ 204.134 Gamma-ray sources. (a) Description.

Item	Description	Fee
204.134a	Gamma-ray measurements of radioactive preparations. Measurement to 0.5-1.5% for radium or encapsulated cobalt 60 having gamma rays 0.5 to 15 mr/hm (milliroentgens per hour at one meter).	$14
204.134b	1+ to 100 mg radium or encapsulated cobalt 60 having gamma rays 15 to 100 mr/hm (milliroentgens per hour at one meter).	21
204.134c	100+ to 800 mg radium or encapsulated cobalt 60 having gamma rays 100 to 200 mr/hm (milliroentgens per hour at one meter).	30
204.134d	200+ to 800 mg radium or encapsulated cobalt 60 having gamma rays 200 to 2000 mr/hm (milliroentgens per hour at one meter).	43
204.134e	For measurements in groups not exceeding 10 preparations, double this fee.
204.134f	For preparations of same content as the total content of the group.
204.134z	For handling and examination of a shipment containing contaminated or leaking preparations the fee will be the same as for measurements of a prepparation having a content equal to the total nominal radioactive content of the shipment.
204.134z	For gamma-ray sources not covered by the above schedule, fees will be charged dependent upon the nature of the test. As only a limited number of special tests can be carried out, prior arrangements must be made including submission of full details concerning the required test.

these contribute to the gamma emission. (At least 30 days for radium.)

(4) Packaging for shipment. Regulations of the Interstate Commerce Commission regarding the shipment of radioactive substances by rail must be complied with. These regulations are enforceable by law and prospective shippers of these substances need to be familiar with them. Copies of the regulations can be obtained from the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

(5) Type of measurements. (i) Radium is calibrated in terms of milligrams of radium content measured relative to the National Radium Standard. Cobalt-60 is calibrated in terms of dose rate, milliroentgens per hour at one meter, based upon comparison with derived standards of Cobalt. Application may be made for other measurements of gamma emitters.

(ii) Postal regulations prohibit mailing radioactive materials which require a caution label under ICC regulations. This effectively prohibits placing radioactive preparations in the mail.

§ 204.902 Calibration of alpha emission rate of sources.

204.902a	Calibration of alpha emission rate of sources submitted for test	$25

PART 10—FEDERAL LAND BANKS GENERALLY

INTEREST RATES ON LOANS MADE THROUGH ASSOCIATIONS

Effective August 1, 1958, the interest rate on loans being closed through national farm loan associations by the Federal Land Bank of New Orleans was reduced from 5½ percent per annum to 5 percent per annum. In order to reflect that change, § 10.41 of Title 6 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as amended (23 F. R. 2137, 3029) is amended by substituting "5" for "5½" in the line with "New Orleans" therein.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE, 1954

Chapter I—Internal Revenue Service, Department of the Treasury

Subchapter A—Income Tax

PART 1—INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1953

PERSONAL HOLDING COMPANIES; DEDUCTIONS FOR DIVIDENDS PAID

On November 16, 1956, notice of proposed rule making regarding the regulations for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1953, and ending after August 16, 1954 (except as otherwise provided) under parts II, III, and IV of subchapter G of chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (21 F. R. 8920). After consideration of all such relevant matter as was presented by interested persons regarding the rules proposed, such regulations are hereby prescribed subject to the changes set forth below. The regulations hereby adopted supersede paragraphs 11, 12, and 13 of Treasury Decision 6118 (Temporary Rules (26 CFR 1954)), approved December 30, 1954.

PARAGRAPH 1. The last sentence in paragraph (a) of § 1.541–1 is revised to read as follows: "See section 6501 (f) and § 301.6501 (f)–1 of the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (Part 301 of this chapter) with respect to the period of limitation on assessment of personal holding company tax upon failure to file a schedule of personal holding company income."

PAR. 2. Section 1.542–2 is revised.

PAR. 3. Paragraph (a) (2) of § 1.542–3 is revised as follows:

(A) Subdivision (iii) (a) is changed.

(B) The first sentence in the example under subdivision (iii) (b) is changed to read as follows: "This subparagraph is illustrated by the following example."

PAR. 4. Paragraph (b) (4) of § 1.542–4 is revised by changing the next to the last sentence in example (2) to read as follows: "Under section 542 (b) (2) and subparagraph (1) of this paragraph both the gross income and the personal holding company income requirements must be satisfied in determining that an affiliated group constitutes an ineligible group."

PAR. 5. Paragraph (b) of § 1.543–1 is revised as follows:

(A) The parenthetical citation in the last sentence of subparagraph (2) is changed to read "(46 U. S. C. 1161 or 1177)".

(B) The first sentence of subparagraph (5) (i) is changed to read as follows: "Except in the case of regular dealers in stocks or securities as provided in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph, gross income and personal holding company income include the amount by which the gains exceed the losses from the sale or exchange of stock or securities."

(C) The last sentence of subparagraph (5) (ii) is changed to read as follows: "See section 1236 and § 1.1236–1."

(D) The first sentence of subparagraph (6) is changed to read as follows: "Gross income and personal holding company income include the amount by which the gains exceed the losses from futures transactions in any commodity on or subject to the rules of a board of trade or commodity exchange."

(E) The last sentence of subparagraph (6) is changed to reads as follows: "See section 1233 and § 1.1233–1."

(F) Subparagraph (8) is changed.

(G) Subparagraph (11) (ii) is changed.

(H) Subparagraph (11) (iii) is changed.

PAR. 6. Paragraph (b) of § 1.544–1 is revised as follows:

(A) Subparagraph (2) is changed.

(B) Subparagraph (3) is changed.

(C) The last sentence is changed to read as follows: "Each of the rules referred to in subparagraphs (2), (3), and (4) of this paragraph is applicable only if it has the effect of satisfying the stock ownership requirement of the section to which applicable; that is, when applied to section 542 (a) (2), its effect is to make the corporation a personal holding company, or when applied to section 543 (a) (5) or section 543 (a) (6), its effect is to make the amounts described in such provisions includible as personal holding company income."

PAR. 7. Paragraph (b) of § 1.544–3 is changed.

PAR. 8. Paragraph (a) of § 1.545–2 is changed.

PAR. 9. Paragraph (b) of § 1.552–4 is changed.

PAR. 10. Paragraph (b) (2) of § 1.553–1 is changed.

PAR. 11. Paragraph (a) of § 1.556–2 is changed.

PAR. 12. Section 1.561–1 is revised.

PAR. 13. Section 1.562–1 is revised as follows:

(A) Paragraph (a) is changed.

(B) Paragraph (b) (1) is changed.

(C) Paragraph (b) (2) (iii) is changed by inserting the word "of" in lieu of the word "or" immediately preceding the amount of "$75,000" at the end of the fifth sentence in example (1).

PAR. 14. Section 1.563–3 is revised as follows:

(A) Paragraph (a) is changed.

(B) The last sentence of paragraph (c) is changed to read as follows: "See paragraph (b) of § 1.9000–8, relating to treatment of certain dividends, prescribed pursuant to section 4 (c) (4) of the Act of June 15, 1955 (Public Law 74, 84th Congress, 69 Stat. 136)."

PAR. 15. Section 1.565–1 is revised as follows:

(A) Paragraph (b) (1) is changed.

(B) The second sentence of paragraph (b) (3) is changed to read as follows: "With such return, and not later than the due date thereof, the corporation must file Forms 972 duly executed by each consenting shareholder, and a return on Form 973 showing by classes the stock outstanding on the first and last days of the taxable year, the dividend rights of such stock, distributions made during the taxable year to shareholders, and giving all the other information required by the form."

(C) Paragraph (c) (1) is changed.

(D) Paragraph (c) (2) is changed.

PAR. 16. Paragraph (a) of § 1.565–2 is revised by changing the reference to "section 565" therein to "section 565 (b)".

PAR. 17. The example in paragraph (c) (2) of § 1.565–2 is changed.

PAR. 18. Paragraph (b) of § 1.565–3 is revised by changing the third sentence in example (1) to read as follows: "If A Corporation was a personal holding company for 1954 and had undistributed personal holding company income for that year of $10,000 or more (determined without regard to distributions under section 316 (b) (2)), the B Corporation must include $10,000 in its gross income as a taxable dividend."

PAR. 19. The following sentence is added at the end of § 1.565–4: "See paragraph (b) (2) of § 1.565–2 for examples illustrating the treatment of distributions which consist in part of consent dividends and in part of other property."

[SEAL] RUSSELL C. HARRINGTON, Commissioner.

Approved: September 3, 1958.

NELSON P. ROSE,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

The regulations set forth below are prescribed under sections 541 to 565 inclusive, of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. Except as otherwise stated in the regulations, the rules are applicable for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1953, and ending after August 16, 1954.

PERSONAL HOLDING COMPANIES

§ 1.541 Statutory provisions; imposition of personal holding company tax.

SEC. 541. Imposition of personal holding company tax. In addition to other taxes imposed by this chapter, there is hereby imposed for each taxable year on the undistributed personal holding company income (as defined in section 545) of every personal holding company (as defined in section 542) a personal holding company tax equal to the sum of—

(1) 75 percent of the undistributed personal holding company income not in excess of $2,000, plus

(2) 85 percent of the undistributed personal holding company income in excess of $2,000.

(a) Section 541 imposes a graduated tax upon corporations classified as personal holding companies under section 542. This tax, if applicable, is in addition to the tax imposed upon corporations generally under section 11. Unless specifically excepted under section 542 (c) the tax applies to domestic and foreign corporations and, to the extent provided by section 542 (b), to an affiliated group of corporations filing a consolidated return. Corporations classified as personal holding companies are exempt from the accumulated earnings tax imposed under section 531 but are not exempt from other income taxes imposed upon corporations generally, under any other provisions of the Code. Unlike the accumulated earnings tax imposed under section 531, the personal holding company tax imposed by section 541 applies to all personal holding companies as defined in section 542, whether or not they were formed or availed of to avoid income tax upon shareholders. See section 6501 (f) and § 301.6501 (f)–1 of the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (Part 301 of this chapter) with respect to the period of limitation on assessment of personal holding company tax upon failure to file a schedule of personal holding company income.

(b) A foreign corporation, whether resident or nonresident, which is classified as a personal holding company is subject to the tax imposed under section 541 with respect to its income from sources within the United States, even though such income is not fixed or determinable annual or periodical income specified in section 881. A foreign corporation is not classified as a personal holding company subject to tax under section 541 if it is a foreign personal holding company as defined in section 552 or if it meets the requirements of the exception provided in section 542 (c) (10).

SEC. 542. Definition of personal holding company—(a) General rule. For purposes of this subtitle, the term "personal holding company" means any corporation (other than a corporation described in subsection (c)) if—

(1) Gross income requirement. At least 80 percent of its gross income for the taxable year is personal holding company income as defined in section 543, and

(2) Stock ownership requirement. At any time during the last half of the taxable year more than 50 percent in value of its outstanding stock is owned, directly or indirectly, by or for not more than 5 individuals. For purposes of this paragraph, an organization described in section 503 (b) or a portion of a trust permanently set aside or to be used exclusively for the purposes described in section 642 (c) or a corresponding provision of a prior income tax law shall be considered an individual. The preceding sentence shall not apply in the case of an organization or trust organized or created before July 1, 1950, if at all times on or after July 1, 1950, and before the close of the taxable year such organization or trust has owned all of the common stock and at least 80 percent of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock of the corporation, but only if such organization or trust is not denied exemption under section 504 or an unlimited charitable deduction is not denied under section 681 (c) and, for this purpose—

(A) All income of the corporation which is available for distribution as dividends to its shareholders at the close of any taxable year shall be deemed to have been distributed at the close of such year whether or not any portion of such income was in fact distributed; and

(B) Section 504 (a) (1) and section 681 (c) (1) shall also not apply to income attributable to property of a decedent dying before January 1, 1951, which was transferred during his lifetime to a trust or property that was transferred under his will to such trust.

(b) Corporations filing consolidated returns—(1) General rule. In the case of an affiliated group of corporations filing or required to file a consolidated return under section 1501 for any taxable year, the gross income requirement of subsection (a) (1) of this section shall, except as provided in paragraphs (2) and (3), be applied for such year with respect to the consolidated gross income and the consolidated personal holding company income of the affiliated group. No member of such an affiliated group shall be considered to meet such gross income requirement unless the affiliated group meets such requirement.

(2) Ineligible affiliated group. Paragraph (1) shall not apply to an affiliated group of corporations, other than an affiliated group of railroad corporations the common parent of which would be eligible to file a consolidated return under section 141 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1942, if—

(A) Any member of the affiliated group of corporations (including the common parent corporation) derived 10 percent or more of its gross income for the taxable year from sources outside the affiliated group, and

(B) 80 percent or more of the amount described in subparagraph (A) consists of personal holding company income (as defined in section 543).

For purposes of this paragraph, section 543 shall be applied as if the amount described in subparagraph (A) were the gross income of the corporation.

(3) Excluded corporations. Paragraph (1) shall not apply to an affiliated group of corporations if any member of the affiliated group (including the common parent corporation) is a corporation excluded from the definition of personal holding company under subsection (c).

(4) Certain dividend income received by a common parent. In applying paragraph (2) (A) and (B), personal holding company income and gross income shall not include dividends received by a common parent corporation from another corporation if—

(A) The common parent corporation owns, directly or indirectly, more than 50 percent of the outstanding voting stock of such other corporation, and

(B) Such other corporation is not a personal holding company for the taxable year in which the dividends are paid.

(c) Exceptions. The term "personal holding company" as defined in subsection (a) does not include—

(1) A corporation exempt from tax under subchapter F (sec. 501 and following);

(2) A bank as defined in section 581;

(3) A life insurance company;

(4) A surety company;

(5) A foreign personal holding company as defined in section 552;

(6) A licensed personal finance company under State supervision, 80 percent or more of the gross income of which is lawful interest received from loans made to individuals in accordance with the provisions of applicable State law if at least 60 percent of such gross income is lawful interest—

(A) Received from individuals each of whose indebtedness to such company did not at any time during the taxable year exceed in principal amount the limit prescribed for small loans by such law (or, if there is no such limit, $500), and

(B) Not payable in advance or compounded and computed only on unpaid balances, and if the loans to a person, who is a shareholder in such company during the taxable year by or for whom 10 percent or more in value of its outstanding stock is owned directly or indirectly (including, in the case of an individual, stock owned by the members of his family as defined in section 544 (a) (2)), outstanding at any time during such year do not exceed $5,000 in principal amount;

(7) A lending company, not otherwise excepted by this subsection, authorized to engage in the small loan business under one or more State statutes providing for the direct regulation of such business, 80 percent or more of the gross income of which is lawful interest, discount or other authorized charges—

(A) Received from loans maturing in not more than 36 months made to individuals in accordance with the provisions of applicable State law, and

(B) Which do not, in the case of any individual loan, exceed in the aggregate an amount equal to simple interest at the rate of 3 percent per month not payable in advance and computed only on unpaid balances, if at least 60 percent of the gross income is lawful interest, discount or other authorized charges received from individuals each of whose indebtedness to such company did not at any time during the taxable year exceed in principal amount the limit prescribed for small loans by such law (or, if there is no such limit, $500), and if the deductions allowed to such company under section 162 (relating to trade or business expenses), other than for compensation for personal services rendered by shareholders (including members of the shareholder's family as described in section 544 (a) (2)) constitute 15 percent or more of its gross income, and the loans to a person, who is a shareholder in such company during the taxable year by or for whom 10 percent or more in value of its outstanding stock is owned directly or indirectly (including, in the case of an individual, stock owned by the members of his family as defined in section 544 (a) (2)), outstanding at any time during such year do not exceed $5,000 in principal amount;

(8) A loan or investment corporation, a substantial part of the business of which consists of receiving funds not subject to check and evidenced by installment or fully paid certificates of indebtedness or investment, and making loans and discounts, and the loans to a person who is a shareholder in such corporation during such taxable year by or for whom 10 percent or more in value of its outstanding stock is owned directly or indirectly (including, in the case of an individual, stock owned by the members of his family as defined in section 544 (a) (2)) outstanding at any time during such year do not exceed $5,000 in principal amount;

(9) A finance company, actively and regularly engaged in the business of purchasing or discounting accounts or notes receivable or installment obligations, or making loans secured by any of the foregoing or by tangible personal property, at least 80 percent of the gross income of which is derived from such business in accordance with the provisions of applicable State law or does not constitute personal holding company income as defined in section 543, if 60 percent of the gross income is derived from one or more of the following classes of transactions—

(A) Purchasing or discounting accounts or notes receivable, or installment obligations evidenced or secured by contracts of conditional sale, chattel mortgages, or chattel lease agreements, arising out of the sale of goods or services in the course of the transferor's trade or business;

(B) Making loans, maturing in not more than 36 months, to, and for the business purposes of, persons engaged in trade or business, secured by—

(i) Accounts or notes receivable, or installment obligations, described in subparagraph (A);

(ii) Warehouse receipts, bills of lading, trust receipts, chattel mortgages, bailments, or factor's liens, covering or evidencing the borrower's inventories;

(iii) A chattel mortgage on property used in the borrower's trade or business; except loans to any single borrower which for more than 90 days in the taxable year of the company exceed 15 percent of the average funds employed by the company during such taxable year;

(C) Making loans, in accordance with the provisions of applicable State law, secured by chattel mortgages on tangible personal property, the original amount of each of which is not less than the limit referred to in, or prescribed by, paragraph (6) (A), and the aggregate principal amount of which owing by any one borrower to the company at any time during the taxable year of the company does not exceed $5,000; and

(D) If 30 percent or more of the gross income of the company is derived from one or more of the classes of transactions described in subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C), purchasing, discounting, or lending upon the

...ility of, installment obligations of individuals where the transferor or borrower received such obligations either in transactions of the classes described in subparagraphs (A) and (C) or as a result of loans made by such transferor or borrower in accordance with the provisions of subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (6) or of subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (7) of this subsection, if the funds so supplied at all times bear an agreed ratio to the unpaid balance of the assigned installment obligations, and documents evidencing such obligations are held by the company; provided that the deductions allowable under section 162 (relating to trade or business expenses), other than compensation for personal services rendered by shareholders (including members of the shareholder's family as described in section 544 (a) (2)), constitute 15 percent or more of the gross income, and that loans to a person who is a shareholder in such company during such taxable year by or for whom 10 percent or more in value of its outstanding stock is owned directly or indirectly (including, in the case of an individual, stock owned by members of his family as defined in section 544 (a) (2)), outstanding at any time during such year do not exceed $5,000 in principal amount;

(10) A foreign corporation if—

(A) Its gross income from sources within the United States for the period specified in section 861 (a) (2) (B) is less than 50 percent of its total gross income from all sources, and

(B) All of its stock outstanding during the last half of the taxable year is owned by nonresident alien individuals, whether directly or indirectly through other foreign corporations.

[Sec. 542 as amended by sec. 3, Act of Aug. 12, 1955 (Pub. Law 385, 84th Cong., 69 Stat. 711). Sec. 3, Pub. Law 385, added the last sentence of sec. 542 (a) (2), effective with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1954]

§ 1.542–1 General rule. A personal holding company is any corporation (other than one specifically excepted under section 542 (c)) which, for the taxable year, meets—

(a) The gross income requirement specified in section 542 (a) (1) and § 1.542–2, and

(b) The stock ownership requirement specified in section 542 (a) (2) and § 1.542–3.

Both requirements must be satisfied with respect to each taxable year.

§ 1.542–2 Gross income requirement. To meet the gross income requirement it is necessary that at least 80 percent of the total gross income of the corporation for the taxable year be personal holding company income as defined in section 543 and §§ 1.543–1 and 1.543–2. For the definition of "gross income" see section 61 and §§ 1.61–1 through 1.61–14. Under such provisions gross income is not necessarily synonymous with gross receipts. Further, in the case of transactions in stocks and securities and in commodities transactions, gross income for personal holding company tax purposes shall include only the excess of gains over losses from such transactions. See section 543 (b), paragraph (b) (5) and (6) of §§ 1.543–1, and 1.543–2.

§ 1.542–3 Stock ownership requirement.—(a) General rule. To meet the stock ownership requirement, it is necessary that at some time during the last half of the taxable year more than 50 percent in value of the outstanding stock of the corporation be owned, directly or indirectly, by or for not more than 5 individuals. Any organization or trust to which subparagraph (1) of this paragraph applies shall be considered as one individual for purposes of this stock ownership requirement subject, however, to the exception in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph which is applicable only to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1954. Thus, if an organization or trust which is considered as an individual owns 51 percent in value of the outstanding stock of the corporation at any time during the last half of the taxable year, the stock ownership requirement will be met by ownership of the required percentage by one individual. See section 544 and §§ 1.544–1 through 1.544–7 for the determination of stock ownership.

(1) An organization or trust considered as an individual. Any of the following organizations or trusts shall be considered as an individual:

(i) An organization to which section 503 applies, namely, any organization described in section 501 (c) (3) (relating to charitable, etc., organizations) or section 401 (a) (relating to employees' pension trust, etc.) other than an organization excepted from the application of section 503 by paragraphs (1) to (5) of section 503 (b). Therefore, a religious organization (other than a trust) excepted under section 503 (b) (1) is not considered an individual for purposes of the stock ownership requirement of section 542 (a) (2).

(ii) A portion of a trust permanently set aside or to be used exclusively for the purposes described in section 642 (c), relating to amounts set aside for charitable purposes, or described in a corresponding provision of the prior income tax law (such as section 162 (a), Internal Revenue Code of 1939).

(2) Exception. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1954, an organization or trust to which subparagraph (1) of this paragraph applies shall not be considered an individual if all of the following conditions are met:

(i) It was organized or created before July 1, 1950,

(ii) At all times on or after July 1, 1950, and before the close of the taxable year, it owned all of the common stock and at least 80 percent of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock of the corporation, and

(iii) (a) For the taxable year it is not denied exemption under section 504 or the unlimited charitable deduction under section 681 (c). In determining whether, for the purpose of section 542 (a) (2), exemption is not denied under section 504 (a) or the unlimited charitable deduction is not denied under section 681 (c) all the income of the corporation which is available for distribution as dividends to its shareholders shall be deemed to have been distributed at the close of the taxable year whether or not any portion of such income was in fact distributed. If the amounts described in section 504 (a) or section 681 (c), increased by the income of the corporation deemed distributed pursuant to the preceding sentence, would be sufficient to deny exemption or the unlimited charitable deduction, the organization or trust will be considered to be an individual for the purpose of section 542 (a) (2). For the purpose of this subdivision the restrictions in sections 504 (a) (1) and 681 (c) (1) against unreasonable accumulations will not apply to income attributable to property of a decedent dying before January 1, 1951, which was transferred during his lifetime to a trust or property that was transferred under his will to such trust.

(b) Example. This subparagraph is illustrated by the following example. The X Charitable Foundation (an organization described in section 501 (c) (3) to which section 503 is applicable) has owned all of the stock of the Y Corporation since Y's organization in 1949. Both X and Y are calendar year corporations. At the end of the year 1955, X has accumulated $100,000 out of income and has actually paid out only $75,000 of this amount, leaving a balance of $25,000 on December 31, 1955. X was not denied an exemption under section 504 (a) for the year 1955. Y, during the calendar year 1955, has $400,000 taxable income of which $200,000 is available for distribution as dividends at the end of the year. X will be considered to have accumulated out of income during the calendar year 1955 the amount of $225,000 for the purpose of determining whether it would have been denied an exemption under section 504 (a) (1). If X would have been denied an exemption under section 504 (a) (1) by reason of having been deemed to have accumulated $225,000, the stock ownership requirement of section 542 (a) (2) and this section will have been satisfied. If Y Corporation also satisfies the gross income requirement of section 542 (a) (1) and § 1.542–2 it will be a personal holding company.

(b) Changes in stock outstanding. It is necessary to consider any change in the stock outstanding during the last half of the taxable year, whether in the number of shares or classes of stock, or in the ownership thereof. Stock subscribed and paid for will be considered as stock outstanding, whether or not such stock is evidenced by issued certificates. Treasury stock shall not be considered as stock outstanding.

(c) Value of stock outstanding. The value of the stock outstanding shall be determined in the light of all the circumstances. The value may be determined upon the basis of the company's net worth, earning and dividend paying capacity, appreciation of assets, together with such other factors as have a bearing upon the value of the stock. If the value of the stock is greatly at variance with that reflected by the corporate books, the evidence of such value should be filed with the return. In any case where there are two or more classes of stock outstanding, the total value of all the stock should be allocated among the different classes according to the relative value of each class.

(d) Applicability of rules. The rules stated in this section are equally applicable in determining the stock ownership requirement specified in section 543 (a) (5), relating to personal service contracts, and in section 543 (a) (6), relating to the use of corporation property by a shareholder. The stock ownership requirement specified in these sections relates, however, to the stock outstanding at any time during the entire taxable year and not merely during the last half thereof.

§ 1.542–4 Corporations filing consolidated returns—(a) General rule. A consolidated return under section 1501 shall determine the application of the personal holding company tax to the group and to any member thereof on the basis of the consolidated gross income and consolidated personal holding company income of the group, as determined under the regulations prescribed pursuant to section 1502 (relating to consolidated returns); however, this rule shall not apply to either (1) an ineligible affiliated group as defined in section 542 (b) (2) and paragraph (b) of this section, or (2) an affiliated group of corporations a member of which is excluded from the definition of a personal holding company under section 542 (c) and paragraph (c) of this section. Thus, in the latter two instances the gross income requirement provided in section 542 (a) (1) and § 1.542–2 shall apply to each individual member of the affiliated group of corporations.

(b) Ineligible affiliated group. (1) Except for certain affiliated railroad corporations, as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, an affiliated group of corporations is an ineligible affiliated group and therefore may not use its consolidated gross income and consolidated personal holding company income to determine the liability of the group or any member thereof for personal holding company tax (as provided in paragraph (a) of this section), if (i) any member of such group, including the common parent, derived gross income from sources outside the affiliated group for the taxable year in an amount equal to 10 percent or more of its gross income from all sources for that year and (ii) 80 percent or more of the gross income from sources outside the affiliated group consists of personal holding company income as defined in section 543 and §§ 1.543–1 and 1.543–2. For purposes of subdivision (i) of this subparagraph gross income shall not include certain dividend income received by a common parent from a corporation not a member of the affiliated group which qualifies under section 542 (b) (4) and paragraph (d) of this section. See particularly the examples contained in paragraph (d) (2) of this section. Intercorporate dividends received by members of the affiliated group (including the common parent) are to be included in the gross income from all sources for purposes of the test in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph. For purposes of subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph, section 543 and paragraph (a) of § 1.543–1 shall be applied as if the amount of gross income derived from sources outside the affiliated group by a corporation which is a member of such group is the gross income of such corporation.

(2) An affiliated group of railroad corporations shall not be considered to be an ineligible affiliated group, notwithstanding any other provisions of section 542 (b) (2) and this paragraph, if the common parent of such group would be eligible to file a consolidated return under section 141 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1942.

(3) See section 562 (d) and § 1.562–3 for dividends paid deduction in the case of a distribution by a member of an ineligible affiliated group.

(4) The determination of whether an affiliated group of corporations is an ineligible group under section 542 (b) (2) and this paragraph, may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). Corporations X, Y, and Z constitute an affiliated group of corporations which files a consolidated return for the calendar year 1954; Corporations Y and Z are wholly-owned subsidiaries of Corporation X and derive no gross income from sources outside the affiliated group; Corporation X, the common parent, has gross income in the amount of $250,000 for the taxable year 1954. $200,000 of such gross income consists of dividends received from Corporations Y and Z. The remaining $50,000 was derived from sources outside the affiliated group, $40,000 of which represents personal holding company income as defined in section 543. The $50,000 included in the gross income of Corporation X and derived from sources outside the affiliated group is more than 10 percent of X's gross income ($50,000/250,000) and the $40,000 which represents personal holding company income is 80 percent of $50,000 (the amount considered to be the gross income of Corporation X). Accordingly, Corporations X, Y, and Z would be an ineligible affiliated group and the gross income requirement under section 542 (a) (1) and § 1.542–2 would be applied to each corporation individually.

Example (2). If, in the above example, only $30,000 of the $50,000 derived from sources outside the affiliated group by Corporation X represented personal holding company income, this group of affiliated corporations would not be an ineligible affiliated group. Although the $50,000 representing the gross income of Corporation X from sources outside the affiliated group is more than 10 percent of its total gross income, the amount of $30,000 representing personal holding company income is not 80 percent or more of the amount considered to be gross income for the purpose of this test. Under section 542 (b) (2) and subparagraph (1) of this paragraph both the gross income and the personal holding company income requirements must be satisfied in determining that an affiliated group constitutes an ineligible group. Since both of these requirements have not been satisfied in this example this group of affiliated corporations would not be an ineligible group.

(c) Excluded corporations. The general rule for determining liability of an affiliated group under paragraph (a) of this section shall not apply if any member thereof is a corporation which is excluded, under section 542 (c), from the definition of a personal holding company.

(d) Certain dividend income received by a common parent. (1) Dividends received by the common parent of an affiliated group from a corporation which is not a member of the affiliated group shall not be included in gross income or personal holding company income, for the purpose of the test under section 542 (b) (2)—

(i) If such common parent owned, directly or indirectly, more than 80 percent of the outstanding voting stock of the dividend paying corporation at the time such common parent became entitled to the dividend, and

(ii) If the dividend paying corporation is not a personal holding company for the taxable year in which the dividends are paid.

Thus, if the tests in subdivisions (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph are met, the dividend income received by the common parent from such other corporation will not be considered gross income for purposes of the test in section 542 (b) (2) (A) (paragraph (b) of this section), that is, either to determine gross income from sources outside the affiliated group or to determine gross income from all sources.

(2) The application of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). Corporation X is the common parent of Corporation Y and Corporation Z and together they constitute an affiliated group which files a consolidated return under section 1501. Corporation Y and Corporation Z derived no income from sources outside the affiliated group. Corporation X, the common parent, had gross income of $100,000 for the calendar year 1954 of which amount $20,000 represented a dividend received from Corporation W, and $4,000 represented interest from Corporation T. The remaining gross income of X, $76,000, was received from Corporations Y and Z. Corporation X, for its entire taxable year, owned 60 percent of the voting stock of Corporation W which was not a personal holding company for the calendar year 1954. For the purpose of the gross income and personal holding company income test under section 542 (b) (2) and paragraph (b) of this section, the $20,000 dividend received from Corporation W would not be included in the gross income or personal holding company income of Corporation X. The affiliated group would not be an ineligible group under section 542 (b) (2) because 10 percent or more of its gross income was not from sources outside the affiliated group as required by section 542 (b) (2) (A). Inasmuch as the $20,000 dividend from Corporation W is not included in the gross income of Corporation X for purposes of section 542 (b) (2) Corporation X only has $4,000 gross income from sources outside the affiliated group which is only 5 percent of its gross income from all sources, $80,000.

Example (2). If, in example (1), Corporation X owned 50 percent or less of the voting stock of Corporation W at the time X became entitled to the dividend, or if Corporation W had been a personal holding company for the taxable year in which the dividends were paid, the $20,000 dividends received by Corporation X would be included in gross income and personal holding company income of Corporation X for the purpose of the test under section 542 (b) (2) and paragraph (b) of this section. Thus, the affiliated group would be an ineligible affiliated group under section 542 (b) (2) because 24 percent of its gross income was from sources outside the affiliated group ($24,000/$100,000) and 100 percent of this $24,000 was personal holding company income.

SEC. 543. Personal holding company income—(a) General rule. For purposes of this subtitle, the term "personal holding company income" means the portion of the gross income which consists of:

(1) Dividends, etc. Dividends, interest, royalties (other than mineral, oil, or gas royalties), and annuities. This paragraph shall not apply to interest constituting rent as defined in paragraph (7) or to interest on amounts set aside in a reserve fund under section 511 or 607 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936.

(2) Stock and securities transactions. Except in the case of regular dealers in stock or securities, gains from the sale or exchange of stock or securities.

(3) Commodities transactions. Gains from futures transactions in any commodity on or subject to the rules of a board of trade or commodity exchange. This paragraph shall not apply to gains by a producer, processor, merchant, or handler of the commodity which arise out of bona fide hedging transactions reasonably necessary to the conduct of its business in the manner in which such business is customarily and usually conducted by others.

(4) Estates and trusts. Amounts includible in computing the taxable income of the corporation under part I of subchapter J (sec. 641 and following, relating to estates, trusts, and beneficiaries); and gains from the sale or other disposition of any interest in an estate or trust.

(5) Personal service contracts. (A) Amounts received under a contract under which the corporation is to furnish personal services; if some person other than the corporation has the right to designate (by name or by description) the individual who is to perform the services, or if the individual who is to perform the services is designated (by name or by description) in the contract; and

(B) Amounts received from the sale or other disposition of such a contract.

This paragraph shall apply with respect to amounts received for services under a particular contract only if at some time during the taxable year 25 percent or more in value of the outstanding stock of the corporation is owned, directly or indirectly, by or for the individual who has performed, is to perform, or may be designated (by name or by description) as the one to perform, such services.

(6) Use of corporation property by shareholder. Amounts received as compensation (however designated and from whomsoever received) for the use of, or right to use, property of the corporation in any case where, at any time during the taxable year, 25 percent or more in value of the outstanding stock of the corporation is owned, directly or indirectly, by or for an individual entitled to the use of the property; whether such right is obtained directly from the corporation or by means of a sublease or other arrangement. This paragraph shall apply only to a corporation which has personal holding company income for the taxable year, computed without regard to this paragraph and paragraph (7), in excess of 10 percent of its gross income.

(7) Rents. Rents, unless constituting 50 percent or more of the gross income. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "rents" means compensation, however designated, for the use of, or right to use, property, and the interest on debts owed to the corporation, to the extent such debts represent the price for which real property held primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of its trade or business was sold or exchanged by the corporation; but does not include amounts constituting personal holding company income under paragraph (6).

(8) Mineral, oil, or gas royalties. Mineral, oil, or gas royalties, unless—

(A) Such royalties constitute 50 percent or more of the gross income, and

(B) The deductions allowable under section 162 (relating to trade or business expenses) other than compensation for personal services rendered by the shareholders, constitute 15 percent or more of the gross income.

(b) Limitation on gross income in certain transactions. For purposes of this part—

(1) Gross income and personal holding company income determined with respect to transactions described in section 543 (a) (2) (relating to gains from stock and security transactions) shall include only the excess of gains over losses from such transactions, and

(2) Gross income and personal holding company income determined with respect to transactions described in section 543 (a) (3) (relating to gains from commodity transactions) shall include only the excess of gains over losses from such transactions.

(c) Gross income of insurance companies other than life or mutual. In the case of an insurance company other than life or mutual, the term "gross income" as used in this part means the gross income, as defined in section 832 (b) (1), increased by the amount of losses incurred, as defined in section 832 (b) (5), and the amount of expenses incurred, as defined in section 832 (b) (6), and decreased by the amount deductible under section 832 (c) (7) (relating to tax-free interest).

§ 1.543–1 Personal holding company income—(a) General rule. The term "personal holding company income" means the portion of the gross income which consists of the classes of gross income described in paragraph (b) of this section. See section 542 (b) and § 1.543–2 for special limitations on gross income and personal holding company income in cases of gains from stocks', securities', and commodities' transactions.

(b) Definitions—(1) Dividends. The term "dividends" includes dividends as defined in section 316 and amounts required to be included in gross income under section 551 and §§ 1.551–1—1.551–2 (relating to foreign personal holding company income taxed to United States shareholders).

(2) Interest. The term "interest" means any amounts, includible in gross income, received for the use of money loaned. However, (i) interest which constitutes "rent" shall not be classified as interest but shall be classified as "rents" (see subparagraph (10) of this paragraph) and (ii) interest on amounts set aside in a reserve fund under section 511 or 607 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936 (46 U. S. C. 1161 or 1177), shall not be included in personal holding company income.

(3) Royalties (other than mineral, oil, or gas royalties). The term "royalties" (other than mineral, oil, or gas royalties) includes amounts received for the privilege of using patents, copyrights, secret processes and formulas, good will, trade marks, trade brands, franchises, and other like property. It does not, however, include rents. For rules relating to rents see section 543 (a) (7) and subparagraph (10) of this paragraph. For rules relating to mineral, oil, or gas royalties, see section 543 (a) (8) and subparagraph (11) of this paragraph.

(4) Annuities. The term "annuities" includes annuities only to the extent includible in the computation of gross income. See section 72 and §§ 1.72–1—1.72–14 for rules relating to the inclusion of annuities in gross income.

(5) Gains from the sale or exchange of stock or securities. (i) Except in the case of regular dealers in stocks or securities as provided in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph, gross income and personal holding company income include the amount by which the gains exceed the losses from the sale or exchange of stock or securities. See section 543 (b) (1) and § 1.543–2 for provisions relating to this limitation. For this purpose, there shall be taken into account all those gains includible in gross income (including gains from liquidating dividends and other distributions from capital) and all those losses deductible from gross income which are considered under chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to be gains or losses from the sale or exchange of stock or securities. The term "stock or securities" as used in section 543 (a) (2) and this subparagraph includes shares or certificates of stock, stock rights or warrants, or interest in any corporation (including any joint stock company, insurance company, association, or other organization classified as a corporation by the Internal Revenue Code of 1954), certificates of interest or participation in any profit-sharing agreement, or in any oil, gas, or other mineral property, or lease, collateral trust certificates, voting trust certificates, bonds, debentures, certificates of indebtedness, notes, car trust certificates, bills of exchange, obligations issued by or on behalf of a State, Territory, or political subdivision thereof.

(ii) In the case of "regular dealers in stock or securities" there shall not be included gains or losses derived from the sale or exchange of stock or securities made in the normal course of business. The term "regular dealer in stock or securities" means a corporation with an established place of business regularly engaged in the purchase of stock or securities and their resale to customers. However, such corporations shall not be considered as regular dealers with respect to stock or securities which are held for investment. See section 1236 and § 1.1236–1.

(6) Gains from futures transactions in commodities. Gross income and personal holding company income include the amount by which the gains exceed the losses from futures transactions in any commodity on or subject to the rules of a board of trade or commodity exchange. See § 1.543–2 for provisions relating to this limitation. In general, for the purpose of determining such excess, there are included all gains and losses on futures contracts which are speculative. However, for the purpose of determining such excess, there shall not be included gains or losses from cash transactions, or gains or losses by a producer, processor, merchant, or handler of the commodity, which arise out of bona fide hedging transactions reasonably necessary to the conduct of its business in the manner in which such business is customarily and usually conducted by others. See section 1233 and § 1.1233–1.

(7) Estates and trusts. Under section 543 (a) (4) personal holding company income includes amounts includible in computing the taxable income of the corporation under part I of subchapter J (relating to estates, trusts, and beneficiaries); and any gain derived by the corporation from the sale or other disposition of any interest in an estate or trust.

(8) Personal service contracts. (i) Under section 543 (a) (5) amounts received under a contract under which the corporation is to furnish personal services, as well as amounts received from the sale or other disposition of such contract, shall be included as personal holding company income if—

(a) Some person other than the corporation has the right to designate (by name or by description) the individual who is to perform the services, or if the individual who is to perform the services is designated (by name or by description) in the contract; and

(b) At any time during the taxable year 25 percent or more in value of the outstanding stock of the corporation is owned, directly or indirectly, by or for the individual who has performed, is to perform, or may be designated (by name or by description) as the one to perform, such services. For this purpose, the value of the outstanding stock shall be determined in accordance with the rules set forth in § 1.542–3. It should be noted that the stock ownership requirement of section 543 (a) (5) and this subparagraph relates to the stock ownership at any time during the taxable year. For rules relating to the determination of stock ownership, see section 544 and §§ 1.544–1—1.544–7.

(ii) If the contract, in addition to requiring the performance of services by a 25-percent stockholder who is designated or who could be designated (as specified in section 543 (a) (5) and subdivision (i) of this subparagraph), requires the performance of services by other persons which are important and essential, then only that portion of the amount received under such contract which is attributable to the personal services of the 25-percent stockholder shall constitute personal holding company income. Incidental personal services of other persons employed by the corporation to facilitate the performance of the services by the 25-percent stockholder, however, shall not constitute important or essential services. Under section 482 gross income, deductions, credits, or allowances between or among organizations, trades, or businesses may be allocated if it is determined that allocation is necessary in order to prevent evasion of taxes or clearly to reflect the income of any such organizations, trades, or businesses.

(iii) The application of section 543 (a) (5) and this subparagraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). A, whose profession is that of an actor, owns all of the outstanding capital stock of the M Corporation. The M Corporation entered into a contract with A under which A was to perform personal services for the person or persons whom the M Corporation might designate, in consideration of which A was to receive $10,000 a year from the M Corporation. The M Corporation entered into a contract with the O Corporation in which A was designated to perform personal services for the O Corporation in consideration of which the O Corporation was to pay the M Corporation $500,000 a year. The $500,000 received by the M Corporation from the O Corporation constitutes personal holding company income.

Example (2). Assume the same facts as in example (1), except that, in addition to A's contract with the M Corporation, B, whose profession is that of a dancer and C, whose profession is that of a singer, were also under contract to the M Corporation to perform personal services for the person or persons whom the M Corporation might designate, in consideration of which they were each to receive $25,000 a year from the M Corporation. Neither B nor C were stockholders of the M Corporation. The contract entered into by the M Corporation with the O Corporation, in addition to designating that A was to perform personal services for the O Corporation, designated that B and C were also to perform personal services for the O Corporation. Although the O Corporation particularly desired the services of A for an entertainment program it planned, it also desired the services of B and C, who were prominent in their fields, to provide a good supporting cast for the program. The services of B and C required under the contract are determined to be important and essential; therefore, only that portion of the $500,000 received by the M Corporation which is attributable to the personal services of A constitutes personal holding company income. The same result would obtain although the dancer and the singer required by the contract were not designated by name but the contract gave the M Corporation discretion to select and provide the services of a singer and a dancer for the program and such services were provided.

Example (3). The N Corporation is engaged in engineering. Its entire outstanding capital stock is owned by four individuals. The N Corporation entered into a contract with the R Corporation to perform engineering services in consideration of which the R Corporation was to pay the N Corporation $50,000. The individual who was to perform the services was not designated (by name or by description) in the contract and no one but the N Corporation had the right to designate (by name or by description) such individual. The $50,000 received by the N Corporation from the R Corporation does not constitute personal holding company income.

(9) Compensation for use of property. Under section 543 (a) (6) amounts received as compensation for the use of, or right to use, property of the corporation shall be included as personal holding company income if, at any time during the taxable year, 25 percent or more in value of the outstanding stock of the corporation is owned directly or indirectly, by or for an individual entitled to the use of the property. Thus, if a shareholder who meets the stock ownership requirements of section 543 (a) (6) and this subparagraph uses, or has the right to use a yacht, residence or other property owned by the corporation, the compensation to the corporation for such use, or right to use, the property constitutes personal holding company income. This is true even though the shareholder may acquire the use of, or the right to use, the property by means of a sublease or under any other arrangement involving parties other than the corporation and the shareholder. However, if the personal holding company income of the corporation (after excluding any such income described in section 543 (a) (6) and this subparagraph, relating to compensation for use of property, and after excluding any such income described in section 543 (a) (7) and subparagraph (10) of this paragraph, relating to rents) is not more than 10 percent of its gross income, compensation for the use of property shall not constitute personal holding company income. For the purpose of applying section 543 (a) (6) and this subparagraph, the value of the outstanding stock shall be determined in accordance with the rules set forth in § 1.542–3. It should be noted that the stock ownership requirement of section 543 (a) (6) and this subparagraph relates to the stock outstanding at any time during the entire taxable year. For rules relating to the determination of stock ownership, see section 544 and §§ 1.544–1—1.544–7.

(10) Rents (including interest constituting rents). Rents which are to be included as personal holding company income consist of compensation (however designated) for the use, or right to use, property of the corporation. The term "rents" does not include amounts includible in personal holding company income under section 543 (a) (6) and subparagraph (9) of this paragraph. The amounts considered as rents include charter fees, etc., for the use of, or the right to use, property, as well as interest on debts owed to the corporation (to the extent such debts represent the price for which real property held primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of the corporation's trade or business was sold or exchanged by the corporation). However, if the amount of the rents includible under section 543 (a) (7) and this subparagraph constitutes 50 percent or more of the gross income of the corporation, such rents shall not be considered to be personal holding company income.

(11) Mineral, oil, or gas royalties. (i) The income from mineral, oil, or gas royalties is to be included as personal holding company income, unless (a) the aggregate amount of such royalties constitutes 50 percent or more of the gross income of the corporation for the taxable year and (b) the aggregate amount of deductions allowable under section 162 (other than compensation for personal services rendered by the shareholders of the corporation) equals 15 percent or more of the gross income of the corporation for the taxable year.

(ii) The term "mineral, oil, or gas royalties" means all royalties, including production payments and overriding royalties, received from any interest in mineral, oil, or gas properties. The term "mineral" includes those minerals which are included within the meaning of the term "minerals" in the regulations under section 611.

(iii) The first sentence of subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph shall apply to overriding royalties received from the sublessee by the operating company which originally leased and developed the natural resource property in respect of which such overriding royalties are paid, and to mineral, oil, or gas production payments, only with respect to amounts received after September 30, 1958.

§ 1.543–2 Limitation on gross income and personal holding company income in transactions involving stocks, securities and commodities. (a) Under section 543 (b) (1) the gains which are to be included in gross income, and in personal holding company income with respect to transactions described in section 543 (a) (2) and paragraph (b) (5) of § 1.543–1, shall be the net gains from the sale or exchange of stock or securities. If there is an excess of losses over gains from such transactions, such excess (or net loss) shall not be used to reduce gross income or personal holding company income for purposes of the personal holding company tax. Similarly, under section 543 (b) (2) the gains which are to be included in gross income, and in personal holding company income with respect to transactions described in section 543 (a) (3) and paragraph (b) (6) of § 1.543–1, shall be the net gains from commodity transactions which reflect personal holding company income. Any excess of losses over gains from such transactions (resulting in a net loss) shall not be used to reduce gross income or personal holding company income. The capital loss carryover under section 1212 shall not be taken into account.

(b) The application of section 543 (b) may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). The P Corporation, not a regular dealer in stocks and securities, received rentals of $250,000 for its property from a 25-percent shareholder, and also had gains of $50,000 during the taxable year from the sale of stocks and securities. It also had losses on the sale of stocks and securities in the amount of $30,000. Accordingly, P Corporation had gross income during the taxable year of $270,000 ($250,000 plus $20,000 net gain from the sales of stocks and securities). It had personal holding company income of $20,000. (The rentals of $250,000 would not be personal holding company income under section 543 (a) (6) since the personal holding company income of the corporation, $20,000 (after excluding any such income described in section 543 (a) (6)), is not more than 10 percent of its gross income.)

Example (2). The R Corporation, not a regular dealer in stocks or securities, realized total gains during the taxable year of $900,000 from commodity futures transactions and $200,000 from the sales of stocks and securities. It also sustained total losses of $1,000,000 on such commodity futures transactions, resulting in a net gain for the taxable year of $100,000. None of the commodity futures transactions are hedging or other types of futures transactions excluded from the application of section 543 (a) (3). No part of the loss on commodity futures transactions is to be taken into account in determining personal holding company income and gross income for personal holding company tax purposes for the taxable year. The full amount of the $200,000 in gains from the sales of stocks and securities is to be included in personal holding company income and in gross income for personal holding company tax purposes for the taxable year.

Sec. 544. Rules for determining stock ownership—(a) Constructive ownership. For purposes of determining whether a corporation is a personal holding company, insofar as such determination is based on stock ownership under section 542 (a) (2), section 543 (a) (5), or section 543 (a) (6)—

(1) Stock not owned by individual. Stock owned, directly or indirectly, by or for a corporation, partnership, estate, or trust shall be considered as being owned proportionately by its shareholders, partners, or beneficiaries.

(2) Family and partnership ownership. An individual shall be considered as owning the stock owned, directly or indirectly, by or for his family or by or for his partner. For purposes of this paragraph, the family of an individual includes only his brothers and sisters (whether by the whole or half blood), spouse, ancestors, and lineal descendants.

(3) Options. If any person has an option to acquire stock, such stock shall be considered as owned by such person. For purposes of this paragraph, an option to acquire such an option, and each one of a series of such options, shall be considered as an option to acquire such stock.

(4) Application of family-partnership and option rules. Paragraphs (2) and (3) shall be applied—

(A) For purposes of the stock ownership requirement provided in section 542 (a) (2), if, but only if, the effect is to make the corporation a personal holding company;

(B) For purposes of section 543 (a) (5) (relating to personal service contracts), or of section 543 (a) (6) (relating to the use of property by shareholders), if, but only if, the effect is to make the amounts therein referred to includible under such paragraph as personal holding company income.

(5) Constructive ownership as actual ownership. Stock constructively owned by a person by reason of the application of paragraph (1) or (3) shall, for purposes of applying paragraph (1) or (2), be treated as actually owned by such person; but stock constructively owned by an individual by reason of the application of paragraph (2) shall not be treated as owned by him for purposes of again applying such paragraph in order to make another the constructive owner of such stock.

(6) Option rule in lieu of family and partnership rule. If stock may be considered as owned by an individual under either paragraph (2) or (3) it shall be considered as owned by him under paragraph (3).

(b) Convertible securities. Outstanding securities convertible into stock (whether or not convertible during the taxable year) shall be considered as outstanding stock—

(1) For purposes of the stock ownership requirement provided in section 542 (a) (2), but only if the effect of the inclusion of all such securities is to make the corporation a personal holding company;

(2) For purposes of section 543 (a) (5) (relating to personal service contracts), but only if the effect of the inclusion of all such securities is to make the amounts therein referred to includible under such paragraph as personal holding company income; and

(3) For purposes of section 543 (a) (6) (relating to the use of property by shareholders), but only if the effect of the inclusion of all such securities is to make the amounts therein referred to includible under such paragraph as personal holding company income.

The requirement in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) that all convertible securities must be included if any are to be included shall be subject to the exception that, where some of the outstanding securities are convertible only after a later date than in the case of others, the class having the earlier conversion date may be included although the others are not included, but no convertible securities shall be included unless all outstanding securities having a prior conversion date are also included.

§ 1.544–1 Constructive ownership. (a) Rules relating to the constructive ownership of stock are provided by section 544 for the purpose of determining whether the stock ownership requirements of the following sections are satisfied:

(1) Section 542 (a) (2), relating to ownership of stock by five or fewer individuals;

(2) Section 543 (a) (5), relating to personal holding company income derived from personal service contracts;

(3) Section 543 (a) (6), relating to personal holding company income derived from property used by shareholders.

(b) Section 544 provides four general rules with respect to constructive ownership. These rules are:

(1) Constructive ownership by reason of indirect ownership. See section 544 (a) (1) and § 1.544–2.

(2) Constructive ownership by reason of family and partnership ownership. See section 544 (a) (2), (4), (5), and (6) and §§ 1.544–3, 1.544–6, and 1.544–7.

(3) Constructive ownership by reason of ownership of options. See section 544 (a) (3), (4), (5), and (6), and §§ 1.544–4, 1.544–6, and 1.544–7.

(4) Constructive ownership by reason of ownership of convertible securities. See section 544 (b) and § 1.544–5.

Each of rules referred to in subparagraphs 2, 3, and 4 of this paragraph is applicable only if it has the effect of satisfying the stock ownership requirement of the section to which applicable; that is, when applied to section 542 (a) (2), its effect is to make the corporation a personal holding company, or when applied to section 543 (a) (5) or section 543 (a) (6), its effect is to make the amounts described in such provisions includible as personal holding company income.

(c) All forms and classes of stock, however denominated, which represent the interests of shareholders, members, or beneficiaries in the corporation shall be taken into consideration in applying the constructive ownership rules of section 544.

(d) For rules applicable in treating constructive ownership, determined by one application of section 544, as actual ownership for purposes of a second application of section 544, see section 544 (a) (5) and § 1.544–6.

§ 1.544–2 Constructive ownership by reason of indirect ownership. The following example illustrates the application of section 544 (a) (1), relating to constructive ownership by reason of indirect ownership:

Example. A and B, two individuals, are the exclusive and equal beneficiaries of a trust or estate which owns the entire capital stock of the M Corporation. The M Corporation in turn owns the entire capital stock of the N Corporation. Under such circumstances the entire capital stock of both the M Corporation and the N Corporation shall be considered as being owned equally by A and B as the individuals owning the beneficial interest therein.

§ 1.544–3 Constructive ownership by reason of family and partnership ownership. (a) The following example illustrates the application of section 544 (a) (2), relating to constructive ownership by reason of family and partnership ownership.

Example. The M Corporation at some time during the last half of the taxable year, had 1,800 shares of outstanding stock, 450 of which were held by various individuals having no relationship to one another and none of whom were partners, and the remaining 1,350 were held by 51 shareholders as follows:

Relationships	Shares	Shares	Shares	Shares	Shares
An individual	A 100	B 20	C 20	D 20	E 20
His father	AF 10	BF 10	CF 10	DF 10	EF 10
His wife	AW 10	BW 40	CW 40	DW 40	EW 40
His brother	AB 10	BB 10	CB 10	DB 10	EB 10
His son	AS 10	BS 40	CS 40	DS 40	ES 40
His daughter by former marriage (son's half-sister)	ASHS 10	BSHS 40	CSHS 40	DSHS 40	ESHS 40
His brother's wife	ABW 10	BBW 10	CBW 10	DBW 160	EBW 10
His wife's father	AWF 10	BWF 10	CWF 110	DWF 10	EWF 10
His wife's brother	AWB 10	BWB 10	CWB 10	DWB 10	EWB 10
His wife's brother's wife	AWBW 10	BWBW 10	CWBW 10	DWBW 10	EWBW 110
Individual's partner	AP 10

By applying the statutory rule provided in section 544 (a) (2) five individuals own more than 50 percent of the outstanding stock as follows:

A (including AF, AW, AB, AS, ASHS, AP)	160
B (including BF, BW, BB, BS, BSHS)	160
CW (including C, CS, CWF, CWB)	220
DB (including D, DF, DBW)	200
EWB (including EW, EWF, EWBW)	170
Total, or more than 50 percent	910

Individual A represents the obvious case where the head of the family owns the bulk of the family stock and naturally is the head of the group. A's partner owns 10 shares of the stock. Individual B represents the case where he is still head of the group because of the ownership of stock by his immediate family. Individuals C and D represent cases where the individuals fall in groups headed in C's case by his wife and in D's case by his brother because of the preponderance of holdings on the part of relatives by marriage. Individual E represents the case where the preponderant holdings of others eliminate that individual from the group.

(b) For the restriction on the applicability of the family and partnership rules of this section, see paragraph (b) of § 1.544–1. For rules relating to constructive ownership as actual ownership, see § 1.544–6.

§ 1.544–4 Options. The shares of stock which may be acquired by reason of an option shall be considered to be constructively owned by the individual having the option to acquire such stock. For example: If C, an individual, on March 1, 1955, purchases an option, or otherwise comes into possession of an option, to acquire 100 shares of the capital stock of M Corporation, such 100 shares of stock shall be considered to be constructively owned by C as if C had actually acquired the stock on that date. If C has an option on an option (or one of a series of options) to acquire such stock, he shall also be considered to have constructive ownership of the stock which may be acquired by reason of the option (or the series of options). Under such circumstances, C shall be considered to have acquired constructive ownership of the stock on the date he acquired his option. For the restriction on the applicability of the rule of this section, see paragraph (b) of § 1.544–1.

§ 1.544–5 Convertible securities. Under section 544 (b) outstanding securities of a corporation such as bonds, debentures, or other corporate obligations, convertible into stock of the corporation (whether or not convertible during the taxable year) shall be considered as outstanding stock of the corporation. The consideration of convertible securities as outstanding stock is subject to the exception that, if some of the outstanding securities are convertible only after a later date than in the case of others, the class having the earlier conversion date may be considered as outstanding stock although the others are not so considered, but no convertible securities shall be considered as outstanding stock unless all outstanding securities having a prior conversion date are also so considered. For example, if outstanding securities are convertible in 1954, 1955 and 1956, those convertible in 1954 can be properly considered as outstanding stock without so considering those convertible in 1955 or 1956, and those convertible in 1954 and 1955 can be properly considered as outstanding stock without so considering those convertible in 1956. However, the securities convertible in 1955 could not be properly considered as outstanding stock without so considering those convertible in 1954 and the securities convertible in 1956 could not be properly considered as outstanding stock without so considering those convertible in 1954 and 1955. For the restriction on the applicability of the rule of this section, see paragraph (b) of § 1.544–1.

§ 1.544–6 Constructive ownership as actual ownership—(a) General rules. (1) Stock constructively owned by a person by reason of the application of the rule provided in section 544 (a) (1), relating to stock not owned by an individual, shall be considered as actually owned by such person for the purpose of again applying such rule or of applying the family and partnership rule provided in section 544 (a) (2), in order to make another person the constructive owner of such stock, and

(2) Stock constructively owned by a person by reason of the application of the option rule provided in section 544 (a) (3) shall be considered as actually owned by such person for the purpose of applying either the rule provided in section 544 (a) (1), relating to stock not owned by an individual, or the family and partnership rule provided in section 544 (a) (2) in order to make another person the constructive owner of such stock, but

(3) Stock constructively owned by an individual by reason of the application of the family and partnership rule provided in section 544 (a) (2) shall not be considered as actually owned by such individual for the purpose of again applying such rule in order to make another individual the constructive owner of such stock.

(b) Examples. The application of this section may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). A's wife, AW, owns all the stock of the M Corporation, which in turn owns all the stock of the O Corporation. The O Corporation in turn owns all the stock of the P Corporation. Under the rule provided in section 544 (a) (1), relating to stock not owned by an individual, the stock in the P Corporation owned by the O Corporation is considered to be owned constructively by the M Corporation, the sole shareholder of the O Corporation. Such constructive ownership of the stock of the M Corporation is considered as actual ownership for the purpose of again applying such rule in order to make AW, the sole shareholder of the M Corporation, the constructive owner of the stock of the P Corporation. Similarly, the constructive ownership of the stock by AW is considered as actual ownership for the purpose of applying the family and partnership rule provided in section 544 (a) (2) in order to make A the constructive owner of the stock of the P Corporation, if such application is necessary for any of the purposes set forth in paragraph (b) of § 1.544–1. But the stock thus constructively owned by A may not be considered as actual ownership for the purpose of again applying the family and partnership rule in order to make another member of A's family, for example, A's father, the constructive owner of the stock of the P Corporation.

Example (2). B, an individual, owns all the stock of the R Corporation which has an option to acquire all the stock of the S Corporation, owned by C, an individual, who is not related to B. Under the option rule provided in section 544 (a) (3) the R Corporation may be considered as owning constructively the stock of the S Corporation owned by C. Such constructive ownership of the stock by the R Corporation is considered as actual ownership for the purpose of applying the rule provided in section 544 (a) (1), relating to stock not owned by an individual, in order to make B, the sole shareholder of the R Corporation, the constructive owner of the stock of the S Corporation. The stock thus constructively owned by B by reason of the application of the rule provided in section 544 (a) (1) likewise is considered as actual ownership for the purpose, if necessary, of applying the family and partnership rule provided in section 544 (a) (2), in order to make another member of B's family, for example, B's wife, BW, the constructive owner of the stock of the S Corporation. However, the family and partnership rule could not again be applied so as to make still another individual the constructive owner of the stock of the S Corporation, that is, the stock constructively owned by BW could not be considered as actually owned by her in order to make BW's father the constructive owner of such stock by a second application of the family and partnership rule.

§ 1.544–7 Option rule in lieu of family and partnership rule. (a) If, in determining the ownership of stock, such stock may be considered as constructively owned by an individual by an application of either the family and partnership rule (section 544 (a) (2)) or the option rule (section 544 (a) (3)), such stock shall be considered as owned constructively by the individual by reason of the application of the option rule.

(b) The application of this section may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. Two brothers, A and B, each own 10 percent of the stock of the M Corporation, and A's wife, AW, also owns 10 percent of the stock of such corporation. AW's husband, A, has an option to acquire the stock owned by her at any time. It becomes necessary, for one of the purposes stated in section 544 (a) (4), to determine the stock ownership of B in the M Corporation. If the family and partnership rule were the only rule that applied in the case, B would be considered, under that rule, as owning 20 percent of the stock of the M Corporation, namely, his own stock plus the stock owned by his brother. In that event, B could not be considered as owning the stock held by AW since (1) AW is not a member of B's family and (2) the constructive ownership of such stock by A through the application of the family and partnership rule in his case is not considered as actual ownership so as to make B the constructive owner by a second application of the same rule with respect to the ownership of the stock. However, there is more than the family and partnership rule involved in this example. As the holder of an option upon the stock, A may be considered the constructive owner of his wife's stock by the application of the option rule and without reference to the family relationship between A and AW. If A is considered as owning the stock of his wife by application of the option rule, then such constructive ownership by A is regarded as actual ownership for the purpose of applying the family and partnership rule so as to make another member of A's family, for example, B, the constructive owner of the stock. Hence, since A may be considered as owning his wife's stock by applying either the family-partnership rule or the option rule, the provisions of section 544 (a) (6) apply and accordingly A must be considered the constructive owner of his wife's stock under the option rule rather than the family-partnership rule. B thus becomes the constructive owner of 30 percent of the stock of the M Corporation, namely, his own 10 percent, A's 10 percent, and AW's 10 percent constructively owned by A as the holder of an option on the stock.

SEC. 545. Undistributed personal holding company income—(a) Definition. For purposes of this part, the term "undistributed personal holding company income" means the taxable income of a personal holding company adjusted in the manner provided in subsection (b), minus the dividends paid deduction as defined in section 561.

(b) Adjustments to taxable income. For the purposes of subsection (a), the taxable income shall be adjusted as follows:

(1) Taxes. There shall be allowed as a deduction Federal income and excess profits taxes (other than the excess profits tax imposed by subchapter E of chapter 2 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1940) and income, war profits and excess profits taxes of foreign countries and possessions of the United States (to the extent not allowable as a deduction under section 164 (b) (6)), accrued during the taxable year, but not including the accumulated earnings tax imposed by section 531, the personal holding company tax imposed by section 541, or the taxes imposed by corresponding sections of a prior income tax law. A taxpayer which, for each taxable year in which it was subject to the tax imposed by section 500 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, deducted Federal income and excess profits taxes when paid for the purpose of computing subchapter A net income under such Code, shall deduct taxes under this paragraph when paid, unless the taxpayer elects, in its return for a taxable year ending after June 30, 1954, to deduct the taxes described in this paragraph when accrued. Such an election shall be irrevocable and shall apply to the taxable year for which the election is made and to all subsequent taxable years.

(2) Charitable contributions. The deduction for charitable contributions provided under section 170 shall be allowed but with the limitations in section 170 (b) (1) (A) and (B) (in lieu of the limitation in section 170 (b) (2)). For purposes of this paragraph, the term "adjusted gross income" when used in section 170 (b) (1) means the taxable income computed with the adjustments provided in section 170 (b) (2) and without the deduction of the amount disallowed under paragraph (8) of this subsection.

(3) Special deductions disallowed. The special deductions for corporations provided in part VIII (except section 248) of subchapter B (section 241 and following, relating to the deduction for dividends received by corporations, etc.) shall not be allowed.

(4) Net operating loss. The net operating loss deduction provided in section 172 shall not be allowed, but there shall be allowed as a deduction the amount of the net operating loss (as defined in section 172 (c)) for the preceding taxable year.

(5) Long-term capital gains. There shall be allowed as a deduction the excess of the net long-term capital gain for the taxable year over the net short-term capital loss for such year, minus the taxes imposed by this subtitle attributable to such excess. The taxes attributable to such excess shall be an amount equal to the difference between—

(A) The taxes imposed by this subtitle (except the tax imposed by this part) for such year, and

(B) Such taxes computed for such year without including such excess in taxable income.

(6) Bank affiliates. There shall be allowed the deduction described in section 601 (relating to bank affiliates).

(7) Payment of indebtedness incurred prior to January 1, 1934. There shall be allowed as a deduction amounts used or irrevocably set aside to pay or to retire indebtedness of any kind incurred before January 1, 1934, if such amounts are reasonable with reference to the size and terms of such indebtedness.

(8) Expenses and depreciation applicable to property of the taxpayer. The aggregate of the deductions allowed under section 162 (relating to trade or business expenses) and section 167 (relating to depreciation), which are allocable to the operation and maintenance of property owned or operated by the corporation, shall be allowed only in an amount equal to the rent or other compensation received for the use of, or the right to use, the property, unless it is established (under regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate) to the satisfaction of the Secretary or his delegate—

(A) That the rent or other compensation received was the highest obtainable, or, if none was received, that none was obtainable;

(B) That the property was held in the course of a business carried on bona fide for profit; and

(C) Either that there was reasonable expectation that the operation of the property would result in a profit, or that the property was necessary to the conduct of the business.

(9) Amount of a lien in favor of the United States. There shall be allowed as a deduction the amount, not to exceed the taxable income of the taxpayer, of any lien in favor of the United States (notice of which has been filed as provided in section 6323 (a) (1), (2), or (3)) to which the taxpayer is subject at the close of the taxable year. The sum of the amounts deducted under this paragraph with respect to any lien shall, for the purposes of this section, be added to the taxable income of the taxpayer for the taxable year in which such lien is satisfied or released. Where an amount is added to the taxable income of a corporation by reason of the preceding sentence of this paragraph, the shareholders of the corporation may, pursuant to regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate, elect to compute the income tax with respect to such dividends as are attributable to such amount as though they were received ratably over the period the lien was in effect.

§ 1.545–1 Definition. (a) Undistributed personal holding company income is the amount which is subject to the personal holding company tax imposed under section 541. Undistributed personal holding company income is the taxable income of the corporation adjusted in the manner described in section 545 (b) and § 1.545–2, less the deduction for dividends paid. See sections 561–565 and §§ 1.561–1—1.565–6, relating to the dividends paid deduction.

(b) For purposes of the imposition of the personal holding company tax on a foreign corporation, resident or nonresident, which files or causes to be filed a return, the undistributed personal holding company income shall be computed on the basis of the taxable income from sources within the United States, and such income shall be adjusted in accordance with the principles of section 545 (b) and § 1.545–2. For purposes of the imposition of such tax on a foreign corporation, resident or nonresident, which files no return, the undistributed personal holding company income shall be computed on the basis of the gross income from sources within the United States without allowance of any deductions.

§ 1.545–2 Adjustments to taxable income. (a) Taxes—(1) General rule. (i) In computing undistributed personal holding company income for any taxable year, there shall be allowed as a deduction the amount by which Federal income and excess profits taxes accrued during the taxable year exceed the credit provided by section 33 (relating to taxes of foreign countries and possessions of the United States), and the income, war profits, and excess profits taxes of foreign countries and possessions of the United States accrued during the taxable year (to the extent provided by subparagraph (3) of this paragraph), except that no deduction shall be allowed for (a) the accumulated earnings tax imposed by section 531 (or a corresponding section of a prior law), (b) the personal holding company tax imposed by section 541 (or a corresponding section of a prior law), and (c) the excess profits tax imposed by subchapter E of chapter 2 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1940. The deduction is for taxes for the taxable year, determined under the accrual method of accounting, regardless of whether the corporation uses an accrual method of accounting, the cash receipts and disbursement method, or any other allowable method of accounting. In computing the amount of taxes accrued, an unpaid tax which is being contested is not considered accrued until the contest is resolved.

(ii) However, the taxpayer shall deduct taxes paid, rather than taxes accrued, if it used that method with respect to Federal taxes for each taxable year for which it was subject to the tax imposed by section 500 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, unless an election is made under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph to deduct taxes accrued.

(2) Election by taxpayer which deducted taxes paid. (i) If the corporation was subject to the personal holding company tax imposed by section 500 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 and, for the purpose of that tax, deducted Federal taxes paid rather than such taxes accrued for each taxable year for which it was subject to such taxes, the corporation may elect for any taxable year ending after June 30, 1954, to deduct taxes accrued, including taxes of foreign countries and possessions of the United States, rather than taxes paid, for the purposes of the tax imposed by section 541 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The election shall be made by deducting such taxes accrued on Schedule PH, Form 1120, to be filed with the return. The schedule shall, in addition, contain a statement that the corporation has made such election and shall set forth the year to which such election was first applicable. The deduction of taxes accrued in the year of election precludes the deduction of taxes paid during such year. The election, if made, shall be irrevocable and the deduction for taxes accrued shall be allowed for the year of election and for all subsequent taxable years.

(ii) Pursuant to section 7851 (a) (1) (C), the election provided for in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph may be made with respect to a taxable year ending after June 30, 1954, even though such taxable year is subject to the Internal Revenue Code of 1939.

(3) Taxes of foreign countries and United States possessions. In computing undistributed personal holding company income for any taxable year, a deduction is allowed for income, war profits and excess profits taxes accrued (or paid, if required under subparagraph (1) (ii) of this paragraph) during such taxable year to foreign countries or possessions of the United States if the taxpayer chooses the benefits of section 901 for such taxable year. The credit for such taxes provided by section 901 is not allowed against the personal holding company tax imposed by section 541. See section 901 (a).

(b) Charitable contributions. (1) Section 545 (b) (2) provides that, in computing the undistributed personal holding company income of a corporation, the deduction for charitable contributions by a corporation shall be computed with the limitations of section 170 (b) (1) (A) and (B) (relating to charitable contributions by individuals) instead of the limitation in section 170 (b) (2) (relating to charitable contributions by corporations).

(2) Although the limitations of section 170 (b) (1) (A) and (B) are 10 and 20 percent, respectively, of the individual's adjusted gross income, the limitations are applied for purposes of section 545 (b) (2) by using 10 and 20 percent, respectively, of the corporation's taxable income as adjusted for purposes of section 170 (b) (2) (that is, the same amount of taxable income to which the 5-percent limitation applied). However, a further adjustment for this purpose is that the taxable income shall also be computed without the deduction of the amount disallowed under section 545 (b) (8) (relating to expenses and depreciation applicable to property of the taxpayer.)

(3) See the regulations under section 170 (b) (1) (A) and (B) with respect to the charitable contributions to which the 10-percent limitation is applicable and the charitable contributions to which the 20-percent limitation is applicable.

(4) In some cases, a deduction in excess of the 5-percent limitation may be allowed for one taxable year under section 545 (b) (2) for purposes of the personal holding company tax only, and may also be allowed as a deduction in computing taxable income for a subsequent taxable year under the carryover provisions of section 170 (b) (2). To the extent that the charitable contributions carried over from a previous year have already been deducted for purposes of the personal holding company tax in the year when the charitable contributions were made, they may not be deducted again as part of the contribution carryover deduction for purposes of the personal holding company tax for a subsequent year. However, this adjustment is only for purposes of the personal holding company tax, and the carryover in such case is allowable in computing taxable income for purposes of the corporation normal tax and surtax.

(c) Special deductions disallowed. Part VIII of subchapter B of chapter 1 allows corporations, in computing taxable income, special deductions for such matters as partially tax-exempt interest, certain dividends received, dividends paid on certain preferred stock of public utilities, organizational expenses, etc. See section 241. Such special deductions, except the deduction provided by section 248 (relating to organizational expenses) shall be disallowed in computing undistributed personal holding company income.

(d) Net operating loss. The net operating loss deduction provided in section 172 is not allowed for purposes of the computation of undistributed personal holding company income; however, there is allowed as a deduction for such purposes the amount of the net operating loss (as defined in section 172 (c)) for the preceding taxable year.

(e) Long-term capital gains. (1) There is allowed as a deduction the excess of the net long-term capital gain for the taxable year over the net short-term capital loss for such year, minus the taxes attributable to such excess, as provided in section 545 (b) (5).

(2) Section 631 (c) (relating to gain or loss in the case of disposal of coal) shall have no application.

(f) Bank affiliates. There is allowed the deduction provided by section 601 in the case of bank affiliates (as defined in section 2 of the Banking Act of 1933; 12 U. S. C. 221a (c)).

(g) Payment of indebtedness incurred prior to January 1, 1934—(1) General rule. In computing undistributed personal holding company income, section 545 (b) (7) provides that there shall be allowed as a deduction amounts used or irrevocably set aside to pay or to [illegible] indebtedness of any kind incurred before January 1, 1934, if such amounts are reasonable with reference to the size and terms of such indebtedness.

(2) Indebtedness. The term "indebtedness" means an obligation absolute and not contingent, to pay on demand or within a given time, in cash or other medium, a fixed amount. The term "indebtedness" does not include the obligation of a corporation on its capital stock. The indebtedness must have been incurred (or, if incurred by assumption, assumed) by the taxpayer before January 1, 1934. An indebtedness evidenced by bonds, notes, or other obligations issued by a corporation is ordinarily incurred as of the date such obligations are issued and the amount of such indebtedness is the amount represented by the face value of the obligations. In the case of refunding, renewal, or other change in the form of an indebtedness, the giving of a new promise to pay by the taxpayer will not have the effect of changing the date the indebtedness was incurred.

(3) Amounts used or irrevocably set aside. The deduction is allowable, in any taxable year, only for amounts used or irrevocably set aside in that year. The use or irrevocable setting aside must be to effect the extinguishment or discharge of indebtedness. In the case of refunding, renewal, or other change in the form of an indebtedness, the mere giving of a new promise to pay by the taxpayer will not result in an allowable deduction. If amounts are set aside in one year, no deduction is allowable for such amounts for a later year in which actually paid. As long as all other conditions are satisfied, the aggregate amount allowable as a deduction for any taxable year includes all amounts (from whatever source) used and all amounts (from whatever source) irrevocably set aside, irrespective of whether in cash or other medium. Double deductions shall not be allowed.

(4) Reasonableness of the amounts with reference to the size and terms of the indebtedness. (i) The reasonableness of the amounts used or irrevocably set aside must be determined by reference to the size and terms of the particular indebtedness. Hence, all the facts and circumstances with respect to the nature, scope, conditions, amount, maturity, and other terms of the particular indebtedness must be shown in each case.

(ii) Ordinarily an amount used to pay or retire an indebtedness, in whole or in part, at or prior to the maturity and in accordance with the terms thereof will be considered reasonable, and may be allowable as a deduction for the year in which so used. However, if an amount has been set aside in a prior year for payment or retirement of the same indebtedness, the amount so set aside shall not be allowed as a deduction in the year of the payment.

(iii) All amounts irrevocably set aside for the payment or retirement of an indebtedness in accordance with and pursuant to the terms of the obligation, for example, the annual contribution to trustees required by the provisions of a mandatory sinking fund agreement, will be considered as complying with the requirement of reasonableness. To be considered reasonable, it is not necessary that the plan of retirement provide for a retroactive setting aside of amounts for years prior to that in which the plan is adopted. However, if a voluntary plan was adopted before 1934, no adjustment is allowable in respect of the amounts set aside in the years prior to 1934.

(5) Burden of proof. The burden of proof will rest upon the taxpayer to sustain the deduction claimed. Therefore, the taxpayer must furnish the information required by the return, and such other information as the district director may require in substantiation of the deduction claimed.

(6) Allowance to a successor corporation. For allowance of deduction for pre-1934 indebtedness to a successor corporation, see section 381 (c) (15).

(h) Expenses and depreciation applicable to property of the taxpayer. (1) In computing undistributed personal holding company income in the case of a personal holding company which owns or operates property, section 545 (b) (8) provides a specific limitation with respect to the allowance of deductions for trade or business expenses and depreciation allocable to the operation or maintenance of such property. Under this limitation, these deductions shall not be allowed in an amount in excess of the aggregate amount of the rent or other compensation received for the use of, or the right to use, the property, unless it is established to the satisfaction of the Commissioner—

(i) That the rent or other compensation received was the highest obtainable, or if none was received, that none was obtainable;

(ii) That the property was held in the course of a business carried on bona fide for profit; and

(iii) Either that there was reasonable expectation that the operation of the property would result in a profit, or that the property was necessary to the conduct of the business.

(2) The burden of proof will rest upon the taxpayer to sustain the deduction claimed. If, in computing undistributed personal holding company income, a personal holding company claims deductions for expenses and depreciation allocable to the operation and maintenance of property owned or operated by the company, in an aggregate amount in excess of the rent or other compensation received for the use of, or the right to use, the property, it shall attach to its income tax return a statement setting forth its claim for allowance of the additional deductions, together with a complete statement of the facts and circumstances pertinent to its claim and the arguments on which it relies. Such statement shall set forth:

(i) A description of the property;

(ii) The cost or other basis to the corporation and the nature and value of the consideration paid for the property;

(iii) The name and address of the person from whom the property was acquired and the date the property was acquired;

(iv) The name and address of the person to whom the property is leased or rented, or the person permitted to use the property, and the number of shares of stock, if any, held by such person and the members of his family;

(v) The nature and gross amount of the rent or other compensation received for the use of, or the right to use, the property during the taxable year and for each of the five preceding years and the amount of the expenses incurred with respect to, and the depreciation sustained on, the property for such years;

(vi) Evidence that the rent or other compensation was the highest obtainable or, if none was received, a statement of the reasons therefor;

(vii) A copy of the contract, lease or rental agreement;

(viii) The purpose for which the property was used;

(ix) The business, carried on by the corporation, with respect to which the property was held and the gross income, expenses, and taxable income derived from the conduct of such business for the taxable year and for each of the five preceding years;

(x) A statement of any reasons which existed for expectation that the operation of the property would be profitable, or a statement of the necessity for the use of the property in the business of the corporation, and the reasons why the property was acquired; and

(xi) Any other information pertinent to the taxpayer's claim.

(i) Amount of a lien in favor of the United States. (1) If notices of lien are filed in the manner provided in section 6323 (a) (1), (2), or (3), the amount of the liability to the United States outstanding at the close of the taxable year, and secured by such liens which are in effect at that time, shall be allowed as a deduction in computing undistributed personal holding company income. However, the amount of such deduction which may be allowed for any taxable year shall not exceed the taxable income (as adjusted for purposes of determining the undistributed personal holding company income, but without regard to the deduction under section 545 (b) (9)) for such year. The fact that the amount of, or any part of, the outstanding obligation to the United States was deducted for one taxable year does not prevent its deduction for a subsequent taxable year to the extent the obligation is still outstanding at the close of the subsequent taxable year and is secured by a lien, notice of which has been filed.

(2) Subparagraph (1) of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. If the taxpayer (on the calendar year basis) is subject to a lien (notice of which has been properly filed) in the amount of $500,000 at the close of the calendar year 1954 and has taxable income of $400,000 for such taxable year, the deduction allowable by reason of the lien for the calendar year 1954 is $400,000. If, at the close of the taxable year ended December 31, 1955, the taxpayer is still subject to the same lien of $500,000 and it has taxable income of $450,000, a deduction is allowed by reason of such lien in the amount of $450,000.

(3) When the obligation secured by the lien in favor of the United States has been satisfied or released, the sum of the amounts which have been allowed as deductions under section 545 (b) (9) in respect of such obligation shall be restored to taxable income for the year in which such lien is satisfied or released. If only a part of the obligation secured by the lien has been satisfied, the sum of the amounts which have been allowed as deductions under section 545 (b) (9) in respect of such part shall be included in taxable income for the year of the satisfaction for the purpose of determining undistributed personal holding company income. It should be noted, however, that only the sum of the amounts which have been allowed as deductions under section 545 (b) (9) and subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall be included in taxable income. Thus, any amounts which were allowed as deductions under section 504 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 shall not be included as taxable income for any taxable year under section 545 (b) (9) and subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(4) The application of subparagraph (3) of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. Assume the same facts as in the example in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, and assume further that the corporation has $100,000 taxable income both for 1956 (before including the $400,000 described below) and for 1957. In 1956, the corporation pays $200,000 of the obligation, thereby reducing its liability from $500,000 to $300,000. In such case, $400,000 is included in taxable income in computing its undistributed personal holding company income for 1956, that is, the sum of the $200,000 deduction for 1954 and the $200,000 deduction for 1955 in respect of the liability which is paid in 1956. In 1957, property of the corporation is discharged from the lien by reason of the fact that the value of the remaining property of the corporation exceeds double the outstanding liability. (See section 6325 (b) (1).) Since this was not a release or satisfaction of the lien, no amount is added to taxable income for 1957 with respect to the property discharged from the lien. In 1958, the remaining property is released from the lien by reason of a bond being accepted under section 6325 (a) (2). There is added to taxable income in computing undistributed personal holding company income for 1958, $850,000, that is, the sum of the deductions allowed for 1954, 1955, 1956, and 1957 in respect of the $300,000 liability, the lien for which was released in 1958. This amount of $850,000, is computed as follows:

Year	Outstanding liability	Taxable income	Deduction as limited by taxable income	Amount attributable to part payment of $200,000 in 1956	Amount attributable to release of lien in 1958
1954	$500,000	$400,000	$400,000	$200,000	$200,000
1955	500,000	450,000	450,000	200,000	250,000
1956	300,000	500,000	300,000		300,000
1957	300,000	100,000	100,000		100,000

(5) (i) If an amount has been included in undistributed personal holding company income of the personal holding company by reason of section 545 (b) (9), any shareholder of the company may elect to compute his income tax with respect to such of his dividends as are attributable to such amount as though such dividends were received ratably over the period the lien was in effect.

(ii) For purposes of section 545 (b) (9), the dividends paid during the taxable year of the personal holding company (computed as of the close of such year) shall be deemed attributable first to undistributed personal holding company income by reason of section 545 (b) (9) (computed as of the close of the taxable year of the personal holding company). If the period over which the lien was in effect consists of several taxable years of the personal holding company, the dividend deemed received for any taxable year shall be deemed received on the last day of such taxable year of the personal holding company.

(iii) Such election shall be made in a statement showing the amount of the deduction under section 545 (b) (9) for each taxable year of the period in which the lien was in effect, the amount of such deduction, if any, which was added to undistributed personal holding company income in a later year or years as a result of partial satisfaction or release of such lien, and the details thereof, the taxable year or years to which such dividends are allocable, and a computation of tax, on the basis of the election, for all taxable years affected by such ratable allocation of the dividends. Further, the statement shall show the district director's office in which the returns, for the years to which the dividends are allocable, were filed, the kind of returns which were filed (separate returns or joint returns), and the name and address under which the returns were filed. The statement shall be attached to the shareholder's return for the taxable year for which the dividend would be reported but for such election.

(iv) The operation of this subparagraph may be illustrated as follows: If, in the example under subparagraph (4) of this paragraph, shareholder A owns 75 percent in value of the outstanding stock of the personal holding company, and receives a dividend of $540,000 from such company during 1958 (the total dividend distribution being $720,000) he may elect to compute his income tax with respect to the $540,000 in dividends for 1958 as if he had received $127,058.82 of such dividends for 1954 ($200,000/850,000 of $540,000), $158,823.53 of such dividends for 1955 ($250,000/850,000 of $540,000), $190,588.23 of such dividends for 1956 ($300,000/850,000 of $540,000), and $63,529.41 of such dividends for 1957 ($100,000/850,000 of $540,000). Accordingly, the tax computed for 1958 with respect to such dividends shall be the aggregate of the taxes attributable to such amounts had they been distributed in the respective years.

SEC. 546. Income not placed on annual basis. Section 443 (b) (relating to computation of tax on change of annual accounting period) shall not apply in the computation of the personal holding company tax imposed by section 541.

§ 1.547 Statutory provisions; deduction for deficiency dividends.

SEC. 547. Deduction for deficiency dividends—(a) General rule. If a determination (as defined in subsection (c)) with respect to a taxpayer establishes liability for personal holding company tax imposed by section 541 (or by a corresponding provision of a prior income tax law) for any taxable year, a deduction shall be allowed to the taxpayer for the amount of deficiency dividends (as defined in subsection (d)) for the purpose of determining the personal holding company tax for such year, but not for the purpose of determining interest, additional amounts, or assessable penalties computed with respect to such personal holding company tax.

(b) Rules for application of section—(1) Allowance of deduction. The deficiency dividend deduction shall be allowed as of the date the claim for the deficiency dividend deduction is filed.

(2) Credit or refund. If the allowance of a deficiency dividend deduction results in an overpayment of personal holding company tax for any taxable year, credit or refund with respect to such overpayment shall be made as if on the date of the determination 2 years remained before the expiration of the period of limitation on the filing of claim for refund for the taxable year to which the overpayment relates. No interest shall be allowed on a credit or refund arising from the application of this section.

(c) Determination. For purposes of this section, the term "determination" means—

(1) A decision by the Tax Court or a judgment, decree, or other order by any court of competent jurisdiction, which has become final;

(2) A closing agreement made under section 7121; or

(3) Under regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate, an agreement signed by the Secretary or his delegate and by, or on behalf of, the taxpayer relating to the liability of such taxpayer for personal holding company tax.

(d) Deficiency dividends—(1) Definition. For purposes of this section, the term "deficiency dividends" means the amount of the dividends paid by the corporation on or after the date of the determination and before filing claim under subsection (e), which would have been includible in the computation of the deduction for dividends paid under section 561 for the taxable year with respect to which the liability for personal holding company tax exists, if distributed during such taxable year. No dividends shall be considered as deficiency dividends for purposes of subsection (a) unless distributed within 90 days after the determination.

(2) Effect on dividends paid deduction—(A) For taxable year in which paid. Deficiency dividends paid in any taxable year (to the extent of the portion thereof taken into account under subsection (a) in determining personal holding company tax) shall not be included in the amount of dividends paid for such year for purposes of computing the dividends paid deduction for such year and succeeding years.

(B) For prior taxable year. Deficiency dividends paid in any taxable year (to the extent of the portion thereof taken into account under subsection (a) in determining personal holding company tax) shall not be allowed for purposes of section 563 (b) in the computation of the dividends paid deduction for the taxable year preceding the taxable year in which paid.

(e) Claim required. No deficiency dividend deduction shall be allowed under subsection (a) unless (under regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate) claim therefor is filed within 120 days after the determination.

(f) Suspension of statute of limitations and stay of collection—(1) Suspension of running of statute. If the corporation files a claim, as provided in subsection (e), the running of the statute of limitations provided in section 6501 on the making of assessments, and the bringing of distraint or a proceeding in court for collection, in respect of the deficiency and all interest, additional amounts, or assessable penalties, shall be suspended for a period of 2 years after the date of the determination.

(2) Stay of collection. In the case of any deficiency with respect to the tax imposed by section 541 established by a determination under this section—

(A) The collection of the deficiency and all interest, additional amounts, and assessable penalties shall, except in cases of jeopardy, be stayed until the expiration of 120 days after the date of the determination, and

(B) If claim for deficiency dividend deduction is filed under subsection (e), the collection of such part of the deficiency as is not reduced by the deduction for deficiency dividends provided in subsection (a) shall be stayed until the date the claim is disallowed (in whole or in part), and if disallowed in part collection shall be made only with respect to the part disallowed.

No distraint or proceeding in court shall be begun for the collection of an amount the collection of which is stayed under subparagraph (A) or (B) during the period for which the collection of such amount is stayed.

(g) Deduction denied in case of fraud, etc. No deficiency dividend deduction shall be allowed under subsection (a) if the determination contains a finding that any part of the deficiency is due to fraud with intent to evade tax, or to wilful failure to file an income tax return within the time prescribed by law or prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate in pursuance of law.

(h) Effective date. Subsections (a) through (f), inclusive, shall apply only with respect to determinations made more than 90 days after the date of enactment of this title. If the taxable year with respect to which the deficiency is asserted began before January 1, 1954, the term "deficiency dividend" includes only amounts which would have been includible in the computation under the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 of the basic surtax credit for such taxable year. Subsection (g) shall apply only if the taxable year with respect to which the deficiency is asserted begins after December 31, 1953.

§ 1.547–1 General rule. Section 547 provides a method under which, by virtue of dividend distributions, a corporation may be relieved from the payment of a deficiency in the personal holding company tax imposed by section 541 (or by a corresponding provision of a prior income tax law), or may be entitled to a credit or refund of a part or all of any such deficiency which has been paid. The method provided by section 547 is to allow an additional deduction for a dividend distribution (which meets the requirements of this section) in computing undistributed personal holding company income for the taxable year for which a deficiency in personal holding company tax is determined. The additional deduction for deficiency dividends will not, however, be allowed for the purpose of determining interest, additional amounts, or assessable penalties, computed with respect to the personal holding company tax prior to the allowance of the additional deduction for deficiency dividends. Such amounts remain payable as if section 547 had not been enacted.

§ 1.547–2 Requirements for deficiency dividends—(a) In general. There are certain requirements which must be fulfilled before a deduction is allowed for a deficiency dividend under section 547 and this section. These are—

(1) The taxpayer's liability for personal holding company tax shall be determined only in the manner provided in section 547 (c) and paragraph (b) (1) of this section.

(2) The deficiency dividend shall be paid by the corporation on, or within 90 days after, the date of such determination and prior to the filing of a claim under section 547 (e) and paragraph (b) (2) of this section for deduction for deficiency dividends. This claim must be filed within 120 days after such determination.

(3) The deficiency dividend must be of such a nature as would have permitted its inclusion in the computation of a deduction for dividends paid under section 561 for the taxable year with respect to which the liability for personal holding company tax exists, if it had been distributed during such year. See section 562 and §§ 1.562–1—1.562–3. In this connection, it should be noted that under section 316 (b) (2), the term "dividend" means (in addition to the usual meaning under section 316 (a)) any distribution of property (whether or not a dividend as defined in section 316 (a)) made by a corporation to its shareholders, to the extent of its undistributed personal holding company income (determined under section 545 and §§ 1.545–1 and 1.545–2 without regard to section 316 (b) (2)) for the taxable year in respect of which the distribution is made.

(b) Special rules—(1) Nature and details of determination. (i) A determination of a taxpayer's liability for personal holding company tax shall, for the purposes of section 547, be established in the manner specified in section 547 (c) and this subparagraph.

(ii) The date of determination by a decision of the Tax Court of the United States is the date upon which such decision becomes final, as prescribed in section 7481.

(iii) The date upon which a judgment of a court becomes final, which is the date of the determination in such cases, must be determined upon the basis of the facts in the particular case. Ordinarily, a judgment of a United States district court becomes final upon the expiration of the time allowed for taking an appeal, if no such appeal is duly taken within such time; and a judgment of the United States Court of Claims becomes final upon the expiration of the time allowed for filing a petition for certiorari if no such petition is duly filed within such time.

(iv) The date of determination by a closing agreement, made under section 7121, is the date such agreement is approved by the Commissioner.

(v) A determination under section 547 (c) (3) may be made by an agreement signed by the district director or such other official to whom authority to sign the agreement is delegated, and by or on behalf of the taxpayer. The agreement shall set forth the total amount of the liability for personal holding company tax for the taxable year or years. The date of the determination is the date such agreement is signed by the district director or such other official to whom authority to sign the agreement is delegated.

(2) Claim for deduction—(i) Contents of claim. A claim for deduction for a deficiency dividend shall be made in duplicate, with the requisite declaration, on Form 976 and shall contain the following information:

(a) The name and address of the corporation;

(b) The place and date of incorporation;

(c) The amount of the deficiency determined with respect to the tax imposed by section 541 (or a corresponding provision of a prior income tax law) and the taxable year or years involved; the amount of the unpaid deficiency or, if the deficiency has been paid in whole or in part, the date of payment and the amount thereof; a statement as to how the deficiency was established, if unpaid; or if paid in whole or in part, how it was established that any portion of the amount paid was a deficiency at the time when paid and, in either case whether it was by an agreement under section 547 (c) (3), by a closing agreement under section 7121, or by a decision of the Tax Court or court judgment and the date thereof; if established by a final judgment in a suit against the United States for refund, the date of payment of the deficiency, the date the claim for refund was filed, and the date the suit was brought; if established by a Tax Court decision or court judgment, a copy thereof shall be attached, together with an explanation of how the decision became final; if established by an agreement under section 547 (c) (3), a copy of such agreement shall be attached;

(d) The amount and date of payment of the dividend with respect to which the claim for the deduction for deficiency dividends is filed;

(e) A statement setting forth the various classes of stock outstanding, the name and address of each shareholder, the class and number of shares held by each on the date of payment of the dividend with respect to which the claim is filed, and the amount of such dividend paid to each shareholder;

(f) The amount claimed as a deduction for deficiency dividends; and

(g) Such other information as may be required by the claim form.

(ii) Filing of claim and corporate resolution. The claim in duplicate together with a certified copy of the resolution of the board of directors or other authority, authorizing the payment of the dividend with respect to which the claim is filed, shall be filed with the district director of internal revenue for the district in which the return is filed.

(iii) Carryover of deficiency dividends paid by acquiring corporation. In the case of the acquisition of assets of a corporation by another corporation in a distribution or transfer described in section 381 (a), the distributor or transferor corporation shall be entitled to a deduction for any deficiency dividends (as defined in section 547 (d)) paid by the acquiring corporation with respect to such distributor or transferor corporation. See section 381 (c) (17).

§ 1.547–3 Claim for credit or refund. (a) If a deficiency in personal holding company tax is asserted for any taxable year, and the corporation has paid any portion of such asserted deficiency, it is entitled to a credit or refund of such payment to the extent that such payment constitutes an overpayment as the result of a deduction for a deficiency dividend as provided in section 547 and §§ 1.547–1—1.547–7. It should be noted that a "determination" under section 547 (c) and paragraph (b) (1) of § 1.547–2, of taxpayer's liability for personal holding company tax may take place subsequent to the time the deficiency was paid. To secure credit or refund of such overpayment, the taxpayer must file a claim on Form 843 in addition to the claim for the deduction for deficiency dividends required under section 547 (e) and paragraph (b) (2) of § 1.547–2.

(b) No interest shall be allowed on such credit or refund.

(c) Such credit or refund will be allowed as if, on the date of the determination under section 547 (c) and paragraph (b) (1) of § 1.547–2, two years remained before the expiration of the period of limitation on the filing of claim for refund for the taxable year to which the overpayment relates.

§ 1.547–4 Effect on dividends paid deduction. The deficiency dividends deduction shall be allowed as of the date the claim is filed. No duplication of deductions with respect to any deficiency dividends is permitted. If a corporation claims and receives the benefit of the provisions of section 547 (or the corresponding section 506 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, or section 407 of the Revenue Act of 1938), based upon a distribution of deficiency dividends, that distribution does not become a part of the dividends paid deduction under section 561. Likewise, it will not be made the basis of a dividends paid deduction under section 561 by reason of the application of section 563 (b), relating to dividends paid after the close of the taxable year and on or before the 15th day of the third month following the close of such taxable year.

§ 1.547–5 Deduction denied in case of fraud or wilful failure to file timely return. No deduction for deficiency dividends shall be allowed under section 547 (a) if the determination contains a finding that any part of the deficiency is due to fraud with intent to evade tax, or to wilful failure to file an income tax return within the time prescribed by law or prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate in pursuance of law. See § 1.547–7 for effective date.

§ 1.547–6 Suspension of statute of limitations and stay of collection—(a) Statute of limitations. If the corporation files a claim for a deduction for deficiency dividends under section 547 (e) and paragraph (b) (2) of § 1.547–2, the running of the statute of limitations upon assessment, distraint, and collection in court in respect of the deficiency, and all interest, additional amounts, or assessable penalties, shall be suspended for a period of two years after the date of the determination under section 547 (c) and paragraph (b) (1) of § 1.547–2.

(b) Stay of collection. If a deficiency in personal holding company tax is established by a determination under section 547 (c) and paragraph (b) (1) of § 1.547–2, collection by distraint or court proceeding (except in case of jeopardy), of the deficiency and all interest, additional amounts, and assessable penalties, shall be stayed for a period of 120 days after the date of such determination, and, to the extent any part of such deficiency remains after deduction for deficiency dividends, for an additional period until the date the claim is disallowed. After such claim is allowed or rejected, either in whole or in part, the amount of the deficiency which was not eliminated by the application of section 547, together with interest, additional amounts and assessable penalties, will be assessed and collected in the usual manner.

§ 1.547–7 Effective date. The deduction for deficiency dividends, in computing personal holding company tax for any taxable year, is allowable only with respect to determinations under section 547 (c) made after November 14, 1954 (the date falling 90 days after the date of enactment of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954). If the taxable year with respect to which the deficiency is asserted began before January 1, 1954, the deficiency dividends deduction shall include only the amounts which would have been includible in the computation of the basic surtax credit for such taxable year under the Internal Revenue Code of 1939. Section 547 (g), relating to the denial of a deficiency dividends deduction if the determination contains a finding that any part of the deficiency is due to fraud, etc., shall apply only if the taxable year with respect to which the deficiency is asserted begins after December 31, 1953.

FOREIGN PERSONAL HOLDING COMPANIES

§ 1.551 Statutory provisions; foreign personal holding company income taxed to United States shareholders.

SEC. 551. Foreign personal holding company income taxed to United States shareholders—(a) General rule. The undistributed foreign personal holding company income of a foreign personal holding company shall be included in the gross income of the citizens or residents of the United States, domestic corporations, domestic partnerships, and estates or trusts (other than estates or trusts the gross income of which under this subtitle includes only income from sources within the United States), who are shareholders in such foreign personal holding company (hereinafter called "United States shareholders") in the manner and to the extent set forth in this part.

(b) Amount included in gross income. Each United States shareholder, who was a shareholder on the day in the taxable year of the company which was the last day on which a United States group (as defined in section 552 (a) (2)) existed with respect to the company, shall include in his gross income, as a dividend, for the taxable year in which or with which the taxable year of the company ends, the amount he would have received as a dividend if on such last day there had been distributed by the company, and received by the shareholders, an amount which bears the same ratio to the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of the company for the taxable year as the portion of such taxable year up to and including such last day bears to the entire taxable year.

(c) Deduction for obligations of United States and its instrumentalities. Each United States shareholder shall take into account in determining his income tax his proportionate share of partially tax-exempt interest on obligations described in section 35 or 242 which is included in the gross income of the company otherwise than by the application of the provisions of section 555 (b) (relating to the inclusion in the gross income of a foreign personal holding company of its distributive share of the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of another foreign personal holding company in which it is a shareholder). If the foreign personal holding company elects under section 171 to amortize the premiums on such obligations, for purposes of the preceding sentence each United States shareholder's proportionate share of such interest received by the foreign personal holding company shall be his proportionate share of such interest (determined without regard to this sentence) reduced by so much of the deduction under section 171 as is attributable to such share.

(d) Information in return. Every United States shareholder who is required under subsection (b) to include in his gross income any amount with respect to the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of a foreign personal holding company and who, on the last day on which a United States group existed with respect to the company, owned 5 percent or more in value of the outstanding stock of such company, shall set forth in his return in complete detail the gross income, deductions and credits, taxable income, foreign personal holding company, and undistributed foreign personal holding company income of such company.

(e) Effect on capital account of foreign personal holding company. An amount which bears the same ratio to the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of the foreign personal holding company for its taxable year as the portion of such taxable year up to and including the last day on which a United States group existed with respect to the company bears to the entire taxable year, shall, for the purpose of determining the effect of distributions in subsequent taxable years by the corporation, be considered as paid-in surplus or as a contribution to capital, and the accumulated earnings and profits as of the close of the taxable year shall be correspondingly reduced, if such amount or any portion thereof is required to be included as a dividend, directly or indirectly, in the gross income of United States shareholders.

(f) Basis of stock in hands of shareholders. The amount required to be included in the gross income of a United States shareholder under subsection (b) shall, for the purpose of adjusting the basis of his stock with respect to which the distribution would have been made (if it had been made), be treated as having been reinvested by the shareholder as a contribution to the capital of the corporation; but only to the extent to which such amount is included in his gross income in his return, increased or decreased by any adjustment of such amount in the last determination of the shareholder's tax liability, made before the expiration of 6 years after the date prescribed by law for filing the return.

(g) Cross references. (1) For basis of stock or securities in a foreign personal holding company acquired from a decedent, see section 1014 (b) (5).

(2) For period of limitation on assessment and collection without assessment, in case of failure to include in gross income an amount properly includible therein under subsection (b), see section 6501.

(3) For treatment of gain on liquidation of certain foreign personal holding companies, see section 342.

§ 1.551–1 General rule. Part III of subchapter G of chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (sections 551–557) does not impose a tax on foreign personal holding companies. The undistributed foreign personal holding company income of such companies, however, must be included in the manner and to the extent set forth in section 551, in the gross income of their "United States shareholders," that is, the shareholders who are individual citizens or residents of the United States, domestic corporations, domestic partnerships, and estates or trusts other than estates or trusts the gross income of which under subtitle A includes only income from sources within the United States.

§ 1.551–2 Amount included in gross income. (a) The undistributed foreign personal holding company income is included only in the gross income of the United States shareholders who were shareholders in the company on the last day of its taxable year on which a United States group (as defined in section 552 (a) (2)) existed with respect to the company. Such United States shareholders, accordingly, are determined by the stock holdings as of such specified time. This rule applies to every United States shareholder who was a shareholder in the company at the specified time regardless of whether the United States shareholder is included within the United States group. For example, a domestic corporation which is a United States shareholder at the specified time must return its distributive share in the undistributed foreign personal holding company income even though the domestic corporation cannot be included within the United States group since, under section 554, the stock it owns in the foreign corporation is considered as being owned proportionately by its shareholders for the purpose of determining whether the foreign corporation is a foreign personal holding company.

(b) The United States shareholders must include in their gross income their distributive shares of that proportion of the undistributed foreign personal holding company income for the taxable year of the company which is equal in ratio to that which the portion of the taxable year up to and including the last day on which the United States group with respect to the company existed bears to the entire taxable year. Thus, if the last day in the taxable year on which the required United States group existed was also the end of the taxable year, the portion of the taxable year up to and including such last day would be equal to 100 percent and, in such case, the United States shareholders would be required to return their distributive shares in the entire undistributed foreign personal holding company income. But if the last day on which the required United States group existed was September 30, and the taxable year was a calendar year, the portion of the taxable year up to and including such last day would be equal to nine-twelfths and, in that case, the United States shareholders would be required to return their distributive shares in only nine-twelfths of the undistributed foreign personal holding company income.

(c) The amount which each United States shareholder must return is that amount which he would have received as a dividend if the above-specified portion of the undistributed foreign personal holding company income had in fact been distributed by the foreign personal holding company as a dividend on the last day of its taxable year on which the required United States group existed. Such amount is determined, therefore, by the interest of the United States shareholder in the foreign personal holding company, that is, by the number of shares of stock owned by the United States shareholder and the relative rights of his class of stock, if there are several classes of stock outstanding. Thus, if a foreign personal holding company has both common and preferred stock outstanding and the preferred shareholders are entitled to a specified dividend before any distribution may be made to the common shareholders, then the assumed distribution of the stated portion of the undistributed foreign personal holding company income must first be treated as a payment of the specified dividend on the preferred stock before any part may be allocated as a dividend on the common stock.

(d) The assumed distribution of the required portion of the undistributed foreign personal holding company income must be returned as dividend income by the United States shareholders for their respective taxable years in which or with which the taxable year of the foreign personal holding company ends. For example, if the M Corporation, whose taxable year is the calendar year, is a foreign personal holding company for 1954 and if A, one of its United States shareholders, makes returns on a calendar year basis, while B, another United States shareholder, makes returns on the basis of a fiscal year ending November 30, A must return his assumed dividend as income for the taxable year 1954 and B must return his distributive share as income for the fiscal year ending November 30, 1955. In applying this rule, the date as of which the United States group last existed with respect to the company is immaterial. Thus, in the foregoing example, if September 30, 1954, was the last day on which the United States group with respect to the M Corporation existed, B would still be required to return his assumed dividend as income for the fiscal year ending November 30, 1955, even though September 30, 1954, the date as of which the distribution is assumed to have been made, does not fall within such fiscal year.

(e) For the treatment of gain on the sale of certain stock, see section 306 (f) and paragraph (h) of § 1.306–3.

§ 1.551–3 Deduction for obligations of the United States and its instrumentalities. (a) Each United States shareholder required to return his distributive share of undistributed foreign personal holding company income for any taxable year shall take into account in computing the credit against tax under section 35, or the deduction under section 242, whichever is allowable to such shareholder, his proportionate share of whatever interest on obligations of the United States or its instrumentalities (as specified in sections 35 or 242, as the case may be) may be included in the gross income of the company for such taxable year, with the exception of any such interest as may be so included by reason of the application of the provisions of section 555. For reduction of credit for such interest on account of amortizable bond premium, see section 171 and the regulations thereunder.

(b) The rule set forth in paragraph (a) of this section may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. The M Corporation is a foreign personal holding company which owns all the stock of the N Corporation, another foreign personal holding company. Both companies receive interest on obligations of the United States or its instrumentalities as specified in section 35. In determining the amount of the credit allowable under section 35 (if the shareholder is an individual) or the deduction allowable under section 242 (if the shareholder is a corporation), the United States shareholder of the M Corporation would be entitled to a credit or a deduction, as the case may be, only for his proportionate share of the interest received by that Company and not for any part of the interest received by the N Corporation, regardless of whether the interest received by the N Corporation is included in the gross income of the M Corporation as an actual dividend or as a constructive dividend under section 555.

§ 1.551–4 Information in return. The information required by section 551 (d) in the returns of certain United States shareholders relates only to the taxable year of a foreign personal holding company for which any part of such corporation's undistributed foreign personal holding company income must be included in gross income by the United States shareholder of whom the information is required. The information shall be submitted as a part of the income tax return in the form of a statement attached to the return.

§ 1.551–5 Effect on capital account of foreign personal holding company and basis of stock in hands of shareholders. (a) Sections 551 (e) and 551 (f) are designed to prevent double taxation with respect to the undistributed foreign personal holding company income.

(b) The application of sections 551 (e) and 551 (f) may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). The M Corporation is a foreign personal holding company. Seventy-five percent in value of its capital stock is owned by A, a citizen of the United States, and the remainder, or 25 percent, of its stock is owned by B, a nonresident alien individual. For the calendar year 1954 the M Corporation has an undistributed foreign personal holding company income of $100,000. A is required to include $75,000 of such income in gross income as a dividend in his return for the calendar year 1954. The $100,000 is treated as paid-in surplus or as a contribution to the capital of the M Corporation and its accumulated earnings and profits as of the close of the calendar year 1954 are correspondingly reduced. If after treating such $100,000 as paid-in surplus or as a contribution to capital, the M Corporation has no accumulated earnings and profits at the close of 1954, and if for the calendar year 1955, the M Corporation had no earnings and profits, but distributed $40,000, the amount so distributed would be a nontaxable distribution and would not be included in the gross income of either A or B for the calendar year 1955. If, however, after treating the $100,000 as paid-in surplus or as a contribution to capital, the M Corporation had accumulated earnings and profits of $100,000 at the close of 1954, the facts otherwise being the same, the distributions in 1955 would be taxable to A as a dividend, and the taxability of such distributions to B would depend upon the application of section 861 (a) (2), relating to the treatment of dividends from a foreign corporation as income from sources within or without the United States.

Example (2). In example (1) assume the basis of A's stock to be $300,000. If A includes in gross income in his return for the calendar year 1954, $75,000 as a dividend from the M Corporation, the basis of his stock would be $375,000. After the nontaxable distribution of $30,000 to A by the M Corporation in 1955 (75 percent of the $40,000 distribution) the basis of A's stock, assuming no other changes, would be $345,000. If A failed to include the $75,000 as a dividend in gross income in his return for 1954 and his failure was not discovered until after the 6-year period of limitations had expired, the application of the rule would not increase the basis of A's stock. The subsequent nontaxable distribution of $30,000 to A in 1955 would reduce his basis of $300,000 to $270,000, thus tending to compensate for his failure to include the amount of $75,000 as a dividend in his gross income for 1954. If the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of the M Corporation is readjusted within the statutory period of limitations, thus increasing or decreasing the amount A would have to include in his gross income, proper adjustment is required to be made to the basis of A's stock on account of such readjustment.

SEC. 552. Definition of foreign personal holding company—(a) General rule. For purposes of this subtitle, the term "foreign personal holding company" means any foreign corporation if—

(1) Gross income requirement. At least 60 percent of its gross income (as defined in section 555 (a)) for the taxable year is foreign personal holding company income as defined in section 553; but if the corporation is a foreign personal holding company with respect to any taxable year ending after August 26, 1937, then, for each subsequent taxable year, the minimum percentage shall be 50 percent in lieu of 60 percent, until a taxable year during the whole of which the stock ownership required by paragraph (2) does not exist, or until the expiration of three consecutive taxable years in each of which less than 50 percent of the gross income is foreign personal holding company income. For purposes of this paragraph, there shall be included in the gross income the amount includible therein as a dividend by reason of the application of section 555 (c) (2); and

(2) Stock ownership requirement. At any time during the taxable year more than 50 percent in value of its outstanding stock is owned, directly or indirectly, by or for not more than five individuals who are citizens or residents of the United States, hereinafter called "United States group".

(b) Exceptions. The term "foreign personal holding company" does not include—

(1) A corporation exempt from tax under subchapter F (sec. 501 and following); and

(2) A corporation organized and doing business under the banking and credit laws of a foreign country if it is established (annually or at other periodic intervals) to the satisfaction of the Secretary or his delegate that such corporation is not formed or availed of for the purpose of evading or avoiding United States income taxes which would otherwise be imposed upon its shareholders. If the Secretary or his delegate is satisfied that such corporation is not so formed or availed of, he shall issue to such corporation annually or at other periodic intervals a certification that the corporation is not a foreign personal holding company.

Each United States shareholder of a foreign corporation which would, except for the provisions of paragraph (2), be a foreign personal holding company, shall attach to and file with his income tax return for the taxable year a copy of the certification by the Secretary or his delegate made pursuant to paragraph (2). Such copy shall be filed with the taxpayer's return for the taxable year if he has been a shareholder of such corporation for any part of such year.

§ 1.552–1 Definition of foreign personal holding company. (a) A foreign personal holding company is any foreign corporation, other than a corporation exempt from taxation under subchapter F (section 501 and following) and other than certain banking institutions which satisfy the requirements of section 552 (b) (2) and paragraph (b) of § 1.552–4 which for the taxable year meets (1) the gross income requirement specified in section 552 (a) (1); and (2) the stock ownership requirement specified in section 552 (a) (2). Both requirements must be satisfied with respect to each taxable year.

(b) A foreign corporation which comes within the classification of a foreign personal holding company is not subject to taxation either under section 531 or section 541. See sections 532 (b) (2) and 542 (c) (5). The fact that a foreign corporation is a foreign personal holding company does not relieve the corporation from liability for the taxes imposed generally upon foreign corporations, such as the taxes imposed by sections 881 and 882, since such taxes apply regardless of the classification of the foreign corporation as a foreign personal holding company.

§ 1.552–2 Gross income requirement. (a) To meet the gross income requirement, it is necessary that either of the following percentages of gross income of the corporation for the taxable year (including the additions to gross income provided in section 555 (b) as required by section 555 (c) (2)) be foreign personal holding company income as defined in section 553:

(1) 60 percent or more; or

(2) 50 percent or more if the foreign corporation has been classified as a foreign personal holding company for any taxable year ending after August 26, 1937, unless—

(i) A taxable year has intervened since the last taxable year for which it was so classified, during no part of which the stock ownership requirement specified in section 552 (a) (2) exists; or

(ii) Three consecutive years have intervened since the last taxable year for which it was so classified, during each of which its foreign personal holding company income was less than 50 percent of its gross income.

(b) In determining whether the foreign personal holding company income is equal to the required percentage of the total gross income, the determination must not be made upon the basis of gross receipts, since gross income is not synonymous with gross receipts. For meaning of gross income in this part, see section 555 and § 1.555–1.

§ 1.552–3 Stock ownership requirement. (a) To meet the stock ownership requirement, it is necessary that at sometime in the taxable year more than 50 percent in value of the outstanding stock of the foreign corporation be owned, directly or indirectly, by or for not more than five individuals who are citizens or residents of the United States, herein referred to as "United States group." For the purpose of the requirement under section 552 (a) (2), section 554 provides that the ownership of the stock must be determined under the rules prescribed by section 544 (relating to rules for determining stock ownership in the case of personal holding companies generally). Accordingly, section 544 and §§ 1.544–1—1.544–7 are applicable for purposes of section 552 (a) (2) and this section as if each reference in section 544 and §§ 1.544–1—1.544–7 to a personal holding company or to part II (sections 541–547) of subchapter G of the 1954 Code was a reference to a foreign personal holding company or to part III (sections 551–557) of subchapter G of the 1954 Code, as the case may be.

(b) It is necessary to consider any change in the stock outstanding during the taxable year, whether in the number of shares or classes of stock, or in the ownership thereof, since a corporation comes within the classification if the statutory conditions with respect to stock ownership are present at any time during the taxable year.

(c) In determining whether the statutory conditions with respect to stock ownership are present at any time during the taxable year, the phrase "in value" shall, in the light of all the circumstances, be deemed the value of the corporate stock outstanding at such time (not including treasury stock). This value may be determined upon the basis of the company's net worth, earning and dividend paying capacity, appreciation of assets, together with such other factors as have a bearing upon the value of the stock. If the value of the stock which is used is greatly at variance with that reflected by the corporate books, the evidence of such value should be filed with the return. In any case where there are two or more classes of stock outstanding, the total value of all the stock should be allocated among the different classes according to the relative value of each class therein.

§ 1.552–4 Certain excluded banks. (a) A corporation is excluded from the definition of "foreign personal holding company" if it is organized and doing business under the banking and credit laws of a foreign country and if it establishes to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that it was not formed or availed of for the purpose of evading or avoiding United States income taxes which would otherwise be imposed on its shareholders. If this is established, the Commissioner, or such other official to whom authority may be delegated, will certify, by letter to the corporation, that it is not a foreign personal holding company.

(b) An application for certification under section 552 (b) (2) shall be made in writing to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., Attention: Director of International Operations. A separate application shall be filed for each taxable year for which certification is requested, and the application shall be accompanied by a completed Form 958 for the taxable year. See section 6035. The following information shall be set forth in, or submitted with, the application:

(1) A complete reference to the banking or credit laws of the foreign country under which the corporation operates;

(2) A statement as to the extent of the corporation's business in receiving deposits and making loans and discounts and similar banking and credit operations;

(3) A statement as to the extent of the operations of the corporation other than such banking and credit operations;

(4) A statement as to whether the banking and credit operations of the corporation are customary for it;

(5) A statement setting forth the degree and manner of supervision exercised over it by the foreign government under its banking and credit laws; a copy (in English) of the corporation's last annual financial statement, as submitted to the Government authority having jurisdiction over it, shall be submitted with the application;

(6) A statement setting forth the business reasons of the corporation for not distributing the amount which would be its undistributed foreign personal holding company income if the corporation were not excluded under section 552 (b);

(7) A statement setting forth the extent of the corporation's profits which must be retained as reserves under the foreign law;

(8) A statement setting forth the date or dates when the corporation reasonably expects to distribute is undistributed foreign personal holding company income for the taxable year;

(9) A statement setting forth the name and address of each of the individuals described in section 552 (2) (3), the extent of their stock ownership in the corporation, and the amount of distributions or other payments to such stockholders, including, but not limited to, dividends, compensation, interest, and rents; and

(10) Any other facts or information the corporation may wish to submit to show that it was not formed or availed of for the purpose of evading or avoiding United States income taxes which would otherwise be imposed on its shareholders.

The corporation shall also furnish such other information requested as necessary by the Director of International Operations. The application for certification, together with the information required by this paragraph, should be filed within 60 days after the close of the taxable year of the corporation or within 60 days after the date of publication of §§ 1.541 to 1.565–6 in the FEDERAL REGISTER, whichever is later. However, if the corporation is unable, for good cause, to submit the application for certification within such 60-day period, additional time may be granted by the Director of International Operations upon receipt of a request from the corporation setting forth the reasons for such request.

§ 1.552–5 United States shareholder of excluded bank. A copy of the certification issued to an excluded bank under section 552 (b) (2) and § 1.552–4 shall be filed with, and made a part of, the income tax return for the taxable year of each United States shareholder of such foreign corporation, if he has been a shareholder of such corporation for any part of such year. If the certificate has not been issued at the time the return of the United States shareholder is filed, the shareholder shall compute the tax on his return by treating the bank as a foreign personal holding company. If a certificate is issued after the return is filed, the United States shareholder may file a claim for refund or an amended return, and shall attach thereto a copy of the certification.

SEC. 553. Foreign personal holding company income. For purposes of this subtitle, the term "foreign personal holding company income" means the portion of the gross income, determined for purposes of section 552, which consists of personal holding company income, as defined in section 543, except that all interest, whether or not treated as rent, and all royalties, whether or not mineral, oil, or gas royalties, shall constitute "foreign personal holding company income".

§ 1.553–1 Foreign personal holding company income. Foreign personal holding company income shall consist of the items defined under section 543 and §§ 1.543–1 and 1.543–2, relating to personal holding company income, with the following exceptions:

(a) The entire amount received as "interest", whether or not treated as rent, shall be considered to be foreign personal holding company income. Thus, the exception in the second sentence of section 543 (a) (1) and paragraph (b) (2) of § 1.543–1 (relating to interest treated as rent under section 543 (a) (7) and paragraph (b) (10) of § 1.543–1), is inapplicable for the purpose of determining foreign personal holding company income. Similarly, section 543 (a) (7) and paragraph (b) (10) of § 1.543–1 are applied for this purpose without regard to the interest described in that section.

(b) (1) The entire amount received as "royalties", whether or not mineral, oil, or gas royalties, shall be considered to be foreign personal holding company income. Thus, subparagraphs (A) and (B) of section 543 (a) (8) and paragraph (b) (11) (i) (a) and (b) of § 1.543–1 are inapplicable for the purpose of determining foreign personal holding company income.

(2) In computing foreign personal holding company income, the first sentence of paragraph (b) (11) (ii) of § 1.543–1 shall apply to overriding royalties received from the sublessee by the operating company which originally leased and developed the natural resource property in respect of which such overriding royalties are paid, and to mineral, oil, or gas production payments, only with respect to amounts received after September 30, 1958.

SEC. 554. Stock ownership. For purposes of determining whether a foreign corporation is a foreign personal holding company, insofar as such determination is based on stock ownership, the rules provided in section 544 shall be applicable as if any reference in such section to a personal holding company was a reference to a foreign personal holding company and as if any reference in such section to a provision of part II (relating to personal holding companies) was a reference to the corresponding provision of this part.

§ 1.555 Statutory provisions; gross income of foreign personal holding companies.

SEC. 555. Gross income of foreign personal holding companies—(a) General rule. For purposes of this part, the term "gross income" means, with respect to a foreign corporation, gross income computed (without regard to the provisions of subchapter N (sec. 861 and following)) as if the foreign corporation were a domestic corporation which is a personal holding company.

(b) Additions to gross income. In the case of a foreign personal holding company (whether or not a United States group, as defined in section 552 (a) (2), existed with respect to such company on the last day of its taxable year) which was a shareholder in another foreign personal holding company on the day in the taxable year of the second company which was the last day on which a United States group existed with respect to the second company, there shall be included, as a dividend, in the gross income of the first company, for the taxable year in which or with which the taxable year of the second company ends, the amount the first company would have received as a dividend if on such last day there had been distributed by the second company, and received by the shareholders, an amount which bears the same ratio to the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of the second company for its taxable year as the portion of such taxable year up to and including such last day bears to the entire taxable year.

(c) Application of subsection (b). The rule provided in subsection (b)—

(1) Shall be applied in the case of a foreign personal holding company for the purpose of determining its undistributed foreign personal holding company income which, or a part of which, is to be included in the gross income of its shareholders, whether United States shareholders or other foreign personal holding companies;

(2) Shall be applied in the case of every foreign corporation with respect to which a United States group exists on some day of its taxable year, for the purpose of determining whether such corporation meets the gross income requirements of section 552 (a) (1).

§ 1.555–1 General rule. The gross income of a foreign corporation which is a foreign personal holding company is computed the same as if the foreign corporation were a domestic corporation which is a personal holding company. See section 542 (a) (1) and § 1.542–2. The gross income of a foreign personal holding company thus includes income from all sources, whether within or without the United States, which is not specifically excluded from gross income under any other provisions of the Code. For example, the gross income of a foreign personal holding company includes all income from sources outside the United States even though the foreign personal holding company is a foreign corporation not engaged in trade or business within the United States.

§ 1.555–2 Additions to gross income. (a) If, for any taxable year—

(1) A foreign corporation meets the stock ownership requirement specified in section 552 (a) (2) and § 1.552–3, regardless of whatever day in its taxable year is the last day on which the required United States group exists, and

(2) Such foreign corporation is a shareholder in a foreign personal holding company on any day of a taxable year of the second company which ends with or within the taxable year of the first company and such day is the last day in the taxable year of the second company in which the United States group exists with respect to the second company, then for the purpose of—

(i) Determining whether the first company meets the specified gross income requirement so as to come within the classification of a foreign personal holding company, and there shall be included as a dividend in the gross income of the first company for the taxable year in which or with which the taxable year of the second company ends, the amount the first company would have received as a dividend, if on the last day referred to in this subparagraph there had been distributed by the second company, and received by the shareholders, an amount which bears the same ratio to the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of the second company for its taxable year as the portion of such taxable year up to and including such last day bears to the entire taxable year. The foregoing rules apply to any chain of foreign corporations regardless of the number of corporations included in the chain.

(b) The application of section 555 (b) may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). The X Corporation is a foreign corporation whose stock is owned by A, a United States citizen. The X Corporation owns the entire stock of the Y Corporation, another foreign corporation. The taxable year of the X Corporation is the calendar year and the taxable year of the Y Corporation is the fiscal year ending June 30. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1955, more than the required percentage of the Y Corporation's gross income consists of foreign personal holding company income and no part of the earnings for such year is distributed as dividends. On the basis of these facts the Y Corporation is a foreign personal holding company for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1955. The X Corporation meets the stock ownership requirement and constitutes a foreign personal holding company for 1955, if it also meets the gross income requirement. For the purpose of determining whether the X Corporation meets the gross income requirement, the entire undistributed foreign personal holding company income of the Y Corporation for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1955, must be included as a dividend in the gross income of the X Corporation for 1955, since—

(1) The X Corporation was a shareholder in the Y Corporation on a day (June 30, 1955) in the taxable year of the Y Corporation ending with or within the taxable year of the X Corporation, which day was the last day in the taxable year of the Y Corporation on which the United States group required with respect to the Y Corporation existed,

(2) Such last day was also the end of the Y Corporation's taxable year so that the portion of the taxable year of the Y Corporation up to and including such last day is equal to 100 percent of the taxable year of the Y Corporation, and, therefore, the portion of the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of the Y Corporation includible in the gross income of its shareholders is likewise equal to 100 percent, and

(3) The X Corporation being the sole shareholder of the Y Corporation must include such portion in its gross income for 1955, the taxable year in which or with which the taxable year of the Y Corporation ends. If, after the inclusion of the presumptive dividend in its gross income, the X Corporation is a foreign personal holding company for 1955, then the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of the Y Corporation must also be included as a dividend in the gross income of the X Corporation in determining its undistributed foreign personal holding company income which is to be included in the gross income of A, the sole shareholder in the X Corporation. On the other hand, if, after including such presumptive dividend, the X Corporation does not constitute a foreign personal holding company, the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of the Y Corporation is not includible in the gross income of the X Corporation.

Example (2). The X Corporation referred to in example (1) sold the stock in the Y Corporation to other interests on September 30, 1955, so that after that date no United States group existed with respect to the Y Corporation. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1956, more than the required percentage of the gross income of the Y Corporation consists of foreign personal holding company income. The taxable income of the Y Corporation for such fiscal year amounts to $1,000,000, of which $900,000 is distributed in dividends after September 30, 1955. The undistributed foreign personal holding company income of the Y Corporation for such fiscal year amounts to $100,000. Upon the basis of these facts the Y Corporation is a foreign personal holding company for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1956, since at one time in such fiscal year, or from July 1 to and including September 30, 1955, it meets the stock ownership requirement, and the gross income requirement is also satisfied. In determining whether the X Corporation constitutes a foreign personal holding company for 1956, a portion of the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of the Y Corporation for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1956 (three-twelfths of $100,000, or $25,000), must be included as a dividend in the gross income of the X Corporation, since—

(1) The X Corporation was a shareholder in the Y Corporation on September 30, 1955, or on a day in the taxable year of the Y Corporation ending with or within the taxable year of the X Corporation which day was the last day in the Y Corporation's taxable year on which the United States group required with respect to the Y Corporation existed.

(2) The portion of the taxable year of the Y Corporation up to and including such day is three-twelfths of the entire taxable year of the Y Corporation and, therefore, the portion of the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of the Y Corporation includible in the gross income of its shareholders also is equal to three-twelfths, and

(3) The X Corporation, being the sole shareholder of the Y Corporation at the time the United States group with respect to the Y Corporation last existed, must include all of such portion in its gross income for 1956, the taxable year of the X Corporation in which or with which the taxable year of the Y Corporation ends.

It is to be observed that three-twelfths of the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of the Y Corporation for the entire taxable year and not the earnings realized by the Y Corporation up to and including September 30, 1955, the last day on which the United States group with respect to the Y Corporation existed, must be included in the gross income of the X Corporation.

Example (3). The X Corporation referred to in example (1) sold the stock in the Y Corporation to other interests on September 30, 1955, so that after that date a different United States group existed with respect to the Y Corporation. Assuming that the Y Corporation is a foreign personal holding company for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1956, no part of the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of the Y Corporation for such fiscal year would, in this instance, be includible in the gross income of the X Corporation for the year 1956, in determining whether the X Corporation is a foreign personal holding company for that year. In such case, the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of the Y Corporation is includible in the gross income of the other foreign personal holding companies, if any, and of the United States shareholders who are shareholders in the Y Corporation the day after September 30, 1955, which was the last day in the taxable year of the Y Corporation on which the United States group with respect to the Y Corporation existed. If, however, the X Corporation sells 90 percent of its stock in the Y Corporation and thus is a minority shareholder in the Y Corporation on the last day of the taxable year of the Y Corporation on which the United States group with respect to the Y Corporation exists, the portion of the undistributed foreign personal holding company income allocable to the minority interests of the X Corporation would be includible in the gross income of the X Corporation, even though on such last day the United States group is not the same with respect to both corporations.

Example (4). If the Y Corporation in example (1) owns all of the stock of the Z Corporation, another foreign corporation, there would be a chain of three foreign corporations. In such case, assuming that the Z Corporation is a foreign personal holding company for a taxable year ending with or within the taxable year of the Y Corporation, the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of the Z Corporation would be included in the gross income of the Y Corporation for the purpose of determining whether the Y Corporation comes within the classification of a foreign personal holding company. If, after the inclusion of the presumptive dividend, the Y Corporation is a foreign personal holding company, the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of the Z Corporation would be included in the gross income of the Y Corporation in determining the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of the Y Corporation which is includible in the gross income of its shareholder, the X Corporation. The same process would be repeated with respect to determining whether the X Corporation is a foreign personal holding company and in determining its undistributed foreign personal holding company income. If all three corporations are foreign personal holding companies, the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of each would, in this manner, be reflected as a dividend in the gross income of A, the ultimate beneficial shareholder of the chain. In the event that after the inclusion of the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of the Z Corporation in the gross income of the Y Corporation, the Y Corporation is not a foreign personal holding company, then no part of the income of either the Z Corporation or the Y Corporation would be includible in the gross income of the X Corporation. In that event, whether the X Corporation is a foreign personal holding company, and its undistributed foreign personal holding company income, would be determined independently of the income of the Y Corporation and the Z Corporation.

SEC. 556. Undistributed foreign personal holding company income—(a) Definition. For purposes of this part, the term "undistributed foreign personal holding company income" means the taxable income of a foreign personal holding company adjusted in the manner provided in subsection (b), minus the dividends paid deduction (as defined in section 561).

(b) Adjustments to taxable income. For the purposes of subsection (a), the taxable income shall be adjusted as follows:

(1) Taxes. There shall be allowed as a deduction Federal income and excess profits taxes (other than the excess profits tax imposed by subchapter E of chapter 2 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1940) and income, war profits, and excess-profits taxes of foreign countries and possessions of the United States (to the extent not allowable as a deduction under section 164 (b) (6)), accrued during the taxable year, but not including the accumulated earnings tax imposed by section 531, the personal holding company tax imposed by section 541, or the taxes imposed by corresponding sections of a prior income tax law. A taxpayer which, for each taxable year in which it was subject to the provisions of supplement P of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, deducted Federal income and excess profits taxes when paid for the purpose of computing undistributed supplement P net income under such code, shall deduct taxes under this paragraph when paid, unless the corporation elects, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate, after the date of enactment of this title to deduct the taxes described in this paragraph when accrued. Such election shall be irrevocable and shall apply to the taxable year for which the election is made and to all subsequent taxable years.

(2) Charitable contributions. The deduction for charitable contributions provided under section 170 shall be allowed, but with the limitation in section 170 (b) (1) (A) and (B) (in lieu of the limitation in section 170 (b) (2)). For purposes of this paragraph, the term "adjusted gross income" when used in section 170 (b) (1) means the taxable income computed with the adjustments provided in section 170 (b) (2) and without the deduction of the amounts disallowed under paragraphs (5) and (6) of this subsection or the inclusion in gross income of the amounts includible therein as dividends by reason of the application of the provisions of section 955 (b) (relating to the inclusion in gross income of a foreign personal holding company of its distributive share of the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of another company in which it is a shareholder).

(5) Special deductions disallowed. The special deductions for corporations provided in part VIII (except sections 242 and 248) of subchapter B (section 241 and following, relating to the deduction for dividends received by corporations, etc.) shall not be allowed.

(6) Net operating loss. The net operating loss deduction provided in section 172 shall not be allowed, but there shall be allowed as a deduction the amount of the net operating loss (as defined in section 172 (c)) for the preceding taxable year.

(5) Expenses and depreciation applicable to property of the taxpayer. The aggregate of the deductions allowed under section 162 (relating to trade or business expenses) and section 167 (relating to depreciation) which are allocable to the operation and maintenance of property owned or operated by the company, shall be allowed only in an amount equal to the rent or other compensation received for the use of, or the right to use, the property, unless it is established (under regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate) to the satisfaction of the Secretary or his delegate—

(A) That the rent or other compensation received was the highest obtainable, or, if none was received, that none was obtainable;

(B) That the property was held in the course of a business carried on bona fide for profit; and

(C) Either that there was reasonable expectation that the operation of the property would result in a profit, or that the property was necessary to the conduct of the business.

(6) Taxes and contributions to pension trusts. The deductions provided in section 164 (a) (relating to taxes of a shareholder paid by the corporation) and in section 404 (relating to pension, etc., trusts) shall not be allowed.

§ 1.556–1 Definition. Undistributed foreign personal holding company income is the amount which is to be included in the gross income of the United States shareholders under section 551 (b) and § 1.551–2. Undistributed foreign personal holding company income is the taxable income of the foreign personal holding company, as defined in section 11 (a) (computed without regard to subchapter N), and adjusted in the manner described in section 556 (b) and § 1.556–2, less the deduction for dividends paid (§§ 1.561–1.565). See § 1.556–3 for an illustration of the computation of undistributed foreign personal holding company income.

§ 1.556–2 Adjustments to taxable income.—(a) Taxes.—(1) General rule. (i) In computing undistributed foreign personal holding company income for any taxable year, there shall be allowed as a deduction the Federal income and excess profits taxes accrued during the taxable year except that no deduction shall be allowed for (a) the accumulated earnings tax imposed by section 531 (or a corresponding section of a prior law), (b) the personal holding company tax imposed by section 541 (or a corresponding section of a prior law), and (c) the excess profits tax imposed by subchapter E of chapter 2 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1940. The deduction is for taxes for the taxable year determined under the accrual method of accounting, regardless of whether the corporation uses an accrual method of accounting, the cash receipts and disbursements method, or any other allowable method of accounting. In computing the amount of taxes accrued, an unpaid tax which is being contested is not considered accrued until the contest is resolved.

(ii) However, the corporation shall deduct taxes paid, rather than taxes accrued, if it used that method with respect to Federal taxes for each taxable year for which it was subject to the provisions of supplement P of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, unless an election is made under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph to deduct taxes accrued.

(2) Election by corporation which deducted taxes paid. (i) If the corporation was subject to supplement P of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, and, for the purpose of computing undistributed supplement P net income under such Code, deducted Federal taxes paid, rather than such taxes accrued, for each taxable year for which it was subject to supplement P of the 1939 Code, the corporation may elect for any taxable year ending after August 16, 1954, to deduct taxes accrued, rather than taxes paid, for the purpose of computing its undistributed foreign personal holding company income. The election shall be made by deducting such taxes accrued in the return (Form 958) required to be filed for such taxable year. The return shall, in addition, contain a statement that the corporation has made such election and shall set forth the year to which such election was first applicable. The deduction of taxes accrued in the year of election precludes the deduction of taxes paid during such year. The election, if made, shall be irrevocable and the deduction for taxes accrued shall be allowed for the year of election and for all subsequent taxable years. See section 6035 and the regulations thereunder for rules relative to the filing of returns of officers, directors, and shareholders of foreign personal holding companies.

(ii) Pursuant to section 7851 (a) (1) (C), the election provided for in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph may be made with respect to a taxable year ending after August 16, 1954, even though such taxable year is subject to the Internal Revenue Code of 1939.

(3) Taxes of foreign countries and United States possessions. In computing taxable income, a foreign personal holding company is allowed a deduction under section 164 for income, war profits, and excess-profits taxes paid or accrued during the taxable year to foreign countries or possessions of the United States, but is not allowed the foreign tax credit under section 901. Therefore, in computing undistributed foreign personal holding company income for any taxable year, no adjustment under section 556 (b) (1) is allowed for such taxes.

(b) Charitable contributions. (1) Section 556 (b) (2) provides that, in computing the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of a corporation, the deduction for charitable contributions by a corporation shall be computed with the limitations of section 170 (b) (1) (A) and (B) (relating to charitable contributions by individuals) instead of the limitation in section 170 (b) (2) (relating to charitable contributions by corporations).

(2) Although the limitations of section 170 (b) (1) (A) and (B) are 10 and 20 percent, respectively, of the individual's adjusted gross income, the limitations are applied for purposes of section 556 (b) (2) by using 10 and 20 percent, respectively, of the corporation's taxable income as adjusted for purposes of section 170 (b) (2) (that is, the same amount of taxable income to which the 5-percent limitation applied). However, a further adjustment for this purpose is that the taxable income shall also be computed without the deduction of the amount disallowed under section 556 (b) (5) (relating to expenses and depreciation applicable to property of the taxpayer), and section 556 (b) (6) (relating to taxes and contributions to pension trusts), and without the inclusion of the amounts includible as dividends under section 555 (b) (relating to the inclusion in gross income of a foreign personal holding company of its distributive share of the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of another company in which it is a shareholder).

(3) See the regulations under section 170 (b) (1) (A) and (B) with respect to the charitable contributions to which the 10-percent limitation is applicable and the charitable contributions to which the 20-percent limitation is applicable.

(4) In some cases, a deduction in excess of the 5-percent limitation may be allowed for one taxable year under section 556 (b) (2) for purposes of computing the undistributed foreign personal holding company income only, and may also be allowed as a deduction in computing taxable income for a subsequent taxable year under the carryover provisions of section 170 (b) (2). To the extent that the charitable contributions carried over from a previous year have already been deducted for purposes of determining undistributed foreign personal holding company income in the year when the charitable contributions were made, they may not be deducted again as part of the contribution carryover deduction, for purposes of determining undistributed foreign personal holding company income for a subsequent year. However, this adjustment is only for purposes of computing the undistributed foreign personal holding company income, and the carryover in such case is allowable in computing taxable income.

(c) Special deductions disallowed. Part VIII of subchapter B of chapter 1 allows corporations special deductions in computing taxable income for such matters as partially tax-exempt interest, certain dividends received, dividends paid on certain preferred stock of public utilities, organizational expenses, etc. See section 241. Such special deductions, except the deduction provided by section 242 (relating to partially tax-exempt interest) and the deduction provided by section 248 (relating to organizational expenses), shall be disallowed in computing undistributed foreign personal holding company income.

(d) Net operating loss. The net operating loss deduction provided in section 172 is not allowed for purposes of the computation of undistributed foreign personal holding company income; however, there is allowed as a deduction for such purposes the amount of the net operating loss (as defined in section 172 (c)) for the preceding taxable year.

(e) Expenses and depreciation applicable to property of the corporation. (1) Section 556 (b) (5) provides a specific limitation in computing undistributed foreign personal holding company income, with respect to the allowance of deductions for trade or business expenses and depreciation which are allocable to the operation and maintenance of property owned or operated by a foreign personal holding company. Under this limitation these deductions shall not be allowed in excess of the aggregate amount of the rent or other compensation received for the use of, or the right to use, the property, unless it is established to the satisfaction of the Commissioner—

(i) That the rent or other compensation received was the highest obtainable, or if none was received, that none was obtainable;

(ii) That the property was held in the course of a business carried on bona fide for profit; and

(iii) Either that there was reasonable expectation that the operation of the property would result in a profit, or that the property was necessary to the conduct of the business.

(2) The burden of proof will rest upon the taxpayer to sustain the deduction claimed. If a United States shareholder, in computing his distributive share of undistributed foreign personal holding company income to be included in gross income in his individual return (see section 551, and §§ 1.551–1 and 1.551–2), claims deductions for expenses and depreciation allocable to the operation and maintenance of property owned or operated by the company, in an aggregate amount in excess of the rent or other compensation received for the use of, or the right to use, the property, he shall attach to his income tax return a statement setting forth his claim for allowance of the additional deductions, together with a complete statement of the facts and circumstances pertinent to his claim and the arguments on which he relies. Such statement shall set forth—

(i) A description of the property;

(ii) The cost or other basis to the corporation and the nature and value of the consideration paid for the property;

(iii) The name and address of the person from whom the property was acquired and the date the property was acquired;

(iv) The name and address of the person to whom the property is leased or rented, or the person permitted to use the property, and the number of shares of stock, if any, held by such person and the members of his family;

(v) The nature and gross amount of the rent or other compensation received for the use of, or the right to use, the property during the taxable year and for each of the five preceding years and the amount of the expenses incurred with respect to, and the depreciation sustained on, the property for such years;

(vi) Evidence that the rent or other compensation was the highest obtainable, or, if none was received, a statement of the reasons therefor;

(vii) A copy of the contract, lease or rental agreement;

(viii) The purpose for which the property was used;

(ix) The business carried on by the corporation with respect to which the property was held and the gross income, expenses, and taxable income derived from the conduct of such business for the taxable year and for each of the five preceding years;

(x) A statement of any reasons which existed for expectation that the operation of the property would be profitable, or a statement of the necessity for the use of the property in the business of the corporation, and the reasons why the property was acquired; and

(xi) Any other information pertinent to the taxpayer's claim.

(f) Taxes and contributions to pension trusts. Section 164 (e) provides for deduction by a corporation for taxes of a shareholder paid by it; section 404 provides for deduction by an employer for its contributions to an employees' trust, etc. For the purpose of computing undistributed foreign personal holding company income, neither of these deductions is allowable.

§ 1.556–3 Illustration of computation of undistributed foreign personal holding company income. The method of computation of the undistributed foreign personal holding company income may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. (a) The following facts exist with respect to the M Corporation, a foreign personal holding company, for the calendar year 1954:

(1) The gross income of the corporation as defined in section 555 amounts to $300,000, of which $85,000 represents its distributive share of the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of another foreign personal holding company in which it is a shareholder, $200,000 consists of dividends, $10,000 consists of fully taxable interest, and the remainder ($5,000) consists of rent received from the principal shareholder of the corporation for the use of property owned by the corporation.

(2) The expenses of the corporation amount to $85,000, of which $75,000 is allocable to the maintenance and operation of the property used by the principal shareholder and $10,000 consists of ordinary and necessary office expenses allowable as a deduction. The claim for deduction for the expenses of, and depreciation on, the rented property in excess of the rent received for its use is not established as provided in section 556 (b) (5). The yearly depreciation on the rented property amounts to $30,000.

(3) Federal income tax withheld at the source on the income of the corporation from sources within the United States amounts to $59,125.

(4) No gain from the sale or exchange of stock or securities is realized during the taxable year, but losses in the amount of $10,000 are sustained from the sale of stock or securities which constitute capital assets. Such losses are not allowed as a deduction in any amount. See section 1211 (a).

(5) Contributions, payment of which is made to or for the use of donees described in section 170 (b) (1) (A) for the purposes therein specified, amount to $15,000, of which $5,000 is deductible in computing taxable income under section 63.

(6) Dividends paid by the corporation to its shareholders during the taxable year amount to $50,000.

(b) The taxable income of the corporation (including the distributive share of the undistributed foreign personal holding company income of the other foreign personal holding company) is $180,000, computed as follows (assuming for the purposes of this example only that the expenses of, and depreciation on, the rental property are deductible under sections 162 and 167):

Income (Section 61)

Dividends	$200,000
Interest	10,000
Rent	5,000
Gross income as defined in section 61	215,000
Add:
Distributive share of undistributed income of the other foreign personal holding company (considered as a dividend)	85,000
Gross income as defined in section 555	300,000
Deductions (Section 161)
Expenses allocable to operation of the rented property	$75,000
Depreciation of the rented property	30,000
Ordinary and necessary expenses (office)	10,000
Contributions (within the 5-percent limitation specified in section 170 (b) (2))	5,000
	120,000
Taxable income for purposes of computing undistributed foreign personal holding company income	180,000

(c) The undistributed foreign personal holding company income of the corporation is $160,875, computed as follows:

Taxable income for purposes of computing undistributed foreign personal holding company income	$180,000
Add (see section 556 (b)):
Contributions deductible in computing taxable income under section 63	5,000
Excess property expenses and depreciation over amount of rent received for use of property ($105,000—$5,000)	100,000
Total	105,000
Deduct (see section 556 (b)):
Federal income taxes	$59,125
Contributions (within the percentage limitations specified in section 170 (b) (1) (A) and (B), determined under the rules provided in section 556 (b) (2))	15,000
Total	74,125

Net additions under section 556 (b)	$90,875
Taxable income, as adjusted under section 556 (b)	210,875
Less: Deduction for dividends paid (see section 561)	50,000
Undistributed foreign personal holding company income	160,875

§ 1.557 Statutory provisions; income not placed on annual basis.

SEC. 557. Income not placed on annual basis. Section 443 (b) (relating to computation of tax on change of annual accounting period) shall not apply in the computation of the undistributed foreign personal holding company income under section 556.

DEDUCTION FOR DIVIDENDS PAID

§ 1.561 Statutory provisions; definition of deduction for dividends paid.

SEC. 561. Definition of deduction for dividends paid—(a) General rule. The deduction for dividends paid shall be the sum of—

(1) The dividends paid during the taxable year,

(2) The consent dividends for the taxable year (determined under section 565), and

(3) In the case of a personal holding company, the dividend carryover described in section 564.

(b) Special rules applicable. In determining the deduction for dividends paid, the rules provided in section 562 (relating to rules applicable in determining dividends eligible for dividends paid deduction) and section 563 (relating to dividends paid after the close of the taxable year) shall be applicable.

§ 1.561–1 Deduction for dividends paid. (a) The deduction for dividends paid is applicable in determining accumulated taxable income under section 535, undistributed personal holding company income under section 545, undistributed foreign personal holding company income under section 556, and investment company taxable income under section 852. The deduction for dividends paid includes—

(1) The dividends paid during the taxable year;

(2) The consent dividends for the taxable year, determined as provided in section 565; and

(3) In the case of a personal holding company, the dividend carryover computed as provided in section 564.

(b) For dividends for which the dividends paid deduction is allowable, see section 562 and § 1.562–1. As to when dividends are considered paid, see § 1.561–2.

§ 1.561–2 When dividends are considered paid—(a) In general. (1) A dividend will be considered as paid when it is received by the shareholder. A deduction for dividends paid during the taxable year will not be permitted unless the shareholder receives the dividend during the taxable year for which the deduction is claimed. See section 563 for special rule with respect to dividends paid after the close of the taxable year.

(2) If a dividend is paid by check and the check bearing a date within the taxable year is deposited in the mails, in a cover properly stamped and addressed to the shareholder at his last known address, at such time that in the ordinary handling of the mails the check would be received by the shareholder within the taxable year, a presumption arises that the dividend was paid to the shareholder in such year.

(3) The payment of a dividend during the taxable year to the authorized agent of the shareholder will be deemed payment of the dividend to the shareholder during such year.

(4) If a corporation, instead of paying the dividend directly to the shareholder, credits the account of the shareholder on the books of the corporation with the amount of the dividend, the deduction for a dividend paid will not be permitted unless it be shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that such crediting constituted payment of the dividend to the shareholder within the taxable year.

(5) A deduction will not be permitted for the amount of a dividend credited during the taxable year upon an obligation of the shareholder to the corporation unless it is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that such crediting constituted payment of the dividend to the shareholder within the taxable year.

(6) If the dividend is payable in obligations of the corporation, they should be entered or registered in the taxable year on the books of the corporation, in the name of the shareholder (or his nominee or transferee), and, in the case of obligations payable to bearer, should be received in the taxable year by the shareholder (or his nominee or transferee) to constitute payment of the dividend within the taxable year.

(7) In the case of a dividend from which the tax has been deducted and withheld as required by chapter 3 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (sections 1441–1443) the dividend is considered as paid when such deducting and withholding occur.

(b) Methods of accounting. The determination of whether a dividend has been paid to the shareholder by the corporation during its taxable year is in no way dependent upon the method of accounting regularly employed by the corporation in keeping its books or upon the method of accounting upon the basis of which the taxable income of the corporation is computed.

(c) Records. Every corporation claiming a deduction for dividends paid shall keep such permanent records as are necessary (1) to establish that the dividends with respect to which such deduction is claimed were actually paid during the taxable year and (2) to supply the information required to be filed with the income tax return of the corporation. Such corporation shall file with its return (i) a copy of the dividend resolution; and (ii) a concise statement of the pertinent facts relating to the payment of the dividend, clearly specifying (a) the medium of payment and (b) if not paid in money, the fair market value and adjusted basis (or face value, if paid in its own obligations) on the date of distribution of the property distributed and the manner in which such fair market value and adjusted basis were determined. Canceled dividend checks and receipts obtained from shareholders acknowledging payment of dividends paid otherwise than by check need not be filed with the return but shall be kept by the corporation as a part of its records.

SEC. 562. Rules applicable in determining dividends eligible for dividends paid deduction—(a) General rule. For purposes of this part, the term "dividend" shall, except as otherwise provided in this section, include only dividends described in section 316 (relating to definition of dividends for purposes of corporate distributions).

(b) Distributions in liquidation. In the case of amounts distributed in liquidation, the part of such distribution which is properly chargeable to earnings and profits accumulated after February 28, 1913, shall be treated as a dividend for purposes of computing the dividends paid deduction. In the case of a complete liquidation occurring within 24 months after the adoption of a plan of liquidation, any distribution within such period pursuant to such plan shall, to the extent of the earnings and profits (computed without regard to capital losses) of the corporation for the taxable year in which such distribution is made, be treated as a dividend for purposes of computing the dividends paid deduction.

(c) Preferential dividends. The amount of any distribution shall not be considered as a dividend for purposes of computing the dividends paid deduction, unless such distribution is pro rata, with no preference to any share of stock as compared with other shares of the same class, and with no preference to one class of stock as compared with another class except to the extent that the former is entitled (without reference to waivers of their rights by shareholders) to such preference.

(d) Distributions by a member of an affiliated group. In the case where a corporation which is a member of an affiliated group of corporations filing or required to file a consolidated return for a taxable year is required to file a separate personal holding company schedule for such taxable year, a distribution by such corporation to another member of the affiliated group shall be considered as a dividend for purposes of computing the dividends paid deduction if such distribution would constitute a dividend under the other provisions of this section to a recipient which is not a member of an affiliated group.

§ 1.562–1 Dividends for which the dividends paid deduction is allowable—(a) General rule. Except as otherwise provided in section 562 (b) and (d), the term "dividend", for purposes of determining dividends eligible for the dividends paid deduction, refers only to a dividend described in section 316 (relating to definition of dividends for purposes of corporate distributions). No distribution, however, which is preferential within the meaning of section 562 (c) and § 1.562–2 shall be eligible for the dividends paid deduction. Further, for purposes of the dividends paid deduction, the term "dividend" does not include a distribution in liquidation unless the distribution qualifies under section 562 (b) and paragraph (b) of this section. If a dividend is paid in property (other than money) the amount of the dividend paid deduction with respect to such property shall be the adjusted basis of the property in the hands of the distributing corporation at the time of the distribution. See paragraph (c) of this section for a special rule for personal holding companies. Also see section 563 for special rules with respect to dividends paid after the close of the taxable year.

(b) Distributions in liquidation—(1) Distributions in liquidation for which the dividends paid deduction is allowable. In the case of amounts distributed in liquidation section 562 (b) makes an exception to the general rule that a deduction for dividends paid is permitted only with respect to dividends described in section 316. In order to qualify under that exception, the distribution must be one either in complete or partial liquidation of a corporation pursuant to sections 331, 332, or 333. As provided by section 346 (a), for the purposes of section 562 (b), a partial liquidation includes a redemption of stock to which section 302 applies. Amounts distributed in liquidation in a transaction which is preceded, or followed, by a transfer to another corporation of all or part of the assets of the liquidating corporation, may not be eligible for the dividends paid deduction.

(2) Amount of dividends paid deduction allowable—(i) General rule. In the case of distributions in liquidation with respect to which a deduction for dividends paid is permissible under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the amount of the deduction is equal to the part of such distribution which is properly chargeable to the earnings or profits accumulated after February 28, 1913. To determine the amount properly chargeable to the earnings or profits accumulated after February 28, 1913, there must be deducted from the amount of the distribution that part allocable to capital account. The capital account, for the purposes of this subparagraph, includes not only amounts representing the par or stated value of the stock with respect to which the liquidation distribution is made, but also that stock's proper share of the paid-in surplus, and such other corporate items, if any, which for purposes of income taxation, are treated like capital in that they are not taxable dividends when distributed but are applied against and reduce the basis of the stock. The remainder of the distribution in liquidation is, ordinarily, properly chargeable to the earnings or profits accumulated after February 28, 1913. Thus, if there is a deficit in earnings and profits on the first day of a taxable year, and the earnings and profits for such taxable year do not exceed such deficit, no dividends paid deduction would be allowed for such taxable year with respect to a distribution in liquidaton; if the earnings and profits for such taxable year exceed the deficit in earnings and profits which existed on the first day of such taxable year, then a dividends paid deduction would be allowable to the extent of such excess.

(ii) Special rule. Section 562 (b) provides that in the case of a complete liquidation occurring within 24 months after the adoption of a plan of liquidation the amount of the deduction is equal to the earnings and profits for each taxable year in which distributions are made. Thus, if there is a distribution in liquidation pursuant to section 333, or a distribution in complete liquidation pursuant to sections 331 (a) (1) or 332 which occurs within a 24-month period after the adoption of a plan of liquidation, a dividends paid deduction will be allowable to the extent of the current earnings and profits for the taxable year or years even though there was a deficit in earnings and profits on the first day of such taxable year or years. In computing the earnings and profits for the taxable year in which the distributions are made, computation shall be made with the inclusion of capital gains and without any deduction for capital losses.

(iii) Examples. The application of this subparagraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). The Y Corporation, which makes its income tax returns on the calendar year basis, was organized on January 1, 1910, with an authorized and outstanding capital stock of 2,000 shares of common stock of a par value of $100 each and 1,000 shares of participating preferred stock of a par value of $100 each. The preferred stock was to receive annual dividends of $7 per share and $100 per share on complete liquidation of the corporation in priority to any payments on common stock, and was to participate equally with the common stock in either instance after the common stock had received a similar amount. However, the preferred stock was redeemable in whole or in part at the option of the board of directors at any time at $106 per share plus its proportion of the earnings of the company at the time of such redemption. In 1910 the preferred stock was issued at $106 per share, for a total of $106,000 and the common stock was issued, at $100 per share, for a total of $200,000. On July 15, 1954, the company had a paid-in surplus of $6,000, consisting of the premium received on the preferred stock; earnings or profits of $30,000 accumulated prior to March 1, 1913; and earnings or profits accumulated since February 28, 1913, of $75,000. On July 15, 1954, the option with respect to the preferred stock was exercised and the entire amount of such stock was redeemed at $141 per share or a total of $141,000 in a transaction upon which gain or loss to the distributees resulting from the exchange was determined and recognized under section 302 (a). The amount of the distribution allocable to capital account was $116,000 ($100,000 attributable to par value, $6,000 attributable to paid-in surplus, and $10,000 attributable to earnings or profits accumulated prior to March 1, 1913). The remainder, $25,000 ($141,000, the amount of the distribution, less $116,000, the amount allocable to capital account) is properly chargeable to the earnings or profits accumulated since February 28, 1913, and is deductible as dividends paid.

Example (2). The M Corporation, a calendar year taxpayer, is completely liquidated on November 1, 1955, pursuant to a plan of liquidation adopted April 1, 1955. On January 1, 1955, the M Corporation has a deficit in earnings and profits of $100,000. During the period January 1, 1955, to the date of liquidation, November 1, 1955, it has earnings and profits of $10,000. The M Corporation is entitled to a dividends paid deduction in the amount of $10,000 as a result of its distribution in complete liquidation on November 1, 1955.

Example (3). The N Corporation, a calendar year taxpayer, is completely liquidated on July 1, 1958, pursuant to a plan of liquidation adopted February 1, 1955. No distributions in liquidation were made pursuant to the plan of liquidation adopted February 1, 1955, until the distribution in complete liquidation on July 1, 1958. On January 1, 1958, N Corporation had a deficit in earnings and profits of $30,000. During the period January 1, 1958, to the date of liquidation, July 1, 1958, the N Corporation has earnings and profits of $5,000. The N Corporation is not entitled to any deduction for dividends paid as a result of the distribution in complete liquidation on July 1, 1958. If the earnings and profits for the period January 1, 1958, to July 1, 1958, had been $32,000, the N Corporation would have been entitled to a deduction for dividends paid in the amount of $2,000.

(c) Special rule for personal holding companies. Section 316 (b) (2) provides that in the case of a corporation which, under the law applicable to the taxable year in which a distribution is made, is a personal holding company, the term "dividend" (in addition to the general meaning set forth in section 316 (a)) also means a distribution to its shareholders to the extent of the corporation's undistributed personal holding company income (determined under section 545 without regard to such distributions) for the taxable year in which the distribution was made. See paragraph (b) of § 1.316–1.

§ 1.562–2 Preferential dividends. (a) Section 562 (c) imposes a limitation upon the general rule that a corporation is entitled to a deduction for dividends paid with respect to all dividends which it actually pays during the taxable year. Before a corporation may be entitled to any such deduction with respect to a distribution regardless of the medium in which the distribution is made, every shareholder of the class of stock with respect to which the distribution is made must be treated the same as every other shareholder of that class, and no class of stock may be treated otherwise than in accordance with its dividend rights as a class. The limitation imposed by section 562 (c) is unqualified, except in the case of an actual distribution made in connection with a consent distribution (see section 565), if the entire distribution composed of such actual distribution and consent distribution is not preferential. The existence of a preference is sufficient to prohibit the deduction regardless of the fact (1) that such preference is authorized by all the shareholders of the corporation or (2) that the part of the distribution received by the shareholder benefited by the preference is taxable to him as a dividend. A corporation will not be entitled to a deduction for dividends paid with respect to any distribution upon a class of stock if there is distributed to any shareholder of such class (in proportion to the number of shares held by him) more or less than his pro rata part of the distribution as compared with the distribution made to any other shareholder of the same class. Nor will a corporation be entitled to a deduction for dividends paid in the case of any distribution upon a class of stock if there is distributed upon such class of stock more or less than the amount to which it is entitled as compared with any other class of stock. A preference exists if any rights to preference inherent in any class of stock are violated. The disallowance, where any preference in fact exists, extends to the entire amount of the distribution and not merely to a part of such distribution. As used in this section, the term "distribution" includes a dividend as defined in subchapter C of chapter 1 and a distribution in liquidation referred to in section 562 (b).

(b) The application of the provisions of section 562 (c) may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). A, B, C, and D are the owners of all the shares of class A common stock in the M Corporation, which makes its income tax returns on a calendar year basis. With the consent of all the shareholders, the M Corporation on July 15, 1954, declared a dividend of $5 a share payable in cash on August 1, 1954, to A. On September 15, 1954, it declared a dividend of $5 a share payable in cash on October 1, 1954, to B, C, and D. No allowance for dividends paid for the taxable year 1954 is permitted to the M Corporation with respect to any part of the dividends paid on August 1, 1954, and October 1, 1954.

Example (2). The N Corporation, which makes its income tax returns on the calendar year basis, has a capital of $100,000 (consisting of 1,000 shares of common stock of a par value of $100) and earnings or profits accumulated after February 28, 1913, in the amount of $50,000. In the year 1954, the N Corporation distributes $7,500 in cancellation of 50 shares of the stock owned by three of the four shareholders of the corporation. No deduction for dividends paid is permissible under section 562 (c) and paragraph (a) of this section with respect to such distribution.

Example (3). The P Corporation has two classes of stock outstanding, 10 shares of cumulative preferred, owned by E, entitled to $6 per share and on which no dividends have been paid for two years, and 10 shares of common, owned by F. On December 31, 1954, the corporation distributes a dividend of $125, $50 to E, and $75 to F. The corporation is entitled to no deduction for any part of such dividend paid, since there has been a preference to F. If, however, the corporation had distributed $100 to E and $25 to F, it would have been entitled to include $125 as a dividend paid deduction.

§ 1.562–3 Distributions by a member of an affiliated group. A personal holding company which files or is required to file a consolidated return with other members of an affiliated group may be required to file a separate personal holding company schedule by reason of the limitations and exceptions provided in section 542 (b) and § 1.542–4. Section 562 (d) provides that in such case the dividends paid deduction shall be allowed to the personal holding company, with respect to a distribution made to any member of the affiliated group, if such distribution would constitute a dividend if it were made to a shareholder which is not a member of the affiliated group.

SEC. 563. Rules relating to dividends paid after close of taxable year—(a) Accumulated earnings tax. In the determination of the dividends paid deduction for purposes of the accumulated earnings tax imposed by section 531, a dividend paid after the close of any taxable year and on or before the 15th day of the third month following the close of such taxable year shall be considered as paid during such taxable year.

(b) Personal holding company tax. In the determination of the dividends paid deduction for purposes of the personal holding company tax imposed by section 541, a dividend paid after the close of any taxable year and on or before the 15th day of the third month following the close of such taxable year shall, to the extent the taxpayer elects in its return for the taxable year, be considered as paid during such taxable year. The amount allowed as a dividend by reason of the application of this subsection with respect to any taxable year shall not exceed either—

(1) The undistributed personal holding company income of the corporation for the taxable year, computed without regard to this subsection, or

(2) 10 percent of the sum of the dividends paid during the taxable year, computed without regard to this subsection.

(c) Dividends considered as paid on last day of taxable year. For the purpose of applying section 562 (a), with respect to distributions under subsection (a) or (b) of this section, a distribution made after the close of a taxable year and on or before the 15th day of the third month following the close of the taxable year shall be considered as made on the last day of such taxable year.

§ 1.563–1 Accumulated earnings tax. In the determination of the dividends paid deduction for purposes of the accumulated earnings tax imposed by section 531, a dividend paid after the close of any taxable year and on or before the 15th day of the third month following the close of such taxable year shall be considered as paid during such taxable year, and shall not be included in the computation of the dividends paid deduction for the year of payment. However, the rule provided in section 563 (a) is not applicable to dividends paid during the first two and one-half months of the first taxable year of the corporation subject to tax under chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

§ 1.563–2 Personal holding company tax. In the case of a personal holding company subject to the provisions of section 541 dividends paid after the close of the taxable year and before the 15th day of the third month thereafter shall be included in the computation of the dividends paid deduction for the taxable year only if the taxpayer so elects in its return for such taxable year. The election shall be made by including such dividends in computing its dividends paid deduction. The amount of such dividends which may be included in computing the dividends paid deduction for the taxable year shall not exceed either—

(a) The undistributed personal holding company income of the corporation for the taxable year, computed without regard to this section, or

(b) 10 percent of the sum of the dividends paid during the taxable year (not including consent dividends), computed without regard to this section. In computing the amount of the dividends paid deduction allowable for any taxable year, the amount allowed by reason of section 563 (b) for any preceding taxable year is considered a dividend paid in such preceding taxable year and not in the year of actual distribution. Thus, a double deduction is not allowable.

§ 1.563–3 Dividends considered as paid on last day of taxable year—(a) General rule. Where a distribution made after the close of the taxable year is considered as paid during such taxable year, for purposes of applying section 562 (a) the distribution shall be considered as made on the last day of such taxable year.

(b) Personal holding company tax. In the case of a corporation which under the law applicable to the taxable year in respect of which a distribution is made under section 563 (b) and § 1.563–2 is a personal holding company under the law applicable to such taxable year, section 316 (b) (2) provides that the term dividend means (in addition to the general rule under section 316 (a)) any distribution to the extent of the corporation's undistributed personal holding company income (determined under section 545 without regard to distributions under section 316 (b) (2)) for such year. See paragraph (b) of § 1.316–1.

(c) Dividends paid on or before December 15, 1955. Public Law 74 (84th Congress) approved June 15, 1955, repealed sections 452 and 462 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, relating to prepaid income and reserve for estimated expenses. Under section 4 (c) (4) of Public Law 74, dividends paid after the 15th day of the third month following the close of the taxable year and on or before December 15, 1955, may be treated as having been paid on the last day of the taxable year for purposes of the accumulated earnings tax or the personal holding company tax and in the case of regulated investment companies, but only to the extent that such dividends are attributable to an increase in taxable income for the taxable year by reason of the repeal of sections 452 and 462. See paragraph (b) of § 1.9000–8, relating to treatment of certain dividends, prescribed pursuant to section 4 (c) (4) of the Act of June 15, 1955 (Public Law 74, 84th Congress, 69 Stat. 136).

SEC. 564. Dividend carryover—(a) General rule. For purposes of computing the dividends paid deduction under section 561, in the case of a personal holding company the dividend carryover for any taxable year shall be the dividend carryover to such taxable year, computed as provided in subsection (b), from the two preceding taxable years.

(b) Computation of dividend carryover. The dividend carryover to the taxable year shall be determined as follows:

(1) For each of the 2 preceding taxable years there shall be determined the taxable income computed with the adjustments provided in section 545 (whether or not the taxpayer was a personal holding company for either of such preceding taxable years), and there shall also be determined for each such year the deduction for dividends paid during such year as provided in section 561 (but determined without regard to the dividend carryover to such year).

(2) There shall be determined for each such taxable year whether there is an excess of such taxable income over such deduction for dividends paid or an excess of such deduction for dividends paid over such taxable income, and the amount of each such excess.

(3) If there is an excess of such deductions for dividends paid over such taxable income for the first preceding taxable year, such excess shall be allowed as a dividend carryover to the taxable year.

(4) If there is an excess of such deduction for dividends paid over such taxable income for the second preceding taxable year, such excess shall be reduced by the amount determined in paragraph (5), and the remainder of such excess shall be allowed as a dividend carryover to the taxable year.

(5) The amount of the reduction specified in paragraph (4) shall be the amount of the excess of the taxable income, if any, for the first preceding taxable year over such deduction for dividends paid, if any, for the first preceding taxable year.

(c) Determination of dividend carryover from taxable years to which this subtitle does not apply. In a case where the first or second preceding taxable year began before the taxpayer's first taxable year under this subtitle, the amount of the dividend carryover to taxable years to which this subtitle applies shall be determined under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939.

§ 1.564–1 Dividend carryover—(a) General rule. The dividend carryover from the two preceding years, allowable only to personal holding companies, is includible in the dividends paid deduction under section 561. It is computed as follows:

(1) If, for each of the preceding two years, the deduction for dividends paid under section 561 (determined without regard to the dividend carryover to each such year) exceeds the taxable income (adjusted as provided in section 545 for purposes of determining undistributed personal holding company income) then the dividend carryover to the taxable year is the sum of both such excess amounts.

(2) If the deduction for dividends paid under section 561 for the second preceding year (determined without regard to the dividend carryover to such year) exceeds the taxable income for such year (adjusted as provided in section 545), and if the taxable income for the first preceding year (as so adjusted) exceeds the dividends paid deduction for such first preceding year (as so determined), then the dividend carryover to the taxable year shall be such excess amount for the second preceding year, less such excess amount for the first preceding year.

(3) If for the first preceding year the deduction for dividends paid under section 561 (determined without regard to the dividend carryover to such year) exceeds the taxable income (adjusted as provided in section 545) for such year, and such excess is not present in the second preceding year, then the dividend carryover to the taxable year shall be such excess amount for the first preceding year.

(b) Dividend carryover from year in which taxpayer was not a personal holding company. In computing the dividend carryover, the taxable income as adjusted under section 545 of any preceding taxable year shall be determined as if the corporation was, under the law applicable to such taxable year, a personal holding company.

(c) Dividend carryover from year in which taxpayer was subject to 1939 Code. In a case where the first or the second preceding taxable year began before the taxpayer's first taxable year under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the amount of the dividend carryover shall be determined under the Internal Revenue Code of 1939.

(d) Statement to be filed with return. Every corporation claiming a dividend carryover for any taxable year shall file with its return for such year a concise statement setting forth the amount of the dividend carryover claimed and all material and pertinent facts relative thereto, including a detailed schedule showing the computation of the dividend carryover claimed.

(e) Computation of dividend carryover. The computation of the dividend carryover may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). The X Corporation, which files its income tax returns on the calendar year basis, has taxable income, adjusted as required by section 545, in the amount of $110,000 and has a dividends paid deduction of $150,000 for the year 1954. For 1955, its taxable income, adjusted as required by section 545, is $200,000 and its dividends paid deduction is $300,000. The dividend carryover to the year 1956 is $140,000, computed as follows:

Dividends paid deduction for 1954	$150,000
Taxable income for 1954	110,000
Dividend carryover from 1954	40,000
Dividends paid deduction for 1955	300,000
Taxable income for 1955	200,000
Dividend carryover from 1955	100,000
Dividend carryover for 2 preceding taxable years, allowable as a deduction for the year 1956	140,000

Example (2). The Y Corporation, which files its income tax returns on the calendar year basis, has taxable income, adjusted as required by section 545, in the amount of $100,000 and has a dividends paid deduction of $150,000 for the year 1954. For 1955, its taxable income, adjusted as required by section 545, is $200,000 and its dividends paid deduction is $170,000. The dividend carryover to the year 1956 is $20,00 computed as follows:

Dividends paid deduction for 1954	$150,000
Taxable income for 1954	100,000
Dividend carryover from 1954	50,000
Taxable income for 1955	200,000
Dividends paid deduction for 1955	170,000
Excess of taxable income over dividends paid deduction	30,000
Dividend carryover for second preceding taxable year, allowable as a deduction for the year 1956	20,000

§ 1.565 Statutory provisions; consent dividends.

SEC. 565. Consent dividends—(a) General rule. If any person owns consent stock (as defined in subsection (f) (1)) in a corporation on the last day of the taxable year of such corporation, and such person agrees, in a consent filed with the return of such corporation in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate, to treat as a dividend the amount specified in such consent, the amount so specified shall, except as provided in subsection (b), constitute a consent dividend for purposes of section 561 (relating to the deduction for dividends paid).

(b) Limitations. A consent dividend shall not include—

(1) An amount specified in a consent which, if distributed in money, would constitute, or be part of, a distribution which would be disqualified for purposes of the dividends paid deduction under section 562 (c) (relating to preferential dividends), or

(2) An amount specified in a consent which would not constitute a dividend (as defined in section 316) if the total amount specified in consents filed by the corporation had been distributed in money to shareholders on the last day of the taxable year of such corporation.

(c) Effect of consent. The amount of a consent dividend shall be considered, for purposes of this title—

(1) As distributed in money by the corporation to the shareholder on the last day of the taxable year of the corporation, and

(2) As contributed to the capital of the corporation by the shareholder on such day.

(d) Consent dividends and other distributions. If a distribution by a corporation consists in part of consent dividends and in part of money or other property, the entire amount specified in the consents and the amount of such money or other property shall be considered together for purposes of applying this title.

(e) Nonresident aliens and foreign corporations. In the case of a consent dividend which, if paid in money would be subject to the provisions of section 1441 (relating to withholding of tax on nonresident aliens) or section 1442 (relating to withholding of tax on foreign corporations), this section shall not apply unless the consent is accompanied by money, or such other medium of payment as the Secretary or his delegate may by regulations authorize, in an amount equal to the amount that would be required to be deducted and withheld under section 1441 or 1442 if the consent dividend had been, on the last day of the taxable year of the corporation, paid to the shareholder in money as a dividend. The amount accompanying the consent shall be credited against the tax imposed by this subtitle on the shareholder.

(f) Definitions—(1) Consent stock. Consent stock, for purposes of this section, means the class or classes of stock entitled, after the payment of preferred dividends, to a share in the distribution (other than in complete or partial liquidation) within the taxable year of all the remaining earnings and profits, which share constitutes the same proportion of such distribution regardless of the amount of such distribution.

(2) Preferred dividends. Preferred dividends, for purposes of this section, means a distribution (other than in complete or partial liquidation), limited in amount, which must be made on any class of stock before a further distribution (other than in complete or partial liquidation) of earnings and profits may be made within the taxable year.

§ 1.565–1 General rule. (a) The dividends paid deduction, as defined in section 561, includes the consent dividends for the taxable year. A consent dividend is a hypothetical distribution (as distinguished from an actual distribution) which any person, who owns consent stock on the last day of the taxable year of the corporation, agrees to treat as a dividend, subject to the limitations in section 565 (b) and § 1.565–2. The amount of the distribution must be specified by such person in a consent (or consents) filed at the time and in the manner specified in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Making and filing of consents. (1) A consent shall be made on Form 972 in accordance with this section and the instructions on the form issued therewith. It may be made only by or on behalf of a person who was the actual owner on the last day of the corporation's taxable year of any class of consent stock, that is, the person who would have been required to include in gross income any dividends on such stock actually distriated on the last day of such year. Form 972 shall contain or be verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury. In the consent such person must agree to include in his gross income for his taxable year in which or with which the taxable year of the corporation ends a specific amount as a taxable dividend.

(2) See § 1.565–2 for rules as to when all or a portion of the amount so specified will be disregarded for tax purposes.

(3) A consent may be filed at any time not later than the due date of the corporation's income tax return for the taxable year for which the dividends paid deduction is claimed. With such return, and not later than the due date thereof, the corporation must file Forms 972 duly executed by each consenting shareholder, and a return on Form 973 showing by classes the stock outstanding on the first and last days of the taxable year, the dividend rights of such stock, distributions made during the taxable year to shareholders, and giving all the other information required by the form. Form 973 shall contain or be verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury.

(c) Taxability of amounts specified in consents. (1) Once a shareholder's consent is filed, the full amount specified therein shall be included in his gross income as a taxable dividend, except as otherwise provided in section 565 (b) and § 1.565–2. Where the shareholder is taxable on a dividend only if received from sources within the United States, the amount specified in the consent of such shareholder shall be treated as a dividend from such sources in the same manner as if the dividend had been paid in money to the shareholder on the last day of the corporation's taxable year. See paragraph (b) of this section, relating to the making and filing of consents, and section 565 (e) and § 1.565–5, with respect to the payment requirements in the case of nonresident aliens and foreign corporations.

(2) Except as provided in section 565 (b) and § 1.565–2, the ground upon which a consent dividends deduction is denied the corporation does not affect the taxability of a shareholder whose consent has been filed for the amount specified in his consent. Thus, he is taxable on the full amount so specified even though a consent dividends deduction may be denied the corporation or may be of less value to it because, for example, (i) it is determined that it is not a corporation subject to part I, II, or III of subchapter G of chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, (ii) although subject to part II of subchapter G of the 1954 Code, its taxable income (as adjusted under section 545 (b) and § 1.545–2) is less than the total of the consent dividends, or (iii) in the case of nonresident aliens or foreign corporations, payment has not been made as required by section 565 (e) and § 1.565–5.

§ 1.565–2 Limitations. (a) Amounts specified in consents are not treated as consent dividends to the extent that they would constitute a preferential dividend, or would not constitute a dividend (as defined in section 316), if distributed in money to shareholders on the last day of the taxable year of the corporation. If any portion of an amount specified in a consent is not treated as a consent dividend under section 565 (b) and this section, it is disregarded for all tax purposes. For example, it is not taxable to the consenting shareholder, and paragraph (c) of § 1.565–1 is not applicable to such portion of the amount specified in the consent.

(b) (1) A preferential distribution is an actual distribution, or a consent distribution, or a combination of the two, which involves a preference to one or more shares of stock as compared with other shares of the same class or to one class of stock as compared with any other class of stock. See section 562 (c) and § 1.562–2.

(2) The application of section 565 (b) (1) may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). The X Corporation, which makes its income tax returns on the calendar year basis, has 200 shares of stock outstanding, owned by A and B in equal amounts. On December 15, 1954, the corporation distributes $600 to B and $100 to A. As a part of the same distribution A executes a consent to include $500 in his gross income as a taxable dividend though such amount is not distributed to him. The X Corporation, assuming the other requirements of section 565 have been complied with, is entitled to a consent dividends deduction of $500. Although the consent dividend is deemed to have been paid on December 31, 1954, the last day of the taxable year of the corporation, they constitute a single nonpreferential distribution of $1,200.

Example (2). The Y Corporation, which makes its income tax returns on the calendar year basis, has one class of consent stock outstanding, owned in equal amounts by A, B, and C. On December 15, 1954, the corporation makes a distribution in cash of $5,000 each to A and B, and $3,000 to C. The distribution is preferential. If A and B each receive a distribution in cash of $5,000 and C consents to include $3,000 in gross income as a taxable dividend, the combined actual and consent distribution is preferential. Similarly, if no one receives a distribution in cash, but A and B each consents to include $5,000 as a taxable dividend in gross income and C agrees to include only $3,000, the consent distribution is preferential.

Example (3). The Z Corporation, which makes its income tax returns on the calendar year basis, has only two classes of stock outstanding, each class being consent stock and consisting of 500 shares. Class A, with a par value of $40 per share, is entitled to two-thirds of any distribution of earnings and profits. Class B, with a par value of $20 per share, is entitled to one-third of any distribution of earnings and profits. On December 15, 1954, there is distributed on the class B stock $2 per share, or $1,000, and shareholders of the class A stock consent to include in gross income amounts equal to $2 per share, or $1,000. The distribution is preferential, inasmuch as the class B stock has received more than its pro rata share of the combined amounts of the actual distributions and the consent distributions.

(c) (1) An additional limitation under section 565 (b) is that the amounts specified in consents which may be treated as consent dividends cannot exceed the amounts which would constitute a dividend (as defined in section 316) if the corporation had distributed the total specified amounts in money to shareholders on the last day of the taxable year of the corporation. If only a portion of such total would constitute a dividend, then only a corresponding portion of each specified amount is treated as a consent dividend.

(2) The application of section 565 (b) (2) may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. The X Corporation, which makes its income tax returns on the calendar year basis, has only one class of stock outstanding, owned in equal amounts by A and B. It makes no distributions during the taxable year 1954. Its earnings and profits for the calendar year 1954 amount to $8,000, there being at the beginning of such year no accumulated earnings or profits. A and B execute proper consents to include $5,000 each in their gross income as a dividend received by them on December 31, 1954. The sum of the amount specified in the consents executed by A and B is $10,000, but if $10,000 had actually been distributed by the X Corporation on December 31, 1954, only $8,000 would have constituted a dividend under section 316 (a). The amount which could be considered as consent dividends in computing the dividends paid deduction for purposes of the accumulated earnings tax is limited to $8,000, or $4,000 of the $5,000 specified in each consent. The remaining $1,000 in each consent is disregarded for all tax purposes. In the case of a personal holding company, the amount which could be considered as consent dividends in computing the dividends paid deduction for purposes of the personal holding company tax is $10,000 (assuming that the undistributed personal holding company income, determined without regard to distributions under section 316 (b) (2), is equal to at least that amount). In that event, A and B would each include $5,000 in gross income as a dividend received on December 31, 1954.

§ 1.565–3 Effect of consent. (a) The amount of the consent dividend shall be considered, for all purposes of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as if it were distributed in money by the corporation to the shareholder on the last day of the taxable year of the corporation, received by the shareholder on such day, and immediately contributed by the shareholder as paid-in capital to the corporation on such day. Thus, the amount of the consent dividend will be treated by the shareholder as a dividend. The shareholder will be entitled to the dividends received credit under section 34 and the exclusion under section 116, or to the dividends received deduction under section 243, with respect to such consent dividend. The basis of the shareholder's consent stock in a corporation will be increased by the amount thus treated in his hands as a dividend which he is considered as having contributed to the corporation as paid-in capital. The amount of the consent dividend will also be treated as a dividend received from sources within the United States in the same manner as if the dividend had been paid in money to the shareholders. Among other effects of the consent dividend, the earnings and profits of the corporation will be decreased by the amount of the consent dividends. Moreover, if the shareholder is a corporation, its accumulated earnings and profits will be increased by the amount of the consent dividend with respect to which it makes a consent.

(b) The application of section 565 (c) to a corporate shareholder may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). The A Corporation has one shareholder, the B Corporation, whose consent to include $10,000 in its gross income for the calendar year 1954 has been duly made and filed. The earnings and profits of the A Corporation for the calendar year 1954 amount to only $8,000, there being at the beginning of such year no accumulated earnings or profits. If A Corporation was a personal holding company for 1954 and had undistributed personal holding company income for that year of $10,000 or more (determined without regard to distributions under section 316 (b) (2)) the B Corporation must include $10,000 in its gross income as a taxable dividend. On the other hand, if A was not a personal holding company for 1954, the B Corporation must include in its gross income $8,000 as a taxable dividend.

Example (2). Assume the B Corporation to have begun the year 1954 with $5,000 accumulated earnings and profits, to have made no distributions during the year, and to have had neither profit nor loss from operations during the year 1954. If the A Corporation was a personal holding company for 1954, the amount of $10,000 included in the income of the B Corporation shall be considered as earnings and profits for the year 1954 and the earnings and profits of B Corporation at the close of such year will include both the $5,000 accumulated earnings and profits and the $10,000 included in income. But if A Corporation was not a personal holding company for 1954, the amount of $8,000 included in the income of the B Corporation shall be considered as earnings and profits for the year 1954 and the earnings and profits of B Corporation at the close of such year will include both the $5,000 accumulated earnings and profits and the $8,000 included in income.

§ 1.565–4 Consent dividends and other distributions. Section 565 (d) provides a rule applicable where a distribution is made in part in consent dividends and in part in money or other property. With respect to such a distribution the entire amount specified in the consents and the amount of such money or other property shall be considered together. Thus, if as a part of the same distribution consents are filed by some of the shareholders and cash is distributed to other shareholders, for example, those who may be unwilling to sign consents, the total amount of the cash and the amounts specified in the consents will be viewed as a single distribution to determine the tax effects of such distribution. For example, the total of such amounts must be considered to determine whether the distribution (including the amounts specified in the consents) is preferential and whether any part of such distribution would not be dividends if the total amounts specified in the consents were distributed in cash. See paragraph (b) (2) of § 1.565–2 for examples illustrating the treatment of distributions which consist in part of consent dividends and in part of other property.

§ 1.565–5 Nonresident aliens and foreign corporations. In the event that any consent filed by the corporation is made by a shareholder to whom the payment of a dividend in cash on the last day of the taxable year of the corporation would have made it necessary for the corporation to deduct and withhold any amount as a tax under section 1441 or section 1442, such consent, when filed by the corporation, must be accompanied by payment of the amount which would have been required to be deducted and withheld if the amount specified in such consent had, on the last day of the corporation's taxable year, been paid to the shareholder in cash as a dividend. Such payment must be in one of the following forms:

(a) Cash;

(b) United States postal money order;

(c) Certified check drawn on a domestic bank, provided that the law of the place where the bank is located does not permit the certification to be rescinded prior to presentation;

(d) A cashier's check of a domestic bank, or

(e) A draft on a domestic bank or a foreign bank maintaining a United States agency or branch and payable in United States funds.

The amount of such payment shall be credited against the tax imposed on the shareholder.

§ 1.565–6 Definitions—(a) Consent stock. (1) The term "consent stock" includes what is generally known as common stock. It also includes participating preferred stock, the participation rights of which are unlimited.

(2) The definition of consent stock may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. If in the case of the X Corporation there is only one class of stock outstanding, it would all be consent stock. If, on the other hand, there were two classes of stock, class A and class B, and class A was entitled to 6 percent before any distribution could be made on class B, but class B was entitled to everything distributed after class A had received its 6 percent, only class B stock would be consent stock. Similarly, if class A, after receiving its 6 percent, was to participate equally or in some fixed proportion with class B until it had received a second 6 percent, after which class B alone was entitled to any further distributions, only class B stock would be consent stock. The same result would follow if the order of preferences were class A 6 percent, then class B 6 percent, then class A a second 6 percent, either alone or in conjunction with class B, then class B the remainder. If, however, class A stock is entitled to ultimate participation without limit as to amount, then it, too, may be consent stock. For example, if class A is to receive 3 percent and then share equally or in some fixed proportion with class B in the remainder of the earnings or profits distributed, both class A stock and class B stock are consent stock.

(b) Preferred dividends. (1) The term "preferred dividends" includes all fixed amounts (whether determined by percentage of par value, a stated return expressed in a certain number of dollars per share, or otherwise) the distribution of which on any class of stock is a condition precedent to a further distribution of earnings or profits (not including a distribution in partial or complete liquidation). A distribution, though expressed in terms of a fixed amount, is not a preferred dividend, however, unless it is preferred over a subsequent distribution within the taxable year upon some class or classes of stock other than one on which it is payable.

(2) The definition of preferred dividends may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. If, in the case of the X Corporation, there are only two classes of stock outstanding, class A and class B, and class A is entitled to a distribution of 6 percent of par, after which the balance of the earnings and profits are distributable on class B exclusively, class A's 6 percent is a preferred dividend. If the order of preferences is class A $6 per share, class B $6 per share, then class A and class B in fixed proportions until class A receives $3 more per share, then class B the remainder, all of class A's $9 per share and $6 per share of the amount distributable on class B are preferred dividends. The amount which class B is entitled to receive in conjunction with the payment to class A of its last $3 per share is not a preferred dividend, because the payment of such amount is preferred over no subsequent distribution except one made on class B itself. Finally, if a distribution must be $6 on class A, $6 on class B, then on class A and class B alike and share alike, the distribution on class A of $6 and the distribution on class B of $6 are both preferred dividends.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Commodity Stabilization Service

[7 CFR Part 722]

1959 CROP OF EXTRA LONG STAPLE COTTON

NATIONAL MARKETING QUOTA, ALLOTMENTS AND DATE FOR HOLDING REFERENDUM

Notice of determinations to be made with respect to a national marketing quota; national, state and county allotments, fixing of a date for holding a referendum and formulation of regulations pertaining to acreage allotments.

Pursuant to the authority contained in the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act") (52 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1281 et seq.), including amendments of the act contained in the Agricultural Act of 1958 (Pub. Law 85-835, approved August 28, 1958), the Secretary of Agriculture is preparing to determine as soon as practicable whether a national marketing quota is required to be proclaimed for the 1959 crop of extra long staple cotton (hereinafter referred to as "ELS cotton"). If such quota is required, the Secretary will also determine and proclaim the amount of the quota and the amount of the national allotment for the 1959 crop of ELS cotton and will issue regulations pertaining to acreage allotments for such cotton.

Section 347 (b) of the act provides that whenever during any calendar year, not later than October 15, the Secretary determines that the total supply of ELS cotton for the marketing year beginning in such calendar year will exceed the normal supply for such marketing year by more than 8 per centum the Secretary shall proclaim such fact and a national marketing quota shall be in effect for the crop of ELS cotton produced in the next calendar year. It further provides that the Secretary shall determine and specify in such proclamation the amount of the national marketing quota in terms of the number of bales adequate to make available a normal supply of ELS cotton taking into account (1) the estimated carry-over at the beginning of the marketing year which begins in the next calendar year, and (2) the estimated imports during such marketing year. The national marketing quota for ELS cotton can not be less than the larger of 30,000 bales or a number of bales equal to 30 per centum of the estimated domestic consumption plus exports of ELS cotton for the marketing year beginning in the calendar year in which such quota is proclaimed.

In order that the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation State and county committees may properly perform their functions in connection with allotments for the 1959 crop of ELS cotton, it will be necessary to issue any such proclamation and to determine the national, State and county allotments as soon as practicable.

As defined in section 301 of the act, for purposes of the determinations provided for in section 347 (b) of the act, "total supply" of ELS cotton for any marketing year is the carry-over at the beginning of such marketing year, plus the estimated production of ELS cotton in the United States during the calendar year in which such marketing year begins, and the estimated imports of ELS cotton into the United States during such marketing year; "carry-over" of ELS Cotton for any marketing year is the quantity of ELS cotton on hand in the United States at the beginning of such marketing year not including any part of the crop which was produced in the United States during the calendar year then current nor any Government stocks of ELS cotton acquired pursuant to, or under the authority of, the Strategic and Critical Materials Stockpiling Act; "normal supply" of ELS cotton for any marketing year is the estimated domestic consumption of ELS cotton for the marketing year for which such normal supply is being determined, plus the estimated exports of ELS cotton for such marketing year, plus 30 per centum of such consumption and exports as an allowance for carry-over; and "marketing year" for ELS cotton is the period August 1-July 31. For purposes of the supply determinations required to be made under section 347 (b) of the act, the term "ELS cotton" refers to all American-Egyptian, Sea Island and Sealand cotton (both the continental United States and Puerto Rico), and to all similar types of cotton imported from Egypt, Anglo-Egyptian Sudan, and Peru.

Section 344 (a) of the act as amended by section 103 (4) of the Agricultural Act of 1958, provides that whenever a national marketing quota is proclaimed, the Secretary shall determine and proclaim a national allotment for the crop of ELS cotton to be produced in the next calendar year. The national allotment for ELS cotton for 1959 is that acreage, based upon the national average yield per acre of ELS cotton for the four years 1954, 1955, 1956, and 1957, which is required to make available from such crop an amount of cotton equal to the national marketing quota.

If a national allotment is proclaimed for the 1959 crop of ELS cotton, such allotment will be apportioned among the States, as provided by section 344 (b) of the act, on the basis of the acreage planted to ELS cotton during the 5 calendar years 1953, 1954, 1955, 1956, and 1957 with adjustments during such period as provided under the act and the Soil Bank provisions of the Agricultural Act of 1956 (70 Stat. 188; 7 U. S. C. 1801 et seq.).

The regulations which the Secretary will issue pertaining to acreage allotments for the 1959 crop of ELS cotton will differ from those issued for the 1958 crop to the extent necessary to implement the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Act of 1958. The regulations will provide or approval by the Secretary and publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER of State and county allotments and State and county reserves.

Section 106 amends section 344 (f) of the act by providing in a new paragraph (8) that notwithstanding the provisions of section 344 (f) (2) of the act (cropland method of establishing farm allotments) and section 344 (f) (6) of the act (historical method of establishing farm allotments), the Secretary may provide for establishing farm allotments on the basis of the 1958 farm allotments, adjusted as may be necessary for any change in the acreage of cropland available for the production of cotton or to meet the requirements of any provision of the act (other than section 344 (f) (2) and (6)) with respect to the counting of acreage for history purposes. It is expected that the Secretary will determine that establishment of farm allotments pursuant to the method in section 344 (f) (8) of the act will facilitate effective administration of the act and that such method will be used in determining 1959 farm allotments in all counties.

Section 343 of the act provides that not later than December 15 following the issuance of the proclamation of the national marketing quota, the Secretary shall conduct a referendum by secret ballot, of farmers engaged in the production of ELS cotton in the calendar year in which the referendum is held, to determine whether such farmers are in favor of or opposed to the quota so proclaimed. If a quota is proclaimed for the 1959 crop of ELS cotton, it is expected that the Secretary will set December 15, 1958, for holding the ELS cotton referendum. Section 362 of the act provides that notice of the farm allotment established for each farm shown by the records of the county committee to be entitled to such allotment shall, insofar as practicable, be mailed to the farm operator in sufficient time to be received prior to the data of the referendum.

Prior to making any of the foregoing determinations with respect to the national marketing quota, the national allotment, the apportionment of the national allotment to the States and the State allotments to the counties, fixing a date for holding a referendum, and the formulation of regulations pertaining to acreage allotments for the 1959 crop of ELS cotton, consideration will be given to any data, views, and recommendations pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing to the Director, Cotton Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., within 15 days following the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The date of the postmark will be considered as the date of any submission.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 4th day of September 1958. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] WALTER C. BERGER,
Administrator.

[Ex Parte No. MC-40]

MOTOR CARRIERS; REPORTING OF ACCIDENTS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

At a general session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of February A. D. 1958.

It appearing that our continuing study of the Motor Carrier Safety Regulations and the effectiveness thereof indicates the desirability, in the public interest, of making the fullest use of accident reports submitted to us by motor carriers; and

It further appearing that it is necessary to modify existing regulations in order to permit the use of such reports, or excerpts therefrom, as evidence in proceedings before the Commission or in court proceedings instituted by or at the request of the Commission:

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237, 5 U. S. C. 1003) notice is hereby given of the Commission's proposal to amend § 194.1 of the Motor Carrier Safety Regulations, adopted April 14, 1952, as amended, (49 CFR 194.1) (49 Stat. 546, as amended, 49 U. S. C. 304), as follows:

Delete the period at the end of the present section, add a semicolon and the following words: "Provided, however, When the Commission considers such action consistent with the public interest and necessary to the proper administration and enforcement of the provisions of the Act, or of orders, rules, and regulations issued thereunder, it may in its discretion, upon prior approval of an application of a Bureau of this Commission, allow such reports, or excerpts therefrom to be offered in evidence, (a) by attorneys in the employ of the Commission in a Commission proceeding, and (b) by attorneys in the employ of the Commission or by United States attorneys in a court proceeding instituted by or at the request of the Commission."

It is further ordered, That interested persons may on or before October 31, 1958, submit written statements containing data, views, or arguments, verified under oath by a person having knowledge of such data, views, or arguments, and that thereafter consideration will be given to the proposed amendment, or some revision thereof, in the light of the statements which may be submitted.

It is further ordered, That one signed copy and 14 additional copies of such statements be furnished for the use of the Commission by mailing to the Secretary of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C. No oral hearing is contemplated, but any request for such hearing shall be supported by an explanation as to why the evidence to be presented cannot reasonably be submitted in the form heretofore provided. The Commission thereafter will determine whether or not assignment of the matter for oral hearing is necessary or desirable.

And it is further ordered, That notice of this proposed rule modification shall be given to motor carriers, other persons of interest, and to the general public by depositing a copy thereof in the office of the Secretary of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C., and by filing a copy with the Director, Federal Register Division.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] HAROLD D. McCOY,
Secretary.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT

PHILIPPINES: IMPORT REGULATIONS; GIFT PARCELS TO RYUKU ISLANDS DISCONTINUED

1. Information has been received that the minimum value for which certificates of origin are required for parcels addressed to the Philippines is increased from $10 to $50, and the minimum value for which consular invoices are required for such parcels is increased from $100 to $250.

Also, it is understood that the forms to be used for such certificates and invoices must now be obtained from Philippine consulates and executed in the manner they prescribe.

2. Acceptance of U. S. A. Gift Parcels for the Ryuku Islands is discontinued. All gift parcels for that country by surface means will be subject to the regular parcel post rate. This action is taken because the small amount of packages being mailed does not warrant continuance of the arrangement.

VOLUNTARY OIL IMPORT PROGRAM

GOVERNMENT PURCHASES OF CRUDE PETROLEUM AND PETROLEUM PRODUCTS

1. Section 6 of the rules on "Government Purchases of Crude Petroleum and Petroleum Products" (23 F. R. 2872) is amended to read at follows:

A new section 6.1 reading as follows is added to the rules on "Government Purchases of Crude Petroleum and Petroleum Products":

SEC. 6.1 Districts I–IV on and after October 1, 1958. (a) This section applies to Districts I–IV.

(b) With respect to bids opened in October 1958 and thereafter, an importer will be deemed to be in compliance for the three months preceding the month in which a bid is opened, as required by Executive Order 10761, when his average barrels per day of crude oil imports for the three months preceding the month in which a bid is opened have not been greater than his average allocation for the same months.

(c) If an importer's average barrels per day of crude oil imports for a particular period of three months has exceeded his average allocation for that period, the Administrator, Voluntary Oil Import Program, may determine that the importer is in compliance for that period if the importer (1) makes a satisfactory showing that the overage was due solely to the difficulty of scheduling receipts or to an historical pattern of imports based on seasonal availability of transportation and (2) offers satisfactory assurance that his imports during succeeding months through December 1958, will result in an average barrels per day of crude oil imports during the period April 1, 1958, through December 31, 1958, that will not be greater than his average allocation for that period.

2. Paragraph (a) of section 10 of the rules on "Government Purchases of Crude Petroleum and Petroleum Products" is revised to read as follows:

(a) With respect to Districts I–IV, an importer will be deemed to be in compliance with the Voluntary Oil Import Program during the period falling between April 1, 1958, and December 31, 1958, if his average barrels per day of actual crude imports for those months in which he has imported during the period April 1, 1958, through December 31, 1958, plus the average barrels per day of crude oil imports estimated for the remainder of the period April 1 through December 31, 1958, in the reports submitted to the Administrator, Voluntary Oil Import Program, are not greater than his average daily allocation for the period April 1, through December 31, 1958.

[P. & S. Docket No. 402]

MARKET AGENCIES AT UNION STOCK YARDS CHICAGO, ILL.

NOTICE OF PETITIONS FOR MODIFICATION OF RATE ORDER

Pursuant to the provisions of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended (7 U. S. C. 181 et seq.), an order was issued on October 15, 1957 (16 A. D. 966) authorizing the respondents, Market Agencies at Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Illinois, to assess the current schedule of rates and charges to and including October 21, 1959, unless modified or extended by further order before the latter date.

On August 18, 1958, a petition was filed on behalf of The Chicago Live Stock Exchange requesting authority to modify, as soon as possible, the current schedule of rates and charges by adding the following new Section J.

SECTION J

FEEDER CATTLE AND CALF AUCTION BUYING AND SERVICE CHARGES

No feeder livestock offered for sale at auction will be purchased or paid for by a market agency for a buyer, nor any other stockyard service rendered, unless arrangements satisfactory to the market agency to assure payment therefor have been made by the buyer.

When a market agency purchases feeder livestock at auction by direct bid for a buyer, the charge per consignment shall be:

J–1	Cattle (average weight over 400 lbs.). Plus extra service charges provided in section E	$1.25 per head.
J–2	Calves (average weight 400 lbs. or under). Plus extra service charges provided in section E	$0.55 per head.

When feeder livestock purchased at auction by direct bid by a buyer is weighed to or through a market agency for the buyer, the charge per consignment shall be:

J–3	Cattle (average weight over 400 lbs.). Plus extra service charges provided in section E	$0.95 per head.
J–4	Calves (average weight 400 lbs. or under). Plus extra service charges provided in section E	$0.40 per head.

When feeder livestock offered for sale at auction is neither purchased nor paid for by a market agency, the charge per consignment for any other stockyard service or services rendered by such market agency in connection with feeder livestock acquired by the buyer at auction shall be:

J–5	Cattle (average weight over 400 lbs.). Plus extra service charges provided in section E	$0.65 per head.
J–6	Calves (average weight 400 lbs. or under). Plus extra service charges provided in section E	$0.30 per head.

On August 25, 1958, a second petition was filed on behalf of the Chicago Live Stock Exchange requesting authority to modify, as soon as possible, Items B–12, B–13, and B–14 of section B of their current schedule of charges for selling hogs, to provide as follows:

B–12 Hogs:

Consignments of one head and one head only:
Each head weighing 250 pounds or over	$0.69 per head.
Each head weighing under 250 pounds	$0.54 per head.
Consignments of more than one head:
First 10 head in each consignment	$0.46 per head.
Next 15 head in each consignment	$0.41 per head.
Each head over 25 head in each consignment	$0.36 per head.

B–13 Hogs, by rail, maximum charge:

In no instance shall the charge for selling a consignment of hogs arriving by rail exceed $30.50 for each single deck car, and $42.00 for each double deck car, plus extra service charges provided in section E.

B–14 Hogs, by other than rail, maximum charge:

In no instance shall the charge for selling a consignment of hogs arriving other than by rail exceed the aggregate of $30.50 for the first 18,000 pounds, plus 15 cents for each additional 100 pounds or fraction thereof, plus extra service charges provided in section E.

Certain of the rates and charges specified in the proposed section J and the modifications in Items B–12, B–13 and B–14 of section B, as set forth above, would involve increases over the comparable current rates and charges. Accordingly, it appears that this public notice of the filing of the petitions and their contents should be given in order that all interested persons may have an opportunity to indicate a desire to be heard in the matter.

All interested persons who desire to be heard in the matter shall notify the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., within 15 days after the publication of this notice.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 4th day of September 1958.

[SEAL] JOHN C. PIERCE, JR.,
Acting Director, Livestock Division, Agricultural Marketing Service.

Commodity Credit Corporation

SALES OF CERTAIN COMMODITIES

SEPTEMBER 1958 MONTHLY SALES LIST

Pursuant to the policy of Commodity Credit Corporation issued October 12, 1954 (19 F. R. 6869) and subject to the conditions stated therein, the commodities listed below are available for sale in the quantities stated and on the price basis set forth. The Commodity Credit Corporation will entertain offers from prospective buyers for the purchase of any such commodity.

Announcements containing the contractual terms and conditions of sale for the respective commodities will be furnished upon request. For ready reference a number of these announcements are identified by code number in the following list.

CCC reserves the right to refuse any or all offers placed with it for the purchase of commodities pursuant to such announcements. If CCC does not have adequate information as to the financial responsibility of prospective purchaser to meet all contract obligations that might arise by acceptance of an offer or if CCC deems such purchaser's financial responsibility to be inadequate, CCC reserves the right (i) to refuse to consider the offer, (ii) to accept the offer only after submission by the purchaser of a certified or cashier's check, bond, letter of credit, or other security, acceptable to CCC, assuring that the purchaser will discharge his responsibility under the contract, or (iii) to accept the offer upon condition that the purchaser promptly submit to CCC such of the aforementioned security as CCC may direct. If a prospective purchaser is in doubt as to whether CCC is acquainted with his financial responsibility, he should communicate with the CCC or CSS Commodity Office at which the offer is to be placed to determine whether a financial statement or advance financial arrangement will be necessary in his case.

Commodity Credit Corporation also reserves the right to amend, from time to time, any of its announcements, which amendments shall be applicable to and made a part of the sales contracts thereafter entered into.

Disposals and other handling of inventory items often result in small quantities at given locations or in qualities not up to specifications. These lots are offered promptly upon appearance by public notice issued by the appropriate CSS Commodity Office and therefore generally they do not appear in the Monthly Sales List.

Notice to export buyers. Available interest rates on sales made in September under the Export Credit Sales Announcement GSM 1 are as follows:

For periods up to and including 6 months, 2¼ percent per annum.

For periods over 6 months up to and including 18 months, 2¾ percent per annum.

For periods over 18 months up to and including 36 months, 3¼ percent per annum.

The Commodity Credit Corporation reserves the right, before making any sale, to define or limit export areas.

On sales for which the buyer is required to submit proof to CCC of exportation, the buyer shall be regularly engaged in the business of buying or selling commodities and, for this purpose, shall maintain a bona fide business office in the United States, its territories, or possessions and therein have a person, principal or resident agent, upon whom service of judicial process may be had.

Example of the foregoing minimum price per cwt. (exrail or barge): Kansas City, No. 2 or better $2.47
Grain sorghums, bulk	Available Dallas, Portland, and Kansas City CSS Commodity Offices. Export: Under Announcement GR-212 revised, amended, for application to barter contracts and approved credit and emergency sales, and under Announcement GR-366, for Feed Grain Payment-in-Kind Program.
Soybeans, bulk (as available)	Domestic (for crushing) or export: Market price basis in store but not less than the 1957 basic loan rate for No. 2 grade, basis point of production plus 11 cents per bushel. Market discounts for quality factors will be applied to the basic price to determine the actual minimum sales prices. If delivery is outside the area of production, applicable freight and out-elevation charges at country loading point and in-elevation charges at subterminal or terminal storage point will be added to the above price. Available Evanston, Kansas City, and Minneapolis CSS Commodity Offices.
Burley Tobacco (as available)	Domestic or export, unrestricted use: Competitive bid under the terms and conditions of Announcement to be issued. This announcement will cover a limited quantity (about 16 million pounds). Copies of such announcement, when issued may be obtained from the Tobacco Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.
Gum rosin	Domestic or export: Offer and acceptance basis "as is" in galvanized metal drums (averaging 517 pounds net) in the stated quantities and on the designated storage yards, subject to the terms and conditions of Announcement TB-21 (Revised), and supplements thereto which will be issued monthly. Available through the American Turpentine Farmers Association Cooperative, Valdosta, Ga.
Gum turpentine	Domestic or export: Offer and acceptance basis, "as is", bulk in tanks in the stated quantities and in the designated storage tanks subject to the prices, terms and conditions of Announcement TB-21 (Revised), and supplements thereto which will be issued monthly. Available through ATFA, Valdosta, Ga.

[3] At the processor's plant or warehouse but with any prepaid storage and outhandling charges for the benefit of the buyer.

[4] In those counties in which grain is stored in CCC bins sites, delivery will be made f. o. b. buyer's conveyance at bin site without additional cost; sales will also be made in store approved warehouses in such county and adjacent counties at the same price, provided the buyer makes arrangements with the warehouse for storage documents.

[5] The minimum-pricing revision has been made necessary by a recent change in the price support program for wheat, barley, rye, and (in some areas) grain sorghums. This change gives producers who store their grain locally the price support benefit at time of settlement of any reductions in rail freight rates to their designated terminals occurring after the price support loan rates were set and before the maturity dates of the loans. To insure continuation of CCC sales at terminal locations during August (and later months) in their normal ratio to sales at nonterminal locations, the minimum sales prices of these grains at affected locations will be increased by an amount corresponding to any decrease since May 1, 1958, in the freight rates from the point of storage to a designated terminal. CSS Commodity Offices will furnish freight rate information upon request.

Issued: September 3, 1958.

Executive Vice President,
Commodity Credit Corporation.

Office of the Secretary

MINNESOTA

DESIGNATION OF AREA FOR PRODUCTION EMERGENCY LOANS

For the purpose of making production emergency loans pursuant to section 2 (a) of Public Law 38, 81st Congress (12 U. S. C. 1148a-2 (a)), as amended, it has been determined that in the following counties in the State of Minnesota a production disaster has caused a need for agricultural credit not readily available from commercial banks, cooperative lending agencies, or other responsible sources.

Minnesota

Mahnomen Norman

Pursuant to the authority set forth above, production emergency loans will not be made in the above-named counties after June 30, 1959, except to applicants who previously received such assistance and who can qualify under established policies and procedures.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 4th day of September 1958.

ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

[Docket No. 50-13]

BABCOCK & WILCOX CO.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED ISSUANCE OF CONSTRUCTION PERMIT AND FACILITY LICENSE

Please take notice that the Atomic Energy Commission proposes to issue to The Babcock & Wilcox Company a construction permit substantially as set forth below unless within fifteen (15) days after the filing of this notice with the Federal Register Division a request for a formal hearing is filed with the Commission as provided by the Commission's rules of practice (10 CFR Part 2). For further details see (1) the application submitted by The Babcock & Wilcox Company and amendments thereto, and (2) a memorandum by the Division of Licensing and Regulation which summarizes the principal factors considered in reviewing the application for license, both on file at the Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street NW., Washington, D. C. A copy of item (2) above may be obtained at the Commission's Public Document Room or upon request addressed to the Atomic Energy Commission, Washington 25, D. C., Attention: Director, Division of Licensing and Regulation.

Notice is also hereby given that if the Commission issues the construction permit, the Commission may without further prior public notice convert the construction permit to a Class 104 license authorizing operation of the facility by The Babcock & Wilcox Company at the company's laboratory at Lynchburg, Virginia, if it is found that the facility has been constructed in compliance with the terms and conditions contained in the construction permit and in conformity with the provisions of the act and of the rules and regulations of the Commission, and in the absence of any good cause being shown to the Commission that the granting of such license would not be in accordance with the provisions of the act.

Dated at Germantown, Maryland, this 3d day of September 1958.

For the Atomic Energy Commission.

EBER R. PRICE,
Acting Director,
Division of Licensing and Regulation.

PROPOSED CONSTRUCTION PERMIT

By application dated May 19, 1958, and amendments thereto dated June 30, 1958, and July 7, 1958, The Babcock & Wilcox Company requested a Class 104 license, defined in § 50.21 of Part 50, "Licensing of Production and Utilization Facilities", Title 10, Chapter I, CFR, authorizing construction and operation, at its site in Lynchburg, Virginia, of a critical experiments facility (hereinafter referred to as "the facility") for the purpose of obtaining experimental data for the proposed Liquid Metal Fuel Reactor Experiment. Reference to the application herein will be to the original application as amended.

The Atomic Energy Commission (hereinafter referred to as "the Commission") finds that:

A. The facility will be a utilization facility as defined in the Commission's regulations contained in Title 10, Chapter I, CFR, Part 50, "Licensing of Production and Utilization Facilities".

B. The facility will be useful in the conduct of research and development activities of the types specified in section 31 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (hereinafter referred to as "the Act").

C. The Babcock & Wilcox Company is financially qualified to construct and operate the facility in accordance with the regulations contained in Title 10, Chapter I, CFR.

D. The Babcock & Wilcox Company is technically qualified to design and construct the facility.

E. The Babcock & Wilcox Company has submitted sufficient information to provide reasonable assurance that the facility can be constructed at the proposed location without undue risk to the health and safety of the public.

F. The issuance of a construction permit to The Babcock & Wilcox Company will not be inimical to the common defense and security or to the health and safety of the public.

G. The Babcock & Wilcox Company has filed with the Commission as proof of financial protection, pursuant to 10 CFR Part 140, a showing that it has adequate resources in the form specified to provide the financial protection required.

Pursuant to the Act and Title 10, CFR, Chapter I, Part 50, "Licensing of Production and Utilization Facilities", the Commission hereby issues a construction permit to The Babcock & Wilcox Company to construct the facility in accordance with the specifications contained in the application. This permit shall be deemed to contain and be subject to the conditions specified in §§ 50.54 and 50.55 of said regulations; is subject to all applicable provisions of the Act and rules, regulations and orders of the Commission now or hereafter in effect; and is subject to the additional conditions specified below:

A. The earliest completion date of the facility is September 22, 1958. The latest completion date of the facility is October 15, 1958. The term "completion date" as used herein means the date on which construction of the facility is completed except for the introduction of the fuel material.

B. The facility shall be constructed and located at the location in Lynchburg, Virginia, specified in the application.

Upon finding that the facility authorized has been constructed in compliance with the terms and conditions contained in this construction permit and in conformity with the provisions of the Act and of the rules and regulations of the Commission, the Commission will issue a Class 104 license to The Babcock & Wilcox Company pursuant to section 104c of the Act, which license shall expire 20 years after the date of this construction permit.

Date of issuance:

For the Atomic Energy Commission.

Director,
Division of Licensing and Regulation.

RIVERSIDE CHURCH IN CITY OF NEW YORK AND HUNTINGTON-MONTAUK BROADCASTING CO. INC.

ORDER CONTINUING HEARING

In re application of The Riverside Church in the City of New York, New York, New York, Docket No. 12107, File No. BPH-2174; Huntington-Montauk Broadcasting Co., Inc., Huntington, New York, Docket No. 12222, File No. BPH-2233; for construction permits.

The Hearing Examiner having under consideration a "Petition for Continuance of Hearing" filed in the above-entitled proceeding on August 19, 1958, by Huntington-Montauk Broadcasting Co., Inc., and an opposition thereto filed on August 21, 1958, by The Riverside Church in the City of New York;

It appearing that the hearing in the above-entitled proceeding is presently scheduled for September 9, 1958; and

It further appearing that the present workload of the Examiner makes a hearing on the scheduled date an impossibility, and that for the same reason, a hearing on September 24, 1958, as requested in said petition for continuance, is also unavailing;

It is ordered, This 28th day of August, 1958, that the "Petition for Continuance of Hearing" filed by Huntington-Montauk Broadcasting Co., Inc., requesting a continuance to September 24, 1958, be, and the same, is hereby denied; and

It is further ordered, On the Examiner's own motion, that the hearing in the above-entitled proceeding, presently scheduled for September 9, 1958, is hereby continued to October 14, 1958, at 10:00 a. m., in the offices of the Commission, Washington, D. C.

SOUTH NORFOLK BROADCASTING CO. INC. ET AL.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER AMENDING ISSUES

In re applications of South Norfolk Broadcasting Company, Incorporated, South Norfolk, Virginia, Docket No. 12201, File No. BP-10981; Cy Blumenthal, tr/as Denbigh Broadcasting Co., Denbigh, Virginia, Docket No. 12202, File No. BP-11250; Virginia Beach Broadcasting Corporation (WBOF), Virginia Beach, Virginia, Docket No. 12394, File No. BP-11600; for construction permits.

1. The Commission has under consideration (1) a petition to enlarge issues filed by South Norfolk Broadcasting Company, Inc. on February 26, 1958; (2) an opposition filed by Cy Blumenthal on March 5, 1958; (3) a reply to Blumenthal's opposition filed by South Norfolk on March 13, 1958; and (4) a comment on South Norfolk's petition filed by the Broadcast Bureau on March 18, 1958. Virginia Beach Broadcasting Corporation (WBOF) filed no pleadings and took no part in this interlocutory matter.

2. South Norfolk Broadcasting Company was dismissed from this proceeding with prejudice by the Chief Hearing Examiner on June 23, 1958 (FCC 58M-665; No. 60501). However, the matter having come to the attention of the Commission, and having been the subject of comment by the Broadcast Bureau, we have retained the matter for consideration despite South Norfolk's dismissal.

3. South Norfolk sought the addition of an issue to determine whether Blumenthal's application, reciting as it does his proposed station and main studio location as "Denbigh, Warwick County, Virginia", compiled with 47 CFR 3.30(a) which provides that a station will be licensed to serve a particular city, town or other political subdivision. South Norfolk alleged that there was no political subdivision known as Denbigh, Virginia, and that the physical location proposed was, in fact, in the City of Warwick, Virginia, which entity has since 1952 superseded, although being conterminous with, the former County of Warwick. In addition, and related to the foregoing, South Norfolk sought the addition of issues to determine whether Blumenthal's proposals would result in furnishing the signal strength required by the Commission's rules to the City of Warwick.

4. Blumenthal, in reply, states that Denbigh is a political subdivision of the type contemplated by the rules.

5. The Broadcast Bureau, while conceding that an issue has been raised as to the status of Denbigh, suggests that the issues be limited to the existence of Denbigh as an identifiable community inasmuch as, since Blumenthal has not proposed service to the City of Warwick, there is no call to explore a potential service to that city if such be the true location of Blumenthal's proposed station.

6. We agree with the Broadcast Bureau. However, in view of Blumenthal's continued assertion that he intends to serve Denbigh and the fact that Denbigh is an identifiable location, regardless of whether it be a political sub-division within 47 CFR 3.30 (a), an exploration of the status of Denbigh with an opportunity for a showing, if such be possible, of reasons for waiver or relaxation of the rules is, we believe, justified.

In view, therefore, of the foregoing reasons:

It is ordered, That petitioner South Norfolk's petition to enlarge issues is in all respects denied, as moot, and

It is further ordered, That the Commission on its own motion amends the issues previously published in this matter (22 F. R. 8094; 23 F. R. 2778) to renumber existing issue 6 as issue 7 and to add the following issue:

6. To determine whether the application of Cy Blumenthal d/b as Denbigh Broadcasting Company proposes to serve primarily a particular city, town, or other political subdivision as contemplated by § 3.30 (a) of the Commission's Rules, and if not, whether the provisions of the rule should be waived.

[Docket No. 12580]

JAMES M. BRANDENBURG

ORDER ASSIGNING MATTER FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In the matter of James M. Brandenburg, 1832 Josie Avenue, Long Beach 15, California; suspension of Restricted Radiotelephone Operator Permit; Docket No. 12580.

The Commission having under consideration the suspension of the Restricted Radiotelephone Operator Permit, 11SD-7407, issued to James M. Brandenburg, whose address appears above; and

It appearing that acting in accordance with the provisions of section 303 (m) (2) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-named party filed with the Commission within the time provided therefor an application requesting a hearing on the Commission's Order dated March 28, 1958, suspending for a period of two months his restricted radiotelephone operator permit; and

It further appearing that under the provisions of section 303 (m) (2) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said permittee is entitled to a hearing in this matter and that upon the filing of a timely written application therefor, the Commission's Order of suspension is held in abeyance until the conclusion of the proceeding in this matter.

It is ordered, This 2d day of September 1958 that the matter of the suspension of the Restricted Radiotelephone Operator Permit of James M. Brandenburg is hereby designated for hearing in San Francisco, California before a Hearing Examiner at a time and place to be specified by further order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine whether James M. Brandenburg violated §§ 8.178 and 8.358 (a) of the Commission's rules in that he transmitted or allowed to be transmitted on 2638 kc communications other than safety and operational communications after a warning notice was served on him for a previous violation of the same type while operating the radiotelephone station WA-2492 on board the vessel [illegible] AQUARIUS.

2. In the light of the evidence adduced in the preceding issue to determine whether the terms of the original order of suspension should be made final, rescinded, or modified.

It is further ordered, That a copy of this Order be transmitted by Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested, to James M. Brandenburg, and that he notify the Commission in writing within 10 days after the receipt of this Order that he will appear in person or by counsel at said hearing.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS,
Secretary.

BUREAU AND OFFICE ORGANIZATION

BUREAU OF FINANCE

At a general session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 14th day of August, A. D. 1958.

Upon consideration of section 17 of the Interstate Commerce Act as amended (49 U. S. C. 17), section 3 (a) (1) of the Administrative Procedure Act, and the provisions of the Transportation Act of 1958:

It is ordered, That the description of central and field organization of the Interstate Commerce Commission appearing in the order of April 7, 1958 (23 F. R. 2654), be, and it is hereby, amended to add to the Bureau of Finance a new section designated as Section of Loans, and to add to description of the Bureau and its Section of Convenience and Necessity certain new duties. As thus amended the description of the Bureau reads as follows:

SEC. 3. Bureau and Office Organization. * * *

(h) Bureau of Finance. Performs duties in connection with the Commission's proceedings involving rail carriers, motor carriers, water carriers, and freight forwarders, under the various sections of the Act, relative to: authority to construct, acquire, or abandon lines of a railroad or the operation thereof; proposed discontinuances or changes in the operation by railroads of trains or ferries; approval for motor carriers or water carriers to enter into contracts and agreements for the pooling or division of traffic and earnings; authority to consolidate, merge, transfer ownership, or acquire control of carriers, and when directly related to such authority the granting of certificates or permits to motor carriers in connection therewith; authority to issue securities or to assume obligation and liability with respect to securities of others; authority to sell securities without competitive bidding; authority to alter or modify outstanding securities and obligations; authority to hold position of officer or director of more than one railroad; the guaranty of loans to railroads in financing additions or betterments or other capital expenditures, or for the financing of expenditures for maintenance of property; and formal investigations concerning possible violations of the act relating to the foregoing subjects; and, under provisions of the Uniform Bankruptcy Act, the approval of plans of reorganization, the submission thereof to creditors and stockholders for acceptance or rejection, the recommendation of formulas for the segregation of earnings, the ratification of trustees, the fixing of maximum limits of allowances to trustees and other parties in interest, and the authorization of persons, including protective committees, to solicit and act under proxies, authorizations, or deposit agreements in connection with railroad reorganization or receivership proceedings. Hearing examiners assigned to this Bureau conduct hearings and prepare initial reports with respect to the proceedings handled by the Bureau and when not so engaged, perform other work not inconsistent with their duties as hearing examiners.

(1) Section of Convenience and Necessity. Handles the proceedings described above relating to rail carriers, water carriers, and freight forwarders, except those arising under the Uniform Bankruptcy Act, those relating to the guaranty of loans, and those involving authority to issue, sell, modify, or assume obligation respecting securities.

(2) Section of Loans. Handles the proceedings described above relating to the guaranty of loans to railroads in financing additions or betterments or other capital expenditures, or for the financing of expenditures for maintenance of property.

(3) Section of Securities and Reorganizations. Handles the proceedings arising under the Uniform Bankruptcy Act and those involving authority to issue, sell, modify, or assume obligation respecting securities.

(4) Section of Motor Carrier Finance. Handles the proceedings described above relating to motor carriers except those involving transfer of certificates and permits under section 212 (b) of the Act which have not involved the taking of testimony at a public hearing, and those involving the issue of securities or assumption of obligation with respect to securities.

(5) The Transfer Board. Pursuant to authority delegated under section 17 of the Act, makes determination, when the matter at issue is not reserved for action by the Commission, of applications filed under section 212 (b) of the Act relating to transfer of certificates or permits, which have not involved the taking of testimony at a public hearing.

Chapter III—Foreign and Territorial Compensation

[Dept. Reg. 108.375]

PART 325—ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION IN FOREIGN AREAS

PAYMENT OF DIFFERENTIAL

Section 325.5, paragraphs (f), (g) and (h) are hereby deleted, and the following paragraphs are substituted in lieu thereof:

(f) Notwithstanding the rate of differential prescribed for the post in § 325.11, if the country listed for the post in that section has a chief of mission position classified pursuant to 22 U. S. C. 866, the per annum differential rate at which payment is made to any employee assigned to such post shall be reduced, if necessary, so that the combined per annum differential and basic salary, or differential, basic salary and charge pay (22 U. S. C. 876 and 877) authorized for the employee, does not exceed an amount which is one hundred dollars ($100) less than the per annum salary authorized for the chief of mission position.

(g) No payment shall be made:

(1) While basic compensation is not paid;

(2) Concurrently with the territorial post differential prescribed in § 350.10 of this chapter.

(h) Where the employee is on duty or leave at two differential posts for portions of the same day, payment for that day shall be made at the rate authorized for the previous day.

(i) Payments to persons serving on a part-time basis shall be prorated to cover only those periods of time for which basic compensation is received.

These amendments shall be effective as of the beginning of the first pay period following November 1, 1958.

AUTHORITY: §§ 519.180 to 519.200 issued under sec. 32, 49 Stat. 774, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 612c.

§ 519.180 General statement. In order to encourage the domestic consumption of fresh Irish potatoes produced in the continental United States by diverting them from normal channels of trade and commerce, the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to the authority conferred by section 32 of Public Law 320, 74th Congress, as amended, offers to make payment for the diversion of 1958 crop potatoes for use as livestock feed, subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth. Information relating to this program and forms prescribed for use hereunder may be obtained from the following:

Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.

Offices of the State Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Committees in the respective States.

County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committees in the respective counties.

§ 519.181 Administration. The program provided for in this part will be administered under the general direction and supervision of the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, and in the field will be carried out by the Commodity Stabilization Service through the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation State Committees and Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committees, hereinafter referred to as State and County Committees. Each State Committee will authorize one or more employees of the State Committee to act as representatives of the United States Department of Agriculture, hereinafter referred to as USDA, to approve applications for participation. State and County Committees or their authorized representatives do not have authority to modify or waive any of the provisions of this subpart or any amendments or supplements to this subpart.

§ 519.182 Area. This program will be effective in such States or areas as may be designated from time to time by the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture. Information with respect to the areas designated may be obtained from the offices listed in § 519.180.

§ 519.183 Period of program. This program will be effective from the date of this announcement and continue until further notice, but in any event not later than April 30, 1959.

§ 519.184 Rate of payment. The rate of payment per 100 pounds of potatoes meeting the requirements of Specification A as defined in § 519.190 and which are diverted as prescribed in § 519.189 will be 50 cents for potatoes diverted during the months of September, October and November 1958; 40 cents during the months of December 1958, January and February 1959; and 30 cents during the months of March and April 1959. No payment will be made for any fractional part of 100 pounds and such quantities shall be disregarded.

§ 519.185 Eligibility for payment. Payments will be made under this program to any individual, partnership, association, or corporation located in the continental United States, (a) who executes and files an application for participation on the prescribed forms, (b) whose application is approved, (c) who diverts fresh Irish potatoes within the State and county specified in the approved application, directly or through any other person or persons, (d) who files claim as provided in § 519.193 and (e) who otherwise complies with all the terms and conditions of this subpart.

§ 519.186 Application and approval for participation. Persons desiring to participate in this program must submit a written application on Form CSS–117 "Application for Participation in Fresh Irish Potato Livestock Feed Diversion Program—ZMD 3a." Each applicant must submit a performance bond as provided in § 519.187. Applications and bonds should be submitted to the County ASC Office for the county within which the potatoes are to be diverted. Applications will be forwarded to the State ASC Office and will be considered in the order received in the respective areas and in accordance with the availability of funds. Applicants will be notified of the approval or non-approval of their application. Approved applications may be modified or amended with the consent of the applicant and the duly authorized representative of the State Committee: Provided, That such modification or amendment shall not be in conflict with the provisions of this subpart or any amendment or supplements hereto. An approved applicant is hereinafter referred to as "the diverter."

§ 519.187 Performance bond. Each applicant shall submit with his first application for participation a performance bond as further assurance that the potatoes diverted pursuant to this program will be used exclusively for feeding to livestock by methods prescribed in § 519.192. The bond shall be executed on Form CSS–119 by the principal and two individual sureties, all of whom shall agree to indemnify the USDA for any losses, claims, or payments made by USDA with respect to any quantity of such potatoes not used for livestock feed. The USDA may disapprove any bond if for any reason any surety does not in the opinion of USDA afford USDA full protection and security.

§ 519.188 Period of diversion. The potatoes in connection with which payments are to be made must be diverted (a) after the date of approval of the diverter's application, (b) within the time period specified in the approved application, and (c) in any event on or before April 30, 1959.

§ 519.189 Definition of diversion. Diversion of potatoes for use as livestock feed as used herein means the initial processing of potatoes for feeding to livestock by ensiling, or by cutting, chopping, slicing, gouging, crushing, or cooking to the degree that (a) a minimum of 90 percent of the potatoes which are 2 inches in diameter or larger have been seriously damaged to such an extent that they will not meet the requirements of U. S. No. 2 quality, and (b) the general appearance of the lot as a whole has been seriously damaged to such an extent that, in the opinion of the inspector, the potatoes are readily and obviously identifiable as having been initially processed and rendered unsuitable to enter into normal channels of trade and commerce as potatoes.

§ 519.190 Diversion specifications. Potatoes in connection with which payments will be made must meet the requirements of "Specification A" which is hereby defined as meaning potatoes equal to or better than the quality requirements of U. S. No. 2 grade, and which have either a minimum diameter of 2 inches or a minimum weight of 4 ounces, with no tolerance being allowed for defects or undersize. Long varieties of potatoes which by clipping ends or second growth could be made to meet the quality requirements of U. S. No. 2 grade need not be so clipped to be classed Specification A but the portions which customarily would be clipped off shall not be considered as meeting the requirements of Specification A and this weight shall be deducted in determining the weight of those potatoes in the lot which do meet the requirements of Specification A.

§ 519.191 Inspection and certificate of diversion. Prior to diversion the potatoes shall be inspected by an inspector authorized or licensed by the Secretary of Agriculture to inspect and certify the class, quality, and condition of fresh Irish potatoes. The diverter shall be responsible for requesting and arranging for inspection sufficiently in advance of the diversion so that the inspector can be present to determine the proportion of potatoes in each lot which meet the quality requirements of Specification A. The inspector shall also verify the quantity of potatoes being diverted and that such potatoes have been diverted as defined in § 519.189. The diverter shall furnish such scale tickets, weighing facilities, or volume measurements as determined by the inspector to be necessary for ascertaining the net weight of the potatoes being diverted. The cost of inspecting, verifying the quantity, certifying that diversion has been performed, and issuing certificates thereof shall be borne by the diverter. Certificates shall be prepared on Form CSS–118 "Invoice and Certificates of Inspection and Diversion."

§ 519.192 Methods of feeding. The feeding of potatoes to livestock shall be accomplished by the following methods:

(a) Feeding in barns or feed lots directly from troughs, bunkers, bins, or other suitable feeding receptacle;

(b) Spreading on pasture land where livestock are grazing, but the rate of spreading during any seven-day period shall not exceed 500 pounds of potatoes per head of cattle or horses or 250 pounds per head of sheep or swine; and

(c) Utilizing the potatoes for livestock feed after dehydration through a process of alternate freezing and thawing. This method may be followed only in areas suitable for this process as may hereafter be approved by the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division. The potatoes must be initially processed as specified in § 519.189 and in addition to other program requirements, the following special terms and conditions will be applicable:

(1) The potatoes must be spread on pasture consisting of sod or other grassland and the land must be fenced. The land may not be under the Soil Bank Program and, subsequent to spreading the potatoes, the land may not be placed under the Soil Bank Program or be plowed or otherwise cultivated until it is determined by USDA that adequate pasturing by livestock has taken place.

(2) The potatoes may be spread no deeper than 4 inches at any point.

(3) Diversion payments will be computed at the rate in effect at the time of initial processing and spreading but payment to diverters by USDA will not be made until it is determined by USDA that adequate pasturing by livestock has taken place.

(4) Spreading must take place on or before February 28, 1959.

§ 519.193 Claim for payment. In order to obtain payment the diverter must submit a properly executed "Invoice and Certificates of Inspection and Diversion," Form CSS–118, to the State ASC Office which approved his application. All such claims shall be filed not later than one calendar month after the termination date of the applicable diversion authorization.

§ 519.194 Compliance with program provisions. If USDA determines that any quantity of potatoes diverted under this program was not used exclusively for livestock feed purposes, whether such failure was caused directly by the diverter or by any other person or persons, the diverter shall not be entitled to diversion payments in connection with such potatoes, shall refund to USDA any payment made in connection with such potatoes, and shall be liable to USDA for any other damages incurred as a result of such failure to use the potatoes exclusively for livestock feed purposes. USDA may deny any diverter the right to participate in this program or the right to receive payments in connection with any diversion previously made under this program, or both, if USDA detemines that: (a) The diverter has failed to use or caused to be used any quantity of potatoes diverted under this program exclusively for livestock feed purposes, whether such failure was caused directly by the diverter or by any other person or persons, (b) the diverted has not acted in good faith in connection with any transaction under this program, or (c) the diverter has failed to discharge fully any obligation assumed by him under this program. Persons making any misrepresentation of facts in connection with this program for the purpose of defrauding USDA will be subject to the applicable civil and criminal provisions of the United States Code.

§ 519.195 Inspection of premises. The diverter shall permit authorized representatives of USDA at any reasonable time to have access to his premises to inspect and examine such potatoes as are being diverted or stored for diversion, and to inspect and examine the diverter's facilities for diverting potatoes, in order to determine to what extent there is or has been compliance with the provisions of this program.

§ 519.196 Records and accounts. If the diverter sells or otherwise disposes of potatoes diverted pursuant to this program to any other person or persons for use as livestock feed, the diverter shall keep accurate records and accounts showing the details relative to the diversion and disposition of such potatoes. The diverter shall permit authorized representatives of USDA at any reasonable time to inspect, examine and make copies of such records and accounts in order to determine to what extent there is or has been compliance with the provisions of this program. Such records and accounts shall be retained by the diverter for two years after date of last payment to him under the program.

§ 519.197 Set-off. If the diverter is indebted to USDA or to any other agency of the United States, set-off may be made against any amunt due the diverter hereunder. Setting off shall not deprive the diverter of the right to contest the justness of the indebtedness involved, either by administrative appeal or by legal action.

§ 519.198 Joint payment or assignment. The diverter may name a joint payee on the claim for payment or may assign, in accordance with the provisions of the Assignment of Claims Act of 1940, Public Law 811, 76th Congress, as amended (31 U. S. C. 203, 41 U. S. C. 15), the proceeds of any claim, to a bank, trust company, Federal lending agency, or other recognized financing institution: Provided, That such assignment shall be recognized only if and when the assignee thereof files written notice of the assignment with the authorized representative of USDA who approved the application, together with a true copy of the instrument of assignment, in accordance with the instructions on Form CSS–66 "Notice of Assignment", which form must be used in giving notice of assignment to USDA. The "Instrument of Assignment" may be executed on Form CSS–347 or the assignee may use his own form of assignment. The CSS forms may be obtained from the State ASC Office or the Washington office shown in § 519.180.

§ 519.199 Officials not to benefit. No member of or delegate to Congress, or Resident Commissioner, shall be entitled to any share or part of any contract resulting from this program or to any benefits that may arise therefrom, but this provision shall not be considered to extend to such a contract if made with a corporation for its general benefit or to any such person acting in his capacity as a farmer.

§ 519.200 Amendment and termination. This subpart may be amended or terminated at any time but the amendment or termination shall not be effective earlier than the date of filing with the Federal Register Division. No amendment or termination shall be applicable to any potatoes diverted before the effective time of such amendment or termination.

NOTE: The record-keeping and reporting requirements contained herein have been approved by, and subsequent requirements will be subject to the approval of, the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Dated: September 8, 1958.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter III—Agricultural Research Service, Department of Agriculture

PART 319—FOREIGN QUARANTINE NOTICES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

On July 15, 1958, there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (23 F. R. 5354) under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003), a notice of proposed rule making relating to an amendment of §§ 319.37-4 (b) and 319.37-8 of the regulations supplemental to the quarantine relating to the importation of nursery stock, plants, and seeds (7 CFR 319.37-4 (b), 319.37-8). After due consideration of all relevant matters presented, and under the authority of sections 1, 5, 7, and 9 of the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 154, 159, 160, 162), §§ 319.37-4 (b) and 319.37-8 are amended in the following respects:

1. Section 319.37-4 (b) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following sentence: "In the case of seeds of such fruits as are approved for importation without treatment under the provisions of §§ 319.56, 319.56-1 et seq., the requirements as to freedom from pulp shall not apply when such seeds are imported, under the requirements of this section, for propagation."

2. Section 319.37-8 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following two sentences: "Furthermore, all plants and cuttings of genera, that are not prohibited entry into the United States but are known to be hosts of the citrus blackfly or may hereafter be determined as such, from all foreign countries (except Canada, countries in Europe and Asia Minor; and those in Africa bordering the Mediterranean Sea), must be defoliated before shipment from the country of origin if they are to be imported through any port other than the Ports of New York and Seattle. The Director of the Plant Quarantine Division shall issue administrative instructions listing the genera of plants that are not prohibited entry into the United States but are known to be hosts of the citrus blackfly or that may hereafter be determined as such."

The section heading for § 319.37-8 is amended to read: "§ 319.37-8 Inspection; freedom from plant pests; defoliation."

These amendments shall become effective October 11, 1958.

The amendment of § 319.37-4 (b) makes inapplicable, in respect to the seeds of fruits that may now be imported without treatment in accordance with the provisions of §§ 319.56, 319.56-1 et seq., the requirements of § 319.74-4 (b), as to freedom from pulp. That is, if the entire fruit is eligible for importation without treatment, seeds from such fruit may be imported although accompanied by moist and fleshy pulp.

The amendment of § 319.37-8 requires that plants and plant cuttings of genera that are known to be hosts of the citrus blackfly from countries where this species occurs must be defoliated in the country of origin if they are to be imported through any port other than the Ports of New York and Seattle. It also authorizes the Director of the Plant Quarantine Division to issue administrative instructions listing such genera. Such administrative instructions are being so issued concurrently with these amendments.

PART 319—FOREIGN QUARANTINE NOTICES

ADMINISTRATIVE INSTRUCTIONS DESIGNATING GENERA KNOWN TO BE HOSTS OF CITRUS BLACKFLY

On July 15, 1958, there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (23 F. R. 5354) under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003), a notice of rule making relating to proposed administrative instructions designating genera known to be hosts of the citrus blackfly, to be issued under an amendment of § 319.37-8 of the regulations supplemental to the quarantine relating to the importation of nursery stock, plants, and seeds (7 CFR 319.37-8 supra). After due consideration of all relevant matters presented, and pursuant to § 319.37-8, as amended, under sections 1, 5, 7, and 9 of the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 154, 159, 160, 162), administrative instructions to be designated as 7 CFR 319.37-8a are hereby issued as follows:

§ 319.37-8a Administrative instructions designating genera known to be hosts of the citrus blackfly. (a) The Director of the Division, upon the basis of evidence satisfactory to him, has determined that the following genera of plants, that are not prohibited entry into the United States, are known hosts of the citrus blackfly (Aleurocanthus woglumi Ashby):

Achras.	Capsicum.
Anacardium.	Cardiospermum.
Annona.	Cedrela.
Ardisia.	Cestrum.
Bouvardia.	Cnidoscolus.

Solandra.
Spondias.
Strelitzia.
Tabebuia.
Vitis.
Zingiber.

(b) If additional admissible plants are later determined to be hosts of the citrus blackfly they shall also be listed in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Blackfly host plants of genera that are prohibited entry into the United States are not included in the list in paragraph (a) of this section.

These administrative instructions shall become effective October 11, 1958.

These administrative instructions list the genera of plants that are not prohibited entry into the United States and are known hosts of the citrus blackfly.

(Sec. 9, 37 Stat. 318; 7 U. S. C. 162. Interpret or apply secs. 1, 5, 7, 37 Stat. 315, as amended, 316, 317, 7 U. S. C. 154, 159, 160)

Chapter VII—Commodity Stabilization Service (Farm Marketing Quotas and Acreage Allotments), Department of Agriculture

PART 722—COTTON

DETERMINATION RELATING TO SIZE OF 1959 CHOICE (B) FARM ALLOTMENTS FOR UPLAND COTTON

Basis and purpose. This determination is made pursuant to section 101 of the Agricultural Act of 1958 (P. L. 85-835, approved August 28, 1958), which provides that upland cotton farm allotments established under the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, shall be designated Choice (A) farm allotments and used as the base for establishing Choice (B) farm allotments for upland cotton. Choice (B) allotments cannot exceed Choice (A) allotments by more than 40 per centum. The purpose of this determination is to provide that Choice (B) allotments shall exceed Choice (A) allotments by 40 per centum.

In order that farmers may begin to make plans for the 1959 crop of upland cotton and in order that preparation of applicable procedures and forms by the Commodity Stabilization Service may proceed in an orderly manner, it is essential that this determination be made effective as soon as possible. Accordingly, it is hereby determined and found that compliance with the notice and public procedure requirements and the 30-day effective date requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U. S. C. 1003) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest and this determination shall be effective upon filing of this document with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

§ 722.210 Determination relating to size of 1959 Choice (B) farm allotments for Upland Cotton. It is hereby determined pursuant to section 101 of the Agricultural Act of 1958 (P. L. 85–835, approved August 28, 1958), that 1959 Choice (B) farm allotments for upland cotton shall exceed 1959 Choice (A) farm allotments for upland cotton established under the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, by 40 per centum.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 5th day of September 1958. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

PART 964—DRIED FIGS PRODUCED IN CALIFORNIA

RECEIVING BY HANDLERS

Pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 123, as amended, and Order No. 64, as amended (7 CFR Part 964), regulating the handling of dried figs produced in California, effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), the Dried Fig Administrative Committee, established under said order, unanimously recommended for approval by the Secretary, certain amendments to § 964.150 (b) (2), (c) (3), and (d) (2) of the committee's administrative rules and procedures (7 CFR Part 964). These amendments would: (1) Permit tray dried and sulfured natural Kadota dried figs delivered as one lot by producers or dehydrators to handlers, with each type in separate containers, to be sampled, inspected, and certified as though the lot contained only one type of dried figs; and (2) thereby alleviate restrictions in said administrative rules and procedures.

The present provisions of said rules and procedures require separate inspection of tray dried and sulfured natural Kadota dried figs delivered in one lot. If each type in the lot meets the minimum quality standards for acquisition of natural condition dried figs, the certification for the lot is made on the basis of the lower of the two inspection results. These two types of dried figs are of the same variety, are light in color, and are used in the manufacture of fig paste. In view of the similarity between tray dried and sulfured natural Kadota dried figs and since they are utilized in the same outlet, the aforesaid requirements are not necessary for attaining the objectives of quality regulation and should be alleviated as hereinafter provided.

After consideration of all relevant information, including the committee's recommendation, it is concluded that the amendments hereinafter set forth should be approved.

Therefore, it is hereby ordered, That the administrative rules and procedures (7 CFR Part 964) be amended as follows:

1. Amend the provisions of § 964.150 (b) (2) to read as follows:

(b) Sampling. • • •

(2) In the event the natural condition dried figs in any portion of a lot are substantially different in appearance, condition, or quality from the appearance, condition or quality of the balance of the dried figs in the lot, such portion shall be set apart and considered as a separate lot, and shall be sampled and inspected separately: Provided, That tray dried and sulfured natural Kadota dried figs delivered as one lot with each type in separate containers, shall be sampled and inspected as one lot.

2. Amend the provisions of § 964.150 (c) (3) to read as follows:

(c) Inspection. • • •

(3) The provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph shall also apply to tray dried and natural Kadota dried figs delivered in the same lot: Provided, That tray dried and sulfured natural Kadota dried figs delivered as one lot with each type in separate containers, shall not be inspected separately.

3. Amend the provisions of § 964.150 (d) (2) to read as follows:

(d) Certification. • • •

(2) In any case where an inspection is made of both tray dried and natural Kadota dried figs in test samples, or of first and second crop dried figs in test samples, the certification shall be made on the basis of the lower inspection result: Provided, That when an inspection is made pursuant to the proviso in paragraph (c) (3) of this section, of both tray dried and sulfured natural Kadota dried figs in test samples, the certification shall be made on the basis of the average inspection result.

It is hereby found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice and engage in public rule making procedure, and that good cause exists for not postponing the effective date hereof until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.), in that: (1) These amendments will relieve restrictions on the handling of tray dried and sulfured natural Kadota dried figs delivered as one lot by alleviating the sampling, inspection, and certification requirements pertaining thereto; (2) handlers have begun to acquire such dried figs in the 1958–59 crop year and it is necessary that these amendments be made effective as soon as possible so that the same sampling, inspection and certification requirements will apply insofar as possible to the acquisitions of such dried figs in said crop year; and (3) handlers are aware that these amendments were recommended by the committee and require no additional advance notice for preparation to comply therewith. In these circumstances, these amendments should be made effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Dated September 5, 1958, to become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Director,
Fruit and Vegetable Division.

TITLE 9—ANIMALS AND ANIMAL PRODUCTS

Chapter I—Agricultural Research Service, Department of Agriculture

Subchapter D—Exportation and Importation of Animals and Animal Products

PART 92—IMPORTATION OF CERTAIN ANIMALS AND POULTRY AND CERTAIN ANIMAL AND POULTRY PRODUCTS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

On June 27, 1958, there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (23 F. R. 4761) a notice of proposed amendments of the regulations governing the importation of certain animals and poultry and certain animal and poultry products in 9 CFR Part 92, as amended. After due consideration of all relevant matter presented, and pursuant to the authority conferred by sections 6, 7, 8, and 10 of the Act of Congress approved August 30, 1890, as amended (21 U. S. C. 102–105) and section 2 of the Act of Congress approved February 2, 1903, as amended (21 U. S. C. 111), said regulations are hereby amended as follows:

1. Section 92.1 is amended by adding new paragraphs (r) and (s) to read respectively:

(r) Brucellosis-certified areas. Areas in Canada in which the percentage of cattle affected with brucellosis has been officially determined by the Canadian Government not to exceed one percent and the percentage of herds in which brucellosis is present has been similarly determined not to exceed five percent.

(s) Western provinces of Canada. Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia.

2. Section 92.19 is amended to read:

§ 92.19 Animals from Canada; declaration to accompany animals offered for importation. For all cattle, sheep, goats, swine, horses, and poultry offered for importation from Canada, there shall be presented to the collector of customs at the time of entry two copies of a statement signed by the owner or importer showing clearly the purpose for which said animals are to be imported.

3. Section 92.20 is amended by deleting paragraph (e) and changing paragraph (c) to read:

§ 92.20 Cattle from Canada. * * *

(a) Brucellosis test or vaccination certificates. Importations from Canada of cattle six months or older, except steers and all cattle for immediate slaughter, shall be in compliance with the following conditions and requirements:

(1) Cattle from herds designated as brucellosis-free listed herds by the Canadian Government or cattle from herds not known to be affected in brucellosis-certified areas in Canada, except as provided in subparagraph (2) or (4) of this paragraph, shall be accompanied by a certificate issued or endorsed by a salaried veterinarian of the Canadian Government showing them to be from such herds and that the cattle offered for entry have been tested for brucellosis with negative results within 30 days preceding their offer for entry. If one or more reactors or suspects are disclosed in such a herd as a result of a brucellosis test at any time, cattle from such herd shall not be imported into the United States unless after such test the cattle offered for entry, and the herd, have been tested and such cattle are accompanied by a certificate in accordance with subparagraph (3) of this paragraph or the herd has reached full status as a brucellosis-free herd under Canadian regulations.

(2) Cattle of the beef breeds raised under range conditions in the western provinces of Canada, except as provided in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph, shall be accompanied by a certificate issued or endorsed by a salaried veterinarian of the Canadian Government showing them to be such range cattle of the beef breeds and that they have been tested for brucellosis with negative results within 30 days preceding their offer for entry.

(3) All other cattle from Canada, except as provided in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph, shall be accompanied by a certificate issued or endorsed by a salaried veterinarian of the Canadian Government showing:

(i) That all cattle in the herd or herds from which the animals originate (except steers, other cattle under six months of age, and official vaccinates under 30 months of age), have been tested for brucellosis with negative results not more than three months preceding the offer for entry;

(ii) That the cattle offered for entry, except the natural increase, were included in the herd or herds of origin at the time of said herd tests; and

(iii) That the cattle offered for entry (except steers, and other cattle under six months of age and official vaccinates under 30 months of age at the time of their offer for entry), have been tested for brucellosis with negative results within 30 days preceding their offer for entry in addition to and at least 15 days after the herd test specified in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph.

(4) Bulls and female cattle under 30 months of age need not meet the requirements of subparagraph (1), (2), or (3) of this paragraph, provided they are accompanied by a certificate issued or endorsed by a salaried veterinarian of the Canadian Government showing that they were officially vaccinated against brucellosis as calves between the ages of four through eight months for dairy breeds or four months through the day they become eleven months for beef breeds and provided, except for cattle of the beef breeds raised under range conditions in the western provinces of Canada, such animals originate in a herd not known to contain any animals affected with brucellosis. The certificate accompanying such officially-vaccinated cattle shall comply with paragraph (d) of this section except that it shall show, in lieu of the date and place of testing, the date of vaccination and shall also show the age of the animal at the time of vaccination.

4. Section 92.22 is amended by changing paragraph (a) to read:

§ 92.22 Swine from Canada—(a) For purposes other than immediate slaughter. Swine offered for importation from Canada for purposes other than immediate slaughter shall be accompanied by a certificate issued or endorsed by a salaried veterinarian of the Canadian Government showing that said swine have been inspected on the premises of origin immediately before the date of movement therefrom and found to be free of evidence of communicable disease and that, as far as it has been possible to determine, they were not exposed to any such disease during the preceding 60 days; in addition, the certificate shall show that no hog cholera or swine plague has existed on the premises of origin or on adjoining premises for such 60 days.

5. Section 92.25 is amended to read:

§ 92.25 Special provisions—(a) In-bond shipments from Canada. Cattle, sheep, goats, swine, horses, and poultry from Canada transported in bond through the United States for immediate export shall be inspected at the border port of entry and shall otherwise meet the requirements of this Part in the same manner as similar animals destined to points in the United States, except that the Director of Division may permit their inspection at some other point when he finds that such action may be taken without endangering the livestock or poultry of the United States.

(b) Exhibition animals. (1) Animals, including poultry, from the United States which have been exhibited at the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair at Toronto or other publicly recognized exposition in Canada and have not been in that country more than 30 days are eligible for return to the United States within 10 days from the close of such fair or exposition without Canadian health or test certificates, if they are accompanied by copies of the health certificates properly issued and endorsed in accordance with the export regulations in Part 91 of this chapter at the time of entry into Canada, and it is shown to the satisfaction of the veterinary inspector at the United States port of entry that they are the identical animals covered by said certificates, or, in the case of poultry, if they otherwise qualified for entry into Canada under the Canadian regulations, and in any case if they are found by the inspector to be free of communicable disease and exposure thereto.

(2) Ruminants, swine, horses, and poultry from the United States used for rodeo, circus, or stage exhibitions in Canada are eligible for return to the United States without Canadian health or test certificates, if they are accompanied by copies of the health certificates properly issued and endorsed within the preceding three months, in accordance with the export regulations in Part 91 of this chapter for entry into Canada, and if it is shown to the satisfaction of the veterinary inspector at the United States port of entry that they are the identical animals covered by said certificates, or, in the case of poultry, if they otherwise qualified for entry into Canada under the Canadian regulations, and, in any case, if they are found by the inspector to be free of communicable disease and exposure thereto.

The foregoing amendments shall become effective 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Secs. 6–8, 10, 26 Stat. 416, as amended, 417, sec. 2, 32 Stat. 792, as amended; 21 U. S. C. 102–105, 111)

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE, 1954

Chapter I—Internal Revenue Service, Department of the Treasury

[T. D. 6312]

PART 1—INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1953

LOSSES, EXPENSES, AND INTEREST WITH RESPECT TO TRANSACTIONS BETWEEN RELATED TAXPAYERS

On November 30, 1957, notice of proposed rule making regarding regulations for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1953, and ending after August 16, 1954, except as specifically provided otherwise, under section 267 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and regarding an amendment to § 1.707–1 (b) (3) (26 CFR 1.707–1 (b) (3)) for such taxable years was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (22 F. R. 9596). After consideration of all such relevant matter as was presented by interested persons regarding the rules proposed, the regulations as so proposed are hereby adopted, subject to the changes set forth below:

PARAGRAPH 1. The third, fourth, and fifth sentences of paragraph (a) of § 1.267 (a)–1 are stricken.

PAR. 2. The second sentence of paragraph (b) (3) of § 1.267 (a)–1 is revised to read as follows: "The fair market value on the date of issue of such notes or other instruments of similar effect is includible in the gross income of the payee for the taxable year in which he receives the notes or other instruments.

PAR. 3. In the first sentence of paragraph (c) (3) of § 1.267 (d)–1 "section 1232 (2)" is stricken and "section 1223 (2)" is substituted in lieu thereof, and in the second sentence of that paragraph "section 1232 (1)" is stricken and "section 1223 (1)" is substituted in lieu thereof.

[SEAL] LEO SPEER,
Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved: September 8, 1958.

NELSON P. ROSE,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

PARAGRAPH 1. The following regulations are hereby prescribed under section 267 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Sec.
1.267 (a) Statutory provisions; losses, expenses, and interest with respect to transactions between related taxpayers; deductions disallowed.
1.267 (a)–1 Deductions disallowed.
1.267 (b) Statutory provisions; losses, expenses, and interest with respect to transactions between related taxpayers; relationships.
1.267 (b)–1 Relationships.
1.267 (c) Statutory provisions; losses, expenses, and interest with respect to transactions between related taxpayers; constructive ownership of stock.
1.267 (c)–1 Constructive ownership of stock.
1.267 (d) Statutory provisions; losses, expenses, and interest with respect to transactions between related taxpayers; amount of gain where loss previously disallowed.
1.267 (d)–1 Amount of gain where loss previously disallowed.
1.267 (d)–2 Effective date; taxable years subject to the Internal Revenue Code of 1939.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1.267 (a) to 1.267 (d)–2 issued under sec. 7805, 68A Stat. 917; 26 U.S.C. 7805.

§ 1.267 (a) Statutory provisions; losses, expenses, and interest with respect to transactions between related taxpayers; deductions disallowed.

SEC. 267. Losses, expenses, and interest with respect to transactions between related taxpayers—(a) Deductions disallowed. No deduction shall be allowed—

(1) Losses. In respect of losses from sales or exchanges of property (other than losses in cases of distributions in corporate liquidations), directly or indirectly, between persons specified within any one of the paragraphs of subsection (b).

(2) Unpaid expenses and interest. In respect of expenses, otherwise deductible under section 162 or 212, or of interest, otherwise deductible under section 163,—

(A) If within the period consisting of the taxable year of the taxpayer and 2½ months after the close thereof (i) such expenses or interest are not paid, and (ii) the amount thereof is not includible in the gross income of the person to whom the payment is to be made; and

(B) If, by reason of the method of accounting of the person to whom the payment is to be made, the amount thereof is not, unless paid, includible in the gross income of such person for the taxable year in which or with which the taxable year of the taxpayer ends; and

(C) If, at the close of the taxable year of the taxpayer or at any time within 2½ months thereafter, both the taxpayer and the person to whom the payment is to be made are persons specified within any one of the paragraphs of subsection (b).

§ 1.267 (a)–1 Deductions disallowed—(a) Losses. Except in cases of distributions in corporate liquidations, no deduction shall be allowed for losses arising from direct or indirect sales or exchanges of property between persons who, on the date of the sale or exchange, are within any one of the relationships specified in section 267 (b). See § 1.267 (b)–1.

(b) Unpaid expenses and interest. (1) No deduction shall be allowed a taxpayer for trade or business expenses otherwise deductible under section 162, for expenses for production of income otherwise deductible under section 212, or for interest otherwise deductible under section 163—

(i) If, at the close of the taxpayer's taxable year within which such items are accrued by the taxpayer or at any time within 2½ months thereafter, both the taxpayer and the payee are persons within any one of the relationships specified in section 267 (b) (see § 1.267 (b)–1); and

(ii) If the payee is on the cash receipts and disbursements method of accounting with respect to such items of gross income for his taxable year in which or with which the taxable year of accrual by the debtor-taxpayer ends; and

(iii) If, within the taxpayer's taxable year within which such items are accrued by the taxpayer and 2½ months after the close thereof, the amount of such items is not paid and the amount of such items is not otherwise (under the rules of constructive receipt) includible in the gross income of the payee.

(2) The provisions of section 267 (a) (2) and this paragraph do not otherwise affect the general rules governing the allowance of deductions under an accrual method of accounting. For example, if the accrued expenses or interest are paid after the deduction has become disallowed under section 267 (a) (2), no deduction would be allowable for the taxable year in which payment is made, since an accrual item is deductible only in the taxable year in which it is properly accruable.

(3) The expenses and interest specified in section 267 (a) (2) and this paragraph shall be considered as paid for purposes of that section to the extent of the fair market value on the date of issue of notes or other instruments of similar effect received in payment of such expenses or interest if such notes or other instruments were issued in such payment by the taxpayer within his taxable year or within 2½ months after the close thereof. The fair market value on the date of issue of such notes or other instruments of similar effect is includible in the gross income of the payee for the taxable year in which he receives the notes or other instruments.

(4) The provisions of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. A, an individual, is the holder and owner of an interest-bearing note of the M Corporation, all the stock of which was owned by him on December 31, 1956. A and the M Corporation make their income tax returns for a calendar year. The M Corporation uses an accrual method of accounting. A uses a combination of accounting methods permitted under section 446 (c) (4) in which he uses the cash receipts and disbursements method in respect of items of gross income. The M Corporation does not pay any interest on the note to A during the calendar year 1956 or within 2½ months after the close of that year, nor does it credit any interest to A's account in such a manner that it is subject to his unqualified demand and thus is constructively received by him. M Corporation claims a deduction for the year 1956 for the interest accruing on the note in that year. Since A is on the cash receipts and disbursements method in respect of items of gross income, the interest is not includible in his return for the year 1956. Under the provisions of section 267 (a) (2) and this paragraph, no deduction for such interest is allowable in computing the taxable income of the M Corporation for the taxable year 1956 or for any other taxable year. However, if the interest had actually been paid to A on or before March 15, 1957, or if it had been made available to A before that time (and thus had been constructively received by him), the M Corporation would be allowed to deduct the amount of the payment in computing its taxable income for 1956.

(c) Scope of section. Section 267 (a) requires that deductions for losses or unpaid expenses or interest described therein be disallowed even though the transaction in which such losses, expenses, or interest were incurred was a bona fide transaction. However, section 267 is not exclusive. No deduction for losses or unpaid expenses or interest arising in a transaction which is not bona fide will be allowed even though section 267 does not apply to the transaction.

§ 1.267 (b) Statutory provisions; losses, expenses, and interest with respect to transactions between related taxpayers; relationships.

SEC. 267. Losses, expenses, and interest with respect to transactions between related taxpayers. • • •

(b) Relationships. The persons referred to in subsection (a) are:

(1) Members of a family, as defined in subsection (c) (4);

(2) An individual and a corporation more than 50 percent in value of the outstanding stock of which is owned, directly or indirectly, by or for such individual;

(3) Two corporations more than 50 percent in value of the outstanding stock of each of which is owned, directly or indirectly, by or for the same individual, if either one of such corporations, with respect to the taxable year of the corporation preceding the date of the sale or exchange was, under the law applicable to such taxable year, a personal holding company or a foreign personal holding company;

(4) A grantor and a fiduciary of any trust;

(5) A fiduciary of a trust and a fiduciary of another trust, if the same person is a grantor of both trusts;

(6) A fiduciary of a trust and a beneficiary of such trust;

(7) A fiduciary of a trust and a beneficiary of another trust, if the same person is a grantor of both trusts;

(8) A fiduciary of a trust and a corporation more than 50 percent in value of the outstanding stock of which is owned, directly or indirectly, by or for the trust or by or for a person who is a grantor of the trust; or

(9) A person and an organization to which section 501 (relating to certain educational and charitable organizations which are exempt from tax) applies and which is controlled directly or indirectly by such person or (if such person is an individual) by members of the family of such individual.

§ 1.267 (b)–1 Relationships—(a) In general. (1) The persons referred to in section 267 (a) and § 1.267 (a)–1 are specified in section 267 (b).

(2) Under section 267 (b) (3), it is not necessary that either of the two corporations be a personal holding company or a foreign personal holding company for the taxable year in which the sale or exchange occurs or in which the expenses or interest are properly accruable, but either one of them must be such a company for the taxable year next preceding the taxable year in which the sale or exchange occurs or in which the expenses or interest are accrued.

(3) Under section 267 (b) (9), the control of certain educational and charitable organizations exempt from tax under section 501 includes any kind of control, direct or indirect, by means of which a person in fact controls such an organization, whether or not the control is legally enforceable and regardless of the method by which the control is exercised or exercisable. In the case of an individual, control possessed by the individual's family, as defined in section 267 (c) (4) and paragraph (a) (4) of § 1.267 (c)–1, shall be taken into account.

(b) Partnerships. (1) Since section 267 does not include members of a partnership and the partnership as related persons, transactions between partners and partnerships do not come within the scope of section 267. Such transactions are governed by section 707 for the purposes of which the partnership is considered to be an entity separate from the partners. See section 707 and § 1.707–1. Any transaction described in section 267 (a) between a partnership and a person other than a partner shall be considered as occurring between the other person and the members of the partnership separately. Therefore, if the other person and a partner are within any one of the relationships specified in section 267 (b), no deductions with respect to such transactions between the other person and the partnership shall be allowed—

(i) To the related partner to the extent of his distributive share of partnership deductions for losses or unpaid expenses or interest resulting from such transactions, and

(ii) To the other person to the extent the related partner acquires an interest in any property sold to or exchanged with the partnership by such other person at a loss, or to the extent of the related partner's distributive share of the unpaid expenses or interest payable to the partnership by the other person as a result of such transaction.

(2) The provisions of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). A, an equal partner in the ABC partnership, personally owns all the stock of M Corporation. B and C are not related to A. The partnership and all the partners use an accrual method of accounting, and are on a calendar year. M Corporation uses the cash receipts and disbursements method of accounting and is also on a calendar year. During 1956 the partnership borrowed money from M Corporation and also sold property to M Corporation, sustaining a loss on the sale. On December 31, 1956, the partnership accrued its interest liability to the M Corporation and on April 1, 1957 (more than 2½ months after the close of its taxable year), it paid the M Corporation the amount of such accrued interest. Applying the rules of this paragraph, the transactions are considered as occurring between M Corporation and the partners separately. The sale and interest transactions considered as occurring between A and the M Corporation fall within the scope of section 267 (a) and (b), but the transactions considered as occurring between partners B and C and the M Corporation do not. The latter two partners may, therefore, deduct their distributive shares of partnership deductions for the loss and the accrued interest. However, no deduction shall be allowed to A for his distributive shares of these partnership deductions. Furthermore, A's adjusted basis for his partnership interest must be decreased by the amount of his distributive share of such deductions. See section 705 (a) (2).

Example (2). Assume the same facts as in example (1) of this subparagraph except that the partnership and all the partners use the cash receipts and disbursements method of accounting, and that M Corporation uses an accrual method. Assume further, that during 1956 M Corporation borrowed money from the partnership and that on a sale of property to the partnership during that year M Corporation sustained a loss. On December 31, 1956, the M Corporation accrued its interest liability on the borrowed money and on April 1, 1957 (more than 2½ months after the close of its taxable year) it paid the accrued interest to the partnership. The corporation's deduction for the accrued interest is not allowed to the extent of A's distributive share (one-third) of such interest income. M Corporation's deduction for the loss on the sale of the property to the partnership is not allowed to the extent of A's one-third interest in the purchased property.

§ 1.267 (c) Statutory provisions; losses, expenses, and interest with respect to transactions between related taxpayers; constructive ownership of stock.

SEC. 267. Losses, expenses, and interest with respect to transactions between related taxpayers. • • •

(c) Constructive ownership of stock. For purposes of determining, in applying subsection (b), the ownership of stock—

(1) Stock owned, directly or indirectly, by or for a corporation, partnership, estate, or trust shall be considered as being owned proportionately by or for its shareholders, partners, or beneficiaries;

(2) An individual shall be considered as owning the stock owned, directly or indirectly, by or for his family;

(3) An individual owning (otherwise than by the application of paragraph (2)) any stock in a corporation shall be considered as owning the stock owned, directly or indirectly, by or for his partner;

(4) The family of an individual shall include only his brothers and sisters (whether by the whole or half blood), spouse, ancestors, and lineal descendants; and

(5) Stock constructively owned by a person by reason of the application of paragraph (1) shall, for the purpose of applying paragraph (1), (2), or (3), be treated as actually owned by such person, but stock constructively owned by an individual by reason of the application of paragraph (2) or (3) shall not be treated as owned by him for the purpose of again applying either of such paragraphs in order to make another the constructive owner of such stock.

§ 1.267 (c)–1 Constructive ownership of stock—(a) In general. (1) The determination of stock ownership for purposes of section 267 (b) shall be in accordance with the rules in section 267 (c).

(2) For an individual to be considered under section 267 (c) (2) as constructively owning the stock of a corporation which is owned, directly or indirectly, by or for members of his family it is not necessary that he own stock in the corporation either directly or indirectly. On the other hand, for an individual to be considered under section 267 (c) (3) as owning the stock of a corporation owned either actually, or constructively under section 267 (c) (1), by or for his partner, such individual must himself actually own, or constructively own under section 267 (c) (1), stock of such corporation.

(3) An individual's constructive ownership, under section 267 (c) (2) or (3), of stock owned directly or indirectly by or for a member of his family, or by or for his partner, is not to be considered as actual ownership of such stock, and the individual's constructive ownership of the stock is not to be attributed to another member of his family or to another partner. However, an individual's constructive ownership, under section 267 (c) (1), of stock owned directly or indirectly by or for a corporation, partnership, estate, or trust shall be considered as actual ownership of the stock, and the individual's ownership may be attributed to a member of his family or to his partner.

(4) The family of an individual shall include only his brothers and sisters, spouse, ancestors, and lineal descendants. In determining whether any of these relationships exist, full effect shall be given to a legal adoption. The term "ancestors" includes parents and grandparents, and the term "lineal descendants" includes children and grandchildren.

(b) Examples. The application of section 267 (c) may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). On July 1, 1957, A owned 75 percent, and AW, his wife, owned 25 percent, of the outstanding stock of the M Corporation. The M Corporation in turn owned 80 percent of the outstanding stock of the O Corporation. Under section 267 (c) (1), A and AW are each considered as owning an amount of the O Corporation stock actually owned by M Corporation in proportion to their respective ownership of M Corporation stock. Therefore, A constructively owns 60 percent (75 percent of 80 percent) of the O Corporation stock and AW constructively owns 20 percent (25 percent of 80 percent) of such stock. Under the family ownership rule of section 267 (c) (2), an individual is considered as constructively owning the stock actually owned by his spouse. A and AW, therefore, are each considered as constructively owning the M Corporation stock actually owned by the other. For the purpose of applying this family ownership rule, A's and AW's constructive ownership of O Corporation stock is considered as actual ownership under section 267 (c) (5). Thus, A constructively owns the 20 percent of the O Corporation stock constructively owned by AW, and AW constructively owns the 60 percent of the O Corporation stock constructively owned by A. In addition, the family ownership rule may be applied to make AWF, AW's father, the constructive owner of the 25 percent of the M Corporation stock actually owned by AW. As noted above, AW's constructive ownership of 20 percent of the O Corporation stock is considered as actual ownership for purposes of applying the family ownership rule, and AWF is thereby considered the constructive owner of this stock also. However, AW's constructive ownership of the stock constructively and actually owned by A may not be considered as actual ownership for the purpose of again applying the family ownership rule to make AWF the constructive owner of these shares. The ownership of the stock in the M and O Corporations may be tabulated as follows:

Person	Stock ownership in M Corporation		Total under Section 267	Stock ownership in O Corporation		Total under Section 267
	Actual	Constructive		Actual	Constructive
	Percent	Percent	Percent	Percent	Percent	Percent
A	75	25	100	None	60	80
					20
AW (A's wife)	25	75	100	None	20	80
					60
AWF (AW's father)	None	25	25	None	20	20
M Corporation				80	None	80
O Corporation	None	None	None

Assuming that the M Corporation and the O Corporation make their income tax returns for calendar years, and that there was no distribution in liquidation of the M or O Corporation, and further assuming that either corporation was a personal holding company under section 542 for the calendar year 1956, no deduction is allowable with respect to losses from sales or exchanges of property made on July 1, 1957, between the two corporations. Moreover, whether or not either corporation was a personal holding company, no loss would be allowable on a sale or exchange between A or AW and either corporation. A deduction would be allowed, however, for a loss sustained in an arm's length sale or exchange between A and AWF, and between AWF and the M or O Corporation.

Example (2). On June 15, 1957, all of the stock of the N Corporation was owned in equal proportions by A and his partner, AP. Except in the case of distributions in liquidation by the N Corporation, no deduction is allowable with respect to losses from sales or exchanges of property made on June 15, 1957, between A and the N Corporation or AP and the N Corporation since each partner is considered as owning the stock owned by the other; therefore, each is considered as owning more than 50 percent in value of the outstanding stock of the N Corporation.

Example (3). On June 7, 1957, A owned no stock in X Corporation, but his wife, AW, owned 20 percent in value of the outstanding stock of X, and A's partner, AP, owned 60 percent in value of the outstanding stock of X. The partnership firm of A and AP owned no stock in X Corporation. The ownership of AW's stock is attributed to A, but not that of AP since A does not own any X Corporation stock either actually, or constructively under section 267 (c) (1). A's constructive ownership of AW's stock is not the ownership required for the attribution of AP's stock. Therefore, deductions for losses from sales or exchanges of property made on June 7, 1957, between X Corporation and A or AW are allowable since neither person owned more than 50 percent in value of the outstanding stock of X, but deductions for losses from sales or exchanges between X Corporation and AP would not be allowable by section 267 (a) (except for distributions in liquidation of X Corporation).

§ 1.267 (d) Statutory provisions; losses, expenses, and interest with respect to transactions between related taxpayers; amount of gain where loss previously disallowed.

SEC. 267. Losses, expenses, and interest with respect to transactions between related taxpayers. • • •

(d) Amount of gain where loss previously disallowed. If—

(1) In the case of a sale or exchange of property to the taxpayer a loss sustained by the transferor is not allowable to the transferor as a deduction by reason of subsection (a) (1) (or by reason of section 24 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939); and

(2) After December 31, 1953, the taxpayer sells or otherwise disposes of such property (or of other property the basis of which in his hands is determined directly or indirectly by reference to such property) at a gain, then such gain shall be recognized only to the extent that it exceeds so much of such loss as is properly allocable to the property sold or otherwise disposed of by the taxpayer. This subsection applies with respect to taxable years ending after December 31, 1953. This subsection shall not apply if the loss sustained by the transferor is not allowable to the transferor as a deduction by reason of section 1091 (relating to wash sales) or by reason of section 118 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939.

§ 1.267 (d)–1 Amount of gain where loss previously disallowed—(a) General rule. (1) If a taxpayer acquires property by purchase or exchange from a transferor who, on the transaction, sustained a loss not allowable as a deduction by reason of section 267 (a) (1) (or by reason of section 24 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939), then any gain realized by the taxpayer on a sale or other disposition of the property after December 31, 1953, shall be recognized only to the extent that the gain exceeds the amount of such loss as is properly allocable to the property sold or otherwise disposed of by the taxpayer.

(2) The general rule is also applicable to a sale or other disposition of property by a taxpayer when the basis of such property in the taxpayer's hands is determined directly or indirectly by reference to other property acquired by the taxpayer from a transferor through a sale or exchange in which a loss sustained by the transferor was not allowable. Therefore, section 267 (d) applies to a sale or other disposition of property after a series of transactions if the basis of the property acquired in each transaction is determined by reference to the basis of the property transferred, and if the original property was acquired in a transaction in which a loss to a transferor was not allowable by reason of section 267 (a) (1) (or by reason of section 24 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939).

(3) The benefit of the general rule is available only to the original transferee but does not apply to any original transferee (e. g., a donee) who acquired the property in any manner other than by purchase or exchange.

(4) The application of the provisions of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). H sells to his wife, W, for $500, certain corporate stock with an adjusted basis for determining loss to him of $800. The loss of $300 is not allowable to H by reason of section 267 (a) (1) and paragraph (a) of § 1.267 (a)–1. W later sells this stock for $1,000. Although W's realized gain is $500 ($1,000 minus $500, her basis), her recognized gain under section 267 (d) is only $200, the excess of the realized gain of $500 over the loss of $300 not allowable to H. In determining capital gain or loss, W's holding period commences on the date of the sale from H to W.

Example (2). Assume the same facts as in example (1) except that W later sells the stock for $300 instead of $1,000. Her recognized loss is $200 and not $500 since section 267 (d) applies only to the nonrecognition of gain and does not affect basis.

Example (3). Assume the same facts as in example (1) except that W transfers her stock as a gift to X. The basis of the stock in the hands of X for the purpose of determining gain, under the provisions of section 1015, is the same as W's, or $500. If X later sells the stock for $1,000 the entire $500 gain is taxed to him.

Example (4). H sells to his wife, W, for $5,500, farmland, with an adjusted basis for determining loss to him of $8,000. The loss of $2,500 is not allowable to H by reason of section 267 (a) (1) and paragraph (a) of § 1.267 (a)–1. W exchanges the farmland, held for investment purposes, with S, an unrelated individual, for two city lots, also held for investment purposes. The basis of the city lots in the hands of W ($5,500) is a substituted basis determined under section 1031 (d) by reference to the basis of the farmland. Later W sells the city lots for $10,000. Although W's realized gain is $4,500 (10,000 minus $5,500), her recognized gain under section 267 (d) is only $2,000, the excess of the realized gain of $4,500 over the loss of $2,500 not allowable to H.

(b) Determination of basis and gain with respect to divisible property—(1) Taxpayer's basis. When the taxpayer acquires divisible property or property that consists of several items or classes of items by a purchase or exchange on which loss is not allowable to the transferor, the basis in the taxpayer's hands of a particular part, item, or class of such property shall be determined (if the taxpayer's basis for that part is not known) by allocating to the particular part, item, or class a portion of the taxpayer's basis for the entire property in the proportion that the fair market value of the particular part, item, or class bears to the fair market value of the entire property at the time of the taxpayer's acquisition of the property.

(2) Taxpayer's recognized gain. Gain realized by the taxpayer on sales or other dispositions after December 31, 1953, of a part, item, or class of the property shall be recognized only to the extent that such gain exceeds the amount of loss attributable to such part, item, or class of property not allowable to the taxpayer's transferor on the latter's sale or exchange of such property to the taxpayer.

(3) Transferor's loss not allowable. (i) The transferor's loss on the sale or exchange of a part, item, or class of the property to the taxpayer shall be the excess of the transferor's adjusted basis for determining loss on the part, item, or class of the property over the amount realized by the transferor on the sale or exchange of the part, item, or class. The amount realized by the transferor on the part, item, or class shall be determined (if such amount is not known) in the same manner that the taxpayer's basis for such part, item, or class is determined. See subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(ii) If the transferor's basis for determining loss on the part, item, or class cannot be determined, the transferor's loss on the particular part, item, or class transferred to the taxpayer shall be determined by allocating to the part, item, or class a portion of his loss on the entire property in the proportion that the fair market value of such part, item, or class bears to the fair market value of the entire property on the date of the taxpayer's acquisition of the entire property.

(4) Examples. The application of the provisions of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). During 1953, H sold class A stock which had cost him $1,100, and common stock which had cost him $2,000, to his wife W for a lump sum of $1,500. Under section 24 (b) (1) (A) of the 1939 Code, the loss of $1,600 on the transaction was not allowable to H. At the time the stocks were purchased by W, the fair market value of class A stock was $900 and the fair market value of common stock was $600. In 1954, W sold the class A stock for $2,500. W's recognized gain is determined as follows:

Amount realized by W on sale of class A stock	$2,500
Less: Basis allocated to class A stock—$900/$1,500 x $1,500	900
Realized gain on transaction	1,600
Less: Loss sustained by H on sale of class A stock to W not allowable as a deduction:
Basis to H of class A stock	$1,100
Amount realized by H on class A stock—$900/$1,500 x $1,500	900
Unallowable loss to H on sale of class A stock	200
Recognized gain on sale of class A stock by W	1,400

Example (2). Assume the same facts as those stated in example (1) of this subparagraph except that H originally purchased both classes of stock for a lump sum of $3,100. The unallowable loss to H on the sale of all the stock to W is $1,600 ($3,100 minus $1,500). An exact determination of the unallowable loss sustained by H on sale to W of class A stock cannot be made because H's basis for class A stock cannot be determined. Therefore, a determination of the unallowable loss is made by allocating to class A stock a portion of H's loss on the entire property transferred to W in the proportion that the fair market value of class A stock at the time acquired by W ($900) bears to the fair market value of both classes of stock at that time ($1,500). The allocated portion is $900/$1,500 x $1,600, or $960. W's recognized gain is, therefore, $640 (W's realized gain of $1,600 minus $960).

(c) Special rules. (1) Section 267 (d) does not affect the basis of property for determining gain. Depreciation and other items which depend on such basis are also not affected.

(2) The provisions of section 267 (d) shall not apply if the loss sustained by the transferor is not allowable to the transferor as a deduction by reason of section 1091, or section 118 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, which relate to losses from wash sales of stock or securities.

(3) In determining the holding period in the hands of the transferee of property received in an exchange with a transferor with respect to whom a loss on the exchange is not allowable by reason of section 267, section 1223 (2) does not apply to include the period during which the property was held by the transferor. In determining such holding period, however, section 1223 (1) may apply to include the period during which the transferee held the property which he exchanged where, for example, he exchanged a capital asset in a transaction which, as to him, was nontaxable under section 1031 and the property received in the exchange has the same basis as the property exchanged.

§ 1.267 (d)–2 Effective date; taxable years subject to the Internal Revenue Code of 1939. Pursuant to section 7851 (a) (1) (C), the regulations prescribed in § 1.267 (d)–1, to the extent that they relate to determination of gain resulting from the sale or other disposition of property after December 31, 1953, with respect to which property a loss was not allowable to the transferor by reason of section 267 (a) (1) (or by reason of section 24 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939), shall also apply to taxable years beginning before January 1, 1954, and ending after December 31, 1953, and taxable years beginning after December 31, 1953, and ending before August 17, 1954, which years are subject to the Internal Revenue Code of 1939.

PAR. 2. Paragraph (b) (3) of § 1.707–1 as prescribed by Treasury Decision 6175 (21 F. R. 3500), approved May 23, 1956, is amended to read as follows:

§ 1.707–1 Transactions between partner and partnership. • • •

(b) Certain sales or exchanges of property with respect to controlled partnerships. • • •

(3) Ownership of a capital or profits interest. In determining the extent of the ownership by a partner, as defined in section 761 (b), of his capital interest or profits interest in a partnership, the rules for constructive ownership of stock provided in section 267 (c) (1), (2), (4), and (5) shall be applied for the purpose of section 707 (b) and this paragraph. Under these rules, ownership of a capital or profits interest in a partnership may be attributed to a person who is not a partner as defined in section 761 (b) in order that another partner may be considered the constructive owner of such interest under section 267 (c). However, section 707 (b) (1) (A) does not apply to a constructive owner of a partnership interest since he is not a partner as defined in section 761 (b). For example, where trust T is a partner in the partnership ABT, and AW, A's wife, is the sole beneficiary of the trust, the ownership of a capital and profits interest in the partnership by T will be attributed to AW only for the purpose of further attributing the ownership of such interest to A. See section 267 (c) (1) and (5). If A, B, and T are equal partners, then A will be considered as owning more than 50 percent of the capital and profits interest in the partnership, and losses on transactions between him and the partnership will be disallowed by section 707 (b) (1) (A). However, a loss sustained by AW on a sale or exchange of property with the partnership would not be disallowed by section 707, but will be disallowed to the extent provided in paragraph (b) of § 1.267 (b)–1. See section 267 (a) and (b), and the regulations thereunder.

PART 1—INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1953

CREDIT TO DOMESTIC CORPORATE SHAREHOLDER FOR FOREIGN TAXES PAID BY FOREIGN CORPORATIONS

On December 4, 1957, notice of proposed rule making regarding regulations for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1957, under section 902 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (relating to credit to a domestic corporate shareholder for foreign taxes paid by foreign corporations) was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (22 F. R. 9693). That notice, the appendix to which set forth a proposed amendment of the income tax regulations (26 CFR Part 1) by the addition of a new paragraph (d) at the end of § 1.902–1, is hereby withdrawn. The income tax regulations (26 CFR Part 1) are amended by adding at the end of § 1.902–1 the following new paragraph effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1953, and ending after August 16, 1954:

(d) Illustration of principles. The application of the principles of this section in the determination of the amount of the foreign tax available as a basis for a credit to the domestic corporation may be illustrated by the following example involving Corporation A, a domestic corporation which owns 40 percent of the voting stock of Corporation B, a foreign corporation which in turn owns 80 percent of the voting stock of Corporation C, another foreign corporation. It is assumed that all transactions have taken place within, and are related to, the same taxable year.

(1) Application of section 902 (b) to determine tax deemed to be paid by Corporation B.

(i) Gains, profits, and income of Corporation C	$125,000
(ii) Foreign tax paid by Corporation C with respect to such gains, profits, and income	25,000
(iii) Accumulated profits of Corporation C: $125,000 less $25,000	100,000
(iv) Dividends paid by Corporation C to Corporation B	50,000
(v) Corporation C foreign tax with respect to the accumulated profits of Corporation C from which the dividends were paid to Corporation B: $25,000 × 100,000/125,000	20,000

(vi) Corporation C foreign tax with respect to the accumulated profits distributed which is deemed to be paid by Corporation B:

$20,000 × 50,000/100,000 ---------- $10,000

(2) Application of section 902 (a) to determine tax deemed to be paid by Corporation A.

(i) Gains, profits, and income of Corporation B:

Business profits	$50,000
Dividends from Corporation C (as per subparagraph (1) of this paragraph)	50,000
		$100,000
(ii) Foreign tax actually paid by Corporation B with respect to such gains, profits, and income		20,000
(iii) Accumulated profits of Corporation B:
$100,000 income less $20,000 taxes paid		80,000
(iv) Dividends paid by Corporation B to Corporation A		15,000
(v) Corporation B foreign tax paid with respect to the accumulated profits of Corporation B from which the dividends were paid to Corporation A:
$20,000 × 80,000/100,000		16,000
(vi) Corporation B foreign tax paid, and deemed to be paid, with respect to the accumulated profits of Corporation B from which the dividends were paid to Corporation A: $16,000 plus $10,000		26,000
(vii) Corporation B foreign tax with respect to the accumulated profits distributed which is deemed to be paid by Corporation A: 15,000/80,000 × $26,000		4,875

Because this Treasury decision merely adopts the rule contained in § 39.131 (f)–1 (c) of Regulations 118 and continued in effect by Treasury Decision 6091, approved August 16, 1954 (19 F. R. 5167), it is hereby found that it is unnecessary to issue this Treasury decision with notice and public procedure thereon under section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, or subject to the effective date limitation of section 4 (c) of that Act.

[T. D. 6311]

PART 1—INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1953

BASIS OF PROPERTY

On January 3, 1957, a notice of proposed rule making regarding the regulations for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1953, and ending after August 16, 1954, under parts I and II (except sections 1017, 1020, and 1021) of subchapter O of chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (22 F. R. 35). On November 7, 1957, with certain modifications, the regulations, as so proposed, except for those in paragraph (c) of § 1.1012–1 relating to identification of stock sold, were adopted and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER as Treasury Decision 6265 (22 F. R. 8935). After consideration of all such relevant matter as was presented by interested persons regarding the rules proposed in paragraph (c) of § 1.1012–1, the following regulations are hereby prescribed:

§ 1.1012–1 Basis of property. • • •

(c) Sale of stock—(1) In general. If shares of stock in a corporation are sold or transferred by a taxpayer who purchased or acquired lots of stock on different dates or at different prices, and the lot from which the stock was sold or transferred cannot be adequately identified, the stock sold or transferred shall be charged against the earliest of such lots purchased or acquired in order to determine the cost or other basis of such stock and in order to determine the holding period of such stock for purposes of subchapter P of chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. If, on the other hand, the lot from which the stock is sold or transferred can be adequately identified, the rule stated in the preceding sentence is not applicable. As to what constitutes "adequate identification", see subparagraphs (2), (3), and (4) of this paragraph.

(2) Identification of stock. An adequate identification is made if it is shown that certificates representing shares of stock from a lot which was purchased or acquired on a certain date or for a certain price were delivered to the taxpayer's transferee. Except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (3) or (4) of this paragraph, such stock certificates delivered to the transferee constitute the stock sold or transferred by the taxpayer. Thus, unless the requirements of subparagraph (3) or (4) of this paragraph are met, the stock sold or transferred is charged to the lot to which the certificates delivered to the transferee belong, whether or not the taxpayer intends, or instructs his broker or other agent, to sell or transfer stock from a lot purchased or acquired on a different date or for a different price.

(3) Identification on confirmation document. (i) Where the stock is left in the custody of a broker or other agent, an adequate identification is made if—

(a) At the time of the sale or transfer, the taxpayer specifies to such broker or other agent having custody of the stock the particular stock to be sold or transferred, and

(b) Within a reasonable time thereafter, confirmation of such specification is set forth in a written document from such broker or other agent.

Stock identified pursuant to this subdivision is the stock sold or transferred by the taxpayer, even though stock certificates from a different lot are delivered to the taxpayer's transferee.

(ii) Where a single stock certificate represents stock from different lots, where such certificate is held by the taxpayer rather than his broker or other agent, and where the taxpayer sells a part of the stock represented by such certificate through a broker or other agent, an adequate identification is made if—

(a) At the time of the delivery of the certificate to the broker or other agent, the taxpayer specifies to such broker or other agent the particular stock to be sold or transferred, and

(b) Within a reasonable time thereafter, confirmation of such specification is set forth in a written document from such broker or agent.

Where part of the stock represented by a single certificate is sold or transferred directly by the taxpayer to the purchaser or transferee instead of through a broker or other agent, an adequate identification is made if the taxpayer maintains a written record of the particular stock which he intended to sell or transfer.

(4) Stock held by a trustee, executor, or administrator. Where stock is held by a trustee or by an executor or administrator of an estate (and not left in the custody of a broker or other agent), an adequate identification is made if at the time of a sale, transfer, or distribution, the trustee, executor, or administrator—

(i) Specifies in writing in the books and records of the trust or estate the particular stock to be sold, transferred, or distributed, and

(ii) In the case of a distribution, also furnishes the distributee with a written document setting forth the particular stock distributed to him.

Stock identified pursuant to this subparagraph is the stock sold, transferred, or distributed by the trust or estate, even though stock certificates from a different lot are delivered to the purchaser, transferee, or distributee.

(5) Subsequent sales. If stock identified under subparagraph (3) or (4) of this paragraph as belonging to a particular lot is sold, transferred, or distributed, the stock so identified shall be deemed to have been sold, transferred, or distributed, and such sale, transfer, or distribution will be taken into consideration in identifying the taxpayer's remaining stock for purposes of subsequent sales, transfers, or distributions.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter V—Department of the Army

Subchapter F—Personnel

PART 577—MEDICAL AND DENTAL ATTENDANCE

MEDICAL ATTENDANCE

Sections 577.1 and 577.2 are revised to read as follows:

§ 577.1 Definitions. For the purpose of the regulations in §§ 577.2 and 577.3 the following definitions apply:

(a) Medical care. The term embraces the medical examination and/or treatment of individuals by medical personnel of the Army, Navy, Air Force, other Federal agencies outside of the Department of Defense, and civilian facilities, or by civilian doctors who are legally qualified without limitation to practice medicine and surgery in the area concerned, and medical facilities of the Canal Zone Government. Such care may include the furnishing of hospitalization, nursing and ambulance service, physical examinations, immunizations, prophylactic treatments, medicines, biologicals, and other similar medical services. Prostheses, hearing aids, spectacles, orthopedic footwear, and similar adjuncts to medical care may be furnished only where such adjuncts are authorized.

(b) Army. The Army consists of:

(1) The Regular Army.

(2) The Army National Guard of the United States.

(3) The Army National Guard while in the service of the United States.

(4) The Army National Guard while performing duty or training under sections 316 and 502–505 of title 32, United States Code.

(5) The Army Reserve.

(6) All persons appointed or enlisted in or conscripted into the Army without component.

(c) Active duty. Active duty is defined as full-time duty in the active military service of the United States, including:

(1) Service on the active list.

(2) Full-time training duty.

(3) Annual training duty.

(4) Attendance (while in active military service) at a school designated by law or by the Secretary as a service school; and

(5) Full-time training or other full-time duty performed by a member of the Army National Guard under sections 316 and 502–505 of title 32, United States Code, for which the member is entitled to pay from the United States or which he has been authorized to perform without pay.

(d) Inactive duty training. Inactive duty training is defined as duty prescribed for Reserve components under section 301 of title 37, United States Code, or any other provision of law, and special additional duties authorized by the Secretary and performed by them on a voluntary basis in connection with the prescribed training or maintenance activities of the units to which they are assigned. It includes training of a member of the Army National Guard in accordance with regulations prescribed under section 502 of title 32, United States Code, for which the member is entitled to pay from the United States or which he has been authorized to perform without pay.

§ 577.2 For whom authorized and manner provided—(a) Persons entitled to medical care. The following are entitled to and will be provided medical care at the expense of Army Medical Service funds:

(1) Members of the Army.

(2) Cadets of the United States Military Academy.

(3) Members of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps of the Army during their attendance at training camps including physical examinations required and immunizations required.

(4) Applicants for enlistment or reenlistment in the Army and registrants under the Universal Military Training and Service Act limited to necessary physical and mental examinations, except as provided in subparagraphs (5) and (6) of this paragraph.

(5) Individuals listed in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph whose physical fitness for military service cannot be determined without hospital study.

(6) Individuals listed in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph except registrants under the Universal Military Training and Service Act, who suffer acute illnesses and injuries while awaiting or undergoing processing at recruiting main stations or at Armed Forces Induction and Examining Stations (limited to emergency medical care, including hospitalization).

(7) Prisoners awaiting trial by courts-martial or serving sentences as a result thereof.

(8) Prisoners of war, persons interned by the Army, and other persons in military custody or confinement.

(9) Civilian seamen in the service of vessels operated by the Department of the Army.

(10) Civilian employees of the Army will be afforded "on-the-job" medical and surgical service through the Occupational Health Service of the Army.

(11) The lawful wife or the dependent lawful husband (spouses) and children who are dependents of members of the uniformed services. For definition of the terms "uniformed services" and "member of a uniformed service" and for restrictions, see §§ 577.60 to 577.70.

(12) Retired Army members placed on the Temporary Disability Retired List who require periodic physical examinations.

(b) Priority of medical treatment facilities. (1) Medical care for personnel enumerated in paragraph (a) (1) to (10) of this section will be through the following means in order of the priority of the listings:

(i) Medical treatment facilities.

(ii) Medical treatment facilities of the Navy or Air Force where Army medical treatment facilities are not readily available or accessible.

(iii) Medical treatment facilities of Federal agencies outside the Department of Defense where facilities in paragraph (a) of this section and this paragraph are not readily available or accessible.

(iv) Civilian medical treatment facilities including civilian physicians where facilities listed in subdivisions (i), (ii) and (iii) of this subparagraph are not available.

(2) Medical care for persons enumerated in paragraph (a) (11) of this section will be provided through the following means:

(i) Medical treatment facilities of the uniformed services subject to the availability of space and facilities and the capabilities of the professional staff.

(ii) Civilian medical treatment facilities including civilian physicians and surgeons subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in §§ 577.60 to 577.70.

(3) Medical care for persons enumerated in paragraph (a) (12) of this section will be provided through the following means:

(i) Army medical treatment facilities.

(ii) Medical treatment facilities of the Navy or Air Force subject to the availability of space and facilities and the capabilities of the professional staff.

(iii) Medical treatment facilities of the Veterans' Administration upon request of the Department of the Army.

(c) Additional persons who may be afforded medical care. (1) Persons, in addition to those enumerated in paragraph (a) of this section, may be afforded medical care at Army medical treatment facilities as prescribed in pertinent Army regulations.

(2) Persons, in addition to those enumerated in paragraph (a) of this section, may be afforded medical care in uniformed services medical treatment facilities under terms and conditions as prescribed in §§ 577.60 to 577.70.

PART 3—RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

STANDARD BROADCAST STATIONS

In re applications of Albuquerque Broadcasting Company (KOB), Albuquerque, New Mexico; Docket No. 6584, File No. BMP-1738; for modification of construction permit. Albuquerque Broadcasting Company (KOB), Albuquerque, New Mexico; Docket No. 6585, File No. BL-1799, BZ-1583; for license to cover construction permit as modified and authority to determine operating power by direct measurement.

The amendment of § 3.25 of Part 3, the subject matter of which is reflected also in § 3.182 of the Commission's rules was (No. 75279), released May 9, 1944, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER May 16, 1944 (9 F. R. 5178). Pursuant to the hearing, the Commission has on this date adopted its decision (FCC 58-814) concluding that the public interest would be served through the amendment of §§ 3.25 and 3.182 to permit the assignment of an additional Class I station on the frequency 770 kilocycles. Authority for the amendments is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f) and (r), and 307 (b) and (d) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

Accordingly, it is ordered, That §§ 3.25 and 3.182 are amended, effective October 17, 1958, as follows:

1. Section 3.25 is amended by adding a new paragraph (e) and modifying paragraph (a) to make reference thereto, as follows:

(a) To each of the channels below, except as provided in paragraph (e) of this section, there will be assigned one Class I station and there may be assigned one or more Class II stations within the continental limits of the United States operating limited time or daytime only: 640, 650, 660, 670, 700, 720, 750, 760, 770, 780, 820, 830, 840, 870, 880, 890, 1020, 1040, 1100, 1120, 1160, 1180, 1200, and 1210 kc. There also may be assigned to these frequencies Class II stations operating unlimited time in Alaska, Hawaii, Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico which will not deliver over 5 microvolts per meter groundwave day or night or 25 microvolts per meter 10 percent time skywave at night at any point within the continental limits of the United States. The power of the Class I stations on these channels shall not be less than 50 kw.

* * * * *

(e) On the frequency 770 kilocycles, two Class I stations may be assigned.

2. Section 3.182 is amended by modifying paragraph (a) (1) (i) to make a reference to amended § 3.25 as follows:

(i) The Class I stations in Group I–A are those assigned to the channels allocated by § 3.25 (a), on which except to the extent therein provided, duplicate nighttime operation is not permitted, that is, no other station is permitted to operate on a channel with a Class I station of this group within the limits of the United States (the Class II stations assigned the channels operate limited time or daytime only), and during daytime the Class station is protected to the 100 uv/m groundwave contour. Protection is given this class of station to the 500 uv/m groundwave contour from adjacent channel stations for both day and nighttime operations. The power of each such Class I station shall not be less than 50 kw.

3. Section 3.182 is further amended by adding to the Table in paragraph (r) the following note:

NOTE: See, however, § 3.25 with reference to the frequency 770 kilocycles.

PART 3—RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS, TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS (PITTSBURGH, PENNSYLVANIA)

1. The Commission has before it for consideration the proposal set out in its notice of proposed rule making (FCC 58-684) released on July 18, 1958, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on July 23, 1958 (23 F. R. 5582) in response to a petition filed by Metropolitan Pittsburgh Educational Station, licensee of educational television Station WQED, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. The proposal was to change the educational reservation from Channel 22 to Channel 16 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.[1] In the same notice the Commission ordered Telecasting, Inc., to show cause why its outstanding authorization for station WENS in Pittsburgh should not be modified to specify Channel 22 in lieu of Channel 16 at Pittsburgh.

2. No comments were filed in opposition to the proposed change. In response to the order to show cause, Telecasting, Inc., stated that its consents to the proposed shift in its frequency assignment but requested that the change in reservation from Channel 22 to Channel 16 and the modification of its authorization from Channel 16 to Channel 22 be made contingent one upon the other and to take effect on the 31st day following public notification thereof.

4. The Commission is of the view that adoption of the proposed change in educational reservation would serve the public interest and should be adopted. In view of the fact that Channel 16 was in operation for a period of three years and a large number of receivers are presently equipped for reception of that channel, the change made herein will provide an existing potential audience for the educational station and will thereby encourage the early inauguration of this additional educational service in Pittsburgh. The action taken herein makes it necessary to modify the outstanding construction permit held by Telecasting, Inc. for WENS, to specify Channel 22 in lieu of Channel 16.

5. Authority for the adoption of the amendment herein is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f), (r) and 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

6. In view of the foregoing: It is ordered, That effective October 10, 1958, the Table of Assignments contained in § 2.606 of the Commission's rules and regulations is amended, insofar as the community named below is concerned, as follows:

City	Channel No.
Pittsburgh, Pa.	2—, 4+, 11, *13—, *16, 22, 53+, 73—[2]

7. It is further ordered, That effective October 10, 1958, pursuant to sections 303 (f) and 316 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the construction permit for WENS, Channel 16, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, is modified, to specify Channel 22 in lieu of Channel 16.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interprets or applies secs. 301, 303, 307, 48 Stat. 1081, 1082, 1083; 47 U. S. C. 301, 303, 307)

Adopted: September 4, 1958.

Released: September 8, 1958.

PART 16—LAND TRANSPORTATION RADIO SERVICES

PERMISSIBLE SCOPE OF COOPERATIVE USE OF FACILITIES

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 4th day of September 1958;

The Commission having under consideration amendment of Part 16 of its rules governing the Land Transportation Radio Services to revise and clarify the permissible scope of cooperative use of facilities in these services by providing a clear description of what is to be considered a rendition of a private radiocommunications service, excluding therefrom the installation, by a licensee in the Railroad Radio Service and the Automobile Emergency Radio Service, of his mobile units in the vehicles of persons performing certain services under contract for the station licensee, and to prescribe the conditions under which a private radiocommunications service to other persons may be rendered by a licensee in these services; and

It appearing that the Commission on September 5, 1957, adopted a notice of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on September 13, 1957 (22 F. R. 7342) and adopted a further notice of proposed rule making in this matter on July 2, 1958, which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on July 11, 1958 (23 F. R. 5275) in accordance with section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act; and

It further appearing that the period in which interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit comments with respect thereto has expired; and

It further appearing that comments in support of the Commission's proposals contained in the further notice of proposed rule making, above-described, have been received from the American Automobile Association, Inc., the American Trucking Associations, Inc., and the Association of American Railroads, and that no comments in opposition thereto have been received; and

It further appearing that the public interest, convenience and necessity will be served by the amendments herein ordered, and that authority therefor is contained in sections 4 (i) and 303 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended;

It is ordered, That effective October 15, 1958, Part 16 of the Commission's rules governing the Land Transportation Radio Services is amended as set forth below.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interpret or apply sec. 303, 48 Stat. 1082, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 303)

Released: September 8, 1958.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS,
Secretary.

1. Amend § 16.3 to read as follows:

§ 16.3 Arrangements for cooperative use of facilities. For the purposes of this part, the use of facilities licensed under this part for the transmission or reception of any communication which relates solely to the conduct of the activity or activities of a person other than the licensee of those facilities is defined as the rendition of a private radiocommunication service to such other person by the licensee. The installation and use of mobile units, operated under the licensee's station authorization, in the vehicles of other persons furnishing the licensee, under contract, services or facilities within the purview of the established scope of the service in which the station is authorized, in accordance with the provisions of §§ 16.357 and 16.506, shall not be considered the rendition of a private radiocommunication service when the communications involved relate solely to the furnishing of such services or facilities to the licensee. Except for emergency communications, or except for authorized communications relating to civil defense, any rendition of a private radiocommunication service by a station in the Land Transportation Radio Services shall be governed by the following:

(a) The licensee of a base station may render a private radiocommunication service to the licensee(s) of a mobile station or stations in the Land Transportation Radio Services, without specific advance approval by the Commission, upon satisfaction of the following conditions:

(1) The frequency upon which the base station is operated shall be one which would be available for assignment to base stations for use in connection with all of the transportation activities involved.

(2) The rendition of the radiocommunication service shall be on a cost-sharing or no-charge basis, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (e) of this section.

(3) The licensee of the base station shall maintain exclusive control over the operation of the base station; however, he may provide dispatch points (but not control points) for the use of the licensee of the mobile station.

(4) Except upon specific authorization by the Commission, the licensee of a base station shall not serve a greater number of mobile units of any other person than the number of mobile units of the licensee served by the same base station.

(b) The licensee of a base station may install mobile units, operated under an authorization held by him, in the vehicles of other persons who are separately engaged in transportation activities and may render a private radiocommunication service to the vehicles in which those mobile units are installed only upon specific advance approval by the Commission with respect to every person to whom such radiocommunication service is to be rendered and upon satisfaction of the following additional conditions:

(1) The frequency or frequencies upon which the base and mobile station(s) are operated shall be one(s) which would be available for assignment to base and mobile stations, respectively, for use in connection with all of the transportation activities involved.

(2) The rendition of the radiocommunication service shall be on a cost-sharing or no-charge basis, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (e) of this section.

(3) The licensee of the base and mobile station(s) shall maintain exclusive control over the operation of the base and mobile station(s); however, he may provide dispatch points (but not control points) for the use of the persons receiving the radiocommunication service. In order to maintain such control, each person in whose vehicles the mobile units of the licensee are proposed to be installed shall enter into a written agreement verifying that the licensee has the sole right of control of the mobile radio units, that the vehicle operators shall operate the radio units subject to the orders and instructions of the base station operator and that the licensee shall at all times have such access to and control of the mobile equipment as will enable him to carry out his responsibilities under the license. A copy of the agreement with vehicle owners required hereby shall be kept with the station records and held available for inspection by Commission representatives but need not be submitted to the Commission unless specifically requested in a particular case.

(4) Except upon specific authorization by the Commission, the licensee of a base station shall not serve a greater number of mobile units of any other person than the number of mobile units of the licensee served by the same base station.

(c) A licensee authorized under the provisions of the various subparts of this part which make eligible in certain of these services a non-profit corporation or association organized for the purpose of furnishing a private radiocommunication service to persons engaged in the respective activities may render that communication service only upon specific advance approval by the Commission with respect to every person to whom such radiocommunication service is to be rendered and upon satisfaction of the following additional conditions:

(1) The frequency or frequencies upon which the base and mobile station(s) are operated shall be one(s) which would be available for use in connection with all of the transportation activities involved.

(2) The rendition of the radiocommunication service shall be on a cost-sharing or no-charge basis, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (e) of this section.

(3) The licensee of the base and mobile station(s) shall maintain exclusive control over the operation of the base and mobile station(s) involved; however, he may provide dispatch points for the use of persons receiving the radiocommunication service. Control points may be provided only upon receiving the prior approval of the Commission in each case.

(d) Authority may be granted for the licensee of an operational fixed station or stations in one of the Land Transportation Radio Services to render a private radiocommunication service to specific other persons engaged in transportation activities, when the frequency or frequencies upon which such operational fixed station(s) are operated are ones which are available for assignment to operational fixed stations for use in connection with all of the transportation activities involved; however, such authority will be granted only on an individual and case-by-case basis at the discretion of the Commission pending further development of its microwave program. The rendition of such radiocommunication service, when authorized, shall be on a cost-sharing or no-charge basis, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (e) of this section and each person who is to receive such radiocommunication service shall be named in the station authorization.

(e) All arrangements for the rendition of a private radiocommunication service in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraphs of this section shal be either on a no-charge basis or on a non-profit, cost-sharing basis pursuant to a written contract between the parties concerned. Such contract shall clearly establish that the licensee has full access to and exclusive control over the radio equipment operated under the authority of the license held by him; and that contributions to capital and operating expenses are accepted only on a cost-sharing, non-profit basis, said costs to be prorated on an equitable basis among all persons who are parties to the arrangement. Records which reflect the cost of the service and its non-profit, cost-sharing nature shall be maintained by the base (or fixed) station licensee and held available for inspection by Commission representatives.

(f) In order to comply with the requirement of specific advance approval contained in paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of this section, a licensee proposing to render a private radiocommunication service to any other person (other than to render base station service to the licensee of a mobile station) shall make application for authority to render that service with respect to each base or fixed station involved, naming each person who is to receive service and including a description of the kind and extent of the transportation activity in which each is engaged. When the radiocommunication service is to be rendered on a regular basis, the requests for such authority shall be made on FCC Form 400; however, if the service is to be rendered on an irregular or temporary basis, the request may be in the manner provided for in § 16.53. Upon approval of the request, the Commission will designate the persons to whom service may be rendered on the station authorization or in the special temporary authority which shall be kept with the station records.

2. Amend § 16.58 (f) to read as follows:

(f) Lists of those persons to whom the applicant proposes to provide a private radiocommunication service, when prior advance approval with respect to those persons is required in accordance with the provisions of § 16.3, together with a description of the kind and extent of the transportation activity in which each is engaged.

3. Amend § 16.251 (a) (5) to read as follows:

(5) A non-profit corporation or association organized for the purpose of furnishing a radiocommunication service on a cost-sharing basis to persons all of whom are actually engaged in activities set forth in the preceding subparagraphs of this paragraph: Provided, That the frequency on which such operation is proposed is available for assignment for use by base stations or mobile stations in connection with all such transportation activities.

4. Amend paragraph (b) of § 16.301 to read as follows:

(b) In addition to the provisions of § 16.3, a licensee of a base station in this service may install mobile units licensed to him in the vehicles of other persons furnishing to the licensee, under contract, a facility or service within the purview of paragraph (a) of this section: Provided, That the communications involved are exclusively in connection with such facility or service: And provided further, That in each case the licensee and such other person shall comply with the agreement requirements set forth in § 16.3 (b) (3).

5. Amend Subpart K, Automobile Emergency Radio Service, by the addition of the following new section:

§ 16.506 Contract road service vehicles. In addition to the provisions of § 16.3, an association of owners of private automobiles which is licensee of a base station and associated mobile units in this service may install mobile units operated under its license in the vehicles of other persons furnishing a private emergency road service to its members pursuant to a contract with the association: Provided, That the communications involved are exclusively in connection with such service: And provided further, That in each case the licensee and such other person shall comply with the agreement requirements set forth in § 16.3 (b) (3).

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT

[39 CFR Part 35]

PHILATELIC STAMPS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULEMAKING

The Department proposes to establish a system of fees to cover the cost of handling mail orders for philatelic stamps. Accordingly, it is proposed to amend Title 39, Chapter I, Code of Federal Regulations, as follows:

The proposed regulation relates to a proprietary function of Government, and hence is exempt from the rulemaking requirements of 5 U. S. C. 1003. However, the Postmaster General desires to voluntarily observe the requirements in this case, so that patrons may have an opportunity to present written views concerning the proposed regulation. Consideration will be given the proposed regulation in the light of such views as may be received. Comments may be submitted to Mr. J. Harold Marks, Finance Officer, Bureau of Finance, Room 5216, Post Office Department, Washington 25, D. C., at any time prior to October 15, 1958.

In § 35.1 The Philatelic Agency, amend paragraph (c) to read as follows:

(c) Order for stamps. All stamps are for sale at face value, plus postage and handling charges listed below, for mail orders where domestic rates apply:

1 to 40 stamps	$0.05
41 to 400 stamps	.10
401 to 1,000 stamps	.20
1,001 to 2,000 stamps	.40
2,001 to 5,000 stamps	.70
5,001 to 10,000 stamps	1.20
10,001 to 35,000 stamps	3.00
Over 35,000 stamps	5.00

A flat charge of 50 cents will be made on each order for registration regardless of value where this protection is desired. All mail orders will be returned by official permit mail, and postage stamps will not be affixed to covering envelopes. Address your order to Philatelic Sales Agency, Post Office Department, Washington 25, D. C.

NOTE: The corresponding Postal Manual section 145.13.

Basis and purpose. Notice is hereby given that pursuant to authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior by the act of March 3, 1909 (35 Stat. 781-783; 25 U. S. C. 396), it is proposed to amend 25 CFR 172.5 as set forth below. The purpose of the amendment is to include provisions in the regulation for the execution of mining leases on behalf of the unknown owners of future contingent interests, including remainders and possibility of reverter, and to authorize Superintendents of Indian reservations to execute such instruments.

This proposed amendment relates to matters which are exempt from the rule making requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003); however, it is the policy of the Department of the Interior that, wherever practicable, the rule making requirements be observed voluntarily. Accordingly, interested persons may submit, in triplicate, written comments, suggestions, or objections with respect to the proposed amendments to the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Washington 25, D. C., within thirty days of the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

ROGER ERNST, Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

SEPTEMBER 5, 1958.

The headnote and present text of § 172.5 are amended to read as follows:

§ 172.5 Execution of leases by Superintendents. The Superintendent shall execute leases on behalf of unknown owners of future contingent interests, and on behalf of minors and persons who are incompetent by reason of mental incapacity.

UPPER SOURIS NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, NORTH DAKOTA

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

SEPTEMBER 5, 1958.

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the authority contained in section 10 of the Migratory Bird Conservation Act of February 18, 1929 (45 Stat. 1224; 16 U. S. C. 715i) as amended, and under authority delegated by Commissioner's Order 4 (22 F. R. 8126); it is proposed to add §§ 33.321 and 33.322 to Subpart—Upper Souris National Wildlife Refuge, North Dakota, Chapter I, Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, as set forth in tentative form below. The purpose of the proposed regulations is to permit fishing and boating on certain parts of the Upper Souris National Wildlife Refuge under certain limitations and subject to compliance with the laws and regulations of the State of North Dakota.

The proposed regulations relate to matters which are exempt from the rule making requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003); however, it is the policy of the Department of the Interior that, wherever practicable, the rule making requirements be observed voluntarily. Accordingly, interested persons may submit in duplicate written comments, suggestions, or objections with respect to the proposed regulations to the Director, Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, Washington 25, D. C., within thirty days of the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

D. H. JANZEN, Director, Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife.

§ 33.321 Fishing permitted. Noncommercial fishing is permitted during the daylight hours in the hereafter described fishing areas, subject to all conditions and restrictions specified in Parts 18 and 21 of this chapter and to the following provisions:

(a) Strict compliance with all applicable State and Federal laws and regulations is required.

(b) Fishing is permitted in the following described fishing areas:

Area I. The Souris River channel beginning at the north boundary of the refuge extending south to the Mouse River Park in secs. 33 and 34, T. 162 N., R. 86 W., and secs. 2, 3, and 4 in T. 161 N., R. 86 W.

Area II. The waters of Lake Darling lying between the Grano Crossing and the Soo Line Railroad crossing in secs. 2, 3, 4, 10, and 11, T. 159 N., R. 85 W., and in secs. 29, 30, 32, 33, and 34, T. 160 N., R. 85 W.

Area III. The waters of Lake Darling north of Dam No. 83 in sec. 6, T. 157 N., R. 84 W., sec. 1, T. 157 N., R. 85 W., secs. 20, 21, 28, 29, 30, 31, and 32, T. 158 N., R. 84 W., and sec. 36, T. 158 N., R. 85 W., except within 200 feet of the outlet gate on Dam No. 83.

Area IV. The waters adjacent to the east bank of the Souris River south of Dam No. 83 within the W½NW¼ of sec. 6, T. 157 N., R. 84 W.

Area V. The waters adjacent to the county parking lot on the south bank of the river between the Baker Bridge and the curve in the road in sec. 34, T. 157 N., R. 84 W.

Area VI. The waters adjacent to the south bank of the Souris River north of State Highway No. 5 and west of the highway bridge in the SW¼SW¼ sec. 13 and the SE¼SE¼ sec. 14, T. 161 N., R. 86 W.

Area VII. The waters adjacent to St. Mary's Bridge on the road right-of-way in the SE¼SW¼ of sec. 21, T. 157 N., R. 84 W.

Area VIII. The two ponds north of the Grano Grossing and west of Lake Darling in the NE¼ sec. 10, and the S½ sec. 3, T. 159 N., R. 85 W.

(c) Fishing is prohibited from the east shoreline of Fishing Areas II and III and from any dam or dike or within 200 feet of any spillway or water control structure.

(d) Fishing is permitted in Fishing Areas I through VII, inclusive, from the second Saturday in May, or such later date as may be established by the laws and regulations of North Dakota for the opening of the fishing season to September 15, inclusive.

(e) Fishing in Area VIII is permitted from the second Saturday in June or such later date as may be established for the taking of bass by the laws and regulations of North Dakota to September 15, inclusive.

(f) Fishing is permitted on all fishing areas and on other areas designated by suitable posting by the officer in charge from December 15 to March 15, inclusive, or such shorter season as may be prescribed for winter fishing by North Dakota.

(g) No person, while on any part of the refuge north of Lake Darling Dam (No. 83), shall use for bait any minnows, fish, or parts thereof, either alive or pickled, nor have in his possession any minnows, or any seine or net that may be used for taking minnows.

§ 33.322 Use of boats. The use of boats is permitted only for the purpose of fishing in Fishing Areas I, II, and III as described in § 33.321. Persons may use one outboard motor not to exceed 7½ horsepower on each such boat. The use of racing craft, hydroplanes, air-thrust craft, or inboard motors is prohibited. Boats may be launched and landed only at designated launching areas on Fishing Areas I, II, and III.

IMPORTED MEAT, MEAT FOOD PRODUCTS, AND MEAT BYPRODUCTS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given in accordance with section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003 (a)) that the Department of Agriculture is considering amending § 27.2 of the Federal Meat Inspection Regulations (9 CFR 27.2 as amended) issued under section 306 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U. S. C. 1306) by adding the Republic of Panama to the list of countries specified therein from which certain product (meat, meat food product, and meat byproduct) may be imported into the United States as provided in said regulations.

Any person who wishes to submit written data, views, or arguments concerning the proposed amendment may do so by filing them with the Director of the Meat Inspection Division, Agricultural Research Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., within thirty days after the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Done at Washington, D. C. this 8th day of September 1958.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[47 CFR Part 3]

[Docket No. 12591; FCC 58-843]

RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

TELEVISION BROADCAST STATION, MEDFORD, OREG.

In the matter of amendment of § 3.606 Table of assignments, Television Broadcast Stations, Medford, Oregon; Docket No. 12591.

1. Notice is hereby given that the Commission has received a proposal for rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. The Commission has before it for consideration a petition filed on June 2, 1958 by TOT Industries, Inc., prospective applicant for a new television broadcast station in Medford, Oregon, requesting an amendment of § 3.606 Table of assignments, Television Broadcast Stations so as to add Channel 10 to Medford, Oregon as follows:

City	Channel No.
	Present	Proposed
Medford, Oreg.	5	[1] 5, 10

[1] Petitioner has proposed the assignment of channel 10 even; however, we are of the view that channel 10 plus would be a more efficient assignment.

3. In support of the request petitioner submits that Medford has a population of 17,305 and nearby Ashland has a population of 7,739 and that Medford is the largest city in Southern Oregon. It urges that this important and fast growing area warrants the assignment of a second VHF channel; that the proposal conforms to all the rules; and that it would make possible a second VHF television service without any adverse affect on any other stations or channel assignment.

4. The Commission is of the view that a rule making proceeding should be instituted in this matter in order that interested parties may submit their views and relevant data.

5. Authority for the adoption of the proposed amendment is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f) and (r), and 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

6. Any interested party who is of the view that the proposed amendment should not be adopted, or should not be adopted in the form set forth herein, may file with the Commission on or before October 10, 1958, a written statement setting forth his comments. Comments supporting the proposed amendments may be also filed on or before the same date. Comments in reply to original comments may be filed within 10 days from the last date for filing said original comments. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission or (2) good cause for the filing of such additional comments is established.

7. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.54 of the rules, an original and 14 copies of all written comments shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: September 4, 1958.

Released: September 8, 1958.

[47 CFR Parts 7, 8]

STATIONS ON LAND AND SHIPBOARD IN MARITIME SERVICES

FREQUENCY PAIR ASSIGNMENTS; COOS BAY AND ASTORIA-PORTLAND, OREG.

In the matter of amendment of Parts 7 and 8 of the Commission's rules to make the frequency pair 2566 kc (coast)-2031.5 kc (ship) available for assignment in the vicinity of Coos Bay, Oregon and to delete from availability for assignment the frequency pair 2566 kc (coast)-2009 kc (ship) in the vicinity of Astoria-Portland, Oregon; Docket No. 12592.

1. Notice is hereby given of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter. The amendments proposed to be adopted are set forth below.

2. This proposal is being issued in response to a petition to amend Parts 7 and 8 of the Commission's rules, filed June 16, 1958, by the West Coast Telephone Company, Everett, Washington. Petitioner requested that the rules be amended so as to make available for assignment the frequency pair 2566 kc (coast)-2031.5 kc (ship) for public ship-shore communication in the vicinity of Coos Bay, Oregon, during the hours 7 a. m. to 7 p. m., Pacific standard time only. The petitioner also has on file a related application for construction permit for a public class II-B coast station to be located at Empire, Oregon.

3. The frequency pair 2566 kc (coast)-2009 kc (ship) is now available for assignment, under the Commission's rules, for use as a second channel during the hours 7 a. m. to 7 p. m., Pacific standard time only, to public coast stations in the Astoria-Portland, Oregon, area and to ship stations for co... cation with such coast stations. ... ever, no actual assignments of these ... quencies have been requested for ... in that area, although they have been ... available under the Commission's ... for several years.

4. The instant proposal would change the area of availability for use of the ... quency 2566 kc (coast) from Astoria-Portland, Oregon, to Coos Bay, Oregon, and substitute the ship frequency 2031.5 kc for the associated ship frequency 2009 kc. The change in ship frequency becomes necessary since Coos Bay is considerably nearer to the Eureka-San Francisco, California, area where the ship frequency 2003 kc is received. If 2009 kc were made available at Coos Bay, harmful interference could be caused under certain conditions to use of the ship frequency 2003 kc for public telephone service since it is only 6 kc removed from 2009 kc. In summary, this proposal would make available for assignment the frequency pair 2566 kc (coast)-2031.5 kc (ship) during the hours 7 a. m. to 7 p. m., Pacific Standard Time only, for service via shore facilities in the vicinity of Coos Bay, Oregon, and simultaneously would delete the frequency pair 2566 kc (coast)-2009 kc (ship) from availability for assignment in the Astoria-Portland area.

5. It is stated in the petition that a substantial number of ocean-going vessels used the Coos Bay harbor in 1957 and that it is expected that approximately 600 commercial fishing boats and numerous pleasure craft, many of which have radio facilities, will use the harbor during the 1958 season. Petitioner notes that maritime mobile service is being offered by public coast stations at San Francisco and Eureka, California, Astoria and Portland, Oregon, and Seattle, Washington, but stated that the volume of traffic handled by these stations and landline charges between such stations and the Coos Bay area has the effect of rendering the important Coos Bay port an isolated area as far as maritime radio service is concerned. The petitioner presumably refers to public ship-shore telephone service of a regional nature.

6. It is believed that the proposed rule amendment would provide for more effective utilization of available maritime frequencies in the public interest, in that it would make a frequency pair available for direct service to an area which apparently is not now covered under the present frequency allocation plan.

7. This proposal is issued under the authority contained in section 303 (c) (d) (f) and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

8. Any interested person who is of the opinion that the proposed amendments should not be adopted or should not be adopted in the form set forth herein, may file with the Commission on or before October 13, 1958, written data, views or briefs setting forth his comments. Comments in support of the proposed amendments may also be filed on or before the same date. Comments in reply to the original comments may be filed within ten days from the last day for filing said original data, views or briefs. The Commission will consider all such comments prior to taking final action in this matter.

9. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.54 of the Commission's rules, an original and fourteen copies of all statements, briefs or comments filed shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: September 4, 1958.

Released: September 8, 1958.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS,
Secretary.

A. Part 7 is amended as follows:

1. In § 7.306 (b), that portion of the frequency table which lists Astoria-Portland, Oregon, is amended by deleting the frequency pair 2566 kc (coast)-2009 kc (ship). As amended, that portion of the frequency table reads as follows:

Astoria-Portland, Oreg.	2506	None	2206	None.

2. In § 7.306 (b), the frequency table, after the entry Astoria-Portland, Oregon, add a new location and frequencies as follows:

Coos Bay, Oreg.	2566	7 a. m. to 7 p. m. P. s. t. only.	2031.5	7 a. m. to 7 p. m. P. s. t. only.

B. Part 8 is amended as follows:

1. In § 8.354 (a) (1), that portion of the frequency table which lists Astoria-Portland, Oregon, is amended by deleting the frequency pair 2009 kc (ship)—2566 kc (coast). As amended, that portion of the frequency table reads as follows:

Astoria-Portland, Oreg.	2206	None	2506	None.

2. In § 8.354 (a) (1), the frequency table, after the entry Astoria-Portland, Oregon, add a new location and frequencies as follows:

Coos Bay, Oreg.	2031.5	7 a. m. to 7 p. m. P. s. t. only.	2566	7 a. m. to 7 p. m. P. s. t. only.

ORDER PROVIDING FOR RESTORATION OF PUBLIC LANDS

SEPTEMBER 3, 1958.

Pursuant to an order of the Federal Power Commission issued April 29, 1958, and in accordance with Order No. 541, § 2.5, Part II, of the Director of the Bureau of Land Management, approved April 21, 1954, it is ordered as follows:

1. Subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals, the lands hereinafter described, so far as they are withdrawn and reserved for power purposes under the provisions of section 24 of the Federal Power Act, pursuant to the filing of application for license for Project No. 1908, are hereby restored to their original status.

WILLAMETTE MERIDIAN, OREGON

T. 13 S., R. 9 E.,
Sec. 3: SE¼NE¼—40 acres.

2. The above-described land was included in the Cascade Range Forest Reserve, presently known as Deschutes National Forest, on October 28, 1893, and was withdrawn for Ranger Station 26 on November 17, 1906. The land is not subject to the provisions of the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284), as amended, granting certain benefits in connection with public lands to veterans of World War II and of the Korean Conflict, nor is it open to prospecting, location, and entry under the mining laws.

3. The lands above described shall be subject to application by the State of Oregon for a period of 90 days from the date of publication of this order, for right-of-way for public highways, or as a source of material for construction and maintenance of such highways.

4. Inquiries concerning the land should be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, 809 N. E. Sixth Avenue, Portland 12, Oregon.

ELTON M. HATTAN,
Lands and Minerals Officer.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED WITHDRAWAL AND RESERVATION OF LANDS

SEPTEMBER 5, 1958.

The U. S. Atomic Energy Commission has filed an application, Serial No. U-011026, for the withdrawal of the lands described below from all forms of appropriation under the public land laws, including the mining laws and the Materials Act of July 31, 1947, but not the mineral leasing laws. The land is to be under the exclusive jurisdiction of the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission.

The applicant desires the withdrawal of these lands for the purpose of maintaining an area for the stockpiling of uranium ores.

For a period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice, persons having cause may present their objections or comments in writing to the State Supervisor for Utah, Bureau of Land Management, Federal Building, P. O. Box 777, Salt Lake City 10, Utah. If any objections are filed and the nature of the opposition is such as to warrant it, a public hearing will be held at a convenient time and place, which will be announced, where opponents to the proposed withdrawal may state their views, and where proponents may explain its purpose.

The determination of the Secretary on the application will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, either in the form of a public land order or in the form of a notice of determination if the application is rejected. In either case, a separate notice will be sent to each interested party of record.

The lands involved in the application are:

SALT LAKE MERIDIAN

Unsurveyed: Beginning at a point marked by a brass cap set in concrete and scribed "AEC 1957 SW Cor" which point is located North 4,620 feet and West 330 feet from the Northwest corner of Section 16, T. 35 S., R. 15 E.; thence North 1,980 feet to a brass cap set in concrete scribed "AEC 1957 NW Cor"; thence East 2,310 feet to a brass cap set in concrete scribed "AEC 1957 NE Cor"; thence South 1,980 feet to a brass cap set in concrete scribed "AEC 1957 SE Cor"; thence West 2,310 feet to the point of beginning, being an unsurveyed area which, if surveyed, would be described approximately as follows:

NOTICE OF PROPOSED WITHDRAWAL AND RESERVATION OF LANDS

SEPTEMBER 5, 1958.

The Fish and Wildlife Service Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, U. S. Department of the Interior, has filed an application, Serial No. M-014802, for the withdrawal of the lands described below, from all forms of appropriation under the public land laws, including the mining but not the mineral leasing laws. The applicant desires the land be reserved in public ownership under the provisions of the Act of March 10, 1934 (48 Stat. 401), as amended by the Act of August 14, 1946 (60 Stat. 1080). The land will be administered under cooperative agreement by the Montana Department of Fish and Game as a portion of the Sun River Game Range, and the land will be used for wildlife conservation and management purposes.

The Bureau of Land Management will continue to administer the grazing and other surface resources on the public lands until such time as the State of Montana has acquired the intermingled privately-owned lands in the proposed game range area.

For a period of thirty days from the date of publication of this notice, all persons who wish to submit comments, suggestions, or objections in connection with the proposed withdrawal may present their views in writing to the undersigned officer of the Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior, 1245 North 29th Street, Billings, Montana.

If circumstances warrant it, a public hearing will be held at a convenient time and place, which will be announced.

The determination of the Secretary on the application will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. A separate notice will be sent to each interested party of record.

STATEMENT OF ORGANIZATION, DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY, AND OTHER INFORMATION

TRANSFER OF LICENSING AND REGULATORY FUNCTIONS

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 4th day of September, 1958;

The Commission having under consideration the desirability of transferring to and unifying within the Broadcast Bureau the licensing and regulatory functions with respect to international broadcasting presently assigned to the Office of the Chief Engineer as well as to the Office of the General Counsel; and

It appearing that the relevant portion of section 0.111 (h) of the Commission's Statement of Organization assigns to the Office of the General Counsel authority to perform all legal functions with respect to international broadcasting; and that the relevant portion of section 0.121 (f) of the Statement of Organization assigns to the Office of the Chief Engineer all engineering functions [illegible] respect to international broadcasting; and

It further appearing that the consolidation of the licensing and regulatory functions of the Commission for international broadcast stations set forth in the parts of sections 0.111 and 0.121, referred to above, and their transfer to the Broadcast Bureau, will best conduce to the proper and expeditious dispatch of the Commission's business and that such a modification of the Statement of Organization would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing, that sections 0.11, and 0.14 of the Commission's Statement of Organization specifically exclude the Broadcast Bureau and its Broadcast Facilities Division from the licensing and regulation of international broadcast stations; and

It further appearing that sections 0.241 and 0.331 (a) (1) & (2) of the Commission's Delegations of Authority should be amended to transfer those powers now delegated to the Chief Engineer to the Chief of the Broadcast Bureau; and

It further appearing that the amendments herein ordered modify only rules of agency organization and that, therefore, notice of rule making is not required and the amendments may be made effective immediately;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to the authority of sections 4 (i), 5 (d) and 303 (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, sections 0.11, 0.14, 0.111 (h), 0.121 (f), 0.241 and 0.331 (a) (1) & (2) of the Commission's Statement of Organization and Delegation of Authority are amended effective September 4, 1958, as set forth below.

Released: September 8, 1958.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS,
Secretary.

1. Section 0.111 (h) is amended by deleting the words "international broadcasting stations," to read as follows:

(h) To perform all legal functions with respect to experimental operations under Part 5 of the Commission's rules; the operation of restricted radiation devices under Parts 15 and 18 of the rules; and type approval and type acceptance of radio equipment.

2. Section 0.121 (f) is amended by deleting the words "international broadcasting stations," to read as follows:

(f) To perform all engineering functions with respect to experimental operation under Part 5 of the Commission's rules; the operation of restricted radiation devices under Parts 15 and 18 of the rules; and type approval and type acceptance of radio equipment.

3. Section 0.11 is amended by deleting the words "except the international broadcast services" to read as follows in the opening paragraph:

SEC. 0.11 Functions of the Bureau. The Broadcast Bureau assists, advises, and makes recommendations to the Commission with respect to the development of a regulatory program for the broadcast services and is responsible for the performance of any work, function, or activities to carry out that program in accordance with applicable statutes, international agreements, rules and regulations, and policies of the Commission. The Bureau performs the following functions:

4. Section 0.14 is amended by adding the word "international," to read as follows:

SEC. 0.14 Broadcast Facilities Division. The Broadcast Facilities Division is responsible for all functions indicated in the statement contained in section 0.11, insofar as such functions pertain to standard (AM), FM, television, international, experimental, and auxiliary broadcast services, excluding functions stated in sections 0.15, 0.16, and 0.17.

5. The introductory paragraph of section 0.241 is amended by deleting the words "except the international broadcast services" to read as follows:

SEC. 0.241 Matters delegated. The Chief of the Broadcast Bureau, or in his absence, the Acting Chief, is delegated authority to act upon applications, requests, and other matters which are not in hearing status, relating to broadcast services as follows:

6. Section 0.241 is further amended by the addition of a new paragraph (s) to read as follows:

(s) With respect to International Broadcasting, to act upon requests for the use of frequencies and frequency hours for transmissions to specific target areas subject to the conditions set forth in the Commission's rules governing International Broadcast Stations.

7. Paragraph (a) of section 0.331, concerning the Commission's Delegations of Authority to the Chief Engineer with regard to International Broadcasting, is deleted in toto, and paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) are redesignated (a), (b), and (c).

CITIES SERVICE OIL CO.

ORDER FOR HEARING AND SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

SEPTEMBER 5, 1958.

Cities Service Oil Company (Cities Service) on August 6, 1958, tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule for the sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate and charge, is contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notice of Change, dated August 4, 1958.

Purchaser: Kansas-Nebraska Natural Gas Company, Inc.

Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 6 to Cities Service's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 121.

Effective date: October 1, 1958 (effective date is the effective date proposed by Cities Service).

In support of the proposed periodic rate increase, Cities Service refers to the contract price provision and states that the proposed increase brings into being the price which was negotiated at arms' length, that the annual increase method of pricing was chosen instead of charging an average price and it would be unfair to deny the seller the agreed increased price during the latter part of the contract life after the seller had delivered at the lower rate during the earlier portion, and that the proposed price is not unreasonable and is lower than the present market price for equivalent gas.

The increased rate and charge so proposed has not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, Supplement No. 6 to Cities Service's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 121 be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge contained in Supplement No. 6 to Cities Service's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 121.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplement be and it is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until March 1, 1959, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplement hereby suspended nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

By the Commission (Commissioner Hussey dissenting).

[Docket No. G-16124]

HAYNES B. OWNBY DRILLING CO.

ORDER FOR HEARING AND SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

SEPTEMBER 5, 1958.

Haynes B. Ownby Drilling Company (Ownby) on August 7, 1958, tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule [1] for the sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate and charge, is contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notice of Change, dated August 4, 1958.

Purchaser: Texas Illinois Natural Gas Pipeline Company.

Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 7 to Ownby's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1.

Effective date: September 7, 1958 (effective date is the first day after expiration of the required thirty days' notice).

In support of the proposed redetermined rate increase, Ownby submits a copy of a letter from Texas Illinois Natural Gas Pipeline Company informing it that the price has been redetermined to be a base price of 16.99¢ per Mcf plus tax reimbursement. Ownby has signed the letter in agreement. Ownby states that the increase should be granted because other producers in the area are getting more for their gas as indicated by the fact that the redetermined price is based on an average of the prices and it would be unfair for Ownby to receive a lower price.

The increased rate and charge so proposed has not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that Supplement No. 7 to Ownby's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1 be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge contained in Supplement No. 7 to Ownby's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplement be and it is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until February 7, 1959, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplement hereby suspended nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

By the Commission (Commissioner Hussey dissenting).

[SEAL] JOSEPH H. GUTRIDE, Secretary.

[F. R. Doc. 58-7374; Filed, Sept. 10, 1958; 8:48 a. m.]

[1] A previous increase was suspended in Docket No. G-11540 until May 2, 1957, but motion to place the suspended rate into effect subject to refund was never filed by Ownby.

BAYOU OIL CO. ET AL.

ORDER FOR HEARING AND SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

SEPTEMBER 8, 1958.

Bayou Oil Company et al. (Bayou) on August 8, 1958,[1] tendered for filing proposed changes in its presently filed schedules for the sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed changes, which constitute increased rates and charges, are contained in the following designated filings:

Description: Notices of change, August 6, 1956.

Purchaser: Phillips Petroleum Company.

Rate schedule designations: Supplement No. 5 to Bayou's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1. Supplement No. 7 to Bayou's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 2.

Effective date: September 8, 1958 (effective date is the first day after expiration of the required 30-days' notice and applies to both tenders).

In support of the revenue-sharing increases, Bayou cites the contract provisions and states that the proposed increased rate is less than the average price currently being paid in the fields involved. Bayou states further that the rate proposed will not operate to increase the ultimate consumers' rates. The proposed incremental increases in rates are predicated upon determinations yet to be made by the Commission.[2]

The increased rates and charges as proposed have not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed changes, and that Supplement No. 5 to Bayou's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1 and Supplement No. 7 to Bayou's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 2 be suspended and the use deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge contained in Supplement No. 5 to Bayou's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1 and Supplement No. 7 to Bayou's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 2.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplements be and they are hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until September 9, 1958,

[1] Tender, as to Rate Schedule No. 1 completed on August 19, 1958.

[2] Suspended tenders reflecting revenue-sharing increased rates of Phillips in the Matters of Phillips Petroleum Company, Docket Nos. G-13069 and G-14115.

and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplements hereby suspended nor the rate schedules sought to be altered thereby shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

By the Commission (Commissioner Hussey dissenting as to the suspension of Supplement No. 7 to Bayou Oil Company, et al. FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 2).

PHILLIPS PETROLEUM CO.

ORDER FOR HEARING AND SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATE

SEPTEMBER 5, 1958.

Phillips Petroleum Company (Phillips) on August 7, 1958, tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule[1] for the sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate and charge, is contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notice of Change, dated August 5, 1958.

Purchaser: Northern Natural Gas Company.

Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 3 to Phillips' FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 262.

Effective date: October 1, 1958 (effective date is the effective date proposed by Phillips).

In support of the proposed periodic increase Phillips stated that Exhibit No. 324 in Docket No. G-1148 shows that Phillips should receive 18.75¢ per Mcf for this gas so as to recover "its costs plus a fair return."

The increased rate and charge so proposed has not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that Supplement No. 3 to Phillips' FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 262 be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge contained in Supplement No. 3 to Phillips' FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 262.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplement be and it is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until March 1, 1959, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplement hereby suspended nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

By the Commission (Commissioner Hussey dissenting).

EDWIN W. PAULEY ET AL.

ORDER FOR HEARING AND SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATE

SEPTEMBER 5, 1958.

Edwin W. Pauley, et al. (Pauley) on August 8, 1958, tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule for the sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate and charge, is contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notice of Change, dated August 6, 1958.

Purchaser: Phillips Petroleum Company.

Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 6 to Pauley's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1.

Effective date: September 8, 1958 (effective date is the first day after expiration of the required 30-days' notice).

In support of the revenue-sharing increase, Pauley cites the contract provisions and states that the proposed increased rate is less than the average price currently being paid in the fields involved. Pauley states further that the rate proposed will not operate to increase the ultimate consumers' rates. The proposed incremental increase in rate is predicated upon determinations yet to be made by the Commission.[1]

The increased rate and charge so proposed has not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that Supplement No. 6 to Pauley's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1 be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly Sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge contained in Supplement No. 6 to Pauley's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplement be and it is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until September 9, 1958, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplement hereby suspended nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

By the Commission (Commissioner Hussey dissenting).

AMERADA PETROLEUM CORP.

ORDER FOR HEARING AND SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

SEPTEMBER 5, 1958.

Amerada Petroleum Corporation (Amerada) on August 7, 1958, tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule[1] for the sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate and charge, is contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notice of Change, dated August 6, 1958.

Purchaser: Trunkline Gas Company.

Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 12 to Amerada's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 14.

---

[1] Phillips' FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 262 is in effect subject to refund at Docket No. G-3173.

[1] Suspended tenders reflecting revenue-sharing increased rates of Phillips In the Matter of Phillips Petroleum Company, Docket No. G-14115.

[1] Supplement No. 11 to Amerada's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 14 (Louisiana gathering tax increase) was suspended for one day until August 2, 1958, in Docket No. G-15561, and is now in effect subject to refund.

Effective date: October 4, 1958 (effective date is the effective date proposed by Amerada).

In support of the proposed periodic rate increase, Amerada merely states that the increase is provided by a contract resulting from arm's-length bargaining in good faith.

The increased rate and charge so proposed is intended to reflect (in whole or in part) the additional "excise, license, or privilege tax" of one cent per Mcf levied by the State of Louisiana pursuant to Act No. 8 of 1958 (House Bill No. 303), as approved on June 16, 1958, amending Title 47 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950. The Commission is advised that litigation is being instituted to challenge the constitutionality of the said Act No. 8 of 1958. In consideration of this fact, and in order to assure appropriate refund in the event said Act No. 8 of 1958 should be declared unconstitutional or otherwise held invalid by final judicial decision, it is deemed advisable to suspend the said proposed increased rate and charge.

This suspension, however, is based solely on the possibility of the additional tax being invalidated and only such tax reimbursement shall be made effective subject to refund.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that Supplement No. 12 to Amerada's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 14 be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly Sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge contained in Supplement No. 12 to Amerada's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 14.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplement be and it is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until October 5, 1958, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplement hereby suspended nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

CONTINENTAL OIL CO.

ORDER FOR HEARING AND SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGES IN RATES

SEPTEMBER 5, 1958.

Continental Oil Company (Continental) on August 8, 1958, tendered for filing proposed changes in its presently effective rate schedules [1] for sales of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed changes, which constitute increased rates and charges, are contained in the following designated filings:

Description: Notices of Change, undated.
Purchaser: Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company.

Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 5 to Continental's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 126. Supplement No. 6 to Continental's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 126.

Effective date: September 8, 1958 (effective date is the first day after expiration of the required thirty days' notice).

In support of the proposed periodic rate increases, Continental cites arm's length bargaining and states that to deny the increased price would be discriminatory.

The increased rates and charges so proposed are intended to reflect (in whole or in part) the additional "excise, license, or privilege tax" of one cent per Mcf levied by the State of Louisiana pursuant to Act No. 8 of 1958 (House Bill No. 303), as approved on June 16, 1958, amending Title 47 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950. The Commission is advised that litigation is being instituted to challenge the constitutionality of the said Act No. 8 of 1958. In consideration of this fact, and in order to assure appropriate refund in the event said Act No. 8 of 1958 should be declared unconstitutional or otherwise held invalid by final judicial decision, it is deemed advisable to suspend the said proposed increased rates and charges.

This suspension, however, is based solely on the possibility of the additional tax being invalidated and only such tax reimbursement shall be made effective subject to refund.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed changes, and that Supplements Nos. 5 and 6 to Continental's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 126 be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rates and contained in Supplements Nos. 5 to Continental's FPC Gas Rate No. 126.

(B) Pending such hearing and cision thereon, said supplements they are each hereby suspended use thereof deferred until Septem 1958, and until such further time are made effective in the manner scribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplements suspended, nor the rate schedule to be altered thereby, shall be ch until this proceeding has been di of or until the periods of suspension expired, unless otherwise ordered by Commission.

(D) Interested State commissio participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and (f) of the Commission's rules of pra and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

[Docket Nos. G-14853, 15208]

ARKANSAS LOUISIANA GAS CO. AND OLIN GAS TRANSMISSION CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

SEPTEMBER 8, 1958.

In the matters of Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company, Docket No. G-14853; Olin Gas Transmission Corporation, Docket No. G-15208.

Take notice that on April 8, 1958, Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company (Ark. La.) filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act to construct and operate certain metering facilities and for authorization to sell and deliver natural gas to Olin Gas Transmission Corporation for resale in interstate commerce for ultimate public consumption, which said application was amended and supplemented on May 8 and May 19, 1958, respectively. The proposed facilities to be constructed are to be located in Ouachita Parish, Louisiana and the volume of gas to be sold and delivered through these facilities is not to exceed 30,000 Mcf per day for a period of not more than ten years, and the annual deliveries would approximate 8,000,000 Mcf. The proposed price or rate for the gas to be sold and delivered is 18 cents per Mcf and all gas delivered up to 20,000 Mcf per day is to be paid for whether taken or not.

On June 3, 1958, Olin Gas Transmission Corporation filed an application in Docket No. G-15208 for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the purchase, receipt and transportation of natural gas to be delivered by Arkansas Louisiana at the latter's Munce Compressor Station. Olin states that the proposed purchase of gas from [1] Supplement No. 4 to Continental's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 126 (Louisiana gathering tax increase) was suspended for one day until August 2, 1958, in Docket No. G-15730, and is now in effect subject to refund.

Arkansas Louisiana will supplement its existing gas supplies for service to existing customers. No new or additional sales are proposed. Olin also states that its Line F-63 in the area has sufficient capacity to transport the volumes of gas it proposes to purchase from Arkansas Louisiana, and no additional facilities will be required.

These related matters should be heard on a consolidated record and disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on October 7, 1958, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicants to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before September 26, 1958. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

Secretary.

MARSHALL R. YOUNG ET AL.

ORDER FOR HEARING, SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATE, AND ALLOWING INCREASED RATE TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

SEPTEMBER 5, 1958.

Marshall R. Young et al. (Young) on August 7, 1958, tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule [1] for the sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate and charge, is contained in the following designated filing.

Description: Notice of Change, dated August 4, 1958.

Purchaser: United Gas Pipe Line Company.

Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 6 to Young's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 3.

Effective date: September 8, 1958 (effective date is the date proposed by Young).

In support of the proposed periodic rate increase, Young cites the contractual provisions, United's letter agreeing to pay such increased price and the higher initial rates to Trunkline Gas Company in the same parish.

Because the present tender reflects (in whole or in part) the aforementioned Louisiana tax, the increased rate and charge here proposed has not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds:

(1) It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of said proposed change, and that Supplement No. 6 to Young's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 3 be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

(2) It is necessary and proper in the public interest in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that Young's proposed increased rate be made effective as hereinafter provided and that Young be required to file an undertaking as hereinafter ordered and conditioned.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge contained in Supplement No. 6 to Young's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 3.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplement is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until September 9, 1958, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner herein prescribed.

(C) The rate, charge, and classification set forth in Supplement No. 6 to Young's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 3 shall be effective as of September 9, 1958: Provided, however, That within 20 days from the date of this order, Young shall execute and file with the Secretary of the Commission the agreement and undertaking described in paragraph (E) below.

(D) Young shall refund at such times and in such amounts to the persons entitled thereto, and in such manner as may be required by final order of the Commission, the difference between the presently effective rate and charge and the proposed increased rate and charge hereby allowed to become effective in the event the additional tax of one cent per Mcf levied by the State of Louisiana is for any reason held to be invalid. Should such additional tax eventually be held invalid and the State of Louisiana makes refund, with interest, of the tax monies collected pursuant to the said Act No. 8 of 1958, then, and in that event, a proportionate part of the interest so received by Young herein shall be passed on and paid to the persons entitled thereto at such times and in such amounts, and in such manner as may be required by final order of the Commission. Young shall bear all costs of any such refunding; shall keep accurate accounts in detail of all amounts received by reason of the increased rate or charge allowed by this order to become effective, for each billing period, specifying by whom and in whose behalf such amounts were paid; and shall report (original and four copies), in writing and under oath, to the Commission quarterly, or monthly if Young so elects, for each billing period, and for each purchaser, the billing determinants of natural gas sales to such purchasers and the revenues resulting therefrom, as computed under the rate in effect immediately prior to the date upon which the increased rate allowed by this order becomes effective, and under the rate allowed by this order to become effective, together with the differences in the revenues so computed.

(E) As a condition of this order, within 20 days from the date of issuance thereof, Young shall execute and file in triplicate with the Secretary of this Commission its written agreement and undertaking to comply with the terms of paragraph (D) hereof, as follows:

Agreement and Undertaking of Marshall R. Young, et al. to Comply with the Terms and Conditions of Paragraph (D) of Federal Power Commission's Order Making Effective Proposed Rate Changes

In Conformity with the requirements of the order issued ----------, in Docket No. G-16129 Marshall R. Young, et al. hereby agrees and undertakes to comply with the terms and conditions of paragraph (D) of said order and for that reason has caused this agreement and undertaking to be executed on this ---- day of ----------

---

By ----------

Witness:

(Secretary)

Unless Young is advised to the contrary within 15 days after the date of filing such agreement and undertaking, the agreement and undertaking shall be deemed to have been accepted.

(F) If Young shall, in conformity with the terms and conditions of paragraph (D) of this order, make the refunds as may be required by order of the Commission, the undertaking shall be discharged; otherwise, it shall remain in full force and effect.

(G) Neither the supplement hereby suspended nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby shall be changed until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(H) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules

[1] Present rate, which reflects (in whole or in part) the additional "excise, license, or privilege tax" of one cent per Mcf levied by the State of Louisiana (Act No. 8 of 1958 (House Bill No. 303), as approved on June 16, 1958, amending Title No. 47 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950), is in effect subject to refund at Docket No. G-15878.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 31-653]

INTERNATIONAL NICKEL CO., INC.

NOTICE OF FILING OF APPLICATION FOR EXEMPTION

SEPTEMBER 5, 1958.

Notice is hereby given that The International Nickel Company, Inc. ("Applicant"), a Delaware corporation, has filed an application for an order pursuant to section 3 (a) (3) (A) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act") exempting Applicant and every subsidiary as such from all the provisions of the act on the ground that Applicant is only incidentally a holding company, "being primarily engaged or interested in one or more businesses other than the business of a public-utility company and (A) not deriving, directly or indirectly, any material part of its income from any one or more subsidiary companies, the principal business of which is that of a public-utility company."

The application which is on file in the offices of the Commission may be summarized as follows:

Applicant is primarily engaged in the business of manufacturing nickel alloys and selling nickel and nickel alloys; it operates a rolling mill at Huntington, West Virginia, and a foundry at Bayonne, New Jersey; and, subject to the qualification stated below, Applicant does not own or control directly or indirectly any public-utility properties.

Applicant has entered into an agreement dated July 1, 1958 whereby it will acquire, subject to the granting of this application, irrevocable options to purchase, or designate others to purchase, any or all of the 300 outstanding shares of capital stock of Industrial Gas Corporation, a West Virginia corporation which will purchase substantially all the business and properties of Industrial Gas Company, whose business has heretofore been to produce, transport and sell natural gas to Applicant, to another industrial customer, and to various right-of-way customers. In connection with these transactions, Applicant will purchase a promissory note of Industrial Gas Corporation in the amount of $125,000 which will be secured by mortgage on substantially all of the property which that company will acquire from Industrial Gas Company. Following the propoesd acquisition of properties, Industrial Gas Corporation will conduct the gas business previously carried on by the predecessor company.

According to figures supplied by Industrial Gas Company, sales of natural gas for its fiscal year ended May 31, 1958 amounted to $256,393 to Applicant, $63,316 to its other industrial customer, and $11,155 to its right-of-way customers. At May 31, 1958 Industrial Gas Company had total assets of $223,881, and for the fiscal year then ended had net earnings of $10,865.

Applicant states that at December 31, 1957, and for the year then ended its total assets, net sales, and net earnings amounted to more than 150 times those of Industrial Gas Company (whose business is to be acquired by Industrial Gas Corporation).

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than September 22, 1958, at 5:30 p. m., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law, if any, raised by said application which he desires to controvert; or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date the application may be granted as filed or as amended, or the Commission may take such other action as it may deem appropriate.

By the Commission.

NATIONAL FUEL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED ISSUE AND SALE AT COMPETITIVE BIDDING OF SINKING FUND DEBENTURES

SEPTEMBER 4, 1958.

Notice is hereby given that National Fuel Gas Company ("National"), a registered holding company, has filed an application-declaration pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act"), designating sections 6 (a), 7, 9 (a) and 10 thereof and Rules 42 and 50 promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions, which are summarized as follows:

National proposes to issue and sell to underwriters at competitive bidding pursuant to Rule 50, $25,000,000 principal amount of ___ percent Sinking Fund Debentures due 1983 ("Debentures"). The interest rate (a multiple of ⅛ of 1 percent) and the price to be paid for the Debentures (not less than 100 percent nor more than 102¾ percent of the principal amount) will be fixed by the bidding.

The net proceeds will be used by National (1) to the extent of $15,987,000 to redeem $15,000,000 principal amount of its outstanding 5½ percent Sinking Fund Debentures due 1982 at 106.58 percent of their principal amount, and (2) to prepay at least $9,000,000 principal amount of bank loans (outstanding in the amount of $9,650,000) due July 15, 1959.

National estimates its fees and expenses to be incurred in connection herewith as follows:

Federal stamp tax	$[illegible]
Filing fee, this Commission	[illegible]
Fees of trustee	10,000
Fees of Counsel: Stryker, Tams & Horner	[illegible]
Auditor's fee, Price Waterhouse & Co	[illegible]
Fee of Ralph E. Davis Associates	[illegible]
Printing and engraving	[illegible]
Charges of Ebasco Services, Inc	[illegible]
Miscellaneous	[illegible]
Total	[illegible]

The fees of Cahill, Gordon, Reindel & Ohl, counsel for the underwriters, are estimated at $7,500. It is stated that no other regulatory commission has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than September 19, 1958 at 5:30 p. m., request in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law, if any, raised by said application-declaration which he desires to controvert; or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date the application-declaration, as filed or as amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule 23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt the proposed transactions as provided in Rules 20 (a) and 100 thereof, or take such other action as it may deem appropriate.

ARIZONA AVIATION AND MISSILE CORP.

ORDER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDING EXEMPTION, STATEMENT OF REASONS THEREFOR, AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

SEPTEMBER 5, 1958.

I. Arizona Aviation and Missile Corporation (formerly Azair Arizona Aircraft Company) of Phoenix, Arizona, filed with the Commission on October 7, 1957, a notification and offering circular relative to a proposed offering of 150,000 shares of its $1 par value common stock at $2 per share, for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to section 3 (b) thereof and Regulation A promulgated thereunder.

II. The Commission has reasonable grounds to believe that:

A. The terms and conditions of Regulation A have not been complied with by the issuer, particularly in that it failed to file certain sales material as required by Rule 258 of Regulation A.

B. The issuer offered and submitted certain information to a newspaper, to the effect, among other things, that the firm is currently involved in production and sales of several products and a wide range of aircraft components, knowing such material was false and misleading and would be published and publicly disseminated during the offering of securities, in the area of said offering and such information having been so published and disseminated, such activity by the issuer in connection with said offering constituted an offering in violation of section 17 of the Act.

III. It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 261 (a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under Regulation A be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given to Arizona Aviation and Missile Corporation (formerly Asair Arizona Aircraft Company) and to any person having any interest in the matter that this order has been entered, that the Commission upon receipt of a written request within thirty days after the entry of this order will, within twenty days after receipt of such request, set the matter down for a hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission for the purpose of determining whether to vacate the temporary suspension order or to enter an order permanently suspending the exemption without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing, that if no hearing is requested and none is ordered by the Commission, the suspension order shall become permanent on the thirtieth day after its entry and shall remain in effect unless or until it is modified or vacated by the Commission and that notice of the time and place for any hearing will promptly be given by the Commission.

By the Commission.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter I—Agricultural Marketing Service (Standards, Inspections, and Marketing Practices), Department of Agriculture

PART 26—GRAIN STANDARDS

FEES AND CHARGES

1. Section 26.74 of the Regulations pursuant to sections 8 and 8 of the United States Grain Standards Act, as amended (7 U. S. C. 71 et seq.) is hereby revised to read as follows:

§ 26.74 Fees and charges. The fee in an appeal or a dispute shall be fixed as follows:

(a) For bulk or sacked grain in carload lots, $8.00 per car;

(b) For bulk or sacked grain in trucks and trailers, $5.00 per truck or trailer lot;

(c) For bulk or sacked grain in boats, barges, or other vessels, $2.00 per thousand bushels or fraction thereof, with a minimum of $5.00 per lot;

(d) For a submitted sample or package of grain, $3.00 per sample or package;

(e) For all lots of grain other than those referred to in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d) of this section, $2.00 per thousand bushels or fraction thereof, with a minimum fee of $5.00 per lot.

(f) Charges for overtime, night, or holiday work performed by employees of the Department on account of an appeal or a dispute shall be determined at the rate of $5.80 per manhour per employee and shall include the following: A minimum charge of two hours shall be made for any unscheduled overtime duty performed by an employee on a day when no work was scheduled for him or which is performed by an employee on his regular work day beginning either at least one hour before his scheduled tour of duty or at least one hour after he has completed his scheduled tour of duty, and has left his place of employment. In addition, each such period of unscheduled overtime work which requires an employee to perform additional travel for which he would otherwise not be compensated, and each period of holiday duty, may include a commuted travel time period, provided such commuted travel is performed solely on account of such overtime duty. The amount of this commuted travel time period, determined to be necessary to cover the time spent in reporting to and returning from the place at which the employee performs overtime duty, is hereby established as one hour. The charges for overtime shall be in addition to the fees prescribed in paragraphs (a) through (e) of this section, and shall be paid in all cases, whether the appeal be sustained or not sustained.

2. Subpart C, § 26.701: Overtime work on appeal inspection of grain for export, which was issued pursuant to authority of the act of August 28, 1950 (64 Stat. 561, 5 U. S. C. 576) is hereby repealed.

Notice of proposed rule making, public procedure thereon, and postponement of the effective time of this document later than September 8, 1958 (see section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) are impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest for the reasons that: (1) Legislation provides that the fees charged shall be reasonable and shall as nearly as possible cover the cost of the service rendered; (2) the cost of such service is peculiarly within the knowledge of the Department and the fees set forth herein are necessary to more nearly cover such cost, including but not limited to increased salaries to Federal employees, required by recent legislation (Pub. Law 462, 85th Cong., 2d Sess., approved June 20, 1958); (3) it is imperative that the increase in fees become effective at the earliest practicable date; and (4) additional time is not required in order for the industry to make preparation for compliance with this amendment.

The foregoing schedule shall become effective at 12:01 a. m. September 29, 1958, with respect to all services thereafter rendered in connection with appeal inspections of grain under the provisions of section 6 of the United States Grain Standards Act, as amended (7 U. S. C. 71 et seq.)

(Sec. 8, 39 Stat. 485; 7 U. S. C. 84)

Done at Washington, D. C. this 9th day of September 1958.

PART 970—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN MAINE

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 970.305 Limitation of shipments—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 122 and Order No. 70 (7 CFR Part 970), regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in Maine, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Maine Potato Marketing Committee, established pursuant to said marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that (i) the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, (ii) more orderly marketing in the public interest, than would otherwise prevail, will be promoted by regulating the shipment of potatoes, in the manner set forth below, on and after the effective date of this section, (iii) compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of handlers which cannot be completed by the effective date, (iv) a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for such preparation, and (v) information regarding the committee's recommendations has been made available to producers and handlers in the production area.

(b) Order—(1) Grade, size, and quality. During the period from September 15, 1958 through July 15, 1959, and except as otherwise provided in this section, no handler shall handle tablestock potatoes:

(i) Of the round white or red skin varieties unless such potatoes are U. S. No. 1, or better, grade, 2¼ inches minimum diameter and 4 inches maximum diameter; or

(ii) Of the long varieties (including, but not being limited to, the Russet Burbank variety) unless such potatoes are U. S. No. 2, or better, grade, 8 ounces minimum weight or, if U. S. No. 1, or better, grade, size A, 2 inches minimum diameter or 4 ounces minimum weight; and

(iii) Unless such potatoes meet the following cleanliness requirements: (a) For round or red skin varieties such potatoes are at least 90 percent "fairly clean," and (b) for long varieties such potatoes are generally fairly clean to clean, mostly clean, which means that not less than 55 percent of such potatoes are clean and not more than 10 percent are slightly dirty. If long varieties are in 50 pound or larger packs they may be shipped if at least 90 percent of such potatoes are "fairly clean."

(2) Chipping. No handler shall handle tablestock potatoes for chipping unless such potatoes meet the requirements of the U. S. No. 1, or better, grade (except for damage by shriveling and sprouting), 1½ inches minimum diameter and 4 inches maximum diameter, and unless, prior to shipment, he obtains a Certificate of Privilege as provided in § 970.130.

(3) Processing. No handler shall handle tablestock potatoes for processing into potato salad, fish cakes, or hash unless such potatoes grade 85 percent U. S. No. 1 quality, or better, 1½ inches minimum diameter and 2½ inches maximum diameter and prior to shipment he obtains a Certificate of Privilege pursuant to § 970.130.

(4) Export. No handler shall handle tablestock potatoes for export unless such potatoes meet the requirements of the U. S. No. 1 grade and prior to shipment he obtains a Certificate of Privilege as provided in § 970.130.

(5) Minimum quantities. Pursuant to § 970.54, each handler may handle not in excess of thirty (30) hundredweight of tablestock potatoes per week free from regulation effective pursuant to § 970.45 (Assessments) and § 970.65 (Inspection and Certification): Provided, That at least 90 percent of such potatoes are "fairly clean."

(6) Seed and other special shipments. The limitations set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall not be applicable to shipments of certified seed potatoes or to shipments of tablestock potatoes for the following purposes: (i) For grading or storing in the production area; (ii) for planting within the production area; (iii) for dehydration, or manufacture into potato flakes; (iv) for manufacture or conversion into starch, flour, or alcohol; (v) for canning or freezing; (vi) for livestock feed; (vii) for distribution by the Federal Government; and (viii) for charitable purposes.

(7) Inspection. No handler shall handle any potatoes for which inspection is required unless an appropriate inspection certificate has been issued with respect thereto and the certificate is valid at the time of shipment. For purposes of operation under this part, each inspection certificate is hereby determined, pursuant to paragraph (c) of § 970.65, to be valid for a period not to exceed 48 hours following completion of inspection as shown in the certificate.

(8) Tablestock potatoes. No handler shall handle tablestock potatoes under a Certificate of Exemption issued pursuant to §§ 970.70 through 970.75 and which are exempted from the grade and size limitations set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, unless such potatoes are packed in 50-pound or larger packs.

(9) Shipping. Each handler making shipments of potatoes for export, dehydration, potato flakes, potato chipping, potato salad, fish cakes, hash, livestock feed, canning or freezing, or charitable purposes shall: (i) File an application pursuant to §§ 970.56 and 970.130 with the administrative committee for a Certificate of Privilege for such shipments; (ii) pay assessments pursuant to § 970.45 with respect to the shipments of certified seed potatoes; and (iii) pay assessments pursuant to § 970.45 and have inspection pursuant to § 970.65 with respect to each shipment for export, potato chipping, potato salad, fish cakes, hash, distribution by the Federal Government, and for charitable purposes. Further, each handler who ships potatoes for export, dehydration, potato flakes, potato chipping, potato salad, fish cakes, hash, livestock feed, canning or freezing, distribution by the Federal Government, or charitable purposes shall furnish a record of such shipments to the administrative committee. In addition, each application for a Certificate of Privilege to ship potatoes for export, dehydration, potato flakes, potato chipping, potato salad, fish cakes, hash, canning or freezing, or charitable purposes shall be accompanied by the applicant handler's certification and the buyer's or receiver's certification that the potatoes to be shipped for the purpose stated in the application are to be used for such purpose. The buyer's or receiver's certification may, however, be furnished to the administrative committee within ten days from the date of shipment by said applicant handler. Handlers making shipments of potatoes for export to Canada may furnish the administrative committee with a copy of the Freight Delivery Receipt issued by Canadian customs officials upon entry of such shipment into Canada in lieu of the buyer's or receiver's certification required in this subparagraph. Each handler who applies for a Certificate of Privilege to ship potatoes for chipping shall at the same time or at such time subsequent thereto as the Maine Potato Administrative Committee may require, provide the administrative committee with appropriate evidence that such potatoes were, or are being, treated and conditioned for use for potato chipping and that such potatoes, except for damage resulting from shriveling or sprouting, meet the applicable grade and size requirements set forth in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph. The limitations set forth in this subparagraph shall not apply to shipments of potatoes of less than 15,000 pounds for canning or freezing, for dehydration, potato flakes, or for livestock feed when shipped in barrels, in bulk, or in unsewn 100-pound burlap bags within the production area.

(10) State requirements. The obtaining of a Certificate of Privilege on shipments to specified outlets as provided for in this section does not relieve the handler of the responsibility of complying with the provisions of the Maine Potato Branding Law (Me. Rev. Stat. Ch. 32, sections 295–301 (1954), as amended (Supp. 1957)).

(11) Definitions. The term "fairly clean" and the grades and sizes used in this section shall have the same meanings assigned these terms in the United States Standards for Potatoes (§§ 51.1540 to 51.1556 of this title), including the tolerances set forth therein; and all other terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in Marketing Agreement No. 122 and Order No. 70 (§§ 970.1 to 970.92).

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

Subchapter B—Economic Regulations

[Reg. ER-236]

PART 212—OFF-ROUTE CHARTER TRIPS BY FOREIGN AIR CARRIERS

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of August 1958.

In its decision in the Foreign Off-Route Charter Service Investigation, Docket No. 7173, dated August 12, 1958, the Board adopted Order No. E-12945 which amended the permits of specified foreign air carriers to authorize the holders under regulations prescribed by the Board to engage in charter trips without regard to the points named in those permits. The regulation contained herein implements the determination contained in the aforesaid order by defining off-route charter trips, specifying the conditions under which such trips can be conducted and establishing procedures for obtaining the required authorization for individual trips.

Prior to the hearings in the Foreign Off-Route Charter Service Investigation, counsel for the Board's Bureau of Air Operations circulated to the parties therein a proposed regulation governing the operation of off-route charters by foreign air carriers which he recommended be adopted by the Board. The Examiner attached to his recommended decision in that proceeding a specific regulation based upon that circulated by Bureau Counsel but modified to the extent that he deemed this called for by the evidence and the briefs of the parties in the case. Although the regulation contained herein differs in some of its provisions from those proposed by Bureau Counsel and Examiner, all of the provisions were either taken from one of the tentative regulations circulated to the parties or their substance was the subject of examination and argument by the parties. Interested parties have therefore been afforded an opportunity to comment on the substance of these provisions in connection with the abovementioned proceeding. In view of the foregoing circumstances, the Board finds that further notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary and not in the public interest.

Accordingly, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends the Economic Regulations (14 CFR Chapter I) effective November 5, 1958, by adding thereto a new Part 212 to read as follows:

Sec.
212.1 Definitions.
212.2 Scope of Authorization.
212.3 Tariffs to be filed for off-route charter trips.
212.4 Limitation on the operation of off-route charter trips.
212.5 Statements of Authorization; application.
212.6 Issuance of Statement of Authorization.
212.7 Keeping of records.

AUTHORITY: §§ 212.1 to 212.7 issued under sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply sec. 402, 52 Stat. 991, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 482.

§ 212.1 Definitions. For the purposes of this part:

(a) "Charter trip" means foreign air transportation performed by a foreign air carrier holding a foreign air carrier permit issued pursuant to section 402 of the Act authorizing such carrier to engage in foreign air transportation on an individually ticketed or individually waybilled basis where the entire capacity of one or more aircraft has been engaged for the movement of persons and their baggage or for the movement of property, on a time, mileage or trip basis.

(1) By a person for his own use;

(2) By a person (no part of whose business is the formation of groups for transportation or solicitation or sale of transportation services) for the transportation of a group of persons as agent or representative of such group;

(3) By two or more persons acting jointly for the transportation of such group of persons, or their property;

(4) By an air freight forwarder holding a currently effective letter of registration issued under Part 297 of this subchapter for the carriage of property in foreign air transportation or by a foreign indirect air carrier, whether or not the property to be carried is the result of a previous consolidation;

(5) By a direct air carrier or surface carrier when such aircraft is engaged solely for the transportation of company pesonnel and cargo or commercial traffic in cases of emergency.

With the consent of the charterer, the foreign air carrier may utilize any unused space for the transportation of company personnel or cargo.

(b) Within the meaning of this part, a charter trip shall not be deemed to include transportation services (1) offered by a foreign air carrier to individual members of the general public, (2) performed by a foreign air carrier under an arrangement with a person (other than an arrangement with a person and under the conditions described in subparagraphs (4) and (5) of paragraph (a) of this section) who provides or offers to provide transportation to the general public, or (3) engaged by persons paying for such services an amount aggregating in excess of the transporting carrier's duly published charter rate or fare: Provided, That in the case of a charter trip in which the total charge is prorated among the members of a group, this provision shall not be deemed to preclude the reimbursement of the group representative for reasonable administrative expenses actually incurred in arranging the charter.

(c) "Off-route charter trip" means a charter trip performed by a foreign air carrier between points between which it does not have authority under a foreign air carrier permit issued by the Board to engage in foreign air transportation on an individually ticketed or individually waybilled basis: Provided, That this definition shall not include a charter trip between a point in the United States named in the foreign air carrier permit of the carrier performing such charter trip and a point outside the United States which is not so named if such charter trip is operated via, and lands at, the foreign terminal point named in the foreign air carrier permit of such foreign air carrier.

§ 212.2 Scope of authorization. Off-route charter trips may be performed by foreign air carriers, subject to the limitations and regulations set forth in this part, by all direct foreign air carriers who hold currently effective foreign air carrier permits issued by the Board pursuant to section 402 of the act authorizing such carriers to engage in charter trips in foreign air transportation without regard to the points named in such permits.

§ 212.3 Tariffs to be filed for off-route charter trips. No foreign air carrier shall perform any off-route charter trips unless such foreign air carrier shall have on file with the Board a currently effective tariff showing all rates, fares, and charges for such charter trips, and showing the rules, regulations, practices, and services in connection with such transportation.

§ 212.4 Limitation on the operation of off-route charter trips. A foreign air carrier shall not perform any off-route charter trip unless specific authority in the form of a Statement of Authorization to conduct such charter trip has been granted by the Board.

§ 212.5 Statements of Authorization; application. (a) Application for a Statement of Authorization shall be submitted on CAB Form 433[1] to the Civil Aeronautics Board, addressed to the attention of the Director, Bureau of Air Operations. Upon a showing of good cause, such application may be transmitted by cablegram or telegram or may be made by telephone. Each applicant shall keep on file with the Director, Bureau of Air Operations a copy of its current standard form of charter agreement. Each application shall contain an abstract of the charter agreement setting forth the names and addresses of the operator, the charterer, and their agents, if any; a description of the proposed operations; type aircraft to be flown; and, if reciprocity has not previously been established or if any changes have occurred since the previous Board finding thereon, documentation to establish the extent to which the nation which is the domicile of the applicant grants a similar privilege with respect to United States air carriers. A true copy of the charter agreement actually consummated shall be transmitted to the Director of the Bureau of Air Operations as soon as practicable but in no event later than (15) days after consummation.

(b) Applications shall be filed with the Board at least five days in advance of the date of the commencement of the proposed flight, except that applications for authority to conduct planeload cargo charters may be filed not less than 48 hours in advance of the proposed flight. Upon a showing that good cause exists for failure to adhere to the above requirements and that waiver of these requirements is in the public interest, applications later submitted may be considered by the Board.

(c) Any party in interest may file a memorandum in support of or in opposition to the grant of an application. Such a memorandum shall set forth in detail the reasons why the party believes the application should be granted or denied and shall be accompanied by such data, including affidavits, which it is desired that the Board shall officially notice. Copies of the memorandum shall be served upon the foreign air carrier to whose application such memorandum is directed. Nothing in this subparagraph shall be deemed to preclude the Board from granting or denying an application when the circumstances so warrant without awaiting the filing of memorandum in support of or in opposition to the application.

(d) Except to the extent that the Board shall direct that such information be withheld from public disclosure as hereinafter specified, every application and its supporting documents filed pursuant to this section shall be open to public inspection, and notice thereof shall be published in the Board's Weekly List of Applications Filed. Any person may make written objection to the Board to the public disclosure of such information or any part thereof, stating the grounds for such objection. If the Board finds that disclosure of such information or part thereof would adversely affect the interests of such person and is not required in the interest of the public, it will order that such information or part be so withheld.

§ 212.6 Issuance of Statement of Authorization. (a) If the Board finds that the proposed charter trip or trips meet the requirements of this part, that the foreign nation which is the domicile of the applicant grants a similar privilege with respect to United States air carriers, and that such charter trip or trips are otherwise in the public interest, it will issue a Statement of Authorization for the conduct of the trip or trips set forth in the application. Such Statement of Authorization may be withheld, conditioned or limited by the Board as the public interest may require.

(b) In passing upon the requirements of the public interest the Board will consider the following things, among others:

(1) Whether the foreign air carrier has previously conducted similar flights on a regular and frequent basis in relation to the regularity and frequency of its on-route charter, scheduled, and nonscheduled operations.

(2) Whether the off-route charter was generated as a result of solicitation of individual members of the traveling public.

(3) Whether the foreign air carrier or its agent or the charterer or its agent has previously violated any of the provisions of this part.

(c) Action by the Board upon applications for Statements of Authorization shall be published in the Status of Charter Applications attachment to the Weekly List of Applications Filed. Copies of the letter advising the applicant air carrier of the action taken on its application will be made available to interested persons upon request.

§ 212.7 Keeping of records. (a) Each foreign air carrier receiving an authorization under this part shall make available true copies of all manifests, airway bills, invoices and other traffic documents covering flights originating or terminating in the United States, at a place in the United States where such documents may be inspected upon request by an authorized representative of the Board or the Civil Aeronautics Administration.

Subchapter D—Policy Statements

[Regulation Policy Statement 5]

PART 399—STATEMENTS OF GENERAL POLICY

PROCESSING OF APPLICATIONS OF FOREIGN AIR CARRIERS FOR AUTHORIZATION TO CONDUCT OFF-ROUTE CHARTER TRIPS

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of August 1958.

In an opinion and order issued concurrently herewith the Board amended the foreign air carrier permits of certain designated foreign air carriers so as to authorize them to conduct off-route charter trips in foreign air transportation under regulations prescribed by the Board (Order No. E-12945 dated August 12, 1958). In the same decision the Board adopted Part 212 of the Economic Regulations (Regulation No. ER-236, dated August 12, 1958) governing the operation of off-route charter trips by the foreign air carriers whose permits were amended. The regulation provides that in order to conduct an off-route charter trip a foreign air carrier must file an application with the Board and must receive authority in the form of a statement of authorization granted by the Board. Before such a statement of authorization will be issued the Board must find that the proposed flight comes within the definition of "off-route charter trips" set forth in the regulation and that the operation of the trip will be in the public interest.

Since this rule relates only to Statements of Policy, notice and public procedures hereon are unnecessary.

In consideration of the foregoing the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby enacts Regulation Policy Statement No. 5 comprising new § 399.30 of Subpart B of Part 399 effective November 5, 1958, to read as follows:

§ 399.30 Processing of applications filed by foreign air carriers pursuant to Part 212 of this chapter for a Statement of Authorization to conduct off-route charter trips—(a) General provisions. This policy prescribes the general standards which will be used by the Board in processing applications for Statements of Authority. Since a determination of public interest requires consideration of all of the standards set forth in the Civil Aeronautics Act, this statement does not purport to cover every matter that may be taken into account by the Board in passing upon applications by foreign air carriers to conduct off-route charter trips. For similar reasons, the Board reserves the right to depart from the provisions of this policy when there is a showing of exceptional circumstances and the Board finds that strict adherence to the detailed standards of the policy in a particular situation would not be in the public interest. However, in the absence of such a showing, any practice by a foreign air carrier, travel agent, or chartering group which is prohibited by this policy will constitute sufficient basis for denying an application for a statement of authorization. If any such practice is discovered after the particular charter flight has been performed, the practice will justify denial of future applications by the same foreign air carrier.

(b) Requirements relating to air carrier applicants. (1) The carrier may not solicit individual members of the chartering organization either through personal contact, through the placing of advertisements in newspapers, magazines or billboards, or through radio or television stations, or otherwise. However, a carrier may solicit prospective charter groups, but may not engage in public advertising except the "institutional-type" provided for in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(2) A carrier is not prohibited from "institutional-type" advertising to the effect that it conducts off-route charters under regulations established by the Civil Aeronautics Board. However, the carrier may not, directly or indirectly, advertise rates for off-route services in foreign air transportation on an individual passenger basis.

(3) The carrier may not employ directly or indirectly, any person for the purpose of organizing and assembling members of the chartering party into a chartering group.

(4) Without prior Board approval, upon good cause shown at the time the application is filed, the carrier shall not transport one-way passengers in the case of a round-trip charter. Similarly, in the case of a charter contract calling for two or more round trips, without prior Board approval upon good cause shown at the time of application, there shall be no intermingling and each plane-load group shall move as a unit in both directions.

(c) Requirements relating to travel agents. (1) A travel agent may not receive a commission from both the direct air carrier and the charterer for services performed in connection with the charter agreement or for services rendered on behalf of the charterer.

(2) A travel agent may not assist in the organization and assembly of the charter group or handle the sale or ticketing of any individual members of the group except as hereinafter indicated.

(3) In cases where the group has itself engaged the aircraft without intermediary, they may employ the services of a travel agent for the land tour who may solicit individual members of the group for such tours, receive deposits and conduct ticketing for such land tours. He may not, however, engage in any activities with or without compensation relating to the organization or assembly of the charter group itself or receive remuneration of any kind from the carrier in connection with the charter.

(4) In cases where an agent, either singly or by agreement with others, acts as both the direct air carrier's agent and as agent for land tours, such agent may not directly handle the sale or ticketing of any individual members of the group either for the air transportation portion of their journey or for the land tour portion, except for charter participants who, on an individual basis, request land tour arrangements different from those made available to the charter group. The services of the travel agent may be utilized in the preparation of a brochure or other literature describing all the aspects of the whole trip; provided, however, that the distribution of such material, and the actual administration of the charter flight (which includes the collection and distribution of all pro rata shares of all the participants) be confined to the hands of the charterer.

(5) The travel agent shall not incur any obligations on behalf of a chartering group relating to the expenses of solicitation or organization of the individual participants in the chartering group, whether or not it is intended for the group to assume ultimately the obligation incurred.

(6) The travel agent shall make no payments or extend gratuities of any kind, directly or indirectly, to any member of the chartering organization in relation either to the air transportation or land tour portions of the charter trip.

(7) No travel agent, or officer, director or employee of such an agent, who may be a member of a charter group, shall participate in the charter activity of such group, if such travel agent, or officer, director or employee thereof, is receiving directly or indirectly any compensation either from the charter flight or the land tours.

(d) Requirements relating to chartering organization. (1) An application for exemption to perform an off-route charter flight in foreign air transportation where the participants are individually bearing all or a substantial part of the cost of such transportation will be granted only where such participants have not been brought together as a result of solicitation of the general public or a substantial portion thereof. In making this determination, the Board will consider both the size of the group and the area of residence of the group from which the participants have been solicited. The Board will also consider the relative ease of admission to membership and, where admission is on a casual or informal basis, may construe a charter solicited from such membership as being, in effect, held open to the general public.

(2) An organized club or group may solicit only its members and their immediate families for participation in the charter flight. Immediate family is construed by the Board to include the spouse, children and parents who are in the member's immediate household. Further, participation of immediate families should be limited to the immediate families of those members who will themselves participate in the charter flight as passengers.

(3) It shall be considered solicitation of the general public when the charter is described, announced or referred to in advertisements, whether paid or unpaid, in any media of mass communication such as newspapers, magazines, radio or television. A news item carried on such media would be considered as solicitation if initiated or inspired by the charterer, carrier, or travel agent and, if reasonably construed, it is likely to induce travel on the charter. However, advertising or the initiation of an unpaid announcement in media the circulation of which is primarily restricted to an eligible group—e. g., the plant newspaper of a factory, the student newspaper of a college—would not ordinarily be considered as solicitation of the general public, particularly if it included a statement that the charter is limited to bona fide members of the organization and their immediate families. Distribution of circulars to persons not members of the organization or the posting of notices outside the premises of the organization will also be regarded as evidence of solicitation of the general public, as will campaigns by telephone, telegraph, or letter going beyond the bona fide membership.

(4) In the case of a round-trip charter flight, one-way passengers are not permitted. Where more than one round trip is contracted for, intermingling between flights or reforming of plane-load groups is not permitted, and each plane-load group must move as a unit in both directions. Waiver of these rules may be obtained where there is good cause shown at the time the charter application is filed.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 925)

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

[Amdt. 87]

PART 609—STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURES

PROCEDURE ALTERATIONS

The standard instrument approach procedures appearing hereinafter are adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety. Compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and therefore is not required.

Part 609 is amended as follows:

NOTE: Where the general classification (L/MFR, ADF, VOR, TerVOR, VOR/DME, ILS, or RADAR), location, and procedure number (if any) of any procedure in the amendments which follow, are identical with an existing procedure, that procedure is to be substituted for the existing one, as of the effective date given, to the extent that it differs from the existing procedure; where a procedure is cancelled, the existing procedure is revoked; new procedures are to be placed in appropriate alphabetical sequence within the section amended.

1. The automatic direction finding procedures prescribed in § 609.100 (b) are amended to read in part:

ADF STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURE

Bearings, headings, courses and radials are magnetic. Elevations and altitudes are in feet MSL. Ceilings are in feet above airport elevation. Distances are in nautical miles unless otherwise indicated, except visibilities which are in statute miles.
If an instrument approach procedure of the above type is conducted at the below named airport, it shall be in accordance with the following instrument approach procedure, unless an approach is conducted in accordance with a different procedure for such airport authorized by the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics. Initial approaches shall be made over specified routes. Minimum altitudes shall correspond with those established for en route operation in the particular area or as set forth below.

[1] New.

In the Matter of Champion Products, Inc., a Corporation, and John T. Heaton, Lucille Heaton and William J. Oxford, Individually and as Officers of Said Corporation; Champion Oil Company, Inc., a Corporation, and Robert H. Huston, Jack J. Heinemann and Francis C. Routt, Individually and as Officers of Said Corporation; Earle A. Goodenow, Sr., and Earle A. Goodenow, Jr., Individually and Trading and Doing Business as The Goodenow Company, a Partnership

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission charging a manufacturer in Stephenville, Tex., and distributor in Oklahoma City, Okla., of gasoline and oil additives sold under the brand names of "Q–X" and "Q–X with Moly", respectively, with representing falsely in advertising in newspapers, periodicals, and sales literature, and by statements of sales representatives, that said products were extensively used by certain large corporations and firms and were approved and recommended by them and by the United States Government; that purchasers' money would be returned if they did not accomplish the guaranteed results; and that they were regularly advertised in "Life" magazine.

After acceptance of an agreement containing a consent order, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist which became on July 24 the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondents Champion Products, Inc., a corporation, its officers and John T. Heaton, Lucille Heaton and William J. Oxford, individually and as officers of said corporation; and Earle A. Goodenow, Jr., individually and trading and doing business as The Goodenow Company, or under any other name or names, and respondents' representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of their gasoline and oil additives, or any other products in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act do forthwith cease and desist from representing directly or by implication:

1. That any certain corporations or firms regularly or extensively use respondents' products when such use is only occasional and in small quantities.

2. That any certain corporations or firms approve or recommend the use of respondents' products, unless such is the fact.

3. That respondents' products are covered by a money back guarantee unless all of the terms and conditions thereof are clearly and conspicuously set forth in their advertised guarantee.

4. That respondents' products are approved or recommended by the United States Government.

5. That respondents' products are currently or regularly advertised in "Life" magazine; or are advertised in any other publication, unless such is the fact.

It is further ordered, That respondent Earle A. Goodenow, Jr., individually and trading and doing business as The Goodenow Company, or under any other name, and his agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of gasoline and oil additives or any other products in commerce, as "commerce" is defined by the Federal Trade Commission Act, forthwith cease and desist from representing directly or by implication that he is the manufacturer of said products.

It is further ordered, That respondents Champion Products, Inc., its officers, and John T. Heaton, Lucille Heaton and William J. Oxford, individually and as officers of said corporation, their representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of gasoline and oil additives or any other products in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from furnishing means and instrumentalities to others by and through which they may mislead and deceive the public respecting the matters set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 5 hereof.

It is further ordered, That the complaint be, and the same hereby is, dismissed, without prejudice, as to respondents Robert H. Huston, Jack J. Heinemann and Francis C. Routt, individually.

It is further ordered, That the complaint be, and the same hereby is, dismissed as to Champion Oil Company, Inc., a corporation, Robert H. Huston, Jack J. Heinemann and Francis C. Routt as officers of said corporation, and as to Earle A. Goodenow, Sr.

It is ordered, That respondents Champion Products, Inc., a corporation, John T. Heaton, Lucille Heaton, and William J. Oxford, individually and as officers of said corporation, and Earle A. Goodenow, Jr., individually and trading and doing business as The Goodenow Company shall within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: August 13, 1958.

By the Commission.

TITLE 25—INDIANS

Chapter I—Bureau of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior

Subchapter P—Mining

PART 171—LEASING OF TRIBAL LANDS FOR MINING

AUTHORITY FOR ADVERTISING

On page 3862 of the FEDERAL REGISTER of June 4, 1958, there was published a notice of intention to amend Part 171 of 25 CFR. The purpose of this amendment is to authorize Superintendents to advertise Indian tribal lands for oil and gas lease sale. The present wordage of § 171.3 (a) has led to some confusion as to whether or not it is necessary to acquire the approval of the Secretary of the Interior before Indian tribal lands can be so advertised.

Interested persons were given an opportunity to submit their views, data, and arguments concerning the proposed amendment to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs within 30 days of the date of publication of the notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. No objections were received.

The proposed amendment to paragraph (a) of § 171.3 of 25 CFR is hereby adopted as published and is set forth below. This amendment shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

FRED A. SEATON, Secretary of the Interior.

SEPTEMBER 8, 1958.

Paragraph (a) of § 171.3 is amended to read as follows:

§ 171.3 Sale of oil and gas leases. (a) At such times and in such manner as he may deem appropriate, after being authorized by the tribal council or other authorized representative of the tribe, the superintendent shall publish notices at least thirty days prior to the sale, unless a shorter period is authorized by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, that oil and gas leases on specific tracts, each of which shall be in a reasonably compact body, will be offered to the highest responsible bidder for a bonus consideration, in addition to stipulated rentals and royalties. Each bid must be accompanied by a cashier's check, certified check, or postal money order, payable to the payee designated in the invitation to bid, in an amount not less than 25 percent of the bonus bid. Within 30 days after notification of being the successful bidder, said bidder must remit the balance of the bonus, the first year's rental, and his share of the advertising costs, and shall file with the superintendent the lease in completed form. The superintendent may, for good and sufficient reasons, extend the time for the completion and submission of the lease form, but no extension shall be granted for remitting the balance of moneys due. If the successful bidder fails to pay the full consideration wit' 'n said period, or fails to file the completed lease within said period or extension thereof, or if the lease is disapproved through no fault of the lessor or the Department of the Interior, 25 percent of the bonus bid will be forfeited for the use and benefit of the Indian lessor.

TITLE 33—NAVIGATION AND NAVIGABLE WATERS

Chapter I—Coast Guard, Department of the Treasury

Subchapter A—General

[CGFR 58-12]

PART 8—REGULATIONS, UNITED STATES COAST GUARD RESERVE

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

By virtue of the authority contained in the act of July 9, 1952 (66 Stat. 481) as amended, the act of September 3, 1954 (66 Stat. 147) as amended, and Titles 10 and 14, U. S. Code, the following amendments are hereby prescribed and shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

1. The term "District Coast Guard Officer" in all of its grammatical forms is hereby changed wherever it appears in these regulations to the appropriate grammatical form of the term "District Commander".

GENERAL—ADMINISTRATION AND ORGANIZATION

DEFINITIONS AND APPLICABILITY OF REGULATIONS

2. A new § 8.1001 is hereby added to read as follows:

§ 8.1001 Meaning and use of terms "District Commander" and "District Coast Guard Commander". (a) The terms "District Commander" and "District Coast Guard Commander" shall be used in these regulations interchangeably. When the Coast Guard is operating as a service in the Treasury Department, either term shall mean the Coast Guard officer in overall charge of a Coast Guard district. When the Coast Guard is operating as a service in the Navy, either term shall mean the Coast Guard officer in overall charge of Coast Guard activities within a Naval district.

(b) Normally, the term "District Commander" shall be used when the Coast Guard is operating as a service in the Treasury Department.

(c) Normally, the term "District Coast Guard Commander" shall be used when the Coast Guard is operating as a service in the Navy.

3. A new § 8.1002 is hereby added to read as follows:

§ 8.1002 Meaning of terms "Secretary of the Treasury" and "Secretary." As used in this part, the terms "Secretary of the Treasury" and "Secretary" mean the Secretary of the Treasury when the Coast Guard is operating as a service in the Treasury Department and the Secretary of the Navy when the Coast Guard is operating as a service in the Navy.

4. A new § 8.1003 is hereby added to read as follows:

§ 8.1003 Definition of "active service." "Active service" means service on active duty.

5. A new § 8.1004 is hereby added to read as follows:

§ 8.1004 Definition of "active duty." "Active duty" means full-time duty in the active military service of the United States. It includes duty on the active list, full-time training duty, annual training duty, and attendance, while in the active military service, at a school designated as a service school by law or by the Secretary.

6. A new § 8.1005 is hereby added to read as follows:

§ 8.1005 Applicability of regulations to temporary members of the Reserve. Unless temporary members of the Coast Guard Reserve are specifically included within its provisions, no section of this part shall be deemed to apply to them.

7. A new § 8.1006 is hereby added to read as follows:

§ 8.1006 Applicability of regulations to women members of the Reserve. Except as otherwise provided, the regulations in this part apply equally to men and women Reservists.

POLICY

8. Section 8.1105 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 8.1105 Ranks, grades, and ratings allowed. There shall be allowed in the Reserve the various ranks, grades, and ratings, including cadets, corresponding to those in the Regular Coast Guard, except that the highest rank in the Reserve is that of Rear Admiral. No original appointment may be made to a rank above that of lieutenant commander.

9. Section 8.1107 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 8.1107 Powers and duties of Reservists. Reservists, including temporary members of the Reserve, while engaged on active duty as set forth in Title 14, U. S. Code, section 754, are vested with the same power, authority, rights and privileges in the execution of their duties as members of the Regular Coast Guard of corresponding grades or ratings.

ADDRESSES, OFFICIAL RESIDENCES, RECORDS, CORRESPONDENCE AND REPORTS

10. Section 8.1607 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 8.1607 Fitness reports. (a) Fitness reports are required on all officers except those on the Inactive Status List or on any Reserve Retired List.

(b) Fitness reports shall be submitted be officers to be reported on and shall be completed and forwarded to the Commandant by reporting seniors at the following times:

(1) For all officers serving on active duty for more than 30 days, at the times required for officers of the Regular Coast Guard.

(2) For all officers not serving on active duty, on 30 June of each year.

(3) For all officers serving on active duty for training for 30 days or less, upon completion of such duty.

(4) For all officers, at such other times as the Commandant may require.

(c) Designation of reporting seniors, preparation, and submission of reports, including use of appropriate forms, shall be in accordance with instructions issued by the Commandant.

(d) Recommendations for discharge, transfer, retirement, and other similar action will not be included in the comments contained in fitness reports. Such recommendations shall be made the subject of separate correspondence.

11. Sections 8.2404 and 8.2405 are hereby deleted in their entirety.

PROMOTION

CHIEF WARRANT AND WARRANT OFFICERS

12. Section 8.3201 is hereby added to read as follows:

§ 8.3201 Promotion generally. (a) Subject to the limitations contained in paragraph (b) of this section, the regulations now existing or hereafter promulgated relating to the promotion, failure of selection for promotion, date of appointment and procedures for effecting appointments, and the effect of removal from a promotion list of chief warrant and warrant officers of the Regular Coast Guard shall apply to chief warrant and warrant officers of the Coast Guard Reserve except as may be necessary to adapt such provisions to the Coast Guard Reserve.

(b) No chief warrant or warrant officer shall receive consideration for promotion or be promoted either for temporary service or permanently under any provision of law or regulations unless:

(1) He is in an active Reserve status, and

(2) He has attained the minimum number of points prescribed by the Commandant. The number of points prescribed shall not exceed an average of 50 points per anniversary year.

13. A new § 8.3202 is hereby added as follows:

§ 8.3202 Elimination generally. (a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, chief warrant and warrant officers of the Coast Guard Reserve shall be transfered to the Retired Reserve, or placed on the Inactive Status List under the same regulations as apply to commissioned officers of the Coast Guard Reserve of the grade of ensign and above.

(b) Unless retained in an active status pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section:

(1) A male chief warrant or warrant officer of the Coast Guard Reserve, if otherwise qualified, shall be transferred to the Retired Reserve not later than 60 days after the date upon which he becomes 62 years of age and subject to the provision of Title 10, U. S. Code, section 1164 (c).

(2) A woman chief warrant or warrant officer of the Coast Guard Reserve, if otherwise qualified, shall be transferred to the Retired Reserve not later than 60 days after the date upon which she becomes 55 years of age and subject to the provision of Title 10, U. S. Code, section 1164 (c).

(c) Chief warrant and warrant officers of the Coast Guard Reserve who held status as such on 1 November 1954 and who reach mandatory retirement or separation age prescribed in paragraph (b) of this section prior to completion of 20 years of service creditable toward retirement, as defined by 10 U. S. C. 1332, may be retained by the Commandant until the completion of such twenty years of service, but not later than that date which is sixty days after the date on which they attain the age of:

(1) 64 years if a male officer, or

(2) 60 years if a woman officer.

TRANSFER TO AND PLACEMENT IN RESERVE CATEGORIES

14. A new subparagraph (3) is hereby added to paragraph (b) of § 8.4402 as follows:

(3) A Reserve officer who fails to attain the minimum number of points (not to exceed 12 per anniversary year exclusive of the 15 membership points) prescribed by the Commandant for retention in an active status or who fails to conform to such standards and qualifications as may be prescribed by the Commandant for retention in an active status shall, unless transferred to the Retired Reserve or discharged, be transferred to the Inactive Status List. In lieu of transfer to the Inactive Status List pursuant to this section, a Reserve officer shall, if he applies and is found qualified therefor, be transferred to the Retired Reserve.

15. Subparagraph (1) of paragraph (m) of § 8.4405 is hereby amended to read as follows:

(1) Transfer from the Ready Reserve to the Standby Reserve: Provided, That beginning with the anniversary year first commencing after 30 June 1958, unless the Commandant provides for other training categories to be added, only satisfactory participation while assigned to training Categories A, B, and H shall be creditable.

16. Subparagraph (3) of paragraph (c) of § 8.5311 is hereby amended to read as follows:

(3) A member subject to the training requirements of section 208 (f) of the Armed Forces Reserve Act, as amended, shall not be assigned to training Category G unless he has performed active service and, under instructions issued by the Commandant, unless no training requirement exists for the member due to the mobilization requirements or because of the degree of military or civilian skill attained.

Approved: June 24, 1958.

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans Administration

PART 8—NATIONAL SERVICE LIFE INSURANCE

COLLECTION OF ANY INDEBTEDNESS

Section 8.55 is revised to read as follows:

§ 8.55 Collection of any indebtedness. At the maturity of a National Service life insurance policy by death, any indebtedness, unless paid off in cash, shall be liquidated by reducing the amount of each monthly installment in the proportion which the indebtedness bears to the face amount of the insurance. If the policy shall mature as an endowment, or be payable in one sum at death, any indebtedness shall be deducted from the amount payable under the policy.

(Sec. 608, 54 Stat. 1012, as amended, sec. 210, 71 Stat. 91; 38 U. S. C. 808, 2210)

This regulation is effective August 29, 1958.

[SEAL] ROBERT J. LAMPHERE,
Acting Deputy Administrator.

PART 21—VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION AND EDUCATION

SUBPART B—VETERANS' READJUSTMENT ASSISTANCE ACT OF 1952

CRIMINAL PENALTIES AND FORFEITURES; FORFEITURE OF RIGHTS

Section 21.2308 is revised to read as follows:

§ 21.2308 Criminal penalties and forfeitures; forfeiture of rights. (a) Public Law 550, 82d Congress, makes provision for certain penalties upon a finding of willful fraudulent acts having to do with any claim for payment or any matter arising under that Law, including forfeiture of rights, claims, and benefits thereunder, and under Public Law 85-56. When any employee of the Veterans Administration discovers what is thought to be:

(1) A false or fraudulent affidavit, declaration, certificate, statement, voucher, endorsement, or paper or writing purporting to be such, concerning any claim or the approval of any claim for benefits under this Law, or pertaining to any matter arising under this Law; of

(2) Indication of the making or presentation of any paper required under this Law wherein a date has been willfully inserted other than the date upon which it was actually signed or acknowledged by the claimant; or

(3) A false certification by any person that a declarant, affiant, or witness named in an affidavit, declaration, voucher, endorsement, or other paper or writing appeared personally before such person and was sworn thereto, or that such person acknowledged the execution thereof; or

(4) Indication that any beneficiary under this Law has accepted and converted to his own use payments for any period during which he was not actually pursuing a course of education or training under this Law for which period payment was made, such employee shall refer the case through channels: (i) To the Chief Attorney within a regional office or the General Counsel, if in central office, for consideration and action as provided in § 14.560 of this chapter; and (ii) where it is indicated that a fraudulent act may have been committed by a person who might be entitled to benefits under laws administered by the Veterans Administration, to the appropriate official for consideration and action as provided in § 5.5 of this chapter.

(Sec. 210, 71 Stat. 91; 38 U. S. C. 2210. Interpret or apply secs. 201-274, 66 Stat. 663-682, as amended; 38 U. S. C. 911-984)

This regulation is effective September 12, 1958.

PART 21—VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION AND EDUCATION

SUBPART C—WAR ORPHANS' EDUCATIONAL ASSISTANCE ACT OF 1956

TRAINING OFFICER ASSISTANCE FOR ELIGIBLE PERSONS

A new § 21.3031a is added to read as follows:

§ 21.3031a Training officer assistance for eligible persons. (a) The assistance of a training officer will be provided in connection with a program of education when it is determined by the Vocational Rehabilitation Board that, although the eligible person is not in need of special restorative training under § 21.3234, he will require assistance in order to pursue a program of education successfully because of the handicapping effects of a physical or mental condition, or because of personal adjustment problems.

(b) The determination as to need for assistance by a training officer will be made by the Vocational Rehabilitation Board upon the basis of information developed in the counseling process, including data and opinions obtained from medical and other specialists as appropriate in the case.

(1) A determination that an eligible person needs assistance by a training officer will be made when one or more of the following conditions is found to exist:

(i) The handicapping effects of a physical or mental condition are such that assistance will be required in order for the eligible person to enter and successfully pursue a program of education.

(ii) The eligible person has a history of a behavioral pattern which if continued would interfere with or impede his entrance into and pursuit of a program of education.

(2) The Vocational Rehabilitation Board will include in its report of a determination as to the need for assistance by a training officer the factors taken into account in arriving at the determination and where an affirmative determination of such need is found, the Board will include suggestions and recommendations relative to the nature of the assistance which appears to be indicated in the case.

(c) When it is determined by the Vocational Rehabilitation Board that an eligible person needs assistance by a training officer, the parent or guardian will be informed of the finding and of the underlying reasons. If the parent or guardian concurs in the finding, the training officer will provide such assistance as is indicated until the progress and adjustment of the eligible person in his program of education are such that help of the training officer is no longer needed.

(d) Assistance by the training officer shall include:

(1) Assisting the eligible person and the educational institution in the implementation of the planned program of education.

(2) Determining the progress of the eligible person through visits at the educational institution as well as through review of records and, when indicated, taking action designed to solve problems which may interfere with satisfactory pursuit of the program of education.

(3) Making referral when indicated and coordinating action with responsible individuals and agencies in order to alleviate or prevent conditions arising which may negatively affect progress.

(4) Referring the case of an eligible person who is receiving training officer assistance to the Vocational Rehabilitation Board when one of the following conditions exists:

(i) Need for special restorative training appears to be for consideration.

(ii) The advice and assistance of the Board is needed to resolve difficulties which cannot be resolved by the training officer himself, or through his referral to other sources of help.

This regulation is effective September 11, 1958.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

PART 31—PACIFIC REGION

SUBPART—MALHEUR NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, OREGON

HUNTING OF DEER PERMITTED

Pursuant to the authority contained in section 10 of the Migratory Bird Conservation Act of February 18, 1929 (45 Stat. 1224; 16 U. S. C. 715i), and under authority delegated by Commissioner's Order 4 (22 F. R. 8126), § 31.207, reading as follows, is added to Chapter I, Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, Subpart—Malheur National Wildlife Refuge, Oregon. The purpose of this regulation is to permit the hunting of deer by means of bow and arrow only on certain lands of the Malheur National Wildlife Refuge under certain limitations and subject to compliance with the laws and regulations of the State of Oregon.

§ 31.207 Hunting of deer permitted. Deer may be taken solely by means of bow (except crossbow) and arrow during the period September 13, 14, and 15, 1958, only on the lands in that part of Malheur National Wildlife Refuge south of Witzel's Lane, being the line between secs. 10 and 15, T. 30 S., R. 31 E., subject to the following conditions, restrictions, and requirements:

(a) Strict compliance with all State laws and regulations is required.

(b) Entry on and use of the refuge shall be in accordance with Parts 18 and 21 of this chapter.

(c) Smoking on the refuge is prohibited except on the public campgrounds designated by posting.

(d) The possession or use of firearms on the refuge is prohibited.

(e) Dogs are not permitted on the refuge for use in the hunting of deer.

(f) Hunters upon entering or leaving the hunting area shall report as such checking stations as may be established for the purpose of regulating the hunt.

(g) Not to exceed 300 hunters per day shall be permitted to hunt on the refuge, the determination of which number shall be established by controls at the checking stations.

Although it is the policy of the Department of the Interior that wherever practicable the rule making requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003) be observed voluntarily, the data relating to the season established by the State for the hunting of deer in Oregon were not received in sufficient time to permit the publication of advance notice. The regulation shall therefore become effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 10, 45 Stat. 1224; 16 U. S. C. 715i)

Issued at Washington, D. C., and dated September 9, 1958.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Internal Revenue Service

[26 CFR (1954) Parts 31, 39]

EMPLOYMENT TAXES; APPLICABLE ON AND AFTER JANUARY 1, 1955

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Subpart A of the Employment Tax Regulations amended to insert certain introductory material; regulations proposed under chapter 25 (general provisions relating to employment taxes) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended; and regulations of special application to the taxes imposed by subtitle C (chapters 21 to 25, inclusive) of such Code proposed under sections 6001, 6011 (a), 6071 (a), 6081 (a), 6151, and 6302 (c) of such Code.

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any comments or suggestions pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing, in duplicate, to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Attention: T:P, Washington 25, D. C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Any person submitting written comments or suggestions who desires an opportunity to comment orally at a public hearing on these proposed regulations should submit his request, in writing, to the Commissioner within the 30-day period. In such a case, a public hearing will be held and notice of the time, place, and date will be published in a subsequent issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in section 7805 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (68A Stat. 917; 26 U. S. C. 7805).

[SEAL] LEO SPERR,
Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

In paragraph 1 set forth below, Subpart A of the Employment Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 31) is amended in order to insert introductory material pertinent to the regulations prescribed in paragraph 2 set forth below.

In paragraph 2 set forth below, regulations are prescribed under Chapter 25 (General Provisions Relating to Employment Taxes) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, and administrative regulations of special application to the taxes imposed by Subtitle C (Chapters 21 to 25, inclusive) of such Code are prescribed under selected provisions of Subtitle F (Procedure and Administration) of such Code. Except where otherwise specifically provided, such regulations are applicable on and after January 1, 1955.

PARAGRAPH 1. Subpart A of the Employment Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 31) is amended as follows:

(A) By striking the parenthetical material at the end of paragraph (e) of § 31.0–3 and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "(For prior regulations on the subject matter of section 3503, see §§ 411.802 and 408.803 of Regulations 114 and Regulations 128, respectively; 26 CFR (1939) Parts 411 and 408. For prior regulations on the subject matter of section 3504, see §§ 406.807 and 408.906 of Regulations 120 and Regulations 128, respectively; 26 CFR (1939) Parts 406 and 408.)"

(B) By adding the following at the end of § 31.0–4: "The Regulations on Monthly Returns and Payment of Employment Taxes (Part 39 of this chapter) are also superseded."

PAR. 2. The following regulations are prescribed under Chapter 25 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and under selected provisions of Subtitle F of such Code:

SUBPART F—GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO EMPLOYMENT TAXES (CHAPTER 25, INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF 1954)

§ 31.3501 Statutory provisions; collection and payment of taxes.

SEC. 3501. Collection and payment of taxes. The taxes imposed by this subtitle shall be collected by the Secretary or his delegate and shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States as internal-revenue collections.

§ 31.3502 Statutory provisions; nondeductibility of taxes in computing taxable income.

SEC. 3502. Nondeductibility of taxes in computing taxable income. (a) The taxes imposed by section 3101 of Chapter 21, and by sections 3201 and 3211 of Chapter 22 shall not be allowed as a deduction to the taxpayer in computing taxable income under subtitle A.

(b) The tax deducted and withheld under Chapter 24 shall not be allowed as a deduction either to the employer or to the recipient of the income in computing taxable income under subtitle A.

§ 31.3502–1 Nondeductibility of taxes in computing taxable income. For provisions relating to the nondeductibility, in computing taxable income under subtitle A, of the taxes imposed by sections 3101, 3201, and 3211, and of the tax deducted and withheld under Chapter 24, see the provisions of the Income Tax Regulations (Part 1 of this chapter) under section 164. For provisions relating to the credit allowable to the recipient of the income in respect of the tax deducted and withheld under Chapter 24, see the provisions of the Income Tax Regulations under section 31.

§ 31.3503 Statutory provisions; erroneous payments.

SEC. 3503. Erroneous payments. Any tax paid under Chapter 21 or 22 by a taxpayer with respect to any period with respect to which he is not liable to tax under such chapter shall be credited against the tax, if any, imposed by such other chapter upon the taxpayer, and the balance, if any, shall be refunded.

§ 31.3503–1 Tax under chapter 21 or 22 paid under wrong chapter. If, for any period, an amount is paid as tax—

(a) Under Chapter 21 or corresponding provisions of prior law by a person who is not liable for tax for such period under such chapter or prior law, but who is liable for tax for such period under Chapter 22 or corresponding provisions of prior law, or

(b) Under Chapter 22 or corresponding provisions of prior law by a person who is not liable for tax for such period under such chapter or prior law, but who is liable for tax for such period under Chapter 21 or corresponding provisions of prior law, the amount so paid shall be credited against the tax for which such person is liable and the balance, if any, shall be refunded. Each claim for refund or credit under this section shall be made on Form 843 and in accordance with the applicable provisions of § 31.6413 (b)–1 of Subpart G of the regulations in this part and the applicable provisions of the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (Part 301 of this chapter) under section 6402.

§ 31.3504 Statutory provisions; acts to be performed by agents.

SEC. 3504. Acts to be performed by agents. In case a fiduciary, agent, or other person has the control, receipt, custody, or disposal of, or pays the wages of an employee or group of employees, employed by one or more employers, the Secretary or his delegate, under regulations prescribed by him, is authorized to designate such fiduciary, agent, or other person to perform such acts as are required of employers under this title and as the Secretary or his delegate may specify. Except as may be otherwise prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate, all provisions of law (including penalties) applicable in respect of an employer shall be applicable to a fiduciary, agent, or other person so designated but, except as so provided, the employer for whom such fiduciary, agent, or other person acts shall remain subject to the provisions of law (including penalties) applicable in respect of employers.

(Sec. 3504 as amended by sec. 71, Technical Amendments Act 1958)

§ 31.3504–1 Acts to be performed by agents—(a) In general. In the event wages as defined in Chapter 21 or 24 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or compensation as defined in Chapter 22 of such Code, of an employee or group of employees, employed by one or more employers, is paid by a fiduciary, agent, or other person, or if such fiduciary, agent, or other person has the control, receipt, custody, or disposal of such wages or compensation, the district director may, subject to such terms and conditions as he deems proper, authorize such fiduciary, agent, or other person to perform such acts as are required of such employer or employers under those provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and the regulations thereunder which have application, for purposes of the taxes imposed by such chapter or chapters, in respect of such wages or compensation. If the fiduciary, agent, or other person is authorized by the district director to perform such acts, all provisions of law (including penalties) and of the regulations prescribed in pursuance of law applicable to employers in respect of such acts shall be applicable to such fiduciary, agent, or other person. However, each employer for whom such fiduciary, agent, or other person performs such acts shall remain subject to all provisions of law (including penalties) and of the regulations prescribed in pursuance of law applicable to an employer in respect of such acts. Any application for authorization to perform such acts, signed by such fiduciary, agent, or other person, shall be filed with the district director with whom the fiduciary, agent, or other person will, upon approval of such application, file returns in accordance with such authorization.

(b) Prior authorizations continued. An authorization in effect under section 1632 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 on December 31, 1954, continues in effect under section 3504 and is subject to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section.

SUBPART G—ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS OF SPECIAL APPLICATION TO EMPLOYMENT TAXES (SELECTED PROVISIONS OF SUBTITLE F, INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF 1954)

§ 31.6001 Statutory provisions; notice or regulations requiring records, statements, and special returns.

SEC. 6001. Notice or regulations requiring records, statements, and special returns. Every person liable for any tax imposed by this title, or for the collection thereof, shall keep such records, render such statements, make such returns, and comply with such rules and regulations as the Secretary or his delegate may from time to time prescribe. Whenever in the judgment of the Secretary or his delegate it is necessary, he may require any person, by notice served upon such person or by regulations, to make such returns, render such statements, or keep such records, as the Secretary or his delegate deems sufficient to show whether or not such person is liable for tax under this title.

§ 31.6001–1 Records in general—(a) Form of records. The records required by the regulations in this part shall be kept accurately, but no particular form is required for keeping the records. Such forms and systems of accounting shall be used as will enable the district director to ascertain whether liability for tax is incurred and, if so, the amount thereof.

(b) Copies of returns, schedules, and statements. Every person who is required, by the regulations in this part or by instructions applicable to any form prescribed thereunder, to keep any copy of any return, schedule, statement, or other document, shall keep such copy as a part of his records.

(c) Records of claimants. Any person (including an employee) who, pursuant to the regulations in this part, claims a refund, credit, or abatement, shall keep a complete and detailed record with respect to the tax, interest, addition to the tax, additional amount, or assessable penalty to which the claim relates. Such record shall include any records required of the claimant by paragraph (b) of this section and by §§ 31.6001–2 to 31.6001–5, inclusive, which relate to the claim.

(d) Records of employees. While not mandatory (except in the case of claims), it is advisable for each employee to keep permanent, accurate records showing the name and address of each employer for whom he performs services as an employee, the dates of beginning and termination of such services, the information with respect to himself which is required by the regulations in this subpart to be kept by employers, and the receipts furnished in accordance with the provisions of § 31.6051–1.

(e) Place and period for keeping records. (1) All records required by the regulations in this part shall be kept, by the person required to keep them, at one or more convenient and safe locations accessible to internal revenue officers, and shall at all times be available for inspection by such officers. In the case of an employer, the records required by paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section shall be kept in the internal revenue district in which the return referred to in paragraph (b) of this section was filed or in which such employer, pursuant to § 31.6091–1, currently files such returns.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in the following sentence, every person required by the regulations in this part to keep records in respect of a tax (whether or not such person incurs liability for such tax) shall maintain such records for at least four years after the due date of such tax for the return period to which the records relate, or the date such tax is paid, whichever is the later. The records of claimants required by paragraph (c) of this section shall be maintained for a period of at least four years after the date the claim is filed.

(f) Cross reference. See §§ 31.6001–2 to 31.6001–5, inclusive, for additional records required with respect to the Federal Insurance Contributions Act, the Railroad Retirement Tax Act, the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, and the collection of income tax at source on wages, respectively.

§ 31.6001–2 Additional records under Federal Insurance Contributions Act—(a) In general. (1) Every employer liable for tax under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act shall keep records of all remuneration, whether in cash or in a medium other than cash, paid to his employees after 1954 for services (other than agricultural labor which constitutes or is deemed to constitute employment, domestic service in a private home of the employer, or service not in the course of the employer's trade or business) performed for him after 1936. Such records shall show with respect to each employee receiving such remuneration—

(i) The name, address, and account number of the employee and such additional information with respect to the employee as is required by paragraph (c) of § 31.6011 (b)–2 when the employee does not advise the employer what his account number and name are as shown on an account number card issued to the employee by the Social Security Administration.

(ii) The total amount and date of each payment of remuneration (including any sum withheld therefrom as tax or for any other reason) and the period of services covered by such payment.

(iii) The amount of each such remuneration payment which constitutes wages subject to tax. See §§ 31.3121 (a)–1 to 31.3121 (a) (10)–1, inclusive, of Subpart B of the regulations in this part.

(iv) The amount of employee tax, or any amount equivalent to employee tax, collected with respect to such payment, and, if collected at a time other than the time such payment was made, the date collected. See paragraph (b) of § 31.3102–1 of Subpart B of the regulations in this part for provisions relating to collection of amounts equivalent to employee tax.

(v) If the total remuneration payment (subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph) and the amount thereof which is taxable (subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph) are not equal, the reason therefor.

(2) Every employer shall keep records of the details of each adjustment or settlement of taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act made pursuant to the regulations in this part. The employer shall keep as a part of his records a copy of each statement furnished pursuant to paragraph (c) of § 31.6011 (a)–1.

(b) Agricultural labor, domestic service, and service not in the course of employer's trade or business. (1) Every employer who pays cash remuneration after 1954 for the performance for him after 1950 of agricultural labor which constitutes or is deemed to constitute employment, of domestic service in a private home of the employer not on a farm operated for profit, or of service not in the course of his trade or business shall keep records of all such cash remuneration with respect to which he incurs, or expects to incur, liability for the taxes imposed by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act, or with respect to which amounts equivalent to employee tax are deducted pursuant to section 3102 (a). See §§ 31.3101–3, 31.3111–3, and 31.3121 (a)–2 of Subpart B of the regulations in this part for provisions relating, respectively, to the liability for employee tax which is incurred when wages are received, the liability for employer tax which is incurred when wages are paid, and the time when wages are paid and received. Such records shall show with respect to each employee receiving such cash remuneration—

(i) The name of the employee.

(ii) The account number of each employee to whom wages for such services are paid within the meaning of § 31.3121 (a)–2 of Subpart B of the regulations in this part; and such additional information as is required by paragraph (c) of § 31.6011 (b)–2 when the employee does not advise the employer what his account number and name are as shown on an account number card issued to the employee by the Social Security Administration.

(iii) The amount of such cash remuneration paid to the employee (including any sum withheld therefrom as tax or for any other reason) for agricultural labor which constitutes or is deemed to constitute employment, for domestic service in a private home of the employer not on a farm operated for profit, or for service not in the course of the employer's trade or business; the calendar month in which such cash remuneration was paid; and the character of the services for which such cash remuneration was paid. When the employer incurs liability for the taxes imposed by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act with respect to any such cash remuneration which he did not previously expect would be subject to the taxes, the amount of any such cash remuneration not previously made a matter of record shall be determined by the employer to the best of his knowledge and belief.

(iv) The amount of employee tax, or any amount equivalent to employee tax, collected with respect to such cash remuneration and the calendar month in which collected. See paragraph (b) of § 31.3102–1 of Subpart B of the regulations in this part for provisions relating to collection of amounts equivalent to employee tax.

(v) To the extent material to a determination of tax liability, the number of days during each calendar year after 1956 on which agricultural labor which constitutes or is deemed to constitute employment is performed by the employee for cash remuneration computed on a time basis.

(2) Every person to whom a "crew leader", as that term is defined in section 3121 (o), furnishes individuals for the performance of agricultural labor after December 31, 1958, shall keep records of the name; permanent mailing address, or if none, present address; and identification number, if any, of such "crew leader".

§ 31.6001–3 Additional records under Railroad Retirement Tax Act—(a) Records of employers. (1) Every employer liable for tax under the Railroad Retirement Tax Act shall keep records of all remuneration (whether in money or in something which may be used in lieu of money), other than tips, paid to his employees after 1954 for services rendered to him (including "time lost") after 1954. Such records shall show with respect to each employee—

(i) The name and address of the employee.

(ii) The total amount and date of each payment of remuneration to the employee (including any sum withheld therefrom as tax or for any other reason) and the period of service (including any period of absence from active service) covered by such payment.

(iii) The amount of such remuneration payment with respect to which the tax is imposed.

(iv) The amount of employee tax collected with respect to such payment, and, if collected at a time other than the time such payment was made, the date collected.

(v) If the total payment of remuneration (subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph) and the amount thereof with respect to which the tax is imposed (subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph) are not equal, the reason therefor.

(2) The employer shall keep records of the details of each adjustment or settlement of taxes under the Railroad Retirement Tax Act made pursuant to the regulations in this part.

(b) Records of employee representatives. Every individual liable for employee representative tax under the Railroad Retirement Tax Act shall keep records of all remuneration (whether in money or in something which may be used in lieu of money) paid to him after 1954 for services rendered (including "time lost") by him as an employee representative after 1954. Such records shall show—

(1) The name and address of each employee organization employing him.

(2) The total amount and date of each payment of remuneration for services rendered as an employee representative (including any sum withheld therefrom as tax or for any other reason) and the period of service (including any period of absence from active service) covered by such payment.

(3) The amount of such remuneration payment with respect to which the employee representative tax is imposed.

(4) If the total payment of remuneration (subparagraph (2) of this paragraph) and the amount thereof with respect to which the employee representative tax is imposed (subparagraph (3) of this paragraph) are not equal, the reason therefor.

§ 31.6001–4 Additional records under Federal Unemployment Tax Act—(a) Records of employers. Every employer liable for tax under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act for any calendar year shall, with respect to each such year, keep such records as are necessary to establish—

(1) The total amount of remuneration (including any sum withheld therefrom as tax or for any other reason) paid to his employees during the calendar year for services performed after 1938.

(2) The amount of such remuneration which constitutes wages subject to the tax. See § 31.3306 (b)–1 through § 31.3306 (b) (8)–1 of Subpart D of the regulations in this part.

(3) The amount of contributions paid by him into each State unemployment fund, with respect to services subject to the law of such State, showing separately (i) payments made and neither deducted nor to be deducted from the remuneration of his employees, and (ii) payments made and deducted or to be deducted from the remuneration of his employees.

(4) The information required to be shown on the prescribed return and the extent to which the employer is liable for the tax.

(5) If the total remuneration paid (subparagraph (1) of this paragraph) and the amount thereof which is subject to the tax (subparagraph (2) of this paragraph) are not equal, the reason therefor.

(6) To the extent material to a determination of tax liability, the dates, in each calendar quarter, on which each employee performed services not in the course of the employer's trade or business, and the amount of cash remuneration paid at any time for such services performed within such quarter. See § 31.3306 (c) (3)–1 of Subpart D of the regulations in this part.

The term "remuneration," as used in this paragraph, includes all payments whether in cash or in a medium other than cash, except that the term does not include payments in a medium other than cash for services not in the course of the employer's trade or business. See § 31.3306 (b) (7)–1 of Subpart D of the regulations in this part.

(b) Records of persons who are not employers. Any person who employs individuals in employment (see § 31.3306 (c)–2 through § 31.3306 (c) (17)–1 of Subpart D of the regulations in this part) during any calendar year but who considers that he is not an employer subject to the tax (see § 31.3306 (a)–1 of such Subpart D) shall, with respect to each such year, be prepared to establish by proper records (including, where necessary, records of the number of employees employed each day) that he is not an employer subject to the tax.

§ 31.6001–5 Additional records in connection with collection of income tax at source on wages. (a) Every employer required under section 3402 to deduct and withhold income tax upon the wages of employees shall keep records of all remuneration paid to such employees. Such records shall show with respect to each employee—

(1) The name and address of the employee.

(2) The total amount and date of each payment of remuneration (including any sum withheld therefrom as tax or for any other reason) and the period of services covered by such payment.

(3) The amount of such remuneration payment which constitutes wages subject to withholding.

(4) The amount of tax collected with respect to such remuneration payment and, if collected at a time other than the time such payment was made, the date collected.

(5) If the total remuneration payment (subparagraph (2) of this paragraph) and the amount thereof which is taxable (subparagraph (3) of this paragraph) are not equal, the reason therefor.

(6) Copies of any statements furnished by the employee pursuant to paragraph (b) (12) of § 31.3401 (a)–1 of Subpart E of the regulations in this part (relating to permanent residents of the Virgin Islands).

(7) Copies of any statements furnished by the employee pursuant to § 31.3401 (a) (7)–1 of Subpart E of the regulations in this part (relating to nonresident alien individuals who are residents of a contiguous country).

(8) Copies of any statements furnished by the employee pursuant to § 31.3401 (a) (8) (A)–1 of Subpart E of the regulations in this part (relating to residence or physical presence in a foreign country).

(9) Copies of any statements furnished by the employee pursuant to § 31.3401 (a) (8) (C)–1 of Subpart E of the regulations in this part (relating to citizens resident in Puerto Rico).

(10) The fair market value and date of each payment of noncash remuneration, made to an employee after August 9, 1955, for services performed as a retail commission salesman, with respect to which no income tax is withheld by reason of § 31.3402 (j)–1 of Subpart E of the regulations in this part.

(11) With respect to payments made in 1955 under a wage continuation plan (as defined in § 1.105–4 (a) of the Income Tax Regulations (Part 1 of this chapter)), the records required to be kept in respect of such payments are those prescribed under paragraph (b) (8) of § 31.3401 (a)–1 of Subpart E of the regulations in this part.

NOTE: For regulations under this subparagraph (12) (26 CFR 31.6001–5 (a) (12)), see Treasury Decision 6155, approved December 27, 1955 (20 F. R. 10097).

(13) The withholding exemption certificates (Form W–4) filed with the employer by the employee.

(14) The agreement, if any, between the employer and the employee for the withholding of additional amounts of tax pursuant to § 31.3402 (i)–1 of Subpart E of the regulations in this part.

(15) To the extent material to a determination of tax liability, the dates, in each calendar quarter, on which the employee performed services not in the course of the employer's trade or business, and the amount of cash remuneration paid at any time for such services performed within such quarter. See § 31.3401 (a) (4)–1 of Subpart E of the regulations in this part.

The term "remuneration," as used in this paragraph, includes all payments whether in cash or in a medium other than cash, except that the term does not include payments in a medium other than cash for services not in the course of the employer's trade or business. See § 31.3401 (a) (11)–1 of Subpart E of the regulations in this part.

(b) The employer shall keep records of the details of each adjustment or settlement of income tax withheld under section 3402 made pursuant to the regulations in this part.

§ 31.6011 (a) Statutory provisions; general requirement of return, statement, or list; general rule.

SEC. 6011. General requirement of return, statement, or list—(a) General rule. When required by regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate any person made liable for any tax imposed by this title, or for the collection thereof, shall make a return or statement according to the forms and regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate. Every person required to make a return or statement shall include therein the information required by such forms or regulations.

§ 31.6011 (a)–1 Returns under Federal Insurance Contributions Act—(a) Requirement—(1) In general. Except as otherwise provided in § 31.6011 (a)–5, every employer required to make a return under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act, as in effect prior to 1955, for the calendar quarter ended December 31, 1954, in respect of wages other than wages for agricultural labor, shall make a return for each subsequent calendar quarter (whether or not wages are paid in such quarter) until he has filed a final return in accordance with § 31.6011 (a)–6. Except as otherwise provided in § 31.6011 (a)–5, every employer not required to make a return for the calendar quarter ended December 31, 1954, shall make a return for the first calendar quarter thereafter in which he pays wages, other than wages for agricultural labor, subject to the taxes imposed by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act as in effect after 1954, and shall make a return for each subsequent calendar quarter (whether or not wages are paid therein) until he has filed a final return in accordance with § 31.6011 (a)–6. Except as otherwise provided in subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph, Form 941 is the form prescribed for making the return required by this subparagraph. Such return shall not include wages for agricultural labor required to be reported on any return prescribed by subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(2) Employers of agricultural workers—(i) Quarterly returns for 1955. Every employer who, at any time before October 1 of the calendar year 1955, incurs liability of $100 or more for the taxes imposed by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act with respect to wages paid in such year for agricultural labor shall make a return—

(a) For the first calendar quarter of such year if the liability for such taxes incurred in such quarter is $100 or more.

(b) For the period consisting of the first and second calendar quarters of such year if the liability for such taxes incurred in those quarters totals $100 or more, except that such return shall be made only for the second calendar quarter if a return was required under (a) of this subdivision and if the liability for such taxes incurred in the second calendar quarter is $100 or more, and

(c) For the period consisting of the first, second, and third calendar quarters of such year if the liability for such taxes incurred in those quarters totals $100 or more, except that such return shall be made (1) only for the period consisting of the second and third calendar quarters if a return was required under (a) of this subdivision but not under (b) of this subdivision, and if the total liability for such taxes incurred in the second and third calendar quarters totals $100 or more; or (2) only for the third calendar quarter if a return was required under (b) of this subdivision, and if the liability for such taxes incurred in the third calendar quarter is $100 or more.

Form 943A is the form prescribed for making the return required by this subdivision, except that Form 943A–PR shall be used by every employer required to file such return with the office of the United States Internal Revenue Service in Puerto Rico (see § 31.6091–1).

(ii) Annual returns for 1955 and subsequent years. Every employer who pays wages after 1954 for agricultural labor with respect to which taxes are imposed by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act shall make a return for the first calendar year in which he pays such wages and for each calendar year thereafter (whether or not wages are paid therein) until he has filed a final return in accordance with § 31.6011 (a)–6. Form 943 is the form prescribed for making the annual return required by this subdivision, except that Form 943PR shall be used by every employer required to file such return with the office of the United States Internal Revenue Service in Puerto Rico (see § 31.6091–1).

(3) Employers of domestic workers. Form 942 is the form prescribed for use by every employer in making a return as required under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph in respect of wages, as defined in the Federal Insurance Contributions Act, paid by him in any calendar quarter for domestic service in a private home of the employer not on a farm operated for profit. If, however, the employer is required under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph to make a return on Form 941 for such calendar quarter, such employer, at his election, may—

(i) Report all wages on Form 941, or

(ii) Report on Form 942 the wages for domestic service in a private home of the employer not on a farm operated for profit and omit such wages from the return on Form 941.

An employer entitled to make the election referred to in the preceding sentence who has chosen one method shall not change to the other method without first notifying the district director with whom he is required to file his returns that he will thereafter use such other method. See, however, § 31.6011 (a)–6, relating to final returns on Form 941. The provisions of this subparagraph shall not apply to any employer required to file the return prescribed under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph with the office of the United States Internal Revenue Service in Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands (see § 31.6091–1).

(4) Employers in Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands. Form 941PR is the form prescribed for use in making the return required under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph in the case of every employer who is required to file such return with the office of the United States Internal Revenue Service in Puerto Rico. Form 941VI is the form prescribed for use in making the return required under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph in the case of every employer who is required to file such return with the office of the United States Internal Revenue Service in the Virgin Islands. However, Form 941 is the form prescribed for making such return in the case of every such employer who is required pursuant to § 31.6011 (a)–4 to make a return of income tax withheld from wages.

(b) When to report wages. Wages with respect to which taxes are imposed by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act shall be reported in the return of such taxes required under this section or § 31.6011 (a)–5 for the return period in which they are actually paid unless they were constructively paid in a prior return period, in which case such wages shall be reported only in the return for such prior period. However, if such wages are deemed to be paid in a later return period, they shall be reported only in the return for such later period. See § 31.3121 (a)–2 of Subpart B of the regulations in this part relating to the time when wages are paid or deemed to be paid.

(c) Correction of returns or schedules. If in a return required under this section or § 31.6011 (a)–5, or in any other manner, the employer fails to report, or incorrectly reports, to the district director, the name, account number, or wages of an employee, the employer shall furnish to the district director a written statement fully explaining the omission or error; except that such statement is not required by this paragraph if correction of the omission or error is made in connection with a supplemental return, adjustment, credit, refund, or abatement. The employer shall include in such statement his identification number (except that an identification number need not be included if the omission or error is with respect to information required to be reported on a return on Form 942), each return period for which the data were omitted or for which the incorrect data were furnished, the data incorrectly reported for each period, and the data which should have been reported. A copy of such statement shall be retained by the employer as a part of his records under § 31.6001–2. No particular form is prescribed for making such statement, but if printed forms are desired, the district directors will supply copies of Form 941c or Form 941c PR, whichever is appropriate, upon request.

(d) Time and place for filing returns. For provisions relating to the time and place for filing returns, see §§ 31.6071 (a)–1 and 31.6091–1, respectively.

§ 31.6011 (a)–2 Returns under Railroad Retirement Tax Act—(a) Require- ment—(1) Employers. Every employer shall make a return for the first calendar quarter after 1954 within which compensation taxable under the Railroad Retirement Tax Act is paid to his employee or employees for services rendered after 1954, and for each subsequent calendar quarter (whether or not taxable compensation is paid therein) until he has filed a final return in accordance with § 31.6011 (a)–6. Form CT–1 is the form prescribed for making the return required under this subparagraph. One original and a duplicate of each return on Form CT–1 shall be filed with the district director.

(2) Employee representatives. Every employee representative shall make a return for the first calendar quarter after 1954 within which he is paid taxable compensation for services rendered after 1954 as an employee representative, and for each subsequent calendar quarter (whether or not he is paid taxable compensation therein) until he has filed a final return in accordance with § 31.6011 (a)–6. Form CT–2 is the form prescribed for making the return required under this subparagraph. One original and a duplicate of each return on Form CT–2 shall be filed with the district director.

(b) When to report compensation—(1) In general. Except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, compensation taxable under the Railroad Retirement Tax Act shall be reported in the return required under this section for the period in which it is deemed, under paragraph (d) of § 31.3231 (e)–1 of Subpart C of the regulations in this part, to be paid, unless under such section the compensation may be deemed to be paid in more than one return period, in which case it shall be reported only in the return for the first return period in which it is deemed to be paid.

(2) Returns of employers required by State law to pay compensation on weekly basis—(i) In general. If any employer is required by the laws of any State to pay compensation weekly, the return of tax with respect to such compensation may, at the election of such employer, cover all payroll weeks which, or the major part of which, fall within the period for which a return of tax is required by paragraph (a) (1) of this section. This provision shall not apply, however, to any payroll week which falls in two calendar years. Any employer who elects to file a return as provided in this subparagraph shall notify the district director in writing of such election and shall include therein a statement setting forth the facts which entitle him to make the election. Such notice shall be in duplicate and shall be attached to the original and duplicate of the return for the first period to which such election applies. Any election so made shall be binding upon the employer with respect to all returns subsequently made by him until the district director authorizes or directs the employer to make a return on a different basis. For the purpose of determining the time when compensation is deemed to be paid in accordance with paragraph (d) of § 31.3231 (e)–1 of Subpart C of the regulations in this part, and of determining the due date of a return in accordance with paragraph (b) of § 31.6071 (a)–1, the calendar month following the period covered by the return of an employer making such election is the same calendar month which would be determinative for such purposes if the employer had not made the election.

(ii) Prior elections. An election made by an employer, pursuant to the provisions of article 501 (b) of Regulations 100 (26 CFR (1939) 1949 ed. 410.501 (b)), or of § 411.601 (b) of Regulations 114 (26 CFR (1939) 411.601 (b)), which is in force and effect at the time the employer makes his first return under this section shall satisfy the requirements of subdivision (i) of this subparagraph with respect to the making of an election and shall be binding upon the employer with respect to all returns made by him under this section until the district director authorizes or directs the employer to make a return on a different basis.

(iii) Example. Employer X is required by State law to pay his employees within 6 days after the compensation is earned. In compliance with the State law, employer X, for services rendered to him for the payroll week of June 27 to July 2, 1955, pays his employees on the last-named date. June 1955 is the last month of a period for which a return of tax is required by paragraph (a) (1) of this section. Employer X may elect to include in the return required by paragraph (a) (1) of this section for the period April 1 to June 30, 1955, the compensation paid to his employees for the payroll week of June 27 to July 2, 1955, inclusive, although the compensation for July 1 and 2 falls within another period for which a return is required by paragraph (a) (1) of this section. If, in this example, the payroll week ended on July 5, 1955, the compensation paid for the payroll week of June 29 to July 5 would be included in the return period in which July falls although the compensation earned for June 29 and 30 fell in a prior return period under the general rule.

(c) Time and place for filing returns. For provisions relating to the time and place for filing returns, see §§ 31.6071 (a)–1 and 31.6091–1, respectively.

§ 31.6011 (a)–3 Returns under Federal Unemployment Tax Act—(a) Requirement. Every person shall make a return of tax under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act for each calendar year with respect to which he is an employer as defined in § 31.3306 (a)–1 of Subpart D of the regulations in this part. Form 940 is the form prescribed for use in making the return.

(b) When to report wages. Wages taxable under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act shall be reported in the return required under this section for the return period in which they are actually paid unless they were constructively paid in a prior return period, in which case such wages shall be reported only in the return for such prior period.

(c) Time and place for filing returns. For provisions relating to the time and place for filing returns, see §§ 31.6071 (a)–1 and 31.6091–1, respectively.

§ 31.6011 (a)–4 Returns of income tax withheld from wages—(a) In general. Except as otherwise provided in § 31.6011 (a)–5, every person required to make a return of income tax withheld from wages pursuant to section 1622 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 for the calendar quarter ended December 31, 1954, shall make a return for each subsequent calendar quarter (whether or not wages are paid therein) until he has filed a final return in accordance with § 31.6011 (a)–6. Except as otherwise provided in § 31.6011 (a)–5, every person not required to make a return for the calendar quarter ended December 31, 1954, shall make a return of income tax withheld from wages pursuant to section 3402 for the first calendar quarter thereafter in which he is required to deduct and withhold such tax and for each subsequent calendar quarter (whether or not wages are paid therein) until he has filed a final return in accordance with § 31.6011 (a)–6. Form 941 is the form prescribed for making the return required under this paragraph.

(b) District director's copies of Form W–2. (1) Every employer who is required under paragraph (a) of this section to make a return of income tax withheld from wages for a period ending December 31, or for any period for which such return is made as a final return, shall submit as part of such return the district director's copy of each withholding statement on Form W–2 required under § 31.6051–1 to be furnished by the employer with respect to wages paid during the calendar year (as well as such copy of each corrected statement for a prior year). For the penalty provided in case of each failure to file Form W–2, see the provisions of the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (Part 301 of this chapter) under section 6652.

(2) The copies of withholding statements for the current calendar year transmitted with the return required under paragraph (a) of this section shall be accompanied by an information statement on Form W–3. This subparagraph has no application to any return filed under this section in 1955.

(3) The copies of withholding statements for the current calendar year transmitted with the return shall be accompanied by a list (preferably in the form of an adding machine tape) of the amounts of income tax withheld shown on such statements. If an employer's total payroll is made up on the basis of a number of separate units or establishments, the statements may be assembled accordingly and a separate list or tape submitted for each unit. In such case, a summary list or tape should be submitted, the total of which will agree with the corresponding entry to be made on Form W–3. If the number of statements is large, they may be forwarded in packages of convenient size. When this is done, the packages should be identified with the name of the employer and consecutively numbered, and Form W–3 should be placed in package No. 1. The number of packages should be indicated immediately after the employer's name on Form W–3. The return, Form 941, and remittance in cases of this kind should be submitted in the usual manner, accompanied by a brief statement that the district director's copies of Form W–3 and Form W–3 are in separate packages.

(4) The district director's copies of corrected Forms W–2 for a prior calendar year shall be assembled separately from the forms for the current calendar year and shall be accompanied by a statement explaining the corrections.

(5) For provisions relating to extensions of time for filing the district director's copies of Form W–2 and Form W–3, see paragraph (a) (3) of § 31.6081 (a)–1.

(c) Time and place for filing returns. For provisions relating to the time and place for filing returns, see §§ 31.6071 (a)–1 and 31.6091–1, respectively.

§ 31.6011 (a)–5 Monthly returns—(a) In general—(1) Requirement. The provisions of this section are applicable in respect of the taxes reportable on Form 941, Form 941PR, or Form 941VI pursuant to § 31.6011 (a)–1 or § 31.6011 (a)–4. An employer who is required by § 31.6011 (a)–1 or § 31.6011 (a)–4 to make quarterly returns on any such form shall, in lieu of making such quarterly returns, make returns of such taxes in accordance with the provisions of this section if he is so notified in writing by the district director. The district director may so notify any employer (i) who, by reason of notification as provided in § 301.7512–1 of the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (Part 301 of this chapter), is required to comply with the provisions of such § 301.7512–1, or (ii) who has failed to (d) make any such return on Form 941, Form 941PR, or Form 941VI, (b) pay tax reportable on any such form, or (c) deposit any such tax as required under the provisions of § 31.6302 (c)–1. Every employer so notified by the district director shall make a return for the calendar month in which the notice is received and for each calendar month thereafter (whether or not wages are paid in any such month) until he has filed a final return or is required to make quarterly returns pursuant to notification as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph. However, if the notice provided for in this subparagraph is received after the close of the first calendar month of a calendar quarter, the first return under this section shall be made for the period beginning with the first day of such quarter and ending with the last day of the month in which the notice is received. Each return required under this section shall be made on the form prescribed for making the return which would otherwise be required of the employer under the provisions of § 31.6011 (a)–1 or § 31.6011 (a)–4, except that, if some other form is furnished by the district director for use in lieu of such prescribed form, the return shall be made on such other form.

(2) Termination of requirement. The district director, in his discretion, may notify the employer in writing that he shall discontinue the filing of monthly returns under this section. If the employer is so notified, the last month for which a return shall be made under this section is the last month of the calendar quarter in which such notice of discontinuance is received. Thereafter, the employer shall make quarterly returns in accordance with the provisions of § 31.6011 (a)–1 or § 31.6011 (a)–4.

(b) Information returns or statements—(1) Federal Insurance Contributions Act. Every employer who is required under paragraph (a) of this section to make a return of tax under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act for any period within a calendar quarter shall make an information return for such calendar quarter. Such return shall be made on Schedule A of Form 941, or the equivalent schedule of Form 941PR or Form 941VI, except that, if some other form or schedule is furnished by the district director for the purpose of making such return, the return shall be made on such other form or schedule. The information reported on such return shall include, with respect to each employee to whom the employer pays wages as defined in the Federal Insurance Contributions Act, the account number of the employee, the employee's name, the total amount of wages paid by the employer to the employee during the calendar quarter, and such other information as may be called for on the form provided for making such return.

(2) Income tax withheld from wages. (i) Every employer who is required under paragraph (a) of this section to make a return of income tax withheld from wages for a period ending December 31, or for any period for which such return is made as a final return, shall make an information statement for the calendar year which includes such period. Such information statement shall be made on Form W–3, except that, if some other form is furnished by the district director for use in lieu of Form W–3, the information statement shall be made on such other form. The information statement shall be accompanied by the district director's copy of each withholding statement on Form W–2 required under § 31.6051–1 to be furnished by the employer with respect to wages paid during the calendar year (as well as such copy of each corrected statement for a prior year). The provisions of paragraph (b) (3) and (4) of § 31.6011 (a)–4 shall be applicable in respect of such withholding statements. For the penalty provided in case of each failure to file Form W–2, see the provisions of the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (Part 301 of this chapter) under section 6652.

(ii) For provisions relating to extensions of time for filing the district director's copies of Form W–2 and Form W–3, or such other form as may be furnished for use in lieu of Form W–3, see paragraph (a) (3) of § 31.6081 (a)–1.

(c) Time and place for filing returns. For provisions relating to the time and place for filing returns, see §§ 31.6071 (a)–1 and 31.6091–1, respectively.

§ 31.6011 (a)–6 Final returns—(a) In general—(1) Federal Insurance Contributions Act; income tax withheld from wages. An employer who is required to make a return on a particular form pursuant to § 31.6011 (a)–1, § 31.6011 (a)–4, or § 31.6011 (a)–5, and who in any return period ceases to pay wages in respect of which he is required to make a return on such form, shall make such return for such period as a final return. Each return made as a final return shall be marked "Final return" by the person filing the return. Every such person filing a final return (other than a final return on Form 942 or Form 943) shall furnish information showing the date of the last payment of wages, as defined in section 3121 (a) or section 3401 (a). An employer (other than an employer making returns on Form 942) who has only temporarily ceased to pay wages, because of seasonal activities or for other reasons, shall not make a final return but shall continue to file returns. If (i) for any return period an employer makes a final return on a particular form, and (ii) after the close of such period the employer pays wages, as defined in section 3121 (a) or section 3401 (a), in respect of which the same or a different return form is prescribed, such employer shall make returns on the appropriate return form. For example, if an employer who has filed a final return on Form 941 pays wages only for domestic service in his private home not on a farm operated for profit, the employer is required to make returns on Form 942 in respect of such wages.

(2) Railroad Retirement Tax Act—(i) Form CT–1. An employer required to make returns on Form CT–1 who in any calendar quarter ceases to pay taxable compensation shall make the return on Form CT–1 for such quarter as a final return. Such return shall be marked "Final return" by the person filing the return, and such person shall furnish information showing the date of the last payment of taxable compensation. An employer who has only temporarily ceased to pay taxable compensation shall continue to file returns on Form CT–1.

(ii) Form CT–2. An employee representative required to make returns on Form CT–2 who in any calendar quarter ceases to be paid taxable compensation for services as an employee representative shall make the return on Form CT–2 for such quarter as a final return. Such return shall be marked "Final return" by the person filing the return, and such person shall furnish information showing the date of the last payment of taxable compensation. An employee representative who only temporarily ceases to be paid taxable compensation for services as an employee representative shall continue to file returns on Form CT–2.

(3) Federal Unemployment Tax Act. An employer required to make a return on Form 940 for a calendar year in which he ceases to be an employer, as defined in § 31.3306 (a)–1 of Subpart D of the regulations in this part, because of the discontinuance, sale, or other transfer of his business, shall make such return as a final return. Such return shall be marked "Final return" by the person filing the return.

(b) Statement to accompany final return. There shall be executed as a part of each final return, except in the case of a final return on Form 942, a statement showing the address at which the records required by the regulations in this part will be kept, the name of the person keeping such records, and, if the business of an employer has been sold or otherwise transferred to another person, the name and address of such person and the date on which such sale or other transfer took place. If no such sale or transfer occurred or the employer does not know the name of the person to whom the business was sold or transferred, that fact should be included in the statement. Such statement shall include any information required by this section as to the date of the last payment of wages or compensation. If the statement is executed as a part of a final return on Form CT–1 or Form CT–2, such statement shall be furnished in duplicate.

(c) Time and place for filing returns. For provisions relating to the time and place for filing returns, see §§ 31.6071 (a)–1 and 31.6091–1, respectively.

§ 31.6011 (a)–7 Execution of returns—(a) In general. Each return required under the regulations in this part, together with any prescribed copies or supporting data, shall be filled in and disposed of in accordance with the forms, instructions, and regulations applicable thereto. The return shall be carefully prepared so as fully and accurately to set forth the data required to be furnished therein. Returns which have not been so prepared will not be accepted as meeting the requirements of the regulations in this part. The return may be made by an agent in the name of the person required to make the return if an acceptable power of attorney is filed with the district director and if such return includes all taxes required to be reported by such person on such return for the period covered by the return. Only one return on any one prescribed form for a return period shall be filed by or for a taxpayer. Any supplemental return made on such form in accordance with § 31.6205–1 shall constitute a part of the return which it supplements. Consolidated returns of two or more employers are not permitted, as for example, returns of a parent and a subsidiary corporation. For provisions relating to the filing of returns of the taxes imposed by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act and of income tax withheld under section 3402 in the case of governmental employers, see § 31.3122 of Subpart B, and § 31.3404–1 of Subpart E, of the regulations in this part.

(b) Use of prescribed forms. Copies of the prescribed return forms will so far as possible be regularly furnished taxpayers by district directors. A taxpayer will not be excused from making a return, however, by the fact that no return form has been furnished to him. Taxpayers not supplied with the proper forms should make application therefor to the district director in ample time to have their returns prepared, verified, and filed with the district director on or before the due date. See §§ 31.6071 (a)–1 and 31.6091–1, relating, respectively, to the time and place for filing returns. In the absence of a prescribed return form, a statement made by a taxpayer disclosing the aggregate amount of wages or compensation reportable on such form for the period in respect of which a return is required and the amount of taxes due may be accepted as a tentative return. If filed within the prescribed time, the statement so made will relieve the taxpayer from liability for the addition to tax imposed for the delinquent filing of the return: Provided That without unnecessary delay such tentative return is supplemented by a return made on the proper form. For additions to the tax in case of failure to file a return within the prescribed time, see the provisions of the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (Part 301 of this chapter) under section 6651.

(c) Signing and verification. For provisions relating to the signing of returns, see § 31.6061–1. For provisions relating to the verifying of returns, see the provisions of the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (Part 301 of this chapter) under section 6065.

§ 31.6071 (a) Statutory provisions; time for filing returns and other documents.

SEC. 6071. Time for filing returns and other documents—(a) General rule. When not otherwise provided for by this title, the Secretary or his delegate shall by regulations prescribe the time for filing any return, statement, or other document required by this title or by regulations.

§ 31.6071 (a)–1 Time for filing returns and other documents—(a) Federal Insurance Contributions Act and income tax withheld from wages—(1) Quarterly or annual returns. Each return required to be made under § 31.6011 (a)–1, in respect of the taxes imposed by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act, or required to be made under § 31.6011 (a)–4, in respect of income tax withheld, shall be filed on or before the last day of the first calendar month following the period for which it is made. However, any such return may be filed on or before the tenth day of the second calendar month following such period if such return is accompanied by depositary receipts, Form 450, showing timely deposits in full payment of such taxes due for such period. For the purpose of the preceding sentence, a deposit which is not required to be made within such return period may be made on or before the last day of the first calendar month following the close of such period, and the timeliness of the deposit for any month will be determined by the earliest date stamped on the validated Form 450 by an authorized commercial bank or by a Federal Reserve bank.

(2) Monthly tax returns. Each return in respect of the taxes imposed by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act or of income tax withheld which is required to be made under paragraph (a) of § 31.6011 (a)–5 shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of the first calendar month following the period for which it is made.

(3) Information returns or statements—(i) Federal Insurance Contributions Act. Each information return in respect of wages as defined in the Federal Insurance Contributions Act which is required to be made under paragraph (b) (1) of § 31.6011 (a)–5 shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day following the calendar quarter for which it is made, except that, if a tax return under paragraph (a) of § 31.6011 (a)–5 is made as a final return for a period ending prior to the last day of a calendar quarter, the information return shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of the first calendar month following the period for which the tax return is filed.

(ii) Income tax withheld from wages. Each information statement in respect of income tax withheld from wages which is required to be made under paragraph (b) (2) of § 31.6011 (a)–5 shall be filed on or before January 31 following the calendar year for which it is made, except that, if a tax return under paragraph (a) of § 31.6011 (a)–5 is filed as a final return for a period ending prior to December 31, the information statement shall be filed on or before the last day of the first calendar month following the period for which the tax return is filed.

(b) Railroad Retirement Tax Act. Each return of the taxes imposed by the Railroad Retirement Tax Act required to be made under § 31.6011 (a)–2 shall be filed on or before the last day of the second calendar month following the period for which it is made.

(c) Federal Unemployment Tax Act. Each return of the tax imposed by the Federal Unemployment Tax Act required to be made under § 31.6011 (a)–3 shall be filed on or before the last day of the first calendar month following the period for which it is made.

(d) Last day for filing. For provisions relating to the time for filing a return when the prescribed due date falls on Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday, see the provisions of the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (Part 301 of this chapter) under section 7503.

(e) Late filing. For additions to the tax in case of failure to file a return within the prescribed time, see the provisions of the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (Part 301 of this chapter) under section 6651.

(f) Cross reference. For extensions of time for filing returns and other documents, see § 31.6081 (a)–1.

§ 31.6081 (a) Statutory provisions; extension of time for filing returns.

SEC. 6081. Extension of time for filing returns—(a) General rule. The Secretary or his delegate may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing any return, declaration, statement, or other document required by this title or by regulations. Except in the case of taxpayers who are abroad, no such extension shall be for more than 6 months.

§ 31.6081 (a)–1 Extensions of time for filing returns and other documents—(a) Federal Insurance Contributions Act; income tax withheld from wages; and Railroad Retirement Tax Act—(1) In general. Except as otherwise provided in subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph, no extension of time for filing any return or other document required in respect of the Federal Insurance Contributions Act, income tax withheld from wages, or the Railroad Retirement Tax Act may be granted by the district director.

(2) Information returns of employers required to file monthly returns of tax under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act. The district director may, upon application of the employer, grant an extension of time in which to file any information return required under paragraph (b) (1) of § 31.6011 (a)–5. Such extension of time shall not extend beyond the last day of the calendar month in which occurs the due date prescribed in paragraph (a) (3) (i) of § 31.6071 (a)–1 for filing the information return. Each application for an extension of time for filing an information return shall be made in writing, properly signed by the employer or his duly authorized agent; shall be addressed to the district director with whom the employer will file the return; and shall contain a full recital of the reasons for requesting the extension, to aid the district director in determining the period of the extension, if any, which will be granted. Such a request in the form of a letter to the district director will suffice as an application. The application shall be filed on or before the due date prescribed in paragraph (a) (3) (i) of § 31.6071 (a)–1 for filing the information return.

(3) Information statements of employers required to file returns of income tax withheld from wages. For good cause shown upon application by an employer, the district director may grant an extension of time not exceeding 30 days in which to file (i) the district director's copies of Form W–2 pursuant to paragraph (b) (1) of § 31.6011 (a)–4 or paragraph (b) (2) of § 31.6011 (a)–5, and (ii) Form W–3 pursuant to paragraph (b) (2) of § 31.6011 (a)–4 or paragraph (b) (2) of § 31.6011 (a)–5, or such other form as may be furnished pursuant to paragraph (b) (2) of § 31.6011 (a)–5 for use in lieu of Form W–3. Each application for an extension of time under this subparagraph shall be made in writing, properly signed by the employer or his duly authorized agent; shall be addressed to the district director with whom the employer will file the Forms W–2 and Form W–3, or such other form as may be furnished for use in lieu thereof, and shall contain a full recital of the reasons for requesting the extension, to aid the district director in determining the period of the extension, if any, which will be granted. Such a request in the form of a letter to the district director will suffice as an application. The application shall be filed on or before the date on which the employer is required to file the Forms W–2 and Form W–3, or such other form as may be furnished for use in lieu thereof, without regard to this subparagraph.

(b) Federal Unemployment Tax Act. The district director may, upon application of the employer, grant a reasonable extension of time (not to exceed 90 days) in which to file any return required in respect of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act. Any application for an extension of time for filing the return shall be in writing, properly signed by the employer or his duly authorized agent; shall be addressed to the district director with whom the employer will file the return; and shall contain a full recital of the reasons for requesting the extension, to aid the district director in determining the period of the extension, if any, which will be granted. Such a request in the form of a letter to the district director will suffice as an application. The application shall be filed on or before the due date prescribed in paragraph (c) of § 31.6071 (a)–1 for filing the return, or on or before the date prescribed for filing the return in any prior extension granted. An extension of time for filing a return does not operate to extend the time for payment of the tax or any part thereof.

(c) Duly authorized agent. In any case in which an employer is unable, by reason of illness, absence, or other good cause, to sign a request for an extension, any person standing in close personal or business relationship to the employer may sign the request on his behalf, and shall be considered as a duly authorized agent for this purpose, provided the request sets forth the reasons for a signature other than the employer's and the relationship existing between the employer and the signer.

SEC. 6151. Time and place for paying tax shown on returns—(a) General rule. Except as otherwise provided in this section, when a return of tax is required under this title or regulations, the person required to make such return shall, without assessment or notice and demand from the Secretary or his delegate, pay such tax to the principal internal revenue officer for the internal revenue district in which the return is required to be filed, and shall pay such tax at the time and place fixed for filing the return (determined without regard to any extension of time for filing the return).

(b) Exceptions. • • •

(2) Use of Government depositaries. For authority of the Secretary or his delegate to require payments to Government depositaries, see section 6302 (c).

(c) Date fixed for payment of tax. In any case in which a tax is required to be paid on or before a certain date, or within a certain period, any reference in this title to the date fixed for payment of such tax shall be deemed a reference to the last day fixed for such payment (determined without regard to any extension of time for paying the tax).

§ 31.6151–1 Time for paying tax—(a) In general. The tax required to be reported on each tax return required under this subpart is due and payable to the district director at the time prescribed in § 31.6071 (a)–1 for filing such return. See the applicable sections of the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (26 CFR Part 301), for provisions relating to interest on underpayments, additions to tax, and penalties.

(b) Use of Government depositaries. For provisions relating to the use of Federal Reserve banks and authorized commercial banks in depositing the taxes, see §§ 31.6302 (c)–1 and 31.6302 (c)–2.

§ 31.6302 (c) Statutory provisions; mode or time of collection; use of Government depositaries.

SEC. 6302. Mode or time of collection. • • •

(c) Use of Government depositaries. The Secretary or his delegate may authorize Federal Reserve banks, and incorporated banks or trust companies which are depositaries or financial agents of the United States, to receive any tax imposed under the internal revenue laws, in such manner, at such times, and under such conditions as he may prescribe; and he shall prescribe the manner, times, and conditions under which the receipt of such tax by such banks and trust companies is to be treated as payment of such tax to the Secretary or his delegate.

§ 31.6302 (c)–1 Use of Government depositaries in connection with taxes under Federal Insurance Contributions Act and income tax withheld—(a) Requirement—(1) In general. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, if during any calendar month, other than the last month of a calendar quarter, the aggregate amount of—

(i) The employee tax withheld under section 3102,

(ii) The employer tax for such month under section 3111, and

(iii) The income tax withheld under section 3402, exclusive of taxes with respect to wages for agricultural labor or for domestic service in a private home of the employer, exceeds $100 in the case of an employer, such employer shall deposit such aggregate amount within 15 days after the close of such calendar month with a Federal Reserve bank.

(2) Employers of agricultural workers—(i) Requirement for 1955. If during any calendar month, other than the last month of a calendar quarter, in 1955 the aggregate amount of—

(a) The employee tax withheld under section 3102 with respect to wages for agricultural labor, and

(b) The employer tax under section 3111 for such month with respect to wages for agricultural labor, exceeds $100 in the case of an employer, such employer shall deposit such aggregate amount within 15 days after the close of such calendar month with a Federal Reserve bank.

(ii) Requirement for 1956 and subsequent years. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, if during any calendar month other than December, in any calendar year after 1955, the aggregate amount of—

(a) The employee tax withheld under section 3102 during such month with respect to wages for agricultural labor, plus any such employee tax which was previously withheld in the same calendar year with respect to such wages but which was neither deposited nor required to be deposited on or before the last day of such month, and

(b) The employer tax under section 3111 for such month with respect to wages for agricultural labor, plus any such employer tax, which was neither deposited nor required to be deposited on or before the last day of such month, for any prior month of the same calendar year with respect to wages for agricultural labor, exceeds $100 in the case of an employer, such employer shall deposit such aggregate amount within 15 days after the close of such calendar month with a Federal Reserve bank.

(3) Depositary receipts. Any deposit required to be made by an employer under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall be made separately from any deposit required to be made by him under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph. However, an employer required to make deposits under subparagraph (1) or subpargaraph (2) may make one, or more than one, remittance of the amount required by such subparagraph to be deposited for a calendar month. Each such remittance shall be accompanied by a Federal Depositary Receipt (Form 450) which shall be prepared in accordance with the instructions applicable thereto. The employer shall forward such remittance, together with such depositary receipt, to a Federal Reserve bank or, at his election, to a commercial bank authorized in accordance with Treasury Department Circular No. 848 to accept remittances of the taxes for transmission to a Federal Reserve bank. After the Federal Reserve bank has validated the depositary receipt, such depositary receipt will be returned to the employer. Every employer making deposits pursuant to this section shall attach to his return for the period with respect to which such deposits are made, in part or in full payment of the taxes shown thereon, depositary receipts so validated, and shall pay to the district director the balance, if any, of the taxes due for such period. An amount of tax which is not required to be deposited may nevertheless be deposited if the employer so desires. If a deposit is made for the last month of a return period, the employer shall make it in ample time (whether before, on, or after the fifteenth day of the succeeding month) to enable the Federal Reserve bank to return the validated receipt to the employer so that it can be attached to and filed with the employer's return.

(4) Procurement of prescribed forms. Initially, Form 450, Federal Depositary Receipt, will so far as possible be furnished the employer by the district director. An employer not supplied with the proper form should make application therefor to the district director in ample time to have such form available for use in making his initial deposit within the time prescribed in this paragraph. Thereafter, a blank form will be sent to the employer by the Federal Reserve bank when returning the validated depositary receipt. An employer may secure additional forms from a Federal Reserve bank by applying therefor and advising the bank of his identification number. The employer's identification number and name, as entered on each depositary receipt, shall be the same as they are required to be shown on the return to be filed with the district director. The address of the employer, as entered on each depositary receipt, should be the address to which the receipt should be returned following validation by the Federal Reserve bank.

(b) Monthly returns. The provisions of this section are not applicable with respect to taxes for the month in which the employer receives notice from the district director that returns are required under § 31.6011 (a)–5, or for any subsequent month for which such a return is required.

§ 31.6302 (c)–2 Use of Government depositaries in connection with employee and employer taxes under Railroad Retirement Tax Act—(a) Requirement. If during any calendar month the aggregate amount of—

(1) The employee tax withheld under section 3202 or under corresponding provisions of prior law, and

(2) The employer tax for such month under section 3221 or under corresponding provisions of prior law, exceeds $100 in the case of an employer, such employer shall deposit such aggregate amount within 15 days after the close of such calendar month with a Federal Reserve bank, except that the deposit for the last month of a return period shall be made on or before the last day of the first month following such period. If a portion of the taxes for a calendar month is reportable under § 31.6011 (a)–2 on the return on Form CT–1 for the return period immediately preceding such month, the employer is required to deposit such portion in the same manner as if it were for the last calendar month in such return period.

(b) Depositary receipts. The employer may make one, or more than one, remittance of the amounts required by paragraph (a) of this section to be deposited for a calendar month. Each such remittance shall be accompanied by a Railroad Retirement Depositary Receipt (Form 515), which shall be prepared in accordance with the instructions applicable thereto. The employer shall forward such remittance, together with such depositary receipt, to a Federal Reserve bank or, at his election, to a commercial bank authorized in accordance with Treasury Department Circular No. 848 to accept remittances of the taxes for transmission to a Federal Reserve bank. After the Federal Reserve bank has validated the depositary receipt, such depositary receipt will be returned to the employer. Every employer making deposits pursuant to this section shall attach to his return for the period with respect to which such deposits are made, in part or in full payment of the taxes shown thereon, depositary receipts so validated and shall pay to the district director the balance, if any, of the taxes due for such period. If the aggregate amount of the taxes deposited, as shown on the depositary receipt or receipts attached to such return, is in excess of the taxes shown on such return, a credit or refund may be obtained; and in the event the excess is applied as a credit against taxes reported by the employer on a return on Form CT–1 for a subsequent return period, the employer shall reduce the amount of the deposit otherwise required under paragraph (a) of this section for one of the months of such subsequent return period by the amount of such credit.

(c) Procurement of prescribed form. Initially, Form 515, Railroad Retirement Depositary Receipt, will so far as possible be furnished the employer by the district director. An employer not supplied with the proper form should make application therefor to the district director in ample time to have such form available for use in making his initial deposit within the time prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section. Thereafter, a blank form will be sent to the employer by the Federal Reserve bank when returning the validated depositary receipt. An employer may secure additional forms from a Federal Reserve bank by applying therefor and advising the bank of the identification number to be shown on his depositary receipts. The identification number, as entered on each depositary receipt, shall be the same as the identification number assigned to the employer pursuant to § 31.6011 (b)–1. The address of the employer, as entered on each depositary receipt, should be the address to which the receipt should be returned following validation by the Federal Reserve bank.

§ 31.6302 (c)–3 Cross references—(a) Failure to deposit. For provisions relating to the penalty for failure to make a deposit within the prescribed time, see the provisions of the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (Part 301 of this chapter) under section 6656.

(b) Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday. For provisions relating to the time for performance of acts where the last day falls on Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday, see the provisions of the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (Part 301 of this chapter) under section 7503.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Land Management

[43 CFR Part 67]

INDIANS, ALEUTS, AND ESKIMOS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior by the act of May 17, 1906 (34 Stat. 197), as amended August 2, 1956 (70 Stat. 954; 48 U. S. C. 357), and Revised Statutes 2478 (43 U. S. C. 1201), it is proposed to issue regulations clarifying existing regulations and implementing the act of August 2, 1956, supra. The proposed regulations are set forth below.

Interested persons may submit in triplicate written comments, suggestions, or objections with respect to the proposed regulations to the Bureau of Land Management, Washington 25, D. C. within 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

ROGER ERNST,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

SEPTEMBER 8, 1958.

1. The title to Part 67 is revised to read "Indians, Aleuts, and Eskimos."

2. A new center heading is added after § 67.11 to read "Possessory Claim Hearings."

3. Section 67.10 is revoked in its entirety.

4. Sections 67.1 to 67.9 and 67.11 are revised to read as follows:

ALLOTMENTS TO INDIANS, ALEUTS AND ESKIMOS

§ 67.1 Statutory authority. (a) The act of May 17, 1906 (34 Stat. 197), as amended August 2, 1956 (70 Stat. 954; 48 U. S. C. 357), authorizes the Secretary of the Interior to allot not to exceed 160 acres of vacant, unappropriated, and unreserved nonmineral land in Alaska or, subject to the provisions of the act of March 8, 1922 (42 Stat. 415; 48 U. S. C. 376–377), of vacant, unappropriated, and unreserved public land in Alaska that may be valuable for coal, oil, or gas deposits, or, under certain conditions, of national forest lands in Alaska, to certain Indians, Aleuts, or Eskimos of full or mixed blood, who reside in and are natives of the Territory.

(b) Under the Allotment Act, as amended, an applicant for allotment must be at least 21 years of age or the head of a family.

(c) Under the terms of the Allotment Act, as amended, the land allotted is deemed to be the homestead of the allottee and his heirs in perpetuity, and is inalienable and nontaxable. An Indian, Aleut, or Eskimo who receives an allotment under the act, or his heirs, however, may with the approval of the Secretary, convey the complete title to the allotted land by deed. The allotment shall thereafter be free of any restrictions against alienation and taxation unless the purchaser is an Indian, Aleut, or Eskimo native of Alaska who the Secretary determines is unable to manage the land without the protection of the United States and the conveyance provides for a continuance of such restrictions.

§ 67.2 National forest lands. Allotments may be made in national forests if founded on occupancy of the land prior to the establishment of the particular forest or if an authorized officer of the Department of Agriculture certifies that the land in the application for allotment is chiefly valuable for agricultural or grazing purposes.

§ 67.3 Coal, oil, or gas lands. Lands in applications for allotment and allotments that may be valuable for coal, oil, or gas deposits are subject to the regulations of Part 66 of this chapter.

§ 67.4 Number of allotments; contiguity. (a) No more than one allotment may be made to any one person.

(b) Lands in an allotment must be in a reasonably compact form and cannot consist of incontiguous tracts of land.

§ 67.5 Applications for allotment. (a) Applications for allotment must be filed, in triplicate on Form 4–021, properly and completely executed, in the land office which has jurisdiction over the lands. The application must be signed by the applicant but if he is unable to write his name, his mark or thumb print must be impressed on the application and witnessed by two persons.

(b) If surveyed, the land must be described in the application according to legal subdivisions of the public land surveys. If unsurveyed, it must be described as accurately as possible by metes and bounds and natural objects, and its position with reference to rivers, creeks, mountains or mountain peaks, towns or other prominent topographic points or natural objects or monuments, and to well-known nearby roads and trails, must be given.

(c) The application must be accompanied by a statement by the applicant that he has plainly indicated on the ground the corners of the land applied for by setting substantial posts or heaping up mounds of stones on each corner and that he has posted a notice of the application on the land, describing the tract applied for in the terms employed in the application on Form 4–021.

(d) Any application for allotment of lands which extend more than 160 rods along the shore of any navigable waters must be accompanied by a showing that the lands are not necessary for harborage, landing and wharf purposes and that the public interests will not be injured by waiver of the 160-rod limitation (see Part 77 of this chapter).

(e) Applications for allotment will be referred by the Bureau of Land Management to the Bureau of Indian Affairs for certification by an authorized officer that the applicant is a native qualified to make application under the Allotment Act, as amended. If the application is returned without such a certification, the application will be rejected.

(f) The filing of an application for allotment will grant no rights to the applicant over and above those which are specified in §§ 67.6 and 67.11. If the applicant does not submit the proof required by § 67.7 within 6 years of the filing of his application in the land office, his application for allotment will terminate without affecting the rights of the applicant gained by virtue of his occupancy of the land, or his rights to make another application. If the application was filed prior to the effective date of this paragraph, the application will be terminated under this paragraph only by decision of the authorized officer after appropriate notice to the applicant, granting him a reasonable period within which to file proof of continuous use and occupancy of the land as required by the regulation in this part.

§ 67.6 Segregative effect of applications. The filing of an acceptable application for allotment will segregate the lands to the extent that conflicting applications for such lands will be rejected, except when accompanied by a showing that the applicant for allotment has permanently abandoned occupancy of the land.

§ 67.7 Allotments. An allotment will not be made until the applicant has made satisfactory proof of substantially continuous use and occupancy of the land for a period of five years and the lands are surveyed by the Bureau of Land Management. Such proof must be made in triplicate and filed in the appropriate land office. It must be signed by the applicant, but if he is unable to write his name, his mark or thumb print must be impressed on the statement and witnessed by two persons. The showing of five years' use and occupancy may be submitted with the application for allotment if the applicant has then used and occupied the land for five years, or at any time after the filing of the application when the required showing can be made. The proof should give the name of the applicant, identify the application on which it is based, and appropriately describe the land involved. It should show the periods each year applicant has resided on the land; the amount of the land cultivated each year to garden or other crops; the amount of crops harvested each year; the number and kinds of domestic animals kept on the land by the applicant and the years they were kept there; the character and value of the improvements made by the applicant and when they were made; and the use, if any, to which the land has been put for fishing or trapping.

§ 67.8 Approval of conveyances. Applications for approval of conveyances by an allottee or his heirs must be filed with the appropriate office of the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

§ 67.9 Appeals. An appeal pursuant to the rules of practice, Part 221 of this chapter, may be taken from the decision of the authorized officer of the Bureau of Land Management.

SEGREGATION OF OCCUPIED LANDS

§ 67.11 Occupied lands not subject to entry. Lands occupied by Indians, Aleuts, and Eskimos in good faith are not subject to entry or appropriation by others.

LIGHTING EQUIPMENT FOR ILLUMINATING UNDERGROUND WORKINGS

PROCEDURES FOR TESTING FOR PERMISSIBILITY AND APPROVAL

Pursuant to section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U. S. C. 1003), notice is hereby given that under authority contained in sec. 5, 36 Stat. 370, as amended, 30 U. S. C. 7; and sec. 1, 66 Stat. 709, 30 U. S. C. 482 (a); it is proposed to revise the regulations in Part 26, Title 30, Code of Federal Regulations, as set forth below.

The principal revisions are: Changes in format; definitions enlarged to include more detailed explanation of specific items; fee added for the investigation of a complete lighting system; clearer distinction made between intrinsically-safe and explosion-proof types of lighting fixtures, as well as specifications for each type of fixture; specifications for portable cables and cable connectors more explicit; a section covering certification of component parts added; and a distinction drawn between certification of component parts and approval for permissibility of complete lighting systems.

Interested persons may submit, in triplicate, written comments, suggestions, or objections with respect to the proposed revision to the Director, Bureau of Mines, Washington 25, D. C., within 30 days after the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

MARLING J. ANKENY,
Director, Bureau of Mines.

Approved: September 8, 1958.

FRED A. SEATON,
Secretary of the Interior.

AUTHORITY: §§ 26.1 to 26.20 issued under sec. 5, 36 Stat. 370, as amended, sec. 212, 66 Stat. 709; 30 U. S. C. 7, 482. Interpret or apply secs. 2, 3, 36 Stat. 370, as amended, secs. 201, 209, 66 Stat. 692, 703; 30 U. S. C. 3, 5, 471, 479.

§ 26.1 Purpose. The regulations in this part set forth the specifications and requirements for mine-lighting systems to procure their approval and certification as permissible for use in coal mines and certification of components for use in permissible lighting systems; procedures for applying for such certification; and fees.

§ 26.2 Definitions. As used in this part:

(a) "Permissible," as applied to mine-lighting systems, means that the system conforms to the specifications and requirements of this part, and that a certificate of approval to that effect has been issued.

(b) "Certificate of approval for permissibility" means a formal document issued by the Bureau stating that the system has met the specifications and requirements in this part and authorizing the use and attachment of an official approval plate.

(c) "Certification of components" means a statement in a letter of certification issued by the Bureau that the components which are intended for use in permissible mine-lighting systems have satisfied all of the applicable requirements prescribed in this part.

(d) "Lighting system" means a complete assembly of all the components required to establish illumination, including the fixtures, wiring, connectors, circuit-protection devices, and any other related parts.

(e) "Incendive spark" means an electric spark or arc capable of igniting flammable methane-air mixtures.

(f) "Intrinsically safe" means a fixture, a combination of parts, or an electrical circuit that will not cause ignition of flammable methane-air mixtures in any normal operation, during an intended manipulation, or when accidentally broken, if properly installed and supplied by a voltage that does not vary excessively from the nominal rating. (For the purpose of this part, the definition may include, for example, certain types of fluorescent lamps which when broken will not cause ignition of flammable methane-air mixtures.)

(g) "Fixture circuit" means the circuit or wiring contained in the fixture enclosure.

(h) "Explosion-proof" means capable of withstanding internal explosions of methane-air mixtures without damage to the enclosure or discharge of flame. For detailed requirements see Part 18 of this subchapter (Schedule 2F).

(i) "Explosion resistant" means an enclosure not built to explosion-proof specifications but capable of withstanding interal explosions of methane-air mixtures without igniting surrounding explosive methane-air mixtures, and without damage to the enclosure.

(j) "Drip-proof" means so constructed or protected that the successful operation of a lighting fixture is not interfered with when it is subjected to falling moisture or dirt.

(k) "Distribution box" means a portable enclosure in which one or more portable cables may be connected to a common source of electrical energy.

(l) "Normal operation" means the performance of those functions for which the component was designed.

(m) "Portable cable" means a flexible cable by means of which a portable lighting system may be connected to a source of electrical energy.

(n) "Frame ground" means a connection through a separate conductor to all exposed metallic casings and other parts which will maintain the casings and components at ground potential.

(o) "Sectional unit" means a lighting fixture that may be added to or removed from a lighting circuit as work advances or retreats.

(p) "Bureau" means the United States Bureau of Mines.

(q) "Applicant" means an individual, partnership, company, corporation, association, or other organization that designs, manufactures, or assembles, and seeks certification, or preliminary testing of a lighting system or its components.

§ 26.3 Consultation. By appointment, applicants or their representatives may visit the Bureau's Central Experiment Station, 4800 Forbes Avenue, Pittsburgh 13, Pennsylvania, to discuss with qualified Bureau representatives proposed designs of equipment to be submitted in accordance with the requirements of the regulations of this part. No charge is made for such consultation.

§ 26.4 Type of equipment that may be granted certificates of approval for permissibility. Certificates of approval for permissibility will be granted for completely assembled lighting systems only and not for individual parts or subassemblies. A certificate of approval for permissibility shall include all components, cables, and equipment used in other than fresh intake air, and also, necessary protective devices which may be housed in non-explosion-proof enclosures located in fresh intake air.

§ 26.5 Components that may be certified. Manufacturers of components that are designed for use in permissible mine-lighting systems may request the Bureau of Mines to issue a letter certifying to the suitability of components for such use. To qualify for certification, components shall have satisfactorily met the prescribed inspection and test requirements, and the construction thereof shall be adequately covered by specifications officially recorded and filed by the Bureau.

§ 26.6 Fees for investigation.

(a) The fee for a complete investigation of a mine lighting system is $145.00.

(b) The full fee must accompany an application for retesting equipment that has been previously tested and disapproved. If less work is involved than for a complete investigation, the charge will be in proportion to the work done. Any surplus will be refunded to the applicant.

(c) The fee for tests covering only part of a complete investigation, such as to assist an applicant in developing a part, will be charged according to the work involved and will be in proportion to that charged for a complete investigation. A fee for such tests shall be determined in advance by the Bureau and the applicant notified accordingly in writing.

(d) Ordinarily a fee is not charged for an application covering an extension of certification that does not require test work. Each case, however, will be considered individually, and if a fee is required, the applicant will be notified accordingly, and the fee must be paid in advance before the investigation will be undertaken.

(e) For detailed inspection of a fixture	$45.00
(When warranted by the amount of time spent, this charge may be reduced to not less than $22.50.)
(f) For explosion tests of an enclosure	35.00
(If less than 20 tests are involved, this charge may be reduced to not less than $17.50.)
(g) For each series of tests for the adequacy of electrical clearances and insulation, durability of parts, light output, surface temperatures, or protection against gas ignitions	40.00
(h) For examining and recording all the necessary drawings and specifications preparatory to issuing a certificate of approval for permissibility or certification of a component	25.00

(i) Tests to assist an applicant in the development of lighting equipment may be made upon request to the Chief, Branch of Electrical-Mechanical Testing, 4800 Forbes St., Pittsburgh 13, Pennsylvania, and charges therefore will be according to the work involved. Conducting such tests shall, however, be optional with the Bureau. A deposit of $100 shall be made in advance to cover the cost of such work. Any surplus remaining at the completion of this work will be refunded, or, if desired, can be applied to further work.

§ 26.7 Tests and investigations. Unless the application states otherwise, it will be presumed that a complete investigation for certification is desired. However, the application may be expressly limited to some element or phase less than a complete investigation. If the tests at any stage indicate that the lighting system does not conform to the specifications in this part, the Bureau may treat the application as one for a partial investigation up to that point. Complete investigation for certification will not be undertaken unless the equipment has been fully developed, is ready to be marketed, and is submitted completely assembled, including parts, connectors, and all related materials.

§ 26.8 Applications. (a) No investigation or testing will be undertaken by the Bureau except pursuant to a written application, in duplicate, accompanied by a check, bank draft, or money order, payable to the United States Bureau of Mines, to cover the fees, and all prescribed drawings, specifications, and related material. The application and all related matters and all correspondence concerning it shall be sent to the Central Experiment Station, Bureau of Mines, 4800 Forbes Avenue, Pittsburgh 13, Pennsylvania, Attention: Chief, Branch of Electrical-Mechanical Testing.

(b) The equipment to be tested may be shipped (charges prepaid) at the same time the application is submitted, or, at the option of the applicant, shipment of the equipment may be deferred until the Bureau has notified the applicant that the application will be accepted.

(c) Drawings and specifications shall be adequate in number and detail to identify fully the design of the device and to disclose its materials, detailed dimensions of all parts, and include a wiring diagram. Drawings must be numbered and dated to insure accurate identification and reference to records and must show the latest revision. Specifications must be given for materials, components, and subassemblies.

§ 26.9 Specifications; all types of lighting systems. (a) The Bureau will not test or investigate any lighting system that in its opinion is not constructed of suitable materials, that evidences faulty workmanship, or that is not designed upon sound engineering principles. In addition to any specifications or requirements imposed by the regulations in this part, the Bureau may impose such further specifications or requirements as in its opinion are necessary or proper to investigate or test the particular device submitted.

(b) Adequacy of design and construction will be determined in connection with the following factors: Kind and durability of materials, test of active parts, resistance to moisture, drop test, insulation measurements, durability of construction, practicality in operation, suitability for underground service, and performance characteristics during the investigation. Since all possible designs, arrangements, or combinations cannot be foreseen, the Bureau reserves the right to make any tests or to place any limitations on equipment or parts of equipment not specifically covered herein to determine the safety of such equipment with regard to explosion and fire hazards.

(c) The following types of lighting fixtures will be considered: (1) Intrinsically safe, and (2) explosion proof.

(d) All components must be designed and constructed in such a manner that they will not create an explosion or fire hazard.

(e) All enclosures must be essentially of "drip-proof" design.

(f) All fixtures and related components in a lighting system must be so designed that the temperature of external surfaces will not exceed 390° F. (200° C.) at any point during continual operation.

(g) No certificate of approval will be issued for a lighting system if the electrical pressure (difference of potential) of the power supply exceeds 300 volts direct current or 260 volts alternating current at the input terminals of any lighting fixture.

(h) The clearances between live parts and casings shall be such as to minimize the possibility of electric arcs between them, or if space is limited, the casing shall be lined with adequate insulation.

(i) Phenolic and other insulating materials that give off highly explosive gases when decomposed by heat, such as may be generated electrically, shall not be placed within enclosures where they might be subjected to destructive electrical arcing.

(j) All lighting circuits shall be provided with short-circuit protection. If distribution boxes are used for this purpose, they must conform with all of the applicable requirements of Part 18 of this subchapter (Schedule 2F) unless these distribution boxes are installed in fresh intake air. The circuit of each lighting fixture shall be protected against excessive overload currents.

(k) If an ungrounded system is used, which is electrically isolated from all other power circuits, fixtures and auxiliary equipment need not be frame grounded.

(l) If a grounded system is used, all cables must contain a separate grounding conductor to insure that all exposed conducting materials in the system will not exceed ground potential. A device that will disconnect all power from the system in case of a ground fault will meet this requirement.

(m) Power conductors must not be used for grounding.

(n) Lighting systems and fixtures shall be designed for hanging from supports, so that cables or components are not permitted to rest on the mine floor.

(o) All lighting fixtures must be provided with a lock or seal. Any other fastening that requires a special tool for its removal will be construed as an effective seal. In place of a conventional lock or seal, an electrical or mechanical interlock may be provided to prevent gaining access to the lamps with power on. Provision for removal of lamps without arcing or sparking will also be acceptable.

(p) Lighting fixtures must be so designed that vibration will not shake the lamps loose from their sockets or holders.

§ 26.10 Specifications; intrinsically safe lighting fixtures. (a) Intrinsically safe lighting fixtures shall be so constructed that they will withstand being dropped five times from a height of five feet on an oak platform in the presence of explosive methane-air mixtures. (In these tests Pittsburgh natural gas may be substituted for methane.) The safety elements of the fixture must function so that no explosion or fire hazard exists at any time during or after the tests. (Breakage of a fluorescent lamp will not in itself constitute test failure.)

(b) The fixture must be enclosed in an explosion-resistant housing that will afford mechanical protection and withstand a minimum of ten internal explosion tests in surrounding explosive atmospheres containing air with 7.0 to 10.0 percent of methane without (1) igniting the surrounding atmosphere, or (2) permanently distorting of any part of the fixture.

(c) Plastic material used in place of glass for lighting fixtures must not create explosion, fire, or toxic hazards when subjected to normal maximum operating temperatures.

§ 26.11 Specifications; explosion-proof lighting fixtures. (a) All lighting fixtures that cannot be designed intrinsically safe shall be constructed strictly in accordance with the applicable requirements of Part 18 of this subchapter (Schedule 2F).

(b) Transparent plastics used in place of glass shall be of the thickness required of glass and shall not crack or shatter when struck by dripping cold water.

§ 26.12 Specifications; cable connectors. (a) Connectors shall be constructed so as to afford a minimum of accessibility to live electrodes by any means other than the related plug.

(b) The material of which cable connectors are made must be equivalent to the insulation on the cables with respect to flame-resistant properties.

(c) Cable connectors shall meet the following requirements:

(1) A connector designed for a nominal 240-volt system shall be engaged and disengaged through 750 cycles under its rated load at 260 volts alternating current at 80 percent power factor.

(2) A connector designed for a nominal 120-volt system shall be engaged and disengaged through 750 cycles under its rated load at 130 volts alternating current at 80 percent power factor.

NOTE: The tests described in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph will be performed mechanically in the presence of explosive atmospheres containing air with 7.0 to 10.0 percent of methane. Ignition of the surrounding explosive atmosphere, destructive burning, distortion, and excessive temperature constitute failure.

(3) Under normal load, no part of any cable connector shall attain a temperature in excess of 175° F. during any of the prescribed tests.

(4) At 260 volts impressed, one cable connector shall be subjected to a short-circuit test at the maximum capacity of a 5 KVA transformer. The connector components will be mechanically engaged with the cable on the male portion short circuited at the plug. A time lag fuse of the maximum current rating of the connector will be connected in the circuit.

NOTE: The connector used for this test will be one already subjected to the cycling test described in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph.

Fusing of the contacts will constitute a failure.

(d) Cable connectors must be so designed that they will withstand a pull of 25 pounds without separating subsequent to the cycling tests described in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of paragraph (c) of this section.

§ 26.13 Specifications; portable cables. (a) All portable cables shall have 600-volt insulation and shall have an outer jacket that is highly resistant to abrasion, moisture, and heat. They shall meet the Bureau of Mines flame-resistance requirements of Part 18 of this subchapter (Schedule 2F).

(b) The minimum conductor size acceptable for lighting circuits shall be No. 14 (AWG). In any case, cables must have conductors of a size equal to or greater than the National Electric Code standard. The current carrying capacity shall be based upon the maximum load that will be carried by the cables in normal service.

§ 26.14 Conduct of investigations and demonstrations. Prior to the issuance of a certificate of approval, only Bureau personnel, representatives of the applicant, and such other persons as may be mutually agreed upon, may observe the investigations or tests. After the issuance of a certificate of approval, the Bureau may conduct such public demonstrations and tests of the approved system as it sees fit. The conduct of all investigations, tests, and demonstrations shall be under the sole direction and control of the Bureau, and any other persons shall be present only as observers. The Bureau shall hold as confidential and shall not disclose the results of chemical analyses of material or the contents of the application and its accompanying drawings, specifications, and related material.

§ 26.15 Certificate of approval for permissibility. (a) Upon completion of investigation of a lighting system, the Bureau will issue to the applicant either a certificate of approval for permissibility or a written notice of disapproval, as the case may require. If a certificate of approval for permissibility is issued, no test data or detailed results of tests will accompany it. If a notice of disapproval is issued, it will be accompanied by details of the defects, with a view to possible correction. The Bureau will hold as confidential results of tests that terminate in a notice of disapproval.

(b) A certificate of approval for permissibility will be accompanied by a list of the drawings and specifications covering the details of design and construction of the lighting system upon which the certificate is based, and with the official approval number marked thereon. Applicants shall keep exact duplicates of the drawings and specifications that have been submitted to the Bureau and that relate to any system which has received a certificate of approval, and these are to be adhered to exactly in production of the approved system for commercial purposes.

§ 26.16 Certification of components. (a) Upon completion of investigation of a component intended for use in a permissible lighting system, the Bureau will issue a letter of certification to the applicant, or a written notice of disapproval, as the case may require. If a letter of certification is issued, no test data or detailed results of tests will accompany it. If a notice of disapproval is issued, it will be accompanied by details on the defects, with a view to possible correction. The Bureau will hold as confidential results of tests that terminate in a notice of disapproval.

(b) Letters certifying components may be cited to manufacturers or assemblers of permissible lighting systems as evidence that further inspection and tests of the components will not be required, provided they are constructed strictly in accordance with the specifications on file with the Bureau. Such letters will specify a Bureau of Mines file number to be used in marketing a certified component, as indicated in paragraph (a) of § 26.18. Since the Bureau does not issue certificates of approval for permissibility except as applying to complete lighting systems, no person shall advertise or label components in a manner indicating that such components are certified as approved for permissibility by the Bureau. Certified components may be advertised as suitable for application in permissible lighting systems.

§ 26.17 Approval plate for permissible lighting systems. (a) A certificate of approval for permissibility will be accompanied by a photograph of a design for an approval plate, bearing the seal of the Bureau, space for the approval number, the type, the serial number, the class of device to which the approval relates, and the name of the applicant. When deemed necessary by the Bureau, an appropriate statement of the precautions to be observed in maintaining the system in an approved condition shall be added.

(b) The applicant shall reproduce the design either as a separate plate or by stamping or molding it in some suitable place on each lighting fixture of a certified system. The size, type, method of attaching and location of approval plates are subject to the approval of the Bureau. The method of affixing the plate shall not impair the explosion-proof or explosion-resistant features of any enclosure.

(c) The approval plate identifies the lighting system as permissible, and is the applicant's guarantee that the system complies with the specifications and requirements in this part. Without an approval plate, no lighting system is considered "permissible" under the provisions of this part.

(d) Use of the approval plate obligates the applicant to maintain the quality of the system which bears it, and guarantees that it is manufactured and assembled according to the drawings and specifications upon which a certificate of approval was based. Use of the approval plate is not authorized except on systems that conform strictly with the drawings and specifications upon which the certificate of approval was based.

§ 26.18 Markings for certified components. (a) Certified components shall bear permanent markings satisfactory to the Bureau and shall contain the following:

Certified _____
(Name of component)
Bureau of Mines File No. BM29-C-_____
Rating or caution statement, whichever is applicable.

(b) Use of such markings obligates the applicant to maintain the quality of each component bearing it and guarantees that it is manufactured and assembled according to the drawings and specifications upon which certification was based. Use of such markings is not authorized except on components that conform strictly with the drawings and specifications upon which certification was based.

§ 26.19 Changes after certification. If an applicant desires to change any feature of a certified system or component and have it covered by existing certification, he shall first obtain the Bureau's approval of the change, pursuant to the following procedures:

(a) Application shall be made, as for an original certification, requesting that the existing certification be extended to cover the proposed change. The application shall be accompanied by drawings and specifications and related material as in the case of an original application.

(b) The application will be examined by the Bureau to determine whether inspection and testing of the modified system or component will be required. Generally, inspection and testing will be necessary if there is a possibility that the modification may affect adversely the performance of the system or component. The Bureau will inform the applicant whether such inspection and testing is required, the parts or materials to be submitted for that purpose, and the fee.

(c) If the proposed modification meets the requirements and specifications of this part, a formal extension of the certification will be issued accompanied by a list of new and corrected drawings and specifications to be added to those already on file as the basis for the certificate.

§ 26.20 Withdrawal of certification. The Bureau reserves the right to rescind for cause, at any time, any certification granted under this part.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Agricultural Marketing Service

[7 CFR Part 928]

[Docket No. AO-327-A9]

MILK IN NEOSHO VALLEY MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of this recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement, and order regulating the handling of milk in the Neosho Valley marketing area. Interested parties may file written exceptions to this decision with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., not later than the close of business the 5th day after publication of this decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The hearing on the record of which the proposed amendments, as hereinafter set forth, to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, were formulated, was conducted at Pittsburg, Kansas, on August 26, 1958, pursuant to notice thereof which was issued August 19, 1958 (23 F.R. 6509).

The material issues on the record of the hearing relate to:

1. The definition of an approved plant.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions on the material issues are based on evidence presented at the hearing and the record thereof:

Approved plant. The definition of an approved plant should be changed so as to provide for a supply plant as well as for a distributing plant.

The essential function of a supply plant is to assemble milk into tank truck lots for economical shipment to distributing plants. This is particularly an important function with respect to milk gathered in 10 gallon cans but also applies to milk picked up from the farms by bulk tank trucks to the extent that their loads are consolidated into larger tankers. In addition, supply plants may be equipped to manufacture the reserve milk, thereby saving the cost of transporting the whole milk to city plants.

The present order provides only for the definition of an approved distributing plant, since this is the only type of plant heretofore associated with the market. An approved distributing plant is one from which 10 percent or more of its total receipts of Grade A milk are disposed of on routes in the marketing area.

One of the cooperative associations in the market has bought a distributing plant in Pittsburg, Kansas. This association also presently operates a distributing plant in Erie, Kansas. Their plans are to concentrate their entire bottling operation into one of these plants and the other will become a supply plant for the distributing plant and also supply Grade A milk to other handlers in the market on a supplemental basis. Some provision should be made for the economies of operation in these plants and for all the dairy farmers which are associated with these plants so that they may retain their pooled status under the order. The cooperative association also plans to establish a receiving station at Fort Scott, Kansas, where milk in 10-gallon cans will be assembled, cooled and shipped to distributing plants. This plant will serve the market in the same manner as the association's other supply plant. Therefore, the order should be amended to provide objective standards by which these supply plants, as well as other plants which may function in the same manner, can demonstrate their association with the Neosho Valley market. The standard by which a supply plant would qualify for approved plant status is the percentage of its Grade A receipts from dairy farmers which is disposed of to distributing plants which are approved plants.

The performance standards for supply plants to qualify for approved plant status should reflect the fact that currently the quantity of milk produced for the market is adequate on an annual basis for the needs of the market. At times, especially during the months of seasonally high production, distributors in the market may not need all of the milk available from producers in order to keep their Class I outlets fully supplied. In order to assure that all the producers' milk which is pooled with the market will be available for Class I, supply plant standards should be set at levels which require that such milk will be available.

In order to qualify for approved plant status at least 50 percent of the receipts of milk from dairy farmers at a supply plant should be disposed of to distributing plants which are approved plants in any month in the form of fluid milk products. A supply plant from which a proportionately lesser quantity of milk is disposed of in this manner should not, under the present conditions in the market, be considered as primarily associated with the regulated market.

It is recognized that if there is any demand for milk from supply plants it will be greatest during the season of low production. For sustained periods during the months of flush production, supplies of milk received at distributing plants may be sufficient to supply the Class I outlets. During this part of the year, it would be more economical to leave the milk at the supply plants for manufacture. The performance provisions should not force milk to be transported to distributing plants in the months of seasonally high production in order to maintain the eligibility of supply plants to pool.

To avoid this, provision should be made whereby a supply plant may maintain approved plant status throughout the year if it supplies a substantial portion of its producer milk to distributing plants during the months when milk production tends to be lowest. The proposed standards require that a supply plant provide distributing plants which are approved plants with milk to the extent of 50 percent of its producer milk receipts during each of the months of August through November to maintain automatic approved plant status for the succeeding months of December through July.

The cooperative association pointed to the obvious economies which could be achieved if all the milk from one of their two supply plants could be shipped to market to meet bottling needs while the reserve milk was concentrated at the other supply plant for processing into manufactured dairy products. This objective can be accomplished by allowing any group of supply plants to be pooled on the basis of total shipments of the group or system of plants.

This principle of combining plants for maintaining pool qualification should be extended to cover all plants for which a handler is responsible for the marketing of milk. The order should provide that the handler submit to the market administrator a certification containing the list of plants to be included in the system and the period that they should be so considered. The initial listing should be furnished with the handler's regular monthly report, due by the 7th day following the first month in which the system is applicable. Any additions or deletions from the listing should likewise be made by the 7th day following the month to which they apply. Each system is responsible for meeting the overall qualifications. If the system as a whole cannot remain qualified the market administrator must be notified if it is desired that one or more of the component plants be deleted from the system.

The order should be amended to recognize that milk incurs relatively little shrinkage in its receipt and much more in the processing, bottling and distribution operations. The supply plants in this market would incur relatively a small amount of shrinkage on milk which is transferred to a distributing plant. Therefore, up to one-half of one percent shrinkage should be allowed on that milk which is received at the supply plants and transferred to an approved plant for bottling and distribution. The distributing plant will be allowed up to one and one-half percent shrinkage on that milk received in bulk from a supply plant.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs and proposed findings and conclusions were filed on behalf of certain interested parties in the market. These briefs, proposed findings and conclusions and the evidence in the record were considered in making the findings and conclusions set forth above. To the extent that the suggested findings and conclusions filed by interested parties are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions set forth herein, the requests to make such findings or reach such conclusions are denied for the reasons previously stated in this decision.

General findings. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Recommended marketing agreement and order amending the order. The following order amending the order regulating the handling of milk in the Neosho Valley marketing area is recommended as the detailed and appropriate means by which the foregoing conclusions may be carried out. The recommended agreement is not included in this decision because the regulatory provisions thereof would be the same as those contained in the order, as hereby proposed to be amended:

1. Amend § 928.7 to read as follows:

§ 928.7 Approved plant. "Approved plant" means any milk plant, except that of a producer-handler, which is approved by the appropriate health authority having jurisdiction in the marketing area:

(a) From which 10 percent or more of the total receipts of Grade A milk is disposed of during the delivery period on wholesale or retail routes (including routes operated by vendors and disposition at plant stores) as Class I milk in the marketing area; or

(b) (1) From which no less than 50 percent of the Grade A milk received from dairy farmers is shipped to a plant(s) described in paragraph (a) of this section: Provided, That if such plant is an approved plant during each of the months of August through November, it shall be designated as an approved plant through the following August, unless the market administrator is requested by means of written application on or before the 7th day after the end of the month that the plant should not be an approved plant.

(2) All plants described in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph which are operated by one handler may be considered as a unit, upon written notice to the market administrator specifying the plants to be considered as a unit and the period during which such consideration shall apply. Such notice, and the notice of any change in designation, shall be furnished on or before the 7th day following the month to which the notice applies. In any of the months of January through July a unit shall not contain plants which were not qualified as approved plants either individually or as members of another unit, during each of the previous months of August through November.

2. Amend § 928.41 (b) (3) to read as follows:

(3) In shrinkage of milk received directly from producers that is not in excess of 2 percent (5 percent with respect to skim milk during the months of April, May and June 3), plus 1.5 percent (4.5 percent with respect to skim milk during the months of April, May and June) of receipts of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, transfered in bulk from approved plants, less 1.5 percent (4.5 percent with respect to skim milk during the months of April, May and June) of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, disposed of in bulk to approved plants; and Issued at Washington, D. C., this 8th day of September 1958.

ROY W. LENNARTSON,
Deputy Administrator,
Agricultural Marketing Service.

COTTON, SILK AND SYNTHETIC TEXTILE INDUSTRY; MINIMUM WAGE DETERMINATIONS

NOTICE OF HEARING TO DETERMINE PREVAILING MINIMUM WAGES

Pursuant to the provisions of section 1 (b) of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036, as amended; 41 U. S. C. 35 et. seq.) and section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et. seq.), notice is hereby given that a public hearing to determine the prevailing minimum wages in the cotton, silk and synthetic textile industry will be held before a duly assigned Hearing Examiner on October 15, 1958, beginning at 10:00 a. m., e. d. s. t., in Room 2203, United States Department of Labor Building, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D. C.

For the purposes of this hearing the cotton, silk and synthetic textile industry is defined as that industry which manufactures or furnishes cotton, silk and synthetic textiles, including the manufacturing, processing, bleaching, dyeing, printing or other finishing of any of the following items when made primarily of cotton, silk or synthetic fiber or [illegible] of these fibers: yarns; thread; [illegible] woven fabrics (more than twelve [illegible] in width); sheets and pillow [illegible] blankets; woven bedspreads; diaper [illegible] towels; and wash cloths, scrubbing cloths, and dishcloths. This definition, however, does not include the following activities:

1. The manufacturing or processing of the following types of yarns or threads:

(a) Carpet yarns containing any [illegible] pet wool;

(b) Yarn or thread made by the woolen system;

(c) Yarn or thread made by other than the woolen system and containing more than 45 percent by weight of wool or animal fiber (other than silk).

2. The chemical manufacturing of synthetic fiber and such related processing of yarn as is conducted in establishments manufacturing synthetic fiber.

3. The manufacturing, bleaching, dyeing, printing or other finishing of woven fabric (other than pile) from fiber mixtures containing more than 25 percent by weight of wool or animal fiber (other than silk); and the further manufacture of any products from such fabrics.

Any interested persons may appear at the time and place specified herein and submit evidence, views, and arguments as to the following subjects and issues: (1) The appropriateness of the proposed definition of the industry; (2) what are the prevailing minimum wages in the industry; (3) whether a single determination for all the area in which the industry operates or separate determinations for smaller geographic areas (including the appropriate limits for such areas) should be determined for this industry; and (4) whether there should be included in any determination for this industry provisions for the employment of beginners at wages lower than the prevailing minimum wages and on what terms or limitations, if any, such employment should be permitted.

Employment and wage data in this industry for the payroll period ending nearest March 15, 1958, has been gathered by the Department of Labor. This information will be submitted for consideration at the hearing, and is available to interested persons upon request. Data collected in the Department of Labor for use in preparing its monthly series on "Earnings and Hours" showing the movement of average hourly earnings in this industry subsequent to March 1958 may be submitted for consideration at the hearing on the question of what changes have occurred in the prevailing minimum wages in this industry since March 1958, to the date of the hearing.

Written statements may be filed with the Chief Hearing Examiner at any time prior to the data of the hearing by persons who cannot appear personally. An original and three copies of any such statement shall be filed and shall include the reason or reasons for non-appearance. Such statement shall be under oath or affirmation, and will be offered in evidence at the hearing. If objection is made to the admission of any such statement, the Presiding Officer shall determine whether it will be received in evidence.

To the extent possible, the evidence of each witness and the sworn or affirmed statements of persons who cannot appear personally, should permit evaluation on a plant-by-plant basis, and state: (1) (a) The number and location of establishments in the industry to which the testimony of such witness or such written statement is applicable, (b) the number of workers employed in each such establishment, (c) the minimum rates paid to covered workers and the number of covered workers at each such establishment receiving such rates and the occupations in which they are employed, (d) the minimum wages paid to beginners in each such establishment, the scale of wages paid during such periods, the length of such periods, the number of workers receiving such wages, and the occupations in which they are employed; (2) the identity of any product not now included in the definition of the industry which should be included and of any product now included which should not be included; (3) the geographic area or areas of competition within this industry; and (4) the changes in the minimum wages paid since March 1953, for persons employed in this industry.

This hearing will be conducted pursuant to the rules of practice for minimum wage determinations under the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act codified in 41 CFR Part 203.

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 6th day of September, 1958.

JAMES P. MITCHELL,
Secretary of Labor.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[14 CFR Part 29]

[Draft Release No. 58-17]

PHYSICAL STANDARDS FOR ISSUANCE OF FIRST CLASS MEDICAL CERTIFICATES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Pursuant to the authority delegated by the Civil Aeronautics Board to the Bureau of Safety, notice is hereby given that the Bureau will propose to the Board an amendment to Part 29 of the Civil Air Regulations as hereinafter set forth.

Interested persons may participate in the making of the proposed rule by submitting such written data, views, or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in duplicate to the Civil Aeronautics Board, attention Bureau of Safety, Washington 25, D. C. In order to insure their consideration by the Board before taking further action on the proposed rules, communications must be received by Nov. 12, 1958. Copies of such communications will be available after Nov. 17, 1958, for examination by interested parties at the Docket Section of the Board, Room 5412, Department of Commerce Building, Washington, D. C.

Currently effective Part 29 of the Civil Air Regulations prescribes the physical standards an airman must meet for the particular class of airman certificate applied for, and provides that a medical certificate shall be issued an applicant who fails to meet the physical standards prescribed for the medical certificate sought if the Administrator finds through more extensive medical examination, practical tests or otherwise that, by the imposition of terms, conditions, or limitations, the applicant, notwithstanding his physical deficiency, can perform the duties and exercise those privileges authorized by the Administrator without endangering safety in air commerce.

Present provisions with respect to the heart require that the applicant for a first class medical certificate shall have no organic or functional disease or structural defect or limitation which would be likely to render him unable to safely perform the duties or exercise the privileges of the grade of airman certificate sought or held.

The Bureau proposes to recommend to the Board that Part 29 be amended to provide for the inclusion of an electrocardiogram requirement in the physical examination for first class medical certificates. The reason for requiring the use of the electrocardiogram is that cases of healed myocardial infarction cannot otherwise be recognized if the applicant for a medical certificate, by reason of an actual lack of knowledge or otherwise, does not reveal the history of an acute attack. It is proposed that the use of the electrocardiogram on a mandatory basis be limited to the first class medical examination inasmuch as the first class medical certificate is required only of those persons applying for or holding an airline transport rating. The airline transport rating is required only of those persons serving as pilots in scheduled air transportation. It is considered that the highest professional and physical standards should apply to scheduled airline transportation since it is in this area that the greatest responsibility to the public exists. By virtue of the airline transport rating the holder is authorized to engage in scheduled airline pilot activities and, therefore, whether so engaged or not, must meet the required physical standards for this rating.

Myocardial infarction results from coronary artery disease. The word myocardial means "pertaining to heart muscle." Infarction means "localized death of tissue due to restriction of its blood supply." The coronary arteries are the blood vessels which supply nourishment to the heart muscle, and the diseases which may tend to occlude them include arteriosclerosis (loss of elasticity) and atherosclerosis (fatty deposits) either of which may produce thrombosis (clotting of blood). The usual underlying cause of myocardial infarction is a generalized degenerative process of arteriosclerosis or atherosclerosis which is rarely, if ever, limited to a single location. Some such process must exist in a person who has had an infarct, therefore, further attacks are probable. The onset of an infarction may be quite sudden and without warning, and is usually incapacitating. Reports which compromise long-term follow-up of substantial numbers of these patients show that following the initial attack, which itself causes fatalities estimated to be between 10 and 25 percent, the annual mortality rate is from 3 to 15 times greater than that of the general population of the same age, and there is no way of predicting when such individuals will suffer a recurrent attack. The increased mortality rate among these persons is largely due to recurrent myocardial infarction.

In recent years there have been several instances where ATR pilots have died in flight in the cockpit or just before takeoff. Three instances of inflight heart attacks among airline pilots occurred in 1957. In a study of military flying personnel killed in airplane accidents in the past two years, post mortem examinations disclosed that 3 were caused by heart attacks, and in an additional 9 cases post mortem examinations indicated the probable cause was heart attacks.

It is expected that the above situation will become more frequent in the future as the mean age of the pilot population increases. Myocardial infarction can occur at any age, but the peak of incidence is in the fifth and sixth decades, being somewhat unusual below age 40.

While considerable controversy exists in the medical field as to the pathological significance of certain abnormalities indicated by the electrocardiogram, particularly if the interpretation is not accomplished by a skilled electrocardiographer, the specialists are in agreement that the electrocardiogram will be accurate within 95–99 percent limits in disclosing cases of myocardial infarction.

In order to eliminate the possibility of an invalid interpretation by reason of a lack of skilled specialists in many areas where the physical examinations for first class medical certificates may be conducted, it is proposed that all electrocardiographic tracings be forwarded to the CAA Medical Division in Washington, D. C., for analysis at no cost to the applicant, and will not be interpreted at the local level at the time of examination. Within the meaning of the regulation, an electrocardiogram shall be used only to determine whether myocardial infarction exists. In disputed cases the CAA Medical Division will designate a location at which it will provide a complete clinical examination service at no cost to the applicant.

In view of the foregoing, notice is hereby given that it is proposed to recommended to the Board that Part 29 of the Civil Air Regulations be amended:

1. By amending § 29.2 by adding a new paragraph (e) to read as follows:

§ 29.2 First class. * * *

(e) Heart. (1) Applicants between 35 years of age and 40 years of age, on the first examination following age 35, shall demonstrate by electrocardiographic examination an absence of myocardial infarction.

(2) Applicants 40 years of age or over shall demonstrate annually by electrocardiographic examination an absence of myocardial infarction.

This amendment is proposed under the authority of Title VI of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, and may be changed in the light of comments received in response to this notice of proposed rule making.

(Sec. 205, 82 Stat. 964; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply secs. 601–610, 52 Stat. 1007–1012, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 551–560)

Dated at Washington, D. C., September 5, 1958.

Office of the Secretary

VOLUNTARY OIL IMPORT PROGRAM

Background: The Voluntary Oil Import Program was established with respect to Districts I–IV by the President's approval of the recommendations made in the First Report of the President's Special Committee to Investigate Crude Oil Imports, dated July 29, 1957. The Program was extended to District V by the President's approval of the recommendations made in the Second Report of the President's Special Committee, dated December 12, 1957. The President also has approved the recommendations made by the Special Committee in reports dated March 24, 1958, and June 4, 1958.

The Special Committee in its report of July 29, 1957, recommended that crude oil imports into Districts I–IV be set at 12 percent of domestic production. In a footnote on page 14 of the report, it was stated that in future revisions of the program, imports should be determined as a percentage of domestic demand. It is proposed that total demand be used as the basis rather than domestic demand. Total demand includes both domestic and export demand. The revised manner of computing total allowable imports of crude and unfinished oils is hereinafter described.

In implementing its recommendations the Special Committee to Investigate Crude Oil Imports adopted several standards for determining import allocations. For so-called "established importers", allocations were fixed at an average of actual imports for the years 1954, 1955, and 1956 less 10 percent. For a group termed "new importers", the allocations were determined by combining actual imports for any or all of the above years with those planned for the last half of 1957. For those granted allocations by the supplementary report of March 24, 1958, allocations were on the bases of refinery capacity, refinery location, and market area.

In response to suggestions from members of the petroleum industry that allocations of imports be related to refinery capacity, and recognizing that a period of transition is necessary to enable importers to adjust operations should a new method of determining allocations be adopted, it is also proposed to substitute the standard set forth herein, in lieu of those now in effect. Prior to January 1, 1959, current crude and unfinished oil allocations will remain in effect, and no action will be taken on requests for increases in existing allocations or requests for initial import allocations in Districts I through IV.

The proposed methods of determining level of imports and individual import allocations apply only to Districts I through IV except as noted in paragraph 5 (d) of Method of Computing Individual Allocations. These methods may be extended to District V when a review of the program for that District is made, recognizing that the percentage factors determining total level of imports and individual allocations may vary from those applying in Districts I through IV.

Interested persons may submit, in triplicate, written comments, suggestions, or objections with respect to the proposed methods of determining level of imports and allocations to the Administrator, Voluntary Oil Import Program, Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C. within 30 days after the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

M. V. CARSON, Jr.,
Administrator,
Voluntary Oil Import Program.

PROPOSED PLAN FOR THE OPERATION OF THE VOLUNTARY OIL IMPORT PROGRAM

METHOD OF COMPUTING TOTAL ALLOWABLE IMPORTS

Districts I–IV

1. The total demand and domestic production figures used herein are estimated figures compiled by the United States Bureau of Mines for the year ending June 30, 1959:

Total demand ..... 8,173,000 B/D
Domestic production ..... 6,261,000 B/D

2. Imports of unfinished oils other than crude were included in the Voluntary Oil Import Program on June 4, 1958, and it is concluded that a limitation of approximately 75,000 B/D on such materials should be imposed and added to the crude oil allocation.

3. The maximum possible volume of crude imports permitted under the formula specified in the July 29, 1957, report of the Special Committee is 12 percent of domestic production or 12 percent of 6,261,000 B/D, which is 751,300 B/D. The addition of 75,000 B/D of imports of other unfinished oils to 751,300 equals 826,300 B/D or 10.1 percent of 8,173,000 B/D total demand. Accordingly, imports subject to the program are limited to 10.1 percent of annual total demand.

METHOD OF COMPUTING INDIVIDUAL IMPORT ALLOCATIONS

4. Beginning January 1, 1959, for the period ending June 30, 1959, import allocations of importers of foreign crude oils are determined as follows:

(a) New importers and importers having allocations in effect prior to January 1, 1959, which allocations are less than 6 percent of the importer's reported refinery capacity are granted import allocations equal to 6 percent of such capacity.

(b) Importers having allocations in effect prior to January 1, 1959, which allocations exceed 37½ percent of the importer's reported capacity, are limited to an allocation which will not exceed 37½ percent of such capacity.

5. Effective July 1, 1959, and for the duration of the Voluntary Oil Import Program, allocations shall be determined as a percentage of annual refinery runs as follows:

(a) Allocations of importers which are less than 9 percent of the importer's refinery runs for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1959, are increased to 9 percent of such refinery runs and the allocations of importers having the highest percentage allocations will be reduced beginning with the highest until that allocation is no higher than the next highest and continuing to reduce both allocations equally until they are no higher than the third highest and thereafter equally reducing the three allocations, and so on as much as necessary to provide said increase.

(b) Beginning January 1, 1960, the allocations of all importers will be the percentage that the total of all allocations bears to the total refinery runs for fiscal year ending September 30, 1959, of all importers in Districts I through IV.

Example:

Average daily refinery runs for fiscal year ending Sept. 30, 1959 ..... 7,008,000 B/D
Permissible level of imports ..... 800,000 B/D

Allocation each refinery $\frac{800,000}{7,000,000} = 11.4$ percent of refinery runs.

(c) Each six months thereafter the allocations of all importers will be the percentage that the total of all allocations bears to the total refinery runs for the preceding twelve calendar months, ending three months prior to the effective date of the allocation.

(d) Importers having refineries located in areas where conditions limit the importer's ability to procure domestic crude oil by ordinary practical means may, upon application to the Administrator, receive an additional allocation provided that all foreign crude and unfinished oils imported are processed in the refinery named in such application. This paragraph shall also apply to District V.

6. To assure an adequate supply of asphalt for the Federal Interstate Highway Construction Program, imported asphaltic crude processed for the purpose of making asphalt shall be offset against an importer's allocation of crude oil by the percentage of asphalt actually derived from the asphaltic crude. For the purpose of such computation, the asphalt must have a penetration at 25° C. (77° F.) under a load of 100 grams applied for 5 seconds of not more than 100, and is sold as paving asphalt, binders, coatings or waterproofing.

Example: X company imports 1,000 barrels of asphaltic crude which is processed for the purpose of making asphalt. The asphalt actually derived from such crude is 65 percent of total volume or 650 barrels. Thus, 350 barrels of the 1,000 imported would be charged against the import allocation.

7. No importer may import more than 10 percent of an allocation in the form of unfinished oils.

8. (a) A new or prospective importer who becomes eligible for an import allocation by reason of the construction or acquisition of a new refinery shall, upon application, be awarded a temporary allocation based on the designed capacity of the new facility. The temporary allocation will become effective on the date the importer notifies the Administrator that the new facility is operating, and shall be equal to 6 percent of such designed capacity if effective during any portion of the period of July 1, 1959, to December 31, 1959, and equal to the same prevailing percentage applying to all other importers calculated on a percentage of 90 percent of designed capacity if effective on or after January 1, 1960. The temporary allocation shall remain in effect for the remainder of the import period, that is, January 1 to June 30, or July 1 to December 31 of any year, and thereafter, beginning with the next import period, the allocation will be made as for other importers.

(b) Importers who have increased their refining capacity may apply for an increased allocation and will be granted an allocation in the manner described under paragraph (a) above, but only to the extent necessary to maintain their relationship of imports to crude refining capacity or to crude runs equal to but no greater than that of other importers with the lowest percentage.

9. An importer having a refinery temporarily out of operation by reason of fire, explosion or other disaster may retain the import allocation for a period of not more than 6 months from the date of such disaster provided the importer has submitted evidence to the Administrator that the refinery will be repaired and operating within the 6 months period.

10. A processing agreement between an importer and a refinery owner or operator shall not be construed as constituting ownership of a refinery or of its operating refining capacity.

11. Allocations in effect prior to January 1, 1959, of importers not possessing operating refinery capacity, are reduced one-third effective January 1, 1959, two-thirds of the December 31, 1958 allocation on July 1, 1959, and are terminated December 31, 1959, unless such importers acquire operating refinery capacity in the interim in which event the allocations may be revised.

12. An importer's allocation is not transferable or assignable by the holder thereof and such foreign crude and unfinished oils as are imported under an allocation must be reported and entered through customs by the holder. After importation the disposition of such foreign crude and unfinished oils is at the discretion of the importer, except as provided in paragraph 5 (d) above.

13. Allocations are for a six months period. Failure to report imports as required by the Administrator may result in withdrawal of an allocation.

14. Refineries operating in Puerto Rico will be granted an allocation for importing crude oil equal to their average barrels per day of crude processed during the months of July, August and September, 1958. Should their requirements increase, they will make application for increased allocations in the same manner as refineries in the Continental United States.

15. In the July 29, 1957, Report of the President's Special Committee to Investigate Crude Oil Imports, the Hawaiian Islands are indicated as part of District V. As of now, there are no refineries on the Islands. If and when there is and there develops a movement of oils of foreign origin into the Continental United States from the Hawaiian Islands, those refineries at that time will be required to make application for import allocations.

16. As used herein;

An importer is any person, corporation or legal entity possessing operating refinery capacity within the Continental United States and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and importing or intending to import foreign crude or unfinished oils.

Reported refinery capacity is that reported to the United States Bureau of Mines as of January 1, 1958.

Refinery runs—includes all crude oil and imported unfinished oils processed.

DARWIN BROADCASTING CO. (KHCD)

ORDER CONTINUING HEARING

In the matter of Revocation of license of Henry Chester Darwin tr/as Darwin Broadcasting Company (KHCD), Clifton, Arizona; Docket No. 12537.

The Examiner having under consideration the waiver of hearing and statement in mitigation and justification submitted by respondent in the above-entitled proceeding pursuant to the provisions of § 1.62 of the Commission's rules;

It appearing that the said statement sets forth with particularity, factual allegations denying in part and justifying in part the facts upon which the show cause order herein is based and that additional information with reference to such factual allegations is necessary for proper resolution of the matter here in issue:

It is ordered, This 8th day of September 1958, pursuant to the provisions of §§ 1.42[1] and 1.62 (f) of the Commission's rules that respondent within 30 days from the date of this order shall submit the following:

(1) The authorization allegedly received to determine operating power of Station KHCD by indirect method, or a photo copy thereof.

(2) The documents or photo copies thereof allegedly held demonstrating the effectuation of compliance by Station KHCD with the requirements of §§ 3.35 and 3.56 of the Commission's rules subsequent to the January 22, 1957 notice of violations.

(3) Information together with any available documentary evidence demonstrating the alleged purchase of required material and installation of missing ground radials at Station KHCD subsequent to the January 22, 1957 notice of violations.

(4) Information setting forth the specific steps taken to effectuate the change in transmitter and antenna location of Station KHCD as alleged and the contemplated method of financing such change.

(5) Information in support of the alleged exercise by respondent of de facto control of Station KHCD from the date of January 8, 1958, to the date of May 20, 1958 together with respondent's plans as to the resumption of operations by Station KHCD including, but not limited to, the management and financing of such operations.

(6) Information in support of the alleged "exemplary record" of Darwin Broadcasting Company in the operation of Stations KPAS and KHCD, such information to include the record as to compliance with the requirements of the Commission's rules in the operation of these stations.

Upon the submission by respondent of the above specified additional information, it is requested that the Chief of the Commission's Broadcast Bureau file an answer to respondent's statement submitted herein and to the additional information submitted in conformance with this order.

It is further ordered, That the hearing herein presently scheduled for October 7, 1958, is continued without date.

WESTMINSTER BROADCASTING CO. (WCME)

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re application of Westminster Broadcasting Company (WCME), Brunswick, Maine, Docket No. 12581, File No. BP-11402; for construction permit.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 3d day of September 1958;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned application of the Westminster Broadcasting Company for a construction permit to increase the power of Station WCME, Brunswick, Maine, from 500 watts to one kilowatt and to continue operation on the presently assigned frequency of 900 kilocycles, daytime only;

It appearing that, except as indicated by the issues specified below, the applicant is legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified to operate Station WCME as proposed but that the proposed operation of WCME would cause interference to Station WOTW, Nashua, New Hampshire (900 kc, 1 kw, Day); and

It further appearing that, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the applicant was advised by letter dated June 5, 1958, of the aforementioned interference and that the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of the application would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing that the applicant filed a timely reply to the Commission's letter; and

It further appearing that, by letter of August 5, 1958, the licensee of Station WOTW expressed an intention of appearing at a hearing on the application; and

It further appearing that the Commission, after consideration of the above, is of the opinion that a hearing is necessary;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said application is designated for hearing, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the operation of Station WCME as proposed and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine whether the proposed operation of Station WCME would cause objectionable interference to Station WOTW, Nashua, New Hampshire, or any other standard broadcast stations, and, if so the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

3. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, whether a grant of the instant application would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity.

It is further ordered, That, the Gateway Broadcasting Corporation, licensee of Station WOTW, is made a party to the proceeding.

It is further ordered, That to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the applicant and party respondent herein, pursuant to § 1.140 of the Commission's rules, by appropriate corporate officer or by attorney, shall, within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission in triplicate, written appearances stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

Released: September 9, 1958.

TWIN CITY BROADCASTING CO., INC., AND TOOMBS COUNTY BROADCASTING CO.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of Twin City Broadcasting Co., Inc., Lyons, Georgia; Docket No. 12582, File No. BP-11398; R. L. Horne, Jr., tr/as Toombs County Broadcasting Company, Lyons, Georgia; Docket No. 12583, File No. BP-12069; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 3d day of September 1958;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned applications of the Twin City Broadcasting Co., Inc., for a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station to operate on 1340 kilocycles with a power of 250 watts, unlimited time, and of R. L. Horne, Jr., tr/as Toombs County Broadcasting Company for a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station to operate on 1360 kilocycles with a power of one kilowatt, daytime only, both applicants specifying a station location at Lyons, Georgia;

It appearing that except as indicated by the issues specified below, both applicants are legally, technically and otherwise qualified to operate the proposed stations and that Twin City Broadcasting Co., Inc., is also financially qualified, but that the simultaneous operation of both proposals would result in mutually destructive interference; that it is necessary for R. L. Horne, Jr., to submit a financial plan for meeting the cost of the proposed construction and initial operation of his station; that R. L. Horne, Jr., has not supplied information as to whether a network affiliation is contemplated; that the modulation monitor specified by R. L. Horne, Jr., is not on the Commission's list of approved equipment and that it has not yet been determined whether the antenna proposed by R. L. Horne, Jr., would constitute a hazard to air navigation; and

It further appearing that pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the applicants were advised by letter dated July 18, 1958, of the aforementioned deficiencies and that the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of either application would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing that a timely reply to the Commission's letter was filed by the Twin City Broadcasting Co., Inc.; and

It further appearing that by letter dated August 12, 1958, R. L. Horne, Jr., requested an additional thirty days in which to prepare amendments to his application but that it would be expedient to designate the applications for hearing without further delay as an applicant may amend after designation for hearing on a showing of good cause pursuant to § 1.311 (b) of the Commission's rules; and

It further appearing that the Commission, after consideration of the above, is of the opinion that a hearing is necessary;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from the proposed operations and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine whether R. L. Horne, Jr., is financially qualified to construct and operate his proposed station.

3. To determine the type and character of the program service proposed to be rendered by R. L. Horne, Jr.

4. To determine whether the antenna system proposed by R. L. Horne, Jr., would constitute a hazard to air navigation.

5. To determine which of the operations proposed in the above-captioned applications would better serve the public interest in the light of the evidence adduced under the foregoing issues and the record made with respect to the significant differences between the applicants as to:

(a) The background and experience of each of the above-named applicants to own and operate the proposed stations.

(b) The proposals of each of the above-named applicants with respect to the management and operation of the proposed stations.

(c) The programing service proposed in each of the above-named applications.

6. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, which of the above-mentioned applications should be granted.

It is further ordered, That the request of R. L. Horne, Jr., for an extension of time within which to prepare amendments to his application is hereby denied.

It is further ordered, That to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the applicants herein, in person or by attorney, shall within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission, in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

It is further ordered, That the issues in the above-entitled proceeding may be enlarged by the Examiner, on his own motion or on petition properly filed by a party to the proceeding and upon sufficient allegations of fact in support thereof, by the addition of the following issue: To determine whether the funds available to the applicant will give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in the application will be effectuated.

It is further ordered, That, in the event of favorable action on the application of R. L. Horne, Jr., tr/as Toombs County Broadcasting Company in the hearing proceeding ordered above, a grant of the application shall be upon condition that the permittee install an approved type modulation monitor.

Released: September 9, 1958.

M. V. W. RADIO CORP. ET AL.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of M. V. W. Radio Corporation, San Fernando, California, Docket No. 12586, File No. BP-10888; KGB, Incorporated (KGB), San Diego, California, Docket No. 12587, File No. BP-11103; Robert S. Marshall, Newhall, California, Docket No. 12588, File No. BP-11705; William H. Wilson and Shirley Ann Wilson, d/b as WILSON BROADCASTING COMPANY, Oxnard, California, Docket No. 12589, File No. BP-11911; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 3d day of September 1958;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned applications for construction permits for new standard broadcast stations by M. V. W. Radio Corporation at San Fernando, California (1360 kc, 5 kw, DA, Day); Robert S. Marshall at Newhall, California (1360 kc, 500 w, Day); and Wilson Broadcasting Company at Oxnard, California (1370 kc, 1 kw, DA-2, Unl.); and an application by KGB, Incorporated for a construction permit to increase the daytime power of Station KGB, San Diego, California (1360 kc, 1 kw, Unl.) to 5 kilowatts;

It appearing that except as indicated by the issues specified below, all of the instant applicants are technically, legally, financially, and otherwise qualified to construct and operate their proposals; but that the operations proposed by M. V. W. Radio Corporation and Robert S. Marshall involve mutually destructive interference; that interference from one or more of the instant proposals would affect more than ten percent of the population in the normally protected primary service area of each instant proposal, in contravention of § 3.28 (c) of the Commission rules; that the proposal of KGB, Incorporated would cause objectionable interference to Station KBUC, Corona, California; that the proposal of Wilson Broadcasting Company would cause objectionable interference to the existing operation of KGB and to Station KGER, Long Beach, California; that interference to the proposals of M. V. W. Radio Corporation and Robert S. Marshall from Station KRCK, Ridgecrest, California, and the existing operation of Station KGB, and to the proposal of the Wilson Broadcasting Company from Station KBUC, Corona, California, and the existing operation of Station KGB, would affect more than ten percent of the population within the normally protected primary service area of the said proposals in contravention of the provisions of § 3.28 (c) of the Commission rules; that Wilson Broadcasting Company has requested a waiver of § 3.28 (c) on the ground that its proposal would be the only "service designated for Oxnard" and would provide a nighttime facility for this community, but that Station KUDU is licensed to serve Oxnard-Ventura, California, and on the basis of the information before us we are unable to conclude that circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of § 3.28 (c); and

It further appearing that M. V. W. Radio Corporation has failed to submit, as requested, sufficient information from which to determine whether its proposal would provide adequate coverage of the city sought to be served, whether the rough terrain in the vicinity of the proposed site would seriously affect proper adjustment and operation of the proposed directional antenna, and whether the antenna parameters shown in Exhibit V-1C of the application will produce the radiation pattern predicted thereon; and

It further appearing that Wilson Broadcasting Company has failed to submit, as requested, sufficient information from which to determine whether any structures exist in the vicinity of the proposed antenna site which would preclude satisfactory adjustment and operation of the DA array; and that, moreover, it has not been determined whether the proposed site would constitute a hazard to air navigation; and

It further appearing that pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the instant applicants were advised by letter dated June 19, 1958 of the aforementioned deficiencies and that the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of any of the applications would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing that a timely reply was received from each of the applicants; and

It further appearing that the licensees of Stations KBUC, KGER, and KUDU have requested an opportunity to appear at a hearing on these applications; and

It further appearing that after consideration of the foregoing, the Commission is of the opinion that a hearing on the instant applications is necessary;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the instant applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from each of the instant proposals of M. V. W. Radio Corporation, Robert S. Marshall, and Wilson Broadcasting Company, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine the areas and populations which would be expected to gain or lose primary service from the operation of Station KGB, as proposed herein, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

3. To determine the nature and extent of the interference, if any, that each of the instant proposals would cause to and receive from each other and all other existing standard broadcast stations, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

4. To determine, in light of the evidence adduced under Issue 3, whether the interference received by each of the instant proposals would affect more than ten percent of the population in its normally protected primary service area in contravention of § 3.28 (c) of the Commission rules, and, if so, whether circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of said section.

5. To determine whether the instant proposal of KGB, Incorporated would involve objectionable interference with Station KBUC, Corona, California, or any other existing standard broadcast station, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

6. To determine whether the instant proposal of Wilson Broadcasting Company would involve objectionable interference with the existing operation of Station KGB, San Diego, California, and with Station KGER, Long Beach, California, or any other existing standard broadcast station, and, if so, the nature and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

7. To determine whether the instant proposal of M. V. W. Radio Corporation would provide a minimum field intensity of 25 mv/m over the business and factory areas of the city sought to be served, as required by § 3.188 (b) (1) of the Commission rules.

8. To determine whether rough terrain in the vicinity of the site proposed by M. V. W. Radio Corporation would seriously affect the proper adjustment and operation of its proposed directional antenna system.

9. To determine whether the antenna parameters shown on pertinent exhibits in the application of M. V. W. Radio Corporation would produce the radiation pattern depicted in its exhibits.

10. To determine whether the antenna system proposed by Wilson Broadcasting Company would be a hazard to air navigation.

11. To determine whether there exist in the vicinity of the site proposed by Wilson Broadcasting Company any structures which would preclude satisfactory adjustment and operation of its proposed directional array.

12. To determine, in light of section 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, which of the operations proposed herein would best provide a fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of radio service.

13. To determine, in light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, whether the public interest, convenience, and necessity would be served by the grant of any one of the instant applications.

It is further ordered, That Radio Broadcasting Inc.; John Brown School of California, Inc.; and Tri Counties Public Service, Inc., licensees of Stations KBUC, Corona, California, KGER, Long Beach, California, and KUDU, Oxnard-Ventura, California, respectively, are made parties to the hearing; and

It is further ordered, That, to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the applicants and respondents herein, pursuant to § 1.140 of the Commission rules, in person or by attorney, shall, within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission, in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order; and

It is further ordered, That the issues in this proceeding may be enlarged by the Examiner, on his own motion or on petition properly filed by a party to the proceeding and upon sufficient allegations of fact in support thereof, by the addition of the following issue: To determine whether the funds available to the applicant will give assurance that the proposals set forth in the application will be effectuated.

[Docket No. 12590; FCC 58-842]

BRUCE MCCULLOUGH

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

In the matter of Bruce McCullough, Homestead, Florida, Docket No. 12590; order to show cause why the license for station KIG305 in the Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Service should not be revoked.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 4th day of September 1958;

The Commission having under consideration certain violations of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and the Commission's rules, relating to the operation of Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Station KIG305 by Bruce McCullough, Homestead, Florida, licensee thereof, and

It appearing that pursuant to the provisions of § 1.61 of the Commission's rules violation notices relative to the operation of the station were given to the licensee as follows:

(a) Notice, dated May 6, 1958, specifying that, as a result of an inspection made on May 5, 1958, said licensee had violated the following sections of the Commission's rules:

(1) Section 21.213: Failure to identify base station when calling mobile units.

(2) Section 21.201 (a): Failure to post current station authorization.

(3) Sections 21.112 and 17.24 (a) (1): Lighting on antenna structure does not comply with paragraph 2 of Form 715 attached to the station authorization.

(4) Sections 21.206 (f) and 17.39: Antenna structure not painted to comply with paragraph 1 of Form 715 attached to the station authorization.

(5) Sections 21.208 (f) (1) and 17.38 (a): Failure to enter in the station records the time the tower lights were turned on and off each day.

(6) Sections 21.208 (f) (2) and 17.38 (b): Failure to enter in the station records the time the daily checks of proper operation of the tower lights were made.

(7) Section 21.208 (f) (3): Tower light inoperative.

(8) Section 21.204: Part 21 of the Commission's rules was not available for inspection.

(9) Section 21.208 (g) (1): Persons responsible for the operation of the base station are not signing on duty.

(10) Section 21.207 (a) and (b): No entries in station records of results of determinations made at intervals not to exceed one year that

(a) Carrier frequency is maintained within prescribed tolerance.

(b) Plate power input to final radio frequency stage of base station transmitter does not exceed the maximum figure specified on the current station authorization.

(c) Modulation of each transmitter does not exceed specified limits.

(11) Section 21.208 (e) (2): No entries in station records, signed by a responsible operator and dated, giving pertinent details of service or maintenance duties performed which may effect proper operation of station; responsible operator's name and address; and the class, serial number and expiration date of his license.

(12) Section 21.205 (b): Service and installation duties are being performed by a person who does not hold the proper type of license for such duties.

(b) Notice, dated June 12, 1958, specifying, as a result of a special inspection made on June 10, 1958, that station KIG305 had been moved from the authorized location at 540 N. E. 1st Road, Homestead, Florida to 134 S. W. 3d Avenue, Hollywood, Florida without making the necessary application or obtaining the necessary authority as required by section 319 (a) of our Act.

(c) Notice, dated July 11, 1958, specifying that said licensee had violated § 1.61 of the Commission's rules by failing to respond to the Violation Notice mentioned in (b) above.

It further appearing that the licensee's undated response to the Violation Notice of May 6, 1958 ((a) above) was unsatisfactory as to items (2), (3), (6), (10) and (11);

It further appearing that at the inspection of the said station on May 5, 1958, Commission's inspection Engineer, upon being advised by the licensee (McCullough) of plans to move the station, warned said licensee that the move could not be made without prior application therefor to the Commission and approval thereof had been obtained; and that the licensee did thereafter move the station without having applied for, or obtained, the necessary Commission authority, in willful contravention of the said warning and the applicable provisions of our Act and rules;

It further appearing that at the time of the special inspection of the station on June 10, 1958, and in the reply to the Notice of Violation issued May 6, 1958, the licensee (McCullough) informed the Commission that he had, in fact, obtained the services of a qualified licensee to perform any maintenance and service work required at the said station, but that said licensee thereafter committed the same violation in that, on or about July 1, 1958, a mobile unit was installed in a vehicle by a person not possessing the operator's license required by § 21.208 (b) of our rules, in wilful contravention of the provisions of the cited rule;

It is ordered, Pursuant to the provisions of section 312 (a) and (c) of the Communication Act of 1934, as amended, that the said Bruce McCullough show cause why the aforementioned license should not be revoked and that he appear and give evidence in respect thereto at a hearing to be held at a time and place to be specified by subsequent order; and

It is further ordered, That the Secretary send a copy of this order by Certified Mail—Return Receipt Requested, to the said Bruce McCullough at his address of record in the Commission files—656 NW. 18th Street, Homestead, Florida.

Released: September 9, 1958.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket Nos. G-11484, G-11666]

JOHN O. FARMER, INC.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING, AND PETITION TO AMEND ORDER

SEPTEMBER 8, 1958.

In the matters of John O. Farmer, Inc., Docket No. G-11484; and John O. Farmer, Inc., Operator (formerly Jones, Sherburne & Farmer, Inc., Operator, et al.), Docket No. G-11666.

Take notice that on November 14, 1956, as amended January 7 and January 8, 1958, John O. Farmer, Inc. (Applicant) filed in Docket No. G-11484 [1] an application, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, for authorization to render service to Cities Service Gas Company (Cities Service) from Applicant's 50 percent working interest in certain acreage in Barber County, Kansas, dedicated under a sales contract dated July 30, 1956, as amended, all as more fully set forth in the application and amendments which are on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant's facilities consist of customary lease equipment, including separators. Delivery is to be at the outlet of the separator facilities at a rate of approximately 350 Mcf per day (Applicant's 50 percent interest).

On January 23, 1958, John O. Farmer, Inc., filed a petition to amend the order issued on July 29, 1957, in Docket No. G-11666 (In the Matters of L. D. Brown and Sam Trant, et al., Docket Nos. G-6754, et al.), granting a certificate of public convenience and necessity to Jones, Sherburne & Farmer, Inc., Operator, et al., so as to substitute the new corporate name of John O. Farmer, Inc., as grantee of said certificate.

These related matters should be heard on a consolidated record and disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on October 1, 1958, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a noncontested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicants to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before September 26, 1958. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

[SEAL] JOSEPH H. GUTRIDE,
Secretary.

[F. R. Doc. 58-7424; Filed, Sept. 11, 1958; 8:46 a. m.]

[1] The application was originally filed in the name of Jones, Sherburne & Farmer, Inc. The amendment filed January 7, 1958, reflected the change in corporate name to John O. Farmer, Inc.

[Docket No. E-6840]

IDAHO POWER CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

SEPTEMBER 8, 1958.

Take notice that on August 29, 1958, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission pursuant to section 204 of the Federal Power Act by Idaho Power Company ("Applicant") a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Maine and doing business in the States of Idaho, Oregon and Nevada, with its principal business office at Boise, Idaho, seeking an order authorizing the issuance of $15,000,000 in principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds—percent Series due 1988. The proposed Bonds are to be issued pursuant to Applicant's Mortgage and Deed of Trust dated October 1, 1937 to Bankers Trust Company and J. C. Kennedy, Trustees, as heretofore supplemented and as to be further supplemented by an Eleventh Supplemental Indenture. The proposed Bonds are to be issued on or after a specified date in 1958, to be supplied by amendment to the application, and will be due thirty years from the date of issue. The price and interest rate per annum of the proposed Bonds are to be fixed by competitive bidding, and the Bonds are to be sold by competitive bidding. Applicant states that the proceeds from the sale of the proposed Bonds will be used by it to obtain permanent capital for repayment in part of the principal amount of Applicant's short-term bank loans now outstanding, heretofore made for interim financing of the cost of construction, extension and improvement of operating facilities.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should, on or before the 25th day of September, 1958, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., petitions or protests in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules and practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.10). The application is on file and available for public inspection.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Valencia Orange Reg. 153]

PART 922—VALENCIA ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

LIMITATION OF HANDLING

§ 922.453 Valencia Orange Regulation 153—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement and Order No. 22, as amended (7 CFR Part 922), regulating the handling of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Valencia Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said marketing agreement and order, as amended, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such Valencia oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act by tending to establish and maintain such orderly marketing conditions for such oranges as will provide, in the interests of producers and consumers, an orderly flow of the supply thereof to market throughout the normal marketing season to avoid unreasonable fluctuations in supplies and prices, and is not for the purpose of maintaining prices to farmers above the level which it is declared to be the policy of Congress to establish under the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The committee held an open meeting during the current week after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for Valencia oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such Valencia oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on September 11, 1958.

(b) Order. (1) The respective quantities of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., September 14, 1958, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., September 21, 1958, are hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;

(ii) District 2: 693,000 cartons;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in said marketing agreement and order, as amended.

[Orange Reg. 343]

PART 933—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, TANGERINES AND TANGELOS GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.914 Orange Regulation 343—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR Part 933; 22 F. R. 8511), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, tangerines, and tangelos grown in Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of oranges, except Temple oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in the production area, are presently subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on September 9, 1958, such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including the effective time hereof, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of oranges, except Temple oranges, and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of the persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) Terms used in the amended marketing agreement and order shall, when used herein, have the same meaning as is given to the respective term in said amended marketing agreement and order; and terms relating to grade, diameter, standard pack, and standard box, as used herein, shall have the same meaning as is given to the respective term in the amended United States Standards for Florida Oranges and Tangelos (7 CFR 51.1140–51.1186; 22 F. R. 6676).

(2) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., September 15, 1958, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., September 29, 1958, no handler shall ship between the production area and any point outside thereof in the continental United States, Canada, or Mexico:

(i) Any oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in the production area, which do not grade at least U. S. No. 2 Russet; or

(ii) Any oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in the production area, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 324 cranges, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box.

[Grapefruit Reg. 290]

PART 933—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, TANGERINES, AND TANGELOS GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.915 Grapefruit Regulation 290—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR Part 933; 22 F. R. 8511), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, tangerines, and tangelos grown in Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of grapefruit, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of all grapefruit, grown in the production area, are presently subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on September 9, 1958, such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including the effective time hereof, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such grapefruit; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of grapefruit, and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of the persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) Terms used in the amended marketing agreement and order shall, when used herein, have the same meaning as is given to the respective term in said amended marketing agreement and order; and terms relating to grade, diameter, standard pack, and standard box, as used herein, shall have the same meaning as is given to the respective term in the United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit (7 CFR 51.750–51.790); and the term "mature" shall have the same meaning as set forth in section 601.16 Florida Statutes, Chapters 26492 and 28090, known as the Florida Citrus Code of 1949, as supplemented by section 601.17 (Chapters 25149 and 28090) and also by section 601.18, as amended June 2, 1955 (Chapter 29760).

(2) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., September 15, 1958, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., September 29, 1958, no handler shall ship between the production area and any point outside thereof in the continental United States, Canada, or Mexico:

(i) Any grapefruit, grown in the production area, which are not mature and do not grade at least U. S. No. 2 Russet;

(ii) Any seeded grapefruit, grown in the production area, which are of a size smaller than 3 2/16 inches in diameter, measured midway at a right angle to a straight line running from the stem to the blossom end of the fruit, except that a tolerance of 10 percent, by count, of seeded grapefruit smaller than such minimum size shall be permitted, which tolerance shall be applied in accordance with the provisions for the application of tolerances, specified in the revised United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit (7 CFR 51.750–51.790); or

(iii) Any seedless grapefruit, grown in the production area, which are smaller than 3 2/16 inches in diameter, measured midway at a right angle to a straight line running from the stem to the blossom end of the fruit, except that a tolerance of 10 percent, by count, of seedless grapefruit smaller than such minimum size shall be permitted, which tolerance shall be applied in accordance with the provisions for the application of tolerances, specified in the revised United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit (7 CFR 51.750–51.790).

PART 938—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN THE RED RIVER VALLEY OF NORTH DAKOTA AND MINNESOTA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

Findings. (1) Pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 135 and Order No. 38 (7 CFR Part 938), regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the Red River Valley of North Dakota and Minnesota, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq. 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Red River Valley Potato Committee, established pursuant to said marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the amendment to the limitation of shipments, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act.

(2) It is hereby found that is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that (i) the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; (ii) more orderly marketing in the public interest, than would otherwise prevail, will be promoted by regulating the shipment of potatoes, in the manner set forth below, on and after the effective date of this amendment; (iii) compliance with this amendment will not require any preparation on the part of handlers which cannot be completed by the effective date; (iv) a reasonable time is permitted under the circumstances, for such preparation; and (v) information regarding the committee's recommendations has been made available to producers and handlers in the production area.

Order, as amended. The provisions of § 938.300 (b) (FEDERAL REGISTER July 23, 1958, 23 F. R. 5557) are hereby amended to read as follows:

(b) Order—(1) Grade, size and quality. During the period from September 22, 1958, through June 30, 1959, and except as otherwise provided in this section, no handler shall handle table-stock potatoes (i) of the round varieties (including but not being limited to Pontiac, Triumph, Warba, Cobbler, Kennebec, and Cherokee) unless such potatoes are U. S. No. 1 or better grade, 2 inches minimum diameter, or (ii) of the long varieties (including but not being limited to Russet Burbank, Early Gem, White Rose, and Early Ohio) unless such potatoes are U. S. No. 2 or better grade, 8 ounces minimum weight, or if U. S. No. 1 or better grade, 2 inches minimum diameter or 4 ounces minimum weight.

(2) Maturity. Except as otherwise provided in this section, during the period from September 22, 1958, through November 1, 1958, no handler shall handle a lot of potatoes if such potatoes are more than "moderately skinned", which means that not more than 10 percent of the potatoes in such lot have more than one-half of the skin missing or "feathered".

(3) Seed. The limitations of subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph shall not apply to shipments of certified seed potatoes.

(4) Minimum quantities. Pursuant to § 938.53, each handler may handle up to, but not to exceed, 20 hundredweight of table stock potatoes per day free from regulations effective pursuant to § 938.42 (assessments) and § 938.60 (inspection) but this exception shall not apply to any portion of a shipment of over 20 hundredweight of such potatoes.

(5) Special shipments. The limitations set forth in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph shall not be applicable to shipments of table stock potatoes for the following purposes: (i) Canning or freezing.

(6) Inspection. (i) No handler shall handle table stock potatoes for which inspection is required unless an appropriate inspection certificate has been issued with respect thereto and the certificate is valid at the time of shipment. (ii) Except as provided in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph, no handler shall transport or cause the transportation of any shipment of table stock potatoes by motor vehicle, unless each such shipment is accompanied by a copy of the inspection certificate applicable thereto.

(7) Definitions. The term "moderately skinned" and the grades and sizes used in this section shall have the same meanings assigned these terms in the United States Standards for Potatoes (§§ 51.1540 to 51.1556 of this title), including the tolerances set fourth therein; and all other terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in Marketing Agreement No. 135 and Order No. 38 (§§ 938.1 to 938.86).

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Dated: September 10, 1958, to become effective September 22, 1958.

[Tokay Grape Order 2]

PART 951—TOKAY GRAPES GROWN IN SAN JOAQUIN AND SACRAMENTO COUNTIES IN CALIFORNIA

TERMINATION OF LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 951.322 Tokay Grape Order 2—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 51, as amended (7 CFR Part 951), regulating the handling of Tokay grapes grown in San Joaquin and Sacramento Counties in California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Industry Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of Tokay grapes under Tokay Grape Order 1 (§ 951.321; 23 F. R. 6317) will, after the effective time hereof, no longer tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this regulation until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.), inasmuch as this regulation relieves restrictions on the handling of Tokay grapes grown in San Joaquin and Sacramento Counties in California.

(b) Order. (1) Tokay Grape Order 1 (§ 951.321; 23 F. R. 6317) is hereby terminated effective at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., September 15, 1958.

[Lemon Reg. 758]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF HANDLING

§ 953.863 Lemon Regulation 758—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953), regulating the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such lemons as hereinafter provided will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based becomes available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The committee held an open meeting during the current week, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for lemons and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on September 10, 1958.

(b) Order. (1) The respective quantities of lemons grown in California and Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., September 14, 1958, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., September 21, 1958, are hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;
(ii) District 2: 209,250 cartons;
(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) As used in this section, "handled," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Dated: September 11, 1958.

PART 958—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN COLORADO

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS, AREA NO. 2

Findings. (a) Pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 97 and Order No. 58 (7 CFR Part 958), regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the State of Colorado, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the area committee for Area No. 2, established pursuant to said marketing agreement and order, and upon the basis of other available information, it is hereby found that the amendment to the limitation of shipments, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(b) It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that (i) the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; (ii) more orderly marketing in the public interest, than would otherwise prevail, will be promoted by regulating the shipment of potatoes, in the manner set forth below, on and after the effective date of this amendment; (iii) compliance with this amendment will not require any preparation on the part of handlers which cannot be completed by the effective date; (iv) a reasonable time is permitted under the circumstances, for such preparation; and (v) information regarding the committee's recommendations has been made available to producers and handlers in the production area.

Order, as amended. The provisions of § 958.328 (b) (1) (23 F. R. 6773) are hereby amended to read as follows:

(b) Order. (1) During the period from September 15, 1958 through June 30, 1959, no handler shall ship potatoes of any variety grown in Area No. 2 unless such potatoes meet the requirements of the U. S. No. 1, or better, grade, and unless (i) such potatoes of the round varieties are size A, 2⅛ inches minimum diameter, or (ii) such potatoes of the long varieties are 2⅛ inches minimum diameter or 4 ounces minimum weight, as such terms are defined in the United States Standards for Potatoes (§§ 51.1540 to 51.1556 of this title), including the tolerances set forth therein.

Chapter XI—Agricultural Conservation Program Service, Department of Agriculture

[ACP-1958, Supp. 3]

PART 1101—NATIONAL AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION SUBPART—1958

TIME AND MANNER OF FILING APPLICATION AND REQUIRED INFORMATION; EMERGENCY CONSERVATION MEASURES TO RESTORE TO PRODUCTIVE USE LAND DAMAGED BY NATURAL DISASTERS

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under sections 7 to 17 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, the Department of Agriculture and Farm Credit Administration Appropriation Act, 1958, Public Law 85-56, Public Law 75-170, and Public Law 85-766, the 1958 National Agricultural Conservation Program, approved August 9, 1957 (22 F. R. 6482), as amended September 4, 1957 (22 F. R. 7174), and December 20, 1957 (22 F. R. 10685), is further amended as follows:

1. Section 1101.933 is amended by adding a paragraph (c) as follows:

(c) The final date for filing an application for payment is January 16, 1959, in South Carolina; January 31, 1959, in Indiana and Iowa; March 1, 1959, in Vermont; March 15, 1959, in Arizona; March 31, 1959, in New Jersey; April 30, 1959, in New Hampshire; May 1, 1959, in Nevada; May 15, 1959, in Florida; May 31, 1959, in Minnesota and Washington; June 15, 1959, in Pennsylvania; June 30, 1959, in Alabama, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Kansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Virginia, and Wyoming; August 1, 1959, in Maryland; December 31, 1959, in Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Kentucky, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Missouri, Nebraska, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, West Virginia, and Wisconsin. In those States for which the final date for filing an application for payment is earlier than December 31, 1959, the State committee may extend the final date to a date not later than December 31, 1959, when failure to file the application was due to conditions over which the farmer had no control.

2. Section 1101.997 (d) is amended by changing the date "June 30, 1958" in the first sentence to "December 31, 1958."

(Sec. 4, 49 Stat. 164; 16 U. S. C. 590d. Interpret or apply secs. 7–17, 49 Stat. 1148, 70 Stat. 233, 71 Stat. 176, 71 Stat. 426, 72 Stat. 864; 16 U. S. C. 590g–590q)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 10th day of September 1958.

PART 1101—NATIONAL AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION SUBPART—1959

EMERGENCY CONSERVATION MEASURES TO RESTORE TO PRODUCTIVE USE LAND DAMAGED BY NATURAL DISASTERS

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under sections 7 to 17 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, Public Law 85–58, Public Law 85–170, and Public Law 85–766, the 1959 National Agricultural Conservation Program, approved July 3, 1958 (23 F. R. 5247), as amended July 7, 1958 (23 F. R. 5341), is further amended as follows:

A new § 1101.1097 is added as follows:

§ 1101.1097 Practice F–4: Emergency conservation measures to restore to productive use land damaged by natural disasters. (a) This practice is applicable only in counties designated by the Secretary as counties in which wind erosion, floods, hurricanes, or other natural disasters have created new conservation problems which (1) if not treated will impair or endanger the land, (2) materially affect the productive capacity of the land, (3) represent damage which is unusual in character and, except for wind erosion, is not of the type which would recur frequently in the same area, and (4) will be so costly to rehabilitate that Federal assistance is required to return the land to productive agricultural use.

(b) Emergency conservation practices may be approved by the Administrator, ACPS, upon recommendation by the State and county committees and designated representatives of the Soil Conservation Service and Forest Service at both the State and county levels. Eligible measures shall be specified in the wording of the practice as approved for use in the county. Cost-sharing may be offered under this practice only for replacing a practice or restoring the land to its normal productive capacity and may not be offered for the solution of conservation problems existing prior to the disaster involved.

(c) The cost-share computed for any person for this practice shall not be increased in accordance with § 1101.1030, and shall not be included with the cost-shares computed for such person for other practices in applying the maximum Federal cost-share limitation in § 1101.1031. The total of all Federal cost-shares for this practice to any person with respect to farms and ranches in any one county shall not exceed the sum of $2,500, except that, with the written prior approval of the State committee, a higher maximum may be approved in individual cases upon justification by the farmer or rancher on the basis of exceptional need and his inability to otherwise carry out the work.

(d) Costs for this practice will be shared only for eligible measures carried out during the period July 1, 1958, to December 31, 1959, inclusive, and only if cost-sharing is requested by the farm or ranch operator within 30 days after the practice is approved for use in the county or before the date on which performance of the eligible measures is started, whichever is the later. With the approval of the county committee, costs of performing this practice may be shared with farmers or ranchers who carry out eligible measures on their lands or, with the permission of the owners or operators of adjacent or nearby lands, on such adjacent or nearby lands.

(e) The maximum Federal cost-share for this practice shall be the percentage of the average cost of performing the practice considered necessary to obtain the needed performance of the practice, but not in excess of 80 percent of the average cost of performing the practice.

(Sec. 4, 49 Stat. 164; 16 U. S. C. 590d. Interprets or applies secs. 7–17, 49 Stat. 1148, as amended; 16 U. S. C. 590g–590q)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 10th day of September 1958.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter II—Civil Aeronautics Administration, Department of Commerce

[Amdt. 234]

PART 608—RESTRICTED AREAS

ALTERATIONS

The restricted area alterations appearing hereinafter have been coordinated with the civil operators involved, the Army, the Navy and the Air Force, through the Air Coordinating Committee, Airspace Division, and are adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety of the flying public. Since a military function of the United States is involved, compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is not required.

Part 608 is amended as follows:

1. In § 608.14, the Carrizo Valley, California, area (R–301) amended on May 22, 1958 in 23 F. R. 3515 is further amended by changing the "Description by Geographical Coordinates" column to read: "bounded on the North by latitude 32°58'48''; East by longitude 115°58'00''; South by latitude 32°51'20''; West by longitude 116°04'00''."

2. In § 608.18, the Miami, Florida, area (R–169) amended on December 14, 1955, in 20 F. R. 9341 is rescinded.

3. In § 608.18, the Sterling, Florida, area (R–170) amended on May 16, 1958, in 23 F. R. 3321 is rescinded.

4. In § 608.25, the Fort Knox, Kentucky, area (R–64) amended on July 11, 1957 in 22 F. R. 4879 is further amended by changing the "Description by Geographical Coordinates" column to read: "from the Southwestern corner of R–64 Northerly along present boundary to a point 37°55'17'' North, then due West to a point 37°55'17'' North, 85°57'16'' West, then NNW to a point 37°56'04'' North, 85°57'33'' West, then Northeast along road to present boundary, then following present boundary to its North limit"; and the "Designated Altitudes" column to read: "Surface to 20,000 feet MSL".

5. In § 608.39, the Deming, New Mexico, area (R–312) amended on October 31, 1951 in 16 F. R. 11066 is further amended by changing the "Designated Altitudes" column to read: "Surface to 40,000 feet MSL"; the "Time of Designation" column to read: "Sunrise to Sunset, Mondays through Fridays"; the "Controlling Agency" column to read: "Commander, Naval Air Force, Pacific Fleet (COMNAVAIRPAC)".

6. In § 608.40, the Montauk Point, Long Island, New York, area (R–467) amended on April 19, 1955 in 20 F. R. 2564 is rescinded.

7. In § 608.40, the Oswego, New York, area (R–70) amended on April 3, 1954 in 21 F. R. 2125 is further amended by changing the "Controlling Agency" column to read: "Commander, Air Force National Guard, Permanent Training Site, Hancock Field, Syracuse, New York".

8. In § 608.41, the Currituck Sound, North Carolina No. 5, area (R–30) amended on August 11, 1954 in 19 F. R. 5041 is further amended by changing the "Controlling Agency" column to read: "COMNAVAIRLANT, Naval Air Station, Norfolk, Virginia".

9. In § 608.47, the Block Island Sound, Rhode Island, area (R–90) amended on October 24, 1956 in 21 F. R. 8144 is further amended by changing the "Controlling Agency" column to read: "CO NAVSTA NPT RI (NAVPORCO)".

10. In § 608.51, the Matagorda Island, Texas, area (R–226) amended on May 16, 1958 in 23 F. R. 3321 is further amended by changing the "Time of Designation" column to read: "Sunrise to Sunset".

11. In § 608.51, the Foster AFB, Victoria, Texas, area (R–492) amended on July 13, 1955 in 20 F. R. 4982 is rescinded.

12. In § 608.52, the Wendover, Utah, area (R–259) amended on May 22, 1958 in 23 F. R. 3516 is further amended by changing the "Designated Altitudes" column to read: "Surface to 60,000 feet" and the "Time of Designation" column to read: "Sunrise to Sunset".

13. In § 608.54, the Pendleton, Virginia, area (R–74) amended on October 24, 1956 in 21 F. R. 8144 is further amended by changing the "Controlling Agency" column to read: "CO FADTC, Dam Neck, Virginia".

14. In § 608.58, the Casper, Wyoming, area (R–252) amended on June 26, 1954 in 19 F. R. 3906 is rescinded.

15. In § 608.62, the Schofield, Island of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii, area (R–335) amended on May 16, 1958 in 23 F. R. 3321 is further amended by changing the "Description by Geographical Coordinates" column to read: "beginning at latitude 21°31'06'', longitude 158°04'45''; thence to latitude 21°31'40'', longitude 158°05'30''; thence to latitude 21°35'30'', longitude 158°11'30''; thence to latitude 21°31'00'', longitude 158°10'00''; thence to latitude 21°30'30'', longitude 158°12'30''; thence to latitude 21°29'11'', longitude 158°07'33''; thence to latitude 21°30'00'', longitude 158°04'33''; to point of beginning".

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply sec. 601, 52 Stat. 1007, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 551)

This amendment shall become effective on October 23, 1958.

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

SUBCHAPTER B—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

PART 120—TOLERANCES AND EXEMPTIONS FROM TOLERANCES FOR PESTICIDE CHEMICALS IN OR ON RAW AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

TOLERANCES FOR RESIDUES OF ρ-CHLOROBENZYL ρ-CHLOROPHENYL SULFIDE

A petition was filed with the Food and Drug Administration by California Spray-Chemical Corporation, Richmond, California, requesting the establishment of tolerances for residues of ρ-chlorobenzyl ρ-chlorophenyl sulfide in or on various raw agricultural commodities. benzyl ρ-chlorophenyl sulfide in or on The petitioner subsequently withdrew the request for tolerances on certain of these commodities without prejudice to future filing.

The Secretary of Agriculture has certified that this pesticide chemical is useful for the purposes for which tolerances are being established.

After consideration of the data submitted in the petition and other relevant material which show that the tolerances established in this order will protect the public health, and by virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 408 (d) (2), 68 Stat. 512; 21 U. S. C. 346a (d) (2)) and delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs by the Secretary (21 CFR 120.7 (g)), the regulations for tolerances for pesticide chemicals in or on raw agricultural commodities (23 F. R. 6403) are amended as indicated below:

1. In § 120.3 Tolerances for related pesticide chemicals, paragraph (e) (4) is amended by inserting in the list of chlorinated hybrocarbons, after "Chlorobenzilate (ethyl 4,4'-dichlorobenzilate", the item "ρ-chlorobenzyl ρ-chloropenyl sulfide."

2. Part 120 is further amended by adding the following new section:

§ 120.168 Tolerances for residues of ρ-chlorobenzyl ρ-chlorophenyl sulfide. A tolerance of 3.0 parts per million is established for residues of ρ-chlorobenzyl ρ-chlorophenyl sulfide, including its sulfoxide and sulfone oxidation products, calculated as ρ-chlorobenzyl ρ-chlorophenyl sulfide, in or on each of the following raw agricultural commodities: Apples, crabapples, eggplants, nectarines, peaches, pears, plums (fresh prunes), quinces.

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may, at any time prior to the thirtieth day from the effective date thereof, file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D. C., written objections thereto. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by this order, specify with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and reasonable grounds for the objections, and request a public hearing upon the objections. Objections may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. All documents shall be filed in quintuplicate.

Effective date. This order shall be effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 701, 52 Stat. 1055, as amended; 21 U. S. C. 371. Interprets or applies sec. 408, 68 Stat. 511; 21 U. S. C. 346a)

SUBCHAPTER C—DRUGS

PART 146e—CERTIFICATION OF BACITRACIN AND BACITRACIN-CONTAINING DRUGS

BACITRACIN METHYLENE DISALICYLATE AND STREPTOMYCIN SULFATE TABLETS AND CAPSULES ORAL VETERINARY

Under the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 507, 59 Stat. 463, as amended; sec. 701, 52 Stat. 1055, as amended; 21 U. S. C. 357, 371) and delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs by the Secretary (22 F. R. 1045), the regulations for bacitracin and bacitracin-containing drugs (21 CFR 146e.426; 21 CFR, 1957 Supp., 146e.428) are amended as indicated below:

1. In § 146e.426 Tablets bacitracin methylene disalicylate and streptomycin sulfate oral veterinary, paragraph (a) is amended by changing the numbers "200" and "20" to read "150" and "15", respectively.

2. Section 146e.428 Capsules bacitracin methylene disalicylate and streptomycin sulfate oral veterinary is amended by changing the comma after the word "veterinary" to a period and deleting the remainder of the sentence.

Notice and public procedure are not necessary prerequisites to the promulgation of this order, and I so find, since it was drawn in collaboration with interested members of the affected industry and since it would be against public interest to delay providing for these amendments.

Effective date. This order shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, since both the public and the affected industry will benefit by the earliest effective date, and I so find.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter XIV—The Renegotiation Board

SUBCHAPTER B—RENEGOTIATION BOARD REGULATIONS UNDER THE 1951 ACT

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS TO SUBCHAPTER

Subchapter B of this chapter is amended in the following respects:

PART 1451—SCOPE OF RENEGOTIATION BOARD REGULATIONS UNDER THE RENEGOTIATION ACT OF 1951, AND DEFINITIONS APPLICABLE THERETO

This part is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1451.14 Department is amended by inserting a new paragraph (c) to read as follows:

(c) The term "Department" also includes the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, with respect to contracts entered into by such Administration and to contracts transferred to such Administration from a Department under section 301 or section 302 of the National Aeronautics and Space Act of 1958, and to related subcontracts.

2. Section 1451.15 Secretary is amended by inserting a new paragraph (c) to read as follows:

(c) The term "Secretary" also includes the Administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, with respect to contracts entered into by such Administration and to contracts transferred to such Administration from a Department under section 301 or section 302 of the National Aeronautics and Space Act of 1958, and to related subcontracts.

PART 1452—PRIME CONTRACTS AND SUBCONTRACTS WITHIN THE SCOPE OF THE ACT

This part is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1452.1 (b) Coverage after December 31, 1956, is amended as follows:

(a) Subparagraph (1) (ii) is deleted in its entirety and the following is inserted in lieu thereof:

(ii) Section 103 (a) of the act, as amended provides as follows:

Department. The term "Department" means the Department of Defense, the Department of the Army, the Department of the Navy, the Department of the Air Force, the Maritime Administration, the Federal Maritime Board, the General Services Administration, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, and the Atomic Energy Commission. Such term also includes any other agency of the Government exercising functions having a direct and immediate connection with the national defense which is designated by the President during a national emergency proclaimed by the President, or declared by the Congress, after the date of the enactment of the Renegotiation Amendments Act of 1956; but such designation shall cease to be in effect on the last day of the month during which such national emergency is terminated.

(b) In subparagraph (1) (iii), delete "by Pub. Law 870, 84th Cong., approved August 1, 1956, effective December 31, 1956"; and in the last sentence of the statutory provision (c) (1) set forth therein, strike out "December 31, 1958" and insert in lieu thereof "June 30, 1959".

3. Section 1452.2 Application of the act to prime contracts is amended by inserting at the end of the list therein "National Aeronautics and Space Administration[2]" and adding footnote 2 to read as follows:

[2] Added by Pub. Law 85-930, 85th Cong., approved September 6, 1958, by amendment made applicable with respect to contracts entered into by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and to contracts transferred to such Administration from a Department under section 301 or section 302 of the National Aeronautics and Space Act of 1958, and to related subcontracts.

PART 1466—TERMINATION OF RENEGOTIATION

This part is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1466.1 Statutory provision is amended by striking out "December 31, 1958" in the last sentence of the statutory provision (c) (1) set forth therein and inserting in lieu thereof "June 30, 1959".

2. Section 1466.2 Definition of "termination date" is amended by striking out "December 31, 1958" and inserting in lieu thereof "June 30, 1959".

TITLE 25—INDIANS

Chapter I—Bureau of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior

Subchapter E—Education

PART 33—ENROLLMENT OF INDIANS IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

CONTRACTS WITH PUBLIC SCHOOLS

It is the policy of the Department of the Interior to afford interested parties an opportunity to comment before the adoption of rules and regulations published herein even though such notice is not required by the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003); however, in this instance this procedure is considered contrary to the public interest because of the urgency of advising public school officials of this revision in time to adjust their plans for the coming school year.

This addition limits the aid which school districts educating Indian children shall receive under the provisions of the act of April 16, 1934 (48 Stat. 596), as amended, by the act of June 4, 1936 (49 Stat. 1458, 25 U. S. C. 452-456).

The following paragraph (c) is added to § 33.4:

§ 33.4 Contracts with public schools.

(c) When school districts educating Indian children are eligible for Federal aid under Public Law 874, 81st Congress (64 Stat. 1100), as amended, supplemental aid under the act of April 16, 1934, supra, will be limited to meeting educational problems under extraordinary or exceptional circumstances.

TITLE 43—PUBLIC LANDS: INTERIOR

Chapter I—Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior

Appendix—Public Land Orders

[Public Land Order 1730]

[55528]

ALASKA

PARTIALLY REVOKING PUBLIC LAND ORDER NO. 677 OF OCTOBER 13, 1950, WHICH WITHDREW PUBLIC LANDS FOR USE OF DEPARTMENT OF AIR FORCE FOR MILITARY PURPOSES

By virtue of the authority vested in the President and pursuant to Executive Order No. 10355 of May 26, 1952, it is ordered as follows:

1. Public Land Order No. 677 of October 13, 1950, withdrawing lands described as Beginning at a point on the north shore of Cape Newenham, Security Cove, Kuskokwim Bay, latitude 58°39' N., longitude 161°56' W.; thence south approximately 1¼ miles to the south shore of Cape Newenham; thence westerly along the south shore of the westerly tip of the Cape; thence easterly, northerly, and southerly along the north shore of the Cape to the point of beginning; also a small island known as Seal Rock, approximate latitude 58°40' N., longitude 162°08' W.

and containing approximately 14,285 acres, for use of the Department of the Air Force for military purposes, is hereby revoked except as to the following-described lands:

CAPE NEWENHAM

TRACT 1

Beginning at the point of intersection of latitude 58°40' N., and longitude 162°05' W., on the line of mean high tide of Kuskokwim Bay; thence by metes and bounds,

Easterly, meandering the mean high tide line of Kuskokwim Bay 9,000 feet more or less to the point of intersection of latitude 58°40' N., and longitude 162°03' W.;

South, along said longitudinal line 14,200 feet more or less to a point on the mean high tide line of Bristol Bay;

Westerly, meandering the mean high tide line of Bristol Bay 6,670 feet more or less to its intersection with line of longitude 162°05' W.;

North, along said longitudinal line 15,840 feet more or less to the point of beginning.

The tract described contains approximately 2,273 acres.

TRACT 2

Beginning at the point of intersection of latitude 58°39' N., and longitude 162°02' W., thence by metes and bounds,

North, 1,000 feet along said longitudinal line;

East, 1,000 feet;

South, 1,000 feet more or less to point of intersection with line of latitude 58°39' N.;

West, 1,000 feet more or less along said line of latitude to the point of beginning.

The tract described contains approximately 22.95 acres.

2. Pursuant to section 202 (b) of the act of July 28, 1956 (70 Stat. 709, 711; 48 U. S. C. 46-3 (b)), and subject to the requirements of that act and the regulations in 43 CFR Part 76, the Territory of Alaska shall be entitled until 10:00 a. m. on December 8, 1958, to a preferred right of selection of the restored lands in connection with its mental health program, except as against prior existing valid rights or as against equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation.

3. Subject to any existing valid rights, the requirements of applicable law, and the selection rights of the Territory of Alaska the restored lands are hereby opened to settlement and to filing of such applications, selections, and locations as are allowable on unsurveyed lands in accordance with the following:

a. Subject to the applications and claims described in paragraph b (1) below, the lands, beginning at 10:00 a. m. on December 8, 1958, will be subject to settlement under the Homestead and Alaska Home Site Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279-284 as amended). Beginning at 10:00 a. m. on March 9, 1959, any remaining lands will be subject to settlement under these laws by other qualified persons.

b. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws and applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications, selections, and offers will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having preference rights conferred by existing laws or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279-284 as amended), presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on December 8, 1958, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications after that hour, will be governed by the time of filing.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, and applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws, presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on March 9, 1959, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

c. The lands will be open to applications and offers under the mineral-leasing laws, and to location under the United States mining laws beginning at 10:00 a. m. on March 9, 1959.

Persons claiming veterans preference rights under paragraph b (2) above must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon statutory preference or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their applications, setting forth all facts relevant to their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Fairbanks, Alaska.

ROGER ERNST,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

TITLE 44—PUBLIC PROPERTY AND WORKS

Chapter I—General Services Administration

Subchapter C—Real Property Management

PART 100—PUBLIC BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS

SUBPART B—SUPPLEMENTAL REGULATIONS

PENTAGON AREA TRAFFIC AND PARKING REGULATIONS

Paragraph (b) of § 100.21 is revised to read as follows:

§ 100.21 Vehicle parking. • • •

(b) The provisions of subparagraphs (1) to (4) of this paragraph are applicable from 7:30 a. m. to 6:00 p. m. Monday through Saturday, and 7:30 a. m. to 1:00 p. m. Sundays and holidays. Directions by police officers on duty will apply at all times.

(1) A valid parking permit is required for parking in all sections of the Pentagon parking area, except as indicated in subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph and must be conspicuously displayed inside front windshield of the vehicle behind the rear view mirror. (For the purposes of the regulations in this part a valid parking permit is a permit issued by a department parking control officer to park a specific vehicle identified by license tag number in a designated parking section of the Pentagon parking area. The permit is not transferable except in the case of a properly registered car pool. The permit is automatically invalidated upon the resignation of the permit holder or cancellation by a parking control officer, change in license tag number, damage or mutilation of the permit, or loss or pilferage of the permit.)

(2) Parking in any section other than that which corresponds to the permit assignment is prohibited, with the following exception: A person with an authorized parking assignment in any section other than those designated "W-N" may park in a W-N section when space is not available in his assigned section. In such a case, the circumstances shall be reported to the department parking control officer. A person with an authorized parking assignment in a W-N section may not park in any other section.

(3) Motorcycles, motor bicycles, motor scooters, and all similar type motor vehicles shall be parked in Lane 19 only. No parking permit is required.

(4) No parking permit is required for parking in sections identified by posted signs as reserved for visitors,[1] or reserved for the exclusive use of Congressional, diplomatic, or official representatives. A special "Press Permit" is required for parking in sections reserved for press representatives. Parking in sections reserved for visitors shall not exceed the time limits indicated by posted signs at these locations, except by special permission of the police officer on duty.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Internal Revenue Service

[26 CFR Part 43]

DOCUMENTARY STAMP TAXES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner, of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any comments or suggestions pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing, in duplicate, to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Attention: T:P, Washington 25, D. C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Any person submitting written comments or suggestions who desires an opportunity to comment orally at a public hearing on these proposed regulations should submit his request, in writing, to the Commissioner within the 30-day period. In such a case, a public hearing will be held and notice of the time, place, and date will published in a subsequent issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in section 7805 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (68A Stat. 917; 26 U. S. C. 7805).

[SEAL] LEO SPEER,

SUBPART A—INTRODUCTORY PROVISIONS

§ 43.0–1 Introduction—(a) In general. The regulations in this part relate to documentary stamp taxes imposed by Chapter 34 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. These regulations constitute Part 43, of Title 26, of the Code of Federal Regulations. References in the regulations to the "Internal Revenue Code" or the "Code" are references to the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, unless otherwise indicated.

(b) Division of regulations. The regulations in this part are divided into 10 subparts. Subpart A contains provisions relating to general definitions and use of terms, the division and scope of the regulations in this part, and the extent to which the regulations in this part supersede prior regulations relating to documentary stamp taxes. Subpart B relates to the tax on issuance of capital stock and similar interests. Subpart C relates to the tax on issuance of certificates of indebtedness. Subpart D relates to the tax on sales or transfers of capital stock and similar interests. Subpart E relates to the tax on sales or transfers of certificates of indebtedness. Subpart F relates to provisions common to sales or transfers of capital stock and certificates of indebtedness. Subpart G relates to the tax on conveyances. Subpart H relates to the tax on policies issued by foreign insurers. Subpart I relates to miscellaneous provisions applicable to documentary stamp taxes. Subpart J relates to selected provisions of subtitle F of the Code, relating to procedure and administration, which have special application to documentary stamp taxes.

(c) Arrangement and numbering. Each section of the regulations is preceded by the section of the Internal Revenue Code which it interprets. Sections of the Code or references thereto are preceded by "Sec." or the word "section". Each section of the regulations is preceded by a section symbol and 43 followed by a decimal point (§ 43.).

§ 43.0–2 General definitions and use of terms—(a) In general. As used in the regulations in this part, unless otherwise expressly indicated—

(1) The terms defined in the provisions of law contained in the regulations in this part shall have the meanings so assigned to them.

(2) The Internal Revenue Code of 1954 means the Act approved August 16, 1954 (68A Stat.), entitled "An act to revise the internal revenue laws of the United States", as amended.

(3) Regulations 71 means the regulations approved November 25, 1941 (26 CFR (1941) Part 113), as amended, relating to stamp taxes on issues and transfers of stocks and bonds, conveyances of realty, passage tickets, and foreign insurance policies.

(4) The term "district director" means district director of Internal Revenue.

(5) The terms "stamp tax" and "stamp taxes" generally mean any one or all of the stamp taxes which constitute the subject of the regulations in this part.

(6) The term "documentary stamps" means all stamps issued for use in payment of the stamp taxes imposed by chapter 34 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(7) The cross references in the regulations in this part to other portions of the regulations, when the word "see" is used, are made only for convenience and shall be given no legal effect.

(b) Cross reference. For other definitions, see section 4381, §§ 43.4381–1 and 43.4381–2, and section 7701 (§ 43.7701).

§ 43.0–3 Scope of regulations. The regulations in this part have application to all transactions occurring after December 31, 1954.

§ 43.0–4 Extent to which the regulations in this part supersede prior regulations. The regulations in this part, with respect to the subject matter within the scope thereof, supersede Regulations 71.

SUBPART B—TAX ON ISSUANCE OF CAPITAL STOCK AND SIMILAR INTERESTS

§ 43.4301 Statutory provisions; imposition of tax.

SEC. 4301. Imposition of tax. There shall be imposed a tax on each original issue of shares or certificates of stock, issued by a corporation, whether on organization or reorganization, at the following rates:

(1) Par value stock. Eleven cents on each $100 or fraction thereof of the par or face value of each certificate (or of the shares where no certificate is issued).

(2) No-par-value stock—(A) Actual value of $100 or more per share. Eleven cents on each $100 or fraction thereof of the actual value of each certificate (or of the shares where no certificate is issued).

(B) Actual value of less than $100 per share. Three cents on each $20 or fraction thereof the actual value of each certificate (or of the shares where no certificate is issued).

§ 43.4301–1 Imposition of the tax on original issue of stock—(a) Scope of tax. Section 4301 imposes a tax on each original issue of shares or certificates of stock issued by a domestic corporation. See section 4381 (b) and § 43.4381–1 (b) and section 4381 (c) and § 43.4381–1 (c), respectively, for definitions of the terms "corporation" and "shares or certificates of stock". Stock is deemed to be issued when it is subscribed for and the subscription is accepted. The tax applies to each original issue of the shares or certificates, whether upon organization, reorganization, or otherwise, regardless of the purpose of the issue, the person to whom issued, or the time of delivery. The tax also applies to shares or certificates issued in a recapitalization where the recapitalization results in the dedication of an amount as capital for the first time (see § 43.4302–1).

(b) Rate and computation of tax—(1) Rate of tax. The rates of tax are as follows:

(i) Par value stock—11 cents on each $100 or fraction thereof of the face value of each certificate; and

(ii) No par value stock—11 cents on each $100 or fraction thereof of the actual value of each certificate, where the actual value of each share is $100 or more; and 3 cents on each $20 or fraction thereof of the actual value of each certificate, where the actual value of each share is less than $100.

(2) Separate computation. A separate computation of tax must be made with respect to each certificate regardless of the number of certificates which may be issued in a single transaction.

(3) Par value stock. Where stock has a par value, the tax is measured by the total face value of the certificate and not by the amount paid for the stock. For example, the tax upon the issuance of a certificate for any number from 1 to 100 shares of stock having a par value of $1 a share is 11 cents, since in such case the total face value of the certificate does not exceed $100. The tax on the issuance of a certificate for any number from 11 to 20 shares of stock having a par value of $10 a share, or for any number from 5 to 8 shares of stock having a par value of $25 a share, is 22 cents, since in these cases the total face value of the certificate is more than $100 but does not exceed $200.

(4) No par value stock. (i) Where stock has no par value, the rate of tax is determined by the actual value of each share, and the amount of tax, computed at such rate, is measured by the actual value of the certificate. Thus, in all cases where the actual value of each share is $100 or more, the tax must be computed at the rate of 11 cents on each $100 or fraction thereof of the actual value of the certificate; and in all cases where the actual value of each share is less than $100, the tax must be computed at the rate of 3 cents on each $20 or fraction thereof of the actual value of the certificate. For example, upon the issuance of a certificate for 10 shares having an actual value of $101 a share, or a total actual value of $1,010, the tax, computed at the rate of 11 cents on each $100 or fraction thereof of the actual value of the certificate, amounts to $1.21. Upon the issuance of a certificate for 10 shares having an actual value of $99 a share, or a total actual value of $990, the tax, computed at the rate of 3 cents on each $20 or fraction thereof of the actual value of the certificate, amounts to $1.50.

(ii) The actual value of stock not having a par value shall be determined on the basis of the market value of the stock at the time of issuance. In the absence of a market value of the stock, the actual value shall be determined on the basis of all the facts and circumstances of the case.

(iii) Stock which has been given a "fixed" or "stated" price, as distinguished from stock having a par value, is taxable as stock without par value.

(5) Shares not represented by certificates. Where the shares are not represented by certificates, the subscription is the basis of tax computation. In the case of shares having a par value, a separate computation of tax must be made with respect to the aggregate par value of the shares covered by each subscription. In the case of shares not having a par value, a separate computation of tax must likewise be made with respect to the aggregate actual value of the shares covered by each subscription at the rate determined by the actual value of each share.

§ 43.4301–2 Illustrations—(a) Issues subject to tax. The following are examples of issues subject to the tax:

(1) Certificates or shares representing beneficial interests in any organization which is a corporation within the meaning of section 4381 (b) or section 7701 (a) (3).

(2) Stock issued for property, real or personal, or for the purpose of purchasing a business.

(3) Stock issued by joint-stock land banks.

(4) Stock issued as a dividend.

(5) Temporary or interim certificates.

(6) The issue of a fractional share, or a certificate for a fractional share, of stock (see, however, paragraph (b) (6) of this section).

(7) Stock issued upon exercise of a warrant or rights entitling the holder to subscribe for unissued stock (see § 43.4321–3 (a)).

(8) Stock issued in connection with a consolidation by a consolidated corporation in exchange for stock of the consolidating corporations whether issued directly to the consolidating corporations or to the stockholders of the consolidating corporations (see also § 43.4321–2 (a) (9) relating to the imposition of the stock transfer tax where the stock is issued directly to the stockholders).

(9) Stock issued in connection with a merger by the continuing corporation whether issued directly to the merging corporation or to the stockholders of the merging corporation (see also § 43.4321–2 (a) (9)) and stock issued to the stockholders of the continuing corporation in a recapitalization under section 4302 which results in the dedication of an amount as capital which amount is so dedicated for the first time.

(10) Stock issued outside the United States by a domestic corporation.

(11) A business property investment certificate, wherein it is certified that the holder thereof is the owner of an interest in certain specified property, legal title to which has been previously conveyed to a trustee, and whereby the issuing corporation agrees to manage the property and distribute the proceeds.

(b) Issues not subject to tax. In addition to the various issues specifically exempt under sections 4303 (a) and 4382, the following are examples of issues not subject to the tax:

(1) The issue of warrants or rights to subscribe for unissued stock (see, however, § 43.4321–3).

(2) The issue of certificates of stock in exchange for outstanding certificates representing the same stock as, for instance, to reflect a change in the name of the issuing corporation or to secure several certificates for one certificate, or vice versa.

(3) The issue of voting-trust certificates.

(4) The issue of definitive certificates of stock in exchange for temporary or interim certificates upon the issuance of which the tax has been paid, provided that each of such definitive certificates bears a notation of the fact that requisite stamps were duly attached to the temporary or interim certificates.

(5) The issue of stock in a recapitalization or reorganization where there is no dedication of additional capital, either by transfer of earned surplus or otherwise (see, however, § 43.4302–1 (b)).

(6) Stock issued on the surrender of fractional shares or certificates for fractional shares of stock (see, however, paragraph (a) (6) of this section).

(7) The issue in the United States of stock of a foreign corporation.

(8) The issue of stock to effect a mere split in outstanding shares without any increase in the issuing corporation's capital stock account.

§ 43.4302 Statutory provisions; stock issued in recapitalization.

SEC. 4302. Recapitalization. In the case of a recapitalization, the tax imposed by section 4301 shall be that proportion of the tax computed on the certificates (or on the shares where no certificates are issued) issued in the recapitalization that (1) the amount dedicated as capital for the first time by the recapitalization, whether by a transfer of earned surplus or otherwise, bears to (2) the total par value (or actual value if no par stock) of such certificates or shares issued in the recapitalization.

§ 43.4302–1 Limitation on tax in case of recapitalization. (a) Where stock is issued in a recapitalization, the tax payable is that proportion of the total tax imposed by section 4301 computed with respect to all the shares or certificates issued in the recapitalization that the amount dedicated as capital for the first time by the recapitalization, whether by a transfer of earned surplus or otherwise, bears to the total par value (or actual value if no par stock) of the shares or certificates so issued.

(b) A tax is not payable with respect to stock issued in a recapitalization unless the recaptialization results in the dedication of an amount as capital which amount is so dedicated for the first time. Thus, where a corporation transferred an amount from capital to capital surplus in a prior recapitalization, and such corporation in a subsequent or second recapitalization transfers such amount from capital surplus to capital under such circumstances that the amount so restored to capital is clearly identifiable, a tax is not payable with respect to the amount so rededicated as capital. However, the tax is payable with respect to a transfer of capital surplus to capital by way of a recapitalization where the amount so transferred had not been previously dedicated as capital.

(c) Where a recapitalization is effected in connection with, or as part of, some other transaction, for example, an original or an additional issue of stock, a merger, etc., the limitation of the tax payable to the proportion specified in this section applies only to the stock issued in that part of the transaction which constitutes a recapitalization. Thus, where a corporation makes a change in its capital structure by replacing an issue of stock with another issue of stock and at the same time disposes of part of the new stock by sale to underwriters, the tax limitation is applicable only to that portion of the new stock which is issued in exchange for the old stock retired thereby. In such case, the portion of the new stock sold to the underwriters is taxable in its entirety without any adjustment on account of the recapitalization. Similarly, where a corporation retires its preferred stock by issuing common stock in exchange therefor, and such exchange is made in connection with a merger in which the corporation issues common stock also to the former stockholders of the merged company, the tax limitation is applicable only to the common stock issued in exchange for the preferred stock, and the shares or certificates of common stock issued to the former stockholders of the merged company are subject to tax without any adjustment on account of the recapitalization.

§ 43.4303 Statutory provisions; exemptions.

SEC. 4303. Exemptions—(a) Common trust funds. The tax imposed by section 4301 shall not apply to the issue of shares or certificates of a common trust fund, as defined in section 584.

(b) Other exemptions. For other exemptions, see section 4382.

§ 43.4303–1 Common trust funds. For regulations under section 584, see the Income Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 1).

SEC. 4304. Affixing of stamps. The stamps representing the tax imposed by section 4301 shall be affixed to the stock books or corresponding records of the organization and not to the certificates issued.

§ 43.4304–1 Affixing of stamps—(a) Documentary stamps. Only documentary stamps shall be used in payment of the tax imposed by section 4301. The requisite stamps shall be affixed to the stock books or corresponding records of the corporation, and not to the certificates issued. See §§ 43.6804–1 and 43.6804–2, contained in Subpart J of this part, for appropriate use, denominations, and cancellation of such stamps.

(b) Purchase of documentary stamps. Documentary stamps may be purchased, and requisition forms for the purchase of such stamps may be obtained, only from the sources and in the manner provided in § 43.6802–1, contained in Subpart J of this part. For provisions relating to distribution, supply, and redemption of stamps, see sections 6801, 6802 (§ 43.6802), and 6805 (§ 43.6805), and the regulations thereunder contained in the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (26 CFR Part 301).

§ 43.4305 Statutory provisions; cross references.

SEC. 4305. Cross references. For definitions, penalties, and other general and administrative provisions applicable to this part, see sections 4381 and 4383 and subtitle F.

§ 43.4305–1 Cross references. (a) For definitions, see section 4381, §§ 43.4381–1 and 43.4381–2, and section 7701 (§ 43.7701).

(b) For penalties, see section 7271 and § 43.7271–1.

(c) For other general and administrative provisions, see section 4383, § 43.4383–1, Subpart J of this part, and the applicable sections of the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (26 CFR Part 301).

SUBPART C—TAX ON ISSUANCE OF CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS

§ 43.4311 Statutory provisions; imposition of the tax.

SEC. 4311. Imposition of tax. There shall be imposed a tax on all certificates of indebtedness issued by a corporation at the rate of 11 cents on each $100 of face value or fraction thereof.

§ 43.4311–1 Imposition of tax on issuance of certificates of indebtedness—(a) Scope of tax. Section 4311 imposes a tax on the issue within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States by any corporation of certificates of indebtedness as defined in section 4381 (a) and § 43.4381–1. See section 4312 and § 43.4381–1 (b) for definitions of the term "corporation". Every renewal of a certificate of indebtedness is subject to tax as a new issue (see § 43.4313–1). A certificate of indebtedness is issued within the meaning of the law at the time it is delivered so as to constitute an obligation of the issuer.

(b) Rate and computation of tax. The rate of tax is 11 cents on each $100 or fraction thereof of the face value of each certificate of indebtedness; except that, where a certificate conditioned for the repayment or payment of money is given in a penal sum, greater than the debt secured, the tax is based upon the amount secured (see section 4314). A separate computation of tax must be made with respect to each certificate of indebtedness regardless of the number of certificates which may be issued in a single transaction. For example, the tax on the issuance of a certificate having a face value of $1,000 is $1.10. The tax on the issuance of 2 certificates having a face value of $50 each is 22 cents, that is, 11 cents on each certificate, whether the certificates are issued to the same person or to different persons.

(c) Affixing of stamps. (1) The requisite documentary stamps shall be affixed either to the certificates of indebtedness or to the indenture or agreement under which they are issued. If the stamps are affixed to the indenture or agreement, the certificate must bear a legend showing that the proper documentary stamps have been affixed to the indenture or agreement and duly cancelled. If the indenture provides for the issue of certificates over a period of years, the requisite stamps may be affixed at the time of each issue. Only documentary stamps shall be used in payment of the tax imposed by section 4311. See §§ 43.6804–1 and 43.6804–2, contained in Subpart J of this part, for the appropriate use, denominations, and cancellation of such stamps.

(2) Documentary stamps may be purchased, and requisitions for the purchase of such stamps may be obtained, only from the sources and in the manner provided in § 43.6802–1, contained in Subpart J of this part. For provisions relating to distribution, supply, and redemption of stamps, see sections 6801, 6802 (§ 43.6802), and 6805 (§ 43.6805), and the regulations thereunder contained in the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (26 CFR Part 301).

§ 43.4311–2 Illustrations—(a) Issues subject to tax. The following are examples of corporate instruments taxable upon issue:

(1) A bond secured by a real estate mortgage.

(2) A bond delivered to a bank or trust company as security for the payment of an obligation.

(3) Bonds executed outside the United States by a foreign corporation and delivered in the United States.

(4) Interim certificates or temporary bonds issued in lieu of definitive bonds. However, no additional tax is due on the issuance of the corresponding permanent or definitive bonds, but each of such permanent or definitive bonds must bear a notation of the fact that requisite stamps were duly attached to the interim certificates or temporary bonds.

(5) Equipment trust certificates.

(6) Any certificate of indebtedness issued by any receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, assignee, or other person, having custody of property, or charge of the affairs, of any corporation (see section 4312).

(b) Issues not subject to tax. In addition to the various issues specifically exempt under sections 4315 (a) and 4382, the following are examples of instruments not taxable upon issue:

(1) An instrument issued by an individual.

(2) An instrument merely representing the assignment of an interest in a bond (see, however, § 43.4331–1 and § 43.4351–1 (b)).

(3) Bonds issued in exchange for outstanding bonds of different denominations but of the same kind, the same total face amount, and the same maturity date.

(4) Permanent or definitive bonds issued in exchange for interim certificates or temporary bonds representing the same obligation (see, however, paragraph (a) (4) of this section).

(5) A certficate of deposit issued by a bank, whether or not negotiable, and whether payable on demand or at some specified time; and a certificate of deposit issued by an organization operating under the Morris Plan.

(6) Indemnity, fidelity, and surety bonds.

(7) A business property investment certificate, wherein it is certified that the holder thereof is the owner of an interest in certain specified property, legal title to which has been previously conveyed to a trustee, and whereby the issuing corporation agrees to manage the property and distribute the proceeds. However, such instrument is subject to the tax imposed by section 4301 (see § 43.4301–2 (a) (11)).

(8) A bond issued by a trust company on behalf of the estate of a decedent for which it is acting as executor or administrator, provided the certificate is issued solely on the credit of the estate.

(9) A warrant granting the right to purchase unissued bonds (see § 43.4331–3).

§ 43.4312 Statutory provisions; definition of corporation.

SEC. 4312. Definitions—(a) Corporation. For the purpose of section 4311 the term "corporation" includes any receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, assignee, or other person, having custody of property, or charge of the affairs, of the corporation.

(b) Cross references. For other definitions, see section 4381 and subtitle F.

§ 43.4313 Statutory provisions; renewal of certificates of indebtedness.

SEC. 4313. Renewals. Every renewal of any certificate of indebtedness shall be taxed as a new issue.

§ 43.4313–1 Tax on renewal of certificates of indebtedness. Every renewal of a certificate of indebtedness is subject to the tax imposed by section 4311 as a new issue. Whenever there is such a material change in the obligation as to constitute a new obligation, as, for example, an extension of maturity date or a change in the interest rate of the outstanding certificate of indebtedness, such change constitutes a renewal subject to tax as a new issue. The time when the original certificate was issued is immaterial. Likewise, the time when the certificate is renewed, whether before or after the original date of maturity, is immaterial. A tax liability is not dependent upon use of any particular form of instrument to effect the renewal. The renewal may, for example, be evidenced by a notation on the original certificate, by a collateral agreement, or by an extension agreement.

§ 43.4314 Statutory provisions; bond as security for debt.

SEC. 4314. Bond as security for debt. In the case where a bond conditioned for the repayment or payment of money is given in a penal sum greater than the debt secured, the tax imposed by section 4311 shall be based upon the amount secured.

§ 43.4314–1 Bond as security for debt. For the effect of section 4314 on the computation of the tax, see § 43.4311–1 (b).

§ 43.4315 Statutory provisions; exemption for certain installment obligations.

SEC. 4315. Exemptions—(a) Installment purchase obligations. The tax imposed by section 4311 shall not apply to any instrument under the terms of which the obligee is required to make payment therefor in installments and is not permitted to make in any year a payment of more than 20 percent of the cash amount to which entitled upon maturity of the instrument.

(b) Other exemptions. For other exemptions, see section 4382.

§ 43.4316 Statutory provisions; cross references.

SEC. 4316. Cross references. For penalties and other general and administrative provisions applicable to this part, see section 4383 and Subtitle F.

§ 43.4316–1 Cross references. (a) For definitions, see section 4381, §§ 43.4381–1 and 43.4381–2, and section 7701 (§43.7701).

(b) For penalties, see section 7271 and § 43.7271–1.

(c) For other general and administrative provisions, see section 4383, § 43.4383–1, Subpart J of this part, and the applicable sections of the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (26 CFR Part 301).

SUBPART D—TAX ON SALES OR TRANSFERS OF CAPITAL STOCK AND SIMILAR INTERESTS

§ 43.4321 Statutory provisions; imposition of tax.

SEC. 4321. Imposition of tax. There shall be imposed a tax on each sale or transfer of shares or certificates of stock, or of rights to subscribe for or to receive such shares or certificates, issued by a corporation, at the following rates:

(1) Par-value stock. Five cents on each $100 or fraction thereof of the par or face value of each certificate (or of the shares where no certificate is sold or transferred), except as provided in paragraph (3).

(2) No-par-value stock. Five cents on each share, except as provided in paragraph (3).

(3) Exception. In the case of a sale at $20 or more per share, the rate provided in paragraphs (1) and (2) shall be 6 cents in lieu of 5 cents.

§ 43.4321–1 Imposition of tax—(a) Scope of tax. Section 4321 imposes a tax on each sale or transfer (as defined in section 4351 (b)) within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States of shares or certificates of stock, or of rights to subscribe for or to receive such shares or certificates, issued by a corporation. As to sales or transfers of warrants to subscribe for or to purchase stock, see § 43.4321–3. The tax applies to the specified dealings or transactions in stock, whether occurring before, after, or without the issuance of a certificate. The tax attaches at the time of making the sale or transfer, regardless of the time or manner of delivery of the certificate, agreement, or memorandum of sale. For requirements as to the making and keeping of records of such sales or transfers, see §§ 43.4321–4 and 43.6001–1. See section 4381 (b) and § 43.4381–1 (b) and section 4381 (c) and § 43.4381–1 (c), respectively, for definitions of the terms "corporation" and "shares or certificates of stock". For purposes of the tax imposed by section 4321, the term "stock", as used in the regulations in this part, includes shares or certificates of stock and rights to subscribe for or to receive such shares or certificates.

(b) Rates and computation of tax—(1) Stock having a par value. (i) Where, by sale or transfer, par value stock of the same class issued by one corporation is transferred from a single transferor to a single transferee, the tax is computed on the basis of the aggregate par value of all the shares transferred. The selling price of the stock is material only where the change of ownership is by sale, and then only in determining the rate of tax. Where there are two or more tranferors or two or more transferees, or where in a single transaction transfer is made of the stock of two or more corporations or of two or more classes issued by a single corporation, a separate tax computation must be made with respect to each transferor and each transferee and with respect to the stock of each corporation and the stock of each class issued by a single corporation. The foregoing rule may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). A, owning 25 shares of common stock and 25 shares of preferred stock of the X Corporation, and 50 shares of the common stock of the Y Corporation, transfers all the stock by delivering the certificates to B. In this situation, there are three distinct transactions, namely, a transfer of 25 shares of comon stock of the X Corporation, a transfer of 25 shares of preferred stock of the X Corporation, and a transfer of 50 shares of common stock of the Y Corporation, and the tax is computed, in the case of each transfer, upon the aggregate par value of the stock.

Example (2). A, owning 100 shares of stock in the X Corporation represented by one or more certificates, sells 50 shares each to B and C. To that end, A sends his certificate or certificates to the transfer agent with instructions to issue one or more certificates aggregating 50 shares to each purchaser. In this situation, there are two distinct transactions, namely, two sales of 50 shares of stock each, and the tax is computed upon the aggregate par value of the stock transferred to each purchaser.

Example (3). A and B, each owning 50 shares of stock in the X Corporation represented in each case by one or more certificates, make a gift of their stock to C. To that end, they send their certificates to the transfer agent with instructions to issue to the donee one or more certificates for the entire 100 shares. In this situation, there are likewise two distinct transactions, namely, two gifts of 50 shares of stock each, and a separate computation must be made with respect to each gift.

(ii) The rate of tax applicable to each sale or transfer of par value stock is as follows:

(a) Six cents on each $100 or fraction thereof of the aggregate face value of the certificates or the aggregate par value of the shares with respect to sales, agreements to sell, and memoranda of sale, where the selling price is $20 or more a share.

(b) Five cents on each $100 or fraction thereof of the aggregate face value of the certificates or the aggregate par value of the shares with respect to sales, agreements to sell, and memoranda of sales, where the selling price is less than $20 a share.

(c) Five cents on each $100 or fraction thereof of the aggregate face value of the certificates or the aggregate par value of the shares in all other taxable transactions.

(iii) The computation of the tax may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). A sells to B 100 shares of stock of the X Corporation having a par value of $100 a share for $50 per share. The amount of tax payable is computed at the rate of 6 cents on each $100 of the face value of the certificate or certificates ($10,000) and is $6.

Example (2). The facts are the same as set forth in example (1), except that the stock is sold for $10 per share. The amount of tax payable is computed at the rate of 5 cents on each $100 of the face value of the certificate or certificates ($10,000) and is $5.

Example (3). A gives B 100 shares of stock of the X Corporation having a par value of $100 a share at a time when its actual value is $50 a share and later gives 100 shares of the same stock to C at a time when its actual value is $10 a share. In each instance the amount of tax is computed at the rate of 5 cents on each $100 of the face value of the certificate or certificates ($10,000) and is $5 for each gift.

(2) Stock without par value. (i) Where, by sale or transfer, stock without par value is transferred, the tax is computed strictly on the basis of the number of shares involved in each transfer. The selling price of the stock is material only where the change of ownership is by sale, and then only in determining the rate of tax. Stock which has been given a "fixed" or "stated" price, as distinguished from stock having a par value, is taxable as stock without par value.

(ii) The rate of tax applicable to each sale or transfer of stock without par value is as follows:

(a) Six cents per share with respect to sales, agreements to sell, and memoranda of sales, where the selling price is $20 or more a share.

(b) Five cents per share with respect to sales, agreements to sell, and memoranda of sales, where the selling price is less than $20 a share.

(c) Five cents per share in all other taxable transactions.

(iii) The computation of the tax may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). A sells to B 100 shares of stock without par value of the Z Corporation for $25 per share. The amount of tax payable is computed at the rate of 6 cents per share on 100 shares and is $6.

Example (2). A sells to B 100 shares of stock without par value of the Z Corporation for $10 per share. The amount of tax payable is computed at the rate of 5 cents per share on 100 shares and is $5.

Example (3). A gives B 100 shares of stock without par value of the Z Corporation at a time when its actual value is $25 per share and later gives C 100 shares of the same stock at a time when its actual value is $10 per share. In each instance the amount of tax is computed at the rate of 5 cents per share on 100 shares and is $5 for each gift.

(3) Rights to receive, and rights to subscribe for, stock. In all cases, the tax on the transfer of rights to receive stock and on the transfer of rights to subscribe for stock is determined by the class of stock to which the rights relate. Thus, the tax is 5 cents on each share covered by the rights where the stock has no par value and 5 cents on each $100 or fraction thereof of the aggregate par value of the shares covered by the rights where the stock has a par value. In computing the tax on transfers of rights to receive or rights to subscribe for stock, the selling price or the subscription price of the stock, as the case may be, is immaterial.

(4) Cross-reference. See § 43.4352–1 for computation of the tax imposed on the transfer of an interest in a partnership owning capital stock or similar interests taxable under section 4321.

§ 43.4321–2 Illustrations—(a) Sales and transfers subject to tax. The following transfers of stock are illustrations of transactions which are taxable, unless exempt from tax under a specific provision of the Internal Revenue Code (see sections 4322, 4341, 4342, 4343, and 4382 with respect to such exemptions):

(1) Transfer by gift.

(2) Transfer by an administrator or executor to a distributee or legatee (see, however, section 4322 (a) (4) and § 43.4322–1 (e)).

(3) Transfer to or by trustees (see, however, section 4343 (a) (8)).

(4) Transfer of an interim certificate, a voting trust certificate, or a certificate of beneficial interest in an association.

(5) Transfer from persons holding legal title as tenants in common, as joint tenants, or as tenants by the entirety, to the same persons separately to effect a partition, or from one person to two or more persons, whether or not including the transferor, as tenants in common, as joint tenants, or as tenants by the entirety (see, however, section 4343 (a) (9)).

(6) Transfer from a partnership to a successor partnership; also from a partnership to the individual members thereof upon dissolution (see, however, § 43.4352–1).

(7) Transfer to a corporation of its own stock (see, however, paragraph (b) (3) of this section).

(8) Transfer upon a merger from the name of a merging corporation of stock owned by it to the name of the continuing corporation. Similarly, upon a consolidation, a transfer from any of the consolidating corporations to the consolidated corporation (see, however, paragraphs (b) (6) and (7) of this section).

(9) In addition to the tax on the issuance of stock in connection with a merger or consolidation, where such stock is issued directly to the stockholders of the merging or consolidating corporations by the continuing or consolidated corporation (see § 43.4301–2 (a) (8) and (a) (9)), there is also a transfer tax imposed at the time of the issuance of such stock. The transfer tax is applicable to such a transaction inasmuch as there is involved the transfer to the stockholders of the merging or consolidating corporations of such corporations' right to receive the stock of the continuing or consolidated corporation.

(10) Transfer of stock to another person upon order of the purchaser; transfer of the right to receive a stock dividend already declared; issuance of stock to a person other than the subscriber; all other transfers of rights to receive stock; and all transfers of rights to subscribe for stock.

(11) Transfer by a broker to a customer of stock issued as a dividend on stock purchased for the customer by the broker and held by the broker in his own name or in the name of his nominee.

(12) Transfer of stock on the books of a domestic corporation, regardless of where the sale is made or the stock certificate is delivered.

(13) Sale or transfer within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States of stock of a foreign corporation.

(14) Transfers by operation of law (see, however, § 43.4343–1).

(b) Sales and transfers not subject to tax. In addition to the various exemptions prescribed in section 4382 which apply to documentary stamp taxes generally and to the specific exemptions provided in sections 4322, 4341, 4342, and

4343 and the regulations thereunder, the following are examples of transactions not subject to the tax:

(1) Transfer of stock pursuant to a sale, where the requisite stamps have been affixed to the memorandum of sale.

(2) Surrender of certificates in exchange for other certificates representing the same stock issued to the same person (see also § 43.4301–2 (b) (2)).

(3) Surrender of stock to the issuing corporation for extinguishment (see also paragraph (a) (7) of this section).

(4) Change in the registration of stock for the sole purpose of recording a change in the name of a stockholder, such as from the maiden name to the married name of a stockholder, or a change in the name of a corporation which is a stockholder.

(5) Transfer of stock to or by an insolvent bank, where such transfer is within the provisions of section 7507.

(6) In a consolidation of corporations, the surrender of stock of any of the consolidating corporations in exchange for stock of the consolidated corporation (see, however, paragraph (a) (9) of this section and § 43.4301–2 (a) (8)).

(7) In a merger of corporations, the surrender of stock of both the merging and the continuing corporations in exchange for stock of the continuing corporation (see, however, paragraph (a) (9) of this section and § 43.4301–2 (a) (9)).

(8) Deliveries of stock to or by a clearing house for the sole purpose of clearing or adjusting accounts of its members.

(9) Transfer of stock pursuant to a call, since a "call" is an agreement to sell stock and taxable as such. However, a person making such nontaxable transfer shall furnish and attach to the certificate a statement in substantially the following form:

It is hereby certified that the transfer of _____ shares of the within stock to _____ has been made pursuant to a "call", and that the requisite Federal documentary stamps for the transaction are affixed to such "call", which is in the possession of the undersigned.

(10) The mere delivery of a certificate of stock by a customer to his broker solely for the purpose of enabling such broker to sell the stock for the customer, where the broker has no legal title or other interest in the stock.

(11) The mere delivery of a certificate of stock by a purchasing broker to his customer, if the tax was paid upon the sale of the stock to such broker and such broker has no legal title or other interest in the stock.

§ 43.4321–3 Tax on warrants—(a) To subscribe for stock. Transfers of warrants entitling the holder to subscribe for stock are taxable as transfers of rights to subscribe. For computation of the tax on transfers of rights to subscribe for stock, see § 43.4321–1 (b) (3). The issue of a warrant entitling the holder to subscribe for stock is not subject to tax, but the issue of stock upon exercise of the warrant is subject to the tax imposed by section 4301 (see § 43.4301–2 (a) (7)).

(b) To purchase issued stock. (1) Warrants entitling the holder to purchase issued stock are taxable upon issuance as agreements to sell stock (see definition of "sale or transfer", section 4351 (b)). The rate of tax applicable to the issue of such warrant is the rate that applies to agreements to sell the kind of stock to which the warrant relates. Thus, when the stock to be purchased under the warrant has a par value and the purchase price is less than $20 per share, the tax is 5 cents per each $100 or fraction thereof of the total par value of the stock which the holder is entitled to purchase, and if the purchase price is $20 or more per share the tax is 6 cents for each $100 or fraction thereof of the total par value. If the stock has no par value, the tax is 5 cents for each share which the holder is entitled to purchase, unless the purchase price is $20 or more per share, in which event the tax is 6 cents for each share instead of 5 cents.

(2) Transfers of warrants entitling the holder to purchase issued stock are not subject to the stamp tax since the statute does not impose a tax on sales or transfers of agreements to sell stock. If the transfer tax is paid upon the issuance of a warrant as an agreement to sell stock, no additional transfer tax is incurred upon the subsequent transfer of the stock pursuant to the exercise of the warrant. However, the person making such exempt transfer of stock shall furnish and attach to the certificate a statement in substantially the following form:

It is hereby certified that the transfer of the attached certificate for _____ (number of shares and description of stock)
to _____ is made pursuant to the exercise of a warrant which is in the possession of the undersigned, and that the requisite stamps due upon the issuance of such warrant have been affixed thereto.

§ 43.4321–4 Requirement of memoranda of agreements to sell, etc. Every person who makes an agreement to sell stock, or who, by sale or otherwise, transfers title to stock by delivery of certificates assigned in blank, shall, as a part of such transaction, promptly make and deliver to the buyer, or transferee, a bill or memorandum of such agreement to sell, sale, or transfer, duly signed by the seller, or transferor, or his agent, to which the requisite stamps shall be affixed and cancelled. Such bill or memorandum shall show the date of the transaction, the names of the parties thereto, the description and number of shares of stock, the tax paid on the transaction, and, where a sale is involved, the sale price. (See § 43.6001–2, contained in Subpart J of this part.)

§ 43.4321–5 Records of sales and transfers of stock. For recordkeeping requirements, see § 43.6001–1, contained in subpart J of this part.

§ 43.4321–6 Registration of brokers, exchanges, nominees, etc. For provisions with respect to registration of brokers, exchanges, nominees, etc., see § 43.6001–4, contained in Subpart J of this part.

§ 43.4321–7 Rules applicable to clearing houses. For rules applicable to clearing houses, see § 43.6001–2, contained in Subpart J of this part.

§ 43.4322 Statutory provisions; exemptions.

SEC. 4322. Exemptions—(a) Exemptions for certain transfers. The tax imposed by section 4321 shall not apply to any delivery or transfer of shares, certificates, or rights—

(1) Loans. To a borrower as a loan of such shares, certificates, or rights, or to the lender as a return of such loans;

(2) Brokers. To a broker or his registered nominee for sale of such shares, certificates, or rights; by a broker or his registered nominee to a customer for whom and upon whose order the broker has purchased same; or by a purchasing broker to his registered nominee to be held by such nominee for the same purpose as if held by the broker;

(3) Corporations. From a corporation to a registered nominee of such corporation, or from one such nominee to another such nominee, provided that in each instance such shares, certificates, or rights are to be held by the nominee for the same purpose as if retained by the corporation; or from such nominee to such corporation; or

(4) Worthless stock. By an executor or administrator to a legatee, heir, or distributee, if it is shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary or his delegate that the value of such shares, certificates, or rights is not greater than the amount of the tax that would otherwise be imposed on such delivery or transfer.

(b) Other exemptions. For other exemptions, see sections 4341 to 4343, inclusive, and section 4382.

§ 43.4322–1 Exemptions—(a) Loan of stock and return of stock loaned. A mere loan of stock or the return of stock loaned is exempt from the tax imposed by section 4321 if the loan or return is accompanied by an exemption certificate in substantially the form prescribed in § 43.4344–1.

(b) Transfer from customer to broker. (1) If stock is transferred to the name of a broker, or to the name of a broker's registered nominee, solely for the purpose of enabling such broker to sell the stock for the customer, the transfer is exempt from tax provided the broker furnishes at the time of transfer or delivery an exemption certificate in substantially the form prescribed in § 43.4344–1. For provisions relating to the registration of nominees, see § 43.6001–4 (b), contained in Subpart J of this part.

(2) A transfer to the name of a selling agent other than a broker, as, for example, a bank, whether the sale be made by the agent direct or through a broker for the agent's account, is subject to tax, since the exemption applies only to deliveries and transfers to brokers (but see § 43.4342–1 (b)). However, liability is not incurred by the mere delivery of a certificate of stock to an agent who obtains no legal title or other interest in the stock.

(c) Transfer from broker to customer. (1) If stock is transferred to the name of a purchasing broker or his registered nominee who holds the stock for the same purchase as if held by the broker and tax on such transfer is paid, transfer may thereafter be made to the name of the purchaser (for whom and upon whose order the broker has purchased such stock) without payment of tax. If the tax was paid upon the transfer to the name of the purchasing broker, transfer may be made to the name of his registered nominee and from such nominee to the name of the purchaser without payment of tax. However, no exemption will be allowed under this paragraph unless the broker furnishes at the time of transfer or delivery an exemption certificate in substantially the form prescribed in § 43.4344–1. For provisions relating to the registration of nominees, see § 43.6001–4 (b), contained in Subpart J of this part.

(2) Delivery to, or transfer to the name of, the customer may not be made tax-free in any case in which the stock was transferred from the seller to the broker or his registered nominee without payment of the tax, since the law requires that the tax shall be paid on the transfer or transfers between the actual seller and actual buyer. A transfer from the name of a purchasing agent other than a broker, as, for example, a bank, whether the purchase be made direct or through a broker for the agent's account, is subject to tax, since the exemption applies only to deliveries and transfers from brokers (but see § 43.4342–1 (b)). However, liability is not incurred by the mere delivery to the principal of a certificate of stock by an agent having no legal title or other interest in the stock, or by a broker for the account of such agent.

(d) Transfers between corporations and nominees. The tax does not apply to the delivery or transfer of stock from a corporation to a registered nominee of such corporation, or from one such nominee to another such nominee, if in either case the shares or certificates continue to be held by such nominee for the same purpose for which they would be held if retained by such corporation; or from such nominee to such corporation. No exemption is granted unless the nominee is registered in the manner provided in § 43.6001–4 (b), contained in Subpart J of this part. Nor shall the exemption be granted in any case unless the delivery or transfer is accompanied by an exemption certificate, executed by the person making the exempt transfer, in substantially the form prescribed in § 43.4344–1.

(e) Transfers of worthless securities by executors, etc. The tax does not apply to deliveries or transfers of stock by an executor or administrator to a legatee, heir, or distributee, if it is shown to the satisfaction of the district director that the value of the stock so delivered or transferred is not greater than the amount of the tax that would otherwise be imposed on such delivery or transfer.

SEC. 4323. Affixing of stamps—(a) Books of the corporation. The stamps representing the tax imposed by section 4321 shall be affixed to the books of the corporation in case of sale where the evidence of transfer is shown only by the books of the corporation.

(b) Other evidences of sale or transfer. For provisions applicable to the affixing of stamps in cases of sale or transfer shown otherwise than only by the books of the corporation, see section 4353.

§ 43.4323–1 Affixing of stamps. (a) Only documentary stamps shall be used in payment of the tax imposed by section 4321. In the case of a sale or transfer evidenced only by the books of the corporation or other organization, the requisite stamps shall be affixed to such books. In the case of a sale or transfer evidenced otherwise than only by the books of the corporation or other organization, see section 4353 and § 43.4353–1 (a) for provisions relating to the affixing of the requisite stamps. See also §§ 43.6804–1 and 43.6904–2, contained in Subpart J of this part, for the appropriate use, denominations, and cancellation of such stamps.

(b) Documentary stamps may be purchased, and requisitions for the purchase of such stamps may be obtained, only from the sources and in the manner provided in § 43.6802–1, contained in Subpart J of this part. For provisions relating to distribution, supply, and redemption of stamps, see sections 6801, 6802 (§ 43.6802), and 6805 (§ 43.6805), and the regulations thereunder contained in the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (26 CFR Part 301).

§ 43.4324 Statutory provisions; cross references.

SEC. 4324. Cross references. For definitions, penalties, and other general and administrative provisions applicable to this part, see sections 4344, 4351, 4352, 4381, and 4383, and subtitle F.

§ 43.4324–1 Cross references. (a) For definitions, see section 4351 and § 43.4351–1, section 4381 and §§ 43.4381–1 and 43.4381–2, and section 7701 (§ 43.7701).

(b) For penalties, see section 7271 and § 43.7271–1.

(c) For other general and administrative provisions, see section 4344 and § 43.4344–1, section 4352 and § 43.4352–1, section 4383 and § 43.4383–1, Subpart J of this part, and the applicable sections of the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (26 CFR Part 301).

SUBPART E—TAX ON SALES OR TRANSFERS OF CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS

§ 43.4331 Statutory provisions; imposition of tax.

SEC. 4331. Imposition of tax. There shall be imposed a tax on each sale or transfer of any certificates of indebtedness, issued by a corporation, at the rate of 5 cents on each $100 or fraction thereof of the face value.

§ 43.4331–1 Imposition of tax—(a) Scope of tax. Section 4331 imposes a tax on each sale or transfer (as defined in section 4351 (b)) within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States of certificates of indebtedness. See section 4381 (a) and § 43.4381–1 for definition of the term "certificates of indebtedness". The tax attaches at the time of making the sale or transfer, regardless of the time or manner of delivery of the certificate or agreement or memorandum of sale. As to sales or transfers of warrants to subscribe for or purchase certificates of indebtedness, see § 43.4331–3. For requirements of maintenance of records and memoranda of such sales or transfers, see §§ 43.4331–4 and 43.4331–5. See § 43.4352 for the computation of the tax imposed on the transfer of an interest in a partnership owning certificates of indebtedness.

(b) Rate and computation of tax. (1) Where by sale or otherwise certificates of indebtedness of the same issue of a single corporation are transferred by a single transferor to a single transferee, the tax is 5 cents on each $100 of face value, or fraction thereof, of the aggregate face value of all the certificates. Where there are two or more transferors or two or more transferees, or where in a single transaction transfer is made of certificates of two or more corporations or of two or more classes issued by a single corporation, a separate tax computation must be made with respect to each transferor and each transferee, and with respect to the certificates of each corporation and of the certificates of each class issued by a single corporation. The foregoing rule may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). M, owning 25 class A bonds of the X Corporation and 25 class B bonds of the same corporation, and 50 class A bonds of the Y Corporation, transfers all the bonds to N. In this situation there are three taxable transfers, and a separate tax computation must be made with respect to the aggregate face value of the bonds involved in each.

Example (2). M, owning 100 class A bonds of the X Corporation, sells 50 bonds to N and 50 bonds to O. In this situation, there are two sales of 50 bonds each, and the tax is measured by the aggregate face value of the bonds sold to each purchaser.

Example (3). A husband and wife, each owning $50,000 face amount of class A bonds of the X Corporation, simultaneously give their bonds to their son. In this situation, there are two gifts, and a separate computation must be made with respect to the aggregate face value of the bonds included in each gift.

(2) The separate tax computation required will result in a difference in the amount of tax only where the face value of the certificates transferred is not $100 or multiples thereof.

(c) Affixing of stamps. (1) Only documentary stamps shall be used in payment of the tax imposed by section 4331. For provisions relating to the affixing of the requisite stamps in case of a sale or transfer of certificates of indebtedness, see section 4353 and § 43.4353–1 (b). See also §§ 43.6804–1 and 43.6804–2, contained in subpart J of this part, for the appropriate use, denominations, and cancellation of such stamps.

(2) Documentary stamps may be purchased, and requisition forms for the purchase of such stamps may be obtained, only from the sources and in the manner provided in § 43.6802–1, contained in subpart J of this part. For provisions relating to distribution, supply, and redemption of stamps, see sections 6801, 6802 (§ 43.6802), 6805 (§ 43.6805), and the regulations thereunder contained in the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (26 CFR Part 301).

§ 43.4331–2 Illustrations—(a) Sales and transfers subject to tax. The tax on sales or transfers of certificates of indebtedness imposed by section 4331 is similar in scope to the tax on stock transfers imposed by section 4321. Accordingly, the various examples set forth in § 43.4321–2 (a) of sales and transfers of stocks subject to the stock transfer tax apply, with certain exceptions, to sales and transfers of certificates of indebtedness unless such sales and transfers of certificates of indebtedness are exempt from tax under a specific provision of the Internal Revenue Code (see sections 4332, 4341, 4342, 4343, and 4382 with respect to such exemptions). These exceptions are the examples stated in subparagraphs (9) and (10) of § 43.4321–2 (a). In addition, loans of certificates of indebtedness including intra-office borrowings and the return of certificates loaned are subject to the tax imposed under section 4331.

(b) Sales and transfers not subject to tax. In addition to the various exemptions prescribed in section 4382 which apply to documentary stamps taxes generally and to the specific exemptions provided in sections 4332, 4341, 4342, and 4343 and the regulations thereunder, the examples set forth in § 43.4321–2 (b) of sales and transfers of stocks not subject to the stock transfer tax illustrate sales and transfers of certificates if indebtedness which are not subject to the tax imposed by section 4331.

§ 43.4331–3 Tax on warrants.—(a) To subscribe for certificates of indebtedness. Warrants entitling the holder to subscribe for unissued certificates of indebtedness are not subject to tax under section 4331.

(b) To purchase issued certificates of indebtedness. Warrants entitling the holder to purchase issued certificates of indebtedness are, upon issuance, subject to tax under section 4331, as agreements to sell certificates. Subsequent transfers of such warrants are not subject to the transfer tax since the statute does not impose a tax upon transfers of agreements to sell certificates of indebtedness. For rate and computation of tax, see § 43.4331–1 (b). If the transfer tax is paid upon issuance of a warrant, the subsequent transfer of the certificate pursuant to the exercise of such warrant is not subject to the transfer tax. However, the person transferring the certificate shall furnish and attach thereto a statement substantially as follows:

It is hereby certified that the transfer of the attached certificates of indebtedness, ---------- to (description and face value of certificates)
----------, is (name of transferee)
made pursuant to the exercise of a warrant which is in the possession of the undersigned, and that the requisite stamps due upon the issuance of such warrant have been affixed thereto.

§ 43.4331–4 Requirement of memoranda of agreements to sell, etc. Every person who makes an agreement to sell certificates of indebtedness, or who, by sale or otherwise, transfers title to certificates by delivery, including a person who lends certificates or returns certificates which have been borrowed, shall, as a part of the transaction, promptly make and deliver to the buyer, transferee, borrower, or lender, a bill or memorandum of such agreement to sell, transfer, loan, or return, duly signed by the seller, or transferer, or lender, or borrower, or his agent, to which the requisite stamps shall be affixed and canceled. Such bill or memorandum shall show the date of the transaction, the names of the parties thereto, and description and number of the certificates, and the tax paid on the transaction. No more than one stamped bill or memorandum shall be required in respect of any single transaction. (See § 43.6001–2, contained in subpart J of this part, relative to rules applicable to clearing houses.)

§ 43.4331–5 Records of sales and transfers of certificates of indebtedness. The provisions of § 43.6001–1, contained in subpart J of this part, relative to records of sales and transfers of stock are also applicable to sales and transfers of certificates of indebtedness, except that the records of sales of certificates of indebtedness need not show the sales prices, since the selling price is immaterial for purposes of the tax imposed by section 4331.

§ 43.4331–6 Registration of brokers, exchanges, and nominees. The provisions of § 43.6001–4, contained in subpart J of this part, relative to registration requirements in connection with transactions involving stock are also applicable to transactions involving certificates of indebtedness.

§ 43.4331–7 Rules applicable to clearing houses. The provisions of § 43.6001–2, contained in subpart J of this part, containing rules applicable to clearing houses where stock transactions are involved are also applicable with respect to transactions involving certificates of indebtedness.

§ 43.4332 Statutory provisions; exemptions.

SEC. 4332. Exemptions—(a) Brokers. The tax imposed by section 4331 shall not apply to any delivery or transfer to a broker for sale, nor upon any delivery or transfer by a broker to a customer for whom and upon whose order he has purchased same.

(b) Installment purchase of obligations. The tax imposed by section 4331 shall not apply to any instrument under the terms of which the obligee is required to make payment therefor in installments and is not permitted to make in any year a payment of more than 20 percent of the cash amount to which entitled upon maturity of the instrument.

(c) Other exemptions. For other exemptions, see section 4341 to 4343, inclusive, and section 4382.

[Sec. 4332 as amended by Act of Jan. 28, 1956, 70 Stat. 9, effective as of January 1, 1955]

§ 43.4332–1 Exemptions—(a) Transfers to or from brokers. The rules stated in § 43.4322–1 (b) and (c) with respect to the exemption of transfers to or by brokers from the tax imposed by section 4321 also apply with respect to the tax imposed by section 4331.

(b) Other exemptions. For other exemptions with respect to the tax imposed on sales or transfers of certificates of indebtedness, see sections 4341, 4342, 4343, and 4382 and the regulations thereunder.

§ 43.4333 Statutory provisions; cross references.

SEC. 4333. Cross references. For definitions, penalties, and other general and administrative provisions applicable to this part, see sections 4344, 4381, and 4383; sections 4351 to 4353, inclusive; and subtitle F.

§ 43.4333–1 Cross references. (a) For definitions, see section 4351 and § 43.4351–1, section 4381 and §§ 43.4381–1 and 43.4381–2, and section 7701 (§ 43.7701).

(b) For penalties, see section 7271 and § 43.7271–1.

(c) For other general and administrative provisions, see section 4344 and § 43.4344–1, section 4352 and § 43.4352–1, section 4353 and § 43.4353–1, section 4383 and § 43.4383–1, subpart J of this part, and the applicable sections of the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (26 CFR Part 301).

SUBPART F—PROVISIONS COMMON TO SALES OR TRANSFERS OF CAPITAL STOCK AND CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS

EXEMPTIONS

§ 43.4341 Statutory provisions; transfers as security.

SEC. 4341. Transfers as security. The taxes imposed by sections 4321 and 4331 shall not apply to any delivery or transfer of any of the instruments referred to in such sections—

(1) Collateral security. To a lender as collateral security for money loaned thereon, provided that such collateral security is not actually sold; or

(2) Security for performance. To a trustee or public officer made pursuant to Federal or State law as security for the performance of an obligation, or by such trustee or public officer as a return of such security.

§ 43.4341–1 Transfers as security—(a) Stock or certificates of indebtedness deposited as collateral security. The tax imposed by section 4321 or 4331 does not apply to an agreement evidencing a deposit of certificates of stock or certificates of indebtedness as collateral security for money loaned thereon, which certificates are not actually sold, nor upon the delivery or transfer for such purpose of the certificates so deposited. The exemption applies also to transfers of stock or certificates of indebtedness to a nominee of the lender and from such nominee back to the lender, if the stock or certificates of indebtedness are at all times held as collateral security for the loan; and to the return of the stock or certificates of indebtedness to the borrower by the lender or his nominee upon payment of the loan. The exemption does not apply, however, to deposits of stock or certificates of indebtedness as collateral security made otherwise than in connection with money loaned on such stock or certificates. The person making an exempt transfer under this paragraph shall, at the time of transfer or delivery, furnish an exemption certificate in substantially the form prescribed in § 43.4344–1. If the delivery or transfer is not accompanied by the required exemption certificate the person making the delivery or transfer will be required to pay the tax imposed by section 4321 or 4331. However, if an exemption certificate is furnished after the transfer or delivery, such person will be entitled to a refund of the tax paid upon filing a timely claim for refund.

(b) Transfer of stock or certificates of indebtedness made pursuant to Federal or State law to secure the performance of obligations. The tax imposed by section 4321 or section 4331 does not apply to any delivery or transfer of stock or certificates of indebtedness to a trustee or public officer, which is made pursuant to Federal or State law to secure the performance of an obligation, or to a redelivery or retransfer of such stock or certificates of indebtedness to the transferor. The exemption provided under this paragraph shall be granted only if the delivery or transfer is accompanied by an exemption certificate in substantially the form prescribed in § 43.4344–1.

§ 43.4342 Statutory provisions; fiduciaries and custodians.

SEC. 4342. Fiduciaries and custodians. The taxes imposed by sections 4321 and 4331 shall not apply to any delivery or transfer of any of the instruments referred to in such sections—

(1) Fiduciaries. From a fiduciary to his nominee, or from one nominee of the fiduciary to another nominee, provided that in each instance such instruments are to be held by the nominee for the same purpose as if retained by the fiduciary; or from the nominee to such fiduciary; or

(2) Custodians. (A) From the owner to a custodian if under a written agreement between the parties such instruments are to be held or disposed of by such custodian for, and subject at all times to the instructions of, the owner; or from such custodian to such owner;

(B) From a custodian as specified in subparagraph (A) to a registered nominee of such custodian, or from one such nominee to another such nominee, provided that in each instance such instruments are to be held by the nominee for the same purpose as if retained by the custodian; or from such nominee to such custodian.

§ 43.4342–1 Transfers to or by fiduciaries or custodians—(a) Transfers between fiduciaries and their nominees. The tax imposed by section 4321 or 4331 does not apply to deliveries or transfers of stock or certificates of indebtedness from a fiduciary to a nominee of such fiduciary, or from one nominee of such fiduciary to another, if the stock or certificates of indebtedness are to be held by such nominee for the same purpose as they would be held if retained by such fiduciary. Nor does the tax apply to deliveries or transfers from a nominee of a fiduciary to such fiduciary. The exemption provided under this paragraph shall be granted only if the delivery or transfer is accompanied by an exemption certificate in substantially the form prescribed in § 43.4344–1.

(b) Transfers to or by a custodian. (1) The tax imposed by section 4321 or 4331 does not apply to the delivery or transfer of stock or certificates of indebtedness from the owner thereof to a custodian if, under a written agreement between the owner and the custodian, the instruments so delivered or transferred are to be held or disposed of by such custodian for, and subject at all times to the instructions of, the owner; or to the delivery or transfer of stock or certificates of indebtedness from such custodian to such owner.

(2) The tax also does not apply to the delivery or transfer of stock or certificates of indebtedness from a custodian specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph to a registered nominee of such custodian, or from the owner direct to such registered nominee, or from one such nominee to another such nominee, if the stock or certificates of indebtedness are to be held by the nominee for the same purpose as they would be held if retained by such custodian. Nor does the tax apply to deliveries or transfers from a nominee of a custodian to such custodian or to the owner. No exemption is granted unless the nominee is registered in the manner provided in § 43.6001–4 (b), contained in Subpart J of this part.

(3) Moreover, the tax does not apply to the delivery or transfer of stock or certificates of indebtedness from a custodian of the owner to another custodian of the owner or from a registered nominee of the first custodian to the second custodian or to the registered nominee of the latter, if the transfer would have been exempt under subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph if made by the owner direct to the second custodian or to the registered nominee of the latter.

(4) For purposes of this paragraph, a custodian is a person to whom stock or certificates of indebtedness are delivered or transferred to be held or disposed of by such person for, and subject at all times to the instructions of, the owner and not otherwise. The term "custodian", as used in this paragraph, does not include a trustee. A custodian is to be distinguished from a nominee who merely lends his name and usually does not retain possession of the securities registered in his name.

(5) The exemption provided under this paragraph shall be granted only if the delivery or transfer is accompanied by an exemption certificate in substantially the form prescribed in § 43.4344–1.

§ 43.4343 Statutory provisions; transfers by operation of law.

SEC. 4343. Transfers by operation of law—(a) Exempt transfers. The taxes imposed by sections 4321 and 4331 shall not apply to any delivery or transfer of any of the instruments referred to in such sections—

(1) Decedents. From a decedent to his executor or administrator;

(2) Minors. From a minor to his guardian, or from a guardian to his ward upon attaining majority;

(3) Incompetents. From an incompetent to his committee or similar legal representative, or from a committee or similar legal representative to a former incompetent upon removal of disability;

(4) Financial institutions. From a bank, trust company, financial institution, insurance company, or other similar entity, or nominee, custodian, or trustee therefor, to a public officer or commission, or person designated by such officer or commission or by a court, in the taking over of its assets, in whole or part, under Federal or State law regulating or supervising such institutions, nor upon redelivery or retransfer by any such transferee or successor thereto;

(5) Bankrupts. From a bankrupt or person in receivership due to insolvency to the trustee in bankruptcy or receiver, from such receiver to such trustee, or from such trustee to such receiver, nor upon redelivery or retransfer by any such transferee or successor thereto;

(6) Successors. From a transferee under paragraphs (1) to (5), inclusive, to his successor, acting in the same capacity, or from one such successor to another;

(7) Foreign governments and aliens. From a foreign country or national thereof to the United States or any agency thereof, or to the government of any foreign country, directed pursuant to the authority vested in the President by section 5 (b) of the Trading With the Enemy Act (40 Stat. 411), as amended by the First War Powers Act, 1941 (55 Stat. 838; 50 U. S. C. App. 5);

(8) Trustees. From trustees to surviving, substituted, succeeding, or additional trustees of the same trust; or

(9) Survivors. Upon the death of a joint tenant or tenant by the entireties, to the survivor or survivors.

(b) Nonexempt transfers. No delivery or transfer shall be exempt because effected by operation of law unless an exemption is otherwise specifically provided.

§ 43.4343–1 Transfers by operation of law. No delivery or transfer shall be exempt from the tax imposed by section 4321 or 4331 because effected by operation of law unless an exemption is otherwise specifically provided. Each of the transfers specified in section 4343 (a) is exempt from tax, but only if the delivery or transfer is accompanied by an exemption certificate as provided in § 43.4344–1.

SEC. 4344. Exemption certificates. No exemption shall be granted under section 4322 (a) (1), (2), or (3), section 4332 (a), section 4341 (2), section 4342, or under section 4343 (a) unless the delivery or transfer is accompanied by a certificate setting forth such facts as the Secretary or his delegate may by regulations prescribe.

§ 43.4344–1 Exemption certificates. No exemption shall be granted under section 4322 (a) (1), (2), or (3), section 4332 (a), section 4341 (2), section 4342, or Section 4343 (a) unless the delivery or transfer is accompanied by a certificate in substantially the following form:

It is hereby certified that the transfer of the accompanying instrument(s) is made under such circumstances as to come within one of the exemptions specified in section 4322 (a) (1), (2), or (3), 4332 (a), 4341 (2), 4342, or 4343 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code, and that the evidence in proof of the exemption is maintained by the undersigned and is available for inspection by internal revenue officers.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 43.4351 Statutory provisions; definitions.

SEC. 4351. Definitions—(a) Registered nominee. For the purpose of this subchapter, the term "registered nominee" means any person registered with the official in charge of the collection district in accordance with such regulations as the Secretary or his delegate shall prescribe.

(b) Sale or transfer. For the purpose of this subchapter, the term "sale or transfer" means any sale, agreement to sell, memorandum of sale or delivery, or transfer of legal title, whether or not shown by the books of the corporation or other organization (or by any assignment in blank, or by any delivery, or by any paper or agreement or memorandum or other evidence of transfer or sale); and whether or not the holder acquires a beneficial interest in the instruments.

§ 43.4351–1 Definitions—(a) Registered nominee. For purposes of the regulations in this part, the term "registered nominee" means any person registered as such in accordance with § 43.6001–4 (b), contained in Subpart J of this part.

(b) Sale or transfer. For purposes of the regulations in this part, the term "sale or transfer" includes sales of, agreements to sell, or memoranda of sales of, stock or certificates of indebtedness; deliveries of stock or certificates of indebtedness with intent to pass title; transfers of legal title to stock or certificates of indebtedness; transfers of rights to subscribe for stock; and transfers of rights to receive stock. The tax imposed by section 4321 and by section 4331 applies to the specified dealings or transactions in stock or certificates of indebtedness, whether effected by any assignment in blank, or by any delivery, or by any paper, agreement, memorandum or other evidence of transfer or sale (and in the case of stock, whether made before, after, or without the issuance of a certificate and whether made upon or shown by the books of the corporation or other organization), and without regard to whether the holder or transferee of the stock or certificate of indebtedness (or specified right in the case of stock) is entitled to any beneficial interest therein. For definition of the term "agreement to sell", see § 43.4381–2 (a).

§ 43.4352 Statutory provisions; stock or certificates of indebtedness owned by a partnership.

SEC. 4352. Stock or certificates of indebtedness owned by a partnership. In the case of a transfer of an interest in a partnership owning any of the instruments referred to in sections 4321 and 4331, the tax imposed by each of such sections shall be that proportion of the tax computed on the transfer of all of the instruments taxable under each of such sections that—

(1) The interest in the partnership transferred bears to

(2) The total interests in the partnership of all the partners.

§ 43.4352–1 Transfer of an interest in a partnership. (a) The tax imposed by section 4321 and by section 4331 on a transfer of an interest in a partnership, owning stock or certificates of indebtedness, is an amount equal to that proportion of each such tax computed on the transfer of all such stock and certificates of indebtedness owned by the partnership that the interest in the partnership transferred bears to the total interests in the partnership of all the partners.

(b) A tax is payable on the transfer by one or more of the partners of his or their interest or interests, either in whole or in part, in the partnership, to one or more of the remaining partners or to one or more new partners admitted to the partnership. However, any change in the partnership accounts, resulting from periodic or varying withdrawals of earnings, does not constitute a transfer of an interest in a partnership and no tax is payable as the result of such a change.

SEC. 4353. Affixing of stamps. The stamps representing the taxes imposed by section 4321 and section 4331 shall be affixed to—

(1) Instrument. The instrument where the change of ownership is by transfer of the instrument;

(2) Bill or memorandum of sale. The bill or memorandum of sale in cases of an agreement to sell or where the transfer is by delivery of the instrument assigned in blank; such bill or memorandum of sale shall be made and delivered by the seller to the buyer, and shall show the date thereof, the name of the seller, the amount of the sale, and the instrument to which it refers.

§ 43.4353–1 Affixing of stamps—(a) Stock. (1) In cases of agreements to sell stock and transfers of title thereto by delivery of certificates assigned in blank, the stamps shall be fixed to the memoranda of such transactions (see § 43.4321–4).

(2) In all cases where the change of ownership of the stock is by transfer or delivery under special endorsement, i. e., by insertion of the name of the transferee in the endorsement or power of attorney on the back of the certificate, the stamps shall be affixed to the certificate, whether or not the change of ownership results from a sale.

(3) In all cases where the evidence of sale or transfer is shown only by the books of the corporation or other organization, the stamps shall be affixed to such books (see section 4323).

(b) Certificates of indebtedness. (1) In cases of agreements to sell certificates of indebtedness and transfers of title thereto, including loans, by delivery of certificates assigned in blank, the stamps shall be affixed to the memoranda of such transactions (see §43.4331–4).

(2) In all cases where the change of ownership of the certificate of indebtedness is by transfer or delivery under special endorsement, i. e., by insertion of the name of the transferee in the endorsement on the back of the certificate, the stamps shall be affixed to the certificate, whether or not the change of ownership results from a sale.

(c) In general. In no event shall any corporation or transfer agent transfer any shares, certificates of stock, or certificates of indebtedness unless stamps for the transfer tax due has been properly affixed and canceled as required by the regulations in this part.

§ 43.4354–1 Cross references. (a) For definitions, see section 4381, §§ 43.4381–1 and 43.4381–2, and section 7701 (§ 43.7701).

(b) For penalties see section 7271 and § 43.7271–1.

(c) For other general and administrative provisions, see section 4383, § 43.4383–1, Subpart J of this part, and the applicable sections of the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (26 CFR Part 301).

SUBPART G—TAX ON CONVEYANCES

§ 43.4361 Statutory provisions; imposition of tax.

SEC. 4361. Imposition of tax. There shall be imposed a tax on each deed, instrument, or writing (unless deposited in escrow before April 1, 1932), whereby any lands, tenements, or other realty sold shall be granted, assigned, transferred, or otherwise conveyed to, or vested in, the purchaser or purchasers, or any other person or persons, by his, her, or their direction, when the consideration or value of the interest or property conveyed, exclusive of the value of any lien or encumbrance remaining thereon at the time of sale, exceeds $100 and does not exceed $500, in the amount of 55 cents; and at the rate of 55 cents for each additional $500 or fractional part thereof.

§ 43.4361–1 Imposition of tax—(a) Scope of tax. (1) Section 4361 imposes a tax upon deeds, instruments, or other writings, whereby realty sold is granted, assigned, transferred, or otherwise conveyed to, or vested in, the purchaser or, at his direction, any other person, when the consideration for, or value of, the interest or property conveyed, exclusive of the value of any lien or encumbrance remaining thereon at the time of sale, exceeds $100.

(2) The tax is limited to conveyances of realty sold and does not apply to other conveyances (see § 43.4361–2 (b)). The tax attaches at the time the deed or other instrument of conveyance is delivered, irrespective of the time when the sale is made. Deeds deposited in escrow become subject to the tax upon delivery to the grantee. A conveyance of realty subject to an equity of redemption is taxable when made, not when the time for redemption expires.

(3) For purposes of the tax imposed by section 4361, the determination of what constitutes "realty" is not controlled by the definition or scope of that term under State law. State law determines the character of the rights conveyed by an instrument, but whether such conveyance constitutes a conveyance of "realty" is to be determined under Federal law.

(4) For purposes of the regulations in this part—

(i) The term "realty" includes—

(a) Those interests in real property which endure for a period of time, the termination of which is not fixed or ascertained by a specific number of years, such as an estate in fee simple, life estate, etc., and

(b) Those interests enduring for a fixed period of years but which, either by reason of the length of the term or the grant of a right to extend the term by renewal or otherwise, consist of a bundle of rights approximating those of the class of interests mentioned in subdivision (i) (a) of this subparagraph.

(ii) The term "sold" imports a transfer of an interest for a valuable consideration, which may involve money or anything of value.

(iii) The term "deed" includes any instrument or writing whereby realty is assigned, transferred, or otherwise conveyed to, or vested in, the purchaser, or at his direction, any other person.

(b) Rate and computation of tax. The rate of tax is 55 cents on each $500 or fractional part thereof of the net consideration paid for, or the net value of, the realty conveyed, that is, the gross consideration or gross value less, in either case, the amount of all liens or encumbrances on the realty existing before the sale and not removed thereby. The tax is based upon the net consideration where it is definite in amount, or may be definitely determined. The tax is based upon net value where the amount of the consideration is indefinite, or is left open to be fixed by future contingencies. In determining the amount of the net consideration for, or net value of, the realty conveyed, only the amount of the liens and encumbrances on the property existing before the sale and not removed thereby may be deducted. Thus, for example, taxes or assessments which are liens on the property before the sale and are not paid at the time of sale are deductible. No deduction shall be made on account of any lien or encumbrance placed upon the property in connection with the sale, or by reason of deferred payments of the purchase price whether represented by notes or otherwise.

§ 43.4361–2 Illustrations—(a) Conveyances subject to tax. The following are examples of conveyances subject to the tax:

(1) A conveyance of realty in exchange for other property; also the conveyance of the other property, if it is realty.

(2) A conveyance of realty in consideration of life maintenance. The tax is computed on the net value of the realty conveyed.

(3) A conveyance by a defaulting mortgagor to the mortgagee in consideration of the cancellation of the mortgage debt. The tax is computed on the amount of the unpaid mortgage debt plus unpaid accrued interest.

(4) Deeds given by masters in chancery, sheriffs, clerks of court, etc., for realty sold under foreclosure or execution. The tax is computed on the amount bid for the property plus the costs if paid by the purchaser, whether the purchaser is the mortgagee, judgment creditor, or any other person.

(5) A conveyance of realty by a judgment or decree in a condemnation proceeding under the power of eminent domain, or a conveyance of such property under threat or imminence of such proceeding.

(6) Conveyances to or by building and loan associations. However, the tax does not apply to a conveyance of realty to a building and loan association for the purpose of securing a loan thereon, nor to the reconveyance of the realty to its owner as part of the loan transaction.

(7) A conveyance of realty to a corporation in exchange for shares of its capital stock.

(8) A conveyance of realty by a corporation in liquidation or in dissolution to its shareholders subject to the debts of the corporation; however, if there are no corporate debts and the conveyance is made solely for the cancellation and retirement of the capital stock, the tax does not apply.

(9) Deeds to standing timber and to mines. (For definition of the term "deed", see § 43.4361–1 (a) (4) (iii).)

(10) In jurisdictions where common-law dower still exists, an instrument conveying the estate acquired by a widow upon assignment of dower. However, an instrument purporting to convey the inchoate right of dower of a wife, or the consummate right of dower of a widow prior to assignment of dower, is not subject to the tax. Where by statute dower has been abolished and in lieu thereof a different interest in the husband's real property conferred upon the wife, the taxability of an instrument purporting to convey such interest prior to its assignment must be determined by the nature of the wife's interest as fixed by the statutes and decisions of the jurisdiction in which the real estate is located.

(11) A conveyance of real estate sold to or by the United States of America (see, however, § 43.4383–1).

(12) A conveyance of realty by a partner to the partnership as a contribution of partnership assets.

(b) Conveyances not subject to tax. In addition to the various exemptions prescribed in sections 4362 and 4382 and in the Bankruptcy Act as amended, the following are examples of conveyances not subject to tax:

(1) The reconveyance of realty, conveyed to secure a debt, upon payment of such debt.

(2) Conveyances of realty without consideration and otherwise than in connection with a sale, including a deed conveying realty as a bona fide gift, although the deed may recite a consideration for the transfer, such as "natural love and affection and $1", "desire to promote public welfare and $1", or "$1 and other valuable consideration"; a gift of realty by a husband to his wife accomplished through the conveyance of the property for an ostensible consideration to a "straw man" who immediately reconveys the property to the wife; and a deed to or by a trustee not pursuant to a sale.

(3) A deed to confirm title already vested in the grantee, such as a quitclaim deed to correct a flaw in title.

(4) A deed given by an executor in accordance with the terms of the will; however, if, by reason of a consideration passing between devisees, one of them takes a greater share in the realty than that to which he is entitled under the will, the deed given by the executor to convey such greater share is subject to a tax computed upon the amount of such consideration.

(5) A deed from an agent to his principal conveying real estate purchased for and with funds of the principal.

(6) An option for the purchase of real property or a contract for the sale of real property, if the contract does not vest legal title.

(7) Partition deeds, unless, for consideration, some of the parties take shares greater in value than their undivided interests, in which event a tax attaches to each deed conveying such greater share computed upon the consideration for the excess.

(8) Ordinary leases of real property for a definite term of years (see, however, § 43.4361–1 (a) (4) (i)).

(9) A deed executed by a debtor conveying property to a trustee for the benefit of his creditors; however, when the trustee conveys such property to a creditor or sells it to any other person, the deed executed by him is taxable.

(10) Conveyance to a receiver of realty included in the receivership assets, and reconveyance of such realty upon termination of the receivership.

(11) A deed conveying real estate situated in a foreign country.

(12) Transfer of real estate in a statutory merger or consolidation from a constituent corporation to the continuing or new corporation.

§ 43.4361–3 Affixing of stamps. (a) Only documentary stamps shall be used in payment of the tax imposed by section 4361. The requisite stamps shall be affixed to the deed, instrument, or other writing by which the realty is conveyed. See §§ 43.6804–1 and 43.6804–2, contained in Subpart J of this part, for the appropriate use, denominations, and cancellation of such stamps.

(b) Documentary stamps may be purchased, and requisition forms for the purchase of such stamps may be obtained, only from the sources and in the manner provided in § 43.6802–1, contained in Subpart J of this part. For provisions relating to distribution, supply, and redemption of stamps, see sections 6801, 6802 (§ 43.6802), 6806 (§ 43.6805), and the regulations thereunder contained in the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (26 CFR Part 301).

§ 43.4362 Statutory provisions; exemptions.

SEC. 4362. Exemptions—(a) Security for debt. The tax imposed by section 4361 shall not apply to any instrument or writing given to secure a debt.

(b) Other exemptions. For other exemptions, see section 4382.

§ 43.4362–1 Exemptions. Section 4362 expressly exempts from the tax imposed by section 4361 any instrument or writing, such as a mortgage or a deed of trust, given to secure a debt.

§ 43.4363 Statutory provisions; cross references.

SEC. 4363. Cross references. For penalties and other general and administrative provisions applicable to this subchapter, see section 4383 and Subtitle F.

§ 43.4363–1 Cross references. (a) For definitions, see section 4381, §§ 43.4381–1 and 43.4381–2, and section 7701 (§ 43.7701).

(b) For penalties, see section 7271 and § 43.7271–1.

(c) For other general and administrative provisions, see section 4383, § 43.4383–1, Subpart J of this part, and the applicable sections of the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (26 CFR Part 301).

SUBPART H—TAX ON POLICIES ISSUED BY FOREIGN INSURERS

§ 43.4371 Statutory provisions; imposition of tax.

SEC. 4371. Imposition of tax. There shall be imposed a tax on each policy of insurance, indemnity bond, annuity contract, or policy of reinsurance issued by any foreign insurer or reinsurer at the following rates:

(1) Casualty insurance and indemnity bonds. Four cents on each dollar, or fractional part thereof, of the premium charged on the policy of casualty insurance or the indemnity bond, if issued to or for, or in the name of, an insured as defined in section 4372 (d);

(2) Life insurance, sickness, and accident policies, and annuity contracts. One cent on each dollar, or fractional part thereof, of the premium charged on the policy of life, sickness, or accident insurance, or annuity contract, unless the insurer is subject to tax under section 816;

(3) Reinsurance. One cent on each dollar, or fractional part thereof, of the premium charged on the policy of reinsurance covering any of the contracts taxable under paragraph (1) or (2).

[Sec. 4371 as amended by Act of Mar. 13, 1956, 70 Stat. 49; effective with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1954]

§ 43.4371–1 Imposition of tax on policies issued by foreign insurers; scope of tax—(a) Certain insurance policies, and indemnity, fidelity, or surety bonds. Section 4371 (1) imposes a tax upon each policy of insurance (other than those referred to in paragraph (b) of this section), upon each indemnity, fidelity, or surety bond, or upon each certificate, binder, covering note, receipt, memorandum, cablegram, letter, or other instrument by whatever name called, whereby a contract of insurance of the character involved or an obligation of the nature of an indemnity, fidelity, or surety bond is made, continued, or renewed, if issued—

(1) By a nonresident alien individual, a foreign partnership, or a foreign corporation, as insurer, and the policy or other instrument is not signed or countersigned by an officer or agent of the insurer in a State, Territory, or the District of Columbia in which such insurer is authorized to do business, or if not so signed or countersigned, the insurer is not subject to tax under section 816 (or, in the case of taxable years beginning before January 1, 1955, section 807); and

(2) To any person with respect to the life or hazards to the person of a citizen or resident of the United States.

(c) Reinsurance. Section 4371 (3) imposes a tax upon each policy of reinsurance, certificate, binder, covering note, receipt, memorandum, cablegram, letter, or other instrument by whatever name called, whereby a contract of reinsurance is made, continued, or renewed, if issued—

(1) By a nonresident alien individual, a foreign partnership, or a foreign corporation, as reinsurer, and the policy or other instrument is not signed or countersigned by an officer or agent of the reinsurer in a State, Territory, or the District of Columbia in which such reinsurer is authorized to do business; and

(2) To any person against, or with respect to, any of the hazards, risks, losses, or liabilities covered by contracts described in section 4371 (1) or (2).

(d) Exempt indemnity bonds. The tax imposed by section 4371 does not apply to any indemnity bond described in section 4373 (2).

§ 43.4371–2 Rate and computation of tax—(a) Rate of tax. (1) The tax under section 4371 (1) is imposed at the rate of 4 cents on each dollar, or fractional part thereof, of the premium charged.

(2) The tax under section 4371 (2) and (3) is imposed at the rate of 1 cent on each dollar, or fractional part thereof, of the premium charged.

(b) Computation of tax. The tax is measured strictly by the amount of the premium charged. The time and method of payment of the premium are immaterial; the tax liability attaches if the insurance becomes effective, even though the premium is never paid. The full rate of tax applies to each fractional part of a dollar of the premium charged. For example, upon a premium charge of $10.10, the tax at the rate of 4 cents amounts to 44 cents, and at the rate of 1 cent amounts to 11 cents.

(c) Meaning of premium. For purposes of the regulations in this part, the term "premium" means the agreed price or consideration for assuming and carrying the risk or obligation, and includes any additional assessment or charge which may be assessed or charged under the contract, whether payable in one sum or installments.

§ 43.4372 Statutory provisions; definitions.

SEC. 4372. Definitions—(a) Foreign insurer or reinsurer. For the purpose of this subchapter, the term "foreign insurer or reinsurer" means an insurer or reinsurer who is a nonresident alien individual, or a foreign partnership, or a foreign corporation. The term includes a nonresident alien individual, foreign partnership, or foreign corporation which shall become bound by an obligation of the nature of an indemnity bond.

(b) Policy of casualty insurance. For the purpose of section 4371 (1), the term "policy of casualty insurance" means any policy (other than life) or other instrument by whatever name called whereby a contract of insurance is made, continued, or renewed.

(c) Indemnity bond. For the purpose of this subchapter, the term "indemnity bond" means any instrument by whatever name called whereby an obligation of the nature of an indemnity, fidelity, or surety bond is made, continued or renewed. The term includes any bond for indemnifying any person who shall have become bound or engaged as surety, and any bond for the due execution or performance of any contract, obligation, or requirement, or the duties of any office or position, and to account for money received by virtue thereof, where a premium is charged for the execution of such bond.

(d) Insured. For the purpose of section 4371 (1), the term "insured" means—

(1) A domestic corporation or partnership, or an individual resident of the United States, against, or with respect to, hazards, risks, losses, or liabilities wholly or partly within the United States, or

(2) A foreign corporation, foreign partnership, or nonresident individual, engaged in a trade or business within the United States, with respect to hazards, risks, or liabilities within the United States.

(e) Policy of life, sickness, or accident insurance, or annuity contract. For the purpose of section 4371 (2), the term "policy of life, sickness, or accident insurance, or annuity contract" means any policy or other instrument by whatever name called whereby a contract of insurance or an annuity contract is made, continued, or renewed with respect to the life or hazards to the person of a citizen or resident of the United States.

(f) Policy of reinsurance. For the purpose of section 4371 (3), the term "policy of reinsurance" means any policy or other instrument by whatever name called whereby a contract of reinsurance is made, continued, or renewed against, or with respect to, any of the hazards, risks, losses, or liabilities covered by contracts taxable under paragraph (1) or (2) of section 4371.

§ 43.4373 Statutory provisions; exemptions.

SEC. 4373. Exemptions. The tax imposed by section 4371 shall not apply to—

(1) Domestic agent. Any policy, indemnity bond, or annuity contract signed or countersigned by an officer or agent of the insuref in a State, Territory, or District of the United States within which such insurer is authorized to do business; or

(2) Indemnity bond. Any indemnity bond required to be filed by any person to secure payment of any pension, allowance, allotment, relief, or insurance by the United States, or to secure a duplicate for, or the payment of, any bond, note, certificate of indebtedness, war-saving certificate, warrant or check, issued by the United States.

§ 43.4374 Statutory provisions; affixing of stamps.

SEC. 4374. Affixing of stamps. Any person to or for whom or in whose name any policy, indemnity bond, or annuity contract referred to in section 4371 is issued, or any solicitor or broker acting for or on behalf of such person in the procurement of any such instrument, shall affix the proper stamps to such instrument.

§ 43.4374–1 Affirming of stamps—(a) General. (1) Documentary stamps shall be used in payment of the tax. Requisite stamps must be affixed to the first instrument whereby the taxable contractual relationship is created, continued, or renewed, whether it be a letter of acceptance, a cablegram, or other instrument by whatever named called. Where the instrument which creates or evidences the contractual relationship is confirmed by a subsequent instrument, the latter shall bear a notation designating such prior instrument (referred to in this section as the original instrument) and showing that the requisite stamps have been affixed thereto and canceled.

(2) In any case where the amount of the premium is not definitely determined at the time of entering into the taxable contractual relationship, the stamps may be affixed to the receipts for monthly or other payments if proper notation be made upon such receipts identifying the original instruments to which they apply.

(3) The stamps shall be affixed by any person who is a party to the taxable contractual relationship, including any solicitor or broker acting for or on behalf of such person.

(b) Subsequent instruments. In case a subsequent instrument provides for the payment of a premium greater than that provided for in the original instrument, the subsequent instrument must have affixed thereto stamps equal to the tax imposed upon the additional premium charged and must bear a notation of the stamps affixed to the original instrument.

(c) Affixing of stamps. (1) Only documentary stamps shall be used in payment of the tax imposed by section 4371. See also §§ 43.6804–1 and 43.6804–2, contained in Subpart J of this part, for the appropriate use, denominations, and cancellation of such stamps.

(2) Documentary stamps may be purchased, and requisition forms for the purchase of such stamps may be obtained, only from the sources and in the manner provided in § 43.6802–1, contained in Subpart J of this part. For provisions relating to distribution, supply, and redemption of stamps, see sections 6801, 6802 (§ 43.6802), 6805 (§ 43.6805), and the regulations thereunder contained in the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (26 CFR Part 301).

(d) Instruments without stamps or notation of stamping. For provisions relating to the penalty for failure to comply with the requirements of section 4374, see § 43.7270, contained in Subpart J of this part.

(e) Record requirements. For provisions relating to the requirements concerning records and the retention of policies for a period of 3 years, see § 43.6001–3, contained in Subpart J of this part.

§ 43.4375 Statutory provisions; cross references.

SEC. 4375. Cross references. For penalties and other general and administrative provisions, see section 4383 and subtitle F.

§ 43.4375–1 Cross references. (a) For definitions, see section 4381, §§ 43.4381–1 and 43.4381–2, and section 7701 (§ 43.7701).

(b) For penalties, see section 7271 and § 43.7271–1.

(c) For other general and administrative provisions, see section 4383, § 43.4383–1, Subpart J of this part, and the applicable sections of the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (26 CFR Part 301).

SUBPART I—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO DOCUMENTARY STAMP TAXES

§ 43.4381 Statutory provisions; definitions.

SEC. 4381. Definitions—(a) Certificates of indebtedness. For purposes of the taxes imposed by sections 4311 and 4331, the term "certificates of indebtedness" means bonds and debentures; and also includes all instruments, however termed, issued by a corporation with interest coupons or in registered form, known generally as corporate securities.

(b) Corporation. For purposes of the taxes imposed by sections 4301 and 4331 [4321], the term "corporation" includes any investment trust or similar organization (or any person acting in behalf of such investment trust or similar organization) holding or dealing in shares or certificates of stock, or in certificates of indebtedness. The definition herein shall not be construed to limit the effect of the definition of the term "corporation" provided in section 7701 (a) (3).

(c) Shares or certificates of stock. For purposes of the taxes imposed by sections 4301 and 4331 [4321], the term "shares or certificates of stock" includes shares or certificates of profits or of interest in property or accumulations.

§ 43.4381–1 Definitions—(a) Certificates of indebtedness. The term "certificates of indebtedness" includes bonds and debentures. Such term also includes all instruments, however termed, issued by a corporation with interest coupons or in registered form and known generally as corporate securities. The essence of a corporate security is marketability. An instrument is ordinarily considered to be marketable if it is issued in series, under a trust indenture, and in registered form or with interest coupons attached. For example, an instrument containing the essential feature of a promissory notice is included within the meaning of the term "certificates of indebtedness" if it has, in addition, the general characteristics of a corporate security. Whether or not an instrument is a certificate of indebtedness within the meaning of section 4381 (a) is not determined by its name alone, but depends upon all the facts which can be derived from the face of the instrument, such as the form and terms of the instrument. The nature of the transaction or any act appearing outside of the instrument itself is immaterial for purposes of making such determination.

(b) Corporation. For purposes of the taxes imposed by sections 4301, 4311, 4321, 4331, 4361, and 4371, the term "corporation" includes associations, joint-stock companies, and insurance companies (see § 43.7701). For purposes of the taxes imposed by sections 4301 and 4321, the term "corporation" also includes any investment trust or similar organization (or any person acting in behalf of such investment trust or similar organization) holding or dealing in shares or certificates of stock, or in certificates of indebtedness. In addition, for purposes of the tax imposed by section 4311, section 4312 (a) provides that the term "corporation" also includes any receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, assignee, or other person having custody of property, or charge of the affairs, of a corporation.

(c) Shares or certificates of stock. For purposes of the regulations in this part, the term "stock" includes shares or certificates of stock. The term "stock" also includes shares in an association, joint-stock company, or insurance company (see § 43.7701). For purposes of the tax imposed by section 4321, the term "stock" also includes rights to subscribe for or to receive shares or certificates of stock (see § 43.4321–1 (a)). For purposes of the taxes imposed by sections 4301 and 4321, the term "shares or certificates of stock" includes shares or certificates of profits or of interest in property or accumulations.

§ 43.4381–2 Other definitions—(a) Agreement to sell, exchange, and clearing house. As used in the regulations in this part, unless otherwise specified or indicated by the context—

(1) The term "agreement to sell" includes contracts to sell, either written or oral, and whether on the deferred or partial payment plan or otherwise, options, calls, offers, indemnities, and privileges.

(2) The term "exchange" includes each and every agency, office, room, or other place of assembly, whether under shelter or in the open, at which stocks, certificates of indebtedness, rights, or warrants are publicly bought, sold, bid for, offered, or exchanged, between persons there assembled, on behalf of themselves or others.

(3) The term "clearing house" includes every corporation, and every association of individuals, partnerships, or corporations, wholly or partly engaged in the business of clearing, settling or adjusting transactions in the purchase, sale, receipt, or delivery of stock, certificates of indebtedness, rights, or warrants, whether or not a part or department of an exchange or an independent body.

(b) Cross references. For other definitions, see §§ 43.0–2 and 43.7701.

§ 43.4382 Statutory provisions; exemptions.

SEC. 4382. Exemptions. (a) The taxes imposed by this chapter shall not apply to—

(1) Government and state obligations. Any certificate of indebtedness, note, or other instrument, issued by the United States, or by any foreign government, or by any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or local subdivision thereof, or municipal or other corporation exercising the taxing power;

(2) Domestic building and loan associations and mutual ditch or irrigation companies. Shares or certificates of stock and certificates of indebtedness issued by domestic building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, cooperative banks, and homestead associations substantially all the business of which is confined to making loans to members, or by mutual ditch or irrigation companies;

(3) Farmers', fruit growers', or cooperative associations. Shares or certificates of stock and certificates of indebtedness issued by any farmers' or fruit growers' or like associations organized and operated on a cooperative basis for the purposes, and subject to the conditions, prescribed in section 521.

(b) The taxes imposed by sections 4301, 4311, 4321, 4331, and 4361 shall not apply to—

(1) Corporate and railroad reorganizations. The issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making, delivery, or filing of conveyances to make effective any plan of reorganization or adjustment confirmed or approved as indicated below, provided that the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making, delivery or filing of instruments of transfer or conveyances, occurs within 5 years from the date of such confirmation or approval—

(A) Confirmed under the Bankruptcy Act, as amended (30 Stat. 544; U. S. C., Title 11),

(B) Approved in an equity receivership proceeding in a court involving a railroad corporation, as defined in section 77 (m) of the Bankruptcy Act, as amended (49 Stat. 922; 11 U. S. C. 205 (m)), or

(C) Approved in an equity receivership proceeding in a court involving a corporation, as defined in section 106 (3) of the Bankruptcy Act, as amended (52 Stat. 883; 11 U. S. C. 506);

(2) Orders of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or making or delivery of conveyances, to make effective any order of the Securities and Exchange Commission as defined in section 1083 (a); Provided, That—

(A) The order of the Securities and Exchange Commission in obedience to which such issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities or conveyances are made recites that such issuance, transfer, or exchange, or conveyances are necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (49 Stat. 820; 15 U. S. C. 79k (b)),

(B) Such order specifies and itemizes the securities and other property which are ordered to be issued, transferred, exchanged, or conveyed, and

(C) Such issuance, transfer, or exchange, or conveyance is made in obedience to such order.

§ 43.4382–1 Exemptions—(a) Government and State obligations. Section 4382 (a) (1) exempts from the tax imposed by sections 4311 and 4331 any certificate of indebtedness issued by the United States, or by any foreign government, or by any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or local subdivision thereof, or municipal or other corporation exercising the taxing power.

(b) Stocks and certificates of indebtedness of domestic building and loan associations, etc. Section 4382 (a) (2) exempts from the tax imposed by section 4301, 4311, 4321, or 4331 any stock or certificate of indebtedness issued by a (1) domestic building and loan association, savings and loan association, cooperative bank, or homestead association, substantially all the business of which is confined to making loans to members, or (2) mutual ditch or irrigation company. For definition of the term "domestic building and loan association", see § 43.7701.

(c) Stocks and certificates of indebtedness of farmers', fruit growers', or cooperative associations. Section 4382 (a) (3) exempts from the tax imposed by section 4301, 4311, 4321, or 4331 any stock or certificate of indebtedness issued by any farmers' or fruit growers' or like association organized and operated on a cooperative basis for the purposes, and subject to the conditions, prescribed in section 521. For regulations under section 521, see the Income Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 1 of this chapter).

(d) Corporate and railroad reorganizations. (1) Section 4382 (b) (1) exempts from the taxes imposed by sections 4301, 4311, 4321, 4331, and 4361 the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making, delivery, or filing of conveyances, to make effective any plan of reorganization or adjustment—

(i) Confirmed under the Bankruptcy Act, as amended (30 Stat. 544; U. S. C. title 11);

(ii) Approved in an equity receivership proceeding in a court involving a railroad corporation, as defined in section 77 (m) of the Bankruptcy Act, as amended (49 Stat. 922; 11 U. S. C. 205 (m)); or

(iii) Approved in an equity receivership proceeding in a court involving a corporation, as defined in section 106 (3) of the Bankruptcy Act, as amended (52 Stat. 883; 11 U. S. C. 506), if the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making, delivery or filing of instruments of transfer or conveyance, occurs within 5 years from the date of such confirmation or approval.

(2) Section 267 of the Bankruptcy Act (52 Stat. 903; 11 U. S. C. 667) also exempts from stamp tax the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making or delivery of instruments of transfer under any plan of reorganization confirmed under chapter X of the Bankruptcy Act, as amended. However, by reason of the provisions of section 4382 (b) (1) the exemption conferred by section 267 has no application to the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making, delivery, or filing of conveyances, which occurs after 5 years from the date of confirmation or approval of the plan of reorganization.

(e) Orders of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Section 4382 (b) (2) exempts from the taxes imposed by sections 4301, 4311, 4321, 4331, and 4361 the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making or delivery of conveyances, to make effective any order of the Securities and Exchange Commission as defined in section 1083 (a), if (1) the order of the Securities and Exchange Commission in obedience to which such issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities or conveyance is made recites that such issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities or conveyance is necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (49 Stat. 820; 15 U. S. C. 79k (b)); (2) such order specifies and itemizes the securities and other property which are ordered to be issued, transferred, exchanged, or conveyed; and (3) such issuance, transfer, or exchange or conveyance is made in obedience to such order.

(f) Alteration and modification of securities under the Interstate Commerce Act. Section 20b of the Interstate Commerce Act (62 Stat. 162; 49 U. S. C. 20b) provides for alteration or modification of securities of a carrier as defined in section 20a (1). Paragraph (12) of section 20b makes sections 4301, 4311, 4321, 4331, and 4361, and any amendments thereto, unless specifically provided to the contrary, inapplicable to the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities or the making or delivery of conveyances to make effective any alteration or modification effected pursuant to section 20b.

§ 43.4383 Statutory provisions; liability for tax.

SEC. 4383. Liability for tax. The tax imposed by this chapter shall be paid by any person who makes, signs, issues, or sells any of the documents and instruments subject to the taxes imposed by this chapter, or for whose use or benefit the same are made, signed, issued, or sold. The United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof shall not be liable for the tax with respect to an instrument to which it is a party, and affixing of stamps thereby shall not be deemed payment for the tax, which may be collected by assessment from any other party liable therefor.

§ 43.4383–1 Liability for tax. (a) The tax is payable by any of the parties (except the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof) to a taxable transaction. As, for example, in the case of the transfer of stock, the liability therefor is imposed upon the transferor, the transferee, and the corporation whose stock is transferred (if there is a transfer of record).

(b) The parties to the transaction may agree among themselves as to which shall pay the tax, but such agreement does not relieve the others from their liability in the event it is not carried out. No provisions, by-laws, or rules, of any exchange, and no custom, shall exempt any person from payment of the tax imposed.

(c) Where a state or a political subdivision thereof, acting in its governmental capacity, is a party to a taxable transaction, under chapter 34 of the Code, the transaction will not be exempt from the documentary stamp tax merely by reason of the governmental character of one of the parties. The legal incidence of the tax in such a case rests upon the other party to the transaction. However, if in a taxable transaction with a private party, a State or political subdivision thereof is acting in its proprietary function, both parties will be liable for the tax. Where all parties to a transaction are States or political subdivisions thereof, acting in their governmental capacity, no tax shall be imposed.

SUBPART J—ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO DOCUMENTARY STAMP TAXES

§ 43.6001 Statutory provisions; notice or regulations requiring records, statements, and special returns.

SEC. 6001. Notice or regulations requiring records, statements, and special returns. Every person liable for any tax imposed by this title, or for the collection thereof, shall keep such records, render such statements, make such returns, and comply with such rules and regulations as the Secretary or his delegate may from time to time prescribe. Whenever in the judgment of the Secretary or his delegate it is necessary, he may require any person, by notice served upon such person or by regulations, to make such returns, render such statements, or keep such records, as the Secretary or his delegate deems sufficient to show whether or not such person is liable for tax under this title.

§ 43.6001–1 Records of sales and transfers of stock—(a) Brokers, dealers, etc. All persons who are wholly or partly engaged in the business of buying, selling, or transferring stock, either at public or private sale, whether or not they are members of an exchange, including persons engaged in transactions known as "matched", "on-order", "pass-outs", or "give-ups", or transactions which are settled directly between the seller and buyer or which are cleared or adjusted through a clearing house or otherwise, or persons (other than those described in paragraph (b) of this section) engaged in accepting and procuring the transmission of orders for purchase or sale of shares of stock shall keep a record as to each transaction showing:

(1) Date of transaction.

(2) Name of customer for whom sold or loaned, or for whom bought or borrowed.

(3) Name of party to whom sold or loaned, or from whom bought or borrowed.

(4) Name of correspondent broker, if any.

(5) Number of shares involved.

(6) Name and description of stock.

(7) Par value of stock; if no par value, so indicate.

(8) Aggregate face value of the certificates involved.

(9) Selling price of stock, per share.

(10) Amount of tax paid.

(b) Correspondent brokers. Persons engaged in accepting and procuring the transmission of orders for the purchase or sale of stock to be executed at a brokerage office or at an exchange, board of trade, or similar place, shall keep a record as to each transaction showing:

(1) Date of acceptance and transmission of order.

(2) Name of person from whom accepted.

(3) Name and address of person to whom transmitted.

(4) Name and description of stock.

(5) Par value of stock; if no par value, so indicate.

(6) Number of shares involved.

(7) Whether purchase or sale.

(8) Selling price of stock, per share.

(9) Date of execution of order.

(c) Floor brokers, etc. Brokers known as strictly "floor brokers", "two-dollar men", or "room traders", whether their transactions are settled directly between seller and buyer, by "matched", "on-order", "pass-out", "scratch sale", or "give-up", or by any other kind of sale or purchase, or whether their transactions are cleared through a clearing house or otherwise, shall, in lieu of the record prescribed in subsection (a) of this section, keep a record as to each transaction showing:

(1) Date of transaction.

(2) Name of seller.

(3) Name of purchaser.

(4) Name and description of stock.

(5) Number of shares involved.

(6) Par value of stock; if no par value, so indicate.

(7) Aggregate face value of the certificates involved.

(8) Selling price of stock, per share.

(9) Whether the transaction is "matched", "on-order", "pass-out", "scratch sale", or "give-up".

(10) Name of person to whom "given-up".

(d) General. Persons keeping records as prescribed in this section may incorporate therein additional information for their own use, which should be entered, however, so as not to interfere with the recording of the information required by this section. These records must be kept in permanent form for a period of at least three years from the date of the transaction and must be available for ready inspection by internal revenue officers.

§ 43.6001–2 Rules applicable to clearing houses.—(a) In general. (1) If any person who negotiates sales or transfers of stock or certificates of indebtedness on a stock exchange appoints in writing the clearing house for the exchange as his agent for the purposes hereinafter specified, and on each business day furnishes to such clearing house a written report, statement, or sheet making a full disclosure of all transactions, both clearable and nonclearable, of the preceding business day in stocks or certificates of indebtedness that are listed or permitted to be dealt in by such member on such exchange, and also showing in which transactions, if any, certificates of indebtedness were loaned, borrowed, or returned, then in that event such clearing house may affix to such report, statement, or sheet, and cancel the stamps required for each transaction. The affixing and canceling of such stamps by the clearing house shall be held to be the act of the person making the sale, agreement to sell, memorandum of sale, delivery or transfer, as the case may be. If the person filing the report, statement, or sheet and the clearing house so elect, such person may affix and cancel the stamps before delivering such report, statement, or sheet to the clearing house; but such clearing house shall not accept the stamped report, statement, or sheet unless all stamps required to be affixed are attached thereto and properly canceled.

(2) The reports, statements, or sheets submitted to the clearing house shall in respect of each transaction show the date thereof, the names of the parties to the transaction, the amount and description of the stock or certificates of indebtedness traded in. The information with respect to more than one transaction may be entered upon one report, statement, or sheet. No settlement of differences or other dealings between members shall be permitted that will interfere with the full disclosure of each transaction.

(3) The report, statement, or sheet submitted to the clearing house does not relieve the seller from making and delivering to the buyer the bill or memorandum required by § 43.4321–4 in the case of stock and § 43.4331–4 in the case of certificates of indebtedness. However, where the stamps are affixed to the report, statement, or sheet submitted to the clearing house, under either of the methods permitted by this section, the bill or memorandum shall, in lieu of stamps, bear an endorsement substantially in the following form:

It is hereby certified that the requisite Federal stamps on this transaction have been affixed to clearing-house sheet dated ------, and filed with the ---------- Stock Exchange Clearing House.

(Member ------- Stock Exchange)

(4) Whenever any clearing house carries upon its sheets or records information or reports of transactions showing the transfer by one of its members of an account of a customer without change of ownership of the securities of the customer, there shall be kept by the members involved in the transaction a record showing the particulars of such transaction.

(b) Alternative rules applicable to clearing houses. A member of a securities exchange which is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as a national securities exchange may appoint in writing the clearing house for such exchange as his agent for the purpose of affixing the stamps required in respect of his transactions in stock or certificates of indebtedness. The privilege granted by this paragraph may be exercised only upon compliance with the following conditions:

(1) The member shall authorize and require the clearing house to affix the requisite stamps in respect of all transactions in stock or certificates of indebtedness, including rights to subscribe for or to receive stock, arising in the conduct of his business irrespective of whether the stock or certificates of indebtedness are listed or unlisted, whether the transactions are clearable or not, and including transactions involving loans or borrowings of certificates of indebtedness and over-the-counter sales.

(2) The member shall make a daily report to the clearing house for each business day showing the total amount of tax payable on all his business transactions as specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. The report shall be filed with the clearing house on the day on which the transactions covered thereby are due for settlement (blotter date).

(3) The member shall maintain complete and adequate daily records, such as a blotter or similar book of original entry, of all transactions in stock or certificates of indebtedness as specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, whether the transaction is taxable or not. In the case of taxable transactions, the daily record shall show the amount of tax payable in respect of each transaction. In the case of nontaxable transactions, the daily record shall disclose the basis on which exemption from the tax is claimed. Such daily records shall be kept in permanent form for a period of at least three years from the date of the transaction, and must be available for ready inspection by internal revenue officers.

(4) The clearing house shall, on the day of receiving the report specified in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, affix to the report and cancel documentary stamps aggregating in value the total amount of tax shown on the report. In lieu of affixing stamps to the report submitted by each member who may have elected to exercise the privilege granted by this paragraph, the clearing house may prepare a daily summary statement showing the name of, and the total tax reported by, each such member, and affix to such summary statement and cancel documentary stamps aggregating in value the grand total of the amounts of tax reported by all such members. The daily reports received from its members and the daily summary statement of the total tax shown on such reports (if one is made) shall be kept in permanent form by the clearing house for a period of at least 3 years from the date thereof, and must be available for ready inspection by internal revenue officers. After the termination of such period, the daily reports and the summary statement may be destroyed by the clearing house, but only in the presence of an internal revenue officer.

(5) The member shall make and deliver to the buyer the bill or memorandum required by § 43.4321–4 in the case of stock and by § 43.4331–4 in the case of certificates of indebtedness, except that in lieu of affixing stamps to such bill or memorandum, the member shall make an endorsement on the bill or memorandum substantially in the following form:

It is hereby certified that the Federal stamp tax applicable to this transaction has been paid through the ----------

---

(Insert name of clearing house)

on our behalf.

(Member ---------- Stock Exchange)

If so desired, the member may also make a similar endorsement on the certificates of stock or certificates of indebtedness covered by the bill or memorandum. In that event, the endorsement shall be in substantially the following form:

It is hereby certified that the Federal stamp tax applicable to the transfer of ---------- shares of this certificate (or applicable to the transfer of this certificate of indebtedness) has been paid through ---------- (Insert name of clearing house) on our behalf.

---

(Date) (Member -------- Stock Exchange)

The endorsement (including a facsimile signature of the member) may be made on the bill or memorandum and on the accompanying certificate of stock or certificates of indebtedness by a hand-stamped impression, if (i) the hand-stamp is held at all times in the custody of the person authorized to make such impression, and (ii) the records of the member contain sufficient information to establish the identity of the person so authorized.

§ 43.6001–3 Records with respect to foreign insurance policies. (a) No return or statement showing a list of policies or other instruments subject to the tax imposed by section 4371 is required from any person to or for whom, or in whose name, such policy or other instrument is issued, or from the solicitor or broker acting directly or indirectly for or on behalf of such person. However, each person, solicitor, or broker, accepting, placing, soliciting, or making, directly or indirectly, or paying or receiving compensation with respect to, a policy or other instrument subject to the tax imposed by section 4371 shall keep a record of such policy or other instrument for a period of at least three years from the date of issuance thereof and shall be prepared to furnish full information to the district director at any time upon demand.

(b) The person having control or possession of a policy of insurance, or reinsurance, or other instrument to which documentary stamps must be affixed shall retain such instrument for at least 3 years from the date of issuance thereof to enable internal revenue officers to ascertain whether the requisite stamps have been affixed and canceled.

§ 43.6001–4 Registration of brokers, exchanges, nominees, etc.—(a) Registration of brokers, exchanges, etc.—(1) Requirements of registration. Every person engaged, in whole or in part, in any of the following businesses or activities shall file a statement for registration with the district director for each district in which such business or activity is conducted:

(i) Negotiating, making, or recording sales or transfers of stock, certificates of indebtedness, rights, or warrants;

(ii) Conducting or transacting a stock or bond brokerage business;

(iii) Accepting or procuring the transmission of orders for the purchase or sale or transfer of stock, certificates of indebtedness, rights, or warrants to be executed at a stock or bond brokerage office or an exchange or similar place;

(iv) Transferring stock, certificates of indebtedness, rights, or warrants, other than their own;

(v) Conducting an exchange or clearing house, or clearing association, for the clearing, adjusting, and settling of transactions made on exchanges or similar places. In case an exchange has a department connected therewith engaged in clearing, adjusting, and settling transactions made thereon, a statement shall be made setting forth the names and addresses of the superintendent and secretary of the clearing house department or committee.

(2) Statement to be filed. (i) The statement shall be on Form 741, which is procurable from district directors. The statement shall set forth specifically the character of the business, the name under which it is operated, and its exact location. A concern having branches or agencies shall file a statement in the district in which its principal office is located, showing the address of each branch office or agency and the name of the manager or agent in charge thereof. A separate statement shall also be filed in each of the other districts in which branches or agencies are maintained. The data shown in a statement covering a branch or agency shall relate to such branch or agency rather than to the principal office. The statement shall show the name and residence address of each member or representative holding membership in an exchange and the name of the exchange. If a license has been procured under the laws of any State or under any provision of Federal law, the date of the license and the place of issuance shall be shown. Upon registration the district director shall issue a certificate of registration as provided in paragraph (c) of this section.

(ii) In the case of a partnership, the statement shall be signed by one of the partners and shall show the name and residence address of each member engaged in the business.

(iii) In the case of a corporation or association, including an exchange or clearing house, the statement shall be signed by the chief officer or secretary and shall show the names and residence addresses of the officers of the corporation or association. In the case of a corporation, the statement shall show the date and place of incorporation. In the case of an exchange or clearing house, the name and residence address of the superintendent shall be shown. A list of the members and their residence addresses and a copy of the constitution, charter, or agreement of association and of the by-laws, rules, and regulations shall be filed with the statement. A copy of each amendment shall be filed as and when adopted.

(iv) If there is an addition to the membership after a statement has been filed, an additional statement shall be filed showing the name and residence address of the additional member.

(3) Business suspended or moved. In case a person registered as required herein suspends or closes his business, or moves it to another district, he shall notify the district director to that effect, showing the date of suspension, closing, or removal, and shall return the certificate of registration to the district director.

(b) Registration of nominee. (1) Any person conducting a stock brokerage business, who has registered with the district director as provided in paragraph (a) of this section, may appoint some person to act as his nominee in holding stock on his behalf. Any person acting in the capacity of a custodian within the contemplation of the exemption provided in section 4342 (2) may appoint some person to act as his nominee in holding stocks or certificates of indebtedness on his behalf. Any corporation may appoint some person to act as its nominee in holding stock on its behalf.

(2) The name of the person appointed as nominee of a broker, custodian, or corporation shall be registered with the district director for the district in which the principal office of the broker, custodian, or corporation is located. Substitution of a nominee may be effected by likewise registering the name of the successor nominee. No special form is prescribed for use in registering a nominee. Upon registration the district director shall issue a certificate of registration as provided in paragraph (c) of this section.

(c) Certificate of registration.—(1) Brokers, exchanges, etc. Upon registration of a person engaged in any of the businesses specified in paragraph (a) (1) of this section, the district director shall issue to such person a certificate of registration which shall be signed by the district director and shall set forth the date of issue, the name of the person conducting the business, and the nature of the business for which the certificate is issued. Such certificate shall be kept at the place of business located within the district of the district director by whom the certificate is issued.

(2) Nominee. Upon registration of any person as a nominee of a broker, custodian, or corporation, the district director shall issue to the broker, custodian, or corporation a certificate of registration signed by him and setting forth the date of issue, the name of the person registered as nominee, and the name of the broker, custodian, or corporation on whose behalf the nominee is registered. Such certificate shall be kept at the principal place of business of the broker, custodian, or corporation to whom the certificate is issued.

(3) Inspection. The certificate of registration issued under subparagraph (1) or subparagraph (2) of this paragraph shall be held available for ready inspection by internal revenue officers.

§ 43.6001–5 General requirements with respect to records and returns. For general provisions relating to records and returns, see the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (26 CFR Part 301 of this title).

§ 43.6802 Statutory provisions; supply and distribution.

SEC. 6802. Supply and distribution. The Secretary or his delegate shall furnish, without prepayment, to—

(1) Postmaster General. The Postmaster General a suitable quantity of adhesive stamps (other than the stamps on playing cards), coupons, tickets, or such other devices as may be prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate pursuant to section 6302 (b) or this chapter, to be distributed to, and kept on sale by, the various postmasters in the United States in all post offices of the first and second classes, and such post offices of the third and fourth classes as—

(A) Are located in county seats, or

(B) Are certified by the Secretary to the Postmaster General as necessary;

(2) Designated depositary of the United States. Any designated depositary of the United States a suitable quantity of adhesive stamps to be kept on sale by such designated depositary;

(3) State agents. Any person who is—

(A) Duly appointed and acting as agent of any State for the sale of stock transfer stamps of such State, and

(B) Designated by the Secretary or his delegate for the purpose, a suitable quantity of such adhesive stamps as are required by section 4301, to be kept on sale by such person.

§ 43.6802–1 Where stamps may be purchased and where requisition forms for the purchase of such stamps may be obtained and filed—(a) Where stamps may be purchased. Documentary stamps may be purchased from (1) district directors and other duly authorized officials; (2) postmasters in all post offices of the first and second classes and such post offices of the third and fourth class as are located in county seats; (3) designated depositaries of the United States (see section 6802 (2) (§ 43.6802 (2)); and (4) State agents designated under paragraph (3) of section 6802 (§ 43.6802).

(b) Requisitions. Requisitions for the purchase of documentary stamps shall be made on Form 427. Copies of these forms may be procured from any district director. A designated United States depositary shall make sales only upon receipt of a requisition on Form 427. For records to be kept of sales, see the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (26 CFR Part 301).

(c) Use or resale of unused documentary stamps. Unused documentary stamps may be used at any time in payment of any tax imposed by section 4301, 4311, 4321, 4331, 4361 or 4371, or may be resold by the owner at any time. For redemption of stamps see section 6805 (§ 43.6805).

§ 43.6804 Statutory provisions; attachment and cancellation.

SEC. 6804. Attachment and cancellation. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this title, the stamps referred to in section 6801 shall be attached, protected, removed, canceled, obliterated, and destroyed, in such manner and by such instruments or other means as the Secretary or his delegate may prescribe by rules or regulations.

§ 43.6804–1 Stamps to be used and denominations thereof—(a) Documentary stamps only to be used. Documentary stamps only shall be used in payment of the stamp taxes imposed by sections 4301, 4311, 4321, 4331, 4361, and 4371. Ordinary postage stamps shall not be used in payment of documentary stamp taxes.

(b) Use of stamps. Wherever feasible, a stamp tax shall be paid by the use of a single stamp. If a stamp of a denomination equal to the tax is not readily available, the smallest practical number of stamps shall be used. A stamp affixed to an instrument and canceled cannot lawfully be removed therefrom and affixed to another instrument requiring a stamp (see section 7208 (§ 43.7208), relating to penalties).

(c) Denominations of documentary stamps. Documentary stamps are issued in the following denominations: 1 cent, 2 cents, 3 cents, 4 cents, 5 cents, 8 cents, 10 cents, 20 cents, 25 cents, 40 cents, 50 cents, 55 cents, 80 cents, $1, $1.10, $1.65, $2, $2.20, $2.75, $3, $3.30, $4, $5, $10, $20, $30, $50, $60, $100, $500, $1,000, $2,500, $5,000, and $10,000.

§ 43.6804–2 Cancellation of stamps. A person using or affixing a stamp shall cancel it and so deface it as to render it unfit for reuse by marking it with his initials and the day, month, and year when the affixing occurs. (See section 7271 (1) (§ 43.7271), relating to penalties.) Such marking shall be made by writing or stamping in ink or by perforating with a machine or punch. In addition, unless a stamp of the value of 50 cents or more is canceled by perforation, three parallel incisions shall be made lengthwise through the stamp with some sharp instrument after the stamp has been affixed. However, the stamp shall not be so defaced as to prevent ready determination of its denomination and genuineness.

SEC. 6805. Redemption of stamps—(a) Authorization. The Secretary or his delegate, subject to regulations prescribed by him, may, upon receipt of satisfactory evidence of the facts, make allowance for or redeem such of the stamps, issued under authority of any internal revenue law, as may have been spoiled, destroyed, or rendered useless or unfit for the purpose intended, or as to which the owner may have no use, or which through mistake may have been improperly or unnecessarily used, or where the duties represented thereby have been excessive in amount, paid in error, or in any manner wrongfully collected.

(b) Method and conditions of allowance. Such allowance or redemption may be made either by giving other stamps in lieu of the stamps so allowed for or redeemed, or by refunding the amount or value to the owner thereof, deducting therefrom, in case of repayment, the percentage, if any, allowed to the purchaser thereof; but no allowance or redemption shall be made in any case unless the stamps so spoiled or rendered useless shall have been returned to the Secretary or his delegate, or until satisfactory proof has been made showing the reason why the stamps cannot be returned; or, if so required by the Secretary or his delegate, when the person presenting the same cannot satisfactorily trace the history of said stamps from their issuance to the presentation of his claim or aforesaid.

(c) Time for filing claims. No claim for the redemption of, or allowance for, stamps shall be allowed unless presented within 3 years after the purchase of such stamps from the Government.

(d) Finality of decisions. The findings of fact in and the decision of the Secretary or his delegate upon the merits of any claim presented under or authorized by this section shall, in the absence of fraud or mistake in mathematical calculation, be final and not subject to revision by any accounting officer.

§ 43.7208 Statutory provisions; offenses relating to stamps.

SEC. 7208. Offenses relating to stamps. Any person who—

(1) Counterfeiting. With intent to defraud, alters, forges, makes, or counterfeits any stamp, coupon, ticket, book, or other device prescribed under authority of this title for the collection or payment of any tax imposed by this title, or sells, lends, or has in his possession any such altered, forged or counterfeited stamp, coupon, ticket, book, or other device, or makes, uses, sells, or has in his possession any material in imitation of the material used in the manufacture of such stamp, coupon, ticket, book, or other device; or

(2) Mutilation or removal. Fraudulently cuts, tears, or removes from any vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, package, or article, upon which any tax is imposed by this title, any adhesive stamp or the impression of any stamp, die, plate, or other article provided, made, or used in pursuance of this title; or

(3) Use of mutilated, insufficient, or counterfeited stamps. Fraudulently uses, joins, fixes, or places to, with, or upon any vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, package, or article, upon which any tax is imposed by this title,

(A) Any adhesive stamp, or the impression of any stamp, die, plate, or other article, which has been cut, torn, or removed from any other vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, package, or article, upon which any tax is imposed by this title; or

(B) Any adhesive stamp or the impression of any stamp, die, plate, or other article of insufficient value; or

(C) Any forged or counterfeited stamp, or the impression of any forged or counterfeited stamp, die, plate, or other article; or

(4) Reuse of stamps.

(A) Preparation for reuse. Willfully removes, or alters the cancellation or defacing marks of, or otherwise prepares, any adhesive stamp, with intent to use, or cause the same to be used, after it has already been used; or

(B) Trafficking. Knowingly or willfully buys, sells, offers for sale, or gives away, any such washed or restored stamp to any person for use, or knowingly uses the same; or

(C) Possession. Knowingly and without lawful excuse (the burden of proof of such excuse being on the accused) has in possession any washed, restored, or altered stamp, which has been removed from any vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, package, or article; or

(5) Emptied stamped packages. Commits the offense described in section 7271 (relating to disposal and receipt of stamped packages) with intent to defraud the revenue, or to defraud any person; shall be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned not more than 5 years, or both.

§ 43.7209 Statutory provisions; unauthorized use or sale of stamps.

SEC. 7209. Unauthorized use or sale of stamps. Any person who buys, sells, offers for sale, uses, transfers, takes or gives in exchange, or pledges or gives in pledge, except as authorized in this title or in regulations made pursuant thereto, any stamp, coupon, ticket, book, or other device prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate under this title for the collection or payment of any tax imposed by this title, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $1,000, or imprisoned not more than 6 months, or both.

§ 43.7209–1 Use or resale of unused stamps. For provision with respect to the use or resale of unused stamps see § 43.6802–1 (c).

§ 43.7270 Statutory provisions; insurance policies.

SEC. 7270. Insurance policies. Any person who fails to comply with the requirements of section 4374 (relating to the affixing of stamps on insurance policies, etc.), with intent to evade the tax shall, in addition to other penalties provide therefor, pay a fine of double the amount of the tax.

§ 43.7271 Statutory provisions; penalties for offenses relating to stamps.

SEC. 7271. Penalties for offenses relating to stamps. Any person who with respect to any tax payable by stamps—

(1) Failure to attach or cancel stamps, etc. Fails to comply with rules or regulations prescribed pursuant to section 6804 (relating to attachment, cancellation, etc., of stamps), unless such failure is shown to be due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect; or

* * * * *

(3) Instruments. Makes, signs, issues, or accepts, or causes to be made, signed, issued, or accepted, any instrument, document, or paper of any kind or description whatsoever without the full amount of tax thereon being duly paid; or shall be liable for each such offense to a penalty of $50.

* * * * *

§ 43.7271–1 Cross references. For other provisions relating to penalties, see the applicable sections of the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (26 CFR Part 301).

§ 43.7701 Statutory provisions; definitions.

SEC. 7701. Definitions. (a) When used in this title, where not otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof—

(1) Person. The term "person" shall be construed to mean and include an individual, a trust, estate, partnership, association, company or corporation.

(2) Partnership and partner. The term "partnership" includes a syndicate, group, pool, joint venture, or other unincorporated organization, through or by means of which any business, financial operation, or venture is carried on, and which is not, within the meaning of this title, a trust or estate or a corporation; and the term "partner" includes a member in such a syndicate, group, pool, joint venture, or organization.

(3) Corporation. The term "corporation" includes associations, joint-stock companies, and insurance companies.

(4) Domestic. The term "domestic" when applied to a corporation or partnership means created or organized in the United States or under the law of the United States or of any State or Territory.

(5) Foreign. The term "foreign" when applied to a corporation or partnership means a corporation or partnership which is not domestic.

(6) Fiduciary. The term "fiduciary" means a guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, conservator, or any person acting in any fiduciary capacity for any person.

(7) Stock. The term "stock" includes shares in an association, joint-stock company, or insurance company.

* * * * *

(9) United States. The term "United States" when used in a geographical sense includes only the States, the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, and the District of Columbia.

(10) State. The term "State" shall be construed to include the Territories and the District of Columbia, where such construction is necessary to carry out provisions of this title.

(11) Secretary. The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Treasury.

(12) Delegate. The term "Secretary or his delegate" means the Secretary of the Treasury, or any officer, employee, or agency of the Treasury Department duly authorized by the Secretary (directly, or indirectly by one or more redelegations of authority) to perform the function mentioned or described in the context, and the term "or his delegate" when used in connection with any other official of the United States shall be similarly construed.

(13) Commissioner. The term "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

* * * * *

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT

[39 CFR Part 15]

MATTER MAILABLE UNDER SPECIAL RULES

SWITCHBLADE KNIVES

As a result of the enactment of section 5 of Public Law 85–623, approved August 12, 1958 (72 Stat. 562), this Department proposes to issue regulations, effective October 11, 1958, to govern the mailing of knives covered by such section 5 of that Act. Accordingly, it is proposed to amend Part 15 of Title 39, Chapter I, Code of Federal Regulations, substantially as set forth below.

The proposed regulations relate to a proprietary function of the Government and hence are exempt from the rule-making requirements of 5 U. S. C. 1003. However, the Postmaster General desires voluntarily to give postal patrons an opportunity to present written views concerning the proposed regulations. Accordingly, the final regulations to be adopted will be considered in the light of such views that may be received.

Comments may be submitted to Richard S. Farr, Acting Assistant General Counsel, Room 5226, Post Office Department, Washington 25, D. C., at any time prior to October 3, 1958.

In Part 15 of Title 39, Chapter I, Code of Federal Regulations, make the following changes:

The text to Part 15 is amended by redesignating § 15.7 Airmail as § 15.8 Airmail; by redesignating § 15.6 Identification and marking as § 15.7 Identification and marking; and by inserting a new § 15.6 Switchblade knives to read as follows:

§ 15.6 Switchblade knives—(a) When mailable. Knives having a blade which opens automatically by hand pressure applied to a button or other device in the handle, or by operation of inertia, gravity, or both, are mailable only when sent to:

(1) The following designated supply or procurement officers and employees ordering, procuring, or purchasing such knives for use in connection with the activities of their respective governments or organizations:

(i) Civilian or Armed Forces supply or procurement officers and employees of the Federal Government;

(ii) Supply or procurement officers of the National Guard, the Air National Guard, or militia of a State, Territory, or the District of Columbia;

(iii) Supply or procurement officers or employees of the municipal government of the District of Columbia or of the government of any State or Territory, or any county, city, or other political subdivision of a State or Territory; and

(2) Manufacturers of such knives, or bona fide dealers therein, in connection with a shipment made pursuant to an order from any person designated in subdivision (i), (ii), or (iii) of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(b) Marking of parcels. The parcel must be plainly marked with the word "Switchblades" in bold block letters and the statement, "Mailing complies with P. M. 125.6." Mailings to persons referred to in paragraph (a) (1) of this section shall include as part of the address the official title or designation of the addressee. Mailings to those referred to in paragraph (a) (2) of this section shall include as a part of the address the word "Manufacturer" or "Dealer."

(c) Identification of addressee. Before making delivery, the postmaster shall satisfy himself that the addressee is in one of the categories of paragraph (a) of this section.

(d) Explanation of mailing. In any case where the postmaster is in doubt as to the mailability of a proposed shipment of switchblade knives, he may require the sender to furnish a written statement explaining how the mailing complies with this section. If the explanation is not satisfactory to the postmaster, he shall forward it to the General Counsel, Fraud and Mailability Division, for a ruling.

NOTE: The corresponding Postal Manual sections are 125.6, 125.7, and 125.8.

(R. S. 161, as amended, 396, as amended, sec. 1, 62 Stat. 781, as amended; 5 U. S. C. 22, 369, 18 U. S. C. 1716)

[Docket No. AO-245-A3]

NAVEL ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

DETERMINATIONS ON BASIS OF RESULTS OF REFERENDUM ON AMENDMENT OF ORDER NO. 14, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900; 23 F. R. 4027; 4779), a public hearing was held at Los Angeles, California, on October 25, 1957, after notice thereof published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (22 F. R. 7563) on proposed amendment of the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 14, as amended (7 CFR Part 914), regulating the handling of Navel oranges grown in Arizona and that part of the State of California south of the 37th Parallel. The recommended decision (23 F. R. 1952) of the Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, and the decision (23 F. R. 4336) of the Assistant Secretary setting forth the proposed amendment of the marketing agreement and order, as amended, were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on March 25, 1958, and June 14, 1958, respectively. The Assistant Secretary also issued an order (23 F. R. 4337) directing that a referendum be conducted among producers of Navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California to determine whether the requisite majority of such producers favor or approve issuance of the proposed amendment to Order No. 14, as amended.

It is hereby determined on the basis of the results of the referendum conducted pursuant to the aforesaid referendum order, that the issuance of the proposed amendment to Order No. 14, as amended, regulating the handling of Navel oranges in Arizona and designated part of California is not favored or approved (a) by at least three-fourths of the producers of Navel oranges who participated in such referendum and who, during the determined representative period (November 1, 1957, through June 30, 1958) were engaged within Arizona and designated part of California in the production for market of Navel oranges grown in such production area, or (b) by producers of Navel oranges who participated in the aforesaid referendum and who, during the aforesaid representative period, produced for market at least two-thirds of the volume of Navel oranges produced for market within the said production area during such period.

It is hereby further determined that the proposed amendment set forth in the Assistant Secretary's decision of June 11, 1958 (23 F. R. 4336), will not be made effective.

Done at Washington, D. C., this [illegible] day of September 1958.

FREIGHT AND PASSENGER TARIFFS AND SCHEDULES

OFFICE HOURS FOR FILING

At a Session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 2, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 26th day of August A. D. 1958.

It appearing that under date of February 6, 1956 (21 F. R. 1075), notice was given of proposed revisions of the Commission's tariff circular rules and regulations and sections of the Code of Federal Regulations set forth therein (49 CFR Parts 141, 145, 147, 186, 187, 311, and 312); that interested parties were permitted to file with the Commission, on or before April 6, 1956, written statements of fact, opinions or arguments concerning the proposed rules; and that written statements were filed with the Commission presenting the views and arguments of the railroads, generally, the freight forwarders, members of the Freight Forwarders Institute, and the water carriers, members of the Intercoastal Steamship Freight Association;

It further appearing that the establishment of regulations that tariff publications will be received for filing only during business hours of the Commission would result in great difficulties and inconveniences, without compensating public benefits;

And it further appearing that the revisions proposed would not be in the public interest at this time, and for good cause appearing:

It is ordered, That this proceeding be, and it is hereby, discontinued.

By the Commission, Division 2.

NOTICES

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Bureau of Public Debt

ORDER OF SUCCESSION OF OFFICIALS TO ACT AS COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC DEBT, AND PROVISIONS FOR CONTINUOUS PERFORMANCE OF FUNCTIONS OF BUREAU OF PUBLIC DEBT IN EVENT OF AN ENEMY ATTACK ON CONTINENTAL UNITED STATES

1. It is hereby ordered that the following officers of the Bureau of the Public Debt, in the order of succession enumerated, shall act as Commissioner in the event of the absence or disability of the Commissioner or a vacancy in the office:

1. Assistant Commissioner.
2. Deputy Commissioner, Washington.
3. Deputy Commissioner, Chicago.
4. Director, Parkersburg Office.
5. Chief, Division of Loans and Currency, Washington.
6. Chief, Division of Retired Securities.
7. Chief, Division of Public Debt Accounts and Audit, Washington.
8. Assistant Deputy Commissioner, Chicago.
9. Chief Counsel of the Bureau.
10. General Assistant to the Commissioner.
11. Technical Assistant to the Commissioner.
12. Manager, Cincinnati Branch Audit Office, Division of Retired Securities.

2. If, in the event of an enemy attack on the continental United States, neither the Commissioner nor any officer authorized to act in his stead (paragraph 1) is present at the site of the Bureau's operations, the officer acting as District Director, Internal Revenue Service, at such site shall act as Commissioner of the Public Debt so long as necessary hereunder. For this purpose and in such event the functions of the Commissioner of the Public Debt shall be deemed to have been transferred to such officer acting as District Director.

3. In the event of an enemy attack on the continental United States, and without regard to the matter of succession, the Deputy Commissioners, the Director of the Parkersburg Office, and the Manager of the Branch Audit Office of the Division of Retired Securities are hereby authorized to perform any functions of the Secretary of the Treasury or Commissioner of the Public Debt (whether or not otherwise delegated), (a) if it is essential to the carrying out of responsibilities otherwise assigned to them, and (b) if, and so long as, they are unable to ascertain (in a manner consistent with the efficient performance of such responsibilities) whether the Commissioner or any official acting in his stead is available to discharge the Commissioner's duties with respect to the performance of those functions.

4. The foregoing order of succession and provisions for the continuous performance of functions are made under the authority of Treasury Department Order No. 129, Revision No. 2, dated April 22, 1955, F. R. Doc. 55-3479; FEDERAL REGISTER April 28, 1955. This order of succession supersedes the previous order of this Bureau dated May 25, 1955, F. R. Doc. 55-4450; FEDERAL REGISTER June 3, 1955.

ARKANSAS

RESTORATION ORDER

SEPTEMBER 9, 1958.

Pursuant to determination DA-49-Arkansas, of the Federal Power Commission, and in accordance with Order No. 541, Section 1.5 (d) Part I and 2.0 (a) Part II of the Director of the Bureau of Land Management, approved April 21, 1954, it is ordered as follows:

Subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals, the lands hereinafter described, so far as they are withdrawn and included in Power Site Classification No. 33, Arkansas No. 2, approved April 29, 1922, or are reserved for power purposes in Power Site Reserve Project No. 654, of June 6, 1930, are hereby restored to disposition under the public land laws, subject to the provisions of section 24 of the Federal Power Act of June 10, 1920 (41 Stat. 1075; 16 USC 818), as amended.

FIFTH PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN

T. 20 N., R. 12 W.,
Sec. 8, NE¼NE¼, N½SE¼NE¼;
Sec. 9, N½NW¼.

The area described embraces 140 acres of public land, located in Baxter County, Arkansas.

The above-described land is rocky and rolling cedar hardwood timber land on an exposed site. The land is not suitable for cultivation because of the thin rocky soil with exposed outcrops, neither is it suitable for small tract development because of its rocky, rolling nature and the limited access. The land has been classified as unsuitable for homestead or small tract development, but suitable for disposition under the provisions of the Public Sale Act authorized by section 2455 of the Revised Statutes, as amended.

The lands above-described will be subject to application by the State of Arkansas for a period of 90 days from the date of publication of this order, for rights-of-way for public highways, or as a source of maintenance for construction and maintenance of such highways, in accordance with and subject to the provisions of section 24 of the Federal Power Act, as amended (16 U. S. C. 1946 ed., Supp. IV, 818).

Subject to any existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, the land described is hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws may be presented to the Manager, mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraph:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the application and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws, other than those coming under paragraph 1 above, presented prior to 10:00 a. m., on March 9, 1959 will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

b. The lands will be open to location under the United States mining laws, according to the provisions of the act of August 11, 1955 (69 Stat. 683).

Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their applications, setting forth all facts relevant to their claims. Detailed rules and regulations covering applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries regarding the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Eastern States Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Washington 25, D. C.

L. T. HOFFMAN, Supervisor.

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY CONCERNING ASSIGNMENT, TRANSFER AND DISPOSAL OF REAL PROPERTY AND RELATED PERSONAL PROPERTY

SECTION 1. Definitions; Scope of authority. (a) The definitions of words or terms in the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, as amended (40 U. S. C. sec. 471 et seq.), and the regulations of the General Services Administration are applicable to any such words or terms in this order.

(b) The authority delegated by this order does not extend to Indian tribal lands; the public domain; national park lands; and lands withdrawn or reserved from the public domain, except to the extent that such lands are provided for in the word "property" as defined in the Act.

SEC. 2. Delegation of authority. The head of each bureau with respect to real property and related personal property under the control and jurisdiction of his bureau may exercise the authority of the Secretary:

(a) Granted in Chapter IV, Title 2, Regulations of the General Services Administration with regard to the reporting and transfer of such excess property;

(b) Granted in Chapter V, Title 2, Regulations of the General Services Administration with regard to the disposal of such surplus property;

(c) Granted in Delegation of Authority 287 (22 F. R. 2266) by the Administrator of General Services, with regard to determinations and disposal of such surplus property having a fair market value of less than $1,000;

(d) To reassign such property to other bureaus or offices of this Department when the property is no longer needed by the holding bureau; and

(e) To transfer or dispose of such specified real property and related personal property as may be hereafter granted by the Administrator of General Services.

SEC. 3. Exercise of authority. The authority granted by section 2 of this order shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, as amended (40 U. S. C., sec. 471 et seq.), the regulations of the General Services Administration, and the regulations of this Department.

SEC. 4. Redelegation. The head of each bureau may, in writing, redelegate or authorize written redelegation of the authority granted in section 2 of this order. Each such redelegation shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

SEC. 5. Revocation. Order No. 2696, as amended (17 F. R. 433, 19 F. R. 5953) is revoked.

SEC. 6. Savings clause. This order shall be effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Any redelegation of authority under Order 2696, as amended, not in excess of the authority granted by this order and which is in force on the effective date of this order shall continue in force for ninety days from such effective date unless sooner revoked or superseded by order of the head of the bureau.

PANHANDLE EASTERN PIPE LINE CO. AND CITIES SERVICE GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION, CONSOLIDATION OF PROCEEDINGS AND DATE OF HEARING

SEPTEMBER 9, 1958.

In the matter of Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company, Docket Nos. G-16187 and G-2374; Cities Service Gas Company, Docket No. G-10956.

Take notice that Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation, having its principal office at 1221 Baltimore Avenue, Kansas City, Missouri, filed on September 4, 1958 an application, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and operation of certain natural gas facilities, as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Applicant proposes to construct and operate 6.5 miles of 4-inch welded steel pipeline from the Windsor connection with Cities Service Gas Company's Sedalia lateral, which connection is located in the Southeast Quarter of Section 35, T46N, R24W, Johnson County, Missouri, to a point adjacent to Panhandle's main lines located in the Northeast Quarter of Section 35, T47N, R24W, in said Johnson County, Missouri.

Applicant also proposes to construct a regulator station in the Northeast Quarter of Section 35, T47N, R24W, Johnson County, Missouri.

Applicant states that under the terms of a certain exchange agreement between it and Cities Service Gas Company dated February 18, 1947 as amended by letter agreement between said parties dated November 21, 1949 provision is made for delivery of gas by Cities Service from its Sedalia 12-inch line into Panhandle's Windsor Lateral at a point of connection between these lines known as the Windsor connection and located in the Southeast Quarter of Section 35-46-24, Johnson County, Missouri. There is pending before the Commission an application in Docket No. G-2374 for an order permitting and approving abandonment of service by Applicant rendered to Cities Service by way of said exchange agreement.

Applicant further states that the volumes of gas received by Applicant from Cities Service at the Windsor connection are transported by Applicant through its Windsor Lateral to a point near Windsor where the gas is sold by Applicant to The Gas Service Company (Gas Service), pursuant to an order of the Commission issued March 5, 1952 in Docket No. G-1116, et al.

The purpose of the application in Docket No. G-16187 is to enable Applicant to obtain from its own main lines a supply of gas to replace that heretofore obtained under said gas exchange agreement from Cities Service for sale to Gas Service in Windsor, Missouri.

The estimated cost of the proposed construction is $116,700, which Applicant proposes to finance from funds on hand.

This matter is one which is related to the issues involved in Dockets Nos. G-10956 and 2374 now set for hearing on September 30, 1958 and is hereby consolidated for hearing with said dockets.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be heard on September 30, 1958, at 10:00 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street, NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issue presented by such application.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 of 1.10) on or before September 25, 1958.

[FHA Instruction 443.1]

PART 331—POLICIES AND AUTHORITIES

LOAN INSURANCE CHARGES

Section 331.9 (d) in Title 6, Code of Federal Regulations (21 F. R. 10446), is hereby amended in regard to loan insurance charges on loans involving the deferment of the initial installment on the note, and to read as follows:

§ 331.9 Sources of funds and terms of loans. * * *

(d) Loan insurance charge. Each insured loan borrower will pay a loan insurance charge in addition to principal and interest payments on his Farm Ownership loan.

(1) Initial loan insurance charge. Each insured loan borrower will pay on the date of loan closing an initial loan insurance charge, computed at the rate of one percent of the principal obligation on the note, covering the period from the date of loan closing to the first January 1 thereafter.

(2) Annual loan insurance charge. Each insured loan borrower will pay an annual loan insurance charge of one percent of the actual principal obligation remaining unpaid which will include the balance on the note and any unpaid advances made from the insurance fund on behalf of the borrower. Each annual loan insurance charge will be computed on the basis of the principal obligation remaining unpaid as of the date on which each installment on the note is due, and will be paid on or before the date the next succeeding installment is due. (In addition, for notes with deferred payments, the annual loan insurance charge will be established as of each January 1 during the period of deferment of the note installments and will be paid on or before the next succeeding January 1.) Annual loan insurance charges will continue until the loan is paid in full or the mortgaged property is acquired by the Government or until the contract of insurance is otherwise terminated.

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T. D. 54682]

PART 1—CUSTOMS DISTRICTS, PORTS, AND STATIONS

PORT OF ENTRY AND PORT OF DOCUMENTATION; MORGAN CITY, LA.

SEPTEMBER 9, 1958.

By virtue of the authority vested in the President by section 1 of the Act of August 1, 1914, 38 Stat. 623 (19 U. S. C. 2), which was delegated to the Secretary of the Treasury by the President by Executive Order No. 10289, September 17, 1951 (3 CFR 1951 Supp., Ch. II), Morgan City, Louisiana, is hereby designated as a Customs port of entry in Customs Collection District No. 20 (New Orleans) effective 30 days after publication of this Treasury decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The customs port of entry at Morgan City, Louisiana, which is hereby also designated a port of documentation, shall include the territory bounded as follows:

Starting at a point where Deer Island Bayou enters the Lower Atchafalaya River, thence northerly along the St. Mary and Terrebonne Parishes boundary lines to the point of intersection of the boundary lines of the parishes of Terrebonne, St. Mary and Assumption, thence along the east side of the boundary line of St. Mary Parish and Assumption Parish to the intersection of the boundary lines of St. Mary, Assumption, and St. Martin Parishes, thence westerly along the boundary line of the Parishes of St. Mary and St. Martin to the west boundary line of Ward 4, St. Mary Parish, thence southerly on the west bank of the Wax Lake Outlet, Wax Lake and Wax Lake Pass and thence in a southeasterly direction along the meandering shore line of Atchafalaya Bay to the point of beginning.

The customs station and port of documentation at Morgan City, Louisiana, which is within the territory described above, shall become part of the port of entry at Morgan City, Louisiana.

Section 1.1 (c), Customs regulations, is amended as follows:

The first sentence of footnote 4 is amended by inserting "and" immediately preceding the words "at Biloxi, Miss."; by changing the semicolon immediately following the words "(No. 19)" to a period; and by deleting the remainder of the sentence.

The tabulation of customs districts and ports of entry is amended by adding "Morgan City, La. (including territory described in T. D. 54682)." in the appropriate place in the column headed "Ports of entry" in District No. 20 (New Orleans).

Section 1.2 (d), Customs regulations, is amended by deleting "Morgan City, La." in the column headed "Customs Stations" and on the same line "New Orleans" in the column headed "Ports of Entry having supervision."

Notice of the proposed designation of Morgan City, La., as a customs port of entry was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of July 8, 1958 (23 F. R. 5170), pursuant to the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003). No objections to this action were received. (MC 192–20.1)

PART 1—CUSTOMS DISTRICTS, PORTS, AND STATIONS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

SEPTEMBER 9, 1958.

By virtue of the authority vested in the President by section 1 of the act of August 1, 1914, 38 Stat. 623 (19 U. S. C. 2), which was delegated to the Secretary of the Treasury by the President by Executive Order No. 10289, September 17, 1951 (3 CFR, 1951 Supp., Ch. II), the designation of Holeb-Jackman, Maine, as a customs port of entry in Customs Collection District No. 1 (Maine and New Hampshire), is hereby revoked and a new customs port of entry to be known as Jackman, Maine, is hereby designated in said District, which port shall include the townships of Jackman, Sandy Bay, Bald Mountain, Holeb, Attean, Lowelltown, Dennistown, and Moose River, all in the State of Maine.

Section 1.1 (c) of the Customs regulations is amended by deleting "Holeb-Jackman, Maine (E. O. 3609, Jan. 9, 1922) (E. O. 4550, Dec. 8, 1926)." and adding "Jackman, Maine (including the townships of Jackman, Sandy Bay, Bald Mountain, Holeb, Attean, Lowelltown, Dennistown, and Moose River) (T. D. 54683)." in the column headed "Ports of entry" in District No. 1 (Maine and New Hampshire).

Section 1.2 (d) of the Customs regulations is amended by substituting the name "Jackman" for "Holeb-Jackman" in the column headed "Port of Entry having supervision" opposite the listing "Coburn Gore, Maine" in the column headed "Customs Station" in District No. 1.

Customs officers are no longer stationed in St. Andrews, New Brunswick, Canada. Accordingly, the listing of customs offices in § 1.3 of the Customs regulations is amended to read as follows:

Customs office	Customs district having supervision	Comptroller having supervision
St. John, New Brunswick (winter).	Maine and New Hampshire.	Boston, Mass.
Montreal, Quebec	Vermont	Boston, Mass.
Toronto, Ontario	Buffalo	New York, N. Y.
Vancouver, British Columbia.	Washington	San Francisco, Calif.
Prince Rupert, British Columbia.	Alaska	San Francisco, Calif.

Notice of the proposed revocation of Holeb-Jackman, and designation of Jackman as a customs port of entry was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of July 3, 1958 (23 F. R. 5093), pursuant to the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003). No objections to this action were received. Inasmuch as railroad operations have already been transferred from Holeb, Maine, to Jackman Station, Maine, it is considered in the best interest of the public that this action be put in effect as soon as possible. For this reason it is found that compliance with the effective date limitations of section 4 (c) of that Act serves no good purpose. This Treasury decision shall, therefore, be effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. (MC 192–1.1)

TITLE 25—INDIANS

Chapter I—Bureau of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior

Subchapter Q—Oil and Gas

PART 183—LEASING OF OSAGE RESERVATION LANDS FOR OIL AND GAS MINING

PAYMENT OF ANNUAL RENTAL ON OIL AND GAS LEASES AND LOCATION OF LOCAL REPRESENTATIVES OF LESSEES AND ASSIGNEES

On pages 5093 and 5094 of the FEDERAL REGISTER of July 3, 1958, there was published a notice of intention to amend §§ 183.4, 183.16, 183.42, and 183.43 of 25 CFR. The purpose of the amendments is to require that the annual rental in lieu of drilling on oil and gas leases on the Osage Indian Reservation shall be paid annually in advance, and to permit the appointment of a local representative of a lessee or assignee of an Osage oil and gas lease to be located any place within the State of Oklahoma, instead of only within the City of Pawhuska.

Interested persons were given an opportunity to submit their views, data, and arguments concerning the proposed amendment to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs within 30 days of the date of publication of the notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. No objections were received.

The proposed amendments to §§ 183.4, 183.16, 183.42, and 183.43 are hereby adopted as set forth below. These amendments are effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

ROGER ERNST,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

SEPTEMBER 9, 1958.

1. The present text of § 183.4 is amended to provide that rental in lieu of drilling shall be paid annually in advance and to read as follows:

§ 183.4 Drilling obligations. (a) Lessee shall drill at least one well to the Mississippi Lime, unless oil or gas is found in paying quantities at a lesser depth, on the land covered by his lease, within 12 months from the date of approval of the lease, or the lease may be held for the full five-year primary term without drilling, upon payment to the Superintendent for the lessor of rental at the rate of one dollar per acre per annum, payable annually in advance, beginning one year after the date of approval of the lease. This lease shall terminate as to both parties unless such advance rental shall be received at the Osage Agency or shall have been mailed as indicated by postmark, on or before the due date: Provided, That the time within which a well shall be drilled shall not begin to run on any restricted homestead selection until the consent of the Superintendent to drilling on such homestead shall have been given, nor shall advance rental become due until the next anniversary date of the lease following the date of such consent: Provided further, That the Superintendent in his discretion may direct the drilling of any undrilled lease, if in his opinion the interests of the Osage Tribe warrant: Provided further, That whenever the Commissioner of Indian Affairs shall consider the marketing facilities inadequate to take care of the production he may direct the suspension of drilling operations on this lease. The completion of a well to the Mississippi Lime, or production of oil or gas in paying quantities from a lesser depth than the Mississippi Lime, for such time as such production shall continue, after the lease has entered a rental status, shall relieve the lessee from any further payment of rentals for the balance of the primary term of the lease for which rental has not been paid. Should such production cease, rental shall commence on the next anniversary date of the lease. Rental shall be paid on the basis of a full year, and no refund will be made of advance rental paid in compliance with the regulations in this part.

(b) Prior to the expiration of a term of a lease, the Osage Tribal Council may, with the approval of the Superintendent, and a finding by him that such action is in the best interest of the Osage Tribe, grant an extension of the term of the lease for a period of not to exceed six months for the purpose of enabling the lessee to drill a well to the Mississippi Lime unless oil or gas is found in paying quantities at a lesser depth.

2. The present text of § 183.16 is amended to conform to the provisions of § 183.4 and to provide that no refund of annual rental will be made if a lease is cancelled during the year, and to read as follows:

§ 183.16 Surrender of lease. The oil lessee may at any time, by paying to the Superintendent the sum of one dollar, surrender all or any quarter-section or fractional part of quarter-section where the lease does not cover the full quarter-section, and have the lease cancelled as to the lands, surrendered; and be relieved from all further obligations and liabilities thereunder, as to the part surrendered: Provided, That if this lease has been recorded, the lessee shall execute a release and record the same in the proper office. Such surrender shall not entitle the lessee to a refund of the unused portion of rental paid in lieu of development, nor shall it relieve the lessee and his sureties of any obligation incurred prior to such surrender.

3. Section 183.42 is deleted for the reason that its provisions are included in § 183.4, as amended.

4. The present text of § 183.43 is amended to permit a local representative of a lessee or assignee to be located any place within the State of Oklahoma instead of the City of Pawhuska, and to read as follows:

§ 183.43 Lessee's process agents. (a) Before actual drilling or development operations are commenced on leased lands, the lessee or assignee shall appoint a local or resident representative within the State of Oklahoma, on whom the Superintendent or other authorized representative of the Department may serve notice, or otherwise communicate with in securing compliance with the regulations in this part, and shall notify the Superintendent of the name and post office address of the representative so appointed.

(b) Where several parties own a lease jointly, only one representative or agent need be designated, whose duties shall be to act for all parties concerned. Designation of such representative should be made by the party in charge of operations.

(c) In the event of the incapacity or absence from the State of such designated local or resident representative, the lessee shall appoint some person to serve in his stead, and in the absence of such representative or of notice of the appointment of a substitute any employee of the lessee upon the leased premises, or the contractor or other person in charge of drilling or related operations thereon, shall be considered the representative of the lessee for the purpose of service of orders or notices as herein provided and service upon any such employee, contractor, or other person shall be deemed service upon the lessee.

(Sec. 3, 34 Stat. 543)

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Fish and Wildlife Service

[50 CFR Part 32]

TISHOMINGO NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, OKLAHOMA

HUNTING

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the authority contained in section 10 of the Migratory Bird Conservation Act of February 18, 1929 (45 Stat. 1224; 16 U. S. C. 715i), and under authority delegated by Commissioner's Order 4 (22 F. R. 8126), it is proposed to add § 32.169 to Subpart—Tishomingo National Wildlife Refuge, Oklahoma, Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, to read as set forth in tentative form below. The purpose of this amendment is to provide for the hunting of migratory game birds and resident game birds and mammals on certain lands of the Tishomingo National Wildlife Refuge under certain limitations and subject to compliance with the laws and regulations of the State of Oklahoma.

Interested persons may submit in duplicate written comments, suggestions, or objections with respect to the proposed amendment to the Director, Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, Washington 25, D. C., within thirty days of the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated: September 10, 1958.

D. H. JANZEN,
Director,
Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife.

§ 32.169 Hunting permitted. Subject to compliance with the provisions of Parts 6, 18, and 21 of this chapter, the hunting of migratory game birds and resident game birds and mammals is permitted on the hereinafter described lands of the Tishomingo National Wildlife Refuge, Oklahoma, subject to the following conditions, restrictions, and requirements:

(a) Hunting area. The following described area is open to hunting:

All of the lands of the Tishomingo National Wildlife Refuge lying west of old State Highway No. 99.

(b) State laws. Strict compliance with all State laws and regulations is required.

(c) Hunting dogs. Hunting dogs, not to exceed two per hunter, may be used for the purpose of hunting and retrieving, but such dogs shall not be permitted to run at large on the refuge.

(d) Use of boats. Subject to the provisions of Part 6 of this chapter, the use of boats for the purpose of hunting is permitted: Provided, That the use of airthrust or scull boats is prohibited.

(e) Checking stations. Hunters, upon entering or leaving the hunting area, shall report at such checking stations as may be established for regulating the hunting.

(f) State cooperation. State cooperation may be enlisted in the regulation, management, and operation of the public hunting area, and the State may promulgate such special regulations as may be necessary for such regulation, management, and operation. In the event such State regulations are promulgated, compliance therewith shall be a requisite to lawful entry for the purpose of hunting.

SUBPART—MISSISQUOI NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, VERMONT

HUNTING

§ 35.51 Hunting of migratory game birds permitted. Subject to compliance with the provisions of Parts 6, 18, and 21 of this chapter, the hunting of migratory game birds is permitted on the hereinafter described lands of the Missisquoi National Wildlife Refuge, Vermont, subject to the following conditions, restrictions, and requirements:

(a) Hunting area. The following described area is open to hunting:

A peripheral strip of land varying in width from approximately 50 yards to 200 yards bordering on Gander Bay, Goose Bay, and Missisquoi Bay of Lake Champlain and between the low water mark thereof and the timber line extending from the northwest boundary of Shad Island east and south to the southeast corner of Goose Bay, except the part of the marsh bordering Goose Bay west of the line of the dike now under construction.

(b) State laws. Strict compliance with all State laws and regulations is required.

(c) Dogs. Hunting dogs, not to exceed two per hunter, may be used for the purpose of retrieving dead or wounded birds, but such dogs shall not be permitted to run at large on the public shooting grounds or elsewhere on the refuge.

(d) Use of boats permitted. The use of boats without motors is permitted.

§ 35.52 Hunting of deer permitted. Subject to the provisions of Parts 18 and 21 of this chapter, the hunting of deer is permitted on the hereinafter described lands of the Missisquoi National Wildlife Refuge, Vermont, during the period November 17 to December 23, 1958, inclusive, subject to the following conditions, restrictions, and requirements:

(a) Hunting area. The hunting of deer is permitted on all of the lands of the refuge, except Big Marsh Slough lying east of a line between the westernmost point of Goose Bay and the northwest boundary of the Julian Clark Tract, and except on posted areas in the immediate vicinity of the headquarters and work center sites of the refuge.

(b) State laws. Strict compliance with all State laws and regulations is required.

(c) Dogs. The use of dogs for the purpose of hunting is prohibited.

(d) Checking stations. Hunters, upon entering or leaving the hunting area, shall report at such checking stations as may be established for regulating the hunt.

MILK IN PUGET SOUND, WASH., MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO ORDER

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held in the Federal Court House Building, Seattle, Washington, beginning at 9:30 a. m., local time, on October 1, 1958, with respect to proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, regulating the handling of milk in the Puget Sound, Washington, marketing area.

The public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to the economic and marketing conditions which relate to the proposed amendments, hereinafter set forth, and any appropriate modifications thereof, to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order.

The proposals relative to a redefinition of the marketing area raise the issue whether the provisions of the present order would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act, if they are applied to the marketing area as proposed to be redefined and, if not, what modifications of the provisions of the order would be appropriate.

The proposed amendments, set forth below, have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Proposed by the United Dairymen's Association:

Proposal No. 1. Revise provisions relating to producer-handlers so as (i) preferably to regulate their handling operations in the same manner as other handlers and to treat their producing operations in the same manner as other producers, or (ii) to do so at least with respect to those producer-handlers whose operations are larger than a family sized operation with production and processing conducted on a farm with direct sales to consumers, without intervention of wholesalers, retailers and/or jobbers.

Proposal No. 2. Revise provisions relating to location adjustments to both handlers and producers to provide the following adjustment rates:

	Per hundredweight
District 2 and Kittitas County	$0.25
District 3	.20
District 4	.15

Other areas, unchanged.

Proposal No. 3. Delete § 925.13 (a) and (b), to provide that diverted milk be priced on the basis of the location of the plant of actual physical receipt.

Proposal No. 4. Amend § 925.60 (b) to adjust the new producer schedule of base percentages to conform to the changed seasonal pattern of production in the market.

Proposal No. 5. Amend the definition of "country plant" at the first proviso (§ 925.9) to include milk received from other pool plants with milk received from dairy farmers in arriving at the total to which shipping percentages shall apply.

Proposal No. 6. Revise § 925.7 to define reload stations as "plants" for pricing purposes where no processing is done.

Proposal No. 7. Revise § 925.61 (a) by renumbering subparagraph (3) to subparagraph (4) and inserting a new subparagraph (3) to provide for no restriction on transfers of base within the immediate family and, in case of death, between members of the immediate family, the estate, and one outside party.

Proposal No. 8. Revise the method of computing producer prices and producer payrolls by using a uniform bonus for base milk and a uniform price with a singly weighted average butterfat differential for producer milk instead of using base and excess prices with a butterfat differential for each.

Proposed by the Carnation Company:

Proposal No. 9. Revise the transfer and diversion provisions to permit the transfer or diversion of milk at the Class II price from a fluid milk plant or country plant to a nonpool plant regulated by another Federal milk order.

Proposal No. 10. Amend § 925.6 to include Kitsap County within the Puget Sound, Washington, marketing area.

Proposed by Arden Farms Co.:

Proposal No. 11. Amend § 925.6 to include in District No. 1 of the Puget Sound, Washington, marketing area all the territory lying within the counties of Kitsap and Mason.

Proposal No. 12. Amend § 925.41 (b) (2) to include cocoa mixes, thereby classifying this product as Class II milk rather than Class I milk as it is now classified.

Proposed by Foremost Dairies, Inc.:

Proposal No. 13. Amend § 925.41 (a) (1) as follows:

In subparagraph (1): Delete the words "not sterilized" after flavored milk and flavored milk drinks.

In subparagraph (1) (ii): Delete present wording and substitute: "(ii) all milk and milk products sterilized and packaged in hermetically sealed containers; and"

Amend § 925.41 (b) as follows by adding the following:

(6) Disposed of as milk or milk products sterilized and packaged in hermetically sealed containers.

Proposed by Medosweet Dairies:

Proposal No. 14. Amend § 925.41 (b) so as to enable any handler, with the prior approval or in the presence of the market administrator or his authorized representative, to dispose of or dump any skim and/or butterfat unsuitable for human consumption and not otherwise able to be used for Class II utilization, whether degraded or not degraded by any local health authority, such disposition or dumpage to be defined as a Class II utilization not subject to the 25 cent location adjustment imposed by § 925.54.

Proposed by Producer Dairymen's Association of Grays Harbor:

Proposal No. 15. Amend § 925.41 to provide for three classes of milk instead of two classes, as follows:

1. Class I milk to be as previously defined.

2. Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat used to produce cottage cheese, ice cream and all other perishable dairy products that cannot be shipped long distances.

3. Class III milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat used to produce butter, hard cheeses, powdered milk and for purposes other than human consumption.

Proposal No. 16. Amend the base milk provisions so that the determination of the base building period shall be any nine months during the year in place of five months as presently provided.

Proposed by the Dairy Division, Agricultural Marketing Service:

Proposal No. 17. Amend § 925.45 (a) by revising the phrase "any other product condensed from skim milk" to read "any other product condensed from milk or skim milk".

Proposal No. 18. Amend § 925.45 (a) (1) to read as follows: "(1) to fortify (or as an additive to) fluid milk, flavored milk, skim milk or any other Class I milk product, or"

Proposal No. 19. Amend § 925.50 (a) to include the following list of plants in lieu of those set forth therein:

Present Operator and Location
Borden Co., Mt. Pleasant, Mich.
Borden Co., New London, Wis.
Borden Co., Orfordville, Wis.
Carnation Co., Oconomowoc, Wis.
Carnation Co., Richland Center, Wis.
Carnation Co., Sparta, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Coopersville, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Belleville, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., New Glarus, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., Wayland, Mich.
White House Milk Co., Manitowoc, Wis.
White House Milk Co., West Bend, Wis.

Proposal No. 20. Amend § 925.54 (a) (2) by deleting the phrase "located in District No. 1 or in the counties of Kitsap and Mason".

Proposal No. 21. Give consideration to the redrafting and reissuance of the entire order with its several amendments previously issued and any amendments resulting from the current hearings particularly if the marketing area should be expanded as the result of this hearing.

Proposal No. 22. Make such changes as may be necessary to make the entire marketing agreement and the order conform with any amendments thereto that may result from this hearing.

Proposed by Watson Dairy Farms:

Proposal No. 23. Give consideration to revocation of the entire order.

Copies of this notice of hearing and the order may be procured from the Market Administrator, 200 Bigelow Building, 4th and Pike Streets, Seattle 1, Washington, or from the Hearing Clerk, Room 112, Administration Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 11th day of September 1958.

[Docket Nos. AO-226-A5, AO-275-A4]

MILK IN INLAND EMPIRE AND PUGET SOUND, WASH., MARKETING AREAS

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENTS AND TO ORDERS

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.) and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of a joint public hearing to be held in the Federal Court House Building, Seattle, Washington, beginning at 10:00 a. m., local time, on September 30, 1958, with respect to proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreements and orders regulating the handling of milk in the Puget Sound, Washington, and Inland Empire marketing areas.

The public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to economic and emergency conditions which relate to the proposed amendments, hereinafter set forth, and any appropriate modifications thereof, to the tentative marketing agreements and orders.

The proposed amendments set forth below have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

The following amendments to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Inland Empire marketing area are proposed by the Inland Empire Dairy Association and the Spokane Milk Producers Association:

Proposal No. 1. (a) Amend those provisions of Federal Order No. 108, as amended, as are necessary to provide that all nonpool plants be placed on a comparable basis, particularly by deleting all references to and exemptions given to "Other Order Milk"; and

(b) Broaden the credits to handlers now set forth in § 1008.70 (a) (7) to apply to all transfers of milk under conditions of § 1008.44 (c) (2) and to payments made to the producer-settlement fund of Federal Order No. 25 because of sales on routes in the defined marketing area of Federal Order No. 25, except that (1) such credits shall not apply if either marketing area is short of milk according to the standards for defining when either area is short of milk, and (2) such credits shall be limited to the lesser of the following: (i) The amount actually paid by such handler to the producer-settlement fund of Federal Order No. 25, or (ii) the applicable difference between the Class I and Class II values under Federal Order No. 108, as amended.

(c) Make such other changes as will make the two Federal milk orders comparable in the solving of this problem.

Proposal No. 2. Amend § 1008.51 (d) (2) to include in the total pounds of Class I dispositions the total pounds of Class I milk disposed of in the marketing area by nonpool plants.

Proposal No. 3. In § 1008.41 (b) (2) delete the phrase "during the months of April, May, June or July".

The following amendment to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Inland Empire marketing area is proposed by the Inland Empire Dairy Association:

Proposal No. 4. In the proviso in § 1008.8 (a) delete the words "50 percent" and substitute therefor the words "40 percent".

The following amendment to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Puget Sound, Washington, marketing area is proposed by the United Dairymen's Association:

Proposal No. 5. Add such provisions as are necessary to accomplish the following:

(a) Providing for a credit to handlers for payments made by them into the producer's settlement fund of any federal milk marketing order regulating the handling of milk in the following area:

That part of Bonner County, Idaho, lying south of Township 60 and west of Range 2 East Boise Meridian; all of Kootenai County, Idaho, except that portion lying east of Range 3 West Boise Meridian and south of Township 53; Boundary County, Idaho; Benewah County, Idaho; Spokane County, Washington; that portion of Pend Oreille County, Washington, lying south of Township 35, and that portion of Stevens County, Washington, lying south of Township 37.

(b) Limiting the amount of the credit to the lesser of the following: (i) The amount actually paid by such handler to the producer settlement fund of such other milk marketing order; (ii) the then difference between Class I and Class II values of the milk under the Puget Sound Federal Milk Order (Order 25).

(c) Providing for the elimination of such credit when either or both of the following milk marketing areas are short of milk:

(i) The area defined at (a) above;

(ii) The area defined in the Puget Sound Marketing Order at § 925.6, and providing standards for defining when said areas are so short of milk.

(d) Making such amendment only if contemporaneously a reciprocal amendment of the Inland Empire Marketing Order is made.

The following amendments to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Inland Empire marketing area are proposed by the Dairy Division:

Proposal No. 6. Review § 1008.51 (d) in connection with the proposals set forth above in this notice.

Proposal No. 7. Make such changes as may be required to make the marketing agreements and orders in their entirety conform with any amendments thereto which may result from this hearing and consider any other suggestions for changes in order language which are related to the issues dealt with by the above industry proposals.

Copies of this notice of hearing, and of the Puget Sound, Washington, order, now in effect, may be obtained from the Market Administrator, 200 Bigelow Building, 4th and Pike Streets, Seattle 1, Washington; or from the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 112, Administration Building, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

Copies of this notice of hearing, and of the Inland Empire order, now in effect, may be obtained from the Market Administrator, West 933 Third Avenue, Room 212, Spokane 4, Washington; or from the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 112, Administration Building, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

Dated: September 11, 1958, Washington, D. C.

[Docket No. AO-144-A8]

LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED AMENDMENT OF AMENDED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER

Pursuant to the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of the recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to the proposed amendment of the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953), hereinafter referred to collectively as the "order," regulating the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona, to be made effective pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act." Interested parties may file written exceptions to this recommended decision with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 112, Administration Building, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business of the tenth day after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The public hearing, on the record of which the proposed amendment of the order is formulated, was initiated by the Agricultural Marketing Service as a result of proposals submitted by the California Citrus League and Pure Gold, Incorporated. In accordance with the applicable provisions of the aforesaid rules of practice and procedure, a notice that such public hearing would be held on June 30, 1958, in Room 229, Federal Building, 312 North Spring Street, Los Angeles, California, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (23 F. R. 4085) on June 11, 1958.

Material issues. The material issues presented on the record of the hearing were concerned with amending the order to:

(1) Increase the membership of the Lemon Administrative Committee, include handler members, and provide for reapportionment of committee membership;

(2) Authorize limitation of the sizes of lemons handled;

(3) Change the method of computing the prorate bases of handlers;

(4) Authorize exemption from regulation of lemons handled in specified minimum quantities and types of shipments;

(5) Delete the provision authorizing transfer of allotment with an equivalent quantity of lemons;

(6) Make the production area of California cover only that portion of the State that is south of the 37th Parallel;

(7) Clarify the current definition of the term "handle;"

(8) Revise the provisions relating to adoption of a marketing policy;

(9) Provide for an annual report; and

(10) Specify a time period for the retention of records pertaining to allotment transactions of central marketing organizations.

Findings and conclusions. The findings and conclusions on the material issues, all of which are based upon the evidence adduced at the hearing and the record thereof, are as follows:

(1) The Administrative Committee established under the order currently is composed of 6 grower members and 1 member who is neither a grower, handler, employee of a grower or handler, nor is in any other way associated directly with the lemon industry. The latter generally is referred to as the "non-industry" member.

The production of lemons in Central California (District 1) and in Arizona (District 3) is increasing and plantings of lemon trees in these areas indicate such increases will become substantial in the next few years. The number of grower members on the committee should, therefore, be increased to provide a basis for the selection of sufficient grower members to adequately present sectional views as to desirable regulations. Also provision should be made in the order for handler members on the committee. The grower members have, of course, consulted with their respective marketing agencies for marketing information. However, it would be desirable, and would contribute to the formulation of sound recommendations for regulation, for handlers or representatives of handlers personally to present, as members of the committee, the marketing information which they possess.

The current administrative committee is organized in a manner to give recognition to the organizational structure, and the relative volume of lemons handled by the marketing organizations, of the lemon industry; and the members of the committee should continue to be nominated and selected in the manner presently provided in the order. Increasing the number of grower members of the committee from 6 to 8 should be sufficient to permit nomination and selection of such members in conformance with the organizational structure of the industry and also to provide the basis for grower representation from the major producing areas.

Four handler members of the committee also should be sufficient to provide fair and equitable representation to the several handler organizations of the lemon industry and to supply the committee with handler views as to the marketing situation in all lemon producing areas. The handler organizations generally handle lemons produced in all portions of the production area and, therefore, geographical representation by handler members is not necessary.

Since it may be necessary, from time to time, to change the membership of the committee to reflect the current marketing affiliations of the growers and handlers of lemons, the order should provide that the committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may reapportion the membership of the committee. Any such reapportionment would be for the purpose of giving recognition to shifts in the relative magnitude of the marketing organizations handling lemons and should be based, insofar as practicable, upon the proportionate amount of lemons handled by the respective marketing organizations. However, the committee membership should, at all times, be such that at least one grower and one handler member should represent each marketing group.

It was advanced at the hearing that adequate geographical grower representation on the committee could be provided by specifying in the order provisions that, of the grower members or alternate members nominated and selected to represent the cooperative marketing organization handling more than 60 percent of total volume of lemons handled, at least one member or alternate member should be from and represent District 1 and at least one member or alternate member should be from and represent District 3. It was stated that the Board of Directors of this cooperative had taken action to assure that such representatives would serve on the committee at all committee meetings during all periods when lemons are being marketed from these districts; and that this was the practical manner to assure geographical grower representation since lemons produced in Districts 1 and 3 are marketed during a 4 to 5 month period while District 2 lemons are marketed during all months of the year. However, it was contended by others that such action could be changed at any time and that the order provisions should contain a requirement that, insofar as practical, whenever lemons are being marketed from a district at least one grower representative from such district should serve on the committee at all committee meetings held during that time. It is believed such contention has merit and the order should so provide.

The present provisions of the order specify that 5 members of the committee shall constitute a quorum and any action of the committee shall require at least 4 concurring votes. To maintain relatively equal requirements for the committee which, as heretofore discussed, should have 13 members, the provisions of the order should require that 7 members shall constitute a quorum and the same number of concurring votes should be required for each action of the committee.

The language of the provisions specifying the term of office of committee members should be changed for the purpose of clarity. Some of such language relates to the initial term of office. Also provision was made for the Secretary, by order issued not later than September 1 of any year, to terminate the term of office of members and alternate members then serving on October 31 following the issuance of such order. This termination authority has never been used and other provisions of the order give the Secretary ample authority in this connection.

(2) The order should be amended to include provisions authorizing the committee to recommend, and the Secretary to issue, regulations limiting the sizes of lemons that may be handled. The demand for particular sizes of lemons varies depending upon the size composition of the supplies of lemons that are shipped to fresh market outlets. Generally, however, lemons of the smallest and largest sizes bring lower returns to producers than lemons of other sizes. When supplies of lemons in fresh market channels are heavy and the general price level is lowered, the smaller and larger sizes of lemons often do not command prices which will return to growers the direct cost of harvesting and marketing such lemons. Moreover, it was testified that sales of such discounted sizes of lemons tend to lower the prices at which other sizes of lemons may be sold. Therefore, regulations which would prohibit the shipment of undesirable sizes of lemons to the fresh markets will tend to improve returns to producers of lemons.

The nature of the fresh market demand for sizes of lemons is such that a certain quantity of a particular size may be sold to advantage but the sale of a greater quantity of such size may be accomplished only at distress prices. Therefore, the committee should have authority to recommend, and the Secretary the authority to fix, size limitations which would restrict the handling of all or a portion of a particular size or sizes of lemons whenever such limitation would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Recommendations for regulation by size, and the issuance of such regulations, should be made on a prorate district basis since the composition of the sizes of lemons grown in the several districts varies. Consequently, size regulations may be desirable for the lemons grown in one district but be of no importance in another district since little, or none, of such size may be available in the latter district during the particular time that the regulation is effective. Also, the marketing season for lemons produced in the respective districts is not identical so size regulation would not always be required in all districts at the same time.

Regulation by size should be independent of the volume regulations now authorized by the order as each of these types of regulation seeks to promote marketing conditions by a different method. However, when both size and volume regulations are effective, all handling of lemons should conform to both regulations.

In conjunction with the provision for size regulation, the committee should be authorized to issue exemption certificates to any grower who furnishes evidence satisfactory to the committee that, because of the size regulation in effect, he will be prevented from having as large a proportion of his crop of lemons handled as the average proportion which may be handled by all other growers in the same prorate district. Evidence presented at the hearing indicated that 50 percent, or less, of the crops of lemons produced during recent years have been marketed in fresh channels. Hence, it is unlikely that any size regulations imposed would be so restrictive that a grower would be prevented, because of such regulation, from having as large a proportion of his lemons marketed as that which may be marketed by other growers. However, it is known the crops of lemons produced on certain groves have a larger proportion of small sized lemons than is the case for other groves and, to insure that the burden of size regulation would not impose inequities among growers, the exemption provision should be included in the order. Such exemption certificates, when warranted, should permit the shipment of an appropriate quantity of lemons which fails to meet the size requirement of the regulation so as to enable the grower to have handled as large a proportion of his lemons as the proportion that may be handled for all other growers in the prorate district. Such exemption certificates should be limited to exemption from the size regulation in effect and any lemons handled pursuant to such exemption should be subject to any limitations as to the volume of lemon shipments the same as the lemons of other producers.

(3) The provisions of the order should be amended to provide a new method for the computation of the prorate bases and allotments of handlers. Currently, the prorate bases and allotments of handlers are computed primarily from a count of the quantities of lemons which have been picked from the trees and are in storages or on the floor of packinghouses. However, there are two other factors that are used in such computations. These generally are referred to as "advance count" and "tree count." The advance count is a determination of the storage life of a lot of lemons and the carrying of such lemons as a part of the count of lemons in storage or on packinghouse floors, for the determined storage life period, even though such lot is diverted to processing or export outlets. It is used to permit handlers to move to processing and export outlets lemons which are in excess of domestic fresh market demands rather than requiring them to be held in storage until deteriorated in order to add to the prorate base. The tree count is a determination of the quantity of lemons which a handler would have picked if he had available facilities to hold such lemons. It is used when the handler either does not have any storage for lemons or his storage space is full and he controls lemons on the trees which could be picked if storage facilities were available to him.

The evidence presented at the hearing shows that, in general, the computation of the prorate bases of handlers, in the manner described, and the determination therefrom of each handler's proportionate share of the total volume of lemon shipments, have been equitable. Handlers in each prorate district have received total allotments to ship lemons in reasonable relationship to the total quantities of lemons which each controls. However, there are certain disadvantages to the use of the current method of computing the prorate bases and allotments of handlers. In some areas, the practice of storing lemons has not been followed to any great extent. Consequently, the prorate bases and allotments of handlers in such instances have been based upon "tree count." With the larger volume of lemon production in prospect, particularly in the areas where the "tree count" has been used, the possibility of inequities occurring through the establishment of the prorate bases and allotments of handlers from "tree count" will be greatly increased.

In cases where the prorate bases and allotments of handlers are computed primarily from a count of the lemons in storage, a handler naturally is inclined to build up as large an inventory of lemons as possible since such procedure will result in the handler receiving a greater share of total volume of lemon shipments. As a result lemons often are held in storage beyond the normal life of the fruit. The shipment of such fruit of poor keeping quality and appearance to the fresh market outlets tends to reduce the demand for lemons and lower returns to the growers. The increasing production of lemons makes it necessary and desirable for the industry to institute all practical procedures which may reasonably be expected to place better quality lemons in the fresh markets and to expand such market outlets.

The order should provide for the computation of the prorate bases and allotments of handlers from "lemons available for current shipment." Such term should be defined to mean the tree crop of lemons produced in the case of Districts 1 and 3, and deliveries of lemons to handlers during a prescribed 20-week period in the case of District 2. Tree crop is the quantity of lemons on the trees as determined by the committee. It should be calculated by the committee at the beginning of a particular crop year as an estimate of the lemons on the tree. However, to offset errors which may be made in such estimate, and to assure that allotments based thereon issued to handlers are equitable, the final determination of the tree crop should be based upon the number of boxes of lemons delivered to handlers.

The record of the hearing shows that it is possible accurately to determine the quantity of lemons which each handler in Districts 1 and 3 currently controls on the tree. The annual lemon crops produced in Districts 1 and 3 are from one bloom and are harvested and marketed during approximately a 5-month period in the fall and early winter seasons. Thus it is possible, prior to the marketing of the crops produced in Districts 1 and 3, to make a reasonably accurate determination of the volume of production that will be available for market from each such district during the ensuing months and the portion of such production which each handler has available for current shipment. The equity or share of each handler in the limited quantity of lemons that may be shipped from the particular prorate district during any week should be the same percentage as the portion of the total quantity of lemons available for current shipment in such prorate district which such handler controls.

With respect to District 2, the annual lemon production results from multiple blooms. While the major portion of the crop is produced from the spring bloom, the trees continue to bloom and set and produce lemons throughout the year. A sufficiently accurate determination of the total crop and the portion thereof controlled by each handler apparently cannot be made for the purpose of equitably establishing the individual handler's share of the limited quantity of lemons that may be shipped each week from such district. It was shown, however, that an equitable and orderly basis for establishing each individual handler's share of such shipments can be derived from the records of deliveries of lemons to each handler during the preceding 20-week period. Hence it is concluded that the equity or share of each handler in District 2 of the limited quantity of lemons that may be shipped from such district during a given week should be the same percentage as the ratio between the quantity of lemons delivered to the particular handler during the preceding 20-week period and the total deliveries of lemons to all handlers in such district during the same period.

One handler testified at the hearing in opposition to the proposal to change the method of computing the prorate base of handlers in District 2. The primary basis of such objection was that records of deliveries of lemons to handlers in District 2 indicated this handler would have received, under the proposed provision, a smaller share of the total permitted shipments of lemons than was actually the case under the current provision. It was asserted that the lemons controlled by this handler have a longer storage life than many of the lemons produced in District 2, that its facilities had been developed to take advantage of this fact, and that the proposed change from the proration of the permitted shipments of lemons on the basis of storage life of the fruit, as reflected by the current provision, would be inequitable to those growers having lemons of long keeping quality. All of the witnesses testifying at the hearing in this connection indicated that one of the problems of the industry was the shipment of lemons which have been stored so long that their keeping qualities largely had been depleted and the fruit could not be moved into consumption in good condition; and that the "storage count" method of computing the prorate base of handlers had contributed to this condition. The data presented at the hearing relating to the allotment handlers in District 2 actually received during the 1954–55 season, and the allotment that would have accrued to such handlers if the proposed provision then had been effective, show that, in some instances, the allotments received by certain handlers would have been reduced under the proposed provision. However, a comparison of the actual allotment of such handlers with the total quantities of lemons each controlled shows that they were permitted to move in fresh market channels a larger proportion of their lemons than the average handled by all handlers in such district. Also, such handlers would have received allotment under the proposed method at least equal to the average handled by all handlers.

The order should provide that each handler who has lemons available for current shipment should make application to the committee for prorate bases and allotments so as to provide an orderly basis for operation of the regulation of shipments of lemons. The applications for prorate base and allotments should contain the information hereinafter set forth. Such information is necessary to substantiate the quantity of lemons available for current shipment by each handler and to insure that the determination of the allotments issued to such handler is correct. Such applications should include only such lemons as the handler has title to, possession of, or a bona fide contract or agreement to handle or purchase, because only the lemons which the handler has actual control over the marketing should be considered as the lemons which such handler has available for current shipment.

The order should provide for adjusting the quantity of lemons controlled by individual handlers in Districts 1 and 3 as such handlers may gain or lose control of the marketing of such lemons during the marketing season. Producers should be given the opportunity to transfer the marketing of their crops from one handler to another. A handler who thus has gained or lost control of the handling of lemons should have the quantity of his lemons available for current shipment adjusted to reflect such change. In addition, if it is determined that a handler who has lost control of lemons has not handled a quantity of such lemons equal to the quantity that could have been handled under the allotments issued thereon, such handler's lemons available for current shipment should be reduced, over a reasonable period of time, to the extent necessary to place such handler in the relative position that he would have occupied had he not received the allotments earned by, but not used for the handling of, such lemons. However, the order should discourage widespread transfers by producers as such transfers would make the operation of the program, and the maintenance of equities among handlers, difficult. Accordingly, when a producer transfers the marketing of his lemons to a new handler, such handler should not be given any allotments that had been earned by such lemons prior to the time of the transfer. Handlers should be required to report to the committee any change in the respective quantities of lemons they control in order to assist the committee in making adjustments and to simplify administration of this provision.

The order should provide for the adjustment of the quantity of any handler's lemons available for current shipment whenever it is determined that, through error, omission, or other inaccuracy, such quantity has been established at too high or too low an amount. Such adjustment is necessary to insure that the equities of handlers are maintained, and should increase or reduce, by such amount and for such period of time as is necessary and reasonable, such handler's quantity of lemons available for current shipment so that the total allotment received by such handler will equal what his total allotments would have been if his lemons available for current shipment had been established at the correct quantity.

(4) The order should provide authority for the exemption from regulation of lemons handled in such minimum quantities and types of shipments as it is not necessary to regulate in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act. The handling of lemons in small quantities by express as gifts and to county fairs for display in exhibits are examples of the type of shipments which would not materially affect marketing conditions in commercial channels. Such authorization is needed also to permit the exemption of such handling of lemons as it is found not to be feasible administratively to regulate. In some instances, a grower with only a few trees of lemons may not be able to get a packinghouse to market his lemons because the quantities involved are too small. Similarly, for such grower to handle his own fruit under the volume and other restrictions of the order would present administrative difficulties and costs which are unwarranted in relation to the effect that the marketing of such fruit would have on marketing conditions for lemons generally.

In order to insure that the allowance of such exemptions would not result in avenues of escape from regulation contrary to the purposes of the exemptions and which would tend to defeat the objective of the program, the committee should prescribe, with the approval of the Secretary, such rules, regulations, and safeguards as may be reasonable and necessary.

(5) The current provisions of the order authorize, in § 953.60, transfers of allotment with a quantity of lemons equal to the allotment that is transferred. This provision has not been used to any great extent. When used, the lemons which accompany the allotment transferred customarily have been of "products" quality; and the handler receiving the allotment used it to ship lemons he controlled which were of fresh market quality. The sales price of the lemons involved in the transfer would be somewhat higher than the existing market price for product quality lemons, however, so the transferring handler, in effect, sold the allotment transferred to the recipient of it. The evidence presented at the hearing was to the effect that this practice was not desirable and that there was considerable feeling on the part of handlers that the provision was inequitable since all handlers were not in a position to participate in the transfer. There are ample provisions in the order for flexibility of operation on the part of handlers through the overshipment, undershipment, and loan provisions; and the provision for transfer of allotment should be deleted.

(6) The commercial production of lemons in California is confined almost entirely to the portion of the State which is situated south of the 37th Parallel. There are a few scattered plantings of lemon trees in California north of the 37th Parallel but because of weather hazards production is uncertain and there is little likelihood that lemon production will be expanded materially in this area. Because of the scattered and light production in such area, the growers generally do not market these lemons through established packinghouses and regulations under the order cannot be imposed feasibly, from an administrative standpoint, upon such lemons. Moreover, the volume of such lemons is so small that its regulation would not appreciably affect the level of grower returns for lemons produced elsewhere in California and in Arizona. The order should, therefore, provide for regulation thereunder only of the lemons that are grown in Arizona and that part of California situated south of the 37th Parallel. Corresponding changes should be made in the definitions of the districts, as currently set forth in the order, and such definitions should also be revised and clarified. The common boundary between Districts 1 and 2 currently is described as a line drawn due east and west through the Tehachapi Mountains. This is an inexact boundary and the line could be so drawn to include in District 1 a small area of the San Joaquin Valley. Any lemons that were grown in such area would mature at the time as, and have other characteristics of, the lemons grown in District 1. The boundary between Districts 1 and 2 should, therefore, be described as a line drawn due east and west through Gorman, California, but excluding that portion of San Bernardino County which is east of the 115th Meridian. Lemons grown in such portion of San Bernardino County have characteristics similar to those grown in other desert areas and currently is included and should remain in District 2. Such a line locates the boundary between Districts 1 and 2 through a specific point and also places in District 1 all lemons having similar characteristics.

Similarly, the common boundary between Districts 2 and 3 currently is described as a line drawn due north and south through the San Gorgonio Pass except that all of San Diego County is included in District 2. A more specific location of such boundary could be provided by drawing such line due north and south through White Water, California. Also, by extending such boundary southward through San Diego County and placing the desert areas in the eastern portion of such county in District 3, any lemons grown in this area will be included in the district having lemons with similar characteristics. The districts should, therefore, be defined as hereinafter set forth.

(7) The current definition in the order of the term "handle" should be revised and clarified. Such term currently is defined to include all transactions which place lemons "in the current of interstate commerce or commerce with Canada or so as directly to burden, obstruct, or affect" such commerce. All activities which place lemons in commercial markets within the States of California and Arizona directly burden, obstruct, or affect interstate commerce in lemons and the order should specifically so provide.

Any handling of lemons in fresh fruit channels exerts an influence upon all other handling of lemons in fresh fruit form. The production of lemons in California and Arizona constitutes practically the entire fresh market supplies of lemons in the United States, Canada, and Alaska. Markets within the States of California and Arizona provide opportunities to dispose of fresh lemons in the same fashion as do markets in other States, Canada, and Alaska. Any change in the quantity and price of fresh lemons marketed within the States of California and Arizona directly influences all other sales of such lemons.

The prices received for sales of lemons in markets within the States of California and Arizona and in other markets follow a parallel pattern. This behavior of fresh market prices of lemons follows from the manner in which handlers transact their business in response to conditions of supply and demand, and illustrates the interdependence of such markets. If returns from lemon sales in any particular market, whether it is situated within California, Arizona, or any other State, rise above comparable prices in other markets, supplies of lemons are diverted to that market. Conversely, relatively low prices in any particular market will result in supplies being diverted away from such market. The diversion of carloads of lemons, while in transit, from the original destination to another is a common practice and indicates the rapid response of handlers to changes in demand conditions as between markets.

If shipments of lemons to market outside the States of California and Arizona were regulated while at the same time shipments of lemons to markets within such States were not regulated, prices received by growers for lemons sold within such States would tend to be lower than those prevailing in the regulated markets. With no limitation on the volume of lemons that could be marketed within California and Arizona, there naturally would be a tendency for handlers to ship lemons to markets within such States so long as returns exceed those from processing outlets. Such lower prices for intrastate shipments of lemons would have a serious effect upon total grower returns as a substantial portion of the lemons marketed in fresh form is sold in such intrastate markets. Under such conditions, in order for growers to receive returns at the level, as expressed in the act, which it is the policy of Congress to establish, prices for lemons in the interstate markets would have to be higher than otherwise would be the case if the intrastate shipments were regulated.

Lemons sold in the commercial markets, whether they are located within the States of California and Arizona or outside thereof, are prepared for market prior to packing in exactly the same fashion. For lemons that are packed in containers, the preparation for market is identical regardless of the destination. In most cases, the ultimate destination of the lemons is not known at the time the fruit is packed. Lemons shipped to the terminal markets within the production area often are diverted from such markets to markets outside the production area; and usually it is not known at the time of the initial shipment that such lemons will be reshipped to interstate markets. Thus lemons destined for the intrastate markets are so inextricably intermingled with lemons destined to interstate markets that it would be extremely difficult effectively to regulate the interstate lemon shipments only.

The redefinition of the term "handle" should include the purchasing, selling, consigning, transporting, or shipping of lemons as each of such activities is a handling function which should be subject to regulation under the order. All purchases, sales, consignment, transportation, and shipment of lemons which place such lemons in commerce in fresh market channels within the United States, Canada, and Alaska necessarily must be confined to lemons which conform to the requirements of the order and the regulations effective thereunder if the objectives of such order is to be attained.

In order to make the application of definition of the term "handle" specific, however, there should be excluded the types of sales, purchases, and other transactions in lemons which do not place such lemons in commerce. The sale of lemons on the tree should be excluded because the handling of the lemons does not actually begin until after the lemons have been picked. The transportation of lemons to a packinghouse within the production area for the purpose of having such lemons prepared for market should be excluded from the definition of handle as, when a packinghouse is utilized, it is not until after the lemons are prepared for market that they begin their actual movement into commerce.

Often lemons are stored prior to being prepared for market and lemons which have been prepared for market are stored in the packinghouse or transported to nearby storages before being offered for sale by the first handler. Since the actual movement into commerce of these stored lemons does not begin until such lemons have been prepared for market and they are sold or shipped from storage, the regulatory provisions of the order should be applied at the time of such sale or shipment. It would be impractical specifically to exclude from the definition of "handle" all lemons stored, however, because lemons often are sold by the first handler and are subsequently stored by the purchaser, sometimes after transportation of the lemons to terminal markets. The order should provide, therefore, for the exemption from handling of such lemons as may be stored in the production area in conformance with rules and regulations as the committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe. Such rules should permit handlers who desire to store lemons prior to placing them in commerce to do so. However, it is necessary to handle this exception in this manner so that the committee can apply such safeguards as may be necessary to assure that the lemons so stored are not in fact handled without complying with the order requirements.

The term "handle" should relate to transactions involving markets in the United States, Canada, and Alaska because such markets are considered by the sellers of lemons as one "domestic" market. Shipments to other markets should not be regulated because sales of lemons in those markets do not directly compete with, and are considered diversions from, the "domestic" market.

(8) The provisions of the order relating to preparation of a marketing policy (§ 953.50) should be amended to set forth specifically the factors to be considered therein and the manner in which such policy should be formulated. Currently, it is provided merely that the committee shall adopt a marketing policy at the beginning of each marketing season and submit it to the Secretary. Changes shall be made in such policy in the event it becomes necessary to do so because of changed supply and demand conditions. Such marketing policy would be much more useful to growers and handlers if it were formulated each season on a district basis and in conjunction with meetings of growers and handlers held prior to recommending regulations for Districts 1 and 3 and on or before November 15 in the case of District 2. The policy so formulated would serve to inform persons in the industry, in advance of any substantial marketing of the annual crop in each prorate district, of the committee's plans for regulation and the basis therefor. In order to assure the development of an economically sound and practical marketing policy, the committee, in preparing its marketing policy report, should consider information as hereinafter set forth.

(9) The order should provide for an annual report of operations to bring to the attention of growers and handlers the activities carried on during the particular year. This report should review the regulatory operations for each prorate district and the disposition of lemons during the fiscal year. It should also review the data upon which the prorate bases are determined. The report should deal with the influence of the regulations because an economically sound marketing program requires continuous review of its operations. A discussion of the data upon which the prorate bases are established will serve to provide interested growers and handlers with information which should clarify questions which they may have thereon. The annual report should serve as a record which will be useful to the industry and the Secretary when subsequent activities under the program are being considered.

(10) The order currently provides (§ 953.62) that any central marketing organization which arranges allotment transactions for handlers for whom it markets lemons shall keep records which shall accurately reflect all such transactions. No time period for the retention of such records is specified. Testimony presented at the hearing indicates that a reasonable time period for retention of such records would be 3 years and the order should so provide.

General findings. (1) The marketing agreement, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be amended, and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The marketing agreement, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be amended, and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be amended, regulate the handling of lemons grown in the designated production area in the same manner as, and are applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial or commercial activity specified in, the marketing agreement and order upon which hearings have been held;

(3) The marketing agreement, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be amended, and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be amended, are limited in their application to the smallest regional production area that is practicable consistently with carrying out the declared policy of the act;

(4) The marketing agreement, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be amended, and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be amended, prescribe, so far as practicable, such different terms, applicable to different parts of the production area, as are necessary to give due recognition to differences in the production and marketing of the lemons covered thereby; and

(5) All handling of lemons grown in the designated production area is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce.

Rulings on findings and conclusions. July 21, 1958, was fixed at the hearing as the latest date for the filing of briefs with respect to facts presented in evidence at the hearing and the conclusions that should be drawn therefrom. A brief was filed within the prescribed time by the College Heights Orange and Lemon Ass'n., Claremont, California. Such brief was considered carefully, along with the evidence in the record, in making the findings and reaching the conclusions herein set forth. To the extent that any suggested findings or conclusions contained in such brief is at variance with the findings and conclusions contained herein, the request to make such findings, or reach such conclusions, is denied on the basis of the facts found and stated in connection with this decision.

Recommended amendment of the amended marketing agreement and order. The following amendment of the amended marketing agreement and order is recommended as the detailed means by which the aforesaid conclusions may be carried out:

1. Amend § 953.4 to read as follows:

§ 953.4 Lemons. "Lemons" means all varieties of lemons grown in the production area.

2. Amend § 953.7 to read as follows:

§ 953.7 Handle. "Handle" means to buy, sell, consign, transport, or ship lemons (except as a common or contract carrier of lemons owned by another person), or in any other way to place lemons, in the current of commerce between the State of California and any point outside thereof in the continental United States, Alaska, or Canada, or within the State of California, or between the State of Arizona and any point outside thereof in the continental United States, Alaska, or Canada, or within the State of Arizona. The term "handle" does not include (a) the sale of lemons on the tree; (b) the transportation of lemons to a packinghouse within the production area for the purpose of having such lemons prepared for market; or (c) the transportation of lemons to a storage within the production area under such rules and regulations as the committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe.

3. Amend § 953.12 to read as follows:

§ 953.12 Lemons available for current shipment. "Lemons available for current shipment" means (a) with respect to Districts 1 and 3, all lemons as measured by the tree crop, and (b) with respect to District 2, the total quantity of lemons which has been delivered to the handlers in such district during the preceding 20-week period.

4. Add, after § 953.13, the following new sections:

§ 953.14 Tree crop. "Tree crop" means the total quantity of lemons on the trees as determined by the committee.

§ 953.15 Production area. "Production area" means the State of Arizona and that part of the State of California south of the 37th Parallel.

5. Delete the provisions of §§ 953.20 through 953.23 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 953.20 Establishment and membership. There is hereby established a Lemon Administrative Committee consisting of thirteen members, for each of whom there shall be an alternate member who shall have the same qualifications as the member. Eight of the members and their respective alternates shall be growers. Four of the members and their respective alternates shall be handlers, or employees of handlers, or employees of central marketing organizations. One member of the committee and an alternate of such member shall be nominated as provided in § 953.22 (f). The eight members of the committee who shall be growers are referred to in this part as "grower" members of the committee and the four members who shall be handlers, or employees of handlers, or employees of central marketing organizations are referred to in this part as "handler" members of the committee.

§ 953.21 Term of office. The term of office of committee members and alternate members shall be a period of two years beginning on November 1 of each even numbered year except that the term ending on October 31, 1960, shall begin on the date designated by the Secretary. Members and alternates shall serve in such capacities for the portion of the term of office for which they are selected and qualify and until their respective successors are selected and have qualified.

§ 953.22 Nominations. (a) The time and manner of nominating members and alternate members of the committee shall be prescribed by the Secretary.

(b) Any cooperative marketing organization, or the growers affiliated therewith, which marketed more than 60 percent of the total volume of lemons during the fiscal year in which nominations for members and alternate members of the committee are submitted, shall nominate four grower members, four alternate grower members, two handler members, and two alternate handler members of the committee. At least one of the nominees for member or alternate member shall be a grower in District 1, and at least one of the nominees for member or alternate member shall be a grower in District 3.

(c) All cooperative marketing organizations which market lemons and which are not qualified under paragraph (b) of this section, or the growers affiliated therewith, shall nominate two grower members, two alternate grower members, one handler member, and one alternate handler member.

(d) All growers who are not affiliated with a cooperative marketing organization which markets lemons shall nominate two grower members, two alternate grower members, one handler member, and one alternate handler member.

(e) When voting for nominees, each grower shall be entitled to cast one vote which shall be cast on behalf of himself, his agents, subsidiaries, affiliates, and representatives. The votes of cooperative marketing organizations voting pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section shall be weighted in accordance with the volume of lemons handled during the current fiscal year to the end of the month preceding the month in which such nominations are made.

(f) The members of the committee selected by the Secretary pursuant to § 953.23 shall, by a concurring vote of at least seven members, nominate a member and an alternate member of the committee, which persons shall not be growers or handlers, or employees, agents, or representatives of a grower or handler (other than a charitable or educational institution which is a grower or handler), or of a central marketing organization.

§ 953.23 Selection. From the nominations made pursuant to § 953.22 (b) or from other qualified growers and handlers, the Secretary shall select four grower members of the committee and an alternate to each of such grower members; also two handler members of the committee and an alternate to each of such handler members. At least one of the growers so selected shall be a grower of lemons in District 1 and at least one such grower shall be a grower of lemons in District 3. From the nominations made pursuant to § 953.22 (c) or from other qualified growers and handlers, the Secretary shall select two grower members of the committee and an alternate to each of such grower members; also one handler member of the committee and an alternate to such handler member. From the nominations made pursuant to § 953.22 (d) or from other qualified growers and handlers, the Secretary shall select two grower members of the committee and an alternate to such grower members; also one handler member of the committee and an alternate to such handler member. From the nominations made pursuant to § 953.22 (f) or from other qualified persons, the Secretary shall select one member of the committee and an alternate to such member.

6. Delete § 953.28 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 953.28 Procedure. (a) Seven members of the committee shall constitute a quorum and any action of the committee shall require seven concurring votes. Insofar as practicable, the growers of lemons in Districts 1 and 3 who were selected to membership on the committee shall attend, and serve as member at, each meeting of the committee to consider regulations applicable to lemons shipped from the respective district.

(b) The committee may vote by telegraph, telephone, or other means of communication, and any votes so cast shall be confirmed promptly in writing. If an assembled meeting is held, all votes shall be cast in person.

7. Delete paragraph (j) of § 953.31 and substitute therefor the following:

(j) To prepare and mail as soon as practicable after the close of each fiscal year an annual report to the Secretary and to each handler and grower of record, which report shall cover the operations of the previous fiscal year and contain at least a complete review by prorate districts of (1) the weekly regulatory operations and lemon movement during the fiscal year as conducted under the marketing policy established pursuant to § 953.50, and (2) the data upon which prorate bases are determined; and

(k) With the approval of the Secretary, to reapportion the number of grower members or handler members on the Lemon Administrative Committee who are nominated pursuant to § 953.22. Any such changes shall be based, insofar as practical, upon the proportionate amount of lemons handled by the respective types of marketing organizations: Provided, That each grower group described in § 953.22 shall be entitled to nominate at least one grower and one handler member together with their respective alternates.

8. Amend § 953.50 to read as follows:

§ 953.50 Marketing policy. Each year prior to the recommendation for regulation for prorate Districts 1 and 3 and not later than November 15 in the case of District 2, the committee shall hold for each of said districts a marketing policy meeting and shall thereafter submit to the Secretary its marketing policy for such district. Such marketing policy shall contain the following information: (a) The available supplies of lemons in the prorate district, including estimated quality and composition of sizes; (b) the estimated utilization of the crop, showing the quantity and percentages of the crop that will be marketed in domestic, export, and by-product channels, together with quantities otherwise to be disposed of; (c) a schedule of estimated weekly shipments to be recommended to the Secretary during the ensuing season; (d) level and trend of consumer income; (e) estimated supplies of competitive citrus commodities; and (f) any other pertinent factors bearing on the marketing of lemons. In the event that it becomes advisable to substantially modify such marketing policy the committee shall submit to the Secretary a revised marketing policy setting forth the information as required in this section.

9. Amend § 953.53 by deleting paragraphs (b) through (g) and substituting therefor the following:

(b) Such application shall be substantiated by such information as the committee may require. With respect to each such application filed by handlers in Districts 1 and 3, it shall include at least (1) the name and address of the grower or duly authorized agent, if any, for each grove or portion thereof, the fruit of which is included in the quantity of lemons available for current shipment by the applicant; (2) an accurate description of the location of each such grove or portion thereof, including the number of acres contained therein, and (3) an estimate of the total quantity of lemons available for current shipment by the applicant in terms of a unit of measure designated by the committee.

(c) Such application shall include only such lemons available for current shipment which the applicant controls (1) by having legal title or possession thereof, or (2) by a bona fide written contract or agreement under which the applicant has authority to handle or has contracted to buy such lemons. If an applicant controls lemons pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, he shall submit to the committee a copy of each type of such contract or agreement to the committee, together with a statement that no other types of such contracts or agreements are used, and shall maintain a file of all original contracts or agreements evidencing such control which shall be subject to examination by the committee.

(d) If the quantity of lemons available for current shipment by any handler is increased or decreased by the acquisition or loss of the control required by paragraph (c) of this section, such person shall submit promptly a report thereon to the committee upon forms made available by it, which report shall be verified in such manner as the committee may require.

(e) If any handler gains or loses control of lemons as required by paragraph (c) of this section, there shall be a corresponding increase or decrease in the quantity of lemons available for current shipment by such handler. If it is determined by the committee that any handler who has lost control of lemons as required by paragraph (c) of this section has handled a quantity of such lemons less than the quantity that could have been handled under the allotments issued thereon, the quantity of lemons available for current shipment by such handler shall be adjusted by deducting therefrom, over such period as may be determined by the committee, a quantity of lemons equivalent to the quantity upon which allotments were issued but which were not utilized thereon.

(f) The committee shall determine the accuracy of the information submitted pursuant to this section. Whenever the committee finds that there is an error, omission, or inaccuracy in any such information, it shall correct the same and shall give the handler who submitted such report a reasonable opportunity to discuss with the committee the factors considered in making the correction. If it is determined that an error, omission, or inaccuracy has resulted in the establishment of a smaller or a larger quantity of lemons available for current shipment than that to which a handler was entitled under this part, such quantity shall be increased or decreased, over such period as may be determined by the committee, by an amount necessary to correct the error, omission, or inaccuracy.

(g) Each week during the marketing season when volume regulation is likely to be recommended for a particular district, the committee shall compute the total quantity of lemons available for current shipment by each handler who has applied for a prorate base and for allotment in such district. On the basis of such computation, the committee shall fix a prorate base for each handler who is entitled thereto. Such prorate base shall represent the ratio between the total quantity of lemons available for current shipment by each applicant in the particular district and the total quantity of lemons available for current shipment in such district by all such applicants. The committee shall notify the Secretary of the prorate base fixed for each handler and shall notify each such handler of the prorate base fixed for him.

10. Amend § 953.60 to read as follows:

§ 953.60 Transfer of allotment. Allotments may be transferred from one handler to another only in accordance with the provisions of §§ 953.59 and 953.63.

11. Amend the first sentence in paragraph (b) of § 953.62 to read as follows: "Any central marketing organization which, pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, receives information from the committee regarding the prorate bases and allotments applicable to the handlers for whom it markets lemons, and which arranges allotment transactions for or on behalf of such handlers, shall keep records, for a period of three years, which will accurately reflect all such allotment transactions, and such records shall be subject to examination by the committee and the Secretary."

12. Amend § 953.64 to read as follows:

§ 953.64 Districts. The production area shall be divided into three prorate districts, as follows:

(a) "District 1" shall include that part of the State of California which is south of the 37th Parallel and north of a line drawn due east and west through Gorman, California, but shall exclude that part of San Bernardino County located east of the 115th Meridian.

(b) "District 2" shall include that part of the State of California which is south of District 1, and west of a line drawn due north and south through White Water, California.

(c) "District 3" shall include the State of Arizona and that part of the production area not included in Districts 1 and 2.

13. Add, after § 953.64, the following new sections:

§ 953.65 Recommendations for size regulation. (a) Whenever the committee finds that the supply and demand conditions for sizes of lemons make it advisable to regulate in any prorate district the handling of lemons during any period, it shall recommend to the Secretary the sizes of lemons grown in such prorate district which it deems advisable to be handled during the said period. The committee shall promptly submit such findings and recommendations, together with supporting information, to the Secretary.

(b) In making its recommendations the committee shall give due consideration to the factors referred to in § 953.51 (b).

§ 953.66 Issuance of size regulations. Whenever the Secretary shall find, from the findings, recommendations, and information submitted by the committee, or from other available information, that to limit the handling of lemons by size in any prorate district would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, he shall fix the sizes of lemons grown in each such prorate district which may be handled during the specified period. When any such size regulation restricts the handling of a portion of a specified size, the quantity of such size that may be handled by a handler during a particular week shall be fixed as a percentage of (a) the weekly allotment issued to such handler when volume regulation is in effect, and (b) the total weekly volume handled by such handler when volume regulation is not in effect. The committee shall be informed immediately of any such regulation issued by the Secretary and the committee shall promptly give adequate notice thereof to all handlers.

§ 953.67 Exemptions from size regulation. In the event lemons are regulated pursuant to § 953.66, the committee shall issue one or more exemption certificates to any producer who furnishes evidence satisfactory to the committee that he will be prevented by reason of such regulation from having as large a proportion of his lemons handled as the average proportion of lemons which may be handled by all other producers in the same prorate district. Such exemption certificate shall permit the respective producer to whom the certificate is issued to handle or have handled a percentage of his lemons equal to the percentage determined as aforesaid. Handling of lemons under exemption certificates issued pursuant to this section shall be subject to and limited by such regulations as may be effective under § 953.52 at the time of the respective shipment. The committee shall adopt, with the approval of the Secretary, procedural rules by which such exemption certificates will be issued to producers. Such exemption certificates may be transferred to handlers when accompanied by lemons covered by such certificates.

14. Delete the second sentence of § 953.80 and substitute therefor the following: "The committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may establish minimum quantities and types of shipments which shall be free from regulation under this subpart; and may prescribe such safeguards as may be necessary to prevent lemons which are exempt from regulation pursuant to this section from entering channels of trade for other than the specific purposes authorized by this section."

MILK IN PHILADELPHIA, PA., MARKETING AREA

SUPPLEMENTAL NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER

On August 19, 1958 (23 F. R. 6510, F. R. Doc 58-6782), there was issued by the Deputy Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Service, a notice of hearing for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to a proposed amendment to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, marketing area. On August 22, 1958 (23 F. R. 6628, F. R. Doc. 58-6940), a notice of postponement of hearing was issued by the Deputy Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Service, postponing the public hearing and changing the place and time of hearing to the Carlton Room, Sylvania Hotel, Broad and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, beginning at 9:30 a. m., e. d. t., September 18, 1958.

Notice is hereby given pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and orders (7 CFR Part 900), that, in addition to the proposal set forth in the said notice of August 19, 1958, evidence will be received with the respect to the additional proposed amendment hereinafter set forth or appropriate modifications thereof, to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order. The proposed amendment set forth below, has not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Proposed by the Milk Distributors' Association of the Philadelphia Area, Inc., and by Lehigh Valley Cooperative Farmers:

3. Add or insert the following language in § 961.10: "Milk which is assigned by a cooperative operating a producer milk plant to a noncooperative producer milk plant shall be treated as if physically received at the producer milk plant of the assignee when the assignee and the assignor notify the market administrator, in writing, of the amount of milk to be assigned, prior to the 15th day of the month preceding the month to which the notice applies."

Copies of this supplemental notice of hearing, together with the notice of hearing and the order may be procured from the Market Administrator, Fox Building, 12th Floor, 1612 Market Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, or from the Hearing Clerk, Room 112, Administration Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 11th day of September 1958.

[SEAL] ROY W. LENNARTSON,
Deputy Administrator.

MILK IN CINCINNATI, OHIO, MARKETING AREA AND IN DAYTON-SPRINGFIELD, OHIO, MARKETING AREA

SUPPLEMENTAL NOTICE OF HEARING AND NOTICE OF HEARING

The original notice of hearing on proposed amendments to the Cincinnati, Ohio, milk Order No. 65, was issued on August 27, 1958 (23 F. R. 6755).

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given that the notice heretofore issued for the Cincinnati, Ohio, marketing area (23 F. R. 6755) is hereby amended to include the proposals hereinafter set forth and notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held, concurrently with such hearing, with respect to proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and Order No. 71 regulating the handling of milk in the Dayton-Springfield, Ohio, marketing area.

The hearing will be held in the Metropole Hotel, 609 Walnut Street, Cincinnati, Ohio, beginning at 10:00 a. m., September 23, 1958.

The hearing as it relates to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Dayton-Springfield marketing area is for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to the economic and marketing conditions which relate to the proposed amendments, hereinafter set forth, or appropriate modifications thereof, to the tentative marketing agreement and to such order and particularly to those conditions which relate to the alignment of prices between such marketing area and the Cincinnati marketing area as it is proposed to be expanded on the basis of the testimony at this hearing.

The proposed amendments, set forth below have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Proposed by the Miami Valley Milk Producers Association:

1. Consider a closer alignment in the level of the Class I price under Order No. 71 to that of Order No. 65 by amending § 971.51 of Order No. 71 and consider changes in any other pricing provisions related thereto, including but not limited to, a revision of § 971.51 (a) (1), (2) and (3) and appropriate changes in § 971.52.

Proposed by the Dairy Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture:

2. Make such other changes in Part 971 as may be required to make the marketing agreement and order in their entirety conform with any amendments thereto which may result from this hearing.

Copies of this notice of hearing and the order may be procured from the Market Administrator, P. O. Box 1196, Cincinnati 1, Ohio; 434 Third National Bank Building, Dayton 2, Ohio, or from the Hearing Clerk, Room 112, Administration Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 11th day of September 1958.

[SEAL] ROY W. LENNARTSON,
Deputy Administrator.

FINANCIAL PROTECTION REQUIREMENTS AND INDEMNITY AGREEMENTS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULEMAKING

This notice is to correct the proposed amendment to 10 CFR Part 140, "Financial Protection Requirements and Indemnity Agreements," published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on Thursday, August 28, 1958 (23 F. R. 6681, 6682).

Section 140.76 of the proposed amendment is corrected by deleting the following words from paragraph 3 of article I: "• • • causing bodily injury, sickness, disease, or death, or loss of or damage to property, or loss of use of property, arising out of or resulting from the radioactive, toxic, explosive, or other hazardous properties of the radioactive material being transported. • • •"

As corrected, the proposed paragraph 3 would read as follows:

3. "In the course of transportation" means in the course of transportation within the United States, including handling or temporary storage incidental thereto, of the radioactive material to the location or from the location; provided, however, with respect to transportation of the radioactive material to the location that such transportation is not by predetermination to be interrupted by the removal of such material from the transporting conveyance for any purpose other than the continuation of such transportation to the location or temporary storage incidental thereto; provided, further, that the transportation of the radioactive material from the location shall be deemed to end when the radioactive material is removed from the transporting conveyance for any purpose other than the continuation of such transportation or temporary storage incidental thereto.

Dated at Germantown, Maryland, this 9th day of September 1958.

For the Atomic Energy Commission.

WILLI FARNER ET AL.

ORDER EXTENDING AS TO SOME RESPONDENTS TEMPORARY ORDER DENYING EXPORT PRIVILEGES

In the matter of Willi Farner also known as Willi Farner Moser, Grenchen, Switzerland, and Sagrera 44-58, Barcelona, Spain; Farner-Werke A. G., Grenchen, Switzerland; Alexander Botez, also known as A. B. Gamboa, and as Alexander Botez Gamboa, and as Allessandro Donici Botez, 11 Rue Emile Yung, and 22 Ave. Pierre Odier, Geneva, Switzerland; Respondents; File 23-530.

An order was issued on August 11, 1958, temporarily denying for a period of thirty days all United States export privileges to respondents Willi Farner also known as Willi Farner Moser, the firm Farner-Werke A. G., Alexander Botez also known as A. B. Gamboa and as Alexander Botez Gamboa and as Allessandro Donici Botez, and the firm S. A. De Transports Internationaux Tramarsa (23 F. R. 6279, Aug. 14, 1958). The respondents Willi Farner, Farner-Werke A. G., and Tramarsa have protested the issuance of said order and the Director, Investigation Staff, has applied for an order extending such denial to and including the completion of a proceeding now pending against the respondents for an order permanently revoking their export privileges by reason of alleged violations of the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended. The Compliance Commissioner has considered the material relied on in support of and in opposition to the order now in effect and the extension order being sought and has recommended that said order be extended, as respects all respondents other than Tramarsa, until and including the completion of the violation case now pending.

After careful consideration of the entire record herein and the recommendation of the Compliance Commissioner, and being of the opinion and finding that it is reasonably necessary to protect the public interest pending the final disposition of the proceeding now pending,

It is hereby ordered, That the order of August 11, 1958 (23 F. R. 6270, Aug. 14, 1958) be and the same hereby is extended until and including the entry of the order which shall determine finally the violation case now pending against the respondents herein, excepting however that this extension shall not apply to nor shall it be deemed to include among the respondents so denied export privileges the respondent S. A. De Transports Internationaux Tramarsa,

And it is further ordered, That except as so expressly amended and excepted, said order of August 11, 1958, be and continue in effect as respects all other respondents, to wit Willi Farner also known as Willi Farner Moser, the firm Farner-Werke A. G., Alexander Botez also known as A. B. Gamboa and as Alexander Botez Gamboa and as Allessandro Donici Botez, as though here set forth at length.

Dated: September 10, 1958.

JOHN C. BORTON,
Director, Office of Export Supply.

KWEW, INC.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re application of KWEW, Inc. (KWEW), Hobbs, New Mexico, Docket No. 12596, File No. BP-11322; for construction permit.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 10th day of September 1958;

The Commission having under consideration (1) the above-captioned application of KWEW, Inc., for a construction permit to increase the daytime power of Station KWEW, Hobbs, New Mexico, from 1 kilowatt to 5 kilowatts and to continue operation on the presently assigned frequency of 1480 kilocycles utilizing a directional antenna and a power of one kilowatt for nighttime operation, unlimited time; and (2) a Petition of Waiver of § 3.24 (b) (7) of the Commission's rules (Blanket Area Rule) filed simultaneously with the above-captioned application and requesting, in addition to a waiver of § 3.24 (b) (7) of the Rules, a grant of the application without hearing;

It appearing, that, except as indicated by the issues specified below, the applicant is legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified to operate Station KWEW as proposed but that the applicant estimates that the population residing within the proposed 1 v/m contour is approximately 3.45 percent of the population within the proposed 25 mv/m contour and that, therefore, the proposed operation of Station KWEW would not be in compliance with § 3.24 (b) (7) of the Commission's rules on "blanketing" which provides, in pertinent part, that the population within the 1 v/m contour shall not exceed 1.0 percent of the population within the 25 mv/m contour; that the applicant's population estimates are based on a house count of the dwellings within the 1000 mv/m contour and on a population survey conducted by the City of Hobbs in 1956 and estimates by the electric utility company and the city school system of the population within the City of Hobbs, all of which is encompassed within the proposed 25 mv/m contour; and

It further appearing, that, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the applicant was advised by letter dated May 21, 1958, that the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of the application would be in the public interest in view of the noncompliance with § 3.24 (b) (7) of the rules; and

It further appearing, that the applicant filed a reply dated June 27, 1958, to the Commission's letter setting forth additional data in support of the request for a waiver of § 3.24 (b) (7) of the rules and for a grant of the application without hearing; and

It further appearing, that the Commission is unable to make a determination in this matter on the basis of the data before it and is of the opinion that a hearing is necessary to obtain complete information as to whether grounds advanced by KWEW, Inc., are sufficient to constitute a valid basis for waiver of § 3.24 (b) (7) of the Commission's rules;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-captioned application is designated for hearing at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the operation of Station KWEW as proposed and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine whether the proposed operation of Station KWEW would be in compliance with § 3.24 (b) (7) of the Commission's rules; and if compliance with § 3.24 (b) (7) is not achieved, whether circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of said section of the rules.

3. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, whether a grant of the instant application would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity.

It is further ordered, That, to avail itself of the opportunity to be heard, the applicant, pursuant to § 1.140 of the Commission's rules, by attorney, or appropriate corporate officer, shall within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission, in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

Released: September 11, 1958.

JANE A. ROBERTS (KCFI)

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re application of Jane A. Roberts (KCFI), Cedar Falls, Iowa, Docket No. 12597, File No. BL-7011; for station license.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 10th day of September 1958;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned application of Jane A. Roberts for license to cover the construction permit for a new standard broadcast station at Cedar Falls, Iowa, to operate on 1250 kilocycles with a power of 500 watts, directional antenna, daytime only;

It appearing, that, except as indicated by the issues specified below, the applicant is legally, technically and financially qualified to operate Station KCFI as proposed but that Mass Communicators, Inc., of Richmond Heights, Missouri, filed a letter and affidavit on January 3, 1958, alleging, inter alia, that the signature of "Jane A. Roberts" appearing in the original application for Cedar Falls (BP-10787) is not her genuine signature; that the signatures of "Jane A. Roberts" in other applications with the Commission are not genuine; and

It further appearing, that, by letter of January 17, 1958, the applicant was advised of the aforementioned allegations; and

It further appearing, that, by a sworn statement of January 28, 1958, Mrs. Roberts replied to these allegations stating, in substance, that the signature appearing in the original application for Cedar Falls (BP-10787) is her true signature, made before a notary public; that to the best of her knowledge and belief all other notarized signatures submitted to the Commission by her are her true signatures; that it may be possible that at sometime in the past, as a matter of convenience, she has instructed her husband to sign her name on what she considered a simple and unimportant communication, but that she cannot recall any specific instance; that if such were done, it was as a matter of convenience and not with the intent to defraud or mislead the Commission; and

It further appearing, that, by letter dated July 16, 1958, the applicant was advised that upon consideration of the aforementioned allegations and her reply, the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of the license application would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing, that, by letter of July 23, 1958, applicant's counsel stated that she would participate in a hearing; and

It further appearing, that, section 319 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, requires that an application for a construction permit "shall be signed by the applicant under oath or affirmation," and that section 308 (b) of the Act requires that applications for station licenses, modifications or renewals thereof "shall be signed by the applicant and/or licensee under oath or affirmation"; and

It further appearing, that, questions obtain as to whether Mrs. Roberts fulfilled the statutory requirement of signing her individual applications under oath or affirmation and whether therefore Mrs. Roberts possesses the basic qualifications to be a broadcast licensee; and

It further appearing, that, in view of the foregoing, the Commission is of the opinion that a hearing on the instant application is necessary;

It is ordered, That, the above-captioned application is designated for hearing, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine whether the signature appearing in the original application (BP–10787) for Cedar Falls is the genuine signature of Jane A. Roberts, and whether the signature "Jane A. Roberts" appearing in other applications with the Commission is genuine.

2. To determine whether, in light of the evidence adduced under Issue No. 1, Jane A. Roberts, permittee of Station KCFI, possesses the basic qualifications to be a broadcast licensee;

3. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, whether a grant of the instant application would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity.

It is further ordered, That, the burden of proceeding with the introduction of evidence, and the burden of proof as to each of the issues shall be on the applicant; and

It is further ordered, That, to avail herself of the opportunity to be heard, the applicant herein, pursuant to § 1.140 of the Commission's rules, in person or by an attorney, shall within twenty (20) days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission, in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

Released: September 11, 1958.

Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 2 to Kinsey's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1.

Effective date: October 11, 1958 (effective date is the effective date proposed by Kinsey.)

In support of the proposed three-step periodic rate increase, Kinsey cites the contract provision therefor and states that without such provision he would not have committed the gas for the 20-year term of the contract. Kinsey also cites increases in producer costs and states that the schedule of periodic price increases tends to offset such increases and provide a relatively uniform net income over the term of the contract.

The increased rate and charge so proposed is intended to reflect (in whole or in part) the additional "excise, license, or privilege tax" of one cent per Mcf levied by the State of Louisiana pursuant to Act No. 8 of 1958 (House Bill No. 303), as approved on June 16, 1958, amending Title 47 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950. The Commission is advised that litigation is being instituted to challenge the constitutionality of the said Act No. 8 of 1958. In consideration of this fact, and in order to assure appropriate refund in the event said Act No. 8 of 1958 should be declared unconstitutional or otherwise held invalid by final judicial decision, it is deemed advisable to suspend the said proposed increased rate and charge.

This suspension, however, is based solely on the possibility of the additional tax being invalidated and that only such tax reimbursement shall be made effective subject to refund.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Naural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that Supplement No. 2 to Kinsey's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1 be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge contained in Supplement No. 2 to Kinsey's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplement be and it is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until October 12, 1958, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplement hereby suspended nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

By the Commission.

[1] Supplement No. 1 to Kinsey's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1, (Louisiana gathering tax increase), was suspended for 1 day until August 2, 1958, in Docket No. G–15742, and is now in effect subject to refund.

[Docket No. G–14872]

NATURAL GAS STORAGE COMPANY OF ILLINOIS

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

SEPTEMBER 10, 1958.

Take notice that Natural Gas Storage Company of Illinois (Applicant), an Illinois corporation, having its principal place of business at 122 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, filed on April 14, 1958, an application, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing it to construct and operate certain natural gas facilities as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application, which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Applicant owns and operates an aquifer-type underground storage reservoir near Herscher, Kankakee County, Illinois, which has an authorized maximum daily withdrawal rate of 430,000 Mcf. Applicant also owns and operates as a supplement to said Herscher storage field, a gas field known as Cooks Mills in Coles and Douglas Counties, Illinois. Applicant transports and stores natural gas in the Herscher and Cooks Mills storage fields for the account of customers of Natural Gas Pipe Line Company of America (Natural) and Texas Illinois Gas Pipeline Company (Texas Illinois). Applicant alleges that the natural gas delivered to it for storage is received from Texas Illinois at points of interconnection of facilities of Applicant and Texas Illinois in Kankakee and Coles Counties, Illinois, and is transported thence to the storage fields of Herscher and Cooks Mills, respectively, where said gas is injected into the storage reservoirs. Upon request of the customer owning gas so stored, Applicant withdraws the quantity of gas so requested and redelivers it to Texas Illinois.

Applicant alleges that it has gathered information through geological surveys and tests which predicts a second formation some 600 feet below the Galesville sand (Herscher storage), referred to as Mount Simon, which is adaptable for use as a gas storage reservoir. Applicant proposes to construct and operate the following described facilities for the purpose of injecting natural gas into said formation to ascertain and evaluate more precisely the characteristics of said formation as a storage reservoir:

(a) Twelve injection-withdrawal wells and appurtenances thereto;

(b) A gathering system consisting of:

0.02 mile of 4-inch pipeline,
0.41 mile of 8-inch pipeline, and
1.99 miles of 12-inch pipeline;

(c) One 1330-B. H. P. compressor plant for injection and withdrawal of gas;

(d) Three observation wells; and

(e) Cushion gas now estimated to be approximately three billion cubic feet.

Applicant plans to inject during 1958 about five billion cubic feet of natural gas, of which it estimates three billion cubic feet will be required as cushion gas. The maximum storage capacity is estimated to be 70,000,000 Mcf, of which 30,000,000 Mcf is to be top storage gas.

The total estimated cost of said facilities is $2,560,133, including the sum of $557,553 as the cost of existing facilities, which Applicant proposes to finance by the sale of common stock and from funds on hand.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as soon as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisidiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on October 14, 1958, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before October 2, 1958. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as a waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

[1] Application covers a proposed sale of natural gas pursuant to an amendatory agreement dated July 11, 1955, which adds additional acreage (5 tracts) to a basic contract dated November 2, 1954. Applicant received authorization in Docket No. G–7358 covering the sale of gas under said basic contract. Production from three tracts is limited to depth of 3,000 feet below surface.

[2] Southern Union Gas Company, nonoperator, is filing for its working interests in four wells dedicated under three amendatory agreements which add additional acreages to two separate basic gas sales contracts; for which authorization was granted in Docket No. G–4612.

[3] Southern Union Gathering Company is filing for authorization to sell to El Paso 50 percent of production from the Colorado Western-Government-Owen No. 1–7 Well, which gas is purchased from Colorado Western Exploration, Inc. Applicant proposes to sell the subject gas pursuant to an amendatory agreement dated January 2, 1958, which adds additional gas supply from a new formation to a basic gas sales contract dated September 1, 1953, as amended. Amendment filed June 10, 1958, is a request to amend application to show subject well as producing from the Mesaverde formation rather than the Pictured Cliffs formation.

[4] Colorado Western Exploration, Inc., Operator, is filing for itself and on behalf of the following nonoperating owners of working interests in four wells: El Paso (Purchaser) owns the remaining 37.36 percent interest in the Government-Hancock No. 1 Well. Production from above-named wells is proposed to be sold pursuant to three amendatory agreements dated March 5, 1957 (Government-Hancock No. 1 Well), April 15, 1957 (Jaquez No. 1 Well), and November 27, 1957 (Montoya and Tafoya No. 1 Wells), which cancels an amendatory agreement dated May 10, 1957. The above-mentioned amendatory agreements add additional acreages to a basic contract dated October 29, 1956. Colorado Western, Operator, received authorization in Docket No. G–11896 covering the sale of gas under said basic contract. Applicant is the only signatory seller party to the basic contract and the subject amendatory agreements.

[5] Phillips Petroleum Company is filing for its working interest in 160 acres, production from which is proposed to be sold pursuant to an amendatory agreement dated March 5, 1958, which adds additional acreage to a basic contract dated August 16, 1954, as amended. Phillips received authorization in Docket No. G–4178 covering the sale of gas under said basic contract.

[6] Application covers a proposed sale of natural gas pursuant to an amendatory agreement dated November 1, 1957, which adds additional acreage to a basic contract dated August 15, 1949, as amended. Applicant received authorization in Docket No. G–6272 covering the sale of gas under said basic contract.

[1] Charles F. Buckwalter, nonoperator, is filing for its 1.312 percent interest (1.5 mineral acres) in the Gulf Refining Co., et al., Southern Minerals Corp., et al., Units D & DA, production from which is proposed to be sold pursuant to an amendatory agreement dated October 15, 1957, which adds additional producing horizons to the basic contract dated April 14, 1955. Applicant received authorization in Docket No. G-13688 covering the sale of gas under said basic contract.

J. I. ROBERTS

ORDER FOR HEARING AND SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

SEPTEMBER 10, 1958.

J. I. Roberts (Roberts) on August 18, 1958, tendered for filing a proposed change in his presently effective rate schedule [1] for the sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate and charge, is contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notice of Change, undated.
Purchaser: Mississippi River Fuel Corporation.
Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 6 to Roberts' FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1.
Effective Date: October 1, 1958 (effective date is the effective date proposed by Roberts).

In support of the proposed periodic rate increase, Roberts merely cites the pertinent pricing provision of the contract.

The increased rate and charge so proposed is intended to reflect (in whole or in part) the additional excise, license, or privilege tax" of one cent per Mcf levied by the State of Louisiana pursuant to Act No. 8 of 1958 (House Bill No. 303), as approved on June 16, 1958, amending Title 47 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950. The Commission is advised that litigation is being instituted to challenge the constitutionality of the said Act No. 8 of 1958. In consideration of this fact, and in order to assure appropriate refund in the event said Act No. 8 of 1958 should be declared unconstitutional or otherwise held invalid by final judicial decision, it is deemed advisable to suspend the said proposed increased rate and charge.

This suspension, however, is based solely on the possibility of the additional tax being invalidated and that only such tax reimbursement shall be made effective subject to refund.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that Supplement No. 6 to Roberts' FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1 be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge contained in Supplement No. 6 to Roberts' FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplement be and it is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until October 2, 1958, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplement hereby suspended nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

J. I. ROBERTS

ORDER FOR HEARING AND SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

SEPTEMBER 10, 1958.

J. I. Roberts (Roberts) on August 18, 1958, tendered for filing a proposed change in his presently effective rate schedule [1] for the sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate and charge, is contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notice of Change, undated.
Purchaser: Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company.
Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 4 to Roberts' FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 2.
Effective date: October 1, 1958 (effective date is the effective date proposed by Roberts).

In support of the proposed periodic rate increase, Roberts merely cites the pertinent pricing provision of the contract.

The increased rate and charge so proposed is intended to reflect (in whole or in part) the additional "excise, license, or privilege tax" of one cent per Mcf levied by the State of Louisiana pursuant to Act No. 8 of 1958 (House Bill No. 303), as approved on June 16, 1958, amending Title 47 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950. The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that Supplement No. 4 to Roberts' FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 2 be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge contained in Suplement No. 4 to Roberts' FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 2.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplement be and it is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until October 2, 1958, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplement hereby suspended nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

ROBERTS AND MURPHY

ORDER FOR HEARING AND SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

SEPTEMBER 10, 1958.

J. I. Roberts and C. H. Murphy, Jr., d/b/a Roberts and Murphy, (Roberts and Murphy), on August 18, 1958, tendered for filing a proposed change in their presently effective rate schedule [1] for the sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate and charge, is contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notice of Change, undated.
Purchaser: Mississippi River Fuel Corporation.
Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 6 to Roberts and Murphy's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 3.
Effective date: October 1, 1958 (effective date is the effective date proposed by Roberts and Murphy).

In support of the proposed periodic rate increase, Roberts and Murphy merely cite the pertinent pricing provisions of the contract.

The increased rate and charge so proposed is intended to reflect (in whole or in part) the additional "excise, license, or privilege tax" of one cent per Mcf levied by the State of Louisiana pursuant to Act No. 8 of 1958 (House Bill No. 303), as approved on June 16, 1958, amending Title 47 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950. The Commission is advised that litigation is being instituted to challenge the constitutionality of the said Act No. 8 of 1958. The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge contained in Supplement No. 6 to Roberts and Murphy's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 3

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplement be and it is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until October 2, 1958, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

[1] Supplement No. 5 to Roberts and Murphy's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 3 (Louisiana gathering tax increase), was suspended for 1 day until August 2, 1958, in Docket No. G-15937, and is now in effect subject to refund.

(C) Neither the supplement hereby suspended nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

[Docket No. G-14371]

PANHANDLE EASTERN PIPE LINE CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

SEPTEMBER 2, 1958.

Take notice that Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation, having its principal offices at 1221 Baltimore Avenue, Kansas City, Missouri, and 120 Broadway, New York, New York, filed on January 31, 1958 an application and on April 22, 1958 and May 27, 1958 supplements thereto, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the acquisition and operation of certain natural gas transmission facilities, as hereinafter described, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Panhandle proposes to acquire by purchase from the Town of Lapel, Indiana (Town) 4.9 miles of natural gas pipeline and other appurtenant facilities, more particularly described as follows: Twenty-six thousand three hundred thirty-four feet, more or less, of steel pipeline 4½ inches in outside diameter running from the connection of said line with the Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company's Anderson 18-inch Lateral to the point downstream of the measuring and regulating devices housed in the town border station of the Town of Lapel where the gas enters the distribution system of the Town of Lapel, Indiana; such portion of the farm tap connection service lines which are located along and connected to said 4½ inch steel pipeline as may be owned by the Town or the Municipal Gas Company thereof; all meters, regulators, valves and other equipment and fixtures attached and appurtenant to said line and to the farm tap service lines, including the building housing the town border station and all measuring and regulating devices therein contained; all land owned by the Town or the Municipal Gas Company thereof which is a part of the tract on which the town border station stands; and any and all rights-of-way, easements, permits, licenses and agreements under or pursuant to which the Town has constructed and now maintains said line and appurtant property.

Applicant alleges that the facilities proposed to be acquired comprise all of the gas transportation facilities owned by the Town, but do not include the lines and other facilities which the Town owns and uses for the distribution of gas at low pressures to the public in the Town of Lapel.

The consideration proposed to be paid for the said facilities is $15,814.78 from funds on hand.

Applicant alleges that it delivers gas through the pipeline and facilities proposed to be purchased to the Town of Lapel for resale to the public and to Brockway Glass Company (Brockway), a direct industrial customer. There are also approximately twenty farm service tap customers served from said pipeline, which Applicant will continue to serve.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations, and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on October 14, 1958, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street, NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before October 1, 1958. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing will be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waive of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

[SEAL] JOSEPH H. GUTRIDE, Secretary.

[1] The Atlantic Refining Company, nonoperator, will sell its gas pursuant to a ratification agreement dated July 26, 1957 of a basic contract dated November 23, 1956, between Southwest Gas Producing Company, Inc., et al., sellers, and Texas Gas Transmission Corporation, buyer. Both Atlantic and Texas Gas are signatory parties to said ratification agreement, which agreement adds Atlantic's interest in certain leases to the basic contract. Southwest Gas, Operator, et al., were authorized in Docket No. G–11745 for the sale of gas under the basic contract.

[2] Northern Pump Company, Operator, is filing for itself and on behalf of following nonoperators: John B. Hawley, Jr., J. B. Moore and E. J. Carlson. All are signatory seller parties to the gas sales contract dated August 27, 1957.

[3] Magnolia Petroleum Company is filing for its 50 percent interest in the A. A. Seeligson and Seeligson No. 2 Units and is the only signatory seller party to gas sales contract dated February 15, 1957, which contract limits production to the Singer Sand and provides that Magnolia receive 75 percent of any price increase received by Coastal States from resale of the subject gas to Trunkline Gas Company.

[4] R. P. Karll, Operator, is filing for himself and on behalf of the following nonoperators: Doris Day Melcher, Martin Melcher and Jerome B. Rosenthal. All above-named coowners are signatory seller parties to the gas sales contract dated August 7, 1957. Operator will receive none of the revenues to be derived from the sale of the subject gas until the costs of lease acquisition and well development have been paid out, at which time 50 percent net working interest reverts to Operator.

[5] H. L. Hawkins, H. L. Hawkins, Jr., and Frank S. Kelly, Jr., are filing jointly for their working interests in the H. L. Hawkins-Atkinson No. 1 Well and all are signatory seller parties to gas sales contract dated September 3, 1957, which limits production to horizons between surface and base of the Hayes Sand.

[6] Production is limited to one well drilled to and through the Big Lime Formation.

[7] Application covers proposed sale of natural gas pursuant to amendatory agreement dated August 30, 1957, which adds additional acreage to basic contract dated February 11, 1957. Applicant was authorized in Docket No. G–12133 for sale of gas under the basic contract.

[8] J. M. Huber Corporation is filing for its working interest in the subject acreages and is the only signatory seller party to gas sales contract dated August 8, 1957, which limits production to horizons between sea level and top of the Mississippian Formation. Amendment filed February 24, 1958 is request to include in certificate application amendatory agreement dated January 3, 1958, which dedicates additional acreage at a depth from top of Mississippian Formation to 100 feet below top of said formation to the basic contract.

[9] Production is limited to formations above the St. Louis Group of the Mississippian Age.

[10] Application covers proposed sale of natural gas under an amendatory agreement dated September 10, 1957, which adds additional acreage to a basic gas sales contract dated October 7, 1955. Applicant received authorization in Docket No. G–0488 sale of gas under the basic contract.

[Docket No. G–16177]

TEXAS GULF PRODUCING CO.

ORDER FOR HEARING AND SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATE

SEPTEMBER 10, 1958.

Texas Gulf Producing Company (Texas Gulf) on August 11, 1958, tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently filed rate schedule for the sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate and charge, is contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notice of Change, August 7, 1958.

Purchaser: Trunkline Gas Company.

Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 9 to Texas Gulf's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 3.

Effective date: September 11, 1958 (effective date is the first day after expiration of required thirty days' notice).

In support of the favored-nation increase Texas Gulf cites the contractual covenants included in the rate schedule and submits a letter dated March 12, 1958 from Trunkline Gas Company advising Texas Gulf that Trunkline had executed a new contract to purchase gas in Bee County, Texas, at a similar price and began taking deliveries thereunder on March 7, 1958. Texas Gulf prays for but has not shown good cause for a shortened suspension period.

The increased rate and charge proposed has not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that Supplement No. 9 to Texas Gulf's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 3 be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge contained in Supplement No. 9 to Texas Gulf's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 3.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplement be and it is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until February 11, 1959, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplement hereby suspended, nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

By the Commission.

[Docket No. G-16180]

CHRISTIE, MITCHELL AND MITCHELL CO. ET AL.

ORDER FOR HEARING AND SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGES IN RATES

SEPTEMBER 10, 1958.

Christie, Mitchell and Mitchell Company, et al., (Christie) on August 18, 1958, tendered for filing proposed changes in its presently effective rate schedule [1] for the sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed changes, which constitute increased rates and charges, are contained in the following designated filings:

Description: (1) Notice of Change, dated August 12, 1958. (2) Notice of Change, dated August 14, 1958.

Purchaser: Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation.

Rate schedule designation: (1) Supplement No. 18 to Christie's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 9. (2) Supplement No. 19 to Christie's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 9.

Effective date: September 18, 1958 (effective date is the first day after expiration of the required thirty days' notice).

In support of the proposed favored-nation rate increases, Christie cites the contract favored-nation provisions and submits copies of Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation's favored-nation letter (accepted by Christie on August 15, 1957) specifying the increased price. Christie also states that without such protective provisions against discrimination it would not have executed the contract, the increased price is just and reasonable in all respects and will afford only a fair return upon investment.

The increased rates and charges so proposed have not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed changes, and that Supplement Nos. 18 and 19 to Christie's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 9 be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

[1] Present rate previously suspended and is in effect subject to refund in Docket No. G-13062.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rates and charges contained in Supplement Nos. 18 and 19 to Christie's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 9.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplements be and they are each hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until February 18, 1959, and until such further time as they are made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplements hereby suspended, nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the periods of suspension have expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

[Docket No. G-13177]

OIL PARTICIPATIONS INCORPORATED

ORDER REDESIGNATING RATE SCHEDULE AND TERMINATING PROCEEDING IN PART

SEPTEMBER 5, 1958.

Oil Participations Incorporated (Applicant), on July 21, 1958, filed with the Commission a motion requesting that its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 4 be redesignated as Oil Participations Incorporated Rate Schedule No. 8 but only insofar as such rate schedule relates to Applicant's interest in the Benoit leases, Thornwell Field, Jefferson Davis and Cameron Parishes, Louisiana.[1]

Applicant's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 4 consists of a contract dated February 8, 1956, entered into by Pan American Petroleum Corporation (Pan-Am) and Applicant with United Fuel Gas Company (United Fuel) for the sale to the latter company of natural gas produced from various leases in the Thornwell Field. The sale is made by Pan-Am and Applicant under certificates of public convenience and necessity issued October 16, 1956, in Docket Nos. G-10022 and G-10027, respectively. Initally, both Pan-Am and Applicant tendered the February 8, 1956, contract for filing and the filings were designated in the records of the Commission as Pan-Am's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 190 and Applicant's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 4.

Originally, Pan-Am and Applicant each had a 50 percent interest in producing leases in the Thornwell Field. Pan-Am was the operator of the properties; Applicant, the non-operator. Each rate schedule provided an initial price of 17.4 cents per Mcf (inclusive of tax reimbursement). Subsequently, Pan-Am tendered proposed rate changes increasing the proposed rate to 17.8 cents per Mcf, effective April 15, 1957, subject to refund, in Docket No. G-11446, and later to 18.2 cents per Mcf, effective April 1, 1958, subject to refund, in Docket No. G-13442. In its tenders, Pan-Am indicated that the first increase applied only to its 50 percent interest; but that the second increase was filed to cover its interest as well as the non-operator, in accordance with the Commission's Order No. 190, issued September 27, 1957 (18 CFR 154.91; 21 F. R. 7616). Applicant, on July 31, 1957, tendered a proposed rate change increasing the rate from 17.4 cents to 17.8 cents per Mcf relating to its 50 percent interest. Such rate change was suspended in the instant proceeding until January 31, 1958, when it became effective subject to refund.[2]

In support of its motion, Applicant states that late in 1957 a dispute arose between it and the operator with respect to conducting certain operations in connection with the Benoit No. 1 well in the so-called Benoit leases in the field. As a result of the dispute, Pan-Am assigned to Applicant its one-half interest in that portion of the Benoit leases containing the Benoit No. 1 well; hence, Applicant is the 100 percent owner and operator of such leases, and it requests us to redesignate its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 4 as its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 8 insofar as it relates to such leases.

Previously, by letter dated August 27, 1958, Applicant was advised that its interest as non-operator in the Thornwell Field was deemed to be covered by the filings of Pan-Am from and after May 20, 1958, and that it was permitted to withdraw the filings in Docket No. G-13177 insofar as they did not apply to the Benoit leases. Accordingly, this proceeding now is solely concerned with the lawfulness of the 17.8¢ rate for the sale to United Fuel of natural gas produced from the Benoit leases. The 17.8¢ rate for such sale is currently effective and has been since January 31, 1958, subject to refund, pursuant to the terms and conditions of the order issued herein May 2, 1958.

The Commission finds:

(1) Good cause exists and has been shown for the Commission to redesignate Applicant's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 4 as Applicant's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 8 but only insofar as it relates to the sale to United Fuel of natural gas pro-

[1] Concurrently therewith, Applicant tendered a proposed change in rate to reflect reimbursement for a portion of the additional Louisiana Gas Gathering Tax. Such proposed change is the subject of inquiry In Oil Participations Incorporated, Docket No. G-16024, order issued August 20, 1958.

[2] A further tender by Applicant purporting to increase the rate of 17.8 cents per Mcf to 18.2 cents per Mcf was rejected by the Commission by letter dated November 8, 1957.

duced by Applicant from the Benoit leases in the Thornwell Field.

(2) This proceeding should be terminated to the extent that it relates to Applicant's sale to United Fuel of natural gas produced from acreage in the Thornwell Field exclusive of the Benoit leases.

The Commission orders:

(A) Applicant's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 4 is hereby redesignated FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 8 but only insofar as it relates to its interest in the Benoit leases, Thornwell Field, Jefferson Davis and Cameron Parishes, Louisiana.

(B) This proceeding is terminated insofar and to the extent that it relates to Applicant's interest in acreage in the Thornwell Field, exclusive of the Benoit leases; in all other respects, all orders heretofore issued in this proceeding shall remain in full force and effect with respect to the sale to United Fuel of natural gas produced from the Benoit leases.

By the Commission.

[Docket No. G-2975 etc.]

SUNRAY MID-CONTINENT OIL CO.

ORDER SEVERING DOCKETS FROM CONSOLIDATED PROCEEDINGS AND REOPENING PROCEEDINGS IN DOCKETS SEVERED FOR ADMISSION OF ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE

SEPTEMBER 10, 1958.

In the matter of Sunray Mid-Continent Oil Company, Docket No. G-2975, et al., particularly G-4916, G-12846 and G-13163.

On June 23, 1958, Sunray Mid-Continent Oil Company (Sunray) filed a motion to reopen the proceedings in Docket Nos. G-2975, et al., for the limited purpose of introducing additional evidence in the form of affidavits concerning three of the independent producer applications consolidated with a number of other applications. The examiner in this case issued his decision on June 27, 1958, granting certificates in these three dockets, among others.

The three applications with which Sunray is concerned in the present motion are Docket Nos. G-4916, G-12846 and G-13163. Sunray states in its motion that since the close of the hearing, facts and circumstances have developed concerning the above three dockets which make necessary disposition in manner other than that proposed by the examiner.

Docket No. G-4916: In this docket Sunray has found that the gas being sold under its contract with Northern Natural Gas Company is being delivered by Northern, to Cabot Carbon Company for use in that company's carbon black plant near Pampa, Texas. Delivery of the gas to Cabot is being made from Sunray's producing property in Texas to Cabot, does not cross any state line, and is consumed in the state. Sunray states it was not aware of this until early in April 1958.

The contract for sale of the gas to Northern Natural expires on July 1, 1958 by notice given by Applicant and accepted by purchaser. Sunray points out that the pressure of the producing well is declining at a rapid rate and therefore the gas will have to be compressed by Northern in the near future to continue deliveries to Cabot, although such deliveries will then be made from a different location on Northern's gathering system. Sunray states that the application at this docket is erroneously filed since the sale of gas is nonjurisdictional. The above facts are all attested to by affidavit of C. F. McCarrol, Sunray's only witness in the consolidated proceeding.

Docket No. G-12846: In this docket gas produced from the Shoats Creek Field property of Sunray, in Beauregard Parish, Louisiana, and sold to United Gas Pipe Line Company has been ordered by the Commissioner of Conservation of Louisiana to be recycled in accordance with a recycling and pressure maintenance program instituted in that field. The order of the Commissioner dated April 30, 1958 will prevent the delivery of gas by Sunray from this property for an estimated period of 10 years. The sales contract has been terminated, because of these circumstances, by mutual agreement between Sunray and United. This information has been attested to by Mr. C. F. McCarrol, by affidavit, and true copies of the order of the Louisiana Commissioner are attached to the instant motion.

Docket No. G-13163: In this docket gas was to be sold by Sunray from its property in the Carlton Area in Ouachita Parish, Louisiana to Southern Natural Gas Company. However, Sunray and Southern have been unable to effect a delivery of the gas from properties now capable of producing since the only well currently completed on the property unit, known as the "Wininger" well has ceased to produce. Efforts to successfully restore commercial production from this well have failed. Further efforts to restore this well have been deemed inadvisable and uneconomic.

Another well located on the south half of the property known as the "Brooks" well is producing but Sunray, although the operator, owns only 41.2 percent and the other owners of this unit have agreed to sell to another purchaser than Southern. Sunray states that it is not economically feasible to construct a line the required 2½ miles to pick up the small amount of Sunray gas from the Brooks well. Southern has also indicated to Sunray that it has not been able to effect an exchange agreement with the purchaser of the gas from the other interests in the Brooks well and extension of a lateral by Southern to pick up the Sunray gas is unwarranted due to insufficient gas in the area. Sunray and Southern, on April 22, 1958, by mutual agreement, terminated the contract involved in this docket. Southern has further advised Sunray that similar agreements to terminate will be entered into with other sellers to Southern in this area in order that Southern may be relieved of its obligations to receive uneconomical quantities of gas.

The above information has been attested to by Mr. C. F. McCarrol by affidavit attached to the present motion by Sunray.

No protests, petitions to intervene, or notices of intervention were filed in Docket Nos. G-4916, G-12846 or G-13163. Staff counsel has made no objection to re-opening the proceedings in these three dockets for the limited purpose of receiving additional evidence relative to the issues in Sunray's motion.

The Commission finds:

(1) The Motion to Reopen Hearing to Admit Additional Evidence filed in Docket No. G-2975, et al., by Sunray-Mid Continent Oil Company on June 23, 1958, should be granted as hereinafter ordered and conditioned.

(2) The evidence Sunray seeks to introduce involves facts and circumstances which may require disposition by the Presiding Examiner of Docket Nos. G-4916, G-12846, and G-13163 in a manner otherwise than that accomplished by his initial decision issued June 27, 1958.

(3) Since the evidence Sunray seeks to introduce involves only Docket Nos. G-4916, G-12846 and G-13163 and can have no effect on any of the other dockets in the consolidated proceedings, orderly and proper procedure requires that said dockets be severed from the consolidated proceedings entitled G-2975, et al., as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Docket Nos. G-4916, G-12846 and G-13163 be and hereby are severed from the consolidated proceedings in Docket No. G-2975, et al.

(B) Docket Nos. G-4916, G-12846 and G-13163 be and are hereby referred to the presiding examiner for further action not inconsistent with the provisions of this order.

(C) The proceedings in Docket No. G-4916, G-12846 and G-13163 be reopened for the express and limited purpose of receiving additional evidence relating to the issues presented in Sunray's "Motion to Reopen" as filed June 23, 1958.

By the Commission.

301.58–14; 301.60 (d); 319.8–1 (n); 319.19 (e); 319.28; 319.37 (c), 319.37–1 (m), 319.37–28; 319.56, 319.56–8; 319.59–1 (j); 319.69; 319.74, and 319.74–7 are amended by inserting after the word "Alaska," wherever it occurs therein, the word "Guam," and the first sentence in § 301.13–13 (b) is amended by inserting after the word "Guam," the words "Puerto Rico,".

2. Section 301.13 (b) is amended by deleting the proviso therein and substituting therefor the following: "Provided, That whenever the Director of the Plant Quarantine Division shall find that existing conditions as to pest risk involved in the movement of the articles to which the regulations supplemental hereto apply, make it safe to modify, by making less stringent, the restrictions contained in any of such regulations, he shall publish such findings in administrative instructions, specifying the manner in which the regulations shall be made less stringent, whereupon such modification shall become effective; or he may, when the public interests will permit, with respect to the movement of such articles to Guam, upon request in specific cases and notification to the person making the request, authorize their certification under conditions, specified in the certificate to carry out the purposes of this subpart, that are less stringent than those contained in the regulations."

3. Sections 301.45, 301.48, 301.52, 301.64, 301.72, 301.76, 301.77, 301.78, 301.79, 301.80, and 301.81 are amended by adding at the end of each such section a new paragraph to read:

As used in this subpart, unless the context otherwise requires, the term "State, Territory, or District of the United States" means State, the District of Columbia, Alaska, Guam, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States.

4. Section 301.47 is amended by adding at the end thereof a new paragraph (d) to read:

(d) As used in this subpart, unless the context otherwise requires, the term "State, Territory, or District of the United States" means State, the District of Columbia, Alaska, Guam, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States.

5. Section 301.47–1 (m) is amended by deleting the phrase "Territory, State, or District" and substituting therefor the phrase "State, Territory, or District" and § 301.47–3 (a) and (c) are amended by deleting the phrase "Territory, District, or Insular Possession" and substituting therefor the phrase "Territory or District."

6. Section 301.48 is amended by deleting the phrase "State or Territory or District" and substituting therefor the phrase "State, Territory, or District."

7. The subpart heading preceding § 301.60 is amended to read "Sand, Soil, or Earth, with Plants from Territories and Districts" and §§ 301.52–1 (q), 301.64–1 (g), 301.79–1 (f), 301.80–1 (f), and 301.81–1 (h) are amended by deleting therefrom the phrase "(including possessions and the District of Columbia)."

8. Sections 319.12 and 319.34 are amended by adding the phrase "into the United States" after the word "importation" each time the latter appears therein and §§ 319.12, 319.15, 319.24, 319.34, 319.41, and 319.55 are amended by adding thereto, in each case, a new paragraph to read as follows:

As used in this subpart, unless the context otherwise requires, the term "United States" means the States, the District of Columbia, Alaska, Guam, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands of the United States.

9. Sections 319.8 (a) and 319.59 (a) are amended by deleting the provisos therein, and § 319.37 (a) is amended by deleting the first proviso therein, and substituting therefor, in each case, the following: "Provided, That whenever the Director of the Plant Quarantine Division shall find that existing conditions as to pest risk involved in the importation of the articles to which the regulations supplemntal hereto apply, make it safe to modify, by making less stringent, the restrictions contained in any of such regulations, he shall publish such findings in administrative instructions, specifying the manner in which the regulations shall be made less stringent, whereupon such modification shall become effective; or he may, when the public interests will permit, with respect to the importation of such articles into Guam, upon request in specific cases, authorize such importation under conditions specified in the permit to carry out the purposes of this subpart, that are less stringent than those contained in the regulations."

10. Sections 319.8–2 (b) is amended by inserting the word "Guam" before "Hawaii" in footnote 3.

11. Section 319.8–2 is amended by adding thereto a new paragraph (h) to read as follows:

(h) Pending development of adequate treating facilities in Guam, any cotton or covers that are subject to treatment as a condition of entry therein must first be entered and treated in accordance with the requirements of this subpart at a United States port of arrival where such treating facilities are available.

12. Section 319.8–4 is amended to read as follows:

§ 319.8–4 Notice of arrival. Immediately upon arrival at a port of entry of any shipment of cotton or covers the importer shall submit in duplicate, through the United States Collector of Customs, or, in the case of Guam, through the Customs officer of the Government of Guam, and for the Plant Quarantine Division, a notice of such arrival, on a form provided for that purpose (Form PQ–368) and shall give such information as is called for by that form.

13. Section 319.24 is amended by adding to the second paragraph thereof, and §§ 319.41 and 319.56 are amended by adding to the third paragraphs thereof, in each case, the following: "Provided, That whenever the Director of the Plant Quarantine Division shall find that existing conditions as to pest risk involved in the importation of the articles to which the regulations supplemental hereto apply, make it safe to modify, by making less stringent, the restrictions contained in any of such regulations, he shall publish such findings in administrative instructions, specifying the manner in which the regulations shall be made less stringent, whereupon such modification shall become effective; or he may, when the public interests will permit, with respect to the importation of such articles into Guam, upon request in specific cases, authorize such importation under conditions specified in the permit to carry out the purposes of this subpart, that are less stringent than those contained in the regulations."

14. The first paragraph of § 319.24–2 and §§ 319.24–4 and 319.24–5 are amended to read, respectively, as follows:

§ 319.24–2 Issuance of permits. Upon receipt of an application and upon approval by an inspector a permit will be issued specifying the conditions of entry and the port of entry to carry out the purposes of this subpart, and a copy will be supplied to the importer.

§ 319.24–4 Notice of arrival of corn by permittee. Immediately upon the arrival of the corn at the port of entry the permittee shall submit, in duplicate, notice to the Plant Quarantine Division, through the United States Collector of Customs, or, in the case of Guam, through the Customs officer of the Government of Guam, on forms provided for that purpose, stating the number of the permit, the number of bags or other containers of corn included in the shipment, the bag or other container numbers or marks, the country and locality where the corn was grown, the name and address of the exporter or foreign shipper, the port of departure, the date of arrival, the name of the ship or vessel, and the designation of the dock where the corn is to be landed.

§ 319.24–5 Condition of entry. The corn shall not be removed from the port of entry, nor shall any bag or other container thereof be broken or opened, except for the purpose of sterilization, until a written notice is given to the United States Collector of Customs, or, in the case of Guam, the Customs officer of the Government of Guam, by an inspector of the Plant Quarantine Division, that the corn has been properly sterilized and released for entry without further restrictions so far as the jurisdiction of the Department of Agriculture extends thereto. All apparatus and methods for accomplishing such sterilization must be satisfactory to the Plant Quarantine Division. Corn will be delivered to the permittee for sterilization, upon the filing with the appropriate customs official of a bond in the amount of $5,000, or in an amount equal to the invoice value of the corn if such value is less than $5,000, with approved sureties, and conditioned upon sterilization of the corn under the supervision and to the satisfaction of an inspector of the Plant Quarantine Division; and upon the redelivery of the corn to said customs official within 40 days from the arrival of the corn at the port of entry.

15. The second paragraph of § 319.28 is amended by adding thereto the following sentence: "Further, this prohibition shall not apply to importations into Guam of the fruits and peel designated in paragraph (a) of this section but such importations are subject to permit and other requirements under the Fruits and Vegetables Quarantine (§ 319.56)."

16. Section 319.37–11 is amended to read as follows:

§ 319.37–11 Notice of arrival. Immediately upon arrival at a port of entry of any shipment of restricted plant material the importer shall submit, in duplicate, through the United States Collector of Customs, or in the case of Guam, through the Customs officer of the Government of Guam, and for the Plant Quarantine Division, a notice of such arrival on forms provided for that purpose (Form PQ–368) and shall give such information as is called for by that form; and he shall also submit with the notice an invoice or packing list which identifies the contents of the shipment.

17. Section 319.37–21 is amended by adding thereto another paragraph to read as follows:

Pending development of adequate treating facilities in Guam, restricted plant material that is subject to treatment as a condition of entry therein must first be entered and treated in accordance with the requirements of this subpart at a United States port of arrival where such treating facilities are available.

18. Section 319.41–3 is amended by adding thereto another paragraph to read as follows:

Pending development of adequate treating facilities in Guam, any of the articles specified in § 319.41–1 that are subject to treatment as a condition of entry therein must first be entered and treated in accordance with the requirements of this subpart at a United States port of arrival where such treating facilities are available.

19. Section 319.41–4 and the second paragraph of § 319.41–5 are amended to read, respectively, as follows:

§ 319.41–4 Notice of arrival by permittee. Immediately upon arrival of the importation at the port of arrival the permittee shall submit, in duplicate, notice to the Plant Quarantine Division, through the United States Collector of Customs, or, in the case of Guam, through the Customs officer of the Government of Guam, on forms provided for that purpose, stating the number of the permit, the date of entry, the name of ship or vessel, railroad, or other carrier, the country and locality where the articles were grown, the name of the foreign shipper, the quantity or number of bales or containers, and the marks and numbers on the bales or containers, the port of arrival, and the name of the importer or broker at the port of arrival.

§ 319.41–5 Conditions of entry. • • • When entry under sterilization or other treatment is permitted, the importation will be released to the permittee for such treatment, upon the filing with the appropriate customs official of a bond in the amount of $5,000, or in an amount equal to the invoice value, if such value be less than $5,000, with approved sureties, and conditioned that the importation shall be sterilized or otherwise treated under the supervision of the inspector; that no bale or container shall be broken, opened, or removed from the port of arrival unless and until a written notice is given to said customs official by an inspector that the importation has been properly sterilized or treated; and that the importation shall be redelivered to said customs official within 30 days after its arrival.

20. Section 319.55–3 is amended by inserting between the second and third paragraphs thereof another paragraph to read as follows:

Pending development of adequate treating facilities in Guam, seed or paddy rice, rice straw, and rice hulls that are subject to treatment as a condition of entry therein must first be entered and treated in accordance with the requirements of this subpart at a United States port of arrival where such treating facilities are available.

21. Sections 319.55–4 and 319.55–5 are amended to read, respectively, as follows:

§ 319.55–4 Issuance of permits. Upon receipt of an application and upon approval by an inspector a permit will be issued specifying the conditions of entry and the port of entry to carry out the purposes of this subpart, and a copy will be supplied to the importer.

§ 319.55–5 Notice of arrival by permittee. Immediately upon the arrival of a shipment at the port of first arrival, the permittee or his agent shall submit a notice, in duplicate, to the Plant Quarantine Division, through the United States Collector of Customs, or, in the case of Guam, through the Customs officer of the Government of Guam, on a form provided for that purpose, stating the number of the permit, the quantity in the shipment, the locality where grown, the date of arrival, and, if by rail, the name of the railroad company, the car numbers, and the terminal where the shipment is to be unloaded, or, if by vessel, the name of the vessel and the designation of the dock where the shipment is to be landed.

22. Section 319.56–2 is amended by adding at the end thereof another paragraph to read as follows:

Pending development of adequate treating facilities in Guam, fruits and vegetables that are subject to treatment as a condition of entry therein must first be entered and treated in accordance with the requirements of this subpart at a United States port of arrival where such treating facilities are available.

23. Sections 319.56–2d (b) (5) (iii) and 319.56–4, and the first paragraph of § 319.56–5 are amended to read respectively, as follows:

(iii) Shipments offered for entry before cold treatment may be allowed to leave customs custody under redelivery bond for cold treatment. Final release of the shipment by the United States Collector of Customs, or, in the case of Guam, by the Customs officer of the Government of Guam, will be effected after the inspector has notified the said Customs official that the required cold treatment has been given.

§ 319.56–4 Issuance of permits. Upon receipt of an application and upon approval by an inspector a permit will be issued specifying the conditions of entry and the port of entry to carry out the purposes of this subpart, and a copy will be supplied to the importer.

§ 319.56–5 Notice of arrival by permittee. Immediately upon the arrival of fruits or vegetables, from the countries specified in § 319.56, at the port of first arrival, the permittee or his agent shall submit a notice, in duplicate, to the Plant Quarantine Division, through the United State Collector of Customs, or, in the case of Guam, through the Customs officer of the Government of Guam, on forms provided for that purpose, stating the number of the permit; the kinds of fruits or vegetables; the quantity or the number of crates or other containers included in the shipment; the country or locality where the fruits or vegetables were grown; the date of arrival; the name of the vessel, the name and the number, if any, of the dock where the fruits or vegetables are to be unloaded, and the name of the importer or broker at the port of first arrival, or, if shipped by rail, the name of the railroad, the car numbers, and the terminal where the fruits or vegetables are to be unloaded.

24. Section 319.59 (b) is amended by adding thereto another sentence to read: "Applicability of the provisions in this subpart to imports into Guam shall be limited to the provisions restricting the importation of wheat straw, hulls, and chaff."

25. Section 319.59–5 is amended by adding thereto a new paragrah (c) as follows:

(c) Pending development of adequate treating facilites in Guam, any wheat straw, hulls, or chaff that are subject to treatment as a condition of entry therein must first be entered and treated in accordance with the requirements of this subpart at a United States port of arrival where such treating facilities are available.

26. Section 319.59–6 is amended to read as follows:

§ 319.59–6 Notice of arrival. A notice of arrival shall be submitted by the importer, in duplicate, through the United States Collector of Customs, or, in the case of Guam, through the Customs officer of the Government of Guam, to the Plant Quarantine Division, immediately upon arrival at a port of entry of any shipment of products subject to this subpart. Such notice shall be submitted on a form provided for that purpose by the Plant Quarantine Division (Form PQ–368) and shall contain the information called for by that form.

27. Section 319.70 is amended by adding at the end thereof a paragraph to read:

As used in this subpart, unless the context otherwise requires, the term "United States" means the States, the District of Columbia, Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands of the United States.

28. Section 319.74–4 is amended by changing paragraph (a) to read as follows:

(a) Persons desiring to import cut flowers subject to the permit requirements of the regulations in this subpart (other than small quantities eligible for entry upon oral authorization) shall submit to the Plant Quarantine Division an application [1] stating the exact designation of the cut flowers to be imported, the name and address of the exporter, the country where grown, the port of entry, the destination in the United States, and the name and address of the importer or agent in the United States to whom the permit should be sent.

29. Sections 321.1 and 321.8 are amended by striking the phrase "or any of its Territories or Districts" wherever it occurs therein and § 321.1 is further amended by adding at the end thereof a new paragraph to read as follows:

As used in this part, unless the context otherwise requires, the term "United States" means the States, the District of Columbia, Alaska, Guam, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands of the United States.

30. Section 352.1 is amended by adding at the end thereof a new paragraph to read as follows:

As used in this part, unless the context otherwise requires, the term "United States" means the States, the District of Columbia, Alaska, Guam, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands of the United States.

31. Section 352.5 is amended by deleting footnote 4 and by amending the section to read as follows:

§ 352.5 Issuance of permits.[3] Upon receipt of an application and upon approval by an inspector a permit will be issued specifying the conditions of entry and the port of entry to carry out the purposes of this subpart, and a copy will be supplied to the importer.

32. The introductory portion of § 352.6 preceding paragraph (a) and the first paragraph of § 352.7 are amended to read, respectively, as follows:

§ 352.6 Notice of arrival. Immediately upon the arrival at a port of the United States of restricted or prohibited plants or plant poducts intended for exportation or for transportation and exportation, the permittee shall submit to the Plant Quarantine Division, through the United States Collector of Customs, or, in the case of Guam, through the Customs officer of the Government of Guam, a notice of arrival on the form provided for that purpose,[4] furnishing, in addition to the information required by the application for permit:

§ 352.7 Conditions governing landing for exportation. Restricted or prohibited plants and plant products for which a permit has been issued shall not be landed or unloaded for transfer or transshipment for exportation or transportation and exportation, except under the supervision of the United States Collector of Customs, and in accordance with the applicable Customs regulations in 19 CFR Part 18, or, in the case of Guam, under the supervision of the Customs officer of the Government of Guam.

33. Section 353.3 is amended by adding to the list therein, in the appropriate alphabetical order, the port of "Agana, Guam."

The foregoing amendments correlate the quarantines, regulations, and orders designated with a current extension of plant quarantine operations in Guam.

The provisions in Part 322 relating to imports of adult honeybees are applicable to Guam in their present form, and enforcement thereof will be inaugurated in Guam on the effective date of the foregoing amendments.

The notice of proposed rule making cited the possible need for the amendment, among other sections, of §§ 319.8–2, 319.37–5, and 319.37–12 to refer to the appropriate official or organization in Guam instead of a United States Customs official or United States Customs. It has been determined that these three sections are appropriately worded in this respect and do not require amendment. The other sections listed in the notice in this connection have been amended to the extent necessary to conform them to the Customs organization in Guam. In amending such of these sections as relate to the issuance of permits, the language has been simplified to accord with present practices and recently revised quarantine regulations. Several sections which the notice announced were deemed applicable to shipments into Guam are being amended hereby to provide expressly for such application. This does not constitute a substantive change from the notice.

This document amends the imported fire ant quarantine and regulations to clarify their territorial application. A reference thereto was omitted from the notice of proposed rule making due to the coincidence of the drafting of the notice and the promulgation of said quarantine and regulations.

An amendment of § 319.28, not proposed in the notice of rule making, has also been made. This amendment provides that the prohibition under § 319.28 on the importation into Guam of fruits and peel, because of the occurrence in certain countries of the citrus canker, shall not apply to Guam, but that such importations into Guam shall be subject to the permit and other requirements of § 319.56. This action is based on the occurrence of the citrus canker in Guam.

The amendments made hereby with respect to the cut flower quarantine (§ 319.74) are in some respects different than those proposed in the notice. The changes are made for clarity and to relieve requirements re applications for permits with respect to shipments of small quantities of cut flowers.

It is believed that the amendments herein that were not included in the notice of rule making will not be objectionable to affected persons and it does not appear that further public rulemaking procedure will make new information available to the Department. Therefore, it is found upon good cause under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003) that further notice of rule making and other public procedure on the amendments in question are impracticable and unnecessary.

The foregoing amendments shall be effective Oct. 18, 1958.

The purposes of this revision are to add several newly established ports and stations, and to combine into a single list four existing amendments of these administrative instructions.

These commuted travel time periods have been established as nearly as may be practicable to cover the time necessarily spent in reporting to and returning from the place at which the employee performs such overtime duty when such travel is performed solely on account of such overtime duty. Such establishment depends upon facts within the knowledge of the Plant Quarantine Division. It is to the benefit of the public that these instructions be made effective at the earliest practicable date. Accordingly, pursuant to the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003), it is found upon good cause that notice and public procedure on these instructions are impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest, and good cause is found for making these instructions effective less than thirty days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

These revised administrative instructions shall be effective on and after September 17, 1958, on which date they shall supersede 7 CFR, 1957 Supp., 354.2, effective June 6, 1956, as amended effective March 8, 1957, September 21, 1957, February 6, 1958, and June 15, 1958 (7 CFR, 1957 Supp. 354.2; 23 F. R. 709, 3297).

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

PART 951—TOKAY GRAPES GROWN IN SAN JOAQUIN AND SACRAMENTO COUNTIES, CALIF.

DETERMINATION RELATIVE TO EXPENSES AND FIXING OF RATE OF ASSESSMENT FOR 1958-59 SEASON

Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 51, as amended (7 CFR Part 951), regulating the handling of Tokay grapes grown in San Joaquin and Sacramento Counties in California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the proposals submitted by the Industry Committee (established pursuant to said amended marketing agreement and order), it is hereby found and determined that:

§ 951.213 Expenses and rate of assessment for the 1958-59 season.—(a) Expenses. Expenses that are reasonable and likely to be incurred by the Industry Committee, established pursuant to the provisions of the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, to enable such committee to perform its functions, in accordance with the provisions thereof, during the season beginning April 1, 1958, and ending on March 31, 1959, both dates inclusive, will amount to $27,350.00.

(b) Rate of assessment. The rate of assessment, which each handler who first ships Tokay grapes shall pay as his pro rata share of the aforesaid expenses in accordance with the applicable provisions of said amended marketing agreement and order is hereby fixed at seven and one-half mills ($0.0075) per standard package, or the equivalent thereof in weight, of Tokay grapes shipped by such handler during said season.

It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, and engage in public rule-making procedure, and good cause exists for not postponing the effective date hereof until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that (1) shipments of the current crop of Tokay grapes grown in San Joaquin and Sacramento Counties in California are now being made; (2) the rate of assessment is, in accordance with the amended marketing agreement and order, applicable to all Tokay grapes shipped during the 1958-59 season; and (3) it is essential that the specification of the assessment be issued immediately so that the aforesaid assessments may be collected, and thereby enable the Industry Committee to perform its duties and functions in accordance with said amended marketing agreement and order.

As used herein, the terms "handler," "ships," "shipped," "season," and "standard package" shall have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Dated, September 11, 1958, to become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PART 957—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN CERTAIN DESIGNATED COUNTIES IN IDAHO AND MALHEUR COUNTY, OREG.

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

Findings. (a) Pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 98 and Order No. 57, as amended (7 CFR Part 957) regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in certain designated counties in Idaho and Malheur County, Oregon, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of recommendations and information submitted by the Idaho-Eastern Oregon Potato Committee, established pursuant to said marketing agreement and order, as amended, and other available information, it is hereby found that the amendment to the limitation of shipments, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(b) It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that (i) the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, (ii) more orderly marketing in the public interest, than would otherwise prevail, will be promoted by regulating the shipment of potatoes, in the manner set forth below, on and after the effective date of this amendment, (iii) compliance with this amendment will not require any special preparation on the part of handlers which cannot be completed by the effective date, (iv) reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for such preparation, and (v) information regarding the committee's recommendations has been made available to producers and handlers in the production area.

Order, as amended. The provisions of § 957.317 (b) (1), (4) and (5) (23 F. R. 5157, 6171, 6742, and 6903) are hereby amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, during the period from September 17, 1958 through June 30, 1959, no handler shall ship potatoes of any variety unless such potatoes are generally "fairly clean", which means that at least 90 percent of such potatoes are "fairly clean," as such terms are defined in the United States Standards for Potatoes (§§ 51.1540 to 51.1556 of this title), and

(i) If they are of the round varieties (including, but not being limited to, Bliss Triumph, Pontiac, and Kennebec varieties), such potatoes meet the requirements of U. S. No. 2, or better grade, 2 inches minimum diameter: Provided, That with respect to District No. 2 such potatoes meet the requirements of U. S. No. 1, or better grade, 2 inches minimum diameter; and

(ii) If they are of the long varieties (including, but not being limited to Russet Burbank, White Rose, and Early Gem varieties) such potatoes meet the requirements of U. S. No. 2, or better grade, 2 inches minimum diameter or 4 ounces minimum weight, Size A: Provided, That, with respect to District No. 2, long varieties not meeting the requirements of U. S. No. 1, or better grade, but meeting the requirements of U. S. No. 2, or better grade, may be shipped only if they are 8 ounces minimum weight.

* * * * * *

(4) The grade, size and maturity limitations set forth in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph shall not be applicable to shipments of potatoes for the following purposes: (i) As certified seed potatoes; (ii) export: Provided, That no handler shall ship potatoes for export which do not meet the requirements of the U. S. No. 2, or better grade, 1½ inch minimum diameter; (iii) canning, freezing, dehydration or manufacture into starch or flour; (iv) charity; (v) experimentation, and (vi) Kennebec variety for chipping: Provided, That, such Kennebec potatoes meet the requirements of U. S. No. 2, or better grade, and are 2 inches minimum diameter or 4 ounces minimum weight.

(5) Each handler making any shipment of potatoes pursuant to subparagraph (4) of this paragraph for export, canning, freezing, dehydration or manufacture into starch or flour, for charity or for experimentation, or the Kennebec variety for chipping, shall: (i) First apply to the committee for, and obtain a Certificate of Privilege to make such shipment; (ii) pay assessments on such shipment, except shipment for canning or freezing; (iii) have such shipment inspected, except shipment for canning or freezing; (iv) upon request by the committee, furnish reports of each shipment made pursuant to each Certificate of Privilege; (v) with respect to such shipment, furnish the committee with a copy of the bill of lading or appropriate record of movement in case of trucks for each such shipment made under Certificate of Privilege; (vi) with respect to such shipment, furnish the committee with the buyer's certification that the potatoes handled under the Certificate of Privilege are to be used only for the purpose stated therein.

PART 958—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN COLORADO

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 958.329 Limitation of shipments, Area No. 1.—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 97 and Order No. 58 (7 CFR Part 958), regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the State of Colorado, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the area committee for Area No. 1, established pursuant to said marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that (i) the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, (ii) more orderly marketing in the public interest, than would otherwise prevail, will be promoted by regulating the shipment of potatoes, in the manner set forth below, on and after the effective date of this section, (iii) compliance with this section will not require any preparation on the part of handlers which cannot be completed by the effective date, (iv) a reasonable time is permitted under the circumstances, for such preparation, and (v) information regarding the committee's recommendations has been made available to producers and handlers in the production area.

(b) Order. (1) During the period from September 22, 1958, through May 31, 1959, no handler shall ship potatoes of any variety grown in Area No. 1 unless such potatoes grade at least U. S. No. 2 and, in addition, (i) if such potatoes are of the long varieties, they are of a size not smaller than 2 inches in diameter or 4 ounces in weight, or (ii) if such potatoes are of the round varieties (including, but not limited to, Irish Cobbler, Katahdin, Kennebec, Bliss Triumph, and Pontiac) they are of a size not smaller than 2¼ inches in diameter and not larger than 24 ounces in weight, as such terms, grades, and sizes are defined in the United States Standards for Potatoes (§§ 51.1540 to 51.1556 of this title), including the tolerances set forth therein.

(2) During the period from September 22, 1958, through November 1, 1958, and subject to the requirements set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, no handler shall ship any lot of potatoes of the round varieties grown in Area No. 1 if such potatoes are more than "slightly skinned," as such term is defined in said United States Standards, which means that not more than 10 percent of such potatoes have more than one-fourth of the skin missing or "feathered".

(3) Notwithstanding the restrictions of this section, any handler may ship potatoes for livestock feed only if such handler has (i) first made application to the area committee for Area No. 1 for permission to make such shipment and (ii) obtained the committee's permission to make such shipments. Such application to the committee shall be accompanied by a certification from both the handler and the consignee or buyer that the potatoes will in fact be used as livestock feed.

(4) Terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in Marketing Agreement No. 97 and this part.

PART 959—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN MODOC AND SISKIYOU COUNTIES, CALIF., AND IN ALL COUNTIES IN OREGON EXCEPT MALHEUR COUNTY

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

Findings. (a) Pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 114, as amended, and Order No. 59, as amended (7 CFR Part 959), regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in Modoc and Siskiyou Counties in California and in all counties in Oregon, except Malheur County, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Oregon-California Potato Committee, established pursuant to said marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the amendment to the limitation of shipments, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(b) It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.), in that (i) the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; (ii) more orderly marketing in the public interest, than would otherwise prevail, will be promoted by regulating the shipment of potatoes, in the manner set forth below, on and after the effective date of this amendment; (iii) compliance with this amendment will not require any preparation on the part of handlers which cannot be completed by the effective date; (iv) a reasonable time is permitted under the circumstances, for such preparation; and (v) information regarding the committee's recommendations has been made available to producers and handlers in the production area.

Order, as amended. In paragraph (b) of § 959.316, subparagraphs (1), (2), (4), (5) and (7) are hereby amended as set forth below; in subparagraph (6) new subdivisions (i) and (v) are added and present subdivisions (i), (ii) and (iii) are redesignated (ii), (iii) and (iv); a new subparagraph (8) is added and present subparagraphs (8), (9) and (10) are redesignated (9), (10) and (11), as follows:

(b) Order. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, during the period from September 17, 1958 through June 30, 1959, no handler shall ship (i) any potatoes of the round varieties (including, but not being limited to, Kennebec, Irish Cobbler, Bliss Triumph and Pontiac varieties), unless such potatoes meet the requirements of the U. S. No. 1, or better grade, 2 inches minimum diameter (Such potatoes grown in District No. 3 that meet the requirements of U. S. No. 2 grade may also be shipped if they are of a size not smaller than 1⅞ inches minimum diameter.), or (ii) any potatoes of the long varieties (including, but not being limited to, White Rose and Russet Burbank varieties), unless such potatoes grade U. S. No. 2 or better grade, up to but not including the U. S. No. 1 grade, and weigh not less than 8 ounces (Such potatoes grown in District No. 3 that meet the said grade requirements may also be shipped if they are of a size not smaller than 1⅞ inches in diameter.); Provided, That such potatoes grown in any District meeting the requirements of U. S. No. 1 or better grade may be shipped if they are of a size not smaller than 2 inches minimum diameter or 4 ounces minimum weight and; Provided further, That such potatoes meeting the aforesaid applicable grade and size requirements may be commingled in the handling thereof.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this section, during the period from September 17, 1958 through June 30, 1959, no handler shall ship potatoes of any variety if such potatoes are more than "slightly skinned." During such period any handler may ship not to exceed a total of 100 hundredweight of each variety of such potatoes every seven days without regard to the aforesaid skinning requirements if prior to such handling the handler reports to the Oregon-California Potato Committee the name and address of the producer of such potatoes, and each such shipment is handled as an identifiable entity.

* * * * *

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the limitations set forth in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph shall not be applicable to shipments of potatoes for any of the following purposes: (i) Grading or storing within the district where grown; (ii) certified seed potatoes; (iii) export; (iv) canning or freezing; (v) dehydration or manufacture or conversion into starch; (vi) charity; (vii) potato chipping; (viii) for use in hash browns or potato salad; (ix) livestock feed within the district where grown, except that potatoes grown in District No. 2 or District No. 4 may be shipped for livestock feed within, or to, such districts for such purpose.

(5) During the period September 17, 1958 through June 30, 1959, no handler shall ship (i) potatoes for export, which do not meet the requirements of the U. S. No. 1, or better, grade 1½ inches minimum diameter, or (ii) potatoes for dehydration unless such potatoes are of a size not smaller than 1½ inches in diameter and at least 85 percent of the potatoes grade not less than U. S. No. 1, or (iii) potatoes for hash browns or potato salad which do not meet the requirements of U. S. No. 1, or better, grade, size B.

(6) (i) Potatoes of the round varieties grown in Districts Nos. 1, 2 and 4 may be shipped for potato chipping if they meet the requirements of U. S. No. 2 or better grade, 2 inches minimum diameter.

* * * * *

(v) Potatoes of the round varieties which fail to meet applicable grade and size requirements because of damage from hollow heart may be shipped for potato chipping.

(7) Each handler making any shipments of potatoes for export, canning and freezing, dehydration, charity, potato chipping, or for use in hash browns or potato salad, pursuant to subparagraph (4) of this paragraph shall: (i) Apply to the committee for and obtain a certificate of privilege to make such shipments; (ii) pay the required assessments; (iii) have such shipments inspected; (iv) upon request by the committee, furnish reports of each shipment made pursuant to each certificate of privilege; (v) at the time of applying to the committee for a certificate of privilege, agree to furnish the committee with a receiver's or buyer's certification that the potatoes handled under the certificate of privilege are to be used only for the purpose stated therein and the receiver's or buyer's certification that he will complete and return to the committee such periodic receivers' reports that the committee may require; (vi) mail to the office of the committee a copy of the bill of lading for each shipment made under the certificate of privilege promptly after date of any such shipment; and (vii) bill each shipment directly to the applicable processor.

(8) Each handler making any shipments of certified seed shall (i) pay the required assessments; (ii) furnish the committee with either a copy of the applicable certified seed inspection certificate or shall apply to and obtain a certificate of privilege and, upon request by the committee, furnish reports of each shipment made pursuant to each certificate of privilege.

PART 984—WALNUTS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA, OREGON, AND WASHINGTON

GRADE AND SIZE REGULATIONS FOR UNSHELLED WALNUTS

Pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 105, as amended, and Order No. 84, as amended (7 CFR Part 984), regulating the handling of walnuts grown in California, Oregon, and Washington, effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), the Walnut Control Board on August 26, 1958 unanimously recommended that the grade and size regulations for unshelled walnuts (§§ 984.402 and 984.403) be amended as hereinafter set forth.

In recent years, there has been a substantial shift in California walnut production from the coastal region to the interior valleys. This has resulted in production of walnuts with slightly darker kernels than were generally produced in 1944 when the present color standards were developed. Therefore, the Walnut Control Board on August 26, 1958 adopted a revision of its current color chart to reflect the various colors of walnut kernels now being produced. The amendment of the pack specifications for California unshelled walnuts as hereinafter provided would make such revised color chart applicable by adapting the specifications thereto.

After consideration of all relevant information available it is hereby found that the amendment of the grade and size regulations for unshelled walnuts, as hereinafter set forth, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Therefore, it is ordered, That § 984.403 Pack specifications of the grade and size regulations for unshelled walnuts (§§ 984.402–984.403; 23 F. R. 1691) be amended as follows:

Delete therefrom the present provisions of paragraph (b) (3) (i) (f) and (iii) (f) and substitute in place of each the following:

(f) Black kernels. Any kernel with one-half or more of the surface darker than the darkest color permitted in the "amber" classification shown on the Walnut Control Board color chart.

It is hereby found that good cause exists for not giving prior notice, engaging in rulemaking procedure, or postponing the effective date of this action later than the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER for the reasons that (1) harvest of the 1958 California walnut crop is about to begin and the handling of such walnuts will commence shortly hereafter; (2) all such handling is required, under the provisions of this part, to be in accordance with the current regulations in effect pursuant to § 984.43; (3) the revised Walnut Control Board color chart illustrating the various degrees of kernel coloration referrable to such walnut crop, should be effective and available for use by handlers of such walnuts with respect to as large a proportion as possible of such crop in order to maximize the benefits derivable therefrom, and to effectuate the declared policy of the Act; (4) the Walnut Control Board promptly submitted its recommendation to the Department regarding the adoption of the revised color chart after a meeting duly held to consider such matter; (5) with respect to such meeting handlers of over 90 percent of all California unshelled walnuts expressed the desire that the revised color chart be made effective as soon as possible before the current California walnut crop is processed and packed in the manner required under this part; and (6) the revised color chart relating to kernel coloration relieves restrictions on the handling of such walnuts.

(48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.)

Dated September 11, 1958, to become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

Subchapter B—Food and Food Products

PART 120—TOLERANCES AND EXEMPTIONS FROM TOLERANCES FOR PESTICIDE CHEMICALS IN OR ON RAW AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

TOLERANCES FOR RESIDUES OF MANEB

A petition was filed with the Food and Drug Administration by E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Company, Inc., Wilmington, Delaware, requesting the establishment of tolerances for residues of maneb (manganous ethylenebisdithiocarbamate) in or on various raw agricultural commodities.

The Secretary of Agriculture has certified that this pesticide chemical is useful for the purposes for which tolerances are being established.

After consideration of the data submitted in the petition and other relevant material which show that the tolerances established in this order will protect the public health, and by virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 408 (d) (2), 68 Stat. 512; 21 U. S. C. 346a (d) (2)) and delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs by the Secretary (21 CFR 120.7 (g); 23 F. R. 6403), the regulations for tolerances for pesticide chemicals in or on raw agricultural commodities (23 F. R. 6403) are amended by adding to the list of raw agricultural commodities for which tolerances have been established in § 120.110 (a) the items broccoli, Brussels sprouts, cauliflower, and kohlrabi. As amended, § 120.110 (a) reads as follows:

§ 120.110 Tolerances for residues of maneb * * *

(a) 10 parts per million in or on apricots, beans (succulent form), broccoli, Brussels sprouts, cabbage, cauliflower, celery, Chinese cabbage, collards, endive (escarole), kale, kohlrabi, lettuce, mustard greens, nectarines, peaches, spinach, turnip tops.

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may, at any time prior to the thirtieth day from the effective date thereof, file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D. C., written objections thereto. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by this order, specify with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and reasonable grounds for the objections, and request a public hearing upon the objections. Objections may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. All documents shall be filed in quintuplicate.

Effective date. This order shall be effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Subchapter C—Drugs

PART 146a—CERTIFICATION OF PENICILLIN AND PENICILLIN-CONTAINING DRUGS

PENICILLIN V FOR ORAL SUSPENSION

Under the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 507, 59 Stat. 463, as amended; sec. 701, 52 Stat. 1055, as amended; 21 U. S. C. 357, 371) and delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs by the Secretary (22 F. R. 1045), the regulations for certification of penicillin and penicillin-containing drugs (21 CFR 146a. 104) are amended as indicated below:

Section 146a.104 Penicillin V for oral suspension • • • is amended in the following respects:

1. Paragraph (b) Packaging is amended by adding thereto the following new sentence: "Each immediate container may be packaged in combination with a container of a suitable and harmless aqueous vehicle."

2. Paragraph (d) Request for certification • • • is amended by adding to subparagraph (3) the following new subdivision:

(iv) In case of an initial request for certification of a batch that is to be packaged in combination with an aqueous vehicle, or when any change is made in the composition of such aqueous vehicle: Five packages of the vehicle included in the combination.

Notice and public procedure are not necessary prerequisites to the promulgation of this order, and I so find, since it was drawn in collaboration with interested members of the affected industry and since it would be against public interest to delay providing for these amendments.

Effective date. This order shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, since both the public and the affected industry will benefit by the earliest effective date, and I so find.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE, 1954

Chapter I—Internal Revenue Service, Department of the Treasury

[T. D. 6313]

PART 1—INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1953

ITEMS NOT DEDUCTIBLE

On March 19, 1958, notice of proposed rule making regarding the regulations for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1953, and ending after August 16, 1954, under sections 261, 262, 263, 265, 266, and 273 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, relating to items not deductible, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (23 F. R. 1829). After consideration of all such relevant matter as was presented by interested persons regarding the rules proposed, the regulations as so proposed are hereby adopted subject to the following changes.

PARAGRAPH 1. Paragraph (b) (5) of § 1.262–1 is changed.

PAR. 2. Paragraph (b) of § 1.263 (a)–1 is changed.

PAR. 3. Paragraph (e) of § 1.263 (a)–2 is changed by striking the last sentence thereof.

PAR. 4. Section 1.263 (b)–1 is changed by deleting the words "the regulations under section 162" and substituting in lieu thereof "§ 1.162–14".

PAR. 5. Section 1.266–1 is revised as follows:

(A) By changing paragraph (b) (1) (ii).

(B) By inserting at the end of paragraph (b) (2) the following: "An item not otherwise deductible may not be capitalized under section 266. Thus, since the taxes imposed by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act and the Federal Unemployment Tax Act are not taxes deductible under section 164, and since such taxes may not be deducted under section 162 when they are paid or incurred in connection with the construction or acquisition of a capital asset, they are not subject to section 266 and must be capitalized without regard to such section."

(C) By changing the first sentence of paragraph (c) (1) to read as follows: "If for any taxable year there are two or more items of the type described in paragraph (b) (1) of this section, which relate to the same project to which the election is applicable, the taxpayer may elect to capitalize any one or more of such items even though he does not elect to capitalize the remaining items or to capitalize items of the same type relating to other projects."

(D) By revising paragraph (d).

(E) By changing the example in paragraph (e).

[SEAL] LEO SPERR,
Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved: September 11, 1958.

NELSON P. ROSE,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

The regulations adopted under sections 261, 262, 263, 265, 266, and 273 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 read as follows:

1.266–1 Taxes and carrying charges chargeable to capital account and treated as capital items.
1.273 Statutory provisions; holders of life or terminable interests.
1.273–1 Life or terminable interests.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1.261 to 1.263 (c)–1, inclusive, §§ 1.265 to 1.266–1, inclusive, and §§ 1.273 to 1.273–1, inclusive, issued under sec. 7805, 68A Stat. 917; 26 U. S. C. 7805.

ITEMS NOT DEDUCTIBLE

§ 1.261 Statutory provisions; general rule for disallowance of deductions.

SEC. 261. General rule for disallowance of deductions. In computing taxable income no deduction shall in any case be allowed in respect of the items specified in this part.

§ 1.261–1 General rule for disallowance of deductions. In computing taxable income, no deduction shall be allowed, except as otherwise expressly provided in chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, in respect of any of the items specified in sections 262 to 273, inclusive, and the regulations thereunder.

§ 1.262 Statutory provisions; personal, living, and family expenses.

SEC. 262. Personal, living, and family expenses. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this chapter, no deduction shall be allowed for personal, living, or family expenses.

§ 1.262–1 Personal, living, and family expenses.—(a) In general. In computing taxable income, no deduction shall be allowed, except as otherwise expressly provided in chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, for personal, living, and family expenses.

(b) Examples of personal, living, and family expenses. Personal, living, and family expenses are illustrated in the following examples:

(1) Premiums paid for life insurance by the insured are not deductible. See also section 264 and the regulations thereunder.

(2) The cost of insuring a dwelling owned and occupied by the taxpayer as a personal residence is not deductible.

(3) Expenses of maintaining a household, including amounts paid for rent, water, utilities, domestic service, and the like, are not deductible. A taxpayer who rents a property for residential purposes, but incidentally conducts business there (his place of business being elsewhere) shall not deduct any part of the rent. If, however, he uses part of the house as his place of business, such portion of the rent and other similar expenses as is properly attributable to such place of business is deductible as a business expense.

(4) Losses sustained by the taxpayer upon the sale or other disposition of property held for personal, living, and family purposes are not deductible. But see section 165 and the regulations thereunder for deduction of losses sustained to such property by reason of casualty, etc.

(5) Expenses incurred in traveling away from home (which include transportation expenses, meals, and lodging) and any other transportation expenses are not deductible unless they qualify as expenses deductible under section 162, § 1.162–2, and paragraph (d) of § 1.162–5 (relating to trade or business expenses), section 170 and paragraph (a) (2) of § 1.170–2 (relating to charitable contributions), section 212 and § 1.212–1 (relating to expenses for production of income), or section 213 (e) and paragraph (e) of § 1.213–1 (relating to medical expenses). The taxpayer's costs of commuting to his place of business or employment are personal expenses and do not qualify as deductible expenses. The costs of the taxpayer's lodging not incurred in traveling away from home are personal expenses. Except as permitted under section 162 or 212, the costs of the taxpayer's meals not incurred in traveling away from home are personal expenses.

(6) Amounts paid as damages for breach of promise to marry, and attorney's fees and other costs of suit to recover such damages, are not deductible.

(7) Generally, attorney's fees and other costs paid in connection with a divorce, separation, or decree for support are not deductible by either the husband or the wife. However, the part of an attorney's fee and the part of the other costs paid in connection with a divorce, legal separation, written separation agreement, or a decree for support, which are properly attributable to the production or collection of amounts includible in gross income under section 71 are deductible by the wife under section 212.

(8) The cost of equipment of a member of the armed services is deductible only to the extent that it exceeds nontaxable allowances received for such equipment and to the extent that such equipment is especially required by his profession and does not merely take the place of articles required in civilian life. For example, the cost of a sword is an allowable deduction in computing taxable income, but the cost of a uniform is not. However, amounts expended by a reservist for the purchase and maintenance of uniforms which may be worn only when on active duty for training for temporary periods, when attending service school courses, or when attending training assemblies are deductible except to the extent that nontaxable allowances are received for such amounts.

(c) Cross references. Certain items of a personal, living, or family nature are deductible to the extent expressly provided under the following sections, and the regulations under those sections:

(1) Section 163 (interest).
(2) Section 164 (taxes).
(3) Section 165 (losses).
(4) Section 166 (bad debts).
(5) Section 170 (charitable, etc., contributions and gifts).
(6) Section 213 (medical, dental, etc., expenses).
(7) Section 214 (expenses for care of certain dependents).
(8) Section 215 (alimony, etc., payments).
(9) Section 216 (amounts representing taxes and interest paid to cooperative housing corporation).

§ 1.263 (a) Statutory provisions; capital expenditures; general rule.

SEC. 263. Capital expenditures.—(a) General rule. No deduction shall be allowed for—

(1) Any amount paid out for new buildings or for permanent improvements or betterments made to increase the value of any property or estate. This paragraph shall not apply to—

(A) Expenditures for the development of mines or deposits deductible under section 616,

(B) Research and experimental expenditures deductible under section 174, or

(C) Soil and water conservation expenditures deductible under section 175.

(2) Any amount expended in restoring property or in making good the exhaustion thereof for which an allowance is or has been made.

§ 1.263 (a)–1 Capital expenditures; in general. (a) Except as otherwise provided in chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, no deduction shall be allowed for—

(1) Any amount paid out for new buildings or for permanent improvements or betterments made to increase the value of any property or estate, or

(2) Any amount expended in restoring property or in making good the exhaustion thereof for which an allowance is or has been made in the form of a deduction for depreciation, amortization, or depletion.

(b) In general, the amounts referred to in paragraph (a) of this section include amounts paid or incurred (1) to add to the value, or substantially prolong the useful life, of property owned by the taxpayer, such as plant or equipment, or (2) to adapt property to a new or different use. Amounts paid or incurred for incidental repairs and maintenance of property are not capital expenditures within the meaning of subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph. See section 162 and § 1.162–4.

(c) The provisions of paragraph (a) (1) of this section shall not apply to expenditures deductible under—

(1) Section 616 and §§ 1.616–1 through 1.616–3, relating to the development of mines or deposits,

(2) Section 174 and §§ 1.174–1 through 1.174–4, relating to research and experimentation, and

(3) Section 175 and §§ 1.175–1 through 1.175–6, relating to soil and water conservation.

§ 1.263 (a)–2 Examples of capital expenditures. The following paragraphs include examples of capital expenditures:

(a) The cost of acquisition, construction, or erection of buildings, machinery and equipment, furniture and fixtures, and similar property having a useful life substantially beyond the taxable year.

(b) Amounts expended for securing a copyright and plates, which remain the property of the person making the payments.

(c) The cost of defending or perfecting title to property.

(d) The amount expended for architect's services.

(e) Commissions paid in purchasing securities. Commissions paid in selling securities are an offset against the selling price, except that in the case of dealers in securities such commissions may be treated as an ordinary and necessary business expense.

(f) Amounts assessed and paid under an agreement between bondholders or shareholders of a corporation to be used in a reorganization of the corporation or voluntary contributions by shareholders to the capital of the corporation for any corporate purpose. Such amounts are capital investments and are not deductible. See section 118 and § 1.118–1.

(g) A holding company which guarantees dividends at a specified rate on the stock of a subsidiary corporation for the purpose of securing new capital for the subsidiary and increasing the value of its stockholdings in the subsidiary shall not deduct amounts paid in carrying out this guaranty in computing its taxable income, but such payments are capital expenditures to be added to the cost of its stock in the subsidiary.

(h) The cost of good will in connection with the acquisition of the assets of a going concern is a capital expenditure.

§ 1.263 (a)–3 Election to deduct or capitalize certain expenditures. (a) Under certain provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, taxpayers may elect to treat capital expenditures as deductible expenses or as deferred expenses, or to treat deductible expenses as capital expenditures.

(b) The sections referred to in paragraph (a) of this section include:

(1) Section 173 (circulation expenditures).

(2) Section 174 (research and experimental expenditures).

(3) Section 175 (soil and water conservation expenditures).

(4) Section 177 (trademark and trade name expenditures).

(5) Section 248 (organizational expenditures of a corporation).

(6) Section 266 (carrying charges).

(7) Section 615 (exploration expenditures).

(8) Section 616 (development expenditures).

§ 1.263 (b) Statutory provisions; capital expenditures; expenditures for advertising and good will.

SEC. 263. Capital expenditures. • • •

(b) Expenditures for advertising and good will. If a corporation has, for the purpose of computing its excess profits tax credit under chapter 2E or subchapter D of chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 claimed the benefits of the election provided in section 733 or section 451 of such code, as the case may be, no deduction shall be allowable under section 162 to such corporation for expenditures for advertising or the promotion of good will which, under the rules and regulations prescribed under section 733 or section 451 of such code, as the case may be, may be regarded as capital investments.

§ 1.263 (b)–1 Expenditures for advertising or promotion of good will. See § 1.162–14 for the rules applicable to a corporation which has elected to capitalize expenditures for advertising or the promotion of goodwill under the provisions of section 733 or section 451 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, in computing its excess profits tax credit under subchapter E of chapter 2, or subchapter D of chapter 1, of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939.

§ 1.263 (c) Statutory provisions; capital expenditures; intangible drilling and development costs in the case of oil and gas wells.

SEC. 263. Capital expenditures. • • •

(c) Intangible drilling and development costs in the case of oil and gas wells. Notwithstanding subsection (a), regulations shall be prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate under this subtitle corresponding to the regulations which granted the option to deduct as expenses intangible drilling and development costs in the case of oil and gas wells and which were recognized and approved by the Congress in House Concurrent Resolution 50, Seventy-ninth Congress.

§ 1.263 (c)–1 Intangible drilling and development costs in the case of oil and gas wells. For rules relating to the option to deduct as expenses intangible drilling and development costs in the case of oil and gas wells, see § 1.612–4.

§ 1.265 Statutory provisions; expenses and interest relating to tax-exempt income.

SEC. 265. Expenses and interest relating to tax-exempt income. No deduction shall be allowed for—

(1) Expenses. Any amount otherwise allowable as a deduction which is allocable to one or more classes of income other than interest (whether or not any amount of income of that class or classes is received or accrued) wholly exempt from the taxes imposed by this subtitle, or any amount otherwise allowable under section 212 (relating to expenses for production of income) which is allocable to interest (whether or not any amount of such interest is received or accrued) wholly exempt from the taxes imposed by this subtitle.

(2) Interest. Interest on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations (other than obligations of the United States issued after September 24, 1917, and originally subscribed for by the taxpayer) the interest on which is wholly exempt from the taxes imposed by this subtitle.

§ 1.265–1 Expenses relating to tax-exempt income—(a) Nondeductibility of expenses allocable to exempt income. (1) No amount shall be allowed as a deduction under any provision of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for any expense or amount which is otherwise allowable as a deduction and which is allocable to a class or classes of exempt income other than a class or classes of exempt interest income.

(2) No amount shall be allowed as a deduction under section 212 (relating to expenses for production of income) for any expense or amount which is otherwise allowable as a deduction and which is allocable to a class or classes of exempt interest income.

(b) Exempt income and nonexempt income. (1) As used in this section, the term "class of exempt income" means any class of income (whether or not any amount of income of such class is received or accrued) wholly exempt from the taxes imposed by subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. For purposes of this section, a class of income which is considered as wholly exempt from the taxes imposed by subtitle A includes any class of income which is—

(i) Wholly excluded from gross income under any provision of subtitle A, or

(ii) Wholly exempt from the taxes imposed by subtitle A under the provisions of any other law.

(2) As used in this section the term "nonexempt income" means any income which is required to be included in gross income.

(c) Allocation of expenses to a class or classes of exempt income. Expenses and amounts otherwise allowable which are directly allocable to any class or classes of exempt income shall be allocated thereto; and expenses and amounts directly allocable to any class or classes of nonexempt income shall be allocated thereto. If an expense or amount otherwise allowable is indirectly allocable to both a class of nonexempt income and a class of exempt income, a reasonable proportion thereof determined in the light of all the facts and circumstances in each case shall be allocated to each.

(d) Statement of classes of exempt income; records. (1) A taxpayer receiving any class of exempt income or holding any property or engaging in any activity the income from which is exempt shall submit with his return as a part thereof an itemized statement, in detail, showing (i) the amount of each class of exempt income, and (ii) the amount of expenses and amounts otherwise allowable allocated to each such class (the amount allocated by apportionment being shown separately) as required by paragraph (c) of this section. If an item is apportioned between a class of exempt income and a class of nonexempt income, the statement shall show the basis of the apportionment. Such statement shall also recite that each deduction claimed in the return is not in any way attributable to a class of exempt income.

(2) The taxpayer shall keep such records as will enable him to make the allocations required by this section. See section 6001 and the regulations thereunder.

§ 1.265–2 Interest relating to tax-exempt income. No amount shall be allowed as a deduction for interest on any indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations, the interest on which is wholly exempt from tax under subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, such as municipal bonds, Panama Canal loan 3-percent bonds, or obligations of the United States, the interest on which is wholly exempt from tax under subtitle A, and which were issued after September 24, 1917, and not originally subscribed for by the taxpayer. Interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry (a) obligations of the United States issued after September 24, 1917, the interest on which is not wholly exempt from the taxes imposed under subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or (b) obligations of the United States issued after September 24, 1917, and originally subscribed for by the taxpayer, the interest on which is wholly exempt from the taxes imposed by subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, is deductible. For rules as to the inclusion in gross income of interest on certain governmental obligations, see section 103 and §§ 1.103–1 through 1.103–6.

§ 1.266 Statutory provisions; carrying charges.

SEC. 266. Carrying charges. No deduction shall be allowed for amounts paid or accrued for such taxes and carrying charges as, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate, are chargeable to capital account with respect to property, if the taxpayer elects, in accordance with such regulations, to treat such taxes or charges as so chargeable.

§ 1.266–1 Taxes and carrying charges chargeable to capital account and treated as capital items—(a) In general. In accordance with section 266, items enumerated in paragraph (b) (1) of this section may be capitalized at the election of the taxpayer. Thus, taxes and carrying charges with respect to property of the type described in this section are chargeable to capital account at the election of the taxpayer, notwithstanding that they are otherwise expressly deductible under provisions of subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. No deduction is allowable for any items so treated.

(b) Taxes and carrying charges. (1) The taxpayer may elect, as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, to treat the items enumerated in this subparagraph which are otherwise expressly deductible under the provisions of subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as chargeable to capital account either as a component of original cost or other basis, for the purposes of section 1012, or as an adjustment to basis, for the purposes of section 1016 (a) (1). The items thus chargeable to capital account are—

(i) In the case of unimproved and unproductive real property: Annual taxes, interest on a mortgage, and other carrying charges.

(ii) In the case of real property, whether improved or unimproved and whether productive or unproductive:

(a) Interest on a loan (but not theoretical interest of a taxpayer using his own funds),

(b) Taxes of the owner of such real property measured by compensation paid to his employees,

(c) Taxes of such owner imposed on the purchase of materials, or on the storage, use, or other consumption of materials, and

(d) Other necessary expenditures, paid or incurred for the development of the real property or for the construction of an improvement or additional improvement to such real property, up to the time the development or construction work has been completed. The development or construction work with respect to which such items are incurred may relate to unimproved and unproductive real estate whether the construction work will make the property productive of income subject to tax (as in the case of a factory) or not (as in the case of a personal residence), or may relate to property already improved or productive (as in the case of a plant addition or improvement, such as the construction of another floor on a factory or the installation of insulation therein).

(iii) In the case of personal property:

(a) Taxes of an employer measured by compensation for services rendered in transporting machinery or other fixed assets to the plant or installing them therein,

(b) Interest on a loan to purchase such property or to pay for transporting or installing the same, and

(c) Taxes of the owner thereof imposed on the purchase of such property or on the storage, use, or other consumption of such property, paid or incurred up to the date of installation or the date when such property is first put into use by the taxpayer, whichever date is later.

(iv) Any other taxes and carrying charges with respect to property, otherwise deductible, which in the opinion of the Commissioner are, under sound accounting principles, chargeable to capital account.

(2) The sole effect of section 266 is to permit the items enumerated in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph to be chargeable to capital account notwithstanding that such items are otherwise expressly deductible under the provisions of subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. An item not otherwise deductible may not be capitalized under section 266. Thus, since the taxes imposed by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act and the Federal Unemployment Tax Act are not taxes deductible under section 164, and since such taxes may not be deducted under section 162 when they are paid or incurred in connection with the construction or acquisition of a capital asset, they are not subject to section 266 and must be capitalized without regard to such section.

(3) In the absence of a provision in this section for treating a given item as a capital item, this section has no effect on the treatment otherwise accorded such item. Thus, items which are otherwise deductible are deductible notwithstanding the provisions of this section, and items which are otherwise treated as capital items are to be so treated. Similarly, an item not otherwise deductible is not made deductible by this section. Nor is the absence of a provision in this section for treating a given item as a capital item to be construed as withdrawing or modifying the right now given to the taxpayer under any other provisions of subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or of the regulations thereunder, to elect to capitalize or to deduct a given item.

(c) Election to charge taxes and carrying charges to capital account. (1) If for any taxable year there are two or more items of the type described in paragraph (b) (1) of this section, which relate to the same project to which the election is applicable, the taxpayer may elect to capitalize any one or more of such items even though he does not elect to capitalize the remaining items or to capitalize items of the same type relating to other projects. However, if expenditures for several items of the same type are incurred with respect to a single project, the election to capitalize must, if exercised, be exercised as to all items of that type. For purposes of this section, a "project" means, in the case of items described in paragraph (b) (1) (ii) of this section, a particular development of, or construction of an improvement to, real property, and in the case of items described in paragraph (b) (1) (iii) of this section, the transportation and installation of machinery or other fixed assets.

(2) (i) An election with respect to an item described in paragraph (b) (1) (i) of this section is effective only for the year for which it is made.

(ii) An election with respect to an item described in—

(a) Paragraph (b) (1) (ii) of this section is effective until the development or construction work described in that subdivision has been completed;

(b) Paragraph (b) (1) (iii) of this section is effective until the later of either the date of installation of the property described in that subdivision, or the date when such property is first put into use by the taxpayer;

(c) Paragraph (b) (1) (iv) of this section is effective as determined by the Commissioner.

Thus, an item chargeable to capital account under this section must continue to be capitalized for the entire period described in this subdivision applicable to such election although such period may consist of more than one taxable year.

(3) If the taxpayer elects to capitalize an item or items under this section, such election shall be exercised by filing with the original return for the year for which the election is made a statement indicating the item or items (whether with respect to the same project or to different projects) which the taxpayer elects to treat as chargeable to capital account. Elections filed for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1954, and for taxable years ending before August 17, 1954, under section 24 (a) (7) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, and the regulations thereunder, shall have the same effect as if they were filed under this section. See section 7807 (b) (2).

(d) The following examples are illustrative of the application of the provisions of this section:

Example (1). In 1956 and 1957, A pays annual real property taxes and interest on a mortgage on a piece of real property. During 1956 the property is vacant and unproductive, but in January 1957 A converts the property into a parking lot and operates it as such thereafter. A may elect to capitalize the real property tax and mortgage interest paid in 1956 but not such amounts paid in 1957. Moreover, for 1956, A may elect to capitalize the taxes and to deduct the interest, or he may elect to capitalize the mortgage interest and to deduct the taxes paid on such real property.

Example (2). In February 1957, B began the erection of an office building for himself in Illinois. B in 1957, in connection with the erection of the building, paid $6,000 in Illinois unemployment insurance contributions (considered as taxes under section 164, relating to taxes), which in his 1957 return he elected to capitalize. B must continue to capitalize these unemployment insurance contributions paid in connection with the erection of the building until its completion.

Example (3). Assume the same facts as in example (2) except that in November 1957, B also began to build a hotel in Illinois. In 1957 B paid $3,000 in Illinois unemployment insurance contributions in connection with the erection of the hotel. B's election to capitalize the unemployment insurance contributions paid in erecting the office building started in February 1957 does not bind him to capitalize the unemployment insurance contributions paid in erecting the hotel; he may deduct the $3,000 unemployment insurance contributions paid in erecting the hotel.

Example (4). In 1957, C purchased machinery for installation in his factory located in the District of Columbia and building material for an addition to the factory. In connection with the purchase, transportation, and installation of the machinery and building material, C paid social security, sales, and use taxes in the following amounts:

Tax imposed by Federal Insurance Contributions Act (F. I. C. A.)	$2,500
Tax imposed by Federal Unemployment Tax Act (F. U. T. A.)	500
District of Columbia gross sales tax	10,000
District of Columbia compensating-use tax	1,000
District of Columbia unemployment compensation contributions	150

Under the provisions of section 266 and the regulations thereunder, C has an election to capitalize only the $1,000 paid to the District of Columbia as a compensating-use tax. Since the F. I. C. A. and F. U. T. A. taxes are not deductible as taxes under section 164, no deduction is allowed for such amounts and they must be capitalized when paid or incurred in connection with an item which is a capital expenditure under section 263. A similar treatment is required in the case of the District of Columbia unemployment compensation contributions since they are not classified as taxes. As the District of Columbia gross sales tax is imposed on the seller and passed on to the buyer, the tax must also be capitalized, since it was incurred by C in connection with the purchase of machinery and building material for use in his business.

Example (5). D purchased machinery in 1957 for use in his factory. He pays a use tax on the machinery, as well as interest on a loan to obtain funds to pay for the machinery and for transportation and installation costs. D may capitalize either the use tax or the interest, or both, up to the date of installation or until the machinery is first put into use by him, whichever date is later.

(e) Allocation. If any tax or carrying charge with respect to property is in part a type of item described in paragraph (b) of this section and in part a type of item or items with respect to which no election to treat as a capital item is given, a reasonable proportion of such tax or carrying charge, determined in the light of all the facts and circumstances in each case, shall be allocated to each item. The rule of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. N Corporation, the owner of a factory in New York on which a new addition is under construction, in 1957 pays its general manager, B, a salary of $10,000 and also pays a New York State unemployment insurance tax of $81 on B's salary. B spends nine-tenths of his time in the general business of the firm and the remaining one-tenth in supervising the construction work. N Corporation treats as expenses $9,000 of B's salary, and charges the remaining $1,000 to capital account. N Corporation may elect to capitalize $8.10 of the $81 New York State unemployment insurance tax paid in 1957 since such tax is deductible under section 164.

§ 1.273 Statutory provisions; holders of life or terminable interest.

SEC. 273. Holders of life or terminable interest. Amounts paid under the laws of a State, a Territory, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or a foreign country as income to the holder of a life or terminable interest acquired by gift, bequest, or inheritance shall not be reduced or diminished by any deduction for shrinkage (by whatever name called) in the value of such interest due to the lapse of time.

§ 1.273–1 Life or terminable interests. Amounts paid as income to the holder of a life or a terminable interest acquired by gift, bequest, or inheritance shall not be subject to any deduction for shrinkage (whether called by depreciation or any other name) in the value of such interest due to the lapse of time. In other words, the holder of such an interest so acquired may not set up the value of the expected future payments as corpus or principal and claim deduction for shrinkage or exhaustion thereof due to the passage of time. For the treatment generally of distributions to beneficiaries of an estate or trust, see sections 641 through 668, and the regulations thereunder. For basis of property acquired from a decedent and by gifts and transfers in trust, see sections 1014 and 1015, and the regulations thereunder.

TITLE 35—PANAMA CANAL

Chapter I—Canal Zone Regulations

PART 4—OPERATION AND NAVIGATION OF PANAMA CANAL AND ADJACENT WATERS

PLACES FOR LOADING AND DISCHARGING EXPLOSIVES; RESTRICTIONS

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Governor of the Canal Zone by 35 CFR 4.11, as adopted by Canal Zone Order 30, January 6, 1953 (18 F. R. 280), 35 CFR 4.113 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 4.113 Places for loading and discharging explosives; restrictions. (a) The explosive dock at Mindi and the explosive anchorages prescribed in § 4.110 are hearby designated for loading or discharging explosive cargo consigned to Panama Canal agencies or to private consignees.

(b) The explosive dock at Mindi, explosive anchorages prescribed in § 4.110, Pier 1 at Rodman Naval Station, and Pier 4 at Coco Solo Naval Station,[1] are designated for loading or discharging explosive/ammunition cargo consigned for military units: Provided, however, That (1) the accumulation of mass detonating explosive/ammunition at the Navy piers Rodman and Coco Solo [1] (i. e., the total explosive/ammunition cargo on board ship and on the pier at any one time) shall not exceed a total explosive content of 25,000 pounds; (2) when handling other than mass detonating types of explosive/ammunition cargo, the total weight shall not exceed that allowed by safety standards prescribed by the Chief of the Bureau of Ordnance, Department of the Navy; and (3) the Navy piers at Rodman and Coco Solo [1] shall not be used for handling explosive/ammunition cargo unless specific approval has been granted in each instance by the Commandant, Fifteenth Naval District, who will ensure that the Port Captain, Balboa or Cristobal, as the case may be, is advised of the details of each such handling.

(c) The Governor upon application may grant authority to discharge explosives, whether designated for civilian or military use, at Canal Zone docks in an emergency or when the character or packing of the explosives justifies such discharge.

(Sec. 5, 37 Stat. 562, as amended; 2 CZ Code 9, 48 U. S. C. 1318. E. O. 9746, 11 F. R. 7329, 3 CFR, 1946 Supp.)

Issued at Balboa Heights, Canal Zone, September 4, 1958.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[Rules Amdt. 1–6; FCC 58–851]

PART 1—PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

CITIZENS RADIO SERVICE

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 4th day of September, 1958.

The Commission having under consideration its action in Docket No. 11994 which revised Part 19 of the Commission's rules governing Citizens Radio Service effective September 11, 1958;

It appearing, that as a result thereof it is desirable to effect certain modifications of FCC Form 505,[1] the application form to be used by applicants in the Citizens Radio Service, and to amend certain provisions of Part 1 of the Commission's rules which deal with application forms and procedures to be used in the Citizens Radio Service; and

It further appearing, that in view of the new Citizens Radio Service rules FCC Form 505 should be modified to obtain additional information needed from applicants in the Citizens Radio Service and to enhance the usefulness of the Form; and

It further appearing, that, in order to eliminate differences between the provisions of Part 1 which relate to the Citizens Radio Service and the provisions of Part 19 of the rules which govern Citizens Radio Service, Part 1 should be amended to provide for the filing of all applications in the Citizens Radio Service at the Commission's offices in Washington, D. C.; and the use of the revised FCC Form 505, "Application for Citizens Radio License" in lieu of FCC Forms 405–A, Application for Renewal of Radio License, FCC 701, Application for Additional Time to Construct Radio Station, and FCC 703, Application for Consent to Transfer of Control of Corporation, in the Citizens Radio Service; and

It further appearing, that the rule amendments herein ordered and the adoption of the revised FCC Form 505 do not involve any substantive change requiring compliance with the public notice and procedure provided by section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act;

It is ordered, Pursuant to authority contained in sections 4 (i), 5 (d) (1), 303 (r), and 308 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, that:

1. Revised Application Form, FCC Form 505, "Application for Citizens Radio License," is adopted.

2. Effective September 11, 1958, Part 1 of the Commission's rules is amended as set forth below.

[1] Filed as part of the original document.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interpret or apply secs. 301, 303, 307, 48 Stat. 1081, 1082, 1083; 47 U. S. C. 301, 303, 307)

Released: September 8, 1958.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS, Secretary.

1. Amend paragraph (a) of § 1.502 to read as follows:

(a) Applications requesting authority (except renewal of license) under Part 13 of this chapter shall be filed in the nearest Field Office of the Commission, the location of which may be found in local directories under the heading "United States Government."

2. Amend § 1.522 by changing the description opposite the FCC Form 505 to read:

FCC Form	Title
505	Application for Citizens Radio License.

3. Add subdivision (iv) to paragraph (b) (2) of § 1.524 to read as follows:

(iv) FCC Form 505 "Application for Citizens Radio License", for consent to transfer of control of corporation holding a Citizens Radio station license.

4. Amend paragraph (b) of § 1.526 to read as follows:

(b) Application for renewal of authorization to operate an amateur station in the Radio Amateur Civil Emergency Service shall be filed on FCC Form 481–1 and shall be submitted concurrently with the application for renewal of the basic amateur radio station license. Application for renewal of Civil Air Patrol radio station authorization shall be submitted on FCC Form 480. Application for renewal on aircraft radio station license shall be submitted on FCC Form 404. Application for renewal of citizens radio station license shall be submitted on FCC Form 505.

5. Amend paragraph (b) of § 1.531 to read as follows:

(b) Application for extension of time within which to construct a station shall be filed on FCC Form 701, except in the Public Safety, Industrial, and Land Transportation Radio Services where FCC Form 400–A shall be used, and in the Citizens Radio Service where the FCC Form 505 shall be used. Such application shall be filed at least 30 days prior to the expiration date of the construction permit if the facts supporting such application for extension are known to the applicant in time to permit such filing. In other cases such applications will be accepted upon a showing satisfactory to the Commission of sufficient reasons for filing within less than 30 days prior to the expiration date. Such applications will be granted upon a specific and detailed showing that the failure to complete was due to causes not under the control of the grantee, or upon a specific and detailed showing of other matters sufficient to justify the extension.

PART 2—FREQUENCY ALLOCATIONS AND RADIO TREATY MATTERS; GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

PART 9—AVIATION SERVICES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

In the matter of allocation of frequencies, amendment of Part 2 of the Commission's rules and regulations; Docket No. 12404; amendment of Part 9 of the Commission's rules and regulations; Docket No. 11866; allocation of frequencies in the bands above 890 Mc.

1. On April 16, 1958, the Commission adopted a notice of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter which was released on April 18, 1958, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on April 23, 1958 (23 F. R. 2698). An errata to the notice was issued on May 1, 1958, and appeared in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 6, 1958 (23 F. R. 3022).

2. This Third Report and Order completes rule making with regard to the Commission's proposals to make the band 1435–1535 Mc available for aeronautical telemetering, and to make changes in the national allocation of the band 108–132 Mc to reflect current and planned usage of portions of this band. Appropriate amendments to Parts 2 and 9 of the Commission's rules are set forth below.

3. The period for filing comments in this docket expired June 16, 1958. No adverse comment was received with respect to the particular proposals implemented by this third report and order. Supporting comments were received from the Aeronautical Flight Test Radio Coordinating Council (AFTRCC) on behalf of fifteen major aircraft manufacturers. In connection with the proposal to make the band 1435–1535 Mc available for Government/non-Government aeronautical telemetering, the AFTRCC participated actively in the recent microwave proceeding before the Commission involving the allocation of frequencies above 890 Mc (Docket 11866) and in that proceeding offered detailed justification for the allocation of additional aeronautical telemetering frequencies below 1660 Mc in order to meet expanding flight test requirements.

4. In its comments directed to the above-captioned proceeding, AFTRCC requested prompt Commission action to make final the proposed allocation of the 1435–1535 Mc band, stating that availability of the band for aeronautical telemetering would contribute directly and importantly to the safety of life and property in the testing of aircraft. AFTRCC further represented that the aircraft manufacturing industry is prepared to proceed promptly with implementation of this band.

5. It should be noted that the allocation of 1435–1535 Mc as ordered herein constitutes a derogation of the existing international table of frequency allocations which designates the entire band 1300–1660 Mc for aeronautical radionavigation in Region 2. This action is justified on the grounds that although the band has been available for approximately ten years, that portion between 1435 and 1535 Mc has never been brought into use; there are now no Commission licensees in that band who would be affected adversely; there is little, if any, probability of interference to other services in Region 2 as a result of this reallocation; assignment of frequencies in the 1435–1535 Mc band for aeronautical telemetry purposes will be subject to no harmful interference being caused to the aeronautical radionavigation service outside the United States; and the reallocation would serve the public interest in view of the recent restrictions placed on non-government telemetry in the band 216–220 Mc (memorandum opinion and order, April 16, 1958, 23 F. R. 2676).

6. Disposition of the remaining proposals contained in Docket 12404 will be made at a later date, or dates, as appropriate.

7. The amendment to Part 9 ordered herein, merely reflects the amendments made to Part 2, and therefore, a separate notice of proposed rule making with respect to the Part 9 change is unnecessary under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act.

8. In view of the foregoing, and pursuant to authority contained in sections 303 (c), (f), and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended: It is ordered, That effective October 15, 1958, Part 2—Frequency Allocations and Radio Treaty Matters; General Rules and Regulations, and Part 9—Aviation Services, be amended as set forth below.

9. It is further ordered, That the AFTRCC Petition for Expedited Action in Docket 11866, dated November 27, 1957, is granted insofar as that Petition requests an additional 100 Mc of spectrum space below 1660 Mc be made available to meet current flight test telemetry requirements.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interprets or applies sec. 303, 48 Stat. 1082, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 303)

Adopted: September 10, 1958.

Released: September 11, 1958.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS, Secretary.

1. Substitute "108–118" for "108–132 (US5)" in column 5 in the Mc portion of the table of frequency allocations, § 2.104 (a) (5).

2. Substitute the bands tabulated below for the 118–132 Mc band shown in columns 7 through 11 in the table of frequency allocations, § 2.104 (a) (5), extending the entries to include columns 5 and 6 with appropriate new US footnote designators in column 5 and to show US allocation changes in column 6.

Band Mc 5	Allocation 6	Band Mc 7	Service 8	Class of station 9	Frequency 10	Nature of service (of stations) 11
118–121.975 (US94) (US95) (US96)	G, NG	118–121.975	Aeronautical mobile.	a. Aeronautical. b. Aircraft.	118.1–121.3 (NG49)	Airdrome control.
					121.5	AERONAUTICAE MOBILE.
					121.6	Aeronautical search and rescue mobile.
					121.7	Aeronautical utility land; aeronautical utility mobile.
					121.8	Do.
					121.9	Do.

3. Delete footnotes US5 and US6 from § 2.104 (a) (5).

4. Add the following new footnotes to § 2.104 (a) (5):

US94 The bands 118.0–121.4 and 123.6–126.8 Mc are for air traffic control communications.

US96 The band 121.65–121.975 Mc is for use by aeronautical utility land and mobile stations, and for air traffic control communications.

US97 The current use of the band 121.975–123.075 Mc by military aircraft is temporary and may continue until they are moved to an appropriate band.

US98 The band 121.975–123.075 Mc is available to CAA aircraft for communications pursuant to flight inspection functions in accordance with the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended.

US99 The band 121.975–123.075 Mc is for use by private aircraft stations. The frequencies 122.8 and 123.0 MC may also be used by aeronautical advisory stations.

US100 The band 123.075–123.55 Mc is for (a) non-Government operations in accordance with the Commission's Rules and (b) for CAA communications incident to flight test activities pertineent to aircraft certification.

US101 The band 123.075–123.55 Mc is for use by flight test and flying school stations.

NG47 The spacing between frequency assignments in this band shall be 50 kc. The first and last assignable frequencies are those indicated in column 10.

5. In the table of frequency allocations, § 2.104 (a) (5), change the entries in the bands shown below between 1400 and 1700 Mc in columns 5 through 11 to read as follows:

Band Mc 5	Allocation 6	Band Mc 7	Service 8	Class of station 9	Frequency 10	Nature of service (of station) 11
1400–1435 (US14)	G, NG	1400–1435	Aeronautical radionavigation.	Radionavigation (including altimeter).
1435–1535 (US107)	G, NG	1435–1535	Aeronautical mobile.	Flight test.		Telemetering land; Telemetering mobile.
1535–1700 (US14)	G, NG	1535–1660	Aeronautical radionavigation.	Radionavigation (including altimeter).

6. Add new footnote (US107) to § 2.104 (a) (5) to read as follows:

US107 The band 1435–1535 Mc is allocated exclusively for aeronautical telemetering.

7. Amend footnote US14 in § 2.104 (a) (5) to read as follows:

US14 In non-military aviation, it is not anticipated that the altimeter function will be performed in the bands 1400–1435 Mc and 1535–1660 Mc except in coordination with other functions required for an aeronautical radionavigation system.

8. Add a new paragraph (c) to § 9.611 to read as follows:

(c) 1435–1535 Mc: This band is available to flight test stations exclusively for aeronautical telemetering.

PART 16—LAND TRANSPORTATION RADIO SERVICES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The Commission having under consideration the provisions of Parts 10, 11 and 16 of its rules, governing the Public Safety, Industrial and Land Transportation Radio Services, respectively, with respect to the procedure to be followed in requesting special temporary authority and with respect to the procedure to be followed in requesting amendment or dismissal of applications before the Commission; and

It appearing, that Part 1 of the Commission's rules, Practice and Procedure, contains provisions with respect to the above matters which are not reflected in the foregoing provisions of Parts 10, 11 and 16 of the Commission's rules; and

It further appearing, that the provisions of Parts 10, 11 and 16 of the Commission's rules in this regard should be amended to reflect the provisions of Part 1 and to be consistent with each other; and

It further appearing, that the amendments ordered herein are procedural in nature and necessary in order to conform Parts 10, 11 and 16 with Part 1 in these respects, and hence that advance notice of rule making is not required under the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act; and that the amendments may be made effective immediately; and

It further appearing, that authority for the amendments herein ordered is contained in sections 4 (i) and 303 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and section 0.341 of the Commission's Statement of Delegation of Authority;

It is ordered, This 11th day of September, 1958, that effective September 19, 1958, Parts 10, 11, and 16 of the Commission's rules are amended as set forth below.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS,
Secretary.

1. Amend § 10.56 (a) to read as follows:

§ 10.56 Request for special temporary authority. (a) In circumstances requiring immediate or temporary use of facilities, request may be made for special temporary authority to install and operate new equipment or to operate licensed equipment in a manner different than that authorized in the station license. Any such request may be in letter form, submitted in duplicate, and signed under oath: Provided, That in cases of emergency involving danger to life or property or due to damage to equipment, such request may be made by telephone or telegraph under the condition that written request, signed under oath, is submitted within ten days from the date of such request. In the event that the Commission finds that such an emergency exists, temporary authorization may be granted for the duration of the emergency. Any such request shall be clear and complete within itself as to the action desired.

2. Amend § 10.62 to read as follows:

§ 10.62 Amendment or dismissal of applications. (a) Any application may be amended upon request of the applicant as a matter of right prior to the time the application is granted or designated for hearing. Each amendment to an application shall be signed, subscribed and submitted in the same manner and with the same number of copies as required for original application.

(b) Any application may, upon written request signed by the applicant or his attorney, be dismissed without prejudice as a matter of right prior to the time the application is granted or designated for hearing.

3. Amend § 11.53 to read as follows:

§ 11.53 Procedure for obtaining special temporary authority. (a) In circumstances requiring immediate or temporary use of facilities, request may be made for special temporary authority to install and operate new equipment or to operate licensed equipment in a manner different than that authorized in the station license. Any such request may be in letter form, submitted in duplicate, and signed under oath: Provided, That in cases of emergency involving danger to life or property or due to damage to equipment, such request may be made by telephone or telegraph under the condition that written request, signed under oath, is submitted within ten days from the date of such request. In the event that the Commission finds that such an emergency exists, temporary authorization may be granted for the duration of the emergency. Any such request shall be clear and complete within itself as to the action desired.

(b) Special temporary authority may also be requested for the purpose of conducting a field survey to determine necessary data in connection with the filing of formal applications for installation of a radio system under this part. In this case the authority, if issued, will be for developmental operation only and the applicable sections of Subpart E of this part shall also apply to the grant.

(c) Request for special temporary authority shall contain the following information:

(1) Name, address, and citizenship status of applicant.

(2) Need for special action, including a description of any emergency or damage to equipment.

(3) Type of operation to be conducted.

(4) Purpose of operation.

(5) Time and date of operation desired.

(6) Class of station and nature of service.

(7) Location of station.

(8) Equipment to be used, specifying manufacturer, model number and number of units.

(9) Frequency(s) desired.

(10) Plate power input to final radio frequency stage.

(11) Type of emission.

(12) Description of antenna to be used, including height.

(d) Except in emergencies involving safety of life or property or due to damage to equipment, request for special temporary authority shall be submitted to the Commission at least ten days prior to the date of proposed operation, or it must be accompanied by a statement of reasons for the delay in submitting such request.

4. Amend § 11.61 to read as follows:

§ 11.61 Amendment or dismissal of applications. (a) Any application may be amended upon request of the applicant as a matter of right prior to the time the application is granted or designated for hearing. Each amendment to an application shall be signed, subscribed and submitted in the same manner and with the same number of copies as required for original application.

(b) Any application may, upon written request signed by the applicant or his attorney, be dismissed without prejudice as a matter of right prior to the time the application is granted or designated for hearing.

5. Amend § 16.53 to read as follows:

§ 16.53 Special temporary authority. (a) In circumstances requiring immediate or temporary use of facilities, request may be made for special temporary authority to install and operate new equipment or to operate licensed equipment in a manner different than that authorized in the station license. Any such request may be in letter form, submitted in duplicate, and signed under oath: Provided, That in cases of emergency involving danger to life or property or due to damage to equipment, such request may be made by telephone or telegraph under the condition that written request, signed under oath, is submitted within ten days from the date of such request. In the event that the Commission finds that such an emergency exists, temporary authorization may be granted for the duration of the emergency. Any such request shall be clear and complete within itself as to the action desired.

(b) Special temporary authority may also be requested for the purpose of conducting a field survey to determine necessary data in connection with the filing of formal applications for installation of a radio system under this part. In this case the authority, if issued, will be for developmental operation only and the applicable sections of Subpart E of this part shall also apply to the grant.

(c) Request for special temporary authority shall contain the following information:

(1) Name, address, and citizenship status of applicant.

(2) Need for special action, including a description of any emergency or damage to equipment.

(3) Type of operation to be conducted.

(4) Purpose of operation.

(5) Time and date of operation desired.

(6) Class of station and nature of service.

(7) Location of station.

(8) Equipment to be used, specifying manufacturer, model number and number of units.

(9) Frequency(s) desired.

(10) Plate power input to final radio frequency stage.

(11) Type of emission.

(12) Description of antenna to be used, including height.

(d) Except in emergencies involving safety of life or property or due to damage to equipment, request for special temporary authority shall be submitted to the Commission at least ten days prior to the date of proposed operation, or it must be accompanied by a statement of reasons for the delay in submitting such request.

6. Amend § 16.61 to read as follows:

§ 16.61 Amendment or dismissal of applications. (a) Any application may be amended upon request of the applicant as a matter of right prior to the time the application is granted or designated for hearing. Each amendment to an application shall be signed, subscribed and submitted in the same manner and with the same number of copies as required for original application.

(b) Any application may, upon written request signed by the applicant or his attorney, be dismissed without prejudice as a matter of right prior to the time the application is granted or designated for hearing.

PART 19—CITIZENS RADIO SERVICE

TYPE ACCEPTANCE OF CRYSTAL-CONTROLLED TRANSMITTERS

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C. on the 10th day of September 1958;

The Commission having under consideration amendment of Part 19, Citizens Radio Service, to permit any manufacturer of a crystal-controlled transmitter to be built for use as a Class C or Class D station, to request "type-acceptance" for such transmitter if he so desires; and

It appearing, that the present rules contained in Part 19 do not require type-acceptance in such cases but neither do they permit the manufacturer to voluntarily request type-acceptance of a transmitter; and

It further appearing, that provision for type-acceptance of transmitting equipment to be manufactured in quantity for use by Class C or Class D citizens radio stations would permit advance determination that such equipment meets the technical specifications governing such stations, as contained in Part 19, and thus would render unnecessary, to a large extent, such determination with respect to the equipment of each individual station; and

It further appearing, that the amendments ordered herein are procedural in nature and grant relief from an existing restriction, and therefore, under the requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act, no notice of proposed rule making is necessary and the rules changes may be made effective immediately; and

It further appearing, that the public interest, convenience, and necessity will be served by the amendments herein ordered, and that authority therefor is contained in sections 4 (i) and 303 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended;

It is ordered, That effective September 17, 1958, §§ 19.43 and 19.44 are amended as set forth below.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interprets or applies sec. 303, 48 Stat. 1082, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 303)

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS,
Secretary.

1. Amend § 19.43 (a) as follows:

§ 19.43 Type-acceptance of equipment. (a) Any manufacturer of a transmitter to be built for use at Class A stations in this service, or any manufacturer of a crystal-controlled transmitter to be built for use at a Class C or Class D station in this service, may request "type-acceptance" for such transmitter following the type-acceptance procedures set forth in Part 2 of this chapter.

2. Amend § 19.44 (d) to read as follows:

(d) Type-approval is not required for Class C or Class D station equipment employing crystal control; however, the manufacturer of a crystal-controlled transmitter to be built for use at a Class C or Class D station may request "type-acceptance" for such transmitter in accordance with the provisions of § 19.43. The licensee of a Class C or Class D station utilizing crystal-controlled equipment may be required to certify that the frequency stability of the transmitter is within the tolerance specified elsewhere in this part.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

PART 7—LIST OF FORMS, PART II INTERSTATE COMMERCE ACT

FORMS OF APPLICATION

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 1, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 22d day of August A. D. 1958.

It appearing that pursuant to section 7 of the Transportation Act of 1958, amending section 203 (b) (6) of the Interstate Commerce Act, and good cause therefor appearing, the use of new forms for applications for motor carrier "grandfather" and "interim" certificates and permits being under consideration:

It is ordered, That application form for Motor Carrier "Grandfather" Certificate or Permit and application form for Motor Carrier "Interim" Certificate or Permit, Forms BOR [1] and BOR 2,[1] which are attached hereto and incorporated into this order, be, and they are hereby prescribed and approved.

It is further ordered, That 49 CFR Part 7, be, and it is hereby, amended by adding § 7.1 and § 7.2 to read as follows:

§ 7.1 BOR 1. Application for Motor Carrier "Grandfather" Certificate or Permit, Form BOR 1, to be used only by common or contract carriers by motor vehicle (or their successors in interest) engaged on May 1, 1958, and continuously since in transportation under section 203 (b) (6).

§ 7.2 BOR 2. Application for Motor Carrier "Interim" Certificate or Permit, Form BOR 2, to be used only by common or contract carriers by motor vehicle (or their sucessors in interest) which subsequent to May 1, 1958, but on or before August 12, 1958, instituted transportation under section 203 (b) (6).

And it is further ordered, That Forms BOR 1 and BOR 2 be filed on or before December 10, 1958, with the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

And it is further ordered, That notice of this order shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy thereof in the office of the Secretary of the Commission, Washington, D. C., and by filing a copy thereof with the Director, Federal Register Division.

(Sec. 204, 203 (b) (6), 49 U. S. C. 304, 303 (b) (6); sec. 7, Pub. Law 85-625)

By the Commission, Division 1.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter B—Hunting and Possession of Wildlife

PART 6—MIGRATORY BIRDS

OPEN SEASONS, BAG LIMITS, AND POSSESSION OF CERTAIN MIGRATORY GAME BIRDS

Basis and purpose. On August 27, 1958, additional amendments to Part 6, Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations were adopted to prescribe hunting seasons and bag and possession limits for the 1958–59 seasons on migratory waterfowl, coots, and Wilson's snipe in the several States comprising the four flyways which form the management of these birds. These amendments were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 29, 1958 (23 F. R. 6717), and will become effective on October 1, 1958.

Included as a part of these amendments were special conditions applicable to the daily bag and possession limits for geese in the State of Washington. In particular, hunters in that State were limited to not more than three of the dark species in such limits and one snow goose. Washington State game officials now advise that their request insofar as the daily bag and possession limit on geese in that State is concerned, was originally in error and that it was their intention to permit the taking of four snow geese.

Accordingly, in compliance with the request of the State of Washington, paragraph (f) Pacific Flyway States of § 6.51 is amended by revising footnote 3 as it appears thereunder to read as follows:

[3] Geese: In the State of Washington the daily bag and possession limit is 4, and throughout all States in the Pacific Flyway the daily bag and possession limit may not include more than 3 of the dark species: Provided, That in the counties of Bear Lake, Caribou, and Bonneville, Idaho; Clark County, Nevada; Mohave and that portion of Yuma County, Arizona, lying north of U. S. Highways numbered 60 and 70; that portion of California Fish and Game District No. 22 (as defined in the California Fish and Game Code) lying north of U. S. Highways numbered 60 and 70; and the entire State of Utah, the daily bag and possession limit may not include more than 1 Canada goose or its subspecies. In those portions of Yuma County, Arizona, and California Fish and Game District No. 22 lying south of U. S. Highways numbered 60 and 70, the season on Canada geese and their subspecies will be closed. Closed season on snow geese in Clark, Freemont, Madison, and Teton Counties, Idaho.

Since the foregoing amendment will serve to relieve existing restrictions erroneously imposed on the taking of snow geese in the State of Washington, and since the season for taking such species commences in that State on October 12, 1958, it would be impracticable and not in the public interest to afford the usual thirty days of publication under the provision of the Administrative Procedure Act. Accordingly, such publication may be waived under the exceptions contained in the provisions of section 4 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act of June 11, 1946, 60 Stat. 238, 5 U. S. C. 1003 (c), and the amendment shall be effective on publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 3, 40 Stat. 755, as amended; 16 U. S. C. 704. Interprets or applies E. O. 10250, 16 F. R. 5385, 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.)

Issued at Washington, D. C., and dated September 11, 1958.

FRED G. AANDAHL,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given in accordance with section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003 (a)) that the Department of Agriculture is considering amending § 27.2 of the Federal Meat Inspection Regulations (9 CFR 27.2 as amended) issued under section 306 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U. S. C. 1306) by adding Nicaragua to the list of countries specified therein from which certain product (meat, meat food product, and meat byproduct) may be imported into the United States as provided in said regulations.

Any person who wishes to submit written data, views, or arguments concerning the proposed amendment may do so by filing them with the Director of the Meat Inspection Division, Agricultural Research Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., within thirty days after the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 11th day of September 1958.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Indian Affairs

[25 CFR Part 163]

ROADLESS AND WILD AREAS ON INDIAN RESERVATIONS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Basis and purpose. Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior by section 463 of the Revised Statutes (25 U. S. C. 2), it is proposed to amend 25 CFR Part 163 as set forth below. The purpose of this amendment is to exclude the 530,000 acres on the Haulapai Reservation known as the Grand Canyon Area from the list of roadless areas heretofore set forth in § 163.1 of Title 25, CFR, so as to facilitate the economic development of the area.

This proposed amendment relates to matters which are exempt from the rule making requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003); however, it is the policy of the Department of the Interior that, whenever practicable, the rule making requirements be observed voluntarily. Accordingly, interested persons may submit in triplicate written comments, suggestions, or objections with respect to the proposed amendment to the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Washington 25, D. C., within thirty days of the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

ROGER ERNST,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

SEPTEMBER 10, 1958.

Section 163.1 of Part 163 is amended to read as follows:

§ 163.1 Roadless areas. A roadless area for the purpose of this part is one which contains no provision for the passage of motorized transportation and which is at least 100,000 acres in forested country or at least 500,000 acres in nonforested country. The following are established as roadless areas on Indian reservations:

Name of area	Reservation	Approximate acreage
Rainbow Bridge	Navajo	1,590,000
Black Mesa	Navajo	820,000
Painted Desert	Navajo	525,000
Black River	San Carlos-Ft. Apache.	325,000

FEDERAL ASSISTANCE IN FINANCING EXPLORATIONS FOR MINERAL RESERVES, EXCLUDING ORGANIC FUELS, IN UNITED STATES, ITS TERRITORIES AND POSSESSIONS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Pursuant to section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U. S. C. 1003), notice is hereby given that under authority contained in Public Law 701, 85th Cong., 2d sess. (72 Stat. 700), it is proposed to issue regulations in the Code of Federal Regulations, as set forth below.

Interested persons may submit, in triplicate, written comments, suggestions, or objections with respect to the proposed regulations to the Director, Office of Minerals Exploration, Washington 25, D. C., within 30 days after the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

FRED A. SEATON,
Secretary of the Interior.

SEPTEMBER 11, 1958.

EXPLANATORY PROVISIONS

Sec.
1. Purpose.
2. Definitions.

APPLICATIONS

3. Form and filing.
4. Scope of application.
5. Action on application.
6. Criteria.

EXPLORATION CONTRACTS

7. Government participation.
8. Eligible minerals or mineral products.
9. Operator's property rights.
10. Allowable costs.
11. Repayment by operator.
12. Interest on amount of Government participation.
13. Limitation on amount of Government participation.
14. Government not obligated to buy.
15. Title to and disposition of property.

EXPLANATORY PROVISIONS

SECTION 1. Purpose. The regulations in this part govern the obtaining of Federal financial assistance in conducting exploration for new or additional mineral reserves excluding organic fuels, in the United States, its territories or possessions.

SEC. 2. Definitions. (a) "Exploration" as used in this part means the search, including related development work, for new or unexplored mineral deposits within a specified area or parcel of ground where geologic conditions favor their occurrence. Exploration using recognized and sound procedures, including standard geophysical and geochemical methods, may be conducted from the surface or underground to obtain pertinent geological and mineralogical information. The work shall not go beyond a reasonable delineation and sampling of a mineral deposit, and shall not include work prosecuted primarily for mining or preparation for mining.

(b) "Operator" means an individual, partnership, corporation, or other legal entity that is party to an exploration contract with the Government.

(c) "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Interior, or his designee.

(d) "Government" and "Federal" mean the United States of America.

(e) "Commercial Sources" means a banking institution.

APPLICATIONS

SEC. 3. Form and filing. An application for Federal financial assistance must be submitted in quadruplicate on forms which may be obtained from and filed with either:

The Office of Minerals Exploration,
Department of the Interior,
Washington 25, D. C.

or, the Office of Minerals Exploration Executive Officers serving the areas indicated below:

Areas Served and Addresses

Region I: Idaho, Montana, Oregon, Washington, and Alaska—OME, South 157 Howard Street, Spokane 4, Washington. Applicants for Alaskan projects may file applications with the United States Bureau of Mines, P. O. Box 2688, Juneau, Alaska, for forwarding to the Executvie Officer, Region I.

Region II: California and Nevada—OME, 1605 Evans Avenue, Reno, Nevada.

Region III: Arizona, Colorado, Nebraska, New Mexico, North Dakota, South Dakota, Utah, and Wyoming—OME, 224 New Customhouse Building, Denver 2, Colorado.

[1] The appendix to this part is not codified. It appears, however, at 3 F. R. 709–711, March 22, 1938.

Region IV: Arkansas, Kansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Oklahoma, and Texas—OME, Room 303, Post Office Building, P. O. Box 431, Joplin, Missouri.

Region V: Alabama, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia, and Wisconsin—OME, Room 13, Post Office Building, Knoxville 2, Tennessee.

SEC. 4. Scope of application. (a) Each application shall fully describe the proposed exploration work, and shall be supported by detailed data as called for by the application form. The Secretary may require the filing of additional information, including financial statements, reports, maps or charts, and exhibits and such physical on-site examination as he deems necessary.

(b) The application must include evidence that funds for the exploration work are unavailable on reasonable terms from commercial sources. The evidence shall include information as to the names of banks (including applicant's bank of account) to which applications were made for loans, the amounts and terms requested, and the reasons why loans were not obtained.

SEC. 5. Action on application. If the application is approved, the Government may enter into an exploration contract with the applicant upon terms and conditions which the Secretary deems necessary and appropriate as set forth in the contract form furnished by the Government.

SEC. 6. Criteria. The following factors will be considered and weighed in passing upon applications:

(a) The strategic importance of the mineral involved and the criticalness thereof.

(b) The geologic probability of a significant discovery.

(c) The estimated cost of the exploration work in relation to the size and grade of the potential deposit.

(d) The plan and method of conducting the exploration work.

(e) The accessibility of the project area.

(f) The background and operating experience of the applicant.

EXPLORATION CONTRACTS

SEC. 7. Government participation. The Government will contribute fifty (50) percent of the total allowable cost of the exploration work specified by the terms of the contract.

SEC. 8. Eligible minerals or mineral products. The following are eligible for financial assistance:

Antimony
Asbestos (strategic)
Bauxite
Beryl
Cadmium
Chromite
Cobalt
Columbium
Copper
Corundum
Diamond (industrial)
Fluorspar
Graphite (crucible flake)
Kyanite (strategic)
Lead
Manganese
Mercury
Mica (strategic)
Molybdenum
Monazite
Nickel
Platinum group metals
Quartz Crystal (piezo-electric)
Rare Earths
Rutile—Bookite
Selenium
Talc (block steatite)
Tantalum
Thorium
Tin Uranium
Zinc

SEC. 9. Operator's property rights. The operator must have and preserve the right to possession of the land (as owner, lessee, or otherwise) for a term at least sufficient to complete the exploration work. (See also paragraph (f), section 11, regarding repayment.) The operator shall devote the land and all existing improvements, facilities, buildings, installations, and appurtenances necessary to the purposes of the exploration work without any allowance for depreciation, depletion, or use thereof.

SEC. 10. Allowable costs. (a) The Government, to the extent provided in the exploration contract, will contribute to:

(1) The necessary, reasonable and direct actual costs of performing the exploration work, including the costs of: labor, supervision, and consultants; operating materials, supplies and equipment; initial rehabilitation or repair of existing building, installations, fixtures, and operating equipment; construction of buildings, fixed improvements, and installations; repairs and maintenance of operating equipment; analytical work, accounting, payroll and sales taxes, and employees' liability insurance; payments by the operator to independent contractors; and such other necessary, reasonable, and direct actual costs as may be approved by the Government in the course of work; and

(2) The fixed unit costs agreed upon by the operator and the Government in terms of units of work to be performed (per foot of drifting, per foot of drilling, etc.) in lieu of actual costs.

(b) The Government will not contribute to: costs of acquiring land, or any cost incident to right of possession; costs of general overhead, corporate management, interest and taxes (other than payroll and sales taxes); insurance (other than employees' liability insurance), damages to persons or property (other than authorized repair to or replacements of equipment or other property used in the work); and costs incurred before the date of the contract.

SEC. 11. Repayment by the operator. (a) If the Secretary considers that, as a result of the exploration work, mineral or metal production from the area covered by the contract may be possible, he shall so certify in writing to the operator within the time specified in the contract.

(b) When the Secretary determines not to certify, he shall promptly so notify the operator provided the operator has completed all obligations under the contract.

(c) The operator shall pay the Government a royaty on all minerals or metals produced from the land described in the contract:

(1) Irrespective of any certification of possible production—from the date of the contract to the date of notice that certification will not be made, or until the total amount contributed by the Government with interest is fully repaid, whichever occurs first; or

(2) Irrespective of any certification of possible production—if the Secretary, deeming it necessary and in the public interest, enters into an agreement to provide for royalty payments.

(3) If a certification of possible production is issued—for a period of ten years (or other period fixed by the contract not exceeding 25 years) from the date of the contract, or until the total amount contributed by the Government, with interest, is fully repaid, whichever occurs first.

(d) The Government's royalty shall be five (5) percent of the "gross proceeds" (including any bonuses, premiums, allowances, or other benefits) from the production sold, in the form sold (ore, concentrate, metal, or equivalent) at the point of delivery (the f. o. b. point); except, that charges of the buyer arising in the regular course of business, and shown as deductions on the buyer's settlement sheets, on account of the cost of treatment processes performed by the buyer, sampling and assaying to determine the value of the production sold, and freight paid by the buyer (not the operator) to a carrier shall be allowed as deductions in arriving at the "gross proceeds" as that term is used in this part. Any costs of "treatment processes," sampling or assaying, or transportation performed or paid by the operator or by anyone other than the buyer are not deductible in arriving at the "gross proceeds" as that term is used in this part. The term "treatment processes", as used in this part, means those processes (such as milling, concentrating, smelting, refining, or equivalent) applied to the crude ore or other production after it is extracted from the ground to put it into a commercially marketable form, excluding fabricating or manufacturing.

(e) If any production (ore, concentrate, metal, or equivalent) remains unsold or is not used by the operator in integrated manufacturing or fabricating operations (for instance, if it is stockpiled) after the lapse of six months from the date it is extracted from the ground, the Government, at its option, may require the computation and payment of its royalty on the value of such production in the form (ore, concentrate, metal, or equivalent) it is in at the time the Government elects to exercise its option. If any production is used by the operator in integrated manufacturing of fabricating operations, the Government's royalty on such production shall be computed on the value thereof in the form in which and at the time when it is so used. "Value" as used in this part means what is or would be gross income from mining operations for percentage depletion purposes in Federal income tax determination or the market value, whichever is greater.

(f) (1) To secure the payment of the Government's percentage royalty, the contract shall provide for a lien upon the land, upon any production therefrom, and upon any interests in the land other than the operator's interest. However, the Secretary may accept the undertaking of a surety company or third person in lieu of a lien upon interests in the land other than the operator's interest. In circumstances where the Secretary deems it to be in the public interest, the requirement for a lien or other undertaking concerning interests in land, other than the lien upon the operator's interest, may be omitted from the Contract.

(2) If the operator is not the producer (for example, if the operator transfers or does not retain his interest in production or in the land), the operator shall remain liable for the payment of the Government's royalty.

(g) If, in any particular case, the Secretary finds that it would be more economical or practicable to compute the Government's royalty upon some basis other than "gross proceeds" or "value", as those terms are used in this part, or upon the production in some form other than that in which it is sold, held, or used in integrated operations, he may agree with the operator, either in the original exploration project contract or by an amendment thereof, upon some other basis of computation.

(h) The regulations in this part shall not be construed as imposing any obligation on the operator to engage in any mining or production operations.

(i) The Secretary may modify and adjust the terms and conditions of any contract to reduce the amount and terms of any royalty payment when he shall determine that such action is necessary and in the public interest.

SEC. 12. Interest on amount of Government participation. (a) Interest compounded annually shall accrue from the date Federal funds are made available until the period specified for royalty payment expires or until the amount of Federal funds contributed, including interest, is fully repaid by royalty on production.

(b) The rate of interest shall be fixed by the Secretary at a rate not less than the rate the Department of the Interior would be required to pay if it borrowed from the Treasury, plus a two percent interest charge in lieu of the actual cost to the Government of administering the contract.

SEC. 13. Limitation on the amount of Government participation. No single contract shall authorize Government participation in excess of $250,000.

SEC. 14. Government not obligated to buy. Nothing in this part or in any contract entered into pursuant to this part shall be construed as imposing any obligation on the Government to purchase any materials mined or produced from the property which is the subject of such contract.

SEC. 15. Title to and disposition of property. All facilities, buildings, fixtures, equipment, or other items, or groups of items (such as pipe, rail, steel, etc.) costing more than $50.00 each paid for or purchased with funds contributed jointly by the operator and the Government, although title may be taken in the name of the operator, shall belong to the operator and the Government jointly, in proportion to their respective contribution and the exploration project contract shall make suitable provisions for their disposal for the joint account of the operator and the Government.

SOUTH COUNTY BROADCASTING CO.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re application of Jack C. Salera tr/as South County Broadcasting Company, Wickford, Rhode Island; Docket No. 12593, File No. BP-11383; for construction permit.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices at Washington, D. C., on the 10th day of September, 1958;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned application of Jack C. Salera, tr/as South County Broadcasting Company, for a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station to operate on 1370 kilocycles with a power of 500 watts, daytime only, at Wickford, Rhode Island;

It appearing that, except as indicated by the issues specified below, the applicant is legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified to operate his proposed station but that the proposed antenna and ground system would not produce the minimum radiation required by § 3.189 of the Commission's rules and that, due to interference which would be received from Station WFEA, Manchester, New Hampshire (1370 kc, 5 kw, DA-1, U), the proposed operation may not be in compliance with § 3.28 (c) of the Commission's rules in that the population within the proposed normally protected primary service area which would be affected by interference from WFEA may be greater than the ten percent premitted under the provisions of § 3.28 (c); and

It further appearing that, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the instant applicant was advised by letter dated June 4, 1958, of the aforementioned deficiencies and that the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of the application would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing that, by letter dated August 22, 1958, the applicant requested that his application be designated for hearing; and

It further appearing that the applicant requests a waiver of § 3.28 (c) of the Commission rules on the ground that no other frequency appears to be available for use in providing this first service to Wickford, Rhode Island; but that the Commission, on the basis of the information submitted by the applicant, is unable to determine whether circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of said section; and

It further appearing that the Commission, after consideration of the foregoing, is of the opinion that a hearing on the instant application is necessary;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-captioned application is designated for hearing, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the proposed operation and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine whether the proposed antenna system would meet the minimum efficiency requirements of § 3.189 of the Commission's rules.

3. To determine whether, because of interference received, the proposed operation would comply with § 3.28 (c) of the Commission's rules; and if compliance with § 3.28 (c) is not achieved, whether circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of said section of the rules.

4. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, whether a grant of the instant application would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity.

It is further ordered, That, to avail himself of the opportunity to be heard, the applicant herein, pursuant to § 1.140 of the Commission's rules, in person or by attorney, shall, within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission, in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

Released: September 12, 1958.

STANDARD BROADCASTING CORP. AND CLIFFORD C. HARRIS

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of Standard Broadcasting Corporation, Oswego, New York; Docket No. 12594, File No. BP-11255; Clifford C. Harris, Oswego, New York; Docket No. 12595, File No. BP-11476; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 10th day of September, 1958;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned applications of the Standard Broadcasting Corporation and Clifford C. Harris, each for a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station to operate at Oswego, New York, on 1440 kilocycles, daytime only, with power of 500 watts and one kilowatt, respectively;

It appearing that, except as indicated by the issues specified below, both applicants are legally, financially, technically and otherwise qualified, to operate their proposed stations but that the operation of the proposals would result in mutually destructive interference; that the proposed operations would cause interference to Station WJJL, Niagara Falls, New York (1440 kc, 1 kw, day); and

It further appearing that, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the subject applicants were advised by letters dated April 2 and June 13, 1958, of the aforementioned deficiencies and that the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of either application would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing that both applicants filed a timely reply to the Commission's letter; and

It further appearing that, by letter dated April 26, 1958, the licensee of Station WJJL expressed an intention of participating in a hearing on the above-described applications; and

It further appearing that the Commission, after consideration of the above, is of the opinion that a hearing is necessary;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from the proposed operations and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine whether either of the proposed operations would cause objectionable interference to Station WJJL, Niagara Falls, New York, or any other existing standard broadcast stations, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

3. To determine which of the operations proposed in the above-captioned applications would better serve the public interest in the light of the evidence adduced under the foregoing issues and the record made with respect to the significant differences between the applicants as to:

(a) The background and experience of each of the above-named applicants to own and operate the proposed stations.

(b) The proposals of each of the above-named applicants with respect to the management and operation of the proposed stations.

(c) The programming service proposed in each of the above-mentioned applications.

4. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, which of the applications should be granted.

It is further ordered, That the Niagara Frontier Broadcasting Corporation, licensee of Station WJJL, is made a party to the proceeding.

It is further ordered, That, to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the applicants and party respondent herein, pursuant to § 1.140 of the Commission's rules, in person or by attorney, shall within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission, in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

It is further ordered, That the issues in the above entitled proceeding may be enlarged by the Examiner, on his own motion or on petition properly filed by a party to the proceeding and upon sufficient allegations of fact in support thereof, by the addition of the following issue:

To determine whether the funds available to the applicant will give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in the application will be effectuated.

Released: September 12, 1958.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-16230]

NATURAL GAS STORAGE COMPANY OF ILLINOIS

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED REVISED TARIFF SHEETS AND PROVIDING FOR HEARING

SEPTEMBER 10, 1958.

Natural Gas Storage Company of Illinois (Storage Company) on August 11, 1958, tendered for filing First Revised Sheets Nos. 4, 11 and 12 and Second Revised Sheets Nos. 10 and 20 to its FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, proposing (1) modification of its Storage Service Rate Schedule S-1 to reduce the annual volume that may be withdrawn from storage by any customer from 60 times the maximum daily Withdrawal Quantity to 30 times such quantity and (2) modifications in the General Terms and Conditions of the tariff to revise the procedure for allocating between customers any additional capacity which is to be made available.

Storage Company states that the reduction in annual withdrawals from 60 to 30 times maximum daily withdrawal represents an estimate of the amount which can be withdrawn in an extreme winter.

Northern Illinois Gas Company, one of Storage Company's largest customers, objects to the proposed changes in Rate Schedule S-1 and suggests that all of the tendered tariff sheets be suspended.

The proposed changes in the foregoing revised tariff sheets tendered by Storage Company have not been shown to be justified and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest, and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications, and services contained in Storage Company's FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, as proposed to be amended by First Revised Sheets Nos. 4, 11 and 12 and Second Revised Sheets Nos. 10 and 20, and that said proposed revised tariff sheets and the rates contained therein be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter provided.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held on a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications, and services contained in Storage Company's FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, as proposed to be amended by First Revised Sheets Nos. 4, 11 and 12 and Second Revised Sheets Nos. 10 and 20.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, Storage Company's proposed First Revised Sheets Nos. 4, 11 and 12 and Second Revised Sheets Nos. 10 and 20, are each hereby suspended and their use deferred until February 11, 1959, and until such further time as they are made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

By the Commission.

[SEAL] JOSEPH H. GUTRIDE,
Secretary.

IOWA POWER AND LIGHT CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

SEPTEMBER 11, 1958.

Take notice that on September 5, 1958, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission pursuant to section 204 of the Federal Power Act by Iowa Power and Light Company ("Applicant"), a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Iowa and doing business in said State with its principal business office at Des Moines, Iowa, seeking an order authorizing the issuance of not to exceed $10,000,000 of unsecured promissory notes. The aforesaid notes are to be issued from time to time during the next 10 months maturing within 90 days and in any event on or before June 30, 1959, to commercial banking institutions to evidence loans made by said banks under established lines of credit. The unsecured notes are to bear interest at prime rates in force from time to time (currently 3½% per annum). The funds received from the bank loans will be used by Applicant to obtain temporary financing of its construction program, through short-term borrowings from commercial banking institutions, pending receipt of proceeds from permanent financing.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should, on or before the 26th day of September 1958, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., petitions or protests in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). The application is on file and available for public inspection.

FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS, INC.

ORDER APPROVING APPLICATION FOR EXEMPTION

In the matter of the application of Financial Institutions, Inc. under section 4 (c) (6) of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (Docket No. BHC-45).

On July 29, 1958, the Hearing Examiner issued his report and recommended decision in the above-entitled proceeding, recommending to the Board that it grant the application of Financial Institutions, Inc. for a determination that Geneva Shareholders, Inc., Geneva, New York, and activities thereof are of the kind described in section 4 (c) (6) of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U. S. C. 1843) and section 5 (b) of the Board's Regulation Y (12 CFR 222.5 (b)) so as to make it unnecessary for the prohibitions of section 4 of the Act with respect to retention of shares in nonbanking organizations to apply in order to carry out the purposes of the Act. The time for filing with the Board exceptions and brief to the recommended decision of the Hearing Examiner expired without any exceptions or brief having been filed.

Pursuant to section 4 (c) (6) of the Bank Holding Company Act and section 5 (b) of the Board's Regulation Y (12 CFR 222.5 (b)), and on the basis of the entire record, the Board hereby adopts the findings of fact, conclusions of law, and the recommendations of the Hearing Examiner as set forth in the attached copy of his Report and Recommended Decision,[1] and makes the following order:

It is hereby ordered, That the request of Financial Institutions, Inc., under section 4 (c) (6) of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 for a determination exempting its shares in Geneva Shareholders, Inc. from application of the prohibitions of section 4 (a) (2) of the said Act shall be, and hereby is, approved.

This 10th day of September, 1958.

By order of the Board of Governors.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 24A-1197]

FLORIDA NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT CORP.

ORDER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDING EXEMPTION, STATEMENT OF REASONS THEREFOR, AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

SEPTEMBER 10, 1958.

I. Florida National Development Corporation, 438 Mercantile Bank Building, Miami Beach, Florida (formerly known as Glen Briar Holding Corporation, and hereinafter referred to as the "issuer") filed with the Commission on August 7, 1958, a notification on Form 1-A, offering circular and other exhibits relating to a proposed public offering of 300,000 shares of its 1¢ par value common stock at $1.00 per share for an aggregate offering of $300,000, for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the provisions of section 3 (b) of said Act and Regulation A promulgated thereunder.

II. The Commission has reasonable grounds to believe that:

A. The terms and conditions of the Regulation have not been complied with in that:

1. The aggregate offering price of all securities proposed to be offered under the notification, plus all other securities proposed to be issued to each Director pursuant to options, exceeds $300,000, the maximum permitted under the Regulation by Rule 254.

2. The issuer failed to disclose in Item 3 of Form 1-A and in the offering circular that one MacElrod was a promoter and/or predecessor of the issuer.

3. The issuer failed to disclose in Item 6 of the notification whether any person specified in paragraph (d) of Rule 262 has been convicted of any crime or offense specified in subparagraph (1) thereof; and failed to give the information required by Item 6 as to any partner, director or officer of the underwriters.

4. The issuer failed to disclose in Item 9 (a) (iv) of the notification names of the persons to whom 100,000 shares of its common stock were issued within one year prior to the filing of the notification.

5. The issuer failed to file under Item 11 of the notification the provisions of the governing instruments defining the right of holders of its 1¢ par value common stock as required by paragraph (a) of this item, and a certification by the underwriters as required by paragraph (c), as amended.

6. The offering circular filed as an exhibit to the notification fails to include the following information required by Schedule I;

a. The cost to promoters and other insiders of any property or services for which any payment by or for the account of the issuer has been or is to be made as required by paragraph 9 (c).

b. Profit and loss statements and analyses of surplus for the periods specified in subparagraph (a) (2) of paragraph 11.

B. The offering circular is misleading within the meaning of Rule 261 (a) (2), particularly with respect to, among other things,

1. The failure to disclose in the offering circular whether the offering price to the public of $1.00 per share represents the market price, whether it is based on earnings, or whether such price is based on an arbitrary determination.

2. The failure to disclose in the offering circular the exact amount paid for the issuer's properties, the nature of the consideration given for the properties, whether promoters or other insiders have any direct or indirect interests in such properties or in any material transactions involving them to which the issuer or any of its predecessors or affiliates was a party, and whether such properties were acquired by the issuer in arm's length transactions.

3. The failure to disclose in the offering circular what considerations, if any, were given by the issuer to those officers, past and present, for the transfer by them of certain brokerage commissions, and for the transfer of certain brokerage commissions receivable in the amount of $223,750.

4. The failure to disclose in the offering circular the manner in which the obligation of the Monte Carlo Hotel Corporation, as evidenced by its note, and the brokerage commissions of Playas Del Golfo S. A., both of which obligations are due the issuer, arose, the financial condition of these obligors, the nature and amounts of consideration given by the issuer therefor, and the amounts to be received by the issuer on these obligations.

5. The failure to disclose in the offering circular the date of the note in the amount of $759,660 and the mortgage on the issuer's properties, the name of the maker, and the circumstances surrounding the transaction in which the note and mortgage were issued.

6. The failure to disclose in the offering circular, as to the option on 1860 acres of land, the date the option was given, the name of the optionee, whether such option is still in effect (the exercise date of June 25, 1958 having passed), whether payment is to be received in cash or other considerations, the location and description of the land, and the terms under which the land may be purchased.

7. The failure to adequately disclose in the offering circular the transactions in which the issuer's no par stock was originally issued and thereafter converted into 1¢ par value common stock, the services rendered in consideration for the issuance of such stock, the effect of the issuance of par value stock on the issuer's paid-in capital, the percentage of securities which will be held by the insider group and the public and the respective amount of cash paid therefor by such group and the public.

8. The use of financial statements presented on the stationery of certified public accountants implying that such statements have been certified when, in fact, the examination was limited in scope and no opinion was given; and further, accountants are not entitled to practice as such in the State of Florida.

9. The inclusion in the balance sheet as an asset, contrary to generally accepted accounting principles, of commissions receivable in the sum of $223,750 under the contingencies involved.

10. The failure to furnish adequate explanatory notes to the financial statements with respect to numerous specified amounts shown therein.

C. The offering, by the use of the offering circular as filed, would be made in violation of section 17 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 261 (a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under Regulation A be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given that any person having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for a hearing within 30 days herefrom; that within 20 days after receipt of such request, the Commission will, or at any time upon its own motion may, set the matter down for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension should be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; and that notice of the time and place of said hearing will be promptly given by the Commission. If no hearing is requested and none is ordered by the Commission, the order shall become permanent on the 30th day after its entry and shall remain in effect unless or until it is modified or vacated by the Commission.

By the Commission.
